IT is but a tardy act of reparation to a scholar who was neglected during life, and has been imperfectly appreciated in the century and a half which has elapsed since his death, for an Oxford Historical Society to select as one of its earliest issues a portion of the writings of THOMAS HEARNE. We should have to go very far back, and to come down to our own day, in order to find many names worthy to be placed beside his on the roll of Oxford alumni who have done distinguished service to the cause of historical research. To supersede those numerous editions of the sources of English history which HEARNE gave to the world in a too brief lifetime of fifty-seven years, the resources of the Treasury, with a large staff of learned specialists at its disposal, have been employed for a generation past. HEARNE'S Remarks and Collections, of which the first instalment is now before us, contain fragments of the materials of which he afterwards made such excellent use, beside memoranda on any subject that attracted his attention at the moment. It may be readily conceded that the words of Bentley—surely as magnificent a eulogy as was ever pronounced on one scholar by another—are not in their full sense applicable to our antiquary:—The very dust of his writings is gold. But we certainly claim that with the dust very much gold is mingled. That delightful book Reliquiae Hearnianae, originally printed in a small edition by Dr. Philip Bliss (Oxford, 2 vols. 8vo., 1857), and afterwards published with additional matter in 3 vols. (London, 1869), hardly professes to contain more than a series of illustrative selections. It may safely be said that until these Diaries of HEARNE'S (to give them a title which he himself rejected), together with his extensive Correspondence, are rendered accessible to students in a more complete form than hitherto, the history of the Nonjurors, and that of the Universities in the earlier portion of the eighteenth century, cannot be finally written. And if it be objected that the history of the Nonjurors is of purely antiquarian interest, we need only point to the numerous questions concerning the relations between the ecclesiastical and civil power which agitate men's minds at the present day, and which Sancroft and Kettlewell, Dodwell and Hickes, Collier and Ken, had thought out and illustrated with various learning, nearly two centuries ago. As a proof of the importance, in the annals of English and indeed of European scholarship, of the body to which HEARNE belonged, it is only necessary to recall the words of one whose singular competence to judge will be universally admitted. Professor John E. B. Mayor writes, in the Preface to the Life of Ambrose Bonwicke:—Perhaps . . . the time has come when one may venture, without offence or loss of intellectual caste, to challenge the vulgar verdict upon the Nonjurors ; and may at least call on their censors to name any English sect as eminent, in proportion to its numbers, alike for solid learning, and for public as well as private virtues. There is yet another subject on which these Collections must be most carefully consulted, and that is one the importance and interest of which such a Society as ours is scarcely likely to underrate—I mean the personnel of the Oxford of HEARNE's day. The Athenae Oxonienses ends shortly before 1700; this work takes up the thread a few years later, and, at all events until Dr. Rawlinson's Continuation of Wood's great work appears in print, must remain our chief authority on Oxford men and manners in the first half of the century. There is indeed no Laud or Fell dominating the Oxford with which we are dealing; but even this first volume brings us into contact with many men whose names are part of the annals of scholarship,—such as Mill, Hody, and Potter; Halley, Gregory, and Hudson; Wanley, Gibson, and Tanner. There is much original work; the spirit of research, the newborn spirit of criticism, is abroad.

This is not the place to give a full biography of HEARNE; that must be done when the 'Collections' are completely published, and when the editor who has succeeded to me and my imperfect work has only to gather up the scattered references in the Diary, and to piece them together with what we know from HEARNE's Autobiography and from other sources of the details of this laborious and well-spent life. It must suffice here to recapitulate very briefly a few of the leading facts. The Diarist was the son of George Hearne, parish-clerk of White Waltham, Berks, and was born in July 1678, so that when the Diary opens he was just completing his twenty-seventh year. On account of his boyish promise, he was sent to Bray School at the suggestion of Mr. Francis Cherry, of Shottesbrooke, who in 1695 took him into his own house, and, in concert with Henry Dodwell, superintended his education. He was entered in December 1695 a 'Batteler' of Edmund Hall, of which Dr. Mill was then Principal, and Dr. White Kennett, Rector of Shottesbrooke, Vice-Principal. While still an undergraduate, he assisted Mill, Grabe, and other scholars with collations of MSS., transcripts, &c.; several instances are mentioned in the present volume. After taking his B.A. degree in 1699 he was urged to undertake mission work in Maryland, together with the general supervision of the libraries of that province ; but his inclination to the study of Antiquities was already too strong, and he accepted the office of Assistant Keeper under Dr. Hudson, then Bodley's Librarian. In 1703 he took the degree of Master of Arts, and refused the offer of a chaplaincy at Corpus Christi and at All Souls Colleges. HEARNE'S appointment at the Bodleian was therefore his only official post when he made the first entry in the Diary on July 4, 1705. It should be added that, beside Indexes to L'Estrange's Translation of Josephus (1702), to Milles' edition of Cyril (1703), to Dr. Edwards' Preservative against Socinianism and to Clarendon's History of the Rebellion (1704), he had published the following works :—

- (1) Reliquiae Bodleianae ; or, some Genuine Remains of Sir Thomas Bodley (London, 1703).
- (2) C. Plinii Caecilii Secundi Epistolae et Panegyricus (Oxford, 1703).
- (3) Eutropii Breviarium Historiae Romanae (Oxford, 1703).
- (4) Ductor Historicus. Vol. I. ed. 2. [part only] (London, 1705).
 " " Vol. II. (Oxford, 1704).
- (5) M. Juniani Justinii Historiarum ex Trogo Pompeio Libri XLIV.
 (Oxford, 1705).

HEARNE was at this time accumulating materials for his edition of Livy, which was published at Oxford in 1708. With regard to the state of public affairs when the Diary opens, the reader need only be reminded that the great victory of Blenheim in the previous year had consolidated the Whig party; that a General Election took place in the spring of 1705, and that, when the new Parliament met, the Whigs found themselves in possession of a working majority.

I must, in conclusion, indicate in a few words what the reader will find in these pages. They contain the substance of thirteen only out of the 145 MS. volumes in which the Collections are comprised. I have sought to include all the matter of the original which seemed to me in any way interesting, and to summarise what was not worth printing in full; but I am conscious of a few omissions which may furnish a portion of the material for a supplementary volume. It is only fair to say that this first volume must be the least interesting of the series. As we proceed, the entries become more elaborate and less of the nature of hasty jottings, while HEARNE is continually advancing in literary repute and enlarging the circle of his literary acquaintance. I have adopted a uniform mode of printing the date of each entry; but with this exception I have made it a rule to enclose in square brackets every word that is not in the original. To save space, thick dashes (—) have been employed to denote a change of topic or of paragraph. It will of course be understood that the notes which are not bracketed are the author's own. As regards the Correspondence, an abstract of which is printed at the foot of the page, it has not been thought necessary to give the precise reference in each case, as the Letters—with the exception of those of Dr. Thomas Smith to HEARNE (Bodl. MS. Smith 127)—are all bound up in one Series (Bodl. MSS. Rawl. Letters), and any particular letter can be readily found by consulting the excellent Slip Index, arranged in chronological order, which has been provided by the Society for the purposes of this edition.

Finally, I must ask the kind indulgence of my critics, on account of the many difficulties—some personal, some inherent in the nature of the work—with which I have had to contend in its execution. They cannot be more dissatisfied with the result than myself—and this remark applies especially to the Notes, where I have found it necessary to confine myself almost entirely to identifying the persons mentioned, and to indicating the most obvious sources of information. I have not been able, for various reasons, to make by any means an adequate use of the manuscript treasures of the Bodleian, and have been obliged too often to content myself with the books bearing on the subject to be found in my own modest library. But one duty yet remains, and that a wholly pleasant one, viz. to return my warmest acknowledgments to my friends Mr. T. W. Jackson, M.A., Fellow and Tutor of Worcester College, and Mr. F. Madan, M.A., Sub-librarian of the Bodleian, and late Fellow and Lecturer of Brasenose College, who have given me constant help and sympathy, and have supplied me with much valuable information on special points. I wish that I had been able to draw even more freely on the stores of knowledge which they are ever so ready to place at the disposal of other workers. Nor must I forget to express my thanks to Mr. George Parker, of the Bodleian, for his accurate transcription, and for his assistance in the compilation of the temporary Index to this volume.

Vettius Valens collected his Anthologia from divers old Authors, now lost, w^{ch} makes it so much the more valuable. D^r. Bernard transcrib'd part of it for Huetius, who promis'd to print y^e whole Work at Paris: But w^t hinder'd him I know not.

July 4, 1705 (Wed.). Mr. Wm. Joyner told me that Mr. Selden writ y^e Life of Fryer Bacon. But he cannot tell where 'tis now. At y^e same time he gave large Encomiums of Mr. Milton: but denies that he died a Papist. — L^d. Wharton and L^d. Godolphin have differ'd very much: so that the latter has promis'd to come over to the High Church Party. Upon 10 w^{ch} Account the L^{ds}. Rochester and Northumberland have had some private Discourse with the Queen. — Vettius Valens, p. 153, writes an Epistle to one Marcus. Quære who this should be? Mr. D. does not think him to be Marcus Antoninus. The same Marcus is mention'd again in p. 138. The whole work seems to be writ to him. Mr. D. thinks he liv'd in Antoninus Pius's time, as being several times mention'd by him. The last note being the 21st year of his Reign. See p. 146 a. Scaliger in his Notes upon Eusebius believes he flourish'd in y^e Reign of Adrian. Mr. Dodwell being writing a Book concerning the Immortality of the Soul may have occasion to mention his Age, and to insert a Frag- 20 ment out of him, there being a Passage to his Purpose. — Salmasius was a Person who did not consider very accurately what he writ; being more addicted to Writing and the laborious part of Learning, than true Study, w^{ch} consists in a due consideration of w^t one reads. — The Translation into English of the first six Books of Euclid, with Annotations upon them, lately Printed, was done by S^r. Charles Scarburgh, and not Mr. Edm. Scarburgh his Son, who hath put his name to them. For 'tis well known that he is not able to do any thing of this kind, or any thing else relating to Learning. — Dr. Mill's² Testam^t one of the best Books of 30 this kind ever yet done. He has now (July 6th 1705.) been eight years or thereab^{ts} about his Prolegomena. Wⁿ I first came to settle at Oxon, viz.

² Yet he was not so accurate in collating the most ancient Copies as could have been wished.

A^o 1696, he was then upon his Appendix, & I help'd him compare several MSS^{ts} for that end.

Sr. Geo. Mackenzy p. 8 of his Jus Regium tells us that Buchanan's Book De jure Regni apud Scotos was condemn'd by the Parliament of Scotland in Anno 1584, w^{ch} he says was the very first Parliament y^t ever sate after that Book was printed: w^{ch} is a great Error, there being a Parliament in 1581, & the first Edition was in 1580, if not 10 1579. — I am told that Dr. John Edwards of Cambridge, Author of The Preacher, (w^{ch} some say, tho' I think otherwise, is a very trite, silly Book) has assum'd to himself the Honour of being Author of The Preservative against Socinianism, written by Dr. Jonathan Edwards, Principal of Jesus College in Oxford. — A. Popma collected Fragmenta Sallustij, printed in a separte Book from his Fragmenta veterum Historicorum Latinorum. I have not yet seen it — I am told of a 2^d Edition of Mr. Dodwell's Book against Occasional Conformity, w^{ch} I have not yet observ'd. (nec quidem constat talem prodij[s]e Editionem.) — Amongst Mr. Selden's MSS^{ts} in the Publick Library is a very old one, (Seld. Supra 20 num. 12.) written above 700 years since, containing several Things of Philo, some pieces whereof being commentaries upon the Commandments, were never yet printed. See there fol. 59, and compare it wth the Printed Copies. Mr. Grabe has a fair Transcript w^{ch} he has communicated to Mr. Dodwell². — Amongst the Baroccian MSS^{ts} is a Comment upon Aristides. Mr. Bergerus, lately admitted a Student in the Publick Library, (being Professor of Poetry in the University of Witttemberg) is taking a Copy of it wth a Design to make it publick in a new Edition of Aristides, w^{ch} I am inform'd he intends to put forth.

July 7 (Sat.). Some Corrections of Livy in Pareus's Lexicon Criticum.
 30 — Lately found at Wells the Hair of a Woman very fresh and firm, tho' she had been buried above 140 Years, as appears from the Date.

July 8 (Sun.). Morhofius in his Polyhistor has given but a very indifferent Character of our English Authors, especially such as have written in Latin. He finds several Faults in Milton, tho' it is well known that his Latin is much better yⁿ Salmasius's. — I am inform'd that Morhofius's Discourse³ De Livij Patavinitate is judiciously written. I have not yet seen it. Mr. Berger has a Discourse upon y^e same subject not yet publish'd. — Sr James Astrey tells me he was imploy'd by the University of Oxoⁿ to buy for y^m Dr. Isaac Vossius's Study of 40 Books, & y^t upon their Refusal to give y^e Price w^{ch} was demanded, Grævius procur'd the most considerable.

resided at Nice, whither the Patriarchate had been translated upon the Taking of Constantinople by the Latins.

July 9 (Mon.) Just publish'd The Memorial of the Church of England, a Pamphlet in 4^{to}, wherein divers intrigues of a great Minister of State are discovered, and the Designs of the Whigs for destroying the Church are manifested. — St James Astrey tells me that Morhofius's Posthumous Works are lately publish'd, & That his tract de Livij Patavinitate is reprinted amongst y^m. — In M^r. Badger's Copy of Aldus's Ed. of Pliny's Epp. is a MS^t Epistle concerning Pliny of P. Beroaldus ad Jo. Vectimbergensem. The Beginning Epistolicam Scriptionem, quæ longe ¹⁰ omnium utilissima est—with a Poem. — He has also a curious edition of Phavorinus's Lexicon in a small neat Letter w^{ch} I never saw before. There is an Index at the End, w^{ch} I think is in y^e other Editions. He likewise shew'd me a Lexicon to the Greek Testament done by M^r. W^m. Dugard, much after y^e same manner with Smidius's Concordance.

July 10 (Tu.). Cassiodorus de Reyna Author of y^e Spanish Version of y^e Bible. — Remember to consult upon Livy Fabrettus contra Gronovium & Gronovius contra Fabrettum. Also Scheffer de re vehiculari (where are Emendations) . . . Boxhornius . . . & Lucius Florus by Freinshemius. . . — Concerning K. Ælfred's Works relating to Learning see Dr. 20 *Tho. But that the ship being taken by the French he lost it, with another Gr. Printed Book in Folio, containing Simeon Thessalonicensis de Statu Ecclesiæ Græcæ. — Remember to put Dr. Smith in mind to ask Dr. Lister to send to the Publick Library his new Edition of Apicius de Opsonijs.

Mr. Timothy Nourse, who dyed July 21st 1699. gave to y^e Bodlejan Library by his last Will and Testament, as followeth, in these Words:

Item, I give to the Bodlejan Library in Oxford All my Collection of Coines and Medalls whether of Gold Silver or Copper, being in all about Five or Six Hundred Pieces, in thankful Remembrance of the Obligations I have to that famous University.

This was faithfully transcribed out of the said Will Gould peeces 2, White 121, Copper 409, In all 532. A Brass Buckle.

That w^{ch} is above Written is a Copy of the Paper sent by Mr. Morse now in the Publick Library. —

Mr. Ant. à Wood in the II^d vol. of Ath. Oxon. col. 595, tells us that Mr. Andr. Allam had laid y^e Foundation of a Notitia Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, wherein he would have spokt of y^e Foundation of all Cathedrals, with a touch of their Statutes and Customs, together with the names of the Present B^p., Dean, Archdeacon, Canons & Officers of each Cathedral. — These Papers I think Dr. Kennett perus'd after his Death, & extracted from them several materials, w^{ch} will be of great Service to him in a Book 50

he is now upon conc. the Foundation of Churches in England. — 'Tis said Mr. King, who writ the History of the Apostles Creed, is now upon an Ecclesiastical History, w^{ch} will commence wth the Birth of Christ.

July 11 (Wed.). Out of a MS^t w^{ch} Dr. Hudson borrowed of Sir John Osborn, containing divers curious things relating to the Reigns of Ed. 3^d and Hen. 5th (w^{ch} however Mr. Tyrrel says (See below, pag. 133) contains little but w^t we have an Account of in print already).

Te Matrem laudamus, te Dominam confitemur, te aeterni patris praelectam veneramur. | Tibi omnes Angli, tibi coeli & universae potestates, tibi
 10 Cherubin & Seraphin humili nobiscum voce proclamant, Ave, Ave, Ave Maria, Virgo Theotocos | . Pleni sunt coeli & terra majestate filij tui, | Te gloriosam Apostoli praedicant | Te gloriosam prophetae pronunciant | . Te pretiosam martires floribus circumdant | Te per orbem terrarum sancta confitetur Ecclesia, matrem immensae majestatis, venerandam Dei sponsam marisque nesciam, sanctam quoque solamque gravidam Spiritu. Tu Regina es coeli, tu Domina es totius mundi, tu ad liberandum hominem perditum vestisti altissimum filium, tu vincendo mortis aculeo protulisti clarissimo vitam ex utero, tu ad dextram nati sedes dignitate matris. Te ergo quacuq^{ue} Angligenis subveni, quos pro dote propria defendisti, aeterna fac cum sanctis
 20 ejus gloria numerari, salvum fac populum tuum domina, et a mortis peste dotem tuam libera. Et rege eos et extolle illos usque in aeternum. Per singulos dies benedicimus te, et laudamus nomen tuum in saeculum, quae cunctas Haereses sola interemisti. | Dignare domina laude digna in fide firma nos custodire. Miserere nostri Domina mater misericordiae. Fiat misericordia filij tui Domina super nos ope tua qui clamitamus illi. In te Domina speramus, non confundamur in aeternum.

This is the conclusion of the Book, being the last Chapter of an anonymous piece conc. the Acts of Hen. Vth. The contents of this Hymn are thus worded: De Hymno à gente Anglorum cantando ad
 30 laudem Dei genitricis mariae, propter gloriosam expeditionem Regis Henrici quinti, & pro successu Regni Angliae dotis suae, quae cunctas Haereses cum Haeresiarcha Johanne Oldecastel suis precibus interemit. — Tables of the Grecian, Roman & Jewish Measures, Weights & Coins; reduc'd to the English Standard, by Jo. Arbuthnott. Lond. 1705, 8^o. . . — Mr. Proast in his 2^d Letter conc. Toleration, p. 37. says That Miracles were continued till Christianity was received for y^e Religion of the Empire, not so much to evince the Truth of y^e Christian Religion, as to supply the Want of the Magistrates' Assistance, & quotes Mr. Dodwell's
 40 Second Dissertation to favour his opinion; but Mr. Lock in his Answer to y^t Letter (viz. in p. 263 of a Third Letter for Toleration) shews that he has misrepresented Mr. Dodwell's meaning. Mr. Dodwell being now in Oxford, I ask'd him w^{ch} was in the right, & he was pleas'd to tell me y^t Mr. Lock had fairly explain'd his sense, & that he did not remember that he had said anything w^{ch} Mr. Proast ought to insist upon to establish his Hypothesis. — See whether Mr. Arbuthnott in his Tables (above mentioned, p. 106) has not made use of Dr. Hakewell in his Discourse of Providence & Dr. Bernard de Ponderibus & Mensuris.

July 12 (Th.). The Messenger of y^e Press is order'd to discover if possible the Author Printer and Publisher of the Memorial of the Church
 50 of England, there being several things in it w^{ch} give great offence at Court. Whilst those of y^e other side are wink'd at, as the History of y^e

Court of Poland, &c. — Mr. Wotton, who wrote the Essay upon Ancient and modern Learning, was enter'd at Cambridge in y^e 9th year of his Age.

July 13 (Fri.). Dr. Wallis in a spare leave, before a 4^{to} Book of tracts, w^{ch}, (with another in 8^{vo}.) he gave to the Bodlejan Library, hath inserted, under his own hand, y^e following memorandum :

GEORGE KEITH,

A Scotch man, (the Author of those Tracts contained in this volume in 4^o, and of those in another volume in 8^o.) was, for some time, himself a Quaker (and a Preacher amongst them;) induced thereunto by the Quakers great Pretensions to a more than ordinary Degree of Piety and Spirituality, and a Light within, w^{ch} they pretended to be a sufficient and Infallible Guide. And did distinguish themselves from others, by divers affected Singularities, such as these; not to use the words you, your, (with relation to a particular person) but Thou, Thee, Thine; not to use the words yes and no, but Yea and Nay, not to use the Titles of Master, Lord, and the like, as savouring of Pride and Ambition; not to wear in their Apparel, Laces, Silks, Gold and Silver, as savouring of Vanity; not to salute any, by pulling off the Hat, or like Gestures; not to strike however wronged or provoked, as pretending to greater Meekness and Patience; not to join in our publick Worship, as not spiritual enough, but in seprate Meetings of their own, with other y^e like Affections. 20

But when he was better acquainted with them, he found that they did (under divers uncouth and affected Expressions) entertain many gross and erroneous Tenets, inconsistent wth the Fundamentals of Christian Religion, and destructive thereof.

He did thereupon endeavour, for some years, (by Arguments, Persuasions, and Books written for that purpose,) to reduce them from those erroneous Principles, (which by the Craft and Subtiltie of some of their Leaders, with the Ignorance and Simplicity of their Followers, they had entertained,) and did prevail with divers of them, so far as to divide from the rest of the Quakers, to disclaim their gross Opinions, and meet separately from them; and were 30 called (by way of distinction) the Reformed Quakers. And, after some time, he, with most of these, did return to the Communion of the Church of England.

These small Tracts, published on several occasions, I thought not amiss (that they be not lost) to gather together, and bind-up in these two Volumes, and put them into the Bodlejan Library; that, in future times, such as shall be inquisitive into such Matters, may thence understand, what kind of People they are who are now called Quakers.

JOHN WALLIS, D.D.,

— Amongst the Testimonies for the Antiquity of Oxford before King 40 Ælfred's time, may be added w^t Thomas Gulhelmus says in Chron. Brit. viz. Pherychtiand ordh yn trago yn Rhydychen cyn gwneithyr O Alphred yscol yndhi; i.e. that Chymists dwelt at Oxford before Ælfred built a school there. July 14 (Sat.). Mr. Stratford, Chaplain to y^e House of Commons, made one of the Canons of X^t Ch. in room of Dr. Ratcliff deceas'd. He took his Dr of Divinity's Degree upon that Account this Act Term. Dr. Ratcliff left all he had, being betw. 2 or 3,000 l^{ib} in money, besides 50 other wealth, to y^e Col. — Epictetus did not draw up his Enchiridion himself, but Arrian. — Characteres Aegyptij, etc. . . per Laurentium Pignorum. Franc. 1608. — Mr. Lock in his 3^d Letter for Toleration, p. 266. Athanasius, the great Defender of the Catholick orthodoxy, writ y^e Life of his Contemporary St. Anthony, full of Miracles; w^{ch} though some have question'd, yet the Learned Dodwell allows to be writ by Athanasius: & the stile evinces it to be his, w^{ch} is also confirmed by other Ecclesiastical Writers. Mr. Dodwell has this in his Diss. upon Irenæus. — Ibid. p. 267. St. Chrysostom is call'd by Mr. Dodwell the contemner of Fables. This M^r. D. has also in his Diss. upon Irenæus. — 'Tis said the Duke of Buckingham is Author of the Pamphlett call'd The Memorial of the Church of England, and that he has sent to the L^d Treasurer (Godolphin) to desist from making any further search concerning that particular, being ready at any time to defend w^t he has said in it. — A Gentleman of New-Colledge tells me there is leather money to be seen in that College, being some of that w^{ch} was put in the Treasury chest by the Founder himself; and that the like is to be seen at Winchester. This I never heard before, and (I think) is not credible. — Mr. Dodwell amongst other Discourse at y^e Coffe-House was pleas'd to mention a Silver Coynd of Amyntas, now in the Custody of Mr. Francis Cherry of Shottesbrook, being found in a Field near his (Mr. Cherry's) House. This is a great curiosity, especially upon the Account of its being found here. Quære whether 'twas dug up in a Field call'd Wyceack, 20 where was formerly a Roman Castle, as Mr. Camden has noted. Examⁿ also whether it be not a counterfeit. Mr. Cherry never yet¹ shew'd it me, tho' I think he once (at least) ask'd me whether we had any one in Bodley? When Mr. Dodwell was at Bath, there was a great number of Roman Coynds dug up, of the lesser sort, very much defaced. Upon w^{ch} Account he believ'd them to be of little use. I am of the same mind, but upon another reason, viz. because we have no Roman Coynds dug up in England of good note, but those relating to the Thirty Tyrants, (w^{ch} it seems are found no where else); & of these we know as much alicedy as can be discovered by Coynds. — The most considerable Piece of Anti-

 30 quity that I have heard of, w^{ch} hath been of late found in these Parts, is a Gold Roman Torques, plow'd up by a Husbandman either in or near Wales, w^{ch} he sold for a little money, being greatly impos'd upon by the person who procur'd it. S^r. Andrew Fountain, who told me the Story, mention'd his name to me, in whose Possession it is now; but I have quite forgot it. — Just publish'd a 2^d Edition of Dr. Plot's Natural History of Oxfordshire, by Mr. J. Burman, Master of Arts of University Coll., Son in Law to the Dr. 'Tis four shillings dearer to the subscribers than y^e former Edition, tho' the Additions make but two Sheets mo^{re}. 'Twas expected several Particulars, wherein the Dr. was found to be mistaken, 40 should have been left out; but there is hardly any thing omitted that appears in the former Edition; & those Improvements w^{ch} are made are very inconsiderable. I believe it might have received great Additions from Mr. Antony à Wood's Papers in Musæo Ashmoleano, particularly from his collections concerning many Towns in Oxfordshire, contain'd in a folio volume. He has also a volume in folio concerning the Antiquities of the Town and City of Oxon, w^{ch} I have look'd into, & judge it to be very usefull for such a work. — Dr. Hicks communicated to Mr. Cherry a folio Book in French, fairly written & curiously illuminated, containing the History of y^e Deposition of Richard the Second. Mr.

Cherry has a Transcript of it, and procur'd as exact a Copy of the several Figures as he could. 'Twas compiled by a Person who liv'd in Rich. II^d's Reign, & seems to have been the original Copy. I remember I once saw both Mr. Cherry's Transcript, & the Book whence he took it. I then reckon'd it a Romance; but Mr. Dodwell who has perus'd it assures me there are divers curious pieces of History in it. W^h I value it most upon, is the several Habits of that Age w^h are to be known from it. Amongst the rest, there is an Irish King, without Stockings and in a very odd Bonnett upon his Head, & 'tis there said y^t his Horse cost him 400 Cows. Remember to ask Mr. Cherry for a sight of this Book. 10

July 15 (Sun.). The Master of University Col. shew'd me a Letter from a Non-Juror complaining very much of the Hard usage of the Jacobites from some chief Members of the University, who have presented them to the Br^s. Mr. Parker is said to have divers Pupils whom he instructs in Jacobite Principles. The Master seems to be concerned at this, as thinking it will do them more hurt yⁿ any thing else. — At the end of the Master's Copy of Athenæ-Oxonienses is a testimony in MS^t that Mr. Wood died in y^e Communion of the Church of England, and y^t there was no Papist come to him during all the time of his Sickness. He rec'd the Sacrament from Mr. Martin of Hart-Hall for whom he seem'd to have 20 a very good Opinion. — The Character of Sr. Geo. Mackenzy & Mr. Dodwell, in Athen. Oxon. for the most part, drawn up by Dr. Charlett & Dr. Gregory. So Dr. Charlett told me himself. The Acct of Dr. Mill there drawn up by Dr. Kennett. — I have heard y^t the reason why Mr. Dodwell¹ would not go into orders was some objection he made relating to the Athanasian creed. Ask him ab^t it. — In Tanaquil Faber's Epistles are some things concerning Livy. — Remember to tell Dr. Hudson that Seguinus in his Coyns corrects Rhacupolis in Vellejus Paterculus Lib. 2. cap. 129, by reading Rhacuporis. — A Scotch Gentleman of University College tells me Sr. Geo. Mackenzy's Estate was ab^t 2000 lib^s. — I hear 30 Mr. Blackett a Gentleman Commoner of a vast Estate of University College gave only 20 shillings towards the Relief of y^e Scotch Episcopal clergy, w^h Dr. Hudson gave 40^s. — Just publish'd, The Diet of Poland, a Satyr; consider'd Paragraph by Paragraph: To w^h is added, A Key to the whole, w^h the names of the Authors, & y^e Nobility & Gentry, that are scandalously pointed at in it. pr. 1s. — Hotly discours'd that y^e Earl of Kingston will be made L^d Chamberlaine of y^e Houshold & y^e Earl of Kent created a Duke. —

July 15. Hearne to Dr. T. Smith. 'I heartily thank you for your Readiness to assist me in my design'd edition of Livy. I am very sensible of the ill Temper of the Belgick Critik, who takes all opportunities of exposing our Theatre Editions. But as I design to use him very civilly, so I believe he will not be much hearken'd to; since his Abuse of so many already has render'd him odious to most Learned men.' Remarks on Mr. Chishull; Selden's Life of Friar Bacon; Vettius Valens; Essay upon Government by Parker; Works of Philo among Selden's MSS.; Berger on Aristides; Morhofius de Livii Patavinitate. Has transcribed for Zacagnius MS. Baroc. 91. Does Smith know anything of it?

pag. 8. of the Oxford Dialogue (writ, as some say, by Dr. Tyndal of AlSoul's College) :—

Besides the Episcopal Clergy in Scotland, neither desired his (K. William's) Protection, nor would own his Authority; so y^t he could have no great reason to encourage his Enemies to desert his Friends. But after all, had it been the King's own Act (he means the Abolishing Episcopacy in Scotland), it was no worse in him, y^a in K. Charles I. who abolished Episcopacy there much more effectually y^a the other. For he made a grant of the Church-Lands there, w^{ch} K. William could never have been prevail'd upon to do; and this 10 you will find mentioned in y^e L^d. Clarendon's History, wth a kind of Reflection upon K. Charles for it. —

Dr. Radcliff (y^e Physitian) always very gratefull to Mr. Walker Master of University Coll. for the favours rec^d from him whilst he was of that College. — Mr. Badger, the Schoolmaster, tells me he has discover'd some words in C. Nepos not us'd in Augustus's Age. — 'Tis sd¹ that lately was found at Rewley Abbey in Oxford a Saxon Inscription. W^t it is I cannot tell. I believe 'tis not Saxon, w^{tever} the Letters may be. Because y^t monastery was built after the Saxon Language was disus'd, namely

'Tis a Book very much recommended by Mr. Dodwell. — Mr. Tyrrel having further examin'd the Book of Instruments above mention'd² of St. John Osborn's tells me there are several curious things in it not taken notice of by any Printed Authors. — Will Baldwin's Last part of y^e Mirrour for Magistrates. Lond. 1574. 4^o . . . Here are 30 several things of note to be consulted by those who write of the English History. — A Commission being granted for Discovery of the King of France's Estate, concealed in this Kingdom, y^e same open'd at Guildhall, and afterwards the Commissioners adj^d to Monday next, wth Mons^r. Hugueton, a great French Banker, who lately w^{thdrew} from y^t Kingdom, will appear, & make a discovery of ab^t 110000 lib^s he has of y^e French Kings Money in his Hands, w^{ch} will be paid to the Queen's use, & he have y^e Protection of y^e Government. — This Day Mr. Swinfin of New-Inn-Hall, was chosen Lecturer of Grammar for the University, being put in by the Vice-Chancellor, to whose choice it fell by reason one of the 40 Colleges, viz. Oriel, to whom it otherwise belong'd, did not take care of the matter in time.

July 17 (Tu.). In the Master of university col. Lodgings is a Picture of King Ælfred. — He had a Duplicate of Lambin's Tully, w^{ch} he has given to New-Inn-Hall. — Dr. Rich. Mr. Rich. James (the Antiquary) to his printed pieces w^{ch} he gave to the Publick Library has prefix'd these verses in MS^t.

Deere God by whom in dark wombes Shade
I am to feare and wonder made,
Leaune me what parte I am to beare
On this world's Stage and Theatre.
Awters & Croziers are no things
That give to my Ambition Wings.
For this I neare did Mammon woe,
Nor flatter one great Lord or two.
But with a simple diet fed,
Scarce cloath'd and friended with a bed,
I was content in middle raucks
Of meaner sorte to view the pranks
And feates of men more active, who
Are better pleas'd in what they doe
Than I, who skeptiklye scarce dare
Of beare, of Lyon, or of Hare,

Or the worse race of Malepar'd
Loud speake what I have seen or heard.
Yet thrice I have bin hal'd before
Our Epithomes of state full sore Against my will And sure I must
Before to tuing rooine of duste
I turne, instruct some scene and give
My name to storie whilst I live.
Then whether on Italian stage
Or English fier or forc'd I rage
Or steale a silent parte, let be
Dear Lord my soul's rest ever free.
As of Calanus let none saye
Truly of me another daye
That I well seen in Antique lore
Did other Lords then God adoe.

Mr. Tyrrell tells me y^t there is a MS^t in Cotton's Library w^{ch} has y^e same things (besides an Addition of others) wth the MS^t of Sr. John Osborn's above mention'd, see pag. 133. — Yesterday Joan. Hoffman, a Holsteiner, was admitted a Student in the Publick Library. He has been a great Traveller, and is related to Hoffman y^t wrote the Lexicon.

July 18 (Wed.). Duke of Marlborough attack'd y^e French in their Lines, near Hillesheyem, on the 18th Jul. new Style, wth great Bravery, taking a great Number of Prisoners, (several of w^{ch} considerable Officers) besides a good number slain. Since y^t by fresh Letters we have an Account y^t the Duke has forced Louvain to surrender, killing 7000 of the Enemy who oppos'd his March, and taking divers prisoners. — Carry'd wth much Difficulty at Ednburgh that the Parliament there shall first go upon the Succession this Sessions. — Philippi Camerarij horae subcisivae, (centuria I^{ma}) Franc. 1624. 4^o. . . July 19 (Th.). Sanson's Mapps, corrected by Will^m. Berry, the best in their kind, in Mr. Halley's Opinion. Dr. Charlett tells me y^t he is afraid the Antiquities of Middlesex, consisting mostly of Inscriptions, (the 1st Part whereof is already publish'd containing only the Towns of Chelsey and Kensington) will find but small Encouragement. —

The following Extract out of Mr. Seller's Will sent to Dr. Hudson, wth a Letter, whereof here is also the transcript.

First I bequeath to y^e Publick Library of the University of Oxford one Manuscript Folio containing Willielmi Malmesburiensis de Gestis Pontificum Anglorum, &c. Together with Chronicon Lichfeldense de Episcopis Cantuariensibus et de Episcopis Lichfeldensibus, all conteyned in one volume.

I have found the Manuscript in his Study, & desire you will be pleased to order some sufficient person to call on me for it that I may have a Receipt upon the delivery thereof. He has also by his will given to Lincoln College in Oxford y^e perpetual use of his Byzantine Historians in Folio of y^e Par. Edit. I have this post written to y^e Rector, and desire you will be pleased to speak to him about it that he will order some one to come to mee for them. I understand you was very well acquainted wth Mr. Seller. He desired a Tomb Stone might be put — On Sunday last (Jul. 15) in the Morning preach'd before y^e University at St. Mary's Mr. Bisse of Corpus Xth Col. upon Gal. 4. 18. He shew'd the unreasonableness of Indifferencey in matters of Religion, & apply'd the whole to the present case of Occasional Conformity: much to y^e satisfaction of the greatest part of y^e Auditors. — To day preach'd at St. Mary's before y^e Judges Mr. Tilly of Corpus Xth Coll. He brought in the same thing of occasional conformity, & his sermon was very much approv'd of. — On Munday last in the Evening, when news came to Town of the Duke of Marlborough's forcing y^e French Lines, 'twas observ'd 30 that there were no Illuminations here, but in Dr. Mill's Lodgings, w^{ch} made some think, who pass'd by, that the chief reason of his Hanging out Lights was that the Memorial of the Church of England might be read by those who walk'd in the street, believing he had put up that Book upon the wall, but they were otherwise satisfied w^h they heard he was for Occasional Conformity.

July 20 (Fri.). I hear that The Secret History, (mentioned by Mr. Lesley in the II^d Part of the Association &) written by Br. Burnett, is to be printed out of Hand, a Gentleman Commoner of Magd. Hall having procur'd the Intire Copy from Geneva: & he is resolv'd it shall see y^e 40 Light, with a Latin Translation for the use of such who do not understand English. I ask'd Dr. Mill abt it, who believes y^t there is such a Book, & that there is a Copy abroad besides the original. — Several Persons at London taken up on suspicion of being Authors of the Pamphlett called The Memorial of y^e Church of England. — The Inscription on the Tomb Stone of Mr. Trafles, Warden of New Colledge, should have been thus, as he desir'd himself, Hic situs est Ricardus Trafles Humilis Peccator. — I heard one of New Colledge say That Dr. Busby desired the Inscription over his Grave might be OBLIVIO. But Mr. Southcombe,

July 20. T. Cherry to H. Asks H. to send him his Dictionary, Lexicon, Pomponius Mela, Grk. Test., Patrick's treatises, or anything 'convenient for the better prosecuting my designes here.'

a Nonjuror told me, that he view'd his Monument at Westminster, & that there is a large Inscription, of w^{ch} he has a Copy. — Dr. Woodward, of Oriel College, and Register of the Vice-Chancellor's Court, very ill. He is now in the 56th year of his Age. — Dr. Hudson gave to the Publick Library the following Books written & translated by Abraham Woodhead: Two Discourses, one conc. the Spirit of Martin Luther, the other conc. y^e Celibacy of y^e Clergy. Oxon. 1687. 4^o. — Church Government, Part Vth. Oxon. 1687. 4^o. — A Compendious Discourse of the Eucharist, with two Appendixes. Oxon. 1688. 4^o. — Catholick Theses on several chief Heads of Controversy. 4^o. — The Life of Greg. Lopez out of Spanish — 10 1675. 8^o. — The Institutions of y^e Congregation of y^e Oratory of St. Maies in Vallicella w^{thin} y^e City of Rome founded by Phil. Neri; in English. Oxon. 1687. 8^o. — The Pamphlett call'd The Rights of the Church of England asserted and proved, in Answer to another intitl'd The Rights of the Protestant Dissenters, Oxon. 1705. 4^o. was not all writ by Mr. Sacheverell. He was Author of y^t Part only w^{ch} Reflects upon the Dedication of y^t Book. The other part w^{ch} is far the larger, & much better written, was done by Mr. Perks of Corpus Christi Colledge. — The Pamphlett call'd, A Letter proving the Occasional Conformists guilty of Schism & Hypocrisy. Oxon. 1704. 4^o was writ by Mr. Buckridge of Corpus Christi Colledge. — Some say Dr. Drake is Author of y^e Memorial &c. — . . . Joannis Bonæ Tractatus de Divina Psalmodia, Par. 1663. 4^o. In the beginning is Notitia Auctorum qui in hoc opere citantur, notantur, illustrantur. Amongst the rest is this of Livy: Titus Livius Historiæ Latinæ princeps, lactea ubertate fluens, cui tamen Asinus Patavinitatem objecit. Lipsius frigidum aliquando, & supinum agnoscit. — . . . I have look'd into the 1st part of y^e Antiquities of Middlesex, & the Author seems to have taken no pains, and to be ignorant both of Latin & Greek; besides his Observations are trivial, & give no light to the Antiquities of the Places. This is also y^e Judgment of others. — Martini Hanckij de 30 Romanarum Rerum Scriptoribus Liber II^{us}, Lips. 1675. 4^o. . . In pag. 235 are Additions to his Life of Livy, wth Testimonies of him. — . . . Christian Religion, substantially, methodicallie, plainlie & profitablie treatised. Lond. 1611. 4^o. . . In a spare Leaf at the Beginning is this following writ wth Sr. Tho. Bodley's own Hand: The Gifte of Jo. Man, Master of the Companie of y^e Stationers, & y^e first y^e was given, after their Indenture was sealed to y^e Universitie. — Jacobi Usserij Historia Dogmatica de Scripturis & Sacris vernaculis. Lond. 1690. 4^o. In pag. 123 are some remarkable Things of King Alfred. . .

July 21 (Sat.). Mr. Westley a Beneficed Minister in Lincolnshire, 40 (who formerly wrote the Life of Christ, w^{ch} he dedicated to Q. Mary,) lately unhappily writing ag^t y^e Dissenters, & since y^t giving his vote for the Tacking Interest at the Election in y^t County, and his Reasons in writing for his so doing, was in y^e first place removed from being Chaplain to a Regim^t worth about 100^l per Annum, & in the next place, after a thousand Insults in his House & Streets of Jacobite, Perconite, &c. was arrested, and carried to Lincoln Goal in a violent manner for some small Debts contracted by the smallness of his Income, the Numerousness of his Family, & other Providential Accidents; but, it seems, he was pertinacious, & would not Retract his Book (being Fact) 50 otherwise he might have fared better.—The Q. has presented Col. Durell with 2000 pounds for bringing the Express of forcing the French Lines from the D. of Marlborough. — A Bookseller having Reprinted The Memorial of the Church of England, answer'd Paragraph by Paragraph, the Copies are seized. —

Viro Clarissimo Johanni Hudsono S. P. D. Jac. Perizonius [dated Lugduni, postridie Eidus Junias MDCCI]. . — Latini Latiny Epistolæ, Conjecturæ, &c. Rom. 1659. 4^o . . Remember to look this over conc. Livy. In pag. 382 there is an Epistle with divers matters relating to him. — A short Declaration of y^e Mystery of Iniquity by Tho. Helwys. 1612. 8^o. . . Given, I believe, by the Author himself, who in a spare leaf at y^e beginning has added these words in writing, Heare of y^e King, and despise not the Counsell of the poore, and let their complaints come before thee.

The King is a mortal man, & not God, therefore hath no power over the Immortal Soules of his Subjects, to make laws & ordinances for them, & to set spiritual Lords over them. If y^e King have Authority to make Spiritual Lords and Laws, then he is an immortal God, and not a mortal Man.

O King be not seduced by Deceivers, to sin so against God, whom thou oughtest to obey, nor against thy poor subjects who ought and will obey thee in all things with body, Life, and Goods, or else let their lives be taken from the Earth.

God save the Kinge.

Spittlefeild, neare London.

— Mr. Peisley tells me Mr. Tilly is going to print his Assize Sermon, not y^t he has been desired, but because one of the Judges was displeas'd at it, as were some others, for some particulars w^{ch} they thought reflecting. . .

July 22 (Sun.). Dr. Mill shew'd me an Extract in the Paris Edition of Athanasius by the Benedictines w^{ch} he sent them. They have taken notice of it, but for Joannes have put Jacobus, & for Aula S. Edm. there is Collegium S. Edm. — Last Week a Committee of Enquiry sate at Guild Hall and Examind witnesses ab^t several French Men residing here who are suspected of Remitting money from France hence for the Paym^t of the French Army, & (as 'tis sd) it appear'd that they have 705000^l in Bank ready for y^t service, and that they have rec^d goods from hence to the value of a Million to Enable them to send money from hence. — Not. ad Gronov Edit. Livij, l. 2. c. 27. Dionys. lib. 9. ait centum ac sexaginta milites subesse primpili imperio, si codices non fallunt, quod suspicor. Glareanus. Remember to ask Dr. Hudson whether he has taken notice of this.

July 23 (Mon.). The Manifesto of y^e Church of England that was endeavoured to be suppress, is now againe publicly sold ab^t streets at London, the Bookseller being resolved to take y^e Benefit of his Copy, & stand the Test of the Law, & y^e pretended Remarks that are printed with it strengthen & not confute the Assertions of y^e Author. — Some Letters from Paris say, y^t a Hermit there dyed of 144 years of Age, who being asked what his Food used to be, replied Milk & Honey. — Dr. Hody in his Book of the Translations of the Bible, has published some excellent Fragments of Fryer Bacon's from a MS^t amongst those given to the Bodleian Library by Sr. Ken. Digby. But he has not tr[an]scrib'd them truly, being done when he was a young Man. I told Dr. Mill of this, who got me to help him collate it, putting the variations &c w^{ch} are considerable in the Margin of his Book. — Whoever continues Athenæ Oxon. must remember in the Account of Mr. Milles's Edition of St Cyrill to acquaint the reader that the greatest part of the notes were taken from Suicerus, & that he had several from M^r Dodwell & M^r. Grabe. As also that the Text in a great measure was corrected by M^r. Potter. So y^t he did himself but little to y^e Book, myself drawing up the 3 Indexes & assisting him in some Collations, and transcribing the things from MSS^s in y^e Publick Library which he was not able to read. — The Continuer also ¹⁰ must remember to acquaint the world that he (M^r. Milles) writ Remarks upon the occasional Paper number 8th in Vindication of the Learned M^r. Dodwell, w^{ch} were afterwards answered, wth two or three more pieces of y^t nature. Upon w^{ch} M^r. Milles writ a large Reply, never yet printed, & I believe never will by himself, he being now asham'd of both these Papers, as having chang'd his opinion. He likewise began an Edition of Aristophanes, but having compar'd a comedy or two, he gave it over, being not a man of Resolution to go thro' with any thing. — [Notes on Livy from Freinshemii Com. in Quintum Curtium, III, ix, 4, and VII, iv, 1.] — D^r. Hudson shew'd me a Coyn, ²⁰ whereof there is the same in the Publick Library, viz. Drusus Germanicus. 'Tis of the bigger Brass, and the Description is, NERO CLAVDIVS DRVSVS GERMANICVS IMP. Caput Drusi. Rev. TI CLAVDIVS CAESAR AVG PM. TR. P. IMP. S. C. Figura insidens subsellio, dextra ramum lauri, sin. sceptrum, ad pedes plura armorum genera. — I hear Dr. James, Head of Queen's Coll. in Cambridge, & a very Rich Man, is made Prebendary of Canterbury in the room of D^r. Isham deas'd. — [Notes on Livy from Freinshemii Com. in Q. Curtium, IV, x, 7; III, iii, 11; VIII, v, 6; IV, xiii, 35; VII, vii, 5; VIII, x, 25; X, vi, 14; and Index.] — Joannes Terentius publish'd Textus Jobi Chaldaice, cum notis: item, ³⁰ Græce σχιχηρῶς cum varijs lectionibus. Franck. 1663. 4^o. . . This Greek version was printed from Patrick Junius's (or Young's) Edition; who printed it from the Alexandrian copy, but here are divers notes & collations wth other old Editions, & therefore will be of use to M^r. Grabe in his designed Edition of y^e Septuagint. He never knew of it, 'till we shew'd it him in y^e Publick Library. Junius's Edition is at y^e End of his Edition of Nicetas' Catena Græcor. Patrum in Job, pr. at Lond. 1637. fol. — Just publish'd Otia Votiva, or Poems upon several occasions, many of w^{ch} in memory of y^e late King and Queen. Price bound 2s. 6d. — Serious Reflections on y^e Scandalous Abuse and ⁴⁰ Effects of y^e Stage, in a sermon preach'd at y^e Parish church of St. Nicholas in the city of Bristol, on Sunday the 7th day of January, 1705 By Arthur Bedford, M.A., vicar of Temple Church in the s^d city.

July 24 (Tu.). Last Night being wth M^r. Halley, the Savilian Professor of Geometry, he was pleas'd to tell me, that he had discover'd a Great Error in D^r. Gregory (the Scotch Professor of Astronomy in this University's) Book of Astronomy, notwthstanding it was for the most part taken from Sr. Isaac Newton's Book. Upon w^{ch} the D^r. printed the sheet over again, & wthout any acknowledgment to M^r. Halley put them into such Copies as he had left, and he could come at secretly, that y^e ⁵⁰

Matter might not be known. I remember particularly the time when he put in y^e Copy of y^e Publick Library; tho' he did not let any one of y^e Library know of it, w^{ch} wthout doubt he ought to have done according to y^e Statute. — Mr. Halley also shew'd me the Inscription of Theophrastus at Westminster as he had taken it, w^{ch} is much more correct than 'tis in the Marmora Oxoniensia. For w^{ch} reason he says he will print it in y^e Philosophical Transactions. — Mr. Hoffman tells me Mr. Foss, a Dane, who design'd a new Edition of Libanius, having procur'd divers things from the Chief Libraries in Europe for that end, is married, and has now laid
 10 aside this Work. I told Dr. Hudson of this, but he will not believe it, being satisfied of the contrary. Mr. Hoffman likewise tells me that he saw a MS^t of Livy at Paris, w^{ch} I believe is y^e same wth that w^{ch} Colbert collated, whose Observations are inserted in the Dauphin Edition of this Author. I ask'd him whether he ever heard of any Fragments of him preserv'd at Luca. He answer'd he did, & y^t he thinks they are different from those printed. — The Inscription I have mention'd above to have been corrected by Mr. Halley is . . . printed in Marm. Oxon. p. 301. I do not remember all the differences, but I very well remember that in his copy for τῆς εὐνοίας καὶ καλο . . . is τῆς ἀρετῆς ἕνεκα καὶ
 20 καλοκαγ . . . [adds Dr. Prideaux' note.]. — The sheet w^{ch} Dr. Gregory has alter'd in his Astronomy is that w^{ch} begins with pag. 217. — Dr. John Earle, a very ingenious & learned Man, translated all y^e VIII Books of Mr. Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity into Latin. They are in MS^t & were never yet printed. Quære where they are. — Sylloge Annotationum &c. in Aur. Prudentium, per Johan. Weitzium. Hanon. 1613. 8^o. . . Epistolæ xxx. A Book containing divers Authors, wherein are corrections of Livy. —
 30 . . . The Friendly Debate writ by Bp. Patrick. — Mr. Priest of Bisley in Gloucestershire has a design of Translating into Latin Mr. Greaves's Books of the Pyramids & the Roman Foot & Denarius. Dr. Smith gave some hopes in his Life of Mr. Greaves of doing it himself. Inquire of him whether he ever perform'd it, or intends it. — Bp. Sanderson began a Translation of Mr. Hooker's Books of Ecclesiastical Polity: but never perfected it. See in his Life by Mr. Walton. — St. James Astrey is about a new Edition of St. Hen. Spelman's Glossary. He should look over all Mr. Junius's MSS^{ts} upon this subject in the Publick Library. — . . . Denarius S. Petri, Disputatone Historico-theologica expositus per And. Arnoldum.

Index librorum prohibitorum & Expurgatorum jussu Bernardi de Sandoval & Roxas editus. Matrit. 1614. 4^o. . . In a spare Leaf at y^e Beginning are these two following memorandums written by Mr. Wanley & Dr. Wallis, viz.

Sept. 2, 1698. Dr. Wallis told me, that once a Popish Priest came to this Library, when Dr. Barlow (afterwards Bp. of Lincoln) was Library-Keeper. They chanced to have some talk together about Religion, & so of y^e Indices Expurgatorij, & the said Priest flatly denied that ever any Index Expurgatorius was printed at Madrid, but that the Calvinists of Geneva had fathered
 50 that lye upon them, & had counterfeited such an Edition. Dr. Barlow thereupon shewed him this Book, which was undoubtedly printed at Madrid,

& had y^e Names of several of the Inquisitors written in it, who owned it from time to time, before it came hither. Upon which, the Priest, being convicted, would fain have bought this Book of the Doctor, and profered whatever he would ask for it, with an intent to destroy it: but could not corrupt the Doctor.

Dr. Wallis afterwards made suit to the Curators that this Book might be removed into a securer place, for fear of Afterclaps, and the Book was accordingly removed from among the Libri Theol. in fol. where it was chained, to the Tb. in 4^{to} where I now found it: but I do not find herein such ample Testimonies of several Inquisitors owning it, tho' I perceive what is written on the back side of the Title-Page; and at the Bottom of the Page, about 24 Leaves from the End, and am therefore afraid that some ill Person has torn them from the End, where they might have been written upon the spare Leaves.

N.B.—The very Letter shews that the Book was printed in Spain. Consider the marks of the Paper.

H. WANLEY.

I do very well remember that Dr. Barlow (since B^p. of Lincoln) when he was Library-Keeper at Oxford, did tell me the story above-mentioned; and that I did advise the Removal of the Book (which I do believe to be this individual Book). There are now the names of two Inquisitors intimated in the Backside of the Title-Page to whom (it seems) it had successively belong'd). But I do well remember, that formerly there were divers others; which I guess to have been in the last Leaf which hath been torn out, as appears by some part of it now remaining.

Sept. 15, 1701.

JOH. WALLIS.

Dr. Wallis writ this at the Request of Dr. Hudson soon after he had been elected Library Keeper in Room of D^r. Hyde. There appears to have been two Leaves torn out at the End, which will answer the spare Leaves at y^e Beginning.

VOL. II.

July 25 (Wed.). On Munday last a Proclamation came forth for 3^o a General Thanksgiving for our late Victory the 23^d of August next. — Letters from Scotland say y^t the Question being put whether they should bring in y^e Succession Bill before they treat of a Union 'twas carried in y^e Negative. — . . . Last week came an Account of a Taylor who died at Northampton 122 years of Age. — This day (being St. James's day), Mr. Martin, Vice-Principal of Hart-Hall, preach'd before the University at St. Mary's, upon Prov. 13. 5. But a wicked man is loathsome and cometh to shame. In w^{ch} taking occasion to discourse that Sin was the cause of Shame, he laid open the Hainousness of Hypocrisy, Perfidiousness, & Inconstancy, with a great deal of Spirit, sufficiently shewing that those Persons ought to be abominated, who are for occasional Communion, taking up arms against their Sovereign, and for swearing to all Governments, purely out of self Interest. — . . . 1. I give this Book with the following small treatises to the Bodlejan Library in the University of Oxford, there to remain as a Testimony I have given to the true doctrine and faith of the Christian Religion against the vile

July 26 (Th.). MS. Seld. Supra num. 79. A Collection of several Matters. See whether Dr. Dee's Speculum unitatis sive Apologia pro Rogero Bachone be there. — In MS. 15. 'Tis only a Preface to his Exposition upon the Psalms, concerning wch see Dr. Cave's II^d vol. of his Historia Lit. Here is nothing in it only an Account of y^e Psalms, proving that all the CL Psalms were writ by David, & 30 particularly for this Reason, because our Saviour & the Apostle mentions no other Psalms but those of David. — Mr. Joyner says the Life of Fryer Bacon written by Mr. Selden was sent to Sr Kenelm Digby at Paris to be printed; but what hinder'd it, or w^t became of it afterwards he cannot tell. — MS. July 27 (Fri.). The Discourse is reviv'd that the King of Denmark was assur'd his Uncle Pr. George that in case there be an Eruption with Scotland, he will forthwith spare him 20000 Men, & 10 Men of War. — 10
Mr. Hoffman tells me that Mr. Berger, who is publishing Aristides, has published nothing as yet, but that his Brother is Professor of Physick at Wirtemberg, & is accounted a very learned Man, w^{ch} he has also discovered by the Books he has published, as Fundamenta Medicinæ, &c. He likewise tells me that M^r. Fabricius at Hamburg has already published his¹ 4 volumes in 4^{to}. De Græcis Scriptoribus, w^{ch} he intitles Bibliotheca Græca. He sent a little while since a Specimen (containing several Sheets) of the 1st vol. to Dr. Hudson, as also he did of Eunapius, which is to be in 8^o. He told Dr. Hudson in a Letter that he was preparing a new Edition² of his Bibliotheca Latina, with large Improvements 20
— Mr. Hoffman also tells me that Joh. Mollerus, Flensburgensis is writing Historia Cimbrica in 3 fol. Volumes. 'Tis the same Moller that wrote (1) Bibliotheca Septentrionis Eruditi, sive Syntagma Tractatum de Scriptoribus illius. Lips. 1699. 8^o. (2) Introductio in Ducatum Cimbricorum, Slesvicensis & Holsatici Historiam, chorographicam, Naturalem, antiquariam, &c. Partibus IV. Hamb. 1699. 8^o. Arbuthnot has alter'd his Tables of Measures, &c. — M^r. Wood, in his Athenæ Oxon. Vol. II. in vit. Abr. Woodhead intimates y^t several people did report that M^r. Woodhead was Author of the whole Duty of Man & y^e other Pieces writ by him; w^{ch} however he wonders at. In the Ladies Calling the Author wishes the Vnneries had not been dissolved.

July 28 (Sat). Tho' there be a II^d Edition of Psalmanezzer y^e Formosan's Book, giving an Account of his Country, &c. come out, 40

Earl of Orford, & Lecturer of White Chappel. — Also A new Edition of the List of the Principal Officers Civil & Military in England, on a Broad Sheet. — Mr. Milles (Tho.) has declar'd he will not speak anymore in Behalf of those who are call'd High-Church. — This Morning Dr. Hudson went to London with Mr. Halley. — Just publish'd a Latin Translation of H. Lukin's Book call'd The Chief Interest of Man, or, a Discourse of Religion &c. by Simon Priest, A.M. of Bisley in Gloucestershire. Printed at Oxon. 8°. There are several Recommendatory Veises before it, w^{ch} makes some People prejudic'd at the Book, tho' the Translation is very well perform'd. — Promis'd from Gresham College Library in June last, by the care of Dr. Hudson, who apply'd himself to Mr. Halley, 3 old Editions of Livy, one at Rome An. 1470, a 2^d at Venice, 1518, 1519, and a 3^d at Tarvisium 1482. At the beginning of this last I find the following Inscription (not in Guter) in MS^t, viz.¹ . . . — This day was admitted into the Publick Library Baggus Scrup Dams. — Just come out in 8°. an Answer to a Book call'd, An Essay towards Catholick Communion. Quære who is the Author?² I formerly saw in MS^t some such Book in the Hands of Dr. Hudson; but I am not sure whether 'twas the same, tho' 'tis probable it may, the Bookseller, Mr. Hartley, having sent him a Copy. — I hear Dr. Woodward of Oriel College had some hand in citing the Jacobites, who meet at a House in St. Mary's Parish neare that College for the sake of Devotion, into the Bishop's Court. This makes me think that Dr. Mill, whatever he may say to the contrary, further'd the matter, it being certain that the Bishop and he a little while before met at Dr. Woodward's Lodging; which was in order, without dout, to talk about it. — Dr. Mill, in printing his Edition of the New-Testament from Rob. Stephens's Edition, has not made the best choice, the Complutensian being far better, w^{ch} he should have follow'd, as Mr. Grabe has told me, & of which himself is now sensible.

July 29 (Sun.). Notand. that there is nothing in the Parish Church of White-Waltham in Berks to shew it's Antiquity. The oldest Book there concerning the Affairs of the Parish is one of y^e Church Wardens &c. But I think there is nothing in it beyond the time of Queen Eliz. 'Tis almost worn out. ³'Twas formerly call'd Abbot's-Waltham, as belonging to Waltham-Abbey in Essex. I am told the Papers belonging to it are at Winchester. — Mr. Halley's Translation into Latin of Apollonius Pergæus's Treatise περί λόγου ἀποτομῆς, sive de rationis divisione (w^{ch} he was forc'd to do from the Arabick, the Greek being lost) is now in the Press. — Dr. Prideaux (pag. v. of y^e Preface to his Life of Mahomet) tells us he design'd to publish The History of the Eastern Church (whereof the Life of Mahomet is only the interspersed Parts of one Chapter) beginning at the Death of the Emperor Mauricius & ending at y^e fall of y^e Saracen

The Publication was hinder'd by the unhappy Disputes about y^e Trinity. — Yesterday was publish'd Memoirs of the Marquis de Guiscard, translated out of French. Lond. 8^o. price 1s. . . . — D^r. Smith in his Account of y^e Seven Churches of Asia mentions Livy upon occasion of an Inscription he found wherein is mention of Quadratus. — M^r. Wood almost finished a 3^d Vol. of Athenæ Oxon. w^{ch} he left with other Papers at his Death to M^r. Tho. Tanner, now Chancellor of Norwich, to be continued by him; but whether he will publish it or no I cannot yet tell. He has promis'd an Edition of Boston and Leland who wrote de Scriptoribus Britannicis.¹⁰ But I am afraid he will not make good his promise, tho' in a Letter he sent lately to D^r. Charlett he told him he was continually drudging at it, and wonder'd any one should be so uncivil as to take y^e work out of his Hands, the D^r. having told him that I had a design of printing Leland by itself. — The Account of the Life of Dr. Wallis was drawn up by D^r. Gregory, that of M^r. Ashmole & D^r. Plot by M^r. Llhuyd (of the Museum Ashm.) & that of M^r. Anton. à Wood by Dr. Wood of New-College, his Nephew, all w^{ch} are inserted in the Supplement to M^r. Collier's Dictionary. If any one desires a farther Account of M^r. Wood he must consult the Vindication of him, written as 'tis said by Dr. Wood, & printed some years²⁰ since, and another Paper lately printed in answer to some part of Dr. Pope's Life of Bishop Ward. D^r. Kennett has also writ an Account of him w^{ch} I formerly saw in a Spare Leaf at the Beginning of his Copy of the 1st vol. of Athenæ Oxon. w^{ch} M^r. Cherry then had in his hands. Who 'twas drew up the Account of M^r. Lock's Life in the said Supplement, I cannot yet tell; but I believe 'twas done by M^r. Tyrrel, who was his great Acquaintance. — Usual in the Hot Countries of Arabia, as it is in all India over, w^{ch} is in y^e same Clime with Arabia, for women to be ripe for Marriage at 8 Years of Age, & also to bear Children the Year following. Dr. Prideaux's Life of Mahomet, p. 52. — Dr. Charlett shew'd me³⁰ a Lettr. to day of S^r. John Packington to D^r. Lloyd, Bp. of Worcester, writ in June last, wherein he declares his Resentment of the Aspersions cast upon him by his Lordship, as being a drunken, debauch'd Person; which he could have the more easily pardon'd provided he had not spoke ill of his Ancestors, who, 'tis well known, deserv'd well of y^e Church of England. The D^r. tells me that he spoke with one who had seen the Original Copy of the whole Duty of Man, which was my old Lady Packington's own hand writing. — I saw a Gentleman at the D^r's Lodgings who told me that M^r. Fr. Willoughby, the Virtuoso, fell sick upon occasion of a Law suit. — D^r. Charlett says M^r. Blackett's Schoolmaster was one M^r.⁴⁰

July 30 (Mon.). On Monday night was sennight the Lord Leigh's Lady departed this Life, at his Lordship's seat at Stonely in Warwickshire.

[News from the Scottish Parliament, dated Edinburgh, July 31.]

The Earl of Castlemain, who was Embassadour from King James to y^e Pope, is dead at his seat in Wales. —

Out of a Letter w^{ch} Dr. Charlett received from Mr. Wanley.

I have taken care to beg two Specimens of our Papers for yourself & for the Publick Library. In them you will find my Translation of Mr. Ostervalds Catechism, w^{ch} I should have presented to you, & to y^e Library, long since, 10 but that I never had any to dispose of, I being paid for my pains in Money.

I beg to know whether in y^e Publick Library there be a Book printed in Quarto, with these words in the Title Page, SACRÆ BIBLIÆ TOMVS PRIMVS, IN QVO CONTINENTUR, Quinque libri Moysi, Libri Josue, & Judicum, Liber Psalmorum, Proverbia Salomonis, Liber Sapientia, Et Novum Testamentum JESV CHRISTI; at the end this Inscription, LONDINI. EXCVDEBAT THOMAS BERTHELETVS REGIVS IMPRESSOR. ANNO MDXXXV. MENSE IVL. And if there be this Book, whether there be also the second Tome? I ask this Question, because I take King Henry VIIIth to have been y^e Editor of it, & to have written the Preface at y^e Beginning of y^e Book, wherein the Remaining parts 20 of Scripture are promis'd to be printed in the second Tome, which 2^d Tome I have not as yet seen. I want also to know, whether Bishop Burnet in the year 1535, or Mr. Strype, do mention any such Book, of that King's own Edition, for I have not their Books by me to consult.

About 10 days ago, I bought in More-fields an odd Tractt, entitled, LE MOYEN DE PARVENIR, which I guess formerly to have belonged to the Publick Library. Upon the Edges is written Arts 8^o. M. 125. If the Book be wanting i'll send it by some convenient opportunity; if it be there, & this a duplicate, sold by Dr. Hyde or Dr. Hudson, i'll keep it, tho' tis worth little.

The Bible above mention'd is not in y^e Publick Library¹.—There is 30 but one of the Books entitled LE MOYEN &c. in the Library, w^{ch} is in Selden's Library, 8^o. M. 51. Art. Nor are there any more expressed either in our present Catalogue, or y^e more ancient one of Dr. James.—Neither B^p. Burnett nor Mr. Stry[p]e mention the Bible abovesaid.—At the Beginning of y^e said Letter of Mr. Wanley's—I am glad you are pleas'd to approve my Design, as to a Saxon Bible, w^{ch} will be as large a Book as Dr. Hicks's, & I believe, will be gratefull to y^e curious, even to those who do not understand y^e Language. — On Saturday last (Jul. 28.) was publish'd Y^e Life of John Duke of Marlborough, Prince of the Empire, on a large broad Sheet, wth his Grace's Picture, curiously en- 40 graven on Copper. — Mr. Dodwell in the preface to his Defence of y^e Vindication of the Deprived B^{ps}., p. 33. §. 16. Though Bishop Burnet observes that no such form was imposed on B^p. Ridley, nor on B^p. Thirlby, who were consecrated in y^e year 1550.—Ridley was consecrated B^p. of Rochester Sept. 5, 1547. Thirlby was translated indeed to Norwich An. 1550, but consecrated B^p. of Westminster Dec. 19, 1540. (Since the writing of this I have received a Letter from Mr. Tho. Cherry satisfying me that Mr. Dodwell acknowledges this to be a Mistake, & giving me liberty to alter the Passage in the copy in the Bodlejan Library.) —

Given by Dr. Hudson to y^e Publick Library.

July 31 (Tu.). Dr. Charlett shew'd me to day Sr. Edm. Warcupp's Relation of The Treaty of Peace between King Charles I. and y^e Rebells 10 in the Isle of Wight. At the beginning is Sr. Edmund's Letter to the Dr. giving an Account of the Extraordinary Piety and Learning of that King, and of his great Success in touching for the Evil, which is a signal Instance of his being in the Divine Favour. He gives the Dr. Leave to put it into the Publick Library, when he shall think fit. There was some Proposal made to y^e Bookseller for Printing it with Sr. Edw. Walker's Papers; but Sr. Edmund having been formerly of the Wrong side, and there being several considerable variations in his Account from that of Sr. Edward's (which is certainly the most to be relied upon) the matter was let drop. — I saw in the Master's Study Colnaeus's Edition of the 20 New Testament in Greek,—1539. 8°. 'Twas formerly Dr. Bernard's Book, as appears from a note of his at the Beginning testifying that 'tis a much better Edition than that of Rob. Stephens in folio. — Yesterday came to y^e Publick Library the MS. w^{ch} M^r. Seller bequeath'd to us, containing (1) Wilhelmus Malmsburiensis De Gestis Pontificum Anglorum libros IV. There is a 5th printed in Anglia Sacra. (2) Chronicon Lichfeldense, libris 3. à mundo condito ad annum Domini 1388. 'Twas done wthout doubt by divers Authors, it being usual with the Monks to continue the Acts of their Predecessors. (3) Thomæ Chesterfeld Historiam de Episcopis Lichfeld à Diama an. 656. ad Simon de Borsley an. 30 1347. 'Tis printed in vol. I. p. 423. of the Anglia Sacra published by Mr. Wharton, with several Additions. I believe M^r. Wharton borrow'd this copy from M^r. Seller, for in the Preface p. 34. he hath these words:

Historiæ Lichfeldensis ad annum usque 1347. quinque exemplaria mihi præsto fuerunt. Primum ex Bibliotheca Cottoniana Cleop. D. g. ante 300. annos exaratum. Secundum, ejusdem circiter ætatis, ad calcem Chronici insignis Lichfeldensis (quod Amicus quidam possidet) reperitur. In his nullam invenire potui variationem; adeoque Historiæ textum ex ipsis expressi, &c. —

Mr. Berger tells me that Gronovius, in some discourse he had wth him, defended the word conclitur as being used in the time of Livy. 40 Quære whether there be any such word in any old Copy of Livy? Answer I have found it in all the MSS^{ts} w^{ch} I have consulted.

Aug. 2 (Th.). . . . We have an Account from y^e Assizes at Maidstone, y^t y^e Soldier belonging to Sheerness Fort, y^t Bastinadoed to death one Macklennan, a whiggish & busy Pedlar, was condemned to die for y^e same; But that y^e Major, who 'tis pretended hired him for $\frac{1}{2}$ a Crown, was cleared by y^e Jury, tho' contrary to y^e Direction of my L^d. C. J. The same was made a mighty party cause. — An Indictment of Purjury being brought by a

Aug. 3 (Fri.). Yesterday came to the Library some Gentlemen of Hamburg, amongst whom was Mr. Prilius, a Superintendent in those Parts, who brought a Letter to Dr. Hudson from Mr. Fabritius, with y^e 30 first vol. of his Bibliotheca Græca. Amongst other things in the Letter he mention'd that he had heard that Dr. Hody was dead, wh^{ch} I suppose somebody had related to him, as a jest upon his Book, which is very insipid. — Dr. Mill told me last night that he has brought the History of the New Testament from y^e year 110 to 1555. So that now there is hopes his Prolegomena may be finish'd in a little time.

Dr. Pritius, Superintendent of Sleufens, has published y^e New Testament in Greek with various Readings. So he told Dr. Hudson himself. 10 Ask Dr. Mill about it¹. — I am satisfied that 'twas a malicious Story w^{ch} was raised about Mr. Dodwells making objections² against y^e Athanasian Creed, & y^t he refus'd going into orders upon y^t Account.

Since the Moen is among Mr. Selden's books, I believe that w^{ch} I have was 30 sold, as a Duplicate, about 30 years ago, and shall therefore keep it. I am not surprized that y^e Edition of y^e Bible I mentioned is not in y^e Library, nor mentioned by our Reformation Writers, for 'tis not mentioned [in] any of the Catalogues of our old Bookes, w^{ch} Catalogues have been thought very comprehensive & Exact. The Preface or dedication (w^{ch} is PIO LECTORI, not to any particular man) perswades me that the King was y^e Editor: for amongst other passages therein I observe these, Probe nosti quemadmodum Dominus Deus noster, de cujus verbis seu scripturis agitur, imperaverit, ut Rex postquam in Regni sui solio sederit, Legem Dei sibi describeret, & habens secum legeret omnibus diebus vitæ suæ: quo disceret timere Dominum Deum suum, & verba 40 ejus custodire. Nos itaque consyderantes id erga Deum officij nostri, quo suscepisse cognoscimur, ut in Regno simus sicut Anima in corpore & sol in mundo, utque loco Dei judicium exerceamus in Regno nostro, & omnia in Potestate habentes quoad jurisdictionem, ipsam etiam Ecclesiam vice Dei sedulo regamus ac tueamur: & Disciplina ejus sive augeatur aut solvatur, nos ei rationem reddituri simus, qui Nobis eam credidit, in eo Dei vicem agentes, Deique habentes imaginem, quid aliud vel cogitare vel in animum tam inducere potuimus, quam ut eodem confugere-mus, ubi certo discendum esset, ne quid aliud vel ipsi faceremus vel faciendum

The second acquaints you with y^e State of his Eyes about y^e 26th year of his Reign, ^{weh} is not commonly taken notice of, & it likewise seems to infer that Spectacles were not then in England, since y^e King must have his Bible printed with a gross Letter for his private use; as I suppose that y^e Bibles, Missals, Breviaries, & other Religious Books, were written & printed at first in a large Hand, for y^e use of old Priests & for other Antient people of y^e Laity, who generally are y^e most devout.

This Book has a large Index before it, & if it be valued according to it's Rarity, might bring me a very great Sum, but as 'tis mine, I will not sell it.

I hope Mr. Hearne will acquiesce in my Reasons for Ascribing the Bible to

I know not who it is that is writing the Antiquities of Middlesex, but rather hope for a good Performance of that Task, since few undertake such sort of works, but those who are able to give tolerable satisfaction to y^e Publick. His Desires of a collection of all English Epitaphs, &c. (material ones) I believe will be fulfilled, for there have been as I have heard proposals of this kind published, & the work is said to be in good forwardness.

[Notes on Livy from Sebastianus Maccius Durantinus de Historia, Car. Sigenius and Balthasar Bonifacius de Historicis, Pamelj Exercitatt.]

The Author of y^e Observations upon The Essay¹ for Catholick Communion is Mr. Edward Stephens, as appears from the Book w^{ch} he quotes for Prayers for y^e Dead, wiitten by himself. Dr. Hudson also told me he was Author. This Person formerly writ one discourse at least in behalf of the Quakers, after w^{ch} He declar'd himself in several Respects to be a Roman Catholick. He was once very violent against y^e Jacobites, but at length, much about y^e time that King William died, He 20 declar'd Himself for them, & wrote several Papers shewing himself to be of opinion that the Prince of Wales is legitimate. He is (tho' mutable yet) a very conscientious man, & has been a great sufferer upon y^t Account. He leads a most strict & severe life; but is a great opiniator — Dr. Wynne (Hugh) tells me he has writ An Historical Account, proving that it has been y^e Opinion of the chief of our English writers since the Reformation, that the Lawfull civil Magistrate may, for Political Crimes, deprive a Bishop: wherein he has discover'd some Errors of M^r. Dodwell, & shew'd y^t he has in some places contradicted himself. 'Tis not printed. — 30

[Notes on Livy from T. Fabri Epistolae, Pars II, various works of Lipsius, P. Benij Eugubini de Historia libri IV, &c.]

Dr. Crosthwait says that the Author of y^e Essay for Catholick Communion is one that is a Welch-man or at least lives in Wales. There is just now come out a Book containing some Papers about Transubstantia[tio]n w^{ch} pass'd between M^r. H. Newcom a minister in Lancashire & T. B. a Romish Priest. Quare whether this T. B. be the Author of the Essay. — From some words, w^{ch} pass'd between M^r. Grabe and another Gentleman in y^e University, I gather that he saw Mr. Stephens's Observations upon the said Essay before they went to 40 the Press. Mr. Stephens quotes B^p. Andrews's Prayers to vindicate His Assertion for Praying for the Dead. I believe M^r. Grabe is of this opinion. I am sure He makes use of B^p. Andrews's Prayers, as an Extraordinary Book. Mr. Stephens amongst other things in these observations is for Consubstan[tia]tion, & that's the Reason M^r. Grabe receives the sacrament at his Hands, it being well known y^t he is a Lutheran, & that he never communicates with the church of England; w^{ch} I y^e more wonder at, because He receiv'd orders from Dr. Lloyd, now B^p. of

He is now living in London. It appears from some Passages in Mr. Stephens's

He lost at least 800 men, besides divers kill'd

Aug. 15 (Wed.). Dr. Charlett lately told me y^t the reason why Dr. Bathurst did not give to the Publick Library such of his Books as were wanting there, was because D^r. Hudson told him y^t we wanted but very few of them: w^{ch} made him think y^t 'twas not worth while to put a clause in his will upon so small an Account. But I believe this to be a story, having been inform'd that the chief reason was because Dr. Charlett desired Dr. Bathurst to let us take an Account before his Death of w^t Books we wanted. W^{ch} he seem'd a little to resent, as if he were not to be relyed on, & would dispose of the best of his Books to other uses. However he lent his Catalogue, which I carefully compar'd with the Library Catalogues, putting down all such Books as we wanted, w^{ch} was a considerable Number, & most of them valuable Books. So that I cannot for this reason think Dr. Hudson would say any such matter to Dr. Bathurst. — Mr. Hoffman is in quest after the Sermons or Homilies of Jacobus Nisibenus. He is looking over also the Homilies of Ephræm Syrus in the Publick Library. He has some design of making them publick both in Syriack and Greek, if he could meet with suitable Encouragement to carry on the Impression.

Aug. 16 (Th.). Mr. Milles (Tho.) writ formerly a Letter to Mr. Grabe concerning his Dissent from him (M^r. 'Twas in Latin, & was design'd I believe to be printed, but I cannot tell what hinder'd it. — Dr. Mill gives but a very indifferent Character (w^{ch} I much wonder at) of D^r. Beveridge, now Bp. of St. David's, particularly upon Account of his not taking sufficient care of things belonging to his Prebend of Canterbury whercin Dr. Mill succeeded him. — Dr. Mill tells me he has been at 400 lib^s charge at least upon St. Edm. Hall, and that amongst other things he finish'd mostly with his own money the Library w^{ch} was only began when he came to the Hall. But I do not believe this. — Amongst Dr. Pocock's MSS^{ts} in B^{ib}. Bodl. is one of Syriack containing Homilies of Mar or Dominus Jacobus, & Ephræm Syrus. He has it seems writ one book already about Patience, w^{ch} I have not seen. He with Mr. Wagstaffe is employ'd to distribute such moneys as are given by the chief Jacobites for charitable uses. Dr. Hickes has given this Mr. Spinkes a very worthy character in his General Preface to his Thesaurus Linguarum veterum Septentrionalium. — M^r. Cherry (Francis) has drawn 20 up a Chronology to Herodotus, w^{ch} Mr. Dodwell tells me is done very well. I suppose he had once a design to publish anew this Excellent Author; but I believe, upon the Death of his Father, he has laid aside all thoughts of this kind. I have seen in his Study, in an octavo Book, a great many particulars relating to Mr. Dodwell's Life, w^{ch} I suppose he will take care to publish if he survives him. He has been at the charge of an Exact Picture of Mr. Dodwell, painted in his studying gown, writing, & with Books about him. This he designs to bequeath to the University, to be hung amongst other Learned Men in the Publick Gallery belonging to the Bodlejan Library.

30 August 18 (Sat.). [News from the Scottish Parliament, dated Edinburgh, Aug. 9.]

Plymouth 12th. Yesterday morning about 1 a'clock was a terrible storm, in w^{ch} divers merchant ships were lost homeward bound from Lisbon, Leghorn, Barbadoes &c. The Men of War indeed are all safe, but upon a true computation from the Accounts hence, & other places particularly Portsmouth where of 150 outward Bound Merchant Men above half are missing the Merchants have suffer'd more in their shipping than they did last great storme.

A Proclamation come out for further Proroguing the Parliament to the 23^d of October next, when they are to meet & do Business. — They 40 write from Andover in Hampshire that y^e storme blew down intirely the Steeple there, reckon'd the biggest in y^t Country; but that no other damage was done by the fall than breaking down part of a House. — Yesterday one Sanford came to the Publick Library, with Cole the Ingraver, on purpose to look over our Coyns, & to take the Impressions of some of them. Cole says he has got a good Collection of his own, &

Bp. Godwin's Nuntius inanimatus was translated into English by Dr. Tho. Smith (as he tells me in a Letter) and published in 1657. Desire him to send us one to the Library (if he has duplicates) we having there neither the Latin nor y^e Translation. — Mr. Priaulx is said to be Author of those two ingenious Poems, call'd Faction display'd, and Moderation display'd, whereof there is lately come out in 8^o (price 2s.) a 10 new Edition printed from a correct copy, with Improvements.

Aug. 19 (Sun.). On Friday last Dr. Lloyd, Bp. of Worcester, return'd from the Country to Oxford, where he designs to stay 'till the Sitting of the Parliament, with intent to prosecute his Exposition upon Daniel, whereof there are already about 13 sheets printed, the whole being to be 30. He says that he must finish this work before he can proceed with his chronology, whereof 30 sheets were printed several years since. So that no one expects to see this Work from his Hands, and he is now become sensible that he cannot finish, & therefore intends to leave it to his son, 20 whom he thinks able to carry it on, having already settled matters so as 'twill be no difficulty for any one a little skill'd in chronology to put the remainder in good order. The last time he was in Town he shew'd me a Summary of his whole Exposition upon Daniel, which seem'd to be extraordinary well done, and adapted to the meanest Reader.

Aug. 20 (Mon.). [News from the Scottish Parliament, dated Edinburgh, August 11.]

We hear y^e Queens design'd Procession to St. Paul's on the 23^d Instant is put off tho' things were prepared for solemnizing y^e day by Te Deum & a sermon. 'Twas thought w^a y^e Proclamation was issued for 30 a thanksgiving it was expected y^t some thing more signal would have followed upon forcing the Enemy's Lines to have made y^e victory compleat & signal but unforeseen Difficulties hapned & y^e Elector of Bavaria in an Intercepted Letter of his to the French King assures his Majesty y^t he'l observe his ordeis in not fighting & will defye the Duke of Marlborough to force him to it. So y^t upon the whole most are of opinion that there ought rather to have been a publick Fast Day than one for a Thanksgiving, especially since 3 Holland Mails just arriv'd assure us that the Duke of Marlborough having attempted a Batle was obstructed by the Dutch who are unwilling to hazard one, upon w^{ch} he complains in a 40 Letter to the States of the small Authority he has in the Army by indirect Practises of those who do not seem to favour the good of y^e common cause. And the Prince Lewis has joyn'd his Army, yet Marshal Villars, the French General declines to fight. Nor do Letters from Lisbon give any better Accounts, a Great Plot in favour of Charles III^d having been discover'd and several of the Principal concern'd in it executed.

Aug. 21 (Tu.). In the 9th Vol. of Dr. Langbain's Collections, given to the Publick Library by Mr. Ant. à Wood, are divers Matters, by way of Objection and Answer relating to Purgatory and Prædestination, put down by him I suppose upon Account of some Publick Dispute in Divinity. Of Free Will in pag. 43. ibid. p. 69. An Ecclesia errare vel deficere possit? — I am told by one of the Fellows of Merton-College that Mr. Ant. à Wood formerly us'd to frequent their Common Room; but that a Quarrel arising one night between some of the Fellows, one of them, who thought himself very much abus'd, put some of the rest into the Court; but when the Day for deciding the matter came, there wanted sufficient Evidence. At last Mr. Wood, having been in company all the time the Quarrel lasted 10 and put down the whole in Writing, gave a full Relation, w^{ch} appear'd so clear for the Plaintiff, that immediate Satisfaction was commanded to be given. This was so much resented, that Mr. Wood was afterwards expell'd the common Room, & his company avoyded as an observing Person, & not fit to be present where matters of moment were discuss'd.

Yesterday Dr. Mill sent to me a Testimonium to be sign'd for Cyprian & Paul Appia, Vaudois, that they may be admitted into H. Orders. But whereas they never lodg'd, nor convers'd with any, in Edm. Hall (at least not to my knowledge) I return'd it again wthout giving my Hand.
 20 The Bp. of Worcester has maintain'd them for sometime, & now designs to put them into Orders, being mov'd to it by Dr. Mill, who does not consider that 'tis not canonical, they having not been ever of any University before they came hither; & tho' they did sometimes receive a Lecture from one in Edm. Hall, yet they were never either of y^t House or any other in this university as Members, and therefore ought not to claim the Privilege of university men. Besides 'tis not 3 years since they had first a Lecture from the said Person, being admitted into the Publick Library Apr. 11. 1704, a little before w^{ch} they agreed about a Lecture.

Anno Domini 1384 compilatio ista hoc modo Cantabrigiæ erat examinata unde à quodam sacerdote ad ligandum ibid. fuit posita, à quibusdam scholaribus diligenter erat intuita atque perlecta. Et Cancellario Universitatis ejusque Concilio præsentata, propter defectus & hæreses examinanda, ne minus literati populum per eum negligenter fallant, & in varios errores fallaciter inducant. Tunc jussu Cancellarij coram eo ac toto Concilio universitatis per 4 dies cum omni studio ac diligentia fuit examinata, atque in omni Collegio undique comprobata. Die quinto omnibus Doctoribus utriusque juris & magistris Theologiæ cum Cancellario dicentibus & affirmantibus eam de sacris legibus ac libris divinis bene ac subtiliter tractatam, et ex auctoritate omnium doctorum sacræ paginæ sapienter allegatam, id est affirmatam, necnon & fundatam. Ideo quicumque fueris, ô lector, hanc noli contemnere quia sine dubio si aliqui defectus in ea inventi fuissent, coram Universitate Cantabrigiæ combusta fuisset. —

Yesterday Mr. Gilby, Bach. of Law, Fellow of All-Souls Coll. & one of the Proctors in the vice-chancellor's court died of a consumption, w^{ch} he said a little before he died he thought verily to have proceeded from a piece of cherry stone which some time since went down his ¹ wind-Pipe & caused a corruption in his Lungs. [Extract from Pauli Leopardi Emendationes.]

To-day, being the Thanksgiving for the Duke of Marlborough's forcing ⁴⁰ the French Lines, Mr. Evans of St. John's preach'd at St. Mary's upon Judges viii. 34, 35. . . I believe he pleas'd the Whiggish party very well, in extolling so much the Bravery & courage of K. William & the Duke of Marlborough, but chiefly by recommending union and Moderation, & not suffering our Zeal to carry us so far as to bespatter our Governours in libellous Pamphletts, such as he insinuated had lately appear'd, meaning wthout doubt y^t usefull one The Memorial of y^e Church of England. Tho' it must be acknowledg'd that in the general 'twas a good sermon & sufficiently laid open the Sin of Ingratitude, & the Mischiefs that will infallibly

Aug. 24 (Fri.). Mr. Wharton writ a Pamphlett in English, intit. The Enthusiasm of the Church of Rome, &c. 4^o. Printed at Lond. — Dr. Hudson writ the Inscription upon the Monument of Dr. Plot, which Mr. Llhuud has added to the Account he drew up of his Life, printed in the Supplement to Mr. Collier's Dictionary, and at the Beginning of Dr. Plot's History of Oxfordshire, Edit. 2^d. — The Superintendency of 10 Divine Providence over Humane Affairs, in a Sermon preach'd at St. Paul's London before the L^d Mayor &c. on the 29th of May 1705, by Francis Fox, A.M. & chaplain to his Loidship. Lond. 1705, 4^o. The said Francis Fox, having served above 6 Years as an Apprentice to a Mercer¹ in London left off his Trade & came to Oxford, & entred himself Commoner of Edmund-Hall as a Member of which he took his Master of Arts Degree in the year 1704, & soon after going to London, became Chaplain to Sir Owen Buckingham, Mayor of that city for the year 1705. So that whereas he once scrupled the Oath of Abjuration, yet upon reading the Preface to Vol. I. of my Lord Clarendon's History
 20 he immediately took y^t Oath, without having any other Argument to offer for it, as he not long after told Mr. Dodwell in my hearing, which so astonished that Pious & learned Person that he told him he thought him a Man of no conscience nor consideration; since granting there had been any Argument in that Preface 'twould have been so far from justifying w^t he did that 'twould be directly ag^t him being not writ by the Author himself but the Editors all of which except one had taken the Oath. But indeed there is no Argument or any thing like an Argument to defend the taking of this Oath in that place, as Mr. Dodwell plainly shew'd him. And yet he was so far from hearkening
 30 to the pious Discourse of this Excellent Man, that he went away smiling, & with so little concern that he affirm'd to me that he could take the Oath if it had been ten times worse, & yet could give no manner of reason for it. He is got in with the Whigs, & tho' he was once ag^t the Occasional Conformissts he is now very warm for them. When he was in Oxford he went every Sunday to Christ-Church Prayers in the Morning, to receive the Sacrament; which gain'd him the character of a Sanctify'd Person. But after he had taken the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, he left off that Custom quite, to the Amazement of his Acquaintance. In short he is a Man of great Boldness and As-
 40 surance, but has neither parts nor Learning; and the Sermon above mention'd is an injudicious rhapsodical discourse of Providence in General collected from several Authors with little in particular relating to the day. — 'Tis observable that last Night were no Illuminations in Oxford on Account of the Thanksgiving but in Dr. Mill's Lodgings.

In the Beginning of the Edition of Livy (at Rome 1472) in Corpus Christi Coll. Library is this Memorandum :

Edinb. 17. This day the Parliament met, & went upon Limitation of a Protestant Successor. At last they pass'd a Bill that for the future the Lords of the Privy-Council, Treasury & Exchequer, as also the 20 Lords of the Session and Justitiary shall be solely nominated and appointed by the Parliament. So y^t y^e next King of Scotland is like to be King of Clouts. — Dr. Ellis is made Bp. of Kildare in Ireland, the Bp. of Kildare being removed to the Diocess of Meath. — We hear at last that the Muscovites did not vanquish the Swedes, as was at first reported; but that the Muscovites were defeated with the loss of 7000 Men. — 'Tis generally concluded that Prince Eugene had not a compleat victory over the French in Italy, but that both sides after great loss parted, tho' the better was on the part of Pr. Eugene. — On Friday the Paper call'd the Review of the Rehearsal writt by Tutchin 30 did not come out as usual. Upon w^{ch} 'tis thought a stop has been put to it by order of Court; it being a most scandalous, nonsensical thing, and such as gives offence to both sides.

Aug. 26 (Sun.). The Pamphlett call'd A Cat may look on a Queen, or A Satyr on her present Majesty, seems to have been written¹ by J. Tutchin or some such pitiful Fellow, being a very silly thing, & stuff'd with Raillery upon the Fathers & other Friends of the Church. — Dr. Hudson was chosen Keeper of the Publick Library in Oxon April 11. 1701. — Mr. Rogers (afterwards Dr. of Divinity) was chosen President of Magdalen-Coll. Oxon. Apr. 12. 1701. — The II^d Edition of Livy at 40 Rome was printed from the first by Joannes Antonius Campanus Episcopus Interamniensis, & is exactly the same only 'tis somewhat more correct, whereof the chief things of note are observed by Gronovius & other Editors of Livy. At the End are these Verses :

Aspicis illustris lector quicunque libellos,
Sì cupis artificum nomina nosse: lege.
Aspera ridebis cognomina Teutona: forsan
Mitiget ars musis inscia verba virum.

Mr. Lesly, in his Discourse ag^t Marriages with those of different communions, pag. 50. attributes the mischiefs w^{ch} befell King Charles I. in a great measure to his marrying a Popish Lady. This Tract of Mr. Lesly's seems from several passages in it about the B^{ps}. depriv'd by King W^m, & one concerning Sir Hen. Spelman's History of Sacrilege to have been written for the Jacobites, notwithstanding he says the 10 Substance of it was preach'd at Chester before the Revolution. From pag. 59 he seems to insinuate that when all the present dissenting B^{ps}. are dead those who are against such as have been substituted in their Places will not submit, but will joyn to forreign B^{ps}. who are against the Depriving of B^{ps}. by the Civil Magistrate. In pag. 59 he clears the objections offer'd about our English Reformation, because of the Lay-Power employ'd in it, from the Pope's unjustly pretending to a universal & Unlimited Supremacy, & his imposing upon us things Sinfull & Heretical, which make a Separation justifiable.

pipe being blow'd out. — . . To-day I saw at the Publick Library Dr. Stearn Dean of St. Patrick in Ireland. He is son to John Stearn, Dr. of Physick, & Professor thereof in Dublin, who was Tutor to the Learned Mr. Hen. Dodwell. This Dr. Stearne, the Dean, has published a Discourse in Latin de infirmorum visitatione, & a Sermon. But he has printed nothing else yet, as himself was pleas'd to tell me. — Wanting in y^e Publick Library Dr. John Stearne's Examen Herebordi de Concursu, (2) Dissertatio de Electione & Reprobatione. He also writ a Preface to Roger Boyle's Inquisitio in fidem hujus sæculi. But this does not goe along with the Copies, & so is not to be met with : there being 10 some reason why 'twas not publish'd with the Book itself, viz. either a difference between Dr. Stearn's widow & the Bookseller, who would not allow a sufficient gratuity for y^e copy, or else something æquivalent.

Sept. 2 (Sun.). Dr. Lloyd, Bp. of Worcester, was so well pleas'd with Mr. Evans's Thanksgiving Sermon before the University, that he said soon after that he was very glad there was one even in Oxford that would speak for King William. It seems too he sent for him to his Lodgings & told him he would get him good preferment for it. The Sermon is reported to have been made by Dr. Tadlo, this Evans, and some others 20 at a Merry-Meeting. As for Evans, there are very few in Oxford bear so bad a character, being noted for &c. — I have been told y^t the Bp. of Worcester is now in the 188th year of his Age. — Mr. Hoffman a Lutheran. Being to day at dinner with the Bp. of Worcester, Mr. Lloyd, his Son, (who was lately made Chancellor of Worcester by his L^dship) happening to mention Coyns, seem'd to shew some Resentment towards Dr. Hudson, to whom he says he formerly offer'd his service for putting the coyns in order in the publick Library given by Consul Ray, & that he seem'd shy in y^e Matter. When Dinner was ended Mr. Lloyd shew'd his collection of Coyns, w^{ch} indeed is a good one, they being for the most part very fair. He has not many Consular ones, but those of the 30 Emperors are many, & valuable, for the most part. He has also a good number of Gemms, stones &c. He spoke several times ag^t the High-Church-men at dinner, w^{ch} his Lordship did not seem to like very well. — Dr. Stearne, (who dined at y^e Bp's. too, and preach'd this Morning at Magd. Church, upon his Lordship's Request, who received y^e Sacrament there) says that he lately amongst MSS^{ts} he purchas'd had 2000 Evidences thrown into his Bargain, which he has communicated to Dr. Kennett. Amongst the MSS. were some Irish, w^{ch} he has communicated to Mr. Lihuyd of y^e Musæum. — The two Sheriffs have been with Dr. Willis, Dean of Lincoln, with the Thanks of the L^d Mayer & court of 40 Aldermen, for the Sermon preach'd by him last Thanksgiving day (for forcing the French Lines) at St. Paul's. This Sermon, w^{ch} is just publish'd is variously talk'd off, & cannot, as is thought, escape wthout an

Sept. 2. T. Cherry to H. It was a mistake that Layton was to publish Dodwell's Arguments and replies. Various messages from Dodwell. He very often receives letters from Perizonius and Le Clerc about his schism. Useless for Mr. M. Gibson to think of being Minister of Maidenhead. Local news and sundry commissions.

Answer, there being several Reflections in it upon some of the Principal Men of the Church of England. — The Grand Juries for London & Middlesex, the last Sessions, presented the Memorial of the Ch. of England (whereof there is a Vindication come out) as a dangerous Pamphlett. But this is not at all to be wonder'd at, if we consider of w^t Persons the juries consist, & who are the Presenters. — 'Tis now agreed upon for certain that the L^d Pembroke (President of the Council) is speedily to go over to Holland, to expostulate with y^e States for their obstructing the Duke of Marlborough in his design'd Engagement with y^e French. —

10 'Tis said (Mr. Lesley) the Writer of y^e Rehearsal is taken up for being Author of The Memorial, & that he has given 1000 lib^s bayle. — M^r. Dodwell has just finished a Discourse concerning the Immortality of y^e Soul, & is going to put it to the Press. — Mr. Grabe, as 'tis said, & he seem'd to insinuate as much to me, will print only the Alexandrian Copy of the Septuagint, w^{thout} Notes, only Parallel Places of Scripture. But if he lives & has his Health he will add a Volume of Annotations afterwards. This I believe he will do provided he does not meet wth better Encouragem^t for carrying on the Expenses. But if there be suitable Encouragem^t he will print Notes at y^e Bottom, w^{ch} will be very large,

20 & will require a great deal of tmc. — Mr. Lloyd tells me he knows Sanford, who came to see our Coyns, & that he is one who makes it his business to pick up such curiosities, & to sell them afterwards, being a Person of no skill in History or any other Parts of Learning, as having not been bred up to it.

Sept. 3 (Mon.). Cod. MS. in Bib. Bodl. NE. C. 4. 3. Compendium Historiarum ab orbe condito usque passionem Apostolorum Petri & Pauli. — The B^p. of Worcester told me that formerly he look'd over all the Coyns in the Pub. Library Gallery, w^{ch} was before the considerable Additions made by Nourse, Consul Ray &c. . . .

30 Sept. 4 (Tu.). Mr. Wm. Cherry¹ died (some time since) in y^e 73^d year of his Age. — It seems Mr. Lesley was taken up for being Author of the Memorial upon an Insinuation in one of the Observators written by Tutchin who was lately in Devonshire, & other western Parts, on purpose to rake up all the Scandal he could against the stan[c]h members of the Church of England. W^{ch} being hinted to the Judges in one place (as they were on their Circuit) he was forced to fly immediately. — Sometime since I compar'd the Oxford Edition of St. Cyprian (as reprinted in Holland) with a MS^t in Lincoln College, & the Life of St. Cyprian with a MS^t in St. John's college, & put down the Variations

40 (w^{ch} are many & considerable) in a Copy of Dr. Mill's. — The Edition of Tatian, w^{ch} came out at Oxford, in 1705, tho' it bears Mr. Worth's name, yet most of the notes, wth the Dedication, & Prefaces were written by Dr. Mill. So that Mr. Worth did but very little to it. I was with him at Eaton, whither I went on purpose from Shotlesbrook to compare a MS^t for this Edition. —

Burnett's History of Reform. pag. 144. Part II.

Another difference between the Ordination Book set out at that (viz. An. 1550) time, and that we now use, was, that the Bishop was to lay his one Hand on y^e Priest's Head, and with his other to give him a Bible, with a Chalice 10 and Bread in it, saying the words now said at the Delivery of y^e Bible. In the Consecration of a Bishop there was nothing more than what is yet in use, save that a Staff was put into his Hand, with this Blessing, Be to y^e Flock of Xt. a Shepherd.

This is a great Error, there being no such Difference either in the ordaining of a Priest or Bp, as appears from the Forms printed in 1549, & 1552, both w^{ch} I have look'd into. —

Reasons that Catholics ought in anywise to abstaine from Heretical Conventicles. 80. . . The Running title over every Leafe is a Treatise of Schisme. Quere who the Author. At the Beginning is this memorandum in MS^t, 20

Mr. Carter hath confessed he hath printed of these Bookes 1250. This was found at Wm. Carter's in his House at the Tower Hill wth the Original Copy sent from Rhemes allowed under Doctor Allein's owne Hand & name subscribed thus : Hic tractatus est plane Catholicus, & nostris imprimis hominibus, hoc schismatis tempore, pernecessarius.

Ita testor GULLIELMUS ALLANUS Sacræ Theologiæ Doctor & Professor.

Mr. Wood, Athen. Oxon. Vol. I. col. 306, insinuates that 'tis Robert Parsones the Jesuite, who certainly writ Nine Reasons why Catholics should abstain from Heretical Conventicles, if we may credit Ant. Possevin in Apparat. Sac. Tom. II. in Rob. Persons, which seems to be no other 30 than this in Bodley's Library, the Title-Page whereof is torn out, otherwise we could give a more full Account of it. — . . . The Book call'd the Memorial was burnt last Sat'day at y^e Sessions House by y^e Hands of y^e common Hang-Man & this week the same will be done at y^e Royal Exchange & Palace yard Westminster. — Yesterday night late came two Holl. Mailes, viz. from Millan y^t the D. of Vendosme lyes near Rivalto & Pr. Eugene att Grivelgo, the former flying before him leaving all y^e Inns full of his Sick & wounded. The French lost in the battle wth Pr. Eugene 3500 Men, among them 400 Officers. The D. of Marlborough took Fort St. Lewis after 2 days Siege, making the Garrison Prisoners of War. — 40 Mr. Clements, the Bookseller, tells me that the Antiquities of Middlesex will not be continued, meeting with but a very indifferent Reception. — One Mr. Hunt of Baliol College has just put into the Theatre Press Theodosius's Sphærica, to be printed in Latin only, at the charges of Mr. Clements. — Mr. Grabe shew'd me to day a Specimen of his design'd Edition of the Septuagint, w^{ch} has the Text according to the Alexandrian Copy, & where that is defective, from other MSS, without any Annotations, only Parallel Places of Scripture; which method, it seems, he has been advis'd to take, & if he lives, to publish y^e Annotations in a separate Volume. — 'Tis said the Archbp of Canterbury will suspend the Pro- 50 locutor &c. the next Convocation if they continue as obstinate as they did the last. — Mr. Grabe had lately sent him by Zacagnius, Keeper of the Vatican Library, a specimen, (taken very exactly) in a new manner, the impression being made upon the skin of an Oxe's Gut, of the MS^t from whence the Roman Edition of the Septuagint was printed. He has given part of it to Dr. Hudson to be put in the Bodlejan Library. I have not yet seen it. — Dr. Mill has put Mr. Hoffman upon perusing all the Coptick Pieces of the Bible in the Bodl. Library, & promises him Encouragement to have 'em printed. — Just publish'd a 2^d Edition, with great Additions of Mr. Keil's (John) Lectures, read when Deputy Pro-

 10 fessor to Dr. Millington, in the Natural Philosophy Schoole at Oxford. — Mr. Grabe tells me that before he came into England he was Professor of Humanity for about 12 Years, & that he drew up a great many things in order to an Ecclesiastical History, w^{ch} he proposed to methodise and put into order when he came to Oxford, as he declar'd to Dr. Mill in a Letter, whereof I have a Copy. He had also thoughts of printing Ephræm Syrus in Greek, from MSS. in the Oxoñ Libraries; but being diverted, Dr. Mill I believe designs it, having already procur'd a Transcript of most in the Bodl. Library.

Sept. 5 (Wed.). Mr. Evans, of St. John's Coll., talks mightily of Print-
 20 ing his Thanksgiving Sermon. But here is none in Oxford will print a thing so scandalously partial against the Church of England. — Just publish'd A List of the names of all those who were taken in the Poll for the County of Middlesex at Brainford last Election for Members of Parliament. — 'Tis said B^p. Andrews writ an Exposition upon the Book of Common-Prayer. But I could never yet meet with it. . . .

Sept. 6 (Th.). Yesterday the Fellows of University had a meeting, and turn'd Mr. Smith (Senior Fellow) out of his Fellowship, on Account of a Parsonage he has. . . .

Sept. 7 (Fri.). Yesterday Mr. Smith of University College made his 30 Complainte to y^e Vice-Chancellor for the Fellows turning him out. Upon w^{ch} Birkett, the Mancipal was sent for, who said that he never knew any Fellow turn'd out in the Heads Absence. — As they were digging the foundations for the Church of All Saints in Oxoñ, soon after the old church fell down, they found the Body of a Man firm & intire after it had been buried about 150 years. — . . . Mr. Hoffman is looking over the Coptick Translation of the Bible in y^e Pub. Library. He has begun to translate y^e New Testam^t, Dr. Mill promising to get incouragem^t y^t it may be printed. — Dr. Mill says my L^d. Pembroke is already gone into Holland to expostulate with y^e States, & y^t Sir Andrew Fountaine is 40 gone along with him. . . .

Sept. 8 (Sat.). The Grand Jury of London y^t presented the Memorial were 10 of y^m Dissenters & only 2 of y^e Pannel Ch. Men who refused to sign y^e said presentment. — The L^d. Pembroke designs to set out for Holland this day being Saturday. — Sr. Ch. Shuckborough one of the Members of Parl. for y^e county of Warwick & Master of y^e Buck Hounds to the Queen died Suddenly on Sunday last at Winchester. — 'Tis whispered there has been a 2^d Batle in Italy to y^e Advantage of Pr. Eugene. — . . . The original Author of the Private Devotions, w^{ch} Dr. Hicks & Mr. Dorrington reform'd, was Mr. Austin. — Mr. Bonnell's Life was written by W^m. Harrington, who has publish'd a New Book of Mr. Bonnells containing Devotions &c. w^{ch} is recommended to the world by Mr. Jo. Stuype, Mr. Sam. Palmer, &c. all Whiggs. Mr. Bonnell himself, who is so commended by these Pharisaical People, was of the Whiggish side. . . .

Sept. 9 (Sun.). Mr. Hoffman tells me that Mollerus is upon continuing Morhoffius de re Literaria. — Leipenius has written a Book de Ophur, w^{ch} I have not yet seen.

[News from the Scottish Parliament, September 1.]

At the Beginning of last week Dr. Berwick, a Physician, died, who ¹⁰ was very gracious with King Charles II. — Tho. Fagg, a Member of Parliam^t for Rye in Sussex, died lately of y^e Small-Pox. — The Earl of Pembroke's Voyage to Holland is deferr'd for some time; but all things are getting ready for it. — 'Tis said if Lesley be prov'd the Author of the Memorial the Jacobites will be greater Sufferers than they have been as yet; w^{ch} makes several, who are well wishers to them, (believing that y^e greatest part of em^l are men of conscience) wish that it may not be proved upon him, & y^t he would employ his Pen upon other subjects. — Mr. Hoffman tells me he has been at Padua, where he saw the Monument of Livy; but that he believes all the Inscriptions ²⁰ relating to him to be modern. — . . . Mr. Grabe tells me that Dr. Smith had a design to publish the Septuagint from the Alexandrian Copy in the time of K. Charles II. from whom he had hopes of encouragement. But his death prevented the undertaking. — Mr. Grabe says that Dr. Bull's Letter against the Papists printed in Dr. Hickeys' Book against y^m is the best part in the whole Book, tho' Dr. Hickeys's is very good, & ought to be publish'd separte by it self, to be distributed as there is occasion. — I hear from Mr. Worth that the B^p. of Worcester is in the 78th year of his Age, and not in the 88th as I was lately told. Mr. Worth is his Chaplain. ³⁰

Sept. 12 (Wed.). Mr. Moreton, a Clergyman, is writing the Antiquities of Northamptonshire. — The Antiquities of Stamford in Lincshire are writing by a Gentleman of that towne. I have his Name, I think, in a Lett^r from Mr. Willis. He is a Clergyman, as Dr. Hudson, who is just come from those parts, informs me. . . .

wherein he desires to borrow certain Books MSS. out of the Publick Library, offering security for them, being for his purpose towards an Edition of the Bible in Saxon which he is undertaking. But this cannot be done, & 'tis a matter of wonder he should desire such a thing. . . .

Sept. 13 (Th.). On Wednesday Morning died Sr. Sam. Dashwood K^t & Alderman of London. As also did the same Evening Sr. Rob^t Clayton, K^t & Alderman, the Father of y^t City. — This day looking into the Monthly Account of Books, call'd The works of the Learned, for August I found that there was ready for the Press at Oxon Jo.
10 Leland de Illustribus Scriptoribus majoris Britanniae, (with Notes and Improvements) from y^e Original in y^e Pub. Library, by Mr. Ant. Hall of Queen's College. — We hear 'tis now resolv'd in council y^t the Earl of Pembroke shall not go for Holland, Matters being agreed on y^t no Officer w^{ts}soever shall be in council but y^e D. of Malborough, Mons^r. Overkirk & y^e 2 States Deputies & y^t his Grace shall have a double vote.

Sept. 14 (Fri.). Mr. Thwaits says Mr. Hall of Queen's college does not design to publish Leland de scriptoribus; & that 'twas put into the works of the Learn'd without his knowlege. — Mr. Milles of X^tchurch tells me he has some design of Travelling into Forreign Countries. — From 20 Edinb. the 6th we hear that that day a Proposal was made in Parl. for arming & training an Army of 72000 Foot & 8000 Horse, & looks great, being design'd to frighten the Parliam^t of England, who have touch'd 'em in y^e sensible p^t by prohibiting their cattle, & making Scotch men Aliens. — There is an Elegy come out upon the late famous Atchievem^t of burning the Memorial.

Sept. 15 (Sat.). Sr. Rob. Clayton is not dead as was reported, but lyes dangerously ill. — Mons^r. Montfaucon designs other Tomes of his Diarium Italicum. See his Preface, & remember to ask Dr. Smith conc. that Matter. — I was told last Night that in the great Fire at 30 London was burnt a MS. Bible curiously illuminated like the Historical P^t of the Bible in Bodley's Archives, & that 'twas valued at 1500 lib^s.

Sept. 16 (Sun.). In pag. 4 of Montfaucon is an Inscription taken by the Author at Arles relating to a Victory of Charles the Great, not mentioned in any Historian. — In pag. 5 is mention of D. Marcellus Tolosus's History of Arles. Quære whether yet published. In pag. 6. of Paulus Nemausensis' Antiquities of Nemausum 'twas preparing then for the Press. — It seems the Non-Jurors in Oxford receive the Sacram^t at Mr. Sheldon's chamber at X^t Church, who finds all the necessaries for it, this Sheldon is Nephew to Archbp. Sheldon, & was some time

Sept. 13. Dr. T. Smith to H. Greatly regrets the loss of Dee's Apology for Roger Bacon; has lost Godwin's Nuncius and his own trans. The inscription in Prideaux (corrected by young Wren), and a more important one noticed by Halley. Earle's trans. of Hooker. Mr. Greaves' Pyramidographia and his Roman Foot and Denarius are put into Latin by Mr. Wolton, author of the Reflexions upon Ancient and Modern Learning.

Sept. 17 (Mon.). Dr. Mill wishes y^e Memorial had not been burnt; speaking, I suppose, the opinion of several other of the Whigges. — Ld. Rochester was in Town last week with y^e Dean of X^t Church. — I believe The Secret History of Queen Zarah and y^e Zarascians lately publish'd, in 8^o, is the same w^{ch} was said sometime since would come out as Br. Burnett's Secret History. The Name of Secret might create the mistake. — Hartm. Schedelij Chronicon. . . . In his Acc^t of Livy, fol. 93, he says he wrote only 110 Books. But does not give his Authority.

Two Warrants are out for seizing the Author and Publisher of the 10 Whipping-Post for Reflecting on Dr. Willis's Sermon preached before y^e Queen. — Mr. Payne made to day Mayor of Oxon. — Dr. Sherlock, Dean of St. Paul's, dangerously ill. . . .

He tells me that Dr. Johnson's designs of Publishing the Antiquities of Yorkshire will come to nothing, he having not skill to put his collections in order, & that Mr. Fortescue, 10 who had once some design of printing the unpublish'd pieces of St. John Fortescue, has alter'd his Mind. Pliny in lib. VII. Hist. Nat. § 27. has the Inscription containing Pompey's Triumph, w^{ch} he took from the Temple of Minerva. But 'tis somew^t different from that w^{ch} I find copy'd from the Stone it self in The Tarvisian Edition of Livy, w^{ch} I have transcrib'd above in some of these Papers. 'Twill be worth publishing anew in an Edition of Livy, at w^{ch} time Harduin's Notes must be consulted upon it. — In p. 322 of Reinesius's Epistles are divers Emendations of Justin, w^{ch} I must consider if I live to put out another Edition. Look also in pag. 40 375. 410. 436. 478. 550. 566. — . . . Yesterday Mr. Maddox was admitted into y^e Pub. Sept. 21 (Fri.). To day Mr. Thwaites told me that he really believes Mr. Hall designs to prosecute Leland, & to publish it unless Mr. Tanner does it very quickly. W^{ch} I the rather believe because I have heard Mr. Hall say he had some such Intention.

[Plates containing 'The Inscription on a Stone found lately at Rewly, and ¹⁰ since put into the Anatomy Schools,' and 'An Inscription on one of y^e Stones in y^e Theatre Yard,' in Marm. Oxon. p. 270.]

The first Inscription above mention'd I found on a Stone dug up at Rewly in the Ground, where the Chappel of the Abbey formerly was. This Stone I purchas'd of Mr. Cox who lives now in the House w^{ch} is pt of the Abbey, and I have since put it into the Anatomy Schoole Adjoyning to the Publick Library. 'Tis the more valuable, because it discovers Ela Countess of Warwick to have Founded the Chapell; w^{ch} is not mention'd by any Author that I know of, tho' Her other Works of Charity at Oxoⁿ and elsewhere are reckon'd up by Sir W^m Dugdale, in his Antiquities of Warwickshire & the History of the Baronage. She died in the year 1300, & so I suppose founded the chapell much about the time that the Abbey was built by Edm. Earl of Cornwall, w^{ch} was An. D. 1281. temp. Ed I. The Greek Inscription is that w^{ch} I have mention'd above as being in the 270th pag. of Marm. Oxon. But 'tis here inserted exactly as I took it from the Stone in the Theatre Yard. 20

Sept. 22 (Sat.). Last Night I was with Mr. Wotton (who writ the Essay on Ancient & Modern Learning) at the Tavern, together with Mr. Thwaites & Mr. Willis. Mr. Wotton is a Person of general Learning, a great Talker & Braggadocio, but of little Judgment in any one particular science. He told me he had begun some time since to translate Greaves's Rom. Denarius, but had not finish'd & could not tell whether he should ever perfect it. 30

[Extract from Joseph. Antiq. l. 14. c. 8.]

Steph. de Urbibus (in voce Σάμος) tells us that the Gentile Name of Σάμος, is Σαμαῖος, &c. Upon w^{ch} Account perhaps the Inscription above in the Theatre Yard should be supply'd in y^e first line Σαμαίων; tho' Berkelius observes that Σαμαῖος comes rather from Σάμη, & that Σάμος is the Gentile of Σάμος. But 'tis probable Stephens had observ'd Σαμαίων in some Inscriptions, & so he affirm'd Σαμαῖος to be y^e Gentile name. —
Mr. Wotton told me Mr. Baker of St. John's col. Cambridge had writ the History & Antiquities of that Col. & that he is every ways qualified (being a very industrious & judicious Man) to write the Hist. & Antiq. of that University. He told me also y^t he really believ'd Cambridge to be much later yⁿ Oxoⁿ. 40

Sept. 23 (Sun.). Dr. Mill was installed Prebend of Canterbury Aug. 14. 1704. His is the 4th Stall. — To day in y^e Morning Mr. Penton of New Col. preach'd at St. Maries, on Prov. 16. 32. And he that ruleth his Spirit, than he that taketh a City, where speaking of moderation, he took occasion to give a very great Encomium of the Duke of Marlborough & to insinuate y^t the Generality of the university did not pay him that Respect & Gratitude they ought. In his Application he shew'd himself a Whigg & a Countenancer of Fanaticks, and yet could not but blame such as comply'd for Interest, w^{ch} however is certainly the case of the Whiggish Party, being generally biass'd by selfish Principles. So y^t he might have spar'd his words, being against his own Principles. —

There was taken lately upon London Bridge, w^{ch} has been attested before a Publick Notary, a Paper containing the following words, viz.

- 10 This is to certifie all whom it may concern that the Bp. of Sarum has rec^d 5000 lib^s for voting for Occasional Conformity, & that he is to receive 30000 lib^s more, & the Revenue of his B^prick during Life whenever Presbytery shall be Establish'd in England, which he endeavours to have effected, & 'tis fear'd that he will succeed in the undertaking. —

Mr. Evans's Sermon is said to be printing.

Sept. 24 (Mon.). There is a report y^t my L^d. Shrewsbury is married to an Italian Lady in Italy where he now is. By w^{ch} it seems y^t he is turn'd Roman Catholick, he being before engag'd to an English Lady, between whom & him the writings were drawn up.

- 20 Sept. 25 (Tu.). Dr. Tho. Wood of New-Col. married lately to M^{rs}. Baker. — . . . Farnianus Nardinus in his Roma vetus c. 1. hath a Testimony conc. Livy.—In lib. 5. c. 3. of Marlianus's Topographia Urbis Romæ is mention made of Pompey the Great's triumph and of the Monument in Memory of it in the Temple of Minerva, but the Inscription is neither added by Marlianus Ursinus who writ notes upon him.—Nardinus in Roma vetus l. vi. c. 9. mentions Minerva's Temple too & gives part of the Inscription from Marlianus, who had it from Pliny, & not from the stone it self as Nardinus insinuates. — Cenotaphia Pisana per H. Noris. Ven. 1681. . . In diss. 4. c. 1. there is an account of Livy's 30 Patavinity.

- Sept. 26 (Wed.). Mr. Madox says The First P^t of the Antiquities of Middlesex, lately publish'd, meets but wth an indifferent reception at London, & y^t he does not believe 'twill be carried on; but he does not tell me who is thought to be y^o Author. — . . . Thesaurus Græcæ Antiquitatis cura Jac. Gronovij In vol. 3^d of y^o Thes. is Livy's Effigies, with an account of him. — M^r. Berger tells me Bernardus Scardeonius has writ de Patavinitate Livij, w^{ch} I have not yet seen. I believe 'tis in his Antiquitates Patavij. . . He likewise tells that Carola Patina an Italian Lady design'd to publish Livy with notes. Faccius has writ Politica 40 Liviana. — P. Lambecij Com. de Biblioth. Caes. l. ii. c. 7. p. 522. . . . In pag. 943, &c. is a large and exact Account of [a] MS^t w^{ch} must be considered when an Account is given of the MSS. & Editions of Livy.

Also, copy of the inscription discovered at Rewley on Thursday last [Ela, &c.], which he has purchased and placed in the Anatomy School. This benefaction of Ela is not mentioned in Dugdale. Hudson has returned from Lincolnshire and sends query concerning the Scholia upon Strabo attributed by Reinesius to Cyriacus Anconitanus.

Sept. 27 (Th.). In pag. 997 is a short Dissertation De Carnunto, but he promises a larger; w^{ch} was never publish[ed], as Mr. Berger tells me, who thinks 'tis amongst Lambecius's other Papers at Vienna. — . . . I am told by Mr. Hoffman y^t one Arkeim has writ in the German Language a Book de Sacrificijs & Cultu Cimbricorum. — We have an Account from y^e North y^t vast Numbers of Scotch Cattle will come into this Kingdom before y^e Act takes place, by w^{ch} they are prohibited, and y^t they are sold at very small Rates scarce yeilding 20^s. a Head. No English horses 10 are permitted to be carried into Scotland, not so much as for y^e Coach. — Sept. 25th last were admitted into y^e Publick Library these two Gentlemen, Henr. Joach. Browne Hannoveranus. (2) George Seidel Lesna Polanus. — . . . To day Mr. Hoffman went to London, with 3 or 4 Germans, where he will stay about a Month. — The above mentioned Mr. Browne reported that he was to be made Chaplain to the Prince of Denmark; but Mr. Hoffman has assured me he is not, Mr. Crucius a German Divine, & of some Learning, being to have that Place.

Sept. 28 (Fri.). Mr. Wesley's Letter.

On my printing a Poem, on y^e Battle of Blenheim, I was sent for to London 20 by a Person of Quality in Jan. last, the Duke of Marl^b. having promis'd me a Chaplain's place in one of y^e New Regiments and another Honb^{le} Person greater Favours.

I had writt two Books against y^e Dissenters at which they were very angry. The Person who sent for me up told me I must drop that Controversy, & at last that I must publicly and in Print Recant or palliate what I had writ against the Dissenters. He added that those People expected so many Friends in the next House of Commons more than they had in y^e last, that when they came to sit, they had resolv'd to call those to Account who had affronted them. This had a contrary Effect to what was expected. I left my Fortunes 30 in Gods Hands and resolv'd to Act according to my conscience, & as soon as I came into the country to use w^t little Interest I had in our Election to serve those who were not likely to be partial to the Dissenters. But before I would Act I was so nice as to wrte to Coll. Whichcott, because there had been some Intimacy betwixt us, giving him the Reasons why I thought myself oblig'd to vote against Him. This Letter he expos'd, and his Friends reported there was Treason in it, after w^{ch} I gave copies of it. They likewise threaten'd to write up against me, & throw me out of my Chaplain's place, which the Duke had given me, & throw me into Goal, all which (I thank 'em) they have fully effected. I wrote to London to know why I was turn'd out, without knowing 40 my Accusation. My Coll. Lepell answer'd, that a Person of the First Quality told Him 'twas for something I had published w^{ch} was not approved of at Court, & for having concern'd myself too much in some other Matters. The first must be my Books against the Dissenters; the Latter my Acting in the Election for my own County, which I thought I had as much Right to do as any Freeholder; God be prais'd these Crimes were link'd together. After this the Friends of the new Candidates the Dissenters and their Adherents charg'd me with Preaching Treason, and reported I was distracted (where then was their Mercy?) but at last were content to throw me into Prison according to their Promise for no great debt to a Relation, & Zealous Friend 50 of one of the New Members. They knew 'twas sufficient to do my Business, I having been thrown behind by a series of Misfortunes. My Parsonage Barn was blown down 'ere I had recovered the Takeing my Living: My House great part of it burnt down about 2 years since. My Flux, great part of my Income now in my own Hands, I doubt willfully fir'd & burnt in y^e Night, whilst I was last in London. My Income sunk about one half by the low price of Grain, & my Credit lost by the taking away my Regiment. I was brought to Lincoln Castle June the 23^d last past. About 3 weeks since my very unkind People thinking they had not yet done enough, have in y^e Night stabb'd my 3 Cows w^{ch} were a great part of my poor Numerous Family's Subsistence. For w^{ch} God forgive them.

WESLY.

- Georg. Pritius has writ a silly Poem in Latin in Praise of the Queen, 10 & the D. of Marlborough. — Upon the Knighting of Dr. Hann's & the Quack Dr. W^m Read. . . — There is a Gathering making in y^e University for Relief of Mr. Wesley, to the great mortification of y^e Fanatics. — Mr. Grabe went to day to London, with a Design to go thence into Germany, & so into Prussia, his Native Country, where he says he will not tarry long. One chief end of his going out of England, is to consult MSS. for his intended Edition of the Septuagint. — Mr. Cole, the Engraver, tells me he has hopes of procuring very shortly a very old Inscription; but he will not tell where 'tis. I believe however there cannot be much in it, by reason he says there is but a letter or two visible in it.
- 20 — Quære of Mr. Dodwell whether he writ a ¹Book ag^t Hobbs's Leviathan, proving it to be Heretical? . . And if he did, to give one (if he has Duplicates) to y^e Publick Library.

Sept. 29 (Sat). The Duke of Shrewsbury has written a Letter to y^e Bp. of Oxford (his Cousin) that he has married an Italian Lady of Excellent Accomplishments, that she is turn'd from the Church of Rome, that he is coming with her into England, & desires his Lordship that when she is here, he would be pleas'd to give such Arguments to her as may settle and fix her in the Protestant Religion. — On the 19th came by a Flying Post a Pacquet from Court to Edinborough with orders to y^e 30 Commissioner not to give y^e Royal Assent to the Act for Limitation, y^t for Triennial Parliam^{ts}, & y^t for sending Plenipotentiaries to Forreign Treaties. After w^{ch} several other Acts being confirm'd by the Commissioners giving y^e Royal Assent, the Session was ended. — On the 30th of Jan. last Mr. Potter preach'd at Cairfax in Oxford. His Sermon was afterwards much censur'd as containing nothing relating to the Day. W^{ch} Dr. Mill coming to hear of he ask'd him about it. To w^{ch} he reply'd that 'twas so far from that, that the greatest part of it was wholly upon y^e occasion. Some time after this, Dr. Mill happening to speak again of y^e Sermon, on purpose to shew w^t groundless Censures were cast on the 40 Whiggish Party, Mr. Pearse then present, a great Friend of Mr. Potters, having been one of his Pupils, & whiggishly inclin'd too (as some say) answer'd that he was then an Auditor wⁿ the Sermon was preach'd, & y^t there was too much ground for y^e Report; the Sermon being the very same w^{ch} Mr. Potter preach'd the year before at St. Peter's in y^e East before the University one of the Lent Sundays, the whole Drift of w^{ch} was Church unity; only wth an Additional Sentence at y^e last, telling the Auditors that 'twas the Martyrdom of King Charles Ist & they might make y^e Application themselves. 'Tis thought some of the Sneaking Fanatical Moderators put him on this, well knowing that to vindicate y^t

Oct. 1 (Mon.). Sir Thomas Rawlinson is chosen L^d. Mayor of London for y^e year ensuing, notwthstanding the Great opposition of y^e Whigg Party. — Sir Stephen Fox's Lady is brought to bed of a Boy and a Girl, w^{ch} is y^e more extraordinary because S^r. Steph. is almost 80 years of age tho' his Lady is but young. He has had a son before by her, who is living.

Oct. 2 (Tu.). M^r. Wesley's Letter has procur'd very considerable Benefactions not only in Oxford (where Magd. College has given him 10 30 lib^s., Jesus 16, & most of the rest proportionably) but at London & in divers other places, particularly my L^d. Nottingham (who is reckon'd none of y^e most generous) has sent him 30 lib^s. — M^r. Bagford has made proposals for printing his Collections concerning the Original & Progress of Printing. — I hear Dr. Royse, Provost of Ornel-College, is going to print his last Sermon preach'd before the Queen.

Oct. 3 (Wed.). The Descriptions of some Brass Coyns a Gentleman of X^t Church shew'd me . . . With 4 or 5 others very much defaced, w^{ch} seem to be Constantius's, Tetricus's & Claudius Gothicus's. But 'tis not easily guess'd whose. — Being to day at M^r. Abel's Chamber of Merton 20 College he was pleas'd amongst several other curious Books in his study to shew me one w^{ch} he bought out of D^r. Lydal's study late Warden of that college being in MSt containing all the Fees of the Beadles, Registers &c. of Oxford as they were settled by D^r. Rives, Vicechancellor of Oxford, in y^e time of Q. Eliz. & the Heads of Houses in y^e University. He has Gryphius's Edition of Quintilian, Lugd. 1544. but I think there is not much in it. — I was told to day of a Brass Plate dug up at Godstow wth a very old Inscription on it. . . .

Oct. 4 (Th.). Last night M^r. Abel told me he had taken most of the Inscriptions in Merton Chapell, w^{ch} will be of use when another Edition 30 of Hist. & Antiq. Oxon. comes out. — . . . Jac. Your Art to manage & defend a Cause:
But wth your wit & Eloquence we find
A Servile Temper & an abject mind.

Against Cadogan I've commenc'd a Suit,
Now like a Friend, engage in y^e Dispute:
Offend Caddogan! No S^r. not a Word!
A Rising Man y^e Darling of his Lord.

Well! against S^t. John's I've an Action got,
How mute again? refuse! & pray why not?
Plead against S^t. John's! no, excuse me there, 40
He's great at Court, & has Her Grace's Ear.

Harley invades my Right wthout Pretence,
Now justice calls to speak in my Defence:
Have Patience, you Reply! with Temper wait!

You'll not disgust a minister of State.

Oct. 5 (Fri.). Mr. Dalton, one of y^e Junior Fellows of All Souls College, going out two or three days since to divert himself by shooting, met with some High-Constable, who not giving way, there was some Justleing; but at last Dalton being forc'd to break way, he was so concern'd that he turn'd back presently, & shot the Constable, who being a lusty stout Man made up to him (notwthstanding his wound) & took his Gun from him, wthout any other Damage, leaving the Issue of it to a Tryal, being resolv'd to prosecute him. This Dalton is a proud empty

Oct. 6 (Sat.). Last night died Mr. Martin, Vice-Principal of Hart-Hall, of the colick. — Mr. Wanley writ the Preface to the Catalogue of Septentrional MSS. in English, w^{ch} was afterwards translated into Latin by Mr. Thwaites, or else his Pupils, who supervis'd and corrected the

Oct. 7 (Sun.). On Friday last (Oct. 5) about 9 in the morning Secretary Hedges came to the L^d. Keeper Wright, demanding of him the Great Seal, w^{ch} being deliver'd was immediately carried to the Queen at Windsor, & 'tis thought that in the council this day Mr. Cooper was made L^d. Keeper, to the Great Resentment of all the Honest Party. — Mr. Martin was buried this Evening, ab^t 6 of y^e clock in St. Peter's Church in the East, in a very solemn Manner, there being a great Concourse of y^e most considerable Scholars at his Funeral. He died worth 10 1500 lib^s. at least.

20 A correct Copy of the verses on Dr. Hanns and Reade the Mountebanck, being Knighted together.

The Queen like Heaven shines equally on all

Her favours now wthout Distinction fall.
 Great Reade and slender Hanns both knighted show

That none their Honours shall to Merit owe.
 That Popish Doctrine is exploded quite,
 Or Ralph had bin no Duke, & Read no

That none may Virtue or their Learning plead

The first wants Grace y^e last can hardly read.

Such moderation now at court is seen,
 That nothing Excellent can pleas y^e Queen.
 O Hanns! the Royal memory restore,
 This will advance thy character much more Than Empty Titles fools & knaves adore.
 And thou, o Read! the Royal Eyeballs

ON THE TACK.

The Globe of th' Earth on which we dwell
 Is tackt unto the Poles :

The Little Worlds our Carcasses

Are tackt unto our Souls :

The Parsons chiefest Business is

To tack the Soul to Heaven :

40 The Doctor's is to keep the Tack
 'Tween Soul and Body even.

The Priest besides by Office tacks,

The Husband to y^e Wife;

And that's a Tack (God help them both)

That always holds for Life.

The Lawyer studys how to tack

His client to y^e Laws :

Th' Attorney tacks whole Quires & Reams
 To lengthen out y^e Cause.

The Commons, Lords & English Crown

Are all three tack'd together,

And if they 'ere chance to untack

No good can come to either.

The Crown is tack't unto y^e Church,

The Church unto y^e Crown,

The Whiggs are slightly tack't to both,

And so may soon come down.

Since all the World's a general Tack

Of one thing to another,

Why then about one Honest Tack

Do Fools make such a Pother?

I mention'd it to Mr. Tyrrel but it being a considerable time since he lent them y^e Dr. he cannot now call to mind w^t they are, & therefore desires the Dr. would specify 'em & w^t volume they are in. — In Jac. Salomonius's Inscriptiones Agri Patavini are some things relating to Livy. . . — Going down last Night to Mr. Nichols's, a Quaker's in Oxford, he shew'd me a thick folio Book containing the Lives of y^e Saints. 'Tis a Popish Book in old English, ¹⁰ but being wthout beginning or Ending I cannot tell when or where 'twas printed, nor who was the Author. I do not remember I ever saw one of them before.

Cowper Esq^r. was to be declar'd L^d. Keeper & have the Great Seal deliver'd him for w^{ch} High Dignity he has already got his Equipage ready. 'Twas expected also y^t my L^d. Wharton would be declar'd constable of y^e Tower in Room of y^e Earl of Abing- ³⁰ don. 'Tis reported Sr. Nathan Wright when he deliver'd the same seal said he resign'd that office wth more content yⁿ he rec^d it, or words to y^t purpose. He enjoy'd it 5 years & 5 months, & 'tis hop'd is no looser by it, he will for the future give up all Practise of y^e Law, & live privately, having acquir'd an honest good Name. — Mr. Lih[u]yd, Keeper of the Ashmolean Museum, spent a Fortnight or three Weeks to compare some of Dr. Hicks's things in this Thesaurus with the British Language; but (for w^t reason I know not) there is no mention at all of him in the Work; w^{ch} should have been done by all means, especially since he has made such honourable Mention of several who are known ⁴⁰ to be but mean worthless Persons in comparison of Mr. Lihuyd.

I just now saw y^e Oxford Almanack for y^e year ensuing, wherein is represented the L^d. Treasurer (Godolphin) playing at dice, & the Queen in a very disconsolate condition &c. if we may believe those who are suppos'd to understand y^e Meaning. 'Tis s^d my L^d. Kingston will be made L^d. Chamberlain in room of y^e Earl of Kent, my L^d. Sunderland Secretary of State, in room of S^r. Charles Hedges. 'Tis s^d now my L^d.
 10 Wharton is to [be] made L^d. Lieutenant of Oxfordshire & the Earl of Essex Constable of y^e Tower, both in Room of the Earl of Abbingdon. — The M^r. Cowper, who is made L^d. Keeper, is but 41 years of Age, being y^e youngest L^d. Keeper ever known; but he is a man of P^{ts} & Learning tho' of very bad Principles & Morals, being well known to have had two Wives at a time, a Man of no Religion, &c. Some report that M^r. Harris, formerly of S^t. Gregorie's has a Grant to be his Chaplain. — The L^d. Gore, Chancellor of the Dutchy of Lancaster expects next to be turn'd out; and then 'tis hop'd the Whiggs or Presbyterians will be contented, having got all into their Hands, except 4 or 5 L^d. Licutenancies.

20 Oct. 15 (Mon.). In y^e Publick Library amongst Archb^p Laud's Coyns are two silver ones, of y^e 2^d Magitude, of King Juba, the Description whereof is this: REX RUBA. Ejus cap. R. Templum octo Columnarum, cum aliquot literis Punicis, . . . — Some think, the Monthly Mercury is writ by the Author of y^e Post-Man. — M^r. Tyrrell has promised to give to y^e Publick Library several MSS. written by his Grandfather (by y^e Mother's side) Arch-B^p. Usher, two or three whereof are in Dr. Mill's Hands, one of w^{ch} y^e Dr. shew'd me containing theological Matters, & another he told me he had relating to some obscure Passages in the New Testament. — In Dr. Charlett's study is Ant. à Wood's Head taken in

W^{ch} is y^e more to be rely'd on, because 'tis certain (from w^h has been already acted) that there will be a total Removal of all Honest Men, & y^t y^e Favourers of y^e Faction will [be] put in their Room.

Death of Mr. Martin, V. P. of Hart Hall (5th inst.). Horse-race in Port-Mead in opposition to that at Woodstock. 'The Oxford Almanack for y^e ensuing year is finish'd. My L^d. Treasurer is represented throwing dice, the Queen in a disconsolate condition &c. w^{ch} I do not question but will exasperate y^e Whiggs.' Messages, &c.

Oct. 17 (Wed.). Being last Night with Dr. Mill, Mr. Pearce, who was then with him too, was pleas'd to run down Mr. Alsop of X^t Church's Sermon, preach'd upon these words: And now that he descended w^t is but that he also ascended, &c. affirming that there was neither Style, sense or judgment shewn in it. Dr. Mill concurr'd with him, & from thence proceeded to call him the greatest Blockhead y^t ever liv'd. Upon w^{ch} knowing Mr. Alsop had the universal Character of being a man of singular modesty, wit, & good Learning, I spoke up for him, & told them that the Sermon bore an extraordinary character in the university, & y^t divers of the best judges concluded it to be a neat polite well-penn'd Discourse, & y^t he shew'd himself a Person of a very clear head in delivering y^e several opinions abt Hades, & afterwards pitching upon w^t he thought the best, w^{ch} Dr. Mill so much resented (as if I detracted from his own Character bel[e]ving himself to be a better Judge yⁿ y^e whole university besides) that he abus'd me very much, & afterwards being not contented wth this He and Mr. Pearce went on to the rest of y^e Members of X^t Church, not sparing y^e Dean himself, giving them no better Quarter than they had done Mr. Alsop: not to mention some other Colleges w^{ch} they fell foul upon also. All w^{ch} suits well with y^e Character I rec^d concerning Mr. Pearce, just as he came to our Hall, that he was one of the most ill natur'd Men in 20 Oxford. — ¹Dr. King Archbp of Dublin 'tis said will be suddenly in Oxon. He was Pupil to Mr. Dodwell. — . . Taylor a servitor of X^t Church lately stole 120 Guineas from a Gentleman Commoner, w^{ch} he ingenuously confess'd. He also stole several Books out of that College Library, cutting the Covers off and leaving them standing. This was discover'd by the Binder. He is since gone off, the college being not willing to expose him for his Father's sake who is a Clergy Man. — Mr. Lloy'd Son of y^e Bp. of Worcester disputed yesterday & to day in the Divinity schoole for his B. of Divinity's Degree. . . .

Oct. 18 (Th.). I saw this Morning Mr. Smith of University College's 30 Case, w^{ch} I had not time to hurrys through, but by w^t I read it seems to be all Juggle. father of Alexander y^e Great, & 4th of the Macedonian Kings. They have all on the Front Amyntas's Head cover'd with a Lyon's Skin (according to y^e Custom of the Ancient Heroes) & on the Reverse an Eagle treading on a Serpent & pulling it in pieces, denoting perhaps the Conquest of Thessaly by Amyntas, in w^{ch} as Solinus has observ'd, there is a great number of Serpents; unless it belongs rather to some prodigy w^{ch} happen'd to the King. But I like the former conjecture best. The first of these Coyns has on y^e Reverse AMYNTA., the second ΠΥΔΝΑΙΟΝ, the 3^d ΠΥΔΝΑΙΟΝ, & y^e 4th ΠΥΔΝΑΙΟΝ, By w^{ch} it appears y^t y^e 3 last were 10 struck at Pydna a City of Macedonia, & upon that Account they are great Rarities, it having been observ'd that y^e Antiquaries had observ'd no Coyns struck at this City before these were found, w^{ch} was in the year 1685, by Theodorus Van Haghe, who took y^m all four (and so 'tis likely the 1st was struck at Pydna also) in an Earthern urn about Thessalonica . . .

Oct. 27 (Sat.). On Thursday (25th Instant) the Parliam^t met. Can- 20 didates for Speaker to y^e House of Commons were Mr. Bromley & Mr. Smith. The former had 205 Votes, the latter 248. Divers speeches were made on both sides, & tho' several very good objections were made ag^t Smith, as his voting for a standing Army, &c. yet y^e whiggs took no notice of them, but carried it against Mr. Bromley against whom they could object nothing but y^t he was a Tacker, & a true Friend of y^e Church. Mr. Tilly's Sermon was reflected on by their speechers & a great many bitter words dropt ag^t the Universitys, especially Oxford. All good men now fear y^t 248 will prove 48. — The same day the Convocation met. Dr. Stanhope preach'd a Latin Sermon. After w^{ch} they proceeded to the choice of a 30 Prolocutor. Dr. Binkes Dean of Lichfield had 25 Votes, & Dr. Stanhope 37. — This day in the Afternoon died Mr. W^m. Randal, Master of Arts, of Magd. Hall. 'Tis said by some that there is to be a Royal Visitation of y^e University of Oxofⁱ. — George Clarke, Esq^r, who is dismiss'd, was Secretary to the Prince, and one of y^e Secretaries to y^e Admiralty. — 'Tis reported y^t the Queen, wⁿ she spoke her speech, trembled so much y^t she was hardly able to go through wth it, as being sensible y^t w^t she said was derogatory to y^e Church of England, Securing the Toleration (as she declar'd she would inviolably) being look'd upon as too great a Favour given to the Fanaticks, & others of y^e Dissenters, & tending to the Destruction of the church of England. 'Tis given out y^t she is kept in ignorance & y^t only those Pamphletts w^{ch} are writ in behalf of y^e church (some of w^{ch} are very lukewarm) are represented to her, & y^t the scandalous infamous Pamphletts written by y^e Presbyterians are kept from her or at least represented fairly. — I am told y^t y^e Earl of Abbingdon gave y^e Gentleman a Pulse of Gold who brought y^e news of his being turn'd out, & desir'd him to give his Duty to her Majesty & tell her y^t he would for y^e future live privately....

Oct. 31 (Wed.). The Queen has presented y^e New Speaker with a Purse of a 1000 Guineas as a token of her Satisfaction of his choice. — She is s^d also to have given her Uncle y^e Earl of Rochester an Estate near Cornbury, tho' the Dutchess of Marlborough did endeavour to obstruct it. And she certainly had effected it, had not y^e Queen sign'd 20 y^e Writings immediately, the Earl bringing 'em wth him when he solicited her Majesty for y^e Estate, well knowing the Dutchess would hinder it. The Dutchess would have had her Majesty revok'd the Grant (saying y^t the Estate lay very convenient for the Duke her Husband, & y^t he could not go on wth his Building at Woodstock wth out it) but the Queen reply'd she could not do it. — I saw this Morning in the Master of University's Study the Q^{to} Edition of Florentius Wigorniensis, collated with a MS^t in the Publick Library at Oxford by Dr. Langbain (whose Book it once was) to w^{ch} he has added several other notes, w^{ch} will be of great use when that Author shall be 30 printed again. — The Master told me that Dr. Goodal has a mind to translate two Epistles Dedicatory prefix'd to the new Edition of Forbes's Works, as also p^t of his Life, all written by Dr. Garden the Publisher. I suppose it may be to be printed in his designed Acc^t of the Church of England Sufferers in the late Rebellion. — Out of Dr. Hudson's Papers for Books to be consulted in the Publick Library for correcting & illustrating Authors. There was a full House; but y^e Letter being read, Mr. Waldow, of All Souls' Col. one of y^e Pro-Proctors read the vote of Parliam^t ag^t his Father & him ab^t Sir John Packington: upon w^{ch} Dr. Woodrofe made a speech, calling Waldow titubans Magister: w^{ch} word so exasperated a great many of the Masters that they would not let him go on. So the Proctors went to a Scrutiny, w^{ch} being ended it appear'd that there were 46 more ag^t y^e Passing the Letter than were for it. — Wⁿ a new Impression of Eutropius is made I must remember to add a note at pag. 45 signifying y^t it should be read M^o (or Manio) Acilio Glabrione, as 'tis read ad init. lib. 36. Livij, & in y^e Epitome there, tho' the Metaphrast has Mápkos. See Delrius's notes upon Flouus's Epit. of Livy. — 'Tis s^d my L^d Seymour presently after Mr. Smith was pronounc'd Speaker, rose up, and told them, Gentlemen; you have got a Low Church man; but pray remember that 100 Voluntiers are better than 10 200 press'd men.

In most humble and lamentable manner beseecheth your Royall Majestie, your Highnesse most distressed Servant, John Dee: That, as, by the grace and providence of the Almighty, you are our King, our earthly Supreme Head, and Judge: So it may please your Sacred Majestie, eyther in your owne royall presence and hearing; Or, of the Lordes of your Majesties most honorable privie Counsell: Or, of the present assembled Parliament States, to cause your Highnesse sayd Servant, to be tryed and cleared of that horrible and damnable, & to him, most grievous and dammageable Sclaunder: generally, and for these many yeeres last past, in this Kingdom raysed, and continued, by report, and Print, against him. Namely, That he is, or hath bin a Conjurer, or 40 Caller, or Invocator of Divels: Upon which most ungodly, and false report, so boldly, constantly, and impudently avouched: yea, and uncontrolled, and hitherto unp[un]ished, for so many yeeres, continuing: (Altho, your Majesties said Suppliant, hath published in print, divers his earnest Apologies, against it) yet some impudent and malicious forraine Enemie, or English traitor to the flourishing State and Honor of this Kingdome, hath in Print (Anno 1592. 7. Januarij) affirmed your Majestie's said Suppliant, to be the Conjurer belonging to the most Honorable Privy Counsell, of your Majestie's most famous last Predecessor, (Queen Elizabeth) so that, seeing the said most abhominable 50 Sclaunder, is become so highly haynous, and disgracefull, that it pretendeth great discredit, and disliking to be had, also, of the said most Honorable Lordes, of your Majestie's Privie Counsell (as to use any Conjurer's advise: and your said suppliant to be the man.) It therefore seemeth, (upon divers respects,) to be very needfull, due and speedy order, to be taken herein; by your Majestie's wisdom, and supreme Authoritie: (by one, of the three foresaid meanes, or any other), to have your Highnesse said Suppliant, to be tryed, in the premisses: Who offereth himselfe willingly, to the punishment of Death: (yea, eyther to be stoned to death or to be buried quicke: or to be burned unmercifully) If by any due, true, and just meanes, the said name of Con-

 10 jurer, or Caller, or Invoker of Divells, or damned Spirites, can be proved, to have bene, or to be, duely or justly reported of him or attributed unto him: Yea (good and gracious King) If any one, of all the great number of the very strange and frivolous fables, or histories reported and told of him (as to have been of his doing) were True: as they have been told, or reasonably caused any wondring among, or to, the many headed Multitude, or to any other who-soever els. And, then, your Highnesse said Suppliant, (upon his said Justification, and Clearing, made herein,) will conceive great and undoubted hope, that your Majestie will, soone after, more willingly, have Princely regard of redressing, of your Highnesse said Suppliant his farder griefes and hinderances;
 20 no longer, of him, possibly to be endured: So long, hath his utter undoing, by little and little, bene most unjustly, compassed. The Almighty and most mercifull God, alwayes direct, your Majestie's royall heart, in his wayes of Justice & Mercy, as is to him, most acceptable: and make your Majestie to be the most blessed and triumphant Monarch, that ever this British Empire enjoyed. Amen. . . . -

Dr. Hudson shew'd me a Letter to-day w^{ch} he rec^d from the Bⁿ. of Norwich in Answer to one sent lately to him, complaining of his L^dship's Backwardness in Lending certain Books, (to y^e great detriment of the Publick): His L^dship declar'd himself sorry y^t the Dr. should 30 take it amiss, & promis'd to lend him for y^e future any Book he should have occasion for out of his study. He also told him he would lend me any Livy I should want in y^e design'd Edition of y^t Author. — This Evening came the L^{ds} Address to Town, wherein they thank her Majesty for her most Gracious Speech, declare that they will stand by her in her designs ag^t the King of France, & of Establishing a Union wth Scotland but especially among our selves, & for y^t end advise her to prosecute the Incendiaries of the Nation (meaning the Church Party) with y^e utmost Rigour & Severity. So y^t poor Oxford (who stood so firmly to her Martyr'd Grandfather) must expect hard measure for their 40 Zeal ag^t y^e Schismatics. — Dr. Royses's last sermon before the Queen, (w^{ch} is newly published) is a well penn'd discourse, & pleases the Whiggs well. — I saw a Letter to-day to Dr. Hudson from Dr. Drake dated from Hampton Court the 9th of October last, in answer to one of y^e Dr^s desiring him to send his Books. He modestly excuses himself, thinking y^t nothing he has hitherto done worthy so noble a Place; but however since some are pleas'd to entertain so favorable an opinion of him he promises to send w^t he has written to be placed as Dr. Hudson shall think fit. —

Dr. Hudson also shew'd me a Letter from Laurentius Alexander
 50 Zacagnius Keeper of the Vatican Library written to him (dated Feb. 11 Nov. Styl. 1703) giving an Account of w^t he had done for him relating to his Noble Edition of Dionysius Hal. At y^e End whereof he gives a short Relation of y^e terrible Earthquake w^{ch} began when he was writing

y^e said Letter; w^{ch} was so violent that he was hardly able to go on, as appears from several distorted Letters. The whole Passage here follows, viz.

Videas nunc, Vir Clarissime, an alia ulla in re opera, aut favore meo opus habeas, lubens enim curabo, ut mandata tua, qua par est diligentia exsequantur. Cum hæc postrema verba paulo ante meridiem scribo, validus terræmotus totam urbem de novo horrendum in modum concussit, cujus indicio sunt distortæ non nullæ eorundem verborum literæ. Placeat Deo Optimo Maximo peccatorum nostrorum Beatissimæ Virginis Mariæ, cujus Purificationis Festum agimus, intercessione misereri.

The Title of John Dee's Almanack for the year 1591.

A triple Almanack for the Yeere of our Lorde God 1591, being the thirde from the Leape Yeere. Wherein is conteyned, not only the common accompt, which in this our Realme is used, with the Romane Kalender according to the late correction of Gregorie: but also, the true computation and reduction of the Monethes to their first and auncient seates, Christmass day being at the Sunnes entrance into Capricorne, or shortest day: whereby may easely be perceyved the great difference which hath happened for want of due observation of the Courses of Sunne and Moone Referred principally to the Meridian of London and for most respectes will serve for all Englande, and many other Countreies 20 also. By J. D.

At the End is another Treatise relating to the said Almanack, & thus Entit.

A Prognostication for the same Yeere M.D.XCI. Conteyning a short discourse of the Eclipse of the Moone, and of the Quarters of the Yeere, with other necessarie Rules, for the better understanding of the Almanack going before: wherein are Rules for the finding the Planetarie Hower very easely and pleasantly, as also the rising and setting of the Sunne any day throughout the yeere, referred with the other, to the same Meridian. By J. D.

The Commons have agreed to An Address to her Maje[s]ty. There 30 was one observable Passage in it, viz. That they think y^e Church is in no Danger; w^{ch} surprises several in Oxford, who were inform'd that they had voted 'twas in Danger, as it certainly is, when so many sects are countenanc'd & the true Church men scouted and declar'd dangerous Enemies. S^r. Wm. Blackett, S^r. Robert Clayton & S^r. Wm. Ashurst are dangerously ill. — Dr. Cliton one of the College of Physitians is sent over to the King of Portugal to assist him in his sickness w^{ch} is very dangerous.

Nov. 5 (Mon.). To-day Mr. Crosse of New College preach'd before the University at St. Marie's upon these words: I will build my Church 40 upon this Rock, & the Gates of Hell shall not prevail ag^t it. He shew'd first y^t the Establish'd Church of this Nation is founded upon the Rock mention'd in the Church. II^{dl}y That the Methods carryed on by the Jesuits & other Emissaries of the Church of Rome for destroying of it are diabolical, & fitly answer the Expression of the Gates of Hell. III^{dl}y that we ought to give Hearty Thanks to God for defeating all their wicked Designs, particularly that Grand one w^{ch} was to be effected as upon this day. He spoke handsomly, & very little or nothing in behalf of the Whiggs, as was expected, he being known to be of y^t Party by his Stickling so much for Dr. Trimnel's coming in Warden of New-Col.

— I have not yet compar'd the Book call'd Dudley's Memoirs with Leyscester's Commonwealth; but Dr. Charlett tells me that 'tis exactly the same with y^t Book, being printed verbatim: w^{ch} I the more wonder at, because that is a common Book, & 'twas almost impossible for Dr Drake to be ignorant y^t there was such a Book publish'd. The Dr. has wrot a Preface to it, w^{ch} has somew^t remarkable in it. Leyscester's Commonwealth goes under the Name of Father Parsons; but AP. Ant. à Wood insinuates that he was not the Author. — Mr. Ayliffe a Civilian of New College having taken Andr. Alciati Juris utriusque praxis out of the Publick Library (not at all regarding his oath & the force of the Statute) return'd it again to-day, it being down upon his name, & I suppose being first of all inform'd y^t 'twas missing.

Nov. 6 (Tu.). Mr. Bobart, the Botanist was greatly assisted in the II^d vol. of y^e Oxford History of Plants, by Mr. Dale of Queen's College, who revis'd the whole & put it into proper Latin for him. Presently after the Death of the s^d Mr. ¹ Dale, I had a sight of a Folio Book in MS⁴ drawn 20 up by himself, being Tables & Explications on Aristotle's Rhetorick. The whole seem'd to be done wth great Judgment, & was so much valu'd y^t several Gentlemen of the Middle Temple got Copies of it, for their use in y^e study of y^e Law. — Mr. Waller on the Earl of Berkley's Meditations, (Printed Lond. 1680. 8. to w^{ch} 'tis prae-fix'd) not publish'd I believe in the Collection of his Poems². — There is just publish'd Three Years Travells over Land to China, &c. by E. Ysbrantes Ides, translated out of Dutch. — In the Bodlejan Library is an Acc^t of Rich. James (the Antiquarie's) Travells into Russia written wth his own Hand. There are some good Things not observ'd by others & may be worth
30 printing in a Collection. — Entred Common¹ to-day of our Hall Tho. Sherley of New-Bury. — Some Advices say my L^d. Gallaway is dead of his Wounds. There will be suddenly several Promotions made at Court. — Yesterday being Gunpowder treason 'twas observ'd more than it us'd to be at Lond. — Our Parliament are so unanimous that 'tis thought they will settle the supply before Xtmass. — I was told to-day by a Merchant y^t he saw in Portugal a curious Piece of Writing, w^{ch} he thought exceeded that in our Publick Library written by M^{rs}. Hester English a French Lady. — Mr. Pullen of Magd. Hall, last night told me that a certain Gentleman formerly bequeath'd a curious Manuscript Virgil, 40 in vellum, to their Library, w^{ch} coming into some Gentleman's Hands of X^t Church (but whose he cannot tell) they never could procure it. He likewise told me y^t there was once a very remarkable stone, w^{ch} was negatived accumulation of B.D. and D.D. by Mr. Lloyd. In the debate Dr. Woodruff called Mr. Waldow titubans magister. Dr. Marsh has bought Stillingfleet's Library for £2500.

afterw^{ds} lent to Dr. Plot, who never return'd it, replying, when he was ask'd for it, y^e 'twas a Rule amongst Antiquaries to receive, and never restore.

Nov. 7 (Wed.). Just publish'd A Review of the Danger of y^e Church of England, w^{ch} is (as I am told) a very scandalous Pamphlet, & is reported by some to have been written by Dr Kennett. — Dr. Freind has seen at Lisbon two Libraries to be sold, each consisting of a thousand folios, & he suppos'd that two Hundred lib^s would purchase 'em both. — Mr. Charles Bernard (Chief Physitian to her present Majesty) has given to the Publick Library a very fair MS^t containing the 5 last Books of Tacitus' Annals, & the 5 Books of his History, & at y^e end are some 10 Epistles of Julius Cæsar & the Epistle of Pilate to Tiberius. Dr. Hudson has sent the Collations of Cæsar's Epistles to one Mr. Davies of King's College who is putting out a new Edition of Cæsar's Commentaries in 4^{to}

Nov. 8 (Th.). By the Removal of Geo. Clarke Esq^r. Mr. St. John is made Secretary of war for the Marine Forces as well as Land w^{ch} he enjoyed before. — On the 5th the B^p. of Lincoln preach't before y^e House of L^{ds} in Westminster Abbey taking his Text y^e 7th Matthew & the 15th verse. Beware of false Prophets w^{ch} come to you in sheep's cloath &c., from w^{ch} according to y^e occasion of y^e day being the Anniversary of the 20 Gunpowder treason he layd open the Principles and Practises of the Church of Rome. For w^{ch} Sermon the House of Lords the next day orderd his Lordship their thanks. At y^e same time Dr. Willis Dean of Lincoln preach't before y^e House of Commons in St. Margarets Church from the words in the 49th Chapter of Genesis & the 7th verse, Cursed be y^eir Anger for it was fierce & their wrath for it was cruel, in w^{ch} he gave An Acc^t of the Powder Plot as also of the Assassination Plot ag^t King William. For w^{ch} the House of Commons the day after also orderd the Dean y^r Thanks wth a desic y^t y^e same may be printed. Dr. Smalridge preach't before the Queen at y^e Chapel Royal at St. James' upon the 16th 30 verse of the 10th Ch. of St. Mat. and the day was observ'd wth y^e usual decency & y^e night concluded wth ringing of Bells, Bonfires & Illuminations. — Last night Mr. Nevil of University-College told me that tho' Dr. Sloane had almost finish'd his Natural History of Jamaica, yet he would never print it, because he was well assur'd there were 2 or 3 ill natur'd men who would writ ag^t it, & endeavour to expose it. W^{ch} tho' amongst men of Sense 'twould be no disgrace, yet he is too modest to publish w^t he finds must undergoe y^e Publick Censure of ill natur'd men. — He also told me y^t an Extraordinary Acc^t of y^e Alps (wth a great number of curious cutts) was committed to Mr. Thorp to be publish'd. W^{ch} he intends to 40 do with an Addition of some other excellent Observations of y^e same kind. — To day between 8 and 9 of the Clock began the Visitation of the Bodlejan Library, & was ended before 11. But tho' there appear'd to be Wanting one P^t of the Morning Exercise, amongst the Folio Divinity Books, & Ferdinandi's Quadragesimal Sermons, amongst the Divinity Books in Quarto, yet y^e Curators (for w^t reason I cannot tell) gave no order for finding of them out; nor did they sit to consult upon any other matter after they had look'd over the Books allotted them: w^{ch} always us'd to be, & the Result of their Consultations put down in a Book for y^t purpose. 'Twas expected by some observing persons that they should amongst other things have agreed upon Visiting Dr. Barlow's, Dr. Marshall's, & the other Books on the South and North p^{ts} of y^e Library in the middle Range wth those in Arch. C. &c. (they having not been yet visited); because upon a private Examination of them there appear to be wanting this year the following MS^t Books (all of w^{ch}, unless those w^{ch} 10 were never sent, Mr. Crabb can give no Acc^t of) besides some printed ones, viz. (1) inter MSS. Hatton num. 12. I. Antonij Vita, Syriacc. (2) Inter MSS. Thurstoni num. 23. Institutiones puerorum Turcico-Persicæ. num. 24. Grammatica Arabica. Num. 53. Scheda continens superstitionas formulas & figuras. (3) Inter MSS. in Muséo, num. 131. Literæ imperatoris Turcici patentes &c. num 227. Spelman of Testaments & Wills. (4) Inter MSS. Gravij, num. 1. Historia Josephi, Persicæ (liber elegantissime compactus). num. 19. Biblia Hebr. never sent. Num. 42. Catalogus plurimarum vocum Saxonicarum, cum Interpretatione Lat. 8^o. Num. 45. Ali Proverbia, &c. not sent. num. 47. Colloquium inter 20 Ahmed & Sinan, not sent. num. 48. Decem priores Psalmi &c. not sent. 50. Quæstiones inter Abdallah &c. not sent. Besides these things w^{ch} should have been consider'd of aie the new writing over the Curating Books, the Account of the Duplicates, the Entering the Benefactors Names &c. After the Examination of the Books, & a slight view of the Leads, they went to Mr. Vice-Chancellor's where was Collation, & from thence they went to the Natural Philosophy-Schoole, where Mr. Fouks of X^t Church y^e Junior Proctor made a very handsome Speech to y^e Honor of S^r. Tho. Bodley &c. In w^{ch} besides the usual things insisted on in those Speeches, he touch'd upon the Danger of the Church & Learning at 30 this time, & concluded wth an Exhortation to y^e Auditors to pursue the Interest of both, wⁿ they had such Extraordinary Accomodations provided by their Benefactors, particularly S^r. Tho. Bodley. There was one great omission however observable that he did not mention Archb^p. Laud, who was so considerable a Benefactor, not only in giving a large Collection of Books, but also in contributing so bountifully tow^{ds} the building of the spacious Room where Mr. Selden's Books are repositd. — On Tuesday Mr. Quoiles the Watch-makers Son was married to a Quakers Daughter Heiress of 30000 lib^s. Fortune. S^r. W^m. Penn performed the Ceremony. There were present 3 Dukes, among y^m the D. of Ormond, 40 8 L^{ds}, 7 Forreign Envoyes & abundance of other Gentry.

Nov. 9 (Fri). Dr. Hudson was told by a Person of unquestionable Integrity¹, That K. William gave a 1000 lib^s. to those two infamous Villains Blackett & Fuller that were embark'd in a Design to take away the Lives of Dr. Sancroft, Archb^p. of Cant., & Dr. Spratt, B^p. of Rochester. Admiral Churchill told Mr. Charles Bernard, & another Person (whose Name y^e Dr. has forgot) that My L^d Romney assur'd him y^t he paid the 1000 lib^s. by King W^m's order to those two Villains.

The Columna Rostrata is represented in Lucius Florus of Grævius's edition, & will be of use in an Edition of Livy. See there in pag. 50. — See also there in pag. 116. for a Coyn illustrating the Triumph of Pompey y^e Great. — The Travells, call'd the Grand Toure of France and Italy, lately printed, and father'd upon Mr. Bromley, by the Whiggs, is a most ridiculous scandalous Book, being publish'd on purpose to lessen y^e Character of that Worthy Gentleman. But they are so far from obtaining their End, that none or very few read the Book, & men begin (even some of y^e Whiggs themselves) to have a better Opinion of him than they had before, believing he must be very free from Faults, and a real Honest 10 man, against whom they can bring nothing, but childish Stories invented by themselves. — Mr. Spencer Compton is Elected Chairman for y^e Committee of Elections of y^e House of Commons. — Mr. Shute, who writ The Rights of the Protestant Dissenters, is like to come in Town Clerk of the City of London. — I am told Mr. Tyrrell will go no farther with his General History of England, w^{ch} I can hardly believe, since 'tis certain he prosecutes his Studies y^t way, and is continually writing down w^t he finds observable in order to a Continuation. Mr. Eachard indeed is upon the History of England, but w^t he will do must needs be trite if we may judge from his other Performances w^{ch} are fit only for novices, 20 having nothing in them of Learning, or anything else but w^t is taken from common Printed Books. — Mr. Dodwell's new Book call'd A Case in view consider'd; in a Discourse, proving that (in case our present invalidly deprived Fathers shall leave all their sees vacant, either by Death or Resignation) we shall not then be obliged to keep up our Separation from those Bishops, who are as yet involved in the Guilt of the present Unhappy Schism, is variously talkt of, some thinking 'twill do a great deal of good, & others (amongst whom are some of y^e Jacobites themselves) y^t 'twill do mischief, because most people thought Mr. Dodwell would never come in 'till such time as the present Compliers of y^e Church of England should 30 declare their being ag^t y^e Civil Magistrate's Power of Depriving Bps. Amongst these 'us probable will be Mr. Lesly, if we may judge from his Discourse ab^t marriages in Different communions.

Nov. 10 (Sat.). Out of y^e Benefactors Book of the Publick Library, pag. 68. vol. II.

Whereas the House of Commons made an Order in one of y^e Sessions of y^e last Parliament y^t no one should preach before y^m unless he had taken the Degree of D^r. of Divinity either in Oxof^r or Cambridge, they, having not the fear of God before their Eyes, nor any Regard to their own Honor & Reputation, the first Sessions this present Parliament orderd one Mr. Willis, a Lambeth Doctor, (who has crept into y^e Deanery of Lincoln) to preach before y^m on the 5th of Nov. last, & order'd his Sermon 50 to be printed because it is in favour of y^e Whiggs. — On Wednesday last was a great Competition between the Hon^l^{le} Spencer Compton, Esq^r, and Sr. Gilbert Dolben, to be Chairman for the Committee of Elections in the House of Commons, y^e first who was of Tinity College in Oxford, being one of Toland's Disciples, carried it against y^e latter who is well known to be a man of singular probity & of an unblemish'd Character in all Respects, and of rare Abilities for that Place. — To-day was enter'd Commoner of our Hall Will. Somerville. He came from Lincoln College.

Nov. 11 (Sun.) Mr. Garrett tells me y^t Mr. Hull an illiterate Fellow, 10 and singing Man of Salisbury, who was ordain'd by B^p. Burnett, came lately to y^e said B^p. and ask'd him when his L^dship would ordaine, saying That his Wife had a mind to be Ordain'd. The B^p. thinking he was mistaken Said, You mean when do I Confirm? Right, says Hull, for my Wife wants to be Confirm'd, being a very flippan't Dame. And yet for all this fellow was so shamefully ignorant, y^e B^p. gave out when he ordain'd him y^t he was an excellent Scholar & well vers'd in the Scriptures, tho' 'twas well known he could hardly read them in English.

Nov. 12 (Mon.) Above a Week since was a terrible Scuffle at X^t Hospital of w^{ch} Sr. Francis Child is President between the Governors 20 about y^e Choice of a Hall Keeper for Blackwell Hall. The Candidates were Mr. Leak formerly a Goldsmith and one Stackhouse. The Churchmen appear'd for y^e first & y^e Dissenters wth their Friends for y^e Latter, but y^e first carried it upon the Poll by 5 or 6 voices. However the Latter would have wrangled 'em out of it alledging that they had not told fair & demanded a new Election with hard words but the same was not granted. But on the 9th Instant in another Court called by the President the election was confirm'd. — Some few days since a Letter was distributed at y^e House of Commons Door advising the Taking off y^e Test Act. By w^{ch} we see how modest y^e Party are. The same contains Argum^{ts} against an 30 Occasional Bill. — Some say That the Whigg Members of Parliament [are] much displeas'd at Mr. Tilly's Assize Sermon, and That they will order it to be burnt: upon w^{ch} Mr. Tilly is printing another Sermon preach'd at Cairfax in Oxon on the 5th Instant, wherein will be a Preface vindicating himself from the many false Aspersions cast upon him. — To-day Mr. Halley coming to y^e Library, Dr. Hudson shew'd him Mr. Selden's large MS^t Map of China (whereof there is a Copy amongst Dr. Bernard's MSS. that is to be put into the Anatomy Schoole) to w^{ch} Dr. Hyde added some Explicatory Notes. Mr. Hally having taken a view of it, concluded it to be full of faults, from some w^{ch} he knew to b[e] so from 40 his own observations.

Nov. 13 (Tu.) Velseri Op: in Rer. Aug. Vind. lib. II. p. 199. . . . — Mr. Stephens of All-Souls College tells me he has rec^d a Letter from his Brother signifying That tho' the Whiggs carried it for a Speaker to y^e House of Commons by a Majority of 43, yet they had only 16 more than y^e Church Party in the Election of a Chairman to the Committee of Elections. So that, in all probability, the Whiggs will find it a very difficult matter to carry things to their mind, especially if the Church Party keep together in the House, as at present they seem resolv'd to do. — Tho' there is nothing in print ab^t Ela Long-Espee, Countess of Warwick's being a Benefactor to the Abbey of Rewley, yet M^r. Leland in his Itinerary has mention'd her giving several Lands to it; but he does not say any thing of her founding a Chapel there. — M^r. Wotton is made Prebendary of Sarum, he being, it seems, a Whigg, or any thing else, as he finds 'twill be for his Interest. W^h he was in Oxford last I drank the Takkers Health with him w^{ch} he was not against; nor did he refuse to drink y^e Health of the Author of the Memorial of the Church of England. — There are wanting in y^e Public Library several of the Books of Coyns mention'd in Labbe's Bibliotheca Nummaria. — When S^r. Andrew Fountaine was last in Oxoñ he was asking me whether we had in the Publick Library 10 any mst Books of Coyns? Remember to tell him that there are several things pertaining to y^e English Coyns amongst M^r. Rich. James's Collections. — Patinus in his Introduction to the History of Coyns insinuates That Goltzius was no Scholar, and did not understand Latin. And yet he has written very learnedly upon the Fast Consulares, &c. and seems to have accurately consider'd w^t Sigonius, Onuphius, Pighius, &c. had written before him. — M^r. Dodwell acquaints me that at y^e Beginning of y^e Revolution Dr. Kennett, then Vice-Principal of Edmund-Hall, lent him a Book of his Writing in MS^t (w^{ch} was never printed) offering Arguments for taking the Oaths of Allegiance & Supremacy to King William & Queen 20 Mary, with a Design to Draw M^r. Dodwell to take them. But he was so far from being brought to y^e Dr^s Opinion that he has several times told me that he was rather confirm'd in his former Sentiments, & that upon mentioning this Book sometimes since to y^e Doctor, he blush'd at it, and seem'd to be asham'd of what he had written. This Book must not be forgot to be inserted amongst the Doctor's other Pieces by him y^t shall continue Allenæ Oxonienses. His translation of Pliny's Panegyrick also & the Preface must be there discours'd off at large, with a particular Account of his Contradictions. — D^r. Hutten has about 40 Volumes of MS^t Collec- 30 tions. They are all in 8^{vo}, & he designs (as I am inform'd by M^r. Madox) to leave them to some publick Place. They are agreed upon by all Hands to be very valuable; and 'twere to be wished some Application were made to him to leave them to the Publick Library in Oxoñ. — M^r. Willis of X^t Church has made some Collections relating to Cardinal Wolsey, w^{ch} he has committed to y^e Dean of X^t church's Hands, with a desire that he would imploy somebody in Writing the Life of y^t Great Cardinal. But the Collections are not near enough, & I am told M^r. Willis has given over prosecuting the Matter any farther. — Dr. Smith told me the last time he was in Oxford that Dr. Bernard writ a large learned Preface to the Catalogue of MSS^{ts} w^{ch} he had seen after his Death in the Publick 40 Library; but upon Enquiry then for it, I could not find it, nor have I been able to meet with it since, notwithstanding I have carefully look'd all over his Papers.

Nov. 14 (Wed.). The Art of Longevity, or, A Diæterical Institution, by Edm. Gayton. Lond. 1659. 4^o. This is omitted by M^r. Ant. a Wood in his Catalogue of that vain, trifling, Author's Writings. — The Book call'd Leycester's Commonwealth (reprinted lately under y^e Title of Dudley's Memoirs) was written by Father Parsons the Jesuite, and at first was call'd Greencoat alias Leycester's Commonwealth. Vide D^r. James his Life of Father Parsons, p. 59. — The Book call'd Jerusalem and Babel, or the 50

Mr. Barnes should be acquainted of them, tho' there seems to be little in them to his purpose. — The Defence of Priestes Marriages— 4^o. Lond. was writt by Matt. Woodhead) in the Stables belonging to University Col. An. 1689. 4^{to}. where y^e greatest Part of the Edition was seised. But Mr.

Quere who y^e Author? The Author of The Judgment &c. was then suppos'd to be Dr. Sherlock. — The Weekly Pacquet of Advice from Rome was writt by Hen. Care, & not G. Care, as Dr. Barlow has asserted in one place. — Ἐπιτομή τοῦ Ἰπερ-βυρέπου or a Letter to a Friend tending to prove, (1) that Valid Ordination ought not to be repeated. (2) That Ordination by Presbyters is Valid, by

Dr. Barlow at the Beginning of a Copy of it in the Publick Library has noted that he was told by a Person of Honour (who well knew) that the Author of this Book was one Perkins, who was Author of the Guide to Controversies, and of a Book call'd Considerations of the Council of Trent &c. 1671. 4^o. But Mr. Wood has given another Account, being wthout doubt better inform'd. — There is just come out a New Book in 4^{to}, about Embalming, written by Tho: Greenwood, Surgeon. It seems to ¹be well done, & to contain several matters relating to Antiquity. 'Tis 10 shillings Price, & has a great Number of Cutts. — De Visibili Romanarchia contra Nich. Sanderi Monarchiam Προλεγόμενων libri duo. Lond. 1573. 4^o. The Author — Ackworth. — Dr. Barlow at the Beginning of Geoffry of Monmouth (amongst his Books in Bib. Bod) has noted divers things w^{ch} will be of use to one that shall put out a New Edition of that Author. — Amongst Dr. Barlow's Books is Expositio S. Jeronimi (or rather Ruffini) in Symbolum Apostolorum printed at Oxon. in 1468, 3 years after Printing began at Mentz. Dr. Barlow has Several Observations there about Printing, with References to some old Books. Mr. Bagford should carefully look them over. — The Author of the Brief Examination of the Present Roman 10 Catholic Faith contained in Pope Pius his Creed &c. (Lond. 1689. 4^{to}) was Dr. Gardiner, as his Son Samuel Gardiner, Rector of Eckington, near Chestersfield in the County of Darby (who gave him a Copy) assur'd Dr. Barlow. — In the year 1668 came out at Lond. a Book call'd Papa Ultrajectinus &c. Auctore Ludomaco Colvino. That is anagrammatikōs Ludovico Molinæo, (the Son,) who also writ Jugulum Causee, &c. Lond. 1671. — . . . Marci Meibomij De Fabrica Triremium liber. Amst. 1671. . . This Book ought to be consulted well by Mr. Græbe in order to his Edition of the LXX. — A Discourse of the Religion of England &c. Lond. 1667. 4^{to}. The Author was Mr. John Corbett, a Non-Conformist Hamp- 20 shire Minister. — In the Month of Nov. 1666, was printed and published at London, a Pamphlett call'd, The English-Papists Apologie. The Author whereof was inquired diligently after by the House of Commons, but could not be found. The Printer fled, but his Presses being found, were broken by Command of y^e s^t House. Some time after Bp. Barlow was inform'd that the Author was one Pugh a Papist and a Physitian, and (as one of his Countrymen told him) a Welshman. 'Twas Answer'd by Dr. Lloyd now Bp. of Worcester the y^r after. — Amongst Bp. Barlow's Books is a Copy of the xxxix Articles printed at Lond. 1633 . . with large MS^t Notes relating to them made by y^e Bp. and will be of great use to one that gives 30 an History or Exposition of them. Wth them are also Bound the Canons w^{ch} have likewise large MS^t Notes added to them. — In the Year 1668 was printed at Antwerp a large insignificant, impertinent Book (in 4^{to}) call'd Protestancy wthout Principles. The Author E. W. i. e. Father Edw. Worsley or Worresley an Englishman. — Dr. Francis Carswell, Vicar of Bray, in Berks, and Author of two Sermons w^{ch} contradict one another (being, it seems, resolv'd to keep up the old Proverb w^{ch} had it's original from one of his Predecessors, The Vicar of Bray will be Vicar of Bray still) has a very curious study of Books, as I am inform'd by one of Exeter Col. a native of y^e Place, who lately perus'd them and drew up a 40

Catalogue for y^e Doctor. He is a very rich Man, and minds nothing but Pelf, as his Neighbours say. — Mr. ¹Kannell (Joseph) of Lincoln Col. writ a short Discourse against Self-Murther in opposition to Dr. Donne. He made some Application a little while since to get it printed, but could not prevail with any one to undertake it, being a Book for w^{ch} there is no manner of occasion. I am inform'd he is now quite off publishing it, being laugh'd at by some in the College, who entitle the Book, Dr. Donne undone. — ² Mr. Creech of All Souls Col. a few years before his Death

propos'd to put out a new Edition of all Justin Martyr's Works, & had, for that end, drawn up a great many Sheets of Notes, as Mr. Grabe has inform'd me, who had the perusal of 'em. He says they were very well done, only that there were some things in them very singular, and would be accounted amongst men of Skill Heterodox. — He that shall undertake a 3^d Volume of the Monasticon Anglicanum must remember to give an Account of the Foundation &c. of Shottesbrooke Coll. in Berks. All the Chartularies of w^{ch} are now in the Hands of Mr. Francis Cherry L^d of the Mannor of Shottesbrooke, who procur'd a great many of them 10 lately of Mr. Stephen Edwards of White-Waltham an adjoining Parish, who had them of Mr. Charles Weldon, to whom they properly belong'd, being left them by his Father, who was owner of y^e Lands belonging to y^e said College, w^{ch} were afterwards purchas'd of him by Sr. Hen. Pouch, and so they came to the Cherry's. I have a Transcript of most of the Papers w^{ch} Mr. Edwards had, & upon Intimation of this to Mr. Cherry, he got Mr. Edwards to deliver all the papers of that nature in his Custody to him. — Within the Parish of White-Waltham, is a mannor call'd Feens, near to the mannor House where was once a Chapell of Ease. This Mannor lately belong'd to John Finch, Esq^r, who dying without Heir Male 20 it came to 5 Daughters, one of w^{ch} is married to y^e said Mr. Francis Cherry. The Chapell was at length turn'd into a Stable; but whether this was done by Mr. Finch or some of his Predecessors I cannot yet certainly tell. This however I am credibly inform'd of, that Mr. Finch observing his Affairs not to prosper very well, advis'd with Mr. Rich. Clee then Rector of Shottesbrook, and Vicar of White-Waltham, who directed him to imploy the money, w^{ch} was wont to be given to the Minister for reading Prayers (20 lib^s. per Ann. I think) in charitable uses, w^{ch} accordingly he did, & I have reason to think that Mr. Cherry does y^e same to this day. The undertaker of this Volume also must take a view of the 30 Sepulchral Inscriptions in the said Church of Shottesbrooke, where the Wardens of the College lie buried, the last whereof was ¹ Throgmorton as appears from his Tomb in the Chancell of that Church. — White-Waltham, otherwise call'd Abbot's-Waltham, did belong, as I am told, to ² Waltham Abbey in Essex, and it seems the Writings relating to it are lodg'd at Winchester. About the Bounds of this Parish and Bray is an old Record Printed by Mr. Prynne in one of the Volumes of his Work about the Inroachments of the Pope. — In the Windows of the Parish Church of Warfeld, within 3 miles of Windsor, is a great deal of Painted Glass, w^{ch} will afford much assistance to him that shall give an account of that the Publick Library, saying that he will not scruple to do the same again: and yet he has no other Argument, than usu id exigente in §. 8. of the Statutes, w^{ch} is express ag^t him, that Exception being added upon Account of Books to be sold, exchang'd or Bound, and relates only to the Library-Keeper, who cannot, wthout guilt of perjury, carry any Book out upon any other Account. So that (if Mr. Ayliff were rigorously, and according to y^e express words of the Statute, proceeded against besides his being guilty of perjury,) he ought to pay double the value of the Book & be perpetually expell'd out of the Library for not restoring it before he went out of the Library the same day he 10 had it. — Memorandum (1) That Father Parsons writt a Book intit. The Judgment of a Catholick Englishman, &c. against the Oath of Allegiance. (2) Dr. William Barlow (Bishop of Lincoln) writ an Apology for y^e Oath of Allegiance, wth this Title—Triplici nodo, triplex cuncus, or an Apology for the Oath of Allegiance &c. printed Lond. 1609. (3) An. 1612. Father Parsons publish'd a Book call'd A Discussion of the Answer of M^r. Will. Barlow &c. w^{ch} is a Defence of the first & an Answer to y^e second Book above mentioned. —

Mr. John Goodwin in his Book call'd 'Απολύτρωσις 'Απολυτρώσεως, or Redemption Redeem'd, brings (and brags of) this Argument for the 20 universal Redemption of all mankind (nemine excepto) as unanswerable, and clear, as the Sun at Noonday (those are his Words), thus—

That which everyone in the World is bound to believe, that is true;
But every one in the World is bound to believe that X^t dyed for him, Ergo, 'tis true that he dy'd for every man in the World.

This Argument was by one (who never saw John Goodwin) believed to be evidently inconsistent, and the Minor manifestly false, and accordingly it was in a Letter signify'd to him, (subscrib'd T. S. for T. B.) upon these Grounds, (to set down the sum of that Letter).

1. The Law w^{ch} binds us to believe X^t dyed for us, is a Divine, positive 30 Law: because, 1. no Humane Law can, 2. the Natural Law doth not bind any to believe in X^t: for no man ever had any such Authority to oblige all Mankind; and Natural Reason could not possibly discover that there was, or ever would be, a Mediator, or X^t a Saviour. 2. No positive Law of God or Man, can bind any to obedience without sufficient Promulgation, cum certissime constet, quod Promulgatio sit ad obligationem legis necessaria. 3. But the Law of the Gospel, which commands Belief in X^t, neither was, nor could be sufficiently promulgated, either 1. to Infants, 2. or to natural fools, and madmen, 3. nor to men born blinde, deaf and dumbe: all these having a natural Impossibility and Incapacity to hear or understand that Evangelical Command. 40 4. nor was it ever promulg'd (much less sufficiently) to any of those Pagans (before or after X^t) to whom the Gospel was never preached; for wthout a Preacher they could not hear, (Rom. 10, 14, 15.) much less believe or be bound to it: And therefore St. Augustine said well (speaking of the Gentiles, who never heard the Gospel) Veniam habebunt propter infidelitatem, damnabuntur propter peccata contra naturam. Upon Receipt of this Letter (of w^{ch} this is the sum as put down by Bp. Barlow) M^r. Goodwin in y^e year 1681 published a Book call'd the Pagans Debt and Downy, &c., but wisely conceals the s^d Letter, & prints it not all, (that men might see the Argument he endeavours to answer) nor the Reason or words of any part of it; only he saith something (though most irrationally) as to Pagans, y^t all they heard the Gospel sufficiently to bring an Obligation upon them to believe in X^t. upon w^{ch} says y^e Bp, Legat cui vacat, & (per me licet) judicet.

The Archbishop of Armagh and his intention to found a Library at Dublin; he writes that Dr. Stillingfleet's library is safely arrived there, and he is very well pleased with the purchase. Fears that H.'s account of the state of Trinity College Library is too true. Mr. Lloyd to be made a Lambeth Doctor; it would be satisfactory to have this prerogative of the Archbishop cleared. Mill admits that he made too much haste with the Greek text of the New Testament.

- 10 Upon Reading this Sum of the above mention'd Letter (w^{ch} I found inserted by Dr. Barlow in the Beginning of The Pagan's Debt &c. in the Publick Library,) I immediately consulted Bp. Barlow's Remains, & there find the Letter to have been written by the Dr. Himself, it being there printed at large wth another Extract of y^e same Nature. — Dr. Bull's Harmonia Apostolica, seu binæ Dissertationes &c. has a great number of MSS^t notes by Bp. Barlow whose Copy is in y^e Publick Library. M^r. Grave should have consulted these, some of them seeming to be very material & fit to be taken notice of. — In relation to this Book of Dr. Bull's must be seen a Book in 8^o. wth this Title—An

But he finds fault wth & censures y^e 2^d part from 6th Chapter (inclusive) & endeavours to disprove several of Dr. Bull's Positions. Dr. Barlow's Copy must be consulted by him y^t shall continue Athen. Oxon. — . . .

The Author was then suppos'd to be, Cartwright Bp. of Cbester; tho' he deny'd it.—The Free-Holders Grand Inquest touching our Sovereign L^d the King & his Parliam^t—pr. an. 1647. The Author Sr. Rob. It came out Nov. 14. 1667. the Parliam^t then sitting, & the Author was John Owen.—A Discourse of Toleration: in Answer to a late Book, intit. A Discourse of the

The Author of the Book, to w^{ch} 'tis An Answer, was Mr. Corbett, a Non-Conformist.—Indulgence not Justified &c. Lond. 1668. 4^o. Dr. Perinchief s^d also to be Author of this.—Anno 1661, in Octob., came out a Petition for Peace, the Author said to be Mr. Baxter. It came out clandestinely, & the Printer was imprison'd for his Paines.—Amongst the Bp. of Lincoln's Books . . is a Copy of Mr. Valentine Greatratre's Letter to the Bp. of Chester (Dr. Hall) touching his Cures by Stroaking. The Tombs, Monuments, & Sepulchral Inscriptions lately visible in 10 St. Paul's Cathedral &c. written by Pain Fisher is a silly Book (abating only the Inscriptions,) there being nothing of Learning or Diligence shew'd in it, much after the same manner as the Antiquities of Middlesex, the first pt whereof was lately publish'd, but no more. The said Pain Fisher in p. 32. of y^t Book (writt meerly to flatter some men (such was the vanity of the man) makes mention of a great History of the Tombs & Monuments of London, which he had written or at least design'd to write. Quære whether any such Book was ever publish'd? — I am told by one of St. Peter's Parish that when the Church-Wardens went to Dr. Hallon, Provost of Queen's-Coll., asking his 20 Benevolence for Building y^e Gallery in St. Peter's Church (w^{ch} would be for y^e use of y^e University as well as y^e Parish) he put his finger out of y^e Window pointing to y^e Library, then bulding there, & desir'd them to see w^t he was doing another way: so would give nothing. After w^{ch} they went to Dr. Mill, who would give nothing because the Provost did not, tho' had he had as good reason as he he might have come off creditably. — To Night meeting with Mr. Urry of Christ-Church (who seems to be a Pious, conscientious, man, and a thorough-pac'd Scholar, w^{ch} is y^e Character also he bears amongst the true Sons of the Church of England) he was pleas'd to tell me that he wish'd Mr. 30 Dortwell had not publish'd his two late Books about Schism, & much more wishes he will not publish a new Book he has ready for the Press about y^e Natural Mortality of the Soul; particularly for this reason, because the World is too wicked already to have a notion, w^{ch} may do mischief, improv'd by the Writings of a good Man. He likewise told me that the three Picces, in old English, the Lady would have transcrib'd out of Bodley are not very valuable upon account of any thing extraordinary in them, but she was willing to have them because one of them was done by a Lady of Extraordinary Worth (to whom also the other two belong) & she had a great veneration (not only for Antiquity) 40 but for all Pieces written by y^e Female Sex.

And w^{ch} is as bad he has not sent a Copy neither to y^e Library, such is the Ingratitude of the man, y^t one would really think he had nothing but y^e Spirit of a Whigg in him, & y^t he was possess'd wth the Soul of y^e Scandalous *March. —1651. 4^{to}.—Writt by Mr. Austen, a Catholick Gentleman & a Traveller, but not in Orders.—A Light shining out of Darkness. Lond. 1659. 4^o. (By Hen. Stubbe.) . . .

Enquire of Mr. Dodwell, or some body else, whether the MS^t. mention'd to be at Paris (probably in the King's Library) concerning the famous Schism w^{ch} was rais'd upon the Account of Josephus the Presbyter (quoted by Cotelernus in his Notes upon the III^d Volume of Monumenta Ecclesiæ Græcæ. (& by Dr. Hody pag. 15 of his Letter concerning a Collection of Canons &c.) be the same with the Baroccian MS^t published by Dr. Hody & whether the Canons immediately follow it in the same 10 manner as in the Bar. MS. — In the Year 1648. was put out a most base and trayterous Pamphlett intit. Several Speeches delivered at a Conference conc. the Power of Parl. to proceed against their King for Misgovernment, (in 9. Speeches). 'Twas taken verbatim out of the first Part of Dolman (or Parsons's) Book touching Succession to y^e Crown, these 9 Speeches (as they are here call'd) being the 9 chapters in Dolman. 'Twas printed at y^e Charge of the Parl. 30 lib^s. being paid by them to the Printer, in perpetuam eorum infamiam. See the Collection of his Majestie's Gracious Messages for Peace, p. 125. 126. W^{ch} Messages were collected, and printed with Observations upon them by 20 Mr. Simons. The said Speeches were put out by Walker an Iron-Monger; from that he came to be a Cow-herd; when the King came into London about the 5 members he threw into his Coach a Traiterous Pamphlett, call'd To thy Tents oh Israel. He afterwards writ The perfect Occurrences & in 1649 was made Minister by y^e Presbyterians. Mr. Darby, Yorkshire, and Parl^t Man bought Doleman of Cornelius Bee, at y^e King's Arms in Little-Britaine, who gave it to Walker. In the year 1655. was pr. and published at Lond. another treatise on the same subject, intit. A Treatise conc. y^e Broken Succession of the Crown of England. 4^{to}. w^{ch} is the same with the former a little alter'd. So willing 30 they were (even those pretended Saints) to make use of the basest Artes, and Jesuitical Armes against the Established Government of their own Country: and having murder'd their King, by these & such other trayterous Arts, they endeavour'd to keep his Son from the Succession.

Nov. 17 (Sat.). Mr. Dodwell's new Book for Healing y^e Schism pleases extremely much y^e Generality of Readers, and even most of y^e Persons in Power cannot but commend it, and think y^t he acts like an Honest, Conscientious Man, and a true Son of y^e Ch. of England. But some Expressions in it give distast. — Mr. Sherlock has a Grant from the Queen to be Master of the Temple (worth two hundred lib^s. per 40 An.) after the Death of his Father. — Marginales linguarum collationes in Armenico Dictionario Rivolæ, per Tho. Hyde. These are added in a Copy of that Dictionary in the Publick Library, w^{ch} in the year 1676 was order'd to be sold among other Duplicates by y^e Curators; but y^e Doctor sav'd it, & restor'd it again. At the beginning he has himself given an Account of y^e Notes. — . . . Observations upon the Ordinance of the Lords and Commons at Westminster. Oxon. 1645. 4^{to}. 'Twas

In the same Book p. 310. is an Emendation of Justin in the word Pylicemus. — Talking with Mr. Joyner (the Roman-Catholick) concerning my Ld. Clarendon's History of the Rebellion, (w^{ch} Dr. Hudson advis'd him to read,) he seem'd to have but a very indifferent opinion of it, not believing 20 it to be writ either in a good style, or wth y^t impartiality as 'tis said to be; tho' he appear'd to be something prejudic'd upon Account of y^t Great Man's being educated at Magd. Hall, the chief Members of w^{ch} he said were always rigid Puritans, for whom he could not have a very fair Opinion, upon account of their unmercifull Usage of Archb^p. Laud, whose Head they cutt off, notwithstanding the great favours they had rec'd from King James 1st, who made Dr Geo Abbot Archb^p. of Canterbury, mcerly to oblige (to use Joyner's Expression) some of the Puritans, who thought the King was not favourable enough to y^m; w^{ch} Preference wⁿ Abbot had got, he rais'd a fund for maintaining the 30 Puritans, some of whom (namely the Fanaticks) cut off Laud's Head, who was a man of such admirable Judgment & Learning y^t he knew w^t Danger the Nation was in & whence it proceeded & did declare y^t if they wou'd take his Advise he could heal all Breaches; w^{ch} the Fanaticks (or Puritans as Joyner calls them) well perceiving they dispatch'd him as soon as possible, w^{ch} when they had done, they us'd these words,

All praise & Glory to the Lord,
& Laud unto y^e Devil.

When Laud was thus taken off they thought they had done most of 40 their Work, King Charles the 1st having no body now to stand his Friend so much as Laud, that King being of so easy a Temper y^t by his Granting the Fanaticks so much he lost his Head at last as his Good Friend Laud did.

As Laud was stiff ag^t the Fanaticks, so was likewise the Duke of Buckingham; & therefore Mr. Joyner believes y^t had both these men liv'd the King's head [had] not been cut off. But besides other misfortunes w^{ch} befell the Duke & made him Dislik'd was his Journey into Spain wth this King then Prince, in order to consummate his marriage wth the Infanta; w^{ch} coming to no happy Conclusion, the King himself was somew^t displeas'd, & y^t too for this (as well as other reasons usually offer'd) namely that the Duke (whose extraordinary Parts, besides the comeliness of his Person, made the King very 10 much delight in him) whilst he was there happen'd to receive a —, by lying wth a Spanish Beauty whom he much admir'd, & w^{ch} prov'd so violent, y^t he could not rid himself off it before he was oblig'd to return into England wth y^e Prince, where 'twas soon divulg'd, & I am told, by a Person who well knows, y^t there is a Letter relating to this whole Business in some private Hands in Oxford. This Juvenile Adventure did the Church men (to whom y^e Duke was a great Friend) also much Prejudice, & after the Duke was unfortunately murder'd, & the Fanaticks saw they should gain y^e Day, they made this Rime,—

If Greex & Rex had had their will,
Then Bucks & Ducks had had their fill.

— Amongst other Discourse also wth Mr. Joyner He told me y^t when some of y^e Fanatick Puritans complain'd to St. Hen. Savile of their want of Preferment, he advis'd them to go to hungry Courtiers; w^{ch} advise they made so good use of, that soon after Abbot was made a Bp., afterwards Archbp., & some of y^e Rest were prefer'd too, to y^e no small profit of y^e Fanaticks. —

Translated into English by Mr. Dryden, then only a Poet, afterwards a Papist, & may be so before, tho' not known.—The Pamphlett call'd A Vindication of the Observer &c., printed Lond. 1685, was writ by the Author of y^e Observer himself, Sr. Rog. L'Estrange.—The Answer to the Bp. of Condom afterwards of Meaux's Exposition of the Catholick Faith, Lond. 1686, was written by Mr. John Gilbert, Mr of Arts of Hart-Hall in Oxon, & afterwards Curat of Asbwell in the County of Hertford. —

Mr. Professor Halley tells me he has 6 or 7 Copies of y^e Inscription 40 in the Theatre yard relating to Zeno the Archon printed at y^e Theatre, only as a Specimen, to see how people like it; being minded to print it more accurately in the Transactions. — Mr. Joyner says that, Mr. Hobbs us'd to say that Mr. Selden understood nothing of Mathematicks, w^{ch} Mr. Selden being inform'd off, he reply'd that if Mr. Hobbs understood no more mathematicks than he did Law, he understood nothing at all of them. And indeed Mr. Selden had such a Mean opinion of that Malmsbury Philosopher, that he us'd to say, All comers were welcome to his Table, but Tho. Hobbes & one Rossingham. — On y^e 14th Instant in y^e Evening came on the Hearing of y^e Election of St. Albans & y^e 50 Committee sate 'till 3 in y^e Morning & adj'd the farther hearing till Friday Evening; but carryed the main Question ag^t Honorary Freemen having Right to vote by a Majority of above 40 voices so y^t twas guess'd the same would go for Adm. Killigrew the Pet. against Mr. Gape the sitting member. — The Lords on Thursday in a full House went upon the Consideration of the State of the Nation, y^e Q. & Prince present at y^e Debate, & amongst other Matters the L^d. H——m proposed y^e calling over y^e P^{ss}. Sophia in w^{ch} he was seconded by the E. of A——y, but this was overbore so y^t it came not to y^e Question, but 'twas like to end in further consideration how to strengthen the succession of y^e House of Hanover — On y^e 2^d Instant, (being All-Souls Day) was made Fellow of All-Souls College (there being but one Vacancy) Bar-

 10 zillai Jones, A. B. of Jesus College. He had great Interest, amongst the rest the Duke of Ormond & the Duke of Beaufort, the latter of w^{ch} (as I have been inform'd) came hither on purpose to make Friends in y^e College for him. He had so good Friends, it seems, upon Account of his Father, nam'd also Barzillai Jones, who was formerly of Jesus Coll. (where he took y^e Degree of Master of Arts in y^e year 1674) and afterwards was made a Dean in Ireland; whose Father being an Anabaptist hinder'd this Jones his son from being baptis'd whilst young, insomuch y^t 'twas not perform'd 'till he came to Jesus Col., where Sr. L. Jenkins (then Principal) got it done. I am told y^t he became great wth y^e Duke
 20 of Beaufort upon Account of a Wife he married who was (tho' far off) related to that Family: w^{ch} also made him great wth the Duke of Ormond (who is related to y^e Duke of Beaufort) & so he was preferr'd to a Deanery; but whether he really deserved it I cannot tell. This however is certain that (notwthstanding his being at present a Non-Juror) he is a proud, haughty Man, as one of his own Country-men has told me. — We hear from Berwick that several Gentlemen have been taken up there, and put into the Town-Goal, there being divers Letters of ill Consequence found about them, and some 100^s. of Arms taken in y^e House where they were seis'd. — Mr. Joyner thinks that Davila's
 30 History of France is preferable to Thuanus's & y^t the latter's is more esteem'd amongst the Protestants because he generally gives them very great Characters. — One Goddard is made Chaplain to y^e House of Commons, who when he was of Magd. Col. in Oxoni was commonly call'd Honest Tom Goddard, because of his being a true Friend to the Pot & Pipe, & was a good natur'd Rake: w^{ch} Character suits very well with him still, it being observ'd that the very first time he read Prayers after his being made Chaplain he read the Evening for the morning Service, having drunk to y^t Excess the night before that his head was giddy when he should perform his Duty y^e day after. Upon 40 w^{ch} there goes about a witty Copie of verses in Latin. — The Chief Monument in y^e Church of Merton, near Oxon, is y^t of Sr. Rich. Croke, (Son of Unton Croke), where he is characteris'd as being a Man of Great Virtues, & belov'd by King Charles I & II, & by all good Men, & was universally lamented at his Death. W^{ch} is so false, that 'tis well known that for his Breach of y^e Articles made to Penrudduck, after he had surrender'd himself up to him, upon the Defeat of his Enterprize in behalf of the King (then in Exile) at Salisbury, as that he should have his Life &c., he, the said Croke, was made a Serjeant by Oliver, and became so universally hated, for y^t treacherous Action, & several other 50 most notorious Instances of Knavery, that no one could give him, or his Son Unton Croke, who was as bad, a good Worde; tho' 'tis acknowledged y^t he was a very fair spoken Man, & by his insinuating way of Behaviour got a large Estate, w^{ch} however never prosper'd — . . . Dr. Beau, the present Bp. of Landaffe is 88 years of Age, & his Brother (a plain, Honest, true-principled man living at Merston) 75. H[is] Father and Grandfather, wth some others of y^e Family, [lived] to be extraordinary old too, & it might have been taken notice of in y^e new Edition of Dr. Plot's N. H. of Oxon-sh. — Dr. Charlett tells me that he does not think Father Parsons was the Author of Leycester's Commonwealth, and that this is the Opinion of divers others besides; but I ¹⁰ cannot hear any good reason offer'd for this Opinion: all they say, it seems, is, y^t the Author personates a Protestant, & y^t there is little or nothing of Popery in it, w^{ch} is no Argument y^t it should not be writ by a Jesuit, it being sufficiently known that Parsons was a Cunning, subtle Man, of a clear Head, great Learning, & very well vers'd in our English Constitution: & such a man was y^e Author of this Book. — When Sir Godfrey Kneller (as Dr. Hudson informs me) came to Oxon. by Mr. Pepys's order, to draw Dr. Wallis's Picture, he, at dinner wth Dr. Wallis, was pleas'd to say, upon the Dr^s. Questioning the Legitimacy of y^e Prince of Wales that he did not in y^e least doubt but he was the son ²⁰ of K. James and Q. Mary: and to evince this, he added, That upon the sight of y^e Picture of y^e Prince of Wales sent from Paris into England, he was fully satisfy'd of w^t others seem'd to doubt so much of: For, as he farther said, he had manifest Lines and Features of both their Faces; w^{ch} he knew very well, having drawn them both several times. When this was said, were present at Dinner with Dr. Wallis the following Persons, Dr. Aldrich Dean of X^t Church, Dr. Charlett Master of University Coll., Dr. Hudson Head Library Keeper, & Dr. Gregory (the Scotch Man) one of the Savilian Professors. — Ant. à Wood, as Dr. Hudson told me, consulted with him (knowing y^t he had great Corre- ³⁰ spondence wth y^e chief Men in Holland) how to get his thrd vol. of Athenæ Ox: printed there. When he was ask'd the reason why he would not have it printed in England, he answer'd That his other Books had suffer'd so much, by the Liberty that some men took of expunging w^t they pleas'd that he would never suffer any Book of his to be committed to an English Press again. He moreover added (to use his own words) when this Volume comes out I'll make you laugh again. — Dr. Charlett, Master of University College was brought into y^t Place by the Interest of the Worthy Dr. Hudson, who might have had it, before Mr. Bennett, when Dr. Charlett succeeded. — Upon a Competition between Dr. ⁴⁰ Oldish of New-Coll. & Mr. Clarke of All-Souls for being Burgesses for the University of Oxon. Dr. Hudson, who was then Master of Arts of Queen's Coll. was by the Interest & malice of Dr. Halton (Provost of that Col.) hinder'd of a Fellowship, for voting conscientiously for Dr. Oldish, & not for Clarke who was then a young Pert Master of Arts, & not comparable to the other for Abilities. About two months before this, the said Mr. Hudson had a Testimonium from Dr. Halton & all the Fellows, he then intending to go into Holy Orders, w^{ch} he not using at y^t time luckily kept by him, & did him afterwards (as it were Providentially) most signal Service. For when he miss'd of a Fellow- ⁵⁰ ship at y^t College, he, intending to take Holy Orders, ask'd a Testimonium from the s^d Provost & Fellows, w^{ch} he then, forgetting what he had done before, obstinately deny'd him. Upon this he, taking his Testimonium dated a little time before, went to Farnham, & was ordain'd Deacon by Bp. Mew; with whom he left the said Testimonium. When he happen'd to stand for a Fellowship of University Coll. he petition'd the said Provost for a Testimonium, as is usual; but he deny'd it him. Dr. Crosthwait Mr. Hudson's Friend ask'd the Provost whether he had been guilty of any Misdemeanour since such a time, 10 meaning the time when this Testimonium was dated? The Provost answer'd, no. Then replies Dr. Crosthwait, the Testimonium that you gave him a few months since is good. Upon this Mr. Hudson was advis'd by the said Dr. Crosthwait to send to the Bp. of Winchester for the Testimonium, w^{ch} the Bp. readily transmitted to him, and was accepted of by the Master & Fellows of University Coll. who thereupon elected him Fellow. But it is to be observ'd that when Mr. Hudson stood Candidate for that Fellowship, Mr. Obadiah Walker the Master, seeming to have a kindness for him (well knowing him to be an ingenious Young Man, and a very good Scholar) without his Privity 20 procur'd a Mandate from King James; w^{ch} Mandate, when Mr. Hudson was acquainted with it by Mr. Walker, absolutely refus'd, saying, He had rather live by his Wits than come into a College without the Consent of the Fellows: w^{ch} being known to the Fellows, those who were most for another Person came all over to his Interest; so that he was unanimously Elected Fellow. The Reason of Mr. Walker's getting y^e Mandate was, that he thought Mr. Hudson was not of a right County as the Statute requires: but upon Examination it appear'd that he was in y^t respect statutablely qualified. This mandate is an Instance of y^t Kings Assuming a Power of dispensing with Statutes of Colleges. The 30 Copy of the Mandate is as follows,

To our Trusty and Well-beloved the Master and Fellows of University College in our University of Oxon.

JAMES R.

Trusty and well-beloved We greet you well. Having receiv'd a good Character of John Hudson, Master of Arts of Queen's College, in that our University, and being inform'd that he is well-qualified by his Learning and Good Manners, to be chosen Fellow of your College, We have thought fit hereby, in a particular manner, to recommend him y^e said J. H. to you to be chosen accordingly a Fellow of your College, in the Place now vacant, notwithstanding 40 ing his not being of the County required by the Statute, or any other Disability, with all which we are pleas'd and do hereby dispense in his Behalf: And so, not doubting of your ready Compliance herein, We bid you farewell. Given at our Court at Whitehall the 21st Day of March 1684, in the second year of our Reign. By his Majesty's command,

SUNDERLAND P.

The said Mr. Hudson having a Right to some money, due to him as Master upon the Foundation of Queen's College, when he was Fellow of University College requested the same of y^e Provost, and Bursar of Queen's. One Morning at a Meeting of y^e Provost and Fellows, it 50 was put to y^e vote, and by the Interest of the Provost and his Party carry'd against him: w^{ch} being told the said Mr. Hudson at the Coffee House by his singular good Friend Mr. Joseph Fisher, a solid Divine, and well skill'd in Orientals, he said in jest that he would Appeal to y^e Ecclesiastical Commissioners. This being overheard was carry'd to y^e Provost, who (to shew he was a man of no great Courage) call'd another Meeting of y^e Fellows, and procur'd a Vote to pass for his having the Money. The said Mr. Hudson, tho' he was so much injur'd, still retain'd a mighty Affection for his Country College, and has been often heard to say, That he could forgive the Provost a thousand Injuries for his great Care and Generosity in Building and Furnishing 10 that noble Library: And has often since gratefully acknowledg'd his Kindness for prevailing with some of the Fellows (who had been lead aside by the cunning Dealing of Magd. Coll. men) to espouse his Interest heartily when he stood to be Library Keeper to the university of Oxford. When Dr. Hudson stood to be Library-Keeper, Dr. Aldrich, the Worthy Dean of X^t Church, was his particular Friend, and did not only engage his whole House to be for him; but came purposely down from London himself, with several other Persons whose charges he most generously bore. The said Dr. Aldrich, as Dr. Hudson told me, who had it from his own mouth, writ the Dedications to the Queen 20 prefix'd to the II^d & III^d Volumes, and the Prefaces to the first, of my L^d. Clarendon's History. — To shew the Archb^p. of Canterbury's (Tennison) small Concern for the university of Oxon, when the Warden-ships of All-Souls & Merton Coll. were to be fill'd by his Nomination, he chose the Persons y^t were least deserving, Dr. Martin for Merton, who was not comparable to Dr. Bateman (a Man of great Integrity, Excell^t Learning, & other noble Accomplishments), & Dr. Gardiner for All-Souls, far inferior to Mr. Waldron, who was one of y^e Greatest Wits of y^e Age, and justly esteem'd a second Hudibrass; whereas the other was violently suspected to be an Egregious ———, & known to be a 30 Person of very little Learning & less Honesty, standing for all Places y^t He can make any Interest to procure, as to be Custos Archivorum, w^{ch} Office he neither is nor ever will be qualified for. Besides this, he has done great Prejudice to y^e University by being a main Instrument to bring in Dr. Farrar of Magd. Coll. (a Fellow all Gutts without Brains) to be Natural Philosophy Professor, & Mr. Wallis of y^e said College to be Arabick Reader, who hardly knows the Alphabet. — When B^umingham School was void (by the Factious Town's men turning out y^e Worthy Dr. John Hikes, Fellow of Magd. Coll.) the Towns-men, thinking themselves not proper Judges of y^e Qualifica- 40 tions of a Schoolmaster, refer'd the choice of one to Dr. Tillotson Archb^p. of Canterbury. This Fanatical Prelate, having Liberty to chose out of the two Universitys & all the world besides, could not think of any Person to prefer to this Place, but one Perkinson, who was Expell'd y^e University of Oxford for Fanatical Anti-monarchichal Principles. — Dr. Radcliff's Character of Mr. John Naylor Fellow of University (a Huge great lubberly Fellow) was, that he was only fit for cleaving Wood. — After Mr. Walker was turn'd out of University Coll. for being a Papist, he liv'd obscurely in London, his chief Maintenance being from the Contributions of some of his old Friends and 50

Acquaintance; amongst whom was Dr. Radcliff, who, (out of a grateful Remembrance of Favours rec^d from him in the college) sent him once a Year a new Suit of Cloaths, with ten Broad-Pieces, and a dozen Bottles of the Richest Canary to support his Drooping Spirits. This Dr. Hudson (from whom I rec^d this story) was inform'd by Dr. Radcliff himself.

Nov. 19 (Mon.). In the Letters w^{ch} came last night 'tis said that the Upper House of Convocation, having drawn up an Address to Her Majesty for her late Gracious Speech, sent it down to y^e Lower House 10 for their Concurrence; but when they had read it, (whether it was because of their agreeing y^t y^e Church was in no Danger, or w^t else I cannot as yet tell) they return'd it, and are resolv'd to draw up, and present Her Majesty, a Loyal one of their own. — Kusterus, in his Notes upon Suidas, in voc. Apros* p. 339. makes mention of Dr. John Cowell's (Head of Bennett Coll. Camb.) Itinerary thro' Greece, containing several curious matters relating to y^e Language, Antiquities, Rites & Religion of that Country, w^{ch} he says would be of great Advantage to y^e Republick of Letters to have publish'd. Ask Dr. Smith's Opinion of them, if he has seen them. —

The Management of the Election caus'd a great many warm speeches, especially on acct of the Dutchess of Marlborough's Intermeddling. — In pag. 372 of

Phil. à Turre's Monumenta Veteris Antij are several things concerning Pliny the Younger's Epistles, w^{ch} must be made use of in a new Edition of y^t Author. — I have been told, by one that knows, that Mr. Wilkinson Minister of Lawrence Waltham in Berks being a Person inclin'd to y^e Study of English Antiquities, had collected a great many things of y^t nature, w^{ch} would be of use in a new Edition of Camden; but he cannot tell to whom they came after his death, or where they now are¹. — In pag. 7 of y^e said Monumenta Vet. Antij is a Note conc. Valerius Antias, the Antient Roman Historian, (so often quoted, & sometimes condemned, 10 by Livy) his going to Rome. In pag. 15. He quotes a MS^t Dissertation of Hieronymus Aleander Junior, wherein he show'd in opposition to Lip-sius that extenuatas and attenuatas in Livy is not to be chang'd into extaeniatas. He promises there to give a more full relation of this Diss. & y^e other MSS. of Aleander in another Place. Quære whether he ever perform'd his promise, & whether y^e Diss. was ever yet printed? The said Aleander also made an Addition to Sirmondus's Comment upon y^e Inscription of Scipio Barbatus. See there pag. 27. Quære whether this was ever printed? In p. 66 he tells us that Fabrettus died the 7th of y^e Ides of Febr. An. 1700. in y^e 80th year of his Age, leaving an excell^t 20 Work, w^{ch} he had began, unfinish'd, viz. Descriptio Agri Romani antiqui, for compiling of w^{ch} he had collected a vast treasure of Materials, & prepar'd a most accurate Map, & several excell^t Tables besides. There was nothing of it digested. Quære where his Adversaria are reposit? —

Today being at Mr. Abell's Chamber of Merton-Col. he was pleas'd to shew me the following Roman Coyns, viz. . . .

[Here follow the descriptions of eight coins; at pp. 175–6 of five other coins, and at p. 177 of two more.]

Nov. 21 (Wed.). I am told by a Person, who well knows, having recd it from his own Mouth, that Dr. Kennett designs to give at large, in a 30 Work he is now consulting, all the material Inscriptions in any Church w^{ch} belong'd to some Religious House in England. —

The Inscription on y^e monum^t of Mr. Rich. Walker, buried in St. Michael's Church in Oxon :

This Inscription was made by the Ingenious Mr. Alsop of X^t Church, & was communicated to me by my singular Good Friend Dr. Hudson. — The New Edition of Euclid's Works w^{ch} came out at the Theatre in fol. in Dr. Gregory's name, was chiefly owing to the Care of the Learned Dr. Hudson, who at y^e Request of Dr. Aldridge, Dean of X^t Church, submitted to be a joynt Editor of that Book, it being agreed upon at y^e Dean's, That Dr. Gregory should see y^t y^e mathematical things were

Right, & Dr. Hudson should take care of the Greek and Lat. Text in all other regards, w^{ch} he effectually perform'd, first by settling the Greek Text, w^{ch} he corrected and supply'd in many Places, by the Assistance of MSS. and printed Copies in y^e Publick Library, and first of all with abundance of Pains transcrib'd the Phænomena out of an old MS^t, and accurately prepar'd it for the Press, having been never publish'd before.

2. As to the Latin Version, it cost him a great deal of time in y^e Books following the first 6 (w^{ch} were published by S^r. Hen. Savile and judg'd to need no Emendations, w^{ch} the Dr. (relying too much upon Dr. Gregory,) found he was mistaken in; for in y^e Publick Library the Version of those 10 Books are all along mended by Dr. Bernard with great Skill and Judgm^t) in making use of Dr. Bernard's Emendations of y^e version in most of y^e Book, especially in y^e Data; and afterwards adjusting the Version of those Parts w^{ch} Dr. Bernard had not touch't to the Original Text. (3) The chief Part of correcting the whole in Greek (w^{ch} Dr. Gregory knew nothing of) lay upon him, as also the Latin in a great measure. (4) Dr. Hudson, supposing y^t he should be joyn'd wth y^e Dr. in the Dedication (w^{ch} Dedication Dr. H. by himself made an offer of to y^e Dean of X^t Church, not doubting of Dr. Gregory's Concurrence wth him) when that was to be drawn up, he mentioning something about it to Dr. Gregory, 20 the s^d Dr. told him, y^t he had nothing to do wth that, and moreover added to w^t purpose should he have his Name to a Book of Mathematicks w^{ch} he did not pretend to: to w^{ch} Dr. H. replyed, He had as good reason to have his Name to a Book as Mathematical, as Dr. Gregory had to a Book quatenus Greek. Upon this, Dr. H. at y^e Request of Dr. Wallis and Dr. Mill was content to let him have the sole Honour of it, upon these two considerations, first y^t Dr. Gregory having Children might have all the Dean's Gratuity for y^e Dedication, w^{ch} prov'd to be twenty Guineas to y^e Dr^s son. Secondly that he might do S^r. Hen. Savile's Professor y^e utmost Honour, tho' he was sensible Dr. Gregory deserv'd none. The 30 Dedication of this Book was writ by one of y^e Students of Christ Church. The Preface w^{ch} is most of it but indifferent Stuff was first drawn up by Dr. Gregory himself, and afterwards mended (as to the gross faults of it) by some other Hand. W^t is said of Dr. Hudson was penn'd by Dr. Mill, who promis'd to do it when he prevail'd with Dr. H. to yield to Dr. Gregory. W^t relates to Euclid's Musica was drawn up by Dr. Wallis, and printed verbatim as y^e s^d Dr. Wallis had done it. 'Tis true Dr. Gregory has mention'd the Assistance of Dr. Wallis, but in the same place has not been so ingenuous (resolving to act y^e Scotch Man all along) as to acquaint his Reader y^t w^t follow'd was Dr. Wallis's own words, w^{ch} indeed should 40 have been distinguish'd by commas (as y^e Printers call y^m) at the side, as was but highly reasonable, seeing Dr. Wallis had y^e chief care of it, Dr. Gregory beeing at London wⁿ 'twas printed. Memorandum that when Dr. H. was so kind as to yield the whole Honour of y^e Dedication & consequently of y^e Edition to him, he told Dr. G. that he hop'd his contending for y^t point & carrying of it, would not be made use of as an Argument why Dr. H. should not have an equal share with him y^e s^d Dr. G. in w^t y^e Curators of the Press should allow for y^e Pains taken in the Edition of this work. Dr. G. then protested to Dr. H. y^t he never design'd any thing else but that they should be equal sharers. Yet after this (to shew yet 50 more fully how perfect a Scotch man he was) he made Interest to several of y^e Curators to have a great many more Copies allow'd him than Dr. H. w^{ch} by the under-hand dealing of Dr. Charlett (the known Patron of the Scotch Men) he at last effected, Dr. H. never troubling himself to represent w^t he had done to y^e Curators. This is every tittle true, & may be rely'd upon, it coming from Dr. H. himself. Here also it must be remembred that Dr. Hudson first put Mr. Milles upon St. Cyrill (whereof I have given an Acc^t in one of these Vols. already) procuring him Books collated wth MSS. from the Bp. of Norwich, &c. — I was told by Dr. Hudson, who had it from Mr. Halley, that Sr. Isaac Newton's Lectures, w^{ch} he read when Mathematick Professor at Cambridge, are kept in Trinity Coll. Library in Cambridge, and y^t some Scotch men, (who would make a great Figure in Mathematical Learning) got access to them, & transcrib'd abundance of things out of them, w^{ch} afterwards they publish'd as their own Inventions, getting Credit and Reputation in y^e World by stealing another man's Works, w^{thout} any manner of Acknowledgm^t. — In y^e first Edition of Mr. John Keil's Lectures, there were abundance of Faults as to y^e Mathematicks, w^{ch} the s^d John was friendly told of by Mr. Halley and others, w^{ch} he has since corrected in the 2^d Edition. It may here likewise be observ'd that Men well skill'd in Mathematicks scruple not to say that Dr. Gregory has stole most of his Astronomy from Isaac Newton, whom he has mention'd wth some little acknowledgm^t but not so often as he should have done: w^{ch} as 'tis said has put Sr. Isaac on a new Edition of his Principia &c. —

I was told that my L^d Haversham made y^e first Speech in y^e H. of L^{ds} for Bringing over y^e Princess Sophia & the Young Prince of Hanover, & y^t he was seconded by the Earl of Anglesey, to whom reply'd the L^{ds} Somers & Hallifax, who were answer'd by the Earls of Nottingham & Rochester. One of these Noble Lords said in his Speech that he had observ'd from our English Historians that when ever y^e next successor happen'd to be out of y^e Kingdom, at y^e Death of any King or Queen, they never came to y^e Crowne, and that in the time of either Rich. or Edw. II. a Famous Bp. of Sarum (w^{ch} was mention'd purposely to glance upon y^e present Bp. of Sarum) was us'd to maintain that involuntary oaths did not oblige, w^{ch} (sayd that noble L^d) is a Doctrine he had heard preach'd wthin those Walls. Next y^e Earl of Devon made a speech shewing the Great Charges it put y^e Kingdom to in maintaining the Port & Grandeur of y^e s^d Princess: To w^{ch} a certain L^d reply'd, That tho' a Young Woman was very Expensive to keep (as y^e Earl of Devon has found by Experience) yet a little matter would serve to keep an old one. —

40 In P. à Turre's Mon. Vel. Antij are divers things conc. Josephus, w^{ch} will be of use to him y^t shall put out a new Edition of that Author. This Author in pag. 134. of his Mon. has a laudable Character of Monifaucon and Mabillon; especially for their Travells in order to consult Greek MSS. &c. In pag. 136. He has an Excell^t Emendation of Eutropius; the want of w^{ch} made Lazius committ a great Blunder in lib. 5. de Rep. Rom. as is there discours'd of at large. — Commodianus the Poët, who flourished in the time of Constantine the Gr. was first publish'd by Rigaltius, an. 1650. See there pag. 162. In pag. 163. He tells us that Hieronimus Aleander's Philological Dissertations are in Bibliotheca Barberina. He has there publish'd some things from them concerning Mithra. In pag. 168. is a laudable Account of Dr. Hyde's Historia Religionis veterum Persarum &c. In pag. 222. He tells us that Hieronimus Aleander, the Younger, writ a short Dissertation upon the VIIIth of the Kalends of Jan. of the old Kalendar (or the 25th of December as we reckon) w^{ch} is now extant, amongst his Adversaria in Cardinal Barberine's Library, & publish'd by Turre in this Work pag. 223. but, he farther adds, that his intire Comment upon the old Kalendar is quite lost, & y^t to prevent the like Fate to his other Writings Justus Fontianinus design'd to publish them in his Scriptores Forojulenses. In pag. 243. is an Observation upon Dionys. Halicarnass. — Joan. Antonius Astorius writ an Elegant Dissertation upon y^e Image of Bronto, w^{ch} he afterwards publish'd. That Image, with other Aquileian Monuments, is now preserv'd at Venice. See there pag. 291. In pag. 296. he cites a Collection of Inscriptions made by Capodaleus. W^t are they, and who was this Capodaleus? In pag. 290. It seems this Capodaleus's Xtian Name was Joseph, and that he writ a Book in Italian call'd Udine Illustrata, w^{ch} is publish'd. Besides w^{ch} he likewise compos'd the s^d Collection of Inscriptions, which P. à Turre has acknowledg'd to have made use of, the original Copy sent him as he was writing these Monumenta. These Inscriptions relate to Aguileja. In pag. 331. He relates y^t y^e first who collected Inscriptions was Joannes Marcanova, w^{ch} was an. 1465. He 20 there quotes a Passage out of the Original at Venice. . . .

Nov. 22 (Th.). The Upper House of Convocation having sent down their Address (w^{ch} they design'd to present Her Majesty for Her Speech) to have their Concurrence, D^r. Freeman was so much taken with it, that he stood up and made a Speech, desiring that they would Address the Upper House for it, and he was seconded by D^r. Kennett; upon w^{ch} one of y^e others desired that D^r. Freeman and D^r. Kennett might be Address'd also for this their Hearty Zeal against y^e Church, w^{ch} they thought in no Danger, notwthstanding the Extraordinary Favours shew'd to all manner of Dissenters, & the great Discouragement of all Worthy Men who were real Friends of y^e Church, &c. — 30

D^r. Gardiner, Warden of All-Souls, being, it seems, the only Person of the Doctors, who voted in Oxon lately against M^r. Lloyd's Accumulating the Degrees of Bach. and D^r. of Divinity, D^r. Kennett sent him a Letter, expostulating the matter with him, and desiring his Reasons, being, as he said, continually ask'd about it, by Persons who were amaz'd at it, thinking a Doctor should have more sense and Discretion than a Young Master of Arts, especially too one y^t was Custos Archivorum & should understand the Customs & Privileges of the University better than others, & consequ^{tly} presently see y^t the Reason alledg'd relating to y^e Parliam^t did not concern the University. D^r. Gardiner 40 soon after writ an Answer, giving his Reasons at full, and granting him Liberty to print y^e Letter, if he thought it might prevent any farther Inquiry. — In the Ashmolean Museum is a Collection of Epitaphs in the County of Berks, made by M^r. Ashmole in the year 1666, & written in 3 fol. Moore* of that University, that Br. Barlow thought at first he might be Author of it; but he was afterward inform'd from Cambridge (by those who should know) that one Mr. Fowler (the same y^t is mention'd above) an Oxford man, was Author

Mr. Tilly's Sermon, preach'd at Cairfax 5th Nov. last, is newly publish'd, & there is prefix'd a Preface vindicating himself upon Account of the Aspersions cast on him, & defying all they can do to him, & submitting his former Discourse to their Wills, being resolv'd to stand firm to his Principles w^{ch} he thinks so usefull to y^e Church of England. — The Buckler of State & Justice—Lond. 1673. 8o. The Author of this Ingenious & Judicious Tract was the Baron of Isola. — 'The Confidentia in asserendo satis valida utitur, consequentijs in probando non item; adeo ut rudi popello aut Philosophorum plebi nonnihil forte suadere potest; sed doctis, qui non ex affectu sed judicio, non ex verborum turba fastuque, sed ex præmissis de conclusione judicant, satisfacere non potest. Qui serio leget (ni meus me fallit animus) juxta mecum sentiet.

It must be here noted that Mr. Milles (the same I mean that has his Name to St. Cyrill) soon after the last Act that was celebrated in Oxon in 1703 writt a Letter to Mrs. Brace-Girdle (one of the Actresses) giving ¹⁰ her great Encomiums (as having himself been often to see Plays Acted whilst they continued here) upon Account of her Excell^t Qualifications, & persuading her to give over this loose way of Living and betake her self to such a Kind of Life as was more innocent and would gain her more Credit. W^t Effects this Letter had I cannot tell; tho' I believe it did not answer his Design, it being certain she continu'd the same Course of Life afterwards.

¹Reverend Sir,

I have not had the Satisfaction of a line from you of a long time, nor has anything occur'd here worthy your notice, except you will please so to account of a late discovery of some Roman Coyns found at Clifton near Edlington 3 miles from Doncaster, the Roman Danum, where the Præfectus Equitum Crispinianorum resided. They were found by some Labourers so near the High-way that the Cart-Tracks had almost bared the Top of the urn. Upon further search they found another Ibica Nummaria both full of the Roman Copper Coyns, which were mostly of Gallienus, Victorinus, & of Tetricus & his Son, tho' there were some few also of Salonina, Posthumus & Quintilius. Some of them appear very fair now y^t they are cleansed from the Rust contracted by lying so many Ages in the Earth. These tho' they have not added one Emperor, yet have made considerable Addition to y^e Variety of Reverses in my Collection. So that I have now above 30 of Gallienus all different, one of his wth LIBERO Patri CONS. AVG. & Posthumus's COS. V. (w^{ch} my Edition 20 of Occo has not) are the most remarkable of any that have come to y^e sight of
S^r, Your most humble Serv^t,

Leedes, 19th Nov^r. 1705.

I have inclos'd one of them w^{ch} I beg your Acceptance of.

At the same time he writ a Letter to Mr. Cavendish Nevil A.M. & Fellow of University Coll. wth two more of these Coyns; the first is of Victorinus w^{ch} has on the Reverse VIRTVS AVG. The other Tetricus Cæs. w^{ch} has on the Reverse SPES AVG. We have three of Victorinus the very same wth this Mr. Thoresby has sent, w^{ch} are thus 30 describ'd IMP. C. VICTORINVS P. F. AVG. Caput Radiatum. R. VIRTVS AVG. Statua Militaris stans, dextra Hastam, sinistra Clypeum. The Tetricus is Tetricus Junior. We have in the Pub. Library Eleven w^{ch} are the very same wth y^t of Mr. Thoresby's w^{ch} he has sent to Mr. Nevil. The Description of w^{ch} follows, C. FIVESV. TETRICVS CAES. Caput radiatum. Reverse SPES AVGG. Dea spes. We have four in the Publick Library, wth LIBERO P. CONS. AVG. & the Best Edition of Occo has [sic] of them. We have likewise one of Posthumus, with cos. v. The Best Edition of Occo has y^t too. Nov. 25 (Sun.). In the Reign of King James, Dr. Plot upon y^e Decease of Dr. James Warden of All-Souls Col. made Application to the Earl of Peterborough & Sr. Edw. Hales, (who had then a great Influence upon y^e King) to be Warden of y^e said College; but Mr. Leopold (William) (afterw^{ds} Dr.) Finch got y^e start of him, & had y^e Place conferr'd upon him before Dr. Plot's Friends knew of his Intention to move for y^t Place. This said Finch who had so great obligations to King James was one of those Heads of Colleges in Oxon who sign'd an Association to stand by the Prince of Orange; & 'tis moreover credibly reported that he was one of y^e three or 4 Heads who intended if they could have prevail'd wth Colleges to deliver up all the College Plate to y^e said Prince, in order to be imploy'd against their undoubted L^d. and Sovereign King James, who had not at y^t time left England. Dr. Ironside happen'd then to be Vice-Chancellor of Oxford, who was a great stickler for this Prince purposely as 'twas generally believ'd that he might get a Wife & a B^rrick, w^{ch} he did not long after. This said Dr. before ever King William had any pretended Right to y^e Crowne from y^e Convention administred y^e Oath of Allegiance to King William in the Congre[g]ation House at Oxford: which particular I had from a worthy Person, who had it from the Mouth of Mr. Bingham of University, who was at y^t very time admitted to a Degree. The foresaid Warden stood in Competition wth y^e Learned Mr. Dodwell to be Cambden's Reader of History, & upon his Disappointment was so inrag'd that he turn'd Jonas Proast (a Worthy Learned Conscientious man) out from being Chaplain of All-Souls because he honestly voted for Mr. Dodwell. Upon w^{ch} Mr. Proast appeal'd to Dr. Tillotson, Archb^p. of Canterbury, & visitor of this Coll., who was very dilatory in doing him

Justice. When Dr. Levins President of St. John's & Greek Professor in this university died, Dr. Hudson had certainly succeeded him in y^e s^d Professorship if y^e Bp. of Sarum, Dr. Burnett, had not us'd this Argument for Dr. Humph. Hody to King William; That he had writt for y^e Government, & y^t y^e other Person (Dr. Hudson) was rather suspected to be no Friend to it. — In King William's time when y^e Disposal of Ecclesiastical Power was in y^e Hands of Commissioners, these said Commissioners were so far from Gratifying any but y^eir own Creatures, & Army Chaplains, & Persons, related to Officers in the Army, y^t 'twas next to an impossibility for any 10 man of worth to get any Thing. An Instance of this is the above mention'd Dr. Hudson who having many Promises from most of the Bishops in Commission was yet shamefully postpon'd by them: For when the Parsonage of Green-Norton, in Northamptonshire became void, the Dr. having very timely notice from a Friend of his in y^t Neighbourhood, went to London wth great Expedition and made his Application to y^e B^{ps}, several Days, before one Collonel Woods heard of it, who prevail'd with y^e Commissioners to confer it (to their Eternal Dishonour) upon a Brother of his, an ignorant, illiterate Fellow, who (as 'tis s^d) was a Broken Shop-keeper, & never saw an University. — Mr. Harrington of X^t Church (a 20 Barrister of Law) writ the second Preface (the first being done by the Author himself) to the first Volume of Athenæ Oxon. He also writ the Preface to the II^d Volume. — By y^e Death of y^e said Harrington Christ Church lost a 1000 lib^s. that he was intrusted to Receive from the Executors of Dr. Wood, Bp. of Lichfield, who left 2000 lib^s. to the Senior Students Table, and 2000 lib^s. to the Juniors. The Seniors got theirs & laid it out in Land, & now enjoy the Benefit of it. The Juniors intirely lost theirs, the Executors refusing to pay the last 1000 lib^s. unless they would make good that w^{ch} was lost by Mr. Harrington. — In y^e latter End of Bv. Fell's time there was of X^t Church one Mr. Bennett (Bro. to the Bookseller)
 30 who apply'd himself to the Study of Physick, & 'tis suppos'd he would have been a Man very Eminent in y^t Faculty, if he had enjoy'd a longer Life. This Person examin'd by Dr. Hudson for his Master of Arts Degree. — W^{ch} Dr. H. when he was Master of Arts was Prior-Opponent in y^e Divinity Schoole, Mr. Entwistle of Brasenose College being respondent The Question was, An Christus satisfecerit pro Peccatis mundi? Mr. H. after an Elegant opposition Speech oppos'd with so much Clearness & Subtility y^t he rais'd y^e Admiration of y^e Professor & the Auditors. — Mr. Beurdsall of Brasenose College a little before he died was married to one M^{rs}. Middleton; but never bedded her, as she 40 and her mother declar'd, he upon his Death own'd his marriage & left her w^t he had, w^{ch} was about y^e value of 2 or 300 li^{br}. — When the Lower House of Convocation were order'd by the B^{ps} to assent to the Address to her Majesty of their drawing up, or else give Reasons why they dissented from it. The Lower House instead of giving Reasons for their Dissent drew up Reasons why they should give none. — Dr. Wills of Trinity Coll. publish'd an Assize Sermon. He was look'd upon as one of y^e best Preachers in the University of his time. He married a Daughter of Sr. Will. Walker's, who being Mayor of Oxford was Knighted by King James at his first Accession to y^e Crown as is usual for the Mayors of 50 Oxon to be. He left behind him several Sermons in MS^t & divers other

Treatises, w^{ch} are now in the Hands of his Son now of Trinity Col. aforesaid.

Nov. 26 (Mon.). On Friday the Report being made to y^e H. of Commons from y^e Committee conc. the S^t. Albans Election, it was carried ag^t Gape in favour of S^t. Hen. Kulligrew by a great Majority. — The House of L^{ds} have agreed to Thank her Majesty for her Care of a Union wth Scotland, & confirming the Succession of the House of Hannover. They have order'd a Bill to be drawn up for Repealing all the Clauses pass'd the last Sessions relating to Scotland, except that for a Union. —

This same De Laune was made President of St. John's Col. after the Death of Dr. Will.  20 (the Q. & Dutchess of Marlborough being present) he told them that a certain L^d. told King James 1st that his Ear was besieg'd by the Duke of Bucks, And he thought he had as good reason to believe y^t the Queen's Ear was besieg'd: and he farther s^d he had y^e Person (meaning y^e Dutchess of Marlborough) in his Eye by whom y^e Queen's Ear was besieg'd. — The Display of Heraldry, w^{ch} goes under y^e Name of John Guillim (and whereof there have been very many Editions, wth Improve-

No sacrilege nor sinne to aliene or purchase y^e Lands of B^{ps}, or others whose Offices are abolished. Lond. 1659. 8^o. By C. B. i.e. 50 Cornelius Burges, D.D. This Cornelius Burges was a fierce Presbyterian, a great Stickler for the Parliament against y^e King & B^{rs}, Anno 1644. Afterwards he bought good Store of Church Lands, especially Lands belonging to y^e Church of Wells; where he had, & built (or rebuilt) the Dean of Welles his House, at y^e Expense of 1500 or 2000 lib. He was bid for his Purchase, not long before y^e King's Returne (w^{ch} was Anno 1660) about 20000 lib^r. but refused it; And y^e King unexpectedly (to him) returning in y^e said year 1660. & Bishops & Deans being restored, he lost all his purchased Church-Lands, & became so poor (ingens Justitiæ Divinæ documentum) that he had not Bread to eat; as appears by his own Letter to St. Rich. Browne, extant in Dr. Isaac Basire's Book call'd Sacriledge-arraign'd &c. Lond. 1668. pag. 22. of y^e Preface. — One Mr. Dale, belonging to y^e Herald's Office told Dr.

10 Hudson that the first Edition of Guillim's Heraldry is much y^e best, y^e rest having been almost spoyl'd by ignorant Persons taking care of it. — Dr. South told Dr. Hudson y^t he was resolv'd never to pocket a Farthing of y^e Income of y^e Parsonage of Islip, & y^t he had already new built & beautified y^e Chancel of y^e Church, built a noble Parsonage House wth out Houses & other Conveniences both for y^e Parson and y^e Tennant; and y^t besides he had all along put several Boys to schole & bound them out to Apprentiships, & has lately purchas'd some Land to be settled upon y^e Parish for ever for these Uses. And y^t moreover he intended to lay out w^t he had receiv'd from his Canonry of X^t Church

20 upon small vicarages, & as Dr. Hudson infer'd from something in his Discourse upon such Vicaridges as belong'd to X^t Church. — When K. James's Declaration was to be read in all Churches & Chapells Mr. Ob. Walker order'd y^e Bible Clerck of University Col. to give it to y^t Fellow of y^e College y^t should read Prayers that Morning. Upon this the Bible-Clerck went to most of y^e Fellows then in Town to acquaint them wth this, but none of them but Mr. Hudson would read Prayers, who ventur'd to read them wthout taking any Notice of y^e Declaration. w^{ch} Mr. Walker did not at all seem to resent, as People imagin'd y^t he would do. — A little after Mr. Hudson was chosen Fellow of University

30 College, Mr. Walker contriv'd the matter so y^t he and one Mr. Deane a Popish Fellow were to go to make an Election of a Scholar at Maidstone. In the Coach y^t carried y^m to London, it happened that all y^e Company were Papists but Mr. Hudson and Mr. Alderman Wright. So y^t Disputes arising Mr. Hudson was forc'd to maintain y^e Protestant Cause against them all, the Alderman (though there were Disputations all y^e way for two Dayes) saying not one word, but keeping silence as he us'd to do in y^e House of Commons, yet afterwards frequently expressing his good Opinion of y^e s^d Mr. Hudson for his Noble Defence. When they got to London Mr. Hudson was attack'd by one Mr. Nicholson

40 (formerly one of University Coll.) & reputed one of y^e Ablest Champions for y^e Roman Catholick Cause. When his Arguments would not do, the s^d Mr. Nicholson brought Mr. Hudson a Message the next day from St. Edw. Hales, L^d. Lieut. of y^e Tower that he was to dine wth his L^dship, and afterwards to be conducted to y^e King to Kiss his Hand, wth Assurance y^t y^e said Mr. Hudson should be preferr'd, if he would not act (i. e. neither preach nor talk) anything against y^e King's Religion, but be moderate as y^e Phrase was then. This Offer he refus'd, upon several Accounts, and, as he told Mr. Nicholson, particularly to avoid y^e Imputation of Popery y^t would be thrown upon him if it were observ'd

50 y^t he was introduc'd to y^e King. — 'Tis said that upon the Br. of Worcester's waiting upon y^e Dutchess of Marlborough, at his coming to London, she was pleas'd to ask him ab^t y^e news at Oxford & to declare her Resentment for the Members of y^t University's being so hot in relation to y^e present Administration of Affairs. The B^p. acknowledg'd y^t generally they were very faulty, but y^t there were some still left in y^t place who were men of Prudence, & spoke well of King William's Government, & instanc'd particularly in Mr. Evans's Sermon, w^{ch} he said was a very rational Discourse, & shew'd him to be a good principl'd man, & to have a great Esteem for his late Majesty, he speaking mightily in his Commendation, & magnifying the Exploits of y^e Duke of Marl- borough. w^{ch} so pleas'd her Grace, y^t she presently order'd a good Fat Doe to be sent to Mr. Evans wherewith he was to treat the Warden of Wadham Coll. & such other Persons as he should think fit y^t were of y^e same Kidney wth himself. w^{ch} 'tis reported he has done. — The Queen having recd per Express certain Information of y^e Surrender of Barcelona, she has been pleas'd to communicate y^e same to both Houses of Parliam^t, & to make a Speech to them (w^{ch} is in print) declaring y^t 'twill be expedient for prosecuting Affairs to y^e best Advantage to send speedily a supply to y^e Earl of Peterborough, & desiring y^t they would not fail in y^t point. For w^{ch} they have resolv'd upon an Address ²⁰ of thanks, certifying y^t they will Gratify her out of Hand. — Mr. Addison's Travells is a Book very trite, being made up of nothing but scraps of verses & things w^{ch} have been observ'd over & over, wthout any Additions of things not discover'd before; & even some of those w^{ch} he has inserted, y^t have been already taken notice of are ridiculous; tho' it must be acknowledg'd that the Book is written in a clean stile, & for y^t reason will please Novices, & superficial Readers.

THE DEDICATION.

Accept most noble Promo, don't refuse
This worthless Present of an Humble

Muse,

Who suppliant waits on you, & from her
Store

Gives you her hearty Choice, altho but poor.

The Poet's soil when wet with generous wine,

May yield rich Fruits & give you somew^t fine

Where small Beer & it's Sister Water flow,
What wonder is't if weeds will only grow?

Poor as th^e soil and heartless as y^e field,
Will be y^e barren product it does yield.

But where the Sun does quick'ning warmth dispense,

And gives new Life & vigorous Influence:
Where fatning Streams impregnate as they run,

Help'd by y^e livening Virtue of y^e Sun;
A l'lenteous Harvest there must doubtless bless

The Farmers labours with a full Increase.
Just so, did your bright Lamp supply the

When absent in our Heaven & display
His glorious Light, did jolly Bacchus reign

And vital Spirit with our Water joyn.
A nobler soul would repose y^e Age

And fill our Breasts with true poetick rage.
Now for excuse to these insipid Rhymes

Say 'ts not y^e Poets fault, but y^e dull times.

Help Cerevisia while I try to sing
The Subulonian Hero, wisest King

Of all those Antient Promo's of Renown,
That ever sway'd Oxonium's chearfull

Town,

Ere since the Royal Alfred made the Place

Sacred to 'th Muses and to every Grace.

Whose aid combining loudly shall proclaim,

His matchless worth, & propagate his Fame.

In lofty numbers shall his deeds be told,
Bright as his Spirit, as his Courage bold

Worthy a Prince of the Tonsorian Race.
The best that er'e with steel mow'd

human face,

From Fuzz and Bramble to the downy 20
beard

He whisk'd them off, all quickly disap-pear'd;

O'er all as nimbly glanc'd the shining blade,

As shadows on y^e water's surface plaid:
To finish all he'd make his Fingers crack,

And grace y^e matter with a double Smack.

Stueight as an arrow was this proper wight,

His justaucorps brac't to his body tight. 30
His Shoulders square, then from his slender waist

The Skirts hung dangling as he walkt in hast.

Fix't on their Pedestals of polisht jet,
Two Taper Columns bore his body's weight.

His trowzes w^{ch} with loops emboss'd he tyes,

Make Capitals of y^e Ionick size. 40
He spreads his Arms which with a seeming grace

Draw round, and wth his periods hold an equal pace.

But if o'er all a pendant Robe he wore,
It made another figure than before.

From his small neck y^e wid'ning space
encreast,

As by a sugar loaf is well express'd. 50
Or as you see some lofty Pyramid,

Grac't on it's Top with a Colossus Head;

¹ These verses were made principally upon occasion of Mr. Prickett's Journey wth Dr. Hudson & Mr. Elstob to Cambridge, where it seems they were very merry, & Prickett was so comical as to cut a poor fellow's tongue on purpose to make him sp[ea]k French &c., w^{ch} caus'd abundance of Mirth.

Such was his Form, & from his Sparkling Eyes
Th' enlivening Beams like darted lightning flies.

The Radiant Glory of his Silver Hair
Rivals y^e Sun, & Phebe's not so fair
As awfull Promo seated on his Throne,
Arm'd with his Pen, & ready to put on.
When looking down he eyes y^e greasy

10 Rout,
Of gaping thrums, stand listning round about.

Fixt, as to chains, his powerfull Eloquence,
Holds them so fast, they dare not stir from thence.

Such plenteous Streams pour from his liquid voice,
He drowns the thirsty Cellar with the Noise.

20 Each empty Hogshead catches at y^e Sound,
And Thrumkins volder Noddle eccho's
y^e Rebound.

Should I his various Talents here rehearse,

It were a Task too tedious for verse,
Yet that some nobler Instances be told,
A matter worthy of our Ait we hold.

First hear him exercise that warlike Note,
30 When rattling Gutturals slake his Artfull throat,

Then as 'twere drumming with a slower Tone,

Each lowing Hogshead murmurs back a Groan.

But if more sprightly Accents urge to war,
Hark y^e shrill Trumpet clanging thro'
y^e Air.

Mais dites moi Monsieur, commong le
40 Noble Twang

Peut allumer la guerre, ou devant, ou
dereire le Twang, noble Twang

Such is y^e Language of y^e Gallick Court,
To w^h all Europe's Princes do resort,
Taught there to ring the modish clang of France,

Bidde their Tongues, & teach them how to prance

Maigre chagrine, full stretcht wth such bizarre

50 The Palate struck, does thro' his Nostrils jarr.

Here lay the Subulonians chiefest Art,
See him, admire him, & you have his Heart.

Then shall you hear how chuckling throats have squall'd,

With gripes & pinching rendred hoarse
& gall'd,

60 Of noses red, & swell'd wth hoisting round,
To give advantage to y^e Screaming sound.

But that for w^h he's most of all rever'd,
It's History is worthy to be heard.

At that glad season when the joyfull year

In all it's gayest Beauty did appear,
When ev'ry object lookt benign & kind,
And banish't cares & sorrows from y^e mind;

A time thus fit for Mirth, & made for joy,

Did Granta's Sons thus solemnly employ.
Proclaim'd a Feast, & summon'd from afar,

The Friends thought worthy in her joy to shate.

To see the Triumphs of contending wit,
And raise th' Applauses of y^e clam'rous Pit.

Of all the pressing throng, to this delight
Oxonia justly first did claim her right.

Nor was there any of her sons whose Name,

Or voice could ever equal Promo's Fame.
Much less could Rival Granta shew a son,
Of Promo race, by him not far outdone.

They all surpriz'd & pleas'd, around him
sate

And heard him story's of his skill repeat;
How Throats well manag'd by his learned
skill,

Untun'd & stubborn once, were brought to Tiill.

And how some fetter'd Tongues that once were mute

By him set loose could nimbly dispute.
Pleas'd with his Art, at y^e Relation fir'd

To see some operation most desir'd.
And 'twas not hard this Favour to intreat

So truly generous was his Soul, & great.
Obliging was his Life, & to do good

He made his choice whatever Art withstood.

Beside the Time & Place did both per-swade,

'Twas fit some choice Experiment were made

Behind y^e numerous croud of Standeis by,
One undiscern'd to most y^e company,

Who shoulder'd & wedg'd in on every side,

And thro' a peep-Hole what had pass'd espy'd.

Rais'd by this talk did breaking thro'
advance,

Imploring to be taught y^e Twang of France.

In suppliant posture & an earnest Tone, Beg'd that on him this Practise might be shown.

Were he but taught, & his glew'd tongue set loose,

No pain in y^e Experiment he'd refuse.

Then Promo smil'd, & reaching him his Hand,
Said, courage Friend I'll answer your demand,
I'll make you Master of y^e Gallick Twang, Bizarre commang bizarre, bizarre com-mang.

And strait, he fixt him in an elbow chair
Requiring help of all that round him were,
Some legs, some Arms, & some to hold his Head

For fear of starting Then he flourished
By way of Prelude, in his hand did fly
The wavering Fillet of a purple dye
To bind the Neck & fill the panting vein, Till it the Struggling Bloud could scarce contain.

But first he gagg'd him to y^e fullest stretch,

That he the patient's Tongue might better reach

Of clay bak't white, he made his Instrument

In form of Cilinder for this Intent.

Some Stoppers call them, some the very same,

Broken Tobacco-pipes, & by another
Name.

Things thus prepar'd, he took his Silver
Groat,

Thin as a wafer, or a thread-bare Coat.
Which fairly brandishing, in his Right
Hand,

(The other did the Patient's Tongue command)

He aim'd the edge aright, & at one push,
The striving goar, from out the wound did gush.

Then he ungagg'd him, & fort[h]with around

A Peel of Acclamations did resound.

The Groaning Patient's carry'd off y^e
Stage

And Promo own'd the wonder of y^e Age.
But let us once more see him on his Throne,

Arm'd with his Pen, & ready to put on,

Sometimes he makes a whistling in y^e
Air,

Like chirping Birds, but no Bird do's appear.

The listning Thrumms look staring upon high

And think y^e voice they hear is in y^e Sky.
Till sweep, his circumbendibus comes

And lays poor thrumkin sprawling on the ground.

Stun'd and amaz'd the wondring rable

And all their Passions work at his Command.

Joy, Hope, & Fear, are lodg'd in each man's Face,

In different Postures with a strange Grimace.

More various windings, nor more different ways,

The stragling water with his cost conveys Thro' subterraneous Tracts, did never know,

Than those by which he turns their Passions, now

Oh might I but, at his Lamps purer light,
Have catch't the flame, by which I this indite.

What glittering lines had shone in ev'ry page

To grace the subject, that do's them in-gage.

But now great Promo, let our want of
skill

At least be pardon'd, for our better will.

FINIS.

Ex Epistola VII. Gudij ad Ma. Heinsium, pag. 9. writ from Florence. . .

In pag. 51. In an Epistle of Grævius's to Gudius he makes mention of Perizonius's having notes to Valerius Maximus, & a large work preparing de Romanorum nominibus. — In a Letter to Dr. Hudson from Dr. J. Woodward he tells him y^t he has read Monfaucon's Diarium Italicum & Fabricius's Bibliotheca Græca wth abundance of Satisfaction, that my L^d. Pembroke has y^e Columna Constantini, w^{ch} he says is well graved, but y^e 50 work of y^t Pillar falls vastly short of y^t on y^e Columna Trajana, & on y^t of Antoninus at Rome. — They have lately translated & printed M. Ides's Journal of his Journey from Mosco to Perkin in an Embassy from y^e Czar to y^e King of China. His Secretary Mr. Brand had formerly set forth some Acct of it, w^{ch} also was printed here; but y^t was much inferior to this. He says also, that he's just entering upon the Perusal of Mr. Addison's Voyage of Italy, w^{ch} is at last publish'd. — Since the Dutch have open'd a Trade wth France we have had 2 Vols. of y^e Hist. de l'Acad. des Sciences for y^e years 1701 & 1702, Mr. Huet's Antiquités de Caen 8^o & M. Pezron's Antiq. de la Langue & de la Nation Celte 8^o. The last of w^{ch} Dr. Woodward says is but a very mean Performance.

— Some men who pretend to know y^e whole mystery of Chivers's Recantation, in relation to Dr. Burnett Bp. of Sarum, say that he did it for fear of a Pack Jury, w^{ch} no honest man in this Age can be secure from : for 'tis very probable that y^e Bishop of Sarum in his younger years (the Fact mention'd by Chivers being done before he was Bp.) being a brawny Lecherous Scotchman, might have occasion for such an infamous Place of 10 Pleasure : it being notorious that after threescore he married a barren widow, & impregnated her with two children at once.

These following Books to be got for the Publick Library. [pp. 362-379.] . . .

VOL. VI.

Dec. 1 (Sat.). Anton. à Wood was prosecuted by the Earl of Clarendon in y^e Vice-Chancellor's court, for w^t he had said of Edw. Hyde Earl of Clarendon his Father in y^e Athenæ Oxonienses; and when Sentence came to be pass'd his Book was order'd to be burnt & he himself to be fin'd 40 lib^s, w^{ch} sum Poor Anton. was forc'd to pay to y^e Vice-Chancellor, who laid out y^e Money upon three Statues w^{ch} are plac'd in the Niches of y^e Gate of y^e Physick Garden. After this Mr. Wood told several 20 Persons particularly Dr. Hudson that if he had Liberty he could justify every particular y^t he had writ about y^e Earl of Clarendon from Authentick Papers, publish'd by Authority. — Dr. Wallis when he was fourscore years of Age or near it could, purely by y^e Help of his Memory, multiply 20 numbers by 20, & then extract y^e Cube Root; w^{ch} as well as his Art of Decyphering is an Instance of his Extraordinary Parts. — In the Acta Lips. for the Month of July 1696 is a large Account of some objections made by Mr. Grabe ag^t y^e Lutheran Religion, & of an Answer made to y^e same by Spener. Mr. Grabe is represented there as being much inclin'd to Popery. In pag. 317 of the same Acts in An. cod. is 30 an Acc^t of an Answer made to Mr. Grabe's Doubts by Bernhard Von Sanden. — Some of the Musical Authors, publish'd by Meibomius, were transcrib'd out of y^e publick Library at Oxoñ, & compar'd with other Copies by Dr. Langbain of Queen's College, for y^e use of Meibomius, who procur'd this of Mr. Selden. Vide Gudij Ep. p. 56. — Hen. Oldenburg, in an Epistle to Georg. Morhofius (vide Gud. Ep. p. 74.) told him that then, viz. 1673, they were preparing for y^e Press at London Photius's Lexicon & upon y^t Acc^t he desired Morhofius to transmit to them (for w^{ch} he would give security) a very fair Copy in the Hands of Gudius. Gudius writ learned notes upon the Geoponicks. Quære whether ever

Dec. 1. Dr. T. Smith to H. The Votive Shield of Scipio Africanus. Kennett and his design of publishing epitaphs. Sir W. Dugdale, before the Civil War, had carefully surveyed St. Paul's and other Churches : 'w^{ch} worke of his he would mention to mee with great complaisance and joy, and besse God for his conduct and providence in it.' There are abundant materials for several new volumes of the Monasticon; see the writer's Synoptical History of the

— The House of L^{ds} have pass'd y^e Bill relating to y^e Repealing all the Clauses, but y^t conc. y^e Union, pass'd y^e last Sessions ab^t Scolland. They have gone thro' y^t for settling the Protestant Religion & the Succession. — Pliny's Ep. 8. l. iv. illustrated in Falconerius's Notes to the Inscriptiones Athlet. p. 36. . . . — M^r. Smurke, or the Divine in mode, being certain Annotations, upon y^e Animadversions of y^e Naked Truth. 1676. E. Hickeringall said to be y^e Author. — Sebastiani Faschij de Nummo Pylæmenis Euergetæ Regis Paphlagoniæ Epistola. Bas. 1680. 4^o. This will be of great use in another Edition of Justin's Epitome of Trogus. — Truth will out &c. by E. W. (i. e. Eduw. Worsley y^e Soc. Jesu.) 10 1665. 4^o. — D^r. Hudson tells me y^t y^e last time he saw M^r. Ab. Seller, w^{ch} was not long before his Death, and after, he (M^r. Seller) told him, that he had furnish'd D^r. Cave with Abundance of Materials for his Hist. Literaria, and complain'd y^t y^e D^r. had rarely acknowledg'd what he receiv'd from him. — D^r. Cave, in y^e Preface to his II^d vol. of Hist. Literaria gives a great Commendation of Rich. Bury Bp. of Durham, and then adds to this Effect, utinam opulenta ista sedes semper haberet talem Episcopum: w^{ch} no doubt is a just Reflection upon y^e prest^t Bp. of *Durham*¹ to whom y^e said D^r. Cave had Dedicated some of his Works, w^{ch} y^t Bp. had not acknowledg'd as he was oblig'd in Hon^r to have 20 done.

Books to be got into y^e Pub. Library. [9-14; 15-18.] . . .

In Lipsick Acts for y^e Year 1699, Mens. Mart. p. 114. in the Acc^t of the Oxford Edition of Vellejus Paterculus is a gross Blunder, D^r. Charlett being there made to be y^e Editor of that Book (perhaps because himself, being very forward always to boast of more than is his due, had so reported to young Menckemus when he was here in Oxford) whereas 'tis well known y^t D^r. Hudson was the Publisher of it. . . .

Dec. 2 (Sun.). In y^e Philosoph. Transactions, num. 145. for y^e Month of March 168 $\frac{3}{4}$ is D^r. Lister's Relation of a Roman Monum^t found in 30 y^e Bp^rrick of Durham, & of some Roman Antiquities at York. In the same Transactions for y^e month of Dec. 1685, Numb. 178, D^r. William Nicolson (Bp. of Carlisle) hath two Letters conc. two Runic Inscriptions at Beaucastile, and Bridekirk. — Ludolf in his Comment. upon his Hist. of Æthiopia Pr. p. 39. has a Remark about Livy, whether it be now intire or no? — In y^e Master of University's Copy of Flor. Wig. is at y^e Beginning a Reference to a Book in the Pub. Libr. containing the Fasti Consulares. It stood according to y^e old Placing U. 3. 7. Jur. I believe 'tis Marianus Scotus. 'Tis intimated so also at y^e Beginning of y^e Book. D^r. Langbain compar'd all Marianus Scotus wth Florence, & concludes 40 y^t Florence has little of his own, transcribing all from Marianus. See Cottonian Library, p. xxxviii. M^r. Ashmole a very exact and careful antiquary. Are there any familiar letters of Henry VIII and his son and daughters in Bodley? Asks for particulars of Ep. Ded. and Preface to Dee's Propædeumata Aphorismatica. Dodwell to H. Thanks for transcript of Vettius Valens. Must be wary in his title. Explains his views with regard to Lay Deprivation, communion with usurping Bishops, &c.

p. 393. He has in some places compar'd Florence wth y^e Saxon Chron. In p. 449 he seems to have look'd into Domesday Book from a Note in Marg. He has compar'd a MS^t in Corpus Xth Col. See pag. 492. There is a Marginal Note from a MS^t y^t Asser translated Boethius & not King Alfred, he doing it at y^e Command of y^e King. — The Master has likewise a large folio Book in MS^t containing a great many things relating to y^e University of Oxon & some relating to Cambridge, with other Things concerning some other Places, w^{ch} will be of good use to one that gives an Acc^t of this university &c.

- 10 Dec. 3 (Mon.). M^r. Somerville (Commoner of Edm. Hall) told me, last night, that amongst y^e Ruins of Warwick, caus'd by y^e Fire, there were lately found, two Roman Urns, full of Brass Roman Coyns, w^{ch} are now in the Hands of M^r. Smith at or near Warwick, an Eminent Antiquary as he said. One of these Coyns he said was of Julius Caesar. I ask'd him w^t size it was, supposing that if it had been of y^e lesser size it might not be so antient. He reply'd ab^t as big as a Half-crown, & y^t there were others of y^e same Bigness. If they could be seen they might probably give us some light in the Antiquities of Warwick, w^{ch} was certainly a Roman Garrison. — This Gentleman likewise told me that 20 at Warwick amongst other Tombs was taken up one, w^{ch} being open'd (some persons having a great desire it should upon account of it's belonging to a considerable Noble man) there appear'd an Intire Man; but when 'twas toucht it fell all in pieces but y^e Skull. He died, as was gather'd from y^e Inscription, in y^e Reign of Q. Eliz. —

Out of the Master¹ of University College's Copy of Athen. Oxon. in a spare Leaf at y^e End:

Memorandum that M^r. Antony A Wood told M^r. Martin several times before his Sickness, that he intended to receive the Sacram^t at his Hands in the Church of Witham the following Christmass.

- 30 That during his sickness he was almost constantly attended by M^r. Martin, M^r. Biss &c., who can certifie y^t he always desired the Ch. of England Prayers, which he had constantly read to him twice a day for y^e last week of his sickness; that he desired the Sacrament to be given him by M^r. Martin; that He himself particularly ordered that it should be inserted in his Will w^{ch} was made 3 or 4 days before his Death; that he died in the Communion of y^e Church of England as by Law Established: that there was no Papist or reputed Papist that visited him during his last Sickness.

- 40 A Noble L^d. (L^d. Rochester) moved on thursday last for y^e Limiting the L^{ds} Justices in y^e Act of Succession from consenting to any Act in prejudice of y^t of uniformity declaring y^t unless this was done tho he would not say y^e Ch. of England was in danger during her Majestie's Life, he could not help thinking that it w^{ld} be so upon her demise. This was spoken wth such a peculiar Zeal & Emphasis, y^t it had a notable Effect on y^e House who presently ordered the Judges to attend the next day wth y^e Advice how to provide ag^t any Hazard of this Kind. —

M^r. Wesley has printed a new Book intitl'd The History of y^e Old & New-Testam^t in verse, in 3 vols., dedicated to y^e Queen. — The last day of y^e against y^e Publick writers & Printers, & the oldest of the Tribe (Mr. Dyer) was fin'd by y^e Queen's Bench upon an obsolete Information of 6 years standing. — De Epist. 205 Basilij ad Julianum notae quaedam MSS. admodum Rev. Tho. Barlow Episc. Lincoln., ut occurrunt ad Pag. 225. Exemplaris Basilij in Bibl. Bod. Edit. Par. 1638. [26-36.] . . . — Happening to see Mr. Kent to Night, as he came thro' Oxon. in a journey to Warwick, he told me y^t the Lady Franklin to whom he is Chaplain has a Daughter who has a Noble Collection (abt 300 in number) of Roman Coyns; ¹ but y^t she dispos'd to give them to Trinity College in Cambridge, of w^{ch} House she had some time since a Brother a member, & y^t ¹⁰ she has no inclination at present, chiefly for y^t reason, to give them to our Publick Library: but neverthesse hopes still to prevail wth her, at least to give us such as we want, provided we will part wth duplicates for y^m. He likewise told me y^t she has y^e whole 26th Chapter of Matthew cut in Greek Letters in paper by a curious Lady, very artificially, of w^{ch} nature we have nothing in the Publick Library.
50 Term a cloud of Informations was brought in by y^e Attorney General

Dec. 4 (Tu.). Being at Dinner yesterday with Dr. Charlett, he was pleas'd to tell me y^t upon Mr. Ant. à Wood's falling ill, he went to him (having more interest wth him yⁿ any other Person in Oxon) & told him y^t 'twas the Opinion of Physitians and others y^t his Disease (being a ²⁰ Stoppage of Urine) was very dangerous, & therefore desir'd him to prepare himself for Death by Prayers, and putting his Papers (of w^{ch} he had a great number) into good order: This had so good Effect upon him, y^t he presently told the Doctor he would take his Advise, & desir'd him to let no other Person read Prayers or administer y^e Sacrament to him but Mr. Martin, who promis'd he would not. After this he ask'd the Doctor whom he thought the fittest person to leave certain Papers with, & to put the rest in order to be dispos'd of as he should give order. He told him Mr. Tanner. Accordingly Mr. Martin came constantly to Mr. Wood & read Prayers to him, & Mr. Tanner sorted all y^e Papers, some ³⁰ of w^{ch} Mr. Wood laid by in order to be burnt when himself should give a sign to Mr. Tanner by stretching out his Hand. When he found himself ready to leave the world, he gave this sign, & Mr. Tanner burnt those Papers w^{ch} were put by for y^t intent. The rest Mr. Wood left to y^e Ashmolean Museum & the Public Library, besides divers to Mr. Tanner, upon condition he would be honest, & take care (as indeed Mr. Tanner promis'd & so did Dr. Charlett too should be faithfully perform'd) to digest & make them publick. The Dr. farther told me y^t Mr. Wood died wth a great deal of Patience & Submission, much like a Christian & Philosopher. — . . . Goltzius had a Design of engraving all the Coyns of ⁴⁰ the Roman Emperors, as appears from his MSS. now in the King of France's Library. See there pag. 3. — . . . To day at 10 a Clock was a Convocation, and a Letter being read from y^e Chancellor on behalf of Sam. Hill Archdeacon of Wells, desiring y^t wheras he had taken his Bachelor of Arts Degree above 30 years since, & was sufficiently known for his Learning & Zeal to the church, he might be admitted to the Degree of Master of Arts, wthout performing any Exercise or keeping Terms, paying only the usual Fees: w^{ch} was granted, nemine contradicente.

¹ These Coyns I have had since a view of, being put into my Hands by Mr. John Thompson, Fellow of Queen's Coll who succeeded Mr. Kent as Chaplain to the Lady. He committed them to me on purpose that I might describe them; w^{ch} accordingly I did. He promised to get me a gratuity from the Lady. But he never did it. The Coyns are of no great worth, being very much defaced

[Note on Livy XXXVIII. ad fin., from Aul. Gellius cum Notis var.]. . .

- On Sunday last about eleven Clock in y^e Evening died Sir William Blackett by whose death an Estate of ten thousand lib^s. per An. is come to his Son, a Gentleman-Commoner of University College, whose Tutor is Mr. Clavering, who lately publish'd a piece of Maimonides, he being well skill'd in Hebrew, and had some considerable Hand too in
- 10 the New Hebrew Grammar publish'd by Rabbi Levi: but how it came to pass that Dr. Beveridge Bp. of St. Asaph would not accept of a Dedication of Maimonides propos'd to him I cannot imagine unless it be because Mr. Clavering is of the Trimming Principles, or because the thing was offer'd him by Dr. Mill, whose Sincerity he had good reason to doubt from his being ready to side with any party y^t he sees uppermost. Mr. Blackett has a Subtutor namely Mr. Burman a Master of Arts of y^e same College, who set out y^e late Edition of Dr. Plot, & who has y^e Character of an Honest Man. — . . . Mr. Elstob who has printed some Sermons, & done some other little Jobs in Learning (vide Dr. Hicks Thesaur.
- 20 Ascham's Ep., St. John Cheek's Life by Strype in w^{ch} last he has made a very scurvy and undeserv'd Reflection upon Mr. Obadiah Walker) when he was of Queen's College appear'd a Candidate for a Fellowship of All Souls passing for a South Country Man, but missing this became a Northern man, & was upon that elected one of Skirlaw's Fellows of University College. The same Trick was plaid by one Dr. Stapleton, who had a Yorkshire Scholarship in University Col. & afterwards a Fellowship of All Souls as born in y^e Province of Canterbury. Likewise one Mr. Rob. Grey, first a Commoner of Queen's Col. and afterwards Fellow of All Souls, his Parents and Friends living all in New-Castle upon Time,
- 30 upon pretence y^t he was accidentally dropt in London, obtain'd a Place in Chichley's Foundation. — Mr. Bingham of University Coll. reading Dr. Sherlock's Books imbib'd his false Notions about y^e Trinity, & preach't some of y^m in a Sermon before the University at St. Peter's in the East on St. Simon and Jude, in y^e year 1695; upon w^{ch} Mr. Beauchamp of Trinity College, commonly call'd y^e Heretick-Hunter, complain'd to y^e Vice-Chancellor of them who call'd a Meeting of the Heads of Houses &c. in w^{ch} Assembly Mr. Bingham's Sermon was censur'd. After this it being fear'd y^t unless he publicly recanted his Doctrines he should be expell'd, y^e Master & Fellows of University College suffer'd
- 40 him to enjoy a Year of Grace (upon his Promotion at y^t time to a Living) wthout having a Name in the Buttery Book. The Master of University College can tell more about this Gentleman. — On the 2^d Instant Sr. Cloudsly Shovel had Audience of her Majesty & y^e next day was in y^e House of Commons. The Discourse still continues y^t he will be made a Peer of this Realm. — Mr. Jones who is lately come in Fellow of All Souls had vast Interest, divers of the chief Nobility appearing in his Behalf as y^e Duke of Ormond, Earl of Rochester, L^d. Digby, Duke of Beaufort, &c. besides all the Heads of Houses in Oxford, that are firm to y^e Church besides a vast Number of others. His Father has a good
- 50 Estate as I am inform'd, & is an ingenious & good Man, & not proud as

I was once told. — At the end of the first Edition of Livy at Rome in 1470 are these verses: Proderat haud multum . . . lectitet ipsa diu. [52-54.]

Dec. 5 (Wed.). . . . We hear to day y^t Mr. Hen. Bird, M.A. & fellow of Queen's Coll. is dead in y^e North, whither he retr'd for his Health's sake, he being in a Deep Consumption w^{ch} he got (notwthstanding his being of a strong body and hardly 30 Years of Age) by continual Bibbing. — . . . Mr. J. Wasse Fellow of Queen's Coll. in Cambridge I am told by one who corresponds with him has laid by (at least for y^e Present) his design'd Ed. of Marianus Capella de Nuptiis Phil. because one in Holland is upon y^e same work. He drives at a great many things, & to day his Friend was in the Publick Library on purpose to consult a passage in the MS^t Copy of Servius's Com. on Virgil for his use; whence I suppose he may have some design of publishing anew this Author.

Dec. 6 (Th.). Last thursday (Nov. 29) came on an Election of Fellows into Merton College. There were seven elected y^t were members of the College, & one y^t was of Pembroke, whose Name is Wintley. They stile it y^e Golden Election because they are all Excell^t Scholars, especially three or four of them are said to be as good as any in Oxford of their standing.—Wintley's Father died just before the Election, & within a day or two after he had news of his Mother's lying upon her Death-Bed. One of the Candidates was Mr. Tanner a Bachelor of Arts of Queen's, Brother to Mr. Tho: Tanner, Chancellor of Norwich. I am told he appear'd very well as to Scholarship, & y^t he took his being put by very cheerfully, & paid his Respects afterwards to the Fellows, whereas y^e rest, who mist coming in, sneak'd away & seemed to resent it. — Last Week Dr. Aglionby her Majesty's late Envoy to y^e Protestant Cantons departed this Life. — . . . Mr. Browne Willis is elected Parliam^t Man for Buckingham. He is an Honest Gentleman, & is well known for his Diligent Search into our English Antiquities, in w^{ch} (having a very good Estate) he may do very considerable Matters, if he think fit to be generous. . . .

Dec. 3. Wheras I William Lenthall of Lincoln's Inn, Gent.^t have writ and published a Poem call'd, A Trip to Liverpool, where there are scandalous Reflections on Mr. Manley and Mr. Walker; I do hereby own them to be false and groundless, and humbly beg their Pardon; and do consent that this shall be published in what manner they shall think fit. Witness my hand this 30th day of November, 1705.

In the Copy of this Book in the Bodlejan Library, is a MS^t Letter added, written by the Bp. of Condom, in answer to the Author's Arguments, w^{ch} here follows.

In Castro R^o. Upsalium die 26 Febr. an. 87.

Ad casum quem proponit V. Clarissimus, facilis & plana responsio est, hac scilicet fixa Regula: lucrum ex mutuo, quod est lucrum ex usura per sese est iniquum, & obligat ad restitutionem neque ea obligatio tolli potest per eas rationes quas affert V. C. 1^a. quod fœnus exercuit cum fœneribus: sed nulla est hæc ratio, cum nec liceat inique agere cum iniquis. nec juvat quæ 2^a. ratio est; quod hi quibus suam pecuniam mutuatus est ea locupletati sunt: sive enim illa divitiarum accessio æqua sive iniqua fuerit, non potuit is qui pecuniam mutuo dedit in hujus lucri partem venire, nisi ex contractu legitimæ societatis, quæ hic locus non habuit. 3^a. ratio, metus infamiæ, sed 1^m. res potest agi clanculum, tum vero si publice agatur, honoris magis erit quam dedecoris.

Quod autem vir Clariss. existimat, posse vel tolli vel minui restituendi fœnoris necessitatem propter gravia mala damnaque, quæ causa religionis pertulit, nulla est hæc ratio: cum suæ patientiæ mercedes expectare debeat non ab hominibus per usuram & lucrum injustum sed à Dei misericordia cumulatissime remunerante fidem ejus atque pietatem.

Quod V. C. pauperibus quasi aliud agens restitutionem fecit, optimum & ad minuendam restitutionem imputandum adversus eos quidem quibus satisfacit: sed alij quoque licet ditioribus satisfacere oportet.

Neque juvat quod V. C. eo animo fuerit, ut pecuniam quidem acciperet sponte oblatam, lege autem agere nollet. Neque enim refert quo ipse animo fuerit, cum ita videatur egisse cum cæteris, ut ipsi existimarent se ad præstandam usuram ex pacto teneri. Quod V. C. ait licuisse illi sortem capitalem aliter expendendo ad suum emolumentum legitime convertere: nihil est, nisi forte eo loco res fuerint ut emolumentum illud verum reale & præsens fuerit: tunc enim locus datur remunerando lucro cessanti, ut ajunt; sed spes lucri inanes ac vagas, non licet certa ac presente pecunia repensare.

Hæc sunt V. C. quæ pridem respondere debuissim ad doctissimam tuam consultationem nisi me aliæ curæ prohibuissent. more posco veniam tibi quæ V. rel^{me} in X^o sum addictiss.

A Sober Answer to y^e Friendly Debate betw. a Conformist & a Non-conformist: By Philagathus (i.e. Dr. Roll) Lond. 1669 8^o. — . . . The English Translation of Herodian, Printed at London, 1698, 8^o., & s^d in the Title page to have been done by a Gentleman of Oxford, I am inform'd was made by Mr. ¹Dennison, M.A. & Fellow of University Coll. & one of y^e Pro-Proctors for this year; the same Dennison I mean who thro' the means of Hum. Wanley & y^e indirect, malicious, & foul Practises of some other Informers, (amongst whom was John Prickett the Butler) came in to the room of Mr. Usher, who had been duly Elected Fellow of y^e College; but the Master not having any kindness for him (notwthstanding his being a very Excellent Scholar & a man of Parts) by the help of the foresaid Sycophants got him expell'd the University, upon an old Story of above two years standing, to y^e Great amazement of all truely Honest Men in the University & the no small Disgrace of y^e Master himself. But y^e Case being in print by Mr. Usher, it must be consulted. — The Old Religion demonstrated in its Principles &c. Lond. 1684. 8^o. The Author Dr. Goodman. — . . . Vol. 1. p. 35.) that John More Son of Sir Tho. More was little better yⁿ an Ideot, the contrary to this may be evinc'd from Grynæus's Dedications præfix'd to his Editions of Plato & Proclus's comments upon Plato, printed at Basil in the year 1534. — Dr. Wells has just put into the 10 Press at Oxford a Letter to a Dissenting Parishioner, w^{ch} is to be in 3 Sheets in 8°. — Mr. Sherlock Son to Dr. Sherlock is enter'd upon the Mastership of the Temple, he having (as I have hinted before) rec^d a Grant of it from the Queen. — Dr. Bailey President of Magd. Col. was one of y^e King's Chaplains at y^e Revolution, & supply'd his turn and preach'd before King William once: but not caring to take y^e Oaths he never appear'd at Court any more. — When the Election for a Member to serve for the Corporation of Buckingham came on, my L^d. He y^e said Capt. Tyrrell (when they came to Poll) had six votes & Mr. Willis six; upon w^{ch} the Mob who were concern'd to have a Representative for y^e Town made diligent Enquiry after y^e 13th Person, who was missing, and at length found y^t he was in Prison. After this he was brought out, & conducted to y^e Market Place where they took y^e votes, & being askt who he was for, resolutely declar'd he was for Mr. Willis. The said Mr. Willis among other Good things is a man of Great Zeal for y^e Church w^{ch} he has eminently shewn by laying out a considerable sum of Money in Beautifying and adorning the Church where he 30 lives. — This Afternoon I saw Mr. Pawle, Fellow of Jesus Col. in Cambridge, at y^e Publick Library, who told me y^t Dr. Bentley had suspended the Publication of Horace, as I had also been inform'd before, & y^t he had most egregiously abus'd Dr. Talbot y^e former Editor, notwithstanding his being highly serviceable in some things to him relating particularly to this work, w^{ch} however Dr. Bentley had not y^e civility to acknowledge. He also told me y^t he had no acquaintance wth Mr. Wasse but y^t his Character in Cambridge is that he is an ingenious Man; but I am afraid his Parts are but rambling, since Mr. Wasse as Mr. Pawle told me among other things had also some design abt a Sallust some time since & had 40 done somew^t towards it.

Dec. 7 (Fri.). Mr. Abell (Joseph) of Merton Coll. who took his Master of Arts Degree June 18. 1702. was originally of St. Edm. Sir Edw. Acton Bar. of Queen's Coll. was created M.A. of the University of Oxon. in the Year 1667, Apr. 23. There was one Edw. Acton of Hart-Hall, who went out A.M. May 9. 1674. There have been other Actons of this University, as Francis Acton of Braz-nose Coll. who went out A.M. Jul. 4. 1681. John Acton of Hart-Hall, who took the Deg. of Bach. of Civil Law March 2. 1684. Paul Acton of New-Coll. who took his A.M. Deg. June 3. the same year. Tho. Acton of X^t Church, who took his A.M. Deg. June 28. 1665, and that of Bach. of Div. July 14. 1683. Mich. Acton of New Coll. who took his A.M.'s Deg. Janu. 14. 1689. One Mr. Acton was 4 or 5 years since a Gentleman Commoner of St. Edm. Hall. His Tutor was Mr. Tho. Mills, between whom there was a great Intimacy, & Milles expected some preferment from him. He has now a Brother Commoner of Baliol College, where he was enter'd last Summer, being design'd for Edm. Hall, but Milles perswaded him (contrary to his Brother's Intention) to go to Baliol. —

Rich. Adams of Braz. Nose Coll. who took his A.M.'s Deg. May 29. 1651, and has publish'd divers Sermons, as may be seen in Ant. a Wood's Athen. Oxon. & the Appendix to y^e Bodlejan Catalogue, is not to be taken to be y^e same with Rich. Adams of All-Souls Coll. who went 30 out A.M. Oct. 16. 1675. B. M. Dec. 11. 1679. and Doct. of Phys. Jul. 9. 1684. the former being a Non-Conformist Preacher and y^e latter Principal of Magd. Hall, whither he never comes but once or twice a Year to receive his Cash. Besides these two there have been of this university Charles Adams of Braz. nose Col. who took his A.M.'s Deg. Jul. 9. 1663. Fitzherbert Adams of Lincoln Coll. who took his A.M.'s Deg. Jun. 4. 1675. his Bach. of Divinity's Jan. 23. 1682. & was upon the Death of Dr. Tho. Marshall made Rector of his college May 2. in 1685. in opposition to his most Learn'd & Conscientious Tutor Dr. George Hickes, who was put by chiefly for this reason, because he was like to prove 40 a good Disciplinarian. However it must be acknowledg'd that tho' Mr. Adams (who took his Doctor of Divinity's Deg. Jul. 3 the same year he came in Rector & was at length made Prebendary of Durham) be not a Scholar, yet he has been a considerable Benefactor to y^e College. He was Vice-Chancellor in the years 1695 & 1696. and is now living. —

Other Men of the name of Adams of this university are Rich. Adams of Magd. Col. who went out A.M. June 27. 1684. and B.D. Feb. 4. 1695. He is Brother to the Rector of Lincoln. Sam. Adams of Linc. Coll. (who was 50 originally of Cambridge) & took his A.M.'s Deg. as a member of this Coll. Apr. 16. 1670. & y^t of Bach. of Div. Nov. 20. 1677. Sam. Adams of Exet. Col. who went out A.M. June 23. 1679. & Bach. L.V. Aug. 6. 1690. Sylv. Adams of Alb. Hall who went out A.M. Jan. 19. 1663. Will. Adams of

Linc. Coll. who went out A.M. March 16. 1663. Will. Adams of Bal. Coll. who went out A.M. Apr. 22. 1670. Another Will. Adams of Linc. Coll. who went out A.M. Jun. 8. 1683. Sam. Adams of Magd. Coll. who went out A.M. 1693. & has been since one of the Head Proctors. He is now fellow of y^t House, Moral Philosophy Reader (tho' he does not understand one word of Aristotle) & an Affected, proud Person. Simon Adams of Univ. Col. who went out A.M. Jun. 25. 1694. Will. Adams of X^t Ch. who went out A.M. May 19. 1698. And another of y^t name who went out y^e year after March 20. one of w^{ch} has publish'd Cornelius Nepos a pretty Edition, is a quaint Preacher & has ready for y^e Press Horace with Notes, which perhaps may 10 come out when D^r. Bentley shall be pleas'd to publish his Edition & Another of y^t Name too who went out A.M. of this House Jul. 4. 1704. Knightley Adams of Linc. Coll. who took his A.M.'s Deg. Jun. 18. 1702. He is related to y^e Rector but being a good companion, when he stood for orders was turn'd by for Deficiency, tho' he has got them since. Sam. Adams of New Col. who went out A.M. Nov. 19. 1702. John Adams who publish'd an Essay conc. Self-Murder, Lond. 1700. 8^o. is a Cambridge Man. He has Sermons in Print. — One J. Adams has printed in a thin folio, Lond. 1680. Index Villare, or an Alphabetical Table of all y^e Cities, Market Towns, &c. in England & Wales; w^{ch} is a Book of good use. See more of him at y^e Beginning of y^t Work. . . 20

Dec. 8 (Sat.) Lancelot Addison of Queen's coll. took his Bach. of Arts Deg. Jan. 25. 1654. that of Master Jul. 4. 1657, and July 6. 1675. accumulated y^e Degrees of Bach. & Doct. of Divinity. He died a year 30 or two since being then Dean of Lichfield. Amongst other things he hath written, The present State of the Jews. Lond. 1676. 8^o. The present State of Mahumedism. Lond. 1679. 8^o. Coll. is an ingenious Man, & besides the Travells lately publish'd and other things has verses in the Musæ Anglicanæ, to w^{ch} he præfix'd a Preface. D^r. Addison has another Son of Magd. Coll. who went out A.M. Feb. 3. 1702. He was originally of Queen's, whence he was elected Demy into Magd. Coll. but I think he has writ nothing yet, tho' as to parts qualify'd for it. — 40 Anthony Addison of Queen's col. took his A.M. Deg. Jun. 14. 1681. & y^t of Bach. of Div. Jul. 10. 1691. being then Fellow of the College. He was afterwards made vicar of St. Helen's in Abington & Chaplain to his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. He has printed, A Sermon preach'd at St. Helen's in Abington on the Day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God, Sept. 7th. 1704. for the late Glorious Victory obtained over y^e French & Bavarians at Bleinheim &c. on Psal. 68. 28. This same Sermon, mutatis mutandis, he preach'd on a Sunday Morning at St. Maries when y^e Judges happen'd to be at Church, & one Robin Parsons, (formerly of University College, now Archdeacon of Gloucester, who preach'd mad L^d. Rochester's Funeral Sermon) hearing M^r. Addison, when he came out of the Church said, He was an impudent Fellow for stealing before 40 the Judges. For, says he, this Sermon was my Friend M^r. Pindar's of University College: w^{ch} was certainly true, several Persons comparing M^r. Pindar's printed Sermon with w^t they could remember of M^r. Addison's. — This same Addison who was one of those concern'd in turning by M^r. Hudson from a Fellowship in Queen's College, was a proud, Huffing, conceited Fellow, but abundantly mortify'd by the Discovery of this Sermon, & his marrying a nasty Cook's widow of neither Fortune, Beauty, nor Reputation. Dean Addison when he was a young man at Queen's had his Eye accidentally struck out by a small Bone flung at him in jest. ib. num. 89. A Chronology from the Floud to our Saviour, folio. 'Twas formerly Mr. Tho. Underhill's A.M. who gave it here. It cost him, as appears at ye Beginning 3 lib^s. 6s. 8d. In the Register it is express'd that the Author was Hugh Broughton. Upon w^{ch} having recourse to Mr. Broughton's Works, before w^{ch} there is put a Preface giving some Account of his Life by Dr. Lightfoot, I find there y^t Dr. 40 Lightfoot tells us that the first Book w^{ch} made Mr. Broughton known to the World was his publishing his Book called A Concent of Scripture, which came out 1588. Mr. John Speed, a man well known, was Overseer of the Press for its Printing, a Taylor by Trade, but, by Acquaintance with Mr. Broughton, grown very studious in y^e Scriptures, & by His Directions grown very skillfull in them. While this was Printing, Mr. Speed, by Mr. Broughton's direction gathered all the Genealogies of the Bible into one view, & at last they were published under his Name, in the form we have them before our Bibles. But it was Mr. Broughton, that directed, & digested them, and there are yet fair Manuscripts of them to be shewed (amongst w^{ch} this in the Bodlejan Library I take to be one being a very fair Neat Book) some whereof have the Names in Hebrew, and Greek, and some in y^e Latin Letter, & in some of them Mr. Broughton's own Hand. And one that attended him, Dorman, or Dalman, or of such a Name, had made such a Collection, by the Direction of his Master, before Mr. Speed had collected his one view. Yet notwithstanding this, when the Genealogie came to be published, because the Br^s. would not suffer Mr. Broughton's name to be prefixed, Mr. Speed went away wth all the credit & profit; so y^t Mr. Speed would often confess y^t Mr. Broughton was a great Friend to him. & y^t he owed his Livelyhood in a manner to him: upon w^{ch} y^t Act of his is to be wonder'd at, which himself mention'd to some of Mr. Broughton's Friends, viz. That he had as many Manuscripts of Mr. Broughton's, as he could hold in his Arms, holding his Arms encompass'd: but, saith he, I have burnt them all; for w^t reason not known. Inquire farther about this, and remember y^t the Catalogue of MS^{ts} be alter'd in the Title of this Book. — Ibid. num. 90. Rob. Hare Collectio Privilegorum & Libertatum universitatis Oxon. It commences wth the time of Hen. 3^d & reaches as low as the 34th year of Q. Elizabeth. Mr. Hare made another such Collection for the use of Cambridge w^{ch} was done before this. It has a Preface, neatly & handsomly penn'd at the Beginning to the Chancellor &c. — Ibid. num. 91. Liber diversorum privilegiorum statutorum & rerum Memorabilium universitatis Oxon. fol.

The Archbp. of York, the Br^s. of London, Bath & Wells, and the Br. of St. Asaph were the only spiritual L^{ds}. that spoke for y^e Churches being in danger on Thursday last, particularly from the great number of Seminaries erected all over the Kingdom by the Dissenters 30 for instructing their children in different Principles. — . . . Sixty of the L^{ds} voted y^e Church not in Danger, 30 y^t 'tis. Pitcarne had said of Dr. Gregory was left out in y^e 2^d Edition of it. Sr. Isaac Newton has complain'd that Dr. Gregory, who borrow'd most of the best materials in his Book of Astronomy from Sir Isaac, has made little or no mention of him but just in his Preface : so y^t Sr. Isaac fearing least y^t in Process of time Dr. Gregory's Book might happen to be printed wthout this Preface, and consequently he be thought the Author of what Sr. Isaac himself had before him discovered, resolv'd to make another Edition of His Book call'd Principia Math. — To shew that the Dutchess of Marlborough (commonly call'd Queen Zarah,) has the Ascendant over the Queen I could not but remark these two Instances; The first is, 10

The second is this, That when Prince George (who is lookt upon as a man of little Spirit & understanding) solicited the Queen his wife for a Place for some Friend of his, Zarah who happen'd to be by at that time, cry'd out, X^t Madam I am promis'd it before. — Dr. Tho. from y^t office in y^e latter End of Nov. going before. This Dr. Aldrich, is a most ingenious, Learned man, &, w^{ch} is above all, a sincere Member of the church of England, as he has shew'd by divers of his late Proceedings, whilst Prolocutor to the Lower House of Convocation during the last Sessions. He is likewise a most affable complaisant Gentleman & has nothing in him of Affectation. Amongst other things he has written,

Dr. Aldrich has also critical notes in the Marmora Oxon. upon some obscure Places relating to musick not understood by the Publisher Dr. Prideaux. He has also taken care to continue the new Years Gift since the Death of Bp. Fell, & there is one of his Relations (of the same name wth himself,) a Bach. of Arts of X^t. church (an ingenious young man especially in Poetry) who is now taking pains ab^t Homer's Odysses design'd for a new years Gift for the next Year.

Dec. 12 (Wed.). A Letter from S^r. John Packington to D^r. Lloyd Bp. of Worcester communicated to me by D^r. Charlett.

Westwood, June y^e 6th, 1705.

My Lord,—The Esteem and Veneration I have always had for your order, & the Belief I have that some People, not only put you upon acting those things w^{ch} very much lessen your Character in the world, but also represent Matters by a false Light w^{ch} leads to Errour, together with a desire I have to free myself from any Imputation, is the occasion of your Lordships being 10 troubled with this.

Your Lordship has been extreemly misinform'd by those that have told you that I had any prejudice either to y^e Bishops in general, or to your self in particular; our Form of Church Government I believe to be the best in y^e World, & consequently I respect y^e Heads of it, neither should I have appear'd against your Person but in the necessary Vindication of my self and Friends. I am not conscious of any Provocation I have given you, unless it's reckoned one to vote and Act in the House of Commons, according to the best of my Judgment for the Service of the Church and Nation; when your Lordship first shew'd your Displeasure, and thought fit to asperse me in every 20 place, making me a Drunkard, Lewd and Guilty of all sort of Vice, & not content with this you rak't up the Ashes of the Dead, accusing my whole Ancestry with the same Faults, who are now incapable of justifying themselves.

Your Lordship did not stop here but proceeded to treat with the utmost severity all my Friends y^t you had any Power or Influence over. Some you turn'd out, others you threaten'd, & to all you appear'd very angry, for no other Reason than their Voting for me. I think I may now say with Modesty That the Resentments you shew'd were very extraordinary for a Churchman, & that your Lordship did not do yourself much Honour by Acting after such 30 a Manner. For admitt I was culpable as your Lordship represented me, you that are so good a Textuary cannot but be sensible I ought to be admonished first privately, & then in the presence of two or three Witnesses before being publicly expos'd; & even Hereticks are not to be rejected, 'till after the first and second Admonition; & if I was in an Errour as to Principles, your Lordship should have endeavour'd to convince me before you condemn me. This I must confess is very strange to me that I should disoblige a Bishop of the Church of England, & that the Dissenters should be more in His Favour than a Member of it, or that it should be reckon'd Persecution of them to keep them out of y^t Power they have ever made ill use of, which so many Families 40 do yet feel & particularly my own. My Lord I have represented things to you wth much Truth and Plainness, not to pursue Pique or Revenge. And it will be your own Fault, if this appears upon the Stage again. I have dayly brought to me greater Cause of Complaint than ever against your Lordship; I have several Letters to produce on occasion & am urg'd by many of my Friends to right them as far as lyes in my Power. There are some who are Sufferers upon my Account already, & others that are like to become so themselves and Families, & I find the Strictness of the Canon only made use of to the Disadvantage of my Friends. I forbear to mention many vexatious and unneighbourly Proceedings against your own Tenants. But your Lord- 50 ship must give me leave to tell you once more, that this way of Acting neither consists with Christian Charity in respect of yourself, nor with the Liberty of a Free Parliament in respect to y^e Votes; it being contrary to y^e Constitution, that threats or any Compulsive Methods should be made use of to gain or hinder any Elector from voting for whom he pleases. I have nothing more to add but to assure your L^dship that it lyes wholly in your Power to put an End to these Disputes by ceasing to persecute my Friends; But if your Lordship does not I must with great Regret endeavour again to right myself & them. I am with all imaginable Duty (unless your Lordship give me cause to y^e contrary) as you were pleased to conclude in one of your Letters,

Your Lordships most obedient

There is an Index come out pointing to divers of the Ridiculous, childish observations made by Mr. Addison in his travells. In one sheet
 10 in 8^o. — The Arms of the University of Oxon are A field Jupiter, a Book Expanded in Fesse, Luna, garnished, having seven Labels with Seales, Sol, & this Inscription, Sapientia & Felicitate Saturne, between three Crowns of the Third. This Bearing appeareth to be very ancient, from y^t which is ingraven in the Top of St. Samson's Church at Greke-lade, in ¹ Gloucestershire, w^{ch} is an Argument that this University (as is commonly held) was first planted there in the old Britains' time. The Book it self some have thought to signifie y^t Book mention'd in y^e Revelations, having Seven Seals; but these here are taken rather to be the seven Liberal Sciences, & y^e Crowns to be the Reward of Learning and 20 Wisdome; & the Triphcity of the Crownes are taken to represent the three Cardinal Professions or Faculties before Specified. The Inscription has varied according to variety of times; some having Sapientia & Felicitate; others (& that very Ancient) Deus illuminatio mea; others this; Veritas liberabit, Bonitas regnabit; & others thus; In principio &c.; In the Beginning was the word, & y^e word was wth God. Vide Guillim's Heraldry. This must be consider'd of in my Notes to St. John Spelman's Life of King Alfred. — Mr. Tho. This Book is dedicated to the Archbp. of Canterbury, and was printed at the charge of the Bp. of Worcester, with whom Mr. Gagnier lives, & receives from his L^dship great kindnesses, w^{ch}, together with those receiv'd from the Archbp., have induc'd him to promise other things of this Nature provided this present work be well receiv'd. There is likewise finish'd at the Theatre, Sophoclis Ajax Flagellifer, & Electra Gr. Lat. cum Scholijs antiquis & Annot. per Tho. Johnson Etonensem. 8^o. This Mr. Johnson has done some other small things for the use of Schools, with notes taken from the larger ones of others, wthout adding anything from MSS^{ts} or other monuments of y^t nature, w^{ch} might make them acceptable to curious & learned Men. It were to be wish'd he would go on wth Sophocles in the same manner as this is printed. Mr. Aldrich's Edition of Homer's Odyssees is also just finish'd.

 10 shew'd w^t little reason the Presbyterians & other Sectaries had for Dis-senting from us, both from the nature of our Church Governm^t & from Testimonies drawn from the chief of our moderate Divines, & from the best Writers of the Protestant Churches beyond Sea. This he did, wth good Judgment, in relation to Episcopacy, our Liturgy & Ceremonies; & concluded the whole wth a pertinent Application, warning all the Auditors to take care to follow the Injunction of the Text, & avoid those y^t cause Divisions, namely the Presbyterians &c.; who are certainly guilty of the many schisms w^{ch} now unhappily disturb y^e Church. — Tho' Mr. John Chamberlayn has in y^e Preface to his Father's Present State of Eng. in 20 the Edition of 1704, represented to the World the Knavery of Mr. Guy Miede in his New State of Eng. who transcrib'd for the most part the present State, wthout due Acknowledgment; yet he has not at y^e same time been pleas'd to mention the Assistance his Father receiv'd from Mr. Andrew Allam of Edm. Hall, who drew up several sheets & communicated them to his Father taking a journey on purpose to London for y^t End, where he got the small Pox, & dy'd of it; but his journey was not satisfactory to him, he being deny'd the sight of Dr. Chamberlayn, whom he went in a great measure to see, & if his company had been vouchsaf'd he would have imparted to him several other useful matters w^{ch} would have 30 added much to the worth of the Book. But the Dr. was not only unkind to him in this, but likewise when a New Edition of the Book was set out, he would not declare who was his chief Friend in the Additions, & his Son has follow'd his Example. Memorandum that the Account of the Publick Library in Oxford in the said Edition of 1704 was written by Mr. Humf. Wanley.

Dec. 17 (Mon.). Those old, thick and strong Walls at y^e West Gate of the Cathedral Church of Winchester the Remains of a College in the Time of the Romans, where Constans the Monk resided, whom his Father Constantine (when he put on the Purple in Opposition to Honorius the Emperor) made Cæsar and afterwards Augustus. Quære more about this. See Camden's History of Hampshire, & his Introduction to y^e Brit in the Roman Affairs.—After the said College was run'd Kenewalch, King of y^e West-Saxons, founded here, in it's room, a Cathedral Church and B^prick. See Camden ibid. In a new Impression of Ductor Historicus must be better consider'd w^t is there said concerning K. Lucius's founding a Monastery here. Perhaps y^t to be understood of the Monks here in the time of y^e Romans before mention'd. If so M^r. Tanner's Notitia Monastica 10 to be corrected.—Consider also w^t M^r. Camden has there said about the New Minster's being founded by King Ælfred, & see whether 'twas not rather Founded by King Edward y^e Elder according to the Will of his Father y^e s^d K. Ælfred. This must be specify'd in the Notes to y^e Life of King Ælfred by S^r. John Spelman. In the s^d Notes also, when an Account is given of Domesday Book must be mention'd the Cross of King Canute y^e Dane wherein was describ'd the yearly Revenue of all England; w^{ch} Cross was repositd in the New Minster after it's being translated to Hyde by King Hen. I. & was burnt in the fire w^{ch} happen'd there soon after y^e Translation. His Cross seems to be something like 20 Domesday Book. — Ninnius tells us y^t Silchester in Hampshire was founded by Constantius Son of Constantine y^e Great, & y^t he died here. This fabulous, it being certain y^t he died in Cilicia, & was buried at Constantinople. However 'tis probable here was also an Honorary Monument Erected to him, it being certain y^t this was a flourishing & noted Town in those Times from the Coyns dug up here of Constantine Junior Brother to Constantius w^{ch} have on their Reverse PROVIDENTIAE CÆSS. There are still Remaining large and magnificent Reliques of y^e Walls, two Miles in Cumpace and deserve an accurate view by such as study the Antiquities of this County. — . . . Petrus Cratepoleus in Catalogo Academiarum totius orbis 30 makes Cambridge to have been founded by Sigebert or rather by Cantaber, & restored by Sigebert. He speaks more honourably of it than of Oxford, whereof he makes K. Ælfred Founder. — . . . M^r. Will. Worth Fellow of All-Souls Coll. is made Archdeacon of Worcester, in Room of M^r. I. Fleetwood deceas'd. This Person was of Queen's Coll., afterwards of Edm. Hall, and at length Chaplain to y^e B^p. of Worcester, D^r. Lloyd, who by his Interest wth the present Archbishop of Canterbury got M^r. Worth in Fellow of All-Souls upon a Devolution of the Election of Fellows to y^e said Arch Bishop by the Death of D^r. Leopold W^m. Finch. This Person has publish'd Tatian, concerning which and how carried on, I have already 40 spoken enough in one of the preceding Volumes. The valuation of this Archdeaconry, according to the Book of Taxations made in the Reign of Edw. I. a Copy whereof is in the Bodlejan Library, is in the Queen's Book, 30 marks per An. besides a Parsonage annex. — [Arms at the Beginning of a MS^t Copy of Peter Comestor's History, C. 122. Laud.]. . . . — Amongst the same Books C. 123. is Missale Fratrum Prædicatorum, w^{ch} tho' in the Catalogue put down as being a MS^t yet is a printed Book. 'Tis a very splendid Letter, & an antient Book, and a very great Rarity. — D. 17. Laud. The Works of St. Columb in Irish verse. At y^e Beginning of this MS^t is this written in a loose Paper.

Dr. Sikes President of Trinity Coll. and Margaret Profess^r. He died rich, & has left the Character of an Honest Man behind him. He spent near 400 lib^s. presently after he became president on the President's lodgings, w^{ch} makes well for his successor, who 'tis thought will be either Mr. Allemont or Mr. Barker. Candidates for Professor are Dr. Baron Master of Balliol and Mr. Wynne of Jesus College (the same that epitomiz'd Lock's Hum. understanding); but the X^t Church men, as 'tis said, have put a 3^d Person, viz. Mr. Grabe, to the great Resentment of some, who do not think it creditable for the University to chose a Foreigner, who never receiv'd the sacrament after y^e Church of England way, into a Place for w^{ch} we have so many in England qualify'd beyond Mr. Grabe, whose skill does not lie in controversial Divinity.'

Oxford the 9th of August 1673.

This Book is call'd the Works of St. Colum in Irish Verses, and the Reader may see many famous things in it, as well of his own Life, as also of Prophecies, from himself and other saints, many good Advertisements, for Kings, Princes & Ecclesiastical Persons, how to govern and regulate in the Commonwealth. I pray Reader make use of it, at y^e Perswasions of S^r

- Mr. Bromley in a Letter last Night to y^e Vice-Chancellor relates, That 10 two Bishops intimated to a Member of the House of Commons, That if any person should chance to speak against y^e Fanatick Seminaries, it would be proper to retort upon him Parker's Academy at Oxford, w^{ch} was done accordingly by a Member of y^e House of Commons, who said he had his Information from two Bishops. Now the Business of Parker's Academy is only this, that he has a Son of Collonel Tufton's, who boards with him, & is suppos'd to be instructed by him. — The L^{ds} and Commons have agreed to Address the Queen and Congratulate her upon their Resolution, That y^e Church is in no Danger, whereas towards y^e latter
 End of the last Sessions, the L^{ts} were for bringing in a Bill, to prevent y^e 20 Danger the Church was in from y^e Growth of Popery.

Archiv. Laud. D. 28. Guilelmi de Saona Rhetorica. 'Tis a printed Book, & at y^e End is added, compilatum autem fuit hoc opus in Alma universitate Cantabrigiæ, Anno

- 40 'Tis in 4^{to}. — Arch. Laud. D. 135. A Large Vellam Missale in Folio.
 'Tis a Printed Book at Herbipoli or Wirtzburg in the year 1481, in a large Splendid Letter; being printed by Jeorius Ryser at y^e Command of Rudolph B^p. of Wirtzburg, & the Chapter there, as appears by their Preface dated the same Year, at y^e End of w^{ch} are their Arms engraven on Copper, w^{ch} is a very considerable Curiosity, being in all probability one of y^e first Specimens of Ingraving in Copper. — Arch. Laud. D.
 138. Officia Divina ad usum Ecclesiæ Herbipolensis. A large folio.
 This was also printed at Herbipoli, but in w^t year appears not, two or three Leaves at the beginning and Ending being wanting. However

'tis not of the same year wth y^e former, the Letter being considerably lesse.

Dec. 19 (Wed). I am told by one who understands English Books well that besides Dr. Thomas James, Dr. Watson also (a Romish Priest) has made Father Parsons Author of Leicester's Commonwealth; but he could not then tell me in w^t piece this was to be found, nor have I yet made any search. — . . . To day Dr. Hudson shew'd me the following Coyns [six in number], w^{ch} he rec^d to be explain'd from Mr. Wase (Son to the ingenious Xtopher Wase late Beadle of Law in this university). . . . The said Coyns are all Brass of the 3^d magnitude. Mr. Wase (who is ¹⁰ a man of Parts & some Curiosity) has other Coyns in his Custody, w^{ch} he designs to leave to the College, where there is already a Collection, as I am inform'd by one who knows. — Rich. White, commonly call'd Basingstoke, amongst other things that he writ (where of there is only his History of England in y^e Publick Library) is Ælia Lælia Crispis. Epitaphium antiquum in agro Bononiensi adhuc videtur; a diversis hactenus interpretatum varie: novissime autem à Ric. Vito Basingstochio, amicorum precibus explicatum. Patav. 1568, in 6 sh. and a half in 4^{to}. This I must see. — Arch. Laud. E. 18. Petri Cameliani liber carminum in Beatæ Katerinæ Ægyptiæ X^{ti} sponsæ vitam. The Dedication to ²⁰ Robt. Bracunbure Keeper of the Tower of London, & in it is a fulsom commendation of King Rich. III. — MS. Laud. E. 31. In this Book are verses taken from the Windows of the Church of St. Alban's before the Dissolution of Monasteries, & the Destruction of painted Glass by the Fanaticks, as likewise verse: in the Windows of y^e Library of St. Albans transcrib'd at y^t time; by these last it appears w^t Books were then in that Library, the Authors being mention'd w^{ch} were there, but amongst them there is no Livy, so y^t it seems y^t Author was not then in y^e Library. These verses are all printed in y^e Monasticon Anglicanum, being taken from this MS^t as appears in the Margin. ³⁰

Dec. 20 (Th.). Last Night was buried Dr. Sykes in Trinity col. Chapell. There was a Speech made on him by Tho. Hasker A.M. of y^t Coll. B.D. . .

Out of a Letter I saw to day.

I forgot in my former to tell you that Mr. Nash Rector of Binfield is lately dead and has left a good place for some one or other that can get it. They say Mr. Frinsham of Wargrove has made Intercession to Mr. Nevil to be his Friend to y^e New Lord Keeper whose gift they say it is. But 'tis thought that the Dutchess of Marlborough being the Queen's chief Favourite will intercede for some of her Friends & if she does no question but they will carry ⁴⁰ it. 'Tis a considerable Place and deserves a good laborious Preacher, being worth 9 score or 200^l per annum: but all good places have not good Preachers nor deserving Men good Preferments.

The said Mr. Nash (Salomon) was of Pembroke Coll. in Oxon, & took his A.M^s. Degree May 31. 1662. He has nothing in print y^t I know of only some stupid verses before Mr. John Brandon's Book (who was of Trinity Coll.) call'd Everlasting Fire no Fancy. I have been inform'd that Mr. Winder (Tho.) of Trinity College (whose Father, a rich man, lately died at his House call'd Bullock's Hatch near Windsor) makes great Interest for Binfield. — MS. Laud. E. 33. Mr. W. Lisles Saxon ⁵⁰

English Remains. This Book of great use to such as begin to Learn the Saxon Tongue, because the Saxon is English'd in an opposite page. — . . . [MS. Laud.] E. 65. The History of the Revelations of St. John in Latin, wth figures, & a Comment in the German Language. The Comment is written, but the rest printed on one side only, & is one of those Books w^{ch} were printed at Harlem wⁿ this Art was first invented. 'Twas done in wooden Cuts & is a great Curiosity. I shew'd it Mr. Bagford when he was in Oxford. Hence 'tis plain that y^e true way of printing began first at Mentz, & not at Harlem as some would 10 make believe. — Ib. E. 72. Terentij Comoediae—At the Beginning—Terentius genere exstitit Afer civis cartaginensis. . . . This may be inserted in Livy, perhaps. — . . . This Day at two of y^e Clock began the Election of a Margaret Professor of Divinity in room of Dr. Sykes deceas'd. Candidates were Dr. Baron, Master of Baliol-Coll. and Mr. John Wynne Bach. of Divinity of Jesus Col. the same y^t Epitomiz'd Mr. Lock's Essay. The former had 27, the latter 35 votes. They are both Worthy Men, and of good Affection to the Church of England; but there is this Difference, that whereas Dr. Baron has something of Pride and Haughtiness in him, Mr. Wynne is a man of singular¹ modesty
 20 & Humility, great Prudence, and in point of Learning superior to the Dr., who however is a thorough pac'd Divine, and qualify'd for the Place. No sooner was the Breath out of Dr. Sykes's Body, but an offer was immediately made by some of X^t Church to the Pious and Learned Mr. Grabe, then in London; but he being a Prussian by Birth, and having other reasons besides ag^t his Accepting it, modestly declin'd it. The like did also Dr. Hudson who was desir'd by divers to put up; & I am perswaded that if he had done it (²his Excellent learning, sound Judgment, great Affection to the Church of England joyn'd with an Affable Temper,) would have carry'd³ it in opposition to any one else
 30 that should appear. After these two Worthy Divines had declin'd it, Mr. Tho. Smith (B.D.) of Brazen Nose Coll. put up; but finding that he had not Interest enough to carry it, before the Election he desisted, and most if not all his Party went over to Mr. Wynne, who had otherwise infallibly lost it.

(N.B. The said Mr. now Dr. Wynne, is a great Lockist, and his Lectures do not answer the Expectation conceiv'd of him. However he is an ingenious Man and a good Scholar, but better skill'd in Natural Philosophy than in Divinity. He is withall a man of Republican Principles, & a great Defender of them in the Coffee-House.—May 11th. 1710.)

40 Dr. Baron hath prov'd a poor snivelling Fellow, & to be in many respects a Knave. Feb. 10. 171⁸.

Dec. 21 (Fri.) Upon carrying of y^e self-Denying Bill by the Tories, there were divers Speeches made on both sides, and some of the Whiggs saying 'twas ill Nature to suppose they were ill Men because they did not vote so and so, Sr. Tho. Hanmer replied That he was not y^e worst

¹ Not so. He is rather a Man of Pride, and of no great Judgment, nor Prudence, as I find by those that know him intimately. Sept. 14. 1712.

³ So I thought then; but I have great reason to think since that he would have certainly lost it.

Natur'd Man in y^e World, & he hop'd he had no more ill Nature than w^t was necessary for self-Preservation, but yet when he saw some Men turn'd out of their Places for not voting as they were bid, he could not help thinking y^t others were kept in because they had voted as they were bid. — The L^ds who enter'd their Protestation ag^t the Resolution That y^e Church was not in danger, enter'd also these Reasons for their Dissent [209-213]. . . .

Out of Mr. Bromley's Letter to Dr. Charlett Master of University Col. Dated Dec. 18. 1705—

—Indeed one Gentleman blamed you for not Burning the Memorial by y^e 10 Hands of y^e Common Hangman, but was very well told, you had no university Hangman.

— I am told by one y^t should know y^t Mr. Milles of X^t Church gave his vote, in y^e Election of a Margaret Professor, neither way. A day or two before y^e Election he told one y^t he wish'd Dr. Mill would stand, & y^t he would give his vote for him before any one else in Oxford, tho' 'tis well known y^t he us'd always to speak ag^t the D^r. & hop'd to live to see Edm. Hall have no one left in it, he being not able (as he said) to wish the Hall might flourish as long as Dr. Mill liv'd; tho' otherwise he had a Kindness for it.

Charles Cæsar Esq^r., one of the Burgesses for Hertford, happening to speak some Words on Wednesday last in the Debate of the H. of Commons w^{ch} arose upon Acc^t of the Bill for the better security of her Majesty's Person and Government, w^{ch} were judg'd reflecting on her Majesty, he was presently committed Prisoner to the Tower. . .

Dec. 22 (Sat.). . . In Arch. Laud. E. 81. B. Brunonis Comment. in Psalterium, in Cantica Bibliorum: in Te Deum, Symbolum fidei &c. 'Tis an old printed Book at Herbipoli for the use of the Bp. and Chapter there. — Laud. F. 41. Annales Hiberniæ ab Anno X^{vi} 1162 usque ad 40 annum 1370. At the Beginning is this Memorandum.

The Author of this Book is unknowne. It was brought (as supposed) out of Ireland, by y^e Lord Thomas Howarde Duke of Norfolk, L^d. Treasurer, and Earl Marshall of England, when he was Earle of Surrey, and Lorde Lieutenant of y^t Realme in anno 11 Regni Henrici octavi, and of late Yeares given by y^e L^d. W^m. Howarde, Youngest Son to Thomas late Duke of Norfolk, unto the Learned and Judicious Antiquarye M^r. W^m. Camden, who put the same in print, inserting it into his Britannia, and by him given to George Lord Carew in anno 1619.

Dec. 23 (Sun.). The Words for w^{ch} M^r. Cæsar was committed to 50 the Tower, are, There is a noble Lord wthout whom the Queen does nothing, who was known all last Reign to keep a constant Correspondence with the Court of St. Germaines. — This Morning preach'd at St.
Marie's M^r. Sacheverell of Magd. Coll. upon, in Perills amongst false

Brethren, in the Prosecution of w^{ch} words he did with a great Deal of Courage and Boldness, shew the great Danger the Church is in at present (notwthstanding the Parliam^t has voted it to be in none) from the Fanaticks & other False Brethren, whom he set forth in their proper Colours¹. — Being to day with S^r. Andrew Fountaine, he told me that he has been lately in Holland, where he has purchas'd a great Number of Curious Books and Coyns, some for himself but most for my Lord Pembroke. He likewise told me that he design'd to write a Dissertation in Latin upon Carausius and Allectus, and to explain all their Coyns w^{ch} he could procure, w^{ch} will be of great use to all curious Persons, this¹⁰ part of the Roman History having not yet been sufficiently written of, for want of such undertakers as are skill'd in Coyns. Dr. Sikes besides a very good Collection of Books had likewise a good Number of Coyns, w^{ch} however he did not leave to any publick Place, but they are come into y^e Hands of his Relations. He once said he would give some to y^e Publick Library, & his Executors, particularly M^r. Hinton, say they will take care to procure y^m for y^t place if they can. Sir Andrew Fountaine formerly saw them, & he assures me y^t one of Carausius's amongst y^m is very valuable, there being on the Reverse VICTORIA CEA, the like whereof he never saw before in his life. — I saw to day at Dr. Charlett's the²⁰ Lower House of Convocation's Reasons for not assenting to y^e Lords Address, penn'd with much modesty, & Affection for y^e Church. — I saw also M^r. Westley's Letter to the Master dated from Linc. Castle Jul. 31. 1705. wherein is the sum of all his Debts, viz. 357^l. 16^s. 10^d, w^{ch} he says he did not contract thro' Extravagance, it being impossible to be free from them when he has such a Family and has had so many Crosses. He acknowledges wth a great sense of Gratitude the Master's Kindness to him, & declares he has rec'd divers unexpected Kindnesses from others w^{ch} he hopes he shall always have sense to mention wth the greatest Deference and Humility. — Petri Victorij Observatt. in Columel-³⁰ lam, Catonem & Varronem. Lugd. ap. Gryphium 1542. 8^o. not in y^e Publick Library I think. I saw it at y^e Mast^r of University's Lodging. There goes wth them Georgius Alexandrinus in libb. de re Rustica. P. Beroaldus in Columellam. Aldus de Dierum generibus.—Ciceronis Epistolae per Manutium. Antv. Plantin. 1567. 12^o. Quære wheth^r in y^e P. Library. — Quære abt the Motto of the Arms of the East Indian Company. I am told by M^r. Thwaites that 'tis INDVS VTERO SERVIET VNI, w^{ch} he very ingeniously conjectures to be VTERQ. w^{ch} wthout doubt is right, being in Imitation of Hor. Et uterque Pœnus serviet uni. — Memorand. to consult the new Author of Embalming, who speaking de⁴⁰ lucernis sepulch. takes notice of an Author who asserts y^t a Lamp was found Burning at y^e opening of a Vault; but says he such a one does not believe it, nor such a one, but Judæus Apella does believe it, w^{ch} Error arose from credat Judæus Apella.

Dec. 24 (Mon.). M^r. Greaves in his Description of y^e Roman Denarius mentions an Attick Drachme of his, found in the Black Sea, wth this Inscription, AΘETINAPNIKA APXE, w^{ch} shews that in Livy l. 37. c.—

where the Description of the Naval Triumph of L. Æmilius is given Tinarnica is to be read & not tetradrachma as is conjectur'd by Budæus & Rhodiginus; w^{ch} is also confirm'd by the first Edition of Livy, w^{ch} has Tetracina, w^{ch} is an error that came w^{thout} doubt from the carelessness of y^e Scribe. Ask Sr. Andrew Fountaine ab^t this.—I shew'd him this Particular, & he immediately thought it should be rather ΑΘΕΝΑΙΩΝ ΤΙΝΑΡΝΙΚΟΣ . ΑΡΧΙΕΡΕΥΣ. But suspended [his] positive Judgmt. — There is in the Taberders' Library at Queen's Coll. a Livy in Folio, with Wooden Cutts, printed at Franc. ad Moen. 1578.

- 10 Dec. 25 (Tu.). In a Letter I saw to day at y^e Master of University's conc. Mr. Bromley's Father, 'tis there said y^t he was a Gentleman Commoner of Hart-Hall, matriculated in Apr. 1636. He afterwards travell'd, & upon his Return Home, took w^t proved the wrong side. He was in Arms, & rid in y^e Troop of L^{ds} & Gentlemen y^t was called y^e K's Troop, commanded at Edge-Hill Feight, & (as the Author of this Letter thinks) was in other Battles. He was taken Prisoner in y^e War, & lay 15 Mo. in Prison, & afterwards upon His Releasmt gave 10,000 L. Bond not to stir above 2 Miles from home, under w^{ch} Confinem^t he continued till y^e Restauration: And then all y^e Recompence he had for his Sufferings was 20 y^e Honour to be created a K^t of y^e Bath at y^e Coronation.—The main Drift of this Letter is to vindicate him from the Aspersions cast on him as being a Presbyterian & I know not w^t; w^{ch} if true Sr. Wm. Dugdale would not have given him so good a Character in his Antiq. of Warw. Sh.—He was (continues y^e Letter) eminently in those Interests both of Ch. & State, & his Son has follow'd his Steps, 'tho' to his Loss. The Author of y^e said Letter Mr. Bromley his Son.

- In a Letter from Mr. Nelson to Dr. Charlett he is pleas'd to speak very favourably & wth abundance of Concern for y^e Dr's Interest, & for Mr. Westley, & desires to know, w^t character Mr. Dodwell's new Book bears in y^e university, being of opinion y^t neither side can like it well (w^{ch} however is far otherwise) & wishes his Book ab^t y^e Soul were not in y^e Press, being too sensible y^t such a Book coming from so great a 40 Man will do much Mischief, & be entertain'd wth a great deal of Pleasurc by y^e Scepticks of y^e Age. — Memorand. y^t Mr. Edm. Chishull has writ a Letter to Dr. Hicks, p^t of w^{ch} is printed in the Dr's Book ag^t y^e Papists. The same Mr. Chishull has ready for y^e Press a Book of Inscriptions collected in his Travells, w^{ch} were never published by any Collector. — The Master of University shew'd me a Ballad printed in the Year 1648, & now reprinted call'd, Rustica Academiæ Oxoniensis nuper Reformatæ Descriptio, in Visitatione Fanatica Octobris 6^{to}, &c. rebuilt Maldun in Essex, after it had been destroy'd in y^e Danish Wars, & fortify'd it with a Castle. See Camden in Com. Essex. He also built a Castle at Colchester. See ibid. — Mr. Camden notes y^t Colchester was call'd by y^e Britains Caer Colin, & y^t he saw a great number of Roman Coyns dug up here, amongst w^{ch} some of Carausius. Quære whether the Victoria Cea upon Dr. Sikes's Coyn does not belong to this place, & whether it should not be Victoria Caer —? — In Cumberland Mr. Camden mentions an Inscription to a certain God, thus—DEO CEANO AVR M RTI &c. Quære whether this Coyn may not relate to him? In Cheshire he tells us y^t the Cangi or Ceangi were a British People, which he places in y^t County, conquer'd in the time of Domitian. 10

Dec. 26 (Wed.). Sir Andrew Fountaine among other Curious Books shew'd me Yllustrum Ymagines, Lugd. 1514. 8^o. w^{ch} is the first Book of Medals ever printed.—A folio Book in MS^t containing divers Pleas of y^e Crowne.—Traicte des cinque Ordres d'Architecture, dont se sont servy les Anciens, traduit du Palladio, augmenté de nouvelles inventions pour l'Art de bien bastir, Par le Sr. le Muet. Par. 1645. 4^o. All done in Copper. Sr. Andrew tells me there were not above 20 printed, being design'd for y^e use of y^e Dauphine.—Constitutiones Provinciales in Concilio Oxon. editæ per Stephanum Cant. Archiepiscopum Anno 1222 Regis 20 Hen. filij Johannis 8^o. MS. fol. in Vellam.—A large Folio Book in MS^t containing Original Letters, &c. The first is a Letter from y^e University of Cambridge dated nonis Jul. 1628. to the Duke of Buckingham wth the Duke's Answer, Dat. at Chelsey Jul. 30. 1628.—Paul. Manutius & Sigonius from a Place in the 5th Book of Livy cap. 7. equis se suis stipendia facturos promittunt, gather y^t there were two sorts of K^{ts} at Rome who serv'd in the Wars, one sort wth a Publick Horse at y^e Charge of the State, & another wth a private Horse, at their own Expense; but from these words the most Learned and judicious Grævius in his Præface to y^e 1st Vol. of his Thes. Antiq. Rom. has prov'd the direct 30 contrary.

Dec. 27 (Th.). On the 24th Instant Mr. Dobson & Mr. Allemont were elected at Trinity & sent up to the Bp. of Winchester for him to make choice of one of them to be President. — On the 25th Mr. Rob. Pearce A.M. was made Vice-Principal of Edm. Hall in room of Mr. Musson. Here it must be observ'd that tho' Dr. Mill seldom or never speaks well of other Houses as being (in his Language) wthout Discipline, yet he has taken successively 3 Vice-Principals from other Places, viz. Mr. Milles in room of Dr. Kennett, when there were several of the Hall who would have accepted of it, particularly Mr. Grandorge, a worthy ingenious Man, 40 now Fellow of Magd. &c. (2) Mr. Musson of Linc. when there were, Mr. Walker, & two or three more who would have had it. (3) Mr. Pearce of Linc. when at the same time that Mr. Musson talk'd of leaving the House Mr. Kent said he would readily accept it, if y^e Principal should think fit. But he does not care it seems for his own Men; w^{ch} however has almost ruin'd his House, w^{ch} if he had made a choice of Mr. Kent, would have recover'd he being a Man of Parts, Learning, Address & Acquaintance. But he is now better preferr'd, having got a good Living.

[Note on the spelling of Carseoli, from Grævius, Pref. to Vol. I. of Thes. Antiq.]

Dec. 28 (Fri.). Dr. Aldrich Dean of X^t Church told Dr. Hudson y^t the Pope inquir'd very much how he y^e said Dr. Hudson did. — At the Church of Pauler's-Pury near Towcester in Northamptonshire there are several Monuments of the Family of y^e Throgmortons, who were Lords of Pury, w^{ch} Lordship was sold to Sr. Edw. Hales governor of y^e Tower in King James II^d's time which he sold again to Sr. Benjamin Bathurst who made it his Lady's Joynture, and will descend to his Eldest Son Mr. — Bathurst after her Death. In this Parish of Pauler's Pury was the famous Dr. Edw. Bernard born, his Father being only Curate to the Rector of y^t 10 Place. — At Easton near Towcester lives y^e Lord Leominster, who has y^e best Collection of Ancient Marble Statues, bigger than y^e Life that perhaps are any where in being. They were the famous Lord Arundell's who collected the Marbles in y^e Theatre Yard at Oxoñ. This said L^d. Leominster has been twice married, his second wife (now living) is Daughter to y^e Duke of Leeds. He pretends a mighty Affection to y^e Church, but like most others of the Lay Pretenders has no real Kindness for it, as may be gather'd from this, That he disposes of his Livings always with a Bond of Resignation, and is at this time suing an Honest Gentleman one Mr. King who was unawares drawn in to give him a Bond, & intends to do 20 so wth another Gentleman who lives in y^e Neighbourhood. — Laurentij Pignorij Mensa Isiaca. Accedit Tomasini Manus ænea. Amst. 1669. 4^{to}. This Book to be got into y^e Publick Library. I saw it at Sr. Andrew Fountaine's. I should look it over for Livy ... Harduin de Nummo Pantheo. Wanting in y^e Publ. Library. ... Horae B. Mariae. 12^o. MS. I saw this in Sr. Andr. Fountaines chamb^r. — When they were Repairing the Church of Rochester they took down a Beam on w^{ch} was written 1004. — Sir Andrew Fountaine has a printed Book call'd Kalendarium Benedictinorum in 4 Vols. A most Curious, rare Book, & to be got into y^e Library. — Laurence Nowel a very learned Man & y^e first who 30 reviv'd the Saxon Language. Camd. in Cornwal. — In the same County Mr. Camden has [an] Inscription ... which he reads thus, Doniert rogavit pro anima, or if it be thought the 3 Pricks are the remains of an E Doniert erogavit pro anima. Dug up near St. Neots. Quære abt this Stone, & w^t Doniert this should be. There was one Dungerth a petty King of Cornwall who according to the Annals was drown'd An. 872. — Arundell the Family, call'd in Latin by some de Arundine, not improperly, Arundell signifying swallow in French, & their Arms are Sable, six swallows argent.—Whence a Dragon in the Banners of our English Kings, see Camden in the same place. Where may be consider'd the Roman 40 Eagle & y^e Danes Reafan. Quære whether Livy may be in any thing hence illustrated?

[Cicero and many other Latin Authors corrected in Graevius' Thesaurus (and throughout this volume passim).]

Dec. 29 (Sat.). . . . MS. Laud. F. 82. The Acts of the Apostles in Greek with a Latin Translation ad verbum in an opposite Column. A very old MS. in Capital Letters. At the End in a more modern Hand, but in Capitals also, is the Apostles Creed. From a Note there it appears to have formerly belong'd to the Dukes or Governors of Sardinia. . . . — When a new Edition of Herodian is undertaken Bockler's Edition at

Argent. 1662. must be consulted. At y^e End of his Notes he Defends the Version of Politian against y^e Corrections of Hen Stephens, w^{ch} Corrections some say the Oxford Editor has rec^d into y^e Latin Text. —
 1 Ptolemie's φάσεις ἀπλανῶν ἀστέρων, καὶ συναγωγὴ ἐπισημασίων, a Book never yet printed, but fraught with divers pieces of y^e Parapegmata both of Meton & Eudoxus; and wholly another thing from that w^{ch} goes under a like Name for Ptolemies, published at y^e End of some Editions of Ovid's Fasti. See Mr. Selden's Discourse conc. y^e Birthday of our Saviour p. 16. The said MS. w^{ch} was communicated by Sr. Hen. Savile to Mr. Selden is now in the Savilian Study at Oxford. — Abraham de Balmis translated a Book intituled Isagogicon Astrologiæ Ptolomæi, w^{ch} appears to be y^e same wth Geminus's Phænomena. See Mr. Selden ibid, who has some observations abt^t it.

An Exact Catalogue of all the Pieces in the MS^t Collection w^{ch} Sr. John Osborne lent Dr. Hudson.

— D^r. Hicks has put out a New Edition of his Private Devotions wth some Additions, & in y^e Preface I am told has made an Answer to some 10 Objections made ag^t some p^t of y^e Book. — I saw a Letter to day at y^e Master of University's Lodgings in MS^t from Beza to Archb^p. Whitgift dated Cal. Febr. 1593. Geneve. I suppose never yet printed. Quære. — Talking to-day wth M^r. Smith of University College, he seem'd to be of opinion y^t the Passage in Camden's Edition of Asser Men. relating to the University of Oxofⁿ is forged, & affirm'd y^t tho' M^r. Camden had establish'd a good Character of being an Honest Man yet he did not act fairly in this particular; because he did not tell y^t this Passage was omitted in the Edition of Archb^p. Parker, & notify whether in the MS^t he made use of it was in the Text, or in y^e Margin : w^{ch} is no Objection at 20 all, it being certain y^t M^r. Camden had no mind to engage in so useless a Controversy ; and his making no mention at all how it was written in the MS^t shews y^t twas in a continued Manner wthout breaking off or being added by a latter Hand. But he sufficiently vindicated himself afterwards to M^r. Twyne as I have insinuated in my Notes to St. John Spelman's Life of King Alfred. He also seem'd to disbelieve altogether y^e Story of Theodorus Archb^p. of Canterbury, w^{ch} however is not utterly to be rejected any more yⁿ several other stories w^{ch} are not confirm'd by undoubted Authority ; especially since there are divers Proofs from other things of y^e Truth of this, particularly from the Arms of the University
 30 of Oxofⁿ in the Church of Grekelade, (see Vol. immediate præcedens p. 142) a British Passage publish'd by M^r. Burman in the New Edition of D^r. Plot's Nat. History of Oxofⁿshire, & other Authorities, as I have shew'd in y^e foresaid Notes upon St. John Spelman.

There are several Copies of S^r. John Fortescue's Declaration in England. There is one in the Cottonian Library, another in the Bodlejan; but the latter is imperfect. M^r. Dodwell has a Copy accurately taken from that in Cotton's Library, and compar'd wth that in Bodley; and 20
M^r. Cherry has a fair Transcript from M^r. Dodwell's. M^r. Fortescue also I believe has another. . . .

Jan. 2, 1706 (Wed.). D^r. Adams Principal of Magd. Hall intends to build six Rooms & come to live in Oxon, intending now to keep Residence, which to His Eternal shame he has neglected ever since he was made Principal. — M^r. Will. Dobson is made President by the B^p. of Winchester of Trinity Coll in Roome of D^r. Sykes. This M^r. Dobson, who took his Master of Arts Degree Nov. 4. 1672, & had his Grace for Bach. of Divinity's Degree proposed & granted some years since (tho he is not yet presented to it) is an Honest Man & a good Scholar, who by his Prudence 'tis 30 hop'd will raise the Drooping Credit of y^t Society, w^{ch} formerly had men of Note in it, but now has not one. When He left his Fellowship M^r. Arthur Charlett succeeded him, of whom you may expect more anon. — Series Chronologica Olympiadum, Pythiadum, Isthmiadum, Nemeadum, Quibus veteres Græci tempora sua metiebantur. Per Guil. Lloyd, A.M. Episcopi Wigorniensis filium. Oxon. e Th. 1700. fol. This Piece was done for the better understanding of Pindar done by M^r. Rich. West & M^r. Rob. Welsted of Magd. Coll. with w^{ch} Edition 'tis commonly bound. But 'tis to be noted y^t tho' the same bears the name of M^r. Lloyd (who is lately made D^r. of Divinity by the Archb^p. of Canterbury's Diploma 40 upon his being denied by the University of Oxon as I have before related) yet the Author was the B^p. himself as I have been credibly inform'd. — As for y^e said Edition of Pindar tho' 'tis printed in a Good Letter & Paper, yet y^e Editors being careless & not much versed in old MSS. (a fault common to most of the Fellows & even others in Oxon) & being not withall diligent enough in collecting Materials & consulting Authors there are a great many Blunders in it, besides divers material Omissions to y^e no small Blemish of the undertaking. These Chronological Tables are printed also wth Pindar itself, w^{ch} came out at the Theatre in 1697, but being faultily printed there by the Negligence of the Compositor or 50 rather y^e Ignorance and carelessness of y^e Undertakers occasion'd this new Edition in 1700, w^{ch} is enlarg'd. — . . . M^r. Allemont of Trinity Coll. who has been twice return'd to the Visitor by the Fellows of Trinity Coll. for their President has for a great many years lived so obscure a Life in y^e College (confining himself to y^e College & never appearing at or doing any Exercise in the University) that 'tis a hard matter to know his just Character; yet this may be observ'd by the by, that when he was a Tutor he notoriously neglected his Duty as Dr. Wallis's son who was his Pupil has frequently told several Persons. Dr. Bathurst was so sensible of this, that to oblige him to leave off Pupils he made him his Curate at Garzington, w^{ch} Curacy he continu'd in 'till Dr. Sykes was made President. (He died in 1710, or else 1709. Quære?) — In the Theatre Yard is an Inscription to y^e Memory of Laodice Daughter of Seleucus Philopator the Son of Antiochus y^e Great & Wife of Perseus the last of y^e Macedonian Kings whom P. Æmylius triumph'd over, as is related by Livy. This Laodice is mention'd only in this Stone, & for y^t reason 'tis very valuable, & must be reprinted in y^e Notes to Livy. As printed in Marm. Oxon. 'tis thus : . . . Quære whether it be taken right?

Jan. 3 (Th.). . . MS. F. 83. Laud. Opusculum de Natura legis Naturæ & de ejus censura in successione regnorum supremorum, per D. Joan. Fortescue. N.B. A year or two since I saw and talk'd wth Mr. John Fortescue a Barrister of Law & descended from this most Learned & Judicious Sr. John Fortescue, who came on purpose from London to Oxford to look into certain MSS pieces of Sr. John, intending to Publish some if not all y^e Pieces he could procure not hitherto published. About 4 or 5 Years since at y^e Request of Mr. Alexander Denton, a Common-Lawyer, who was once Commoner of Edm. Hall, I transcrib'd out of Sr. Tho. Bodley's Library Sr. John's Piece in English De Dominio Politico & Regali, for y^e use, it seems of this Mr. Fortescue, who was put upon y^e Work by y^e Learned & Conscientious Dr. George Hickes. But I am now inform'd (but whether truly or no I cannot tell) y^t he has laid aside this Design¹. — Sagittarius de Janus Veterum. 80. The Scholiast of Aristophanes corrected there. pag. 105. — It must be noted that tho' Robortellus long since discovered Sigonius to be y^e Author of that Piece w^{ch} goes under y^e Name of Tully de Consolatione, & is now known to every one to be a spurious Piece, yet Br. Burnett has asserted (being ignorant of the matter & having no Judgment, or but very little in Tully's Style) that 'tis the best Piece that was ever writ by Tully. Tho' Robortellus writ several Pieces in opposition to Sigonius, yet Sigonius (as Grævius has well observ'd) much the greater Man, being more ingenious & of more solid Judgment: however there was one great Infirmary in Sigonius that he was not promptus linguæ, being not able to discourse in Latin with any one, w^{ch} was also observ'd in Morhofius, who was otherwise an ingenious & learned Man. — . . . In pag. 588. in Donatus's Descriptio urbis Romæ is the Columna Rostrata engrav'd wth the Inscription printed at large. Consider of this w^h Livy is printing.

Cardinal Woolsey. Quære whether it be exactly y^e same wth that newly printed by Dr. Drake? — Sr. Andrew Fountaine tells me y^t he found his Curious MS^t (the Heads whereof I have given above) in y^e Cellar of his Father's Study in the Middle-Temple, where he found a great many others, most of w^{ch} he says are valuable Rarities, & some whereof are now in his Hands, but the rest were spoyl'd. — Sir Andrew also tells me that after he had drawn up his Excell^t Dissertation conc. the Saxon Coyns, pr. at y^e End of Dr. Hickes's Thesaurus, he sent it up to the said Dr. Hickes that he might revise it; upon w^{ch} y^e Dr. drew up a Diss. of his own & sent it to Sr. Andrew, who however did not think fit to publish 10 it as the Dr. had done it, but printed it exactly as he had drawn it up himself, only wth this Alteration that whereas before he had said nothing of the Catalogue of MSS, he now added studio aut saltem auspicio viri istius Doctissimi, meaning Dr. Hickes, the said Dr. having put it in y^e Diss. he sent him studio & cura, intimating y^t he had been at y^e whole care and pains of doing this Catalogue, w^{ch} is pr. under Humph. Wanley's Name. — . . . Memorandum that Mr. Tanner has a MS^t of a Piece of Bale w^{ch} is for y^e Publick Library. (He hath since [sent] it thither. II. Preparatory Thoughts for Receiving y^e Holy Sacrament, Dedicated to y^e Lady Rich, & written by B^p. Gauden. 8^o. 'Tis written in a very neat 10 Hand, S^r. Andrew Fountaine says by the B^p. himself.

The Beginning—Opportunity being offered me of coming to the Holy Sacrament of the Supper of our Lord.—Quære whether this be not y^e very same Book with y^t w^{ch} goes under the Name of the B^p. call'd The whole Duty of a Communicant &c., whereof there are several Impressions, the first came out in 1681. 12^o. Ask S^r. Andrew whether there be any other Pieces of B^p. Gauden (who was his Great Uncle by y^e Mother's side, as I think he told me) in MS^t w^{ch} have not been printed? Ant. à Wood intimates there are, w^{ch} however he never saw.

III. Modus tenendi Parliamenti, in English. There are some things left 20 out, w^{ch} are in y^e Latin Copies, whereof there are divers, as M^r. Selden notes in his Titles of Honour, but he does not think the Treatise Ancient. 'Tis certain from the use of the Words Parliament, Baron and Justices of the Bench &c. y^t it must have been writ after y^e Reign of Hen. III^d. This English Copy (w^{ch} is in a Vellam 4^{to}) appears to have been written in the Time of Hen. VIIIth whose Effigies in two or three places is illuminated, w^{ch} shews illuminations to have been frequently us'd at y^t time all the great Letters at y^e Beginning of Chapters and Paragraphs in this Book being illuminated.

VII. An old Book of Pleas of y^e Crown in the time of Ed. 2. & Ed. 3. A large folio, in vellum.

- Vellejus Paterculus corrected by Rupertus in his Observatt. in Sallust. p. 152. — Died out of the Parish of White-Waltham Berks since April 20 14. 1705 to Dec. 17. 1705 [here follow the names of 22, 19 grown persons and 3 children]. — There is a Pamphlett come out of 6^d Price call'd A Letter to y^e Author of y^e Memorial, w^{ch} tho' it pretends to Wipe off the Slurs cast upon the Ministry of K. Wm. by y^e Memorialists, yet it blackens y^e Character of y^e Duke of Marlborough, reflecting upon his Management in last Campaign & insinuates y^t his Journey to Vienna was onely to pick up Presents, not out of a Design to obtain any Accommodation wth the Hungarian Rebels, or making the Emperor act wth more vigour & Life than he did last year. It also Reflects upon Mr. Secretary Harley &c. But the Author discovering thro' the greatest p^t
30 of y^e Letter y^t he is a Whig, he may Libell with Impunity. — Mr. Dodwell in his VIIIth Prælect. § x. tells us y^t Paul Petavius had prepar'd for y^e Press a Collection of Inscriptions, & y^t Is. Vossius transcrib'd thence the Fragments of the Libri Lintei whence Hadrian Beverland took a Copy, & communicated it to Mr. Dodwell, who has publish'd it wth Notes. Quære whether y^e said Collection of Inscriptions is like to be publish'd, or where 'tis now? — . . . Mr. Boyle in his Preface to his Examination of Dr. Bentley's Diss. upon Phalaris acknowledges that in his Edition of Phalaris he was assisted often by Mr. Friend (now second School Master of Westminster) the Director of his Studies, it being dition that Sr. Edw. should be mention'd as the Person who oblig'd the world wth it. W^{ch} Dr. Bentley neglected to inform Grævius of, & so it happen'd y^t Grævius knowing nothing of it's coming from Sr. Edw. dedicated it to Dr. Bentley, & attributed y^t Honour to him w^{ch} was due to Sr. Edw.
40 nothing but prudence for a Young Writer (or indeed any one else) to consult others who are suppos'd able to inform them when there is any Doubt. ¹ This day viz. Jan. 7. Dr. Mill treated wth his Venison & a dish of Fowle at his Chamber. Persons invited were Dr. Dunster Warden of Wadham, Dr. Royse Provost of Oriel, Dr. Colnet & Dr. Irish of All-Souls, Mr. Vermin of Exon Col., & Mr. Caswell the Beadle, & Mr. Sloper of Pembroke. But there were present only Dr. Colnet, Mr. Vermin, Mr. Caswell & Dr. Irish. Of all these Persons Mr. Caswell is a Man of the best Character for Zeal Probity & Honesty. — Rubenius's Book de Vita Mallij was communicated to Dr. Bentley by S^r. Edw.

Jan. 6 (Sun.). We hear several of y^e Persons, concern'd in Writing the Memorial, are discover'd and warrants out for seizing them. — Dr. Mill having by the Interest (as I suppose) of the Bp. of Worcester receiv'd a Present out of Woodstock Park of a Doe from the Dutchess of Marlborough, treated his Hall this day with a Haunch of it; but w^t is observ- 10 able (and w^{ch} is the reason I mention it) is that he did not give a glass of Wine or Ale to drink her Health, nor did he so much as mention her all the time he was at dinner. This same Dr. Mill when he was lately at Canterbury being at dinner wth a certain Gentleman, desir'd a Glass of Wine to be fill'd & drinking to y^e Gentleman said, come Sr here is the Archb^p's good Health. To w^{ch} the Gentleman said, Pray Sr w^t Archb^p do you mean? W^{ch} being an unexpected Question, after a short pause the Dr. in a low sneaking voice (as his way is upon such occasions) reply'd the Archb^p of Yorke, thinking 'twould have look'd like ingratitude if he had said Canterbury, when the Archb^p. of York was his Great Friend 20 in getting his Prebend for him.

Jan. 7 (Mon.). See pag. 138. — There is a great Contest at New College abt y^e Dysposal of a Sinecure, the Competitors being Mr. Loggans Chancellor of Sarum & Mr. Ford, M.A. & one of y^e Senior Fellows in orders of y^t College. This last is reckoned a good ingenious Honest Man, but y^e first a dully stupid Creature of y^e Bp. of Sarum's, of whom there goes this Story, that speaking one day abt y^e Different ways of spelling his Name, a certain Gentleman reply'd to him, that tho' y^e Spellings might differ in y^e End of y^e Word, some making it Loggen, some Loggin & others Loggan, yet 'twas remarkable y^t they all agreed 30 in y^e first syllable Log. — The Constitutions w^{ch} are attributed to the Archb^p. of Cant. in y^e year 1065 in St. Andrew Fountain's Book of Provincial Councils, & there said to have been made at Westm. seem to belong to Richard Archb^p. of Cant. who was created An. 1175 as appears not only from Hoveden & Ge[r]vase, but also from Birchington's Catalogue of Archb^ps in the first Vol. of Anglia Sacra, unless they are rather of Richard Wethersted, Archb^p. of Cant. sernamed the Great, who was consecrated in y^e Year 1229. — Josephus corrected by Mr. Dodwell, Praellect. p. 661. — . . .

This was given to the Archb^p. by Mat Griffith as appears from his Letter at y^e Beginning to his Grace, w^{ch} here follows :

10 Honoured Lord.

Your Graces many real Favours (so much transcending my desert and Expectation) have so wholly captivated me, that I can think of nothing but David's Quid retribuam? and yet having mustered up all my Forces to testifie my unfeigned thankfulness, I find my store to be but two poore Mites (my self, & this Manuscript) and these I willingly prostrate at your Grace's Feet, humbly craving your Gracious Acceptance of both. For howe're the one be in St. Paul's Quorum ego minimus, & so not worthy your least Consideration, much less your Countenance: yet by the Phrase & Tenets of y^e other, your Grace's peircing Eye will soon discerne, that it merits to be receiv'd, & reverenc'd for Antiquitie; & being a None-such in y^e Kind, vouchsafe it, I beseech you, some corner in your Librarie: Soe shall you confirme me in your Grace's good Opinion; & oblige me duly to pray that your Grace (than whom even Envie it self must ingenuously confesse that Christendome cannot shew in one person, either a Prelate more vigilant in the Church; or a Divine more powerfull in y^e Pulpit; or a Priest more Reverend at y^e Altar; or a Minister more faithfull to his King, and Country; or a more grave Counsellor of Estate; or a more just Magistrate on y^e Tribunal; or a more Resolute Defender of God's Cause; or a more Zealous promoter of good Works; or a more Angelical Life, unspotted of y^e Worlde & the Flesh; and enamell'd with all 30 saving Gifts & Graces;) may long and long continue, & encrease in Health and Happiness, on Earth; and have your Mitre seconded with a Crown of Glory in y^e Heavens. And in this posture rests

The Humblest of your Grace's Servants

Jan. 9 (Wed.). Mr. Wright Recorder of y^e City of Oxofⁱ is out of Favour with y^e Dutchess of Marlborough, the L^d. Wharton & other Great Persons at Court, because he did not appear for Mr. Carter last Election 50 for Burgess of Parliam^t for this City. This is no small Grief to him, being a Man who has all along acted out of self Interest, & meerly to get Preferm^t; to accomplish w^{ch} End he has stood firm to no side; but now experiences that notwithstanding his Cunning (for he is a Man of Parts & Policy) he is like to get nothing more than wth he has, the Whiggs themselves it seems hating men of shuffling, Latitudinarian Principles. — . . . Norris has illustrated a Coyn of Carausius, Diss. 1. fol. 22. Tristran Tom. 3. f. 379 mentions one of Carausius, on the Reverse whereof there is PAX AUG. C. Pax dextra Ramum, sinistra Hastam. — . . . Mr. Jones of Sunning-well near Oxoñ (Brother in Law to y^e Bp. of Worcester) has taken the Oaths, & qualified himself for y^e said Rectory of Sunning-well, after he has stood out for several Years. Jan. 11 (Fri.). [Notes from Graevius's Thesaurus. (153-160.)]

Jan. 12 (Sat.). Mr. Thwaites tells me y^t Mr. Addison's Book of travells w^{ch} he has read all over is not so contemptible, as most would make it, being (as he says) writ not only in a very clean handsome style, but with good skill, & contains several Curiosities, w^{ch} are not so clearly told by other Authors. At y^e same time he inform'd me y^t having lately ²⁰ read over Vitruvius, he found nothing hardly done to y^t excellent Author, & y^t 'twould be an Excell^t work for some fit Persous (for one Man is hardly able, considering y^e Variety of Learning in it) to undertake a New Edition. But alas! where are y^e Patrons to Encourage it in England? — . . . Sir Geo. Wheeler says (Pag. 23. Voyag.) y^t he went on purpose to Trau (a seaport Town belonging to y^e Venetians, situated ab^t 18 or 20 miles west from Spalato) to see a MS^t w^{ch} hath made much Noise among y^e Learned for it's Antiquity; viz. the Fragment of Petronius Arbiter w^{ch} was wanting in His works. This having not been seen for some Ages, was reckon'd a Spurious thing; & among others Mons^r. ³⁰ Valois esteem'd it fictitious: But Signior Lucia, & y^e Abbot Gradi at Rome were of y^e contrary opinion; the first of whom had undoubtedly seen y^e MS^t, Trau being his Native Country. Sir George tells us y^t y^e MS^t hath Tibullus Catullus & Propertius at y^e Beginning & not Horace, as is affirm'd by the Preface of y^e Paduan Edition. In Propertius is to be noted the Cognomen Nautae, that Scaliger taketh Notice of in his Notes. After this followed Petronius Arbiter, just as printed, the title whereof written in red Letter is as followeth: Petronius Arbiter Petronij Arbitri Satyri fragmentum ex Libro Quinto Decimo & Sexto Decimo. In w^{ch} among others the Cœna Trimalcionis is very amply related as it is ⁴⁰ printed at Padua, & in Holland. After w^{ch} in a more modern Hand is Claudian. The MS^t is eaten on y^e Edges pretty much wth worms, & discovers in every respect y^t tis a very venerable Piece of Antiquity; & y^e world need no longer doubt of y^e Genuiness of y^e Fragment. 'Twas then in y^e Hands of Dr. Statelius (a man of Parts & Learning, but sickly, however not a Young Man as he was with some ill nature & pride styled by Mons^r. Valois, being almost 3 score years of Age. — . . . Out of a Pap^r Dr. Hudson lent me w^{ch} he recd from Mr. Ibbetson Fellow of Oriel

Jan. 13 (Sun.). I saw today a Letter from Dr. Wake B^p. of Lincoln to y^e Master of University-College concerning another Volume of the English Historians not yet published. He tells him of several Authors of Value still remaining in MS^t later than any yet published, particularly another Book of Hemingford, or at least w^{ch} goes under his Name, w^{ch} he thinks is in Magd. Coll. Library, of good Note and would deserve the Light. Walter Coventre w^{ch} is in y^e Cotton Library might 10 be fit to begin such a Vol. but y^t he writes of the same times wth Mat. Paris; yet for all y^t y^e B^p. thinks good use might be made of him. For others he refers to M^r. Tanner. —

The States General, on y^e Battle of Blenheim, presented a Blank Bill of 50000 lib^s. besides Presents from Germany and Flanders, from Officers and others for Employ^{ts}, & y^e Profits on Exchange of Money, & by Safeguards, &c. The Estate of Woodstock is not reckon'd, because it cannot be yet known w^t it will cost to build & furnish a Palace there. The Emperor gave this year to y^e value of 50000 lib^s. besides w^t was presented by the King of Prussia, the Elector of Hannover, & other Courts. —

40 Mabillon in Iter Ital. Tom. 1. . . p. 188. tells us of some Excell^t Fragments of Livy preserv'd in y^e Library of y^e Cathedral Church of St. Martin at Luca. Jan. 15 (Tu.). XIV Caroli 2^di was made an Act for Regulation of 10 the Press, wherein was a short Clause relating to the Libraries of the King, and of the two Universities to give a Copy of every printed Book. When this Act was renewed in the Beginning of the Reign of King James, our Oxford Burgesses did then forget to renew a Material Clause, which had been engrossed in the abovesaid Act, which Clause was added in XVII^o. Caroli 2^di. And therefore we do entreat, That with the said Act may be renewed the said Clause, together with the Amendments, Paragraph the 2^d and 3^d inserted in the Roman Character, and especially that instead of Printers may be every where read Proprietors, blotting out the word Printer, and inserting Proprietor, with what follows it. 20

XVII^o. Caroli II. Cap. XV.

I. Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, &c.

II. Be it further Enacted. That from and after such a day &c. every Proprietor of Books and Maps and Charts and Cutts and Pictures, and all Prints whatsoever within the City of London, or in any other Place, except the two Universities, shall reserve 3 Printed Copies of the best and largest Paper of every Book & Map and Chart, & Cutt and Picture and of all Prints whatsoever now printed or reprinted by him wth Additions or Alterations; and shall before any publick Vending of the said Books or Mapps or Charts, or Cutts, or Pictures, or other Prints, bring them to the Master of the Company of 30 Stationers, and deliver them to him; one Copy whereof shall by the said Master of the said Company of Stationers, within ten days after he hath receiv'd the same, be delivered to the Keeper of his Majesty's Library; and the other 2. within the said ten dayes be sent to the Vice-Chancellor of the 2 Universities respectively, for the use of the Publick-Libraries of the said Universities.

III. And it is farther Enacted, That the Proprietors of Books and Maps and Charts, and Cutts and Pictures, and all Prints whatsoever in the said Universities and every of them respectively, from and after such a day &c. shall deliver one printed Copy as aforesaid, of every Book, or Mapp, or Chart, or 40 Cut, or Picture, or of all Prints whatsoever so new Printed or Reprinted, in the said universities, or in either of them, to the Keeper of his Majesty's Library, as aforesaid; as also to the Vice-Chancellor of either of the said Universities for the time being, two such other Printed Copies for the use of the Public Libraries of the said Universities respectively. prietors aforesaid, or the Masters of the Company of Stationers shall not observe the Direction of this Act therein, That then he or they so making Default in not delivering the said Printed Copies aforesaid, shall severally forfeit besides the value of the said Printed Copies, the sum of 5^l. for every Copy not so delivered; the same to be recovered by his Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and by the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of either of the said universities respectively; by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majestie's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoyn, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allow'd.

Jan. 17 (Th.). The Author of y^e Letter in Answer to The Memorial of y^e State of Eng. tho' he has been said to be a Jacobite or High-Churchman (because of his abusing the Duke of Marlborough, Mr. Secretary Harley, & others of the Fanatick Party in a most virulent manner) yet is discover'd to be Mr. Stephens a Benefic'd Clergy Man in Surrey, the same who sometime since preach'd a most notorious, Republican Sermon on y^e 30th of January, & is known to have associated himself all along with the Whiggs and Presbyterians. So that 20 now y^e Duke of Marlborough, & his Gang, may see (if they think fit) that the best way to live securely is to act fairly and Honestly, not to make y^e End thereof to get Wealth & Honour, when they are sure to be tax'd for it openly & in print by Men of their own Kidney. — In the 3^d vol. of Gronovius's Thes. Græc. the Votive Shield relating to Scipio Africanus explain'd, & Livy may be illustrated therefrom. See there in Letter n.

See Dr. Bentley ag^t Boyle p. 24. & remember to see that this Distinction be made in the Catalogue of the Public Library. — The Emperor is borrowing 200000^l. here w^{ch} is advancing by Subscription & a great Duke (as a Leading Card) has subscrib'd 30000^l others 12000^l & some Citizens of London very largely so y^t y^e Sum will soon
40 be compleat. — Letters from y^e Hague of y^e 22^d says that y^e Provinces of Guelderland Utrecht Frizeland Groningen & Overisle have approved of y^e Conduct of General Hangenburg last Campaign upon w^{ch} he has resumed the Command as General of the Infantry under Mons^r. de Overquirke w^{ch} no doubt Mr. Stephens will look upon as a sort of a Justification of his Pamphlett upon the Duke of Marlb. he laying a great stress upon y^t General's Letter to y^e States ab^t the Design of Attacking the French Army at Over Isch by reason his Account is something different from y^t sent to y^e States by his Grace but this won't save his Bacon if the Attorney General Atack him, for Scandal 50 is not to be justify'd (if it be so w^{ch} however is to be prov'd & 'twill be expected he should have a neat Answer made to his Paper) upon his Examination he readily own'd himself to be Author of the Book he was charg'd with & said it contained nothing ag^t Law or good Manners.

Jan. 19 (Sat.). In some Editions of y^e Genealogies set before y^e Bibles, there are pictur'd two Owles, holding either of y^m a burning Torch, w^{ch} signifieth y^t Mr. Hugh Broughton was Author, at least had y^e chief Hand and gave light to y^t Work. His Arms being a Chevron betw. three Owles. — B^p. Carleton in his Life of Bern. Gilpin (commonly call'd the Apostle of the North) says that this Mr. Broughton was bred up by the s^d Gilpin, & that he afterwards very ungratefully endeavour'd ¹⁰ to ruin him combining with some other of y^e Clergy of the B^prick of Durham for y^t Intent, but y^t this was luckily prevented. However this seems a very unlikely Story, there being nothing of it in Mr. Broughton's Life. Besides Broughton's Parents were rich & did not want any one's Exhibition to breed their Children, as appear'd from their Breeding one of their Sons to the Law who became so eminent in it as to be made a Judge. — Cybele was the Local Goddess of the Smyrnæans & is represented wth a Tower'd Head on y^e Coyns, on some of w^{ch} is at her feet a Lyon, & her left Hand upon a Cup, w^{ch} denotes Plenty of Wine in those Parts. Whence Pliny lib. xvi. § 1. M. Varro auctor est, vitem ²⁰ fuisse Smyrnæ apud Matroum biferam. Matroum is the temple (at Smyrna) of Cybele the Mother of the Gods. In the old Editions of Pliny 'tis Smyrnæ apud mare, w^{ch} Harduin from several good MSS^{ts} has corrected apud Matroum, & is confirm'd from Strabo lib. xiv. p. 646. where he tells us y^t Μητρώον was a Temple at Smyrna dedicated to Cybele the Mother of y^e Gods. — For y^e same reason also upon some Coyns of y^e Smyrnæans we have ΣΠΥΛΗΝΗ; not that this is a corrupt name of Cybele, but because she was styl'd so from Sipylus a Mountain of Lydia, as is plain from an Inscription in Spon. (Misc. Antiq. p. 350.) where are these words ΜΗΤΡΙ ΘΕΩΝ ΣΠΥΛΗΝΗ: which tho' some may ³⁰ think to refer to Magnesia, w^{ch} from its being near Sipylus was called Magnesia a Sipylo, (to distinguish it from another Magnesia ad Meandrum, or upon the River Meander,) yet the Inscription's being found at Smyrna, & the other p^{ts} of it relating to y^t City will not admitt of it. Besides too y^e Coyns w^{ch} have ΣΠΥΛΗΝΗ upon them have on the Front CMYPNAION. And w^t makes more to this purpose, in the Covenant preserv'd on the Marble at Oxoñ as well the Smyrnæans as Magnesians swear per Μητέρα Σιπυλήνην, w^{ch} shews that she was call'd Sipylene in both places. — There is a Statue of the Queen going to be plac'd in a Nitch of the Tower where the Great Bell hangs at X^t ⁴⁰ Church, being given by Mr. Secretary Harley. — A Gentleman today told me that at Silchester in Hampshire are frequently found great Numbers of Roman Coyns, as Mr. Camden also noted in his Time, observing that they were mostly Constantine Jun. The said Gentleman gave me one of the 2^d Magnitude in Brass, w^{ch} he says was found there. 'Tis of Nero, but the Letters on the Reverse are quite worn out, but there is a Military Figure with a Shield in the left Hand.

Upon this y^e next day one of y^e Leading Party came to him, and wonder'd y^t he should express himself after such a manner in his Sermon, telling him that y^e Archbp. of Cant. was of quite different Sentiments. To w^{ch} he reply'd, That he depended upon none, & resolv'd y^t he would not be under any one's Girdle. — Memorandum to inquire of Dr. Smith whether he knows how a Letter may be directed to Mr. Baynard, a non-juror, who has a Greek MS^t of Pappus, w^{ch} Mr. Halley wants? Wotton printed in his Remains p. 37. & call'd the Difference & Disparity betw. y^e Estates & Conditions of Geo. D. of Buck. & Rob^t. E. of Essex. I have been told y^t notwthstanding this, in the latter Editions of y^e Remains 'tis really ascrib'd to y^e Earl of Clarendon & said to be written by him in his Younger Days. But Quære? — . . . lately found in Waycock in y^e Parish of Lawrence Waltham in Berks. Try to get this. It may give some light into y^e Antiquities of the place. — Consider Mr. Dodwell's Account of Clisthenes, whom he compares to Brutus. Jan. 25 (Fri.). In the Publick Library among Mr. Selden's Books in B. 1. 5. Th. Seld. is an imperfect Copy of the first English Translation of the Bible, w^{ch} is valuable not only for it's Antiquity but for 10 divers Divine Notes in the Margin written by the most virtuous Xtian Lady Dame Ann Greie Wife to St. Hen. Grei Knt. & Grandmother to the R^t. Honble. Henrie Earl of Kent, who caus'd the Book for y^t reason to be new Bound in Novemb. 1598. — Alegambe in his Bibliotheca Scriptorum Societatis Jesu does not mention Leycester's Commonwealth among Father Parson's Writings, w^{ch} I see no reason he should not, if Parsons had really been y^e Author of it. — . . . 'Tis said some Great Men have given Bayle upon Mr. Stevens the Printer's appearing Evidence against them, in relation to the Memorial of y^e C. of Eng. — Joan. Croij Observatt. in Novum Test. . . See there ab^t Livy's Patavinity in c. 34. —
 20 . . . In the Roman Edition of y^e Septuagint, among Mr. Selden's Books in Bib. Bodl., are several MS^t Notes, w^{ch} will be of good use to Mr. Grabe or any one else who engages in a new Ed. — . . . This ¹day (being St. Paul's Convers.) the Ceremony of founding the new Building in Peckwater Quadrangle at X^t Church was perform'd, when the Earl of Salisbury, & other Noble-men of X^t Church were pleas'd each of them to lay a stone, on some of w^{ch} were Inscriptions & particularly on that w^{ch} was laid by my Lord Salisbury a Copy whereof follows.

Jacobus | Comes Sarisburiensis | hunc lapidem locavit | gratitudinis suæ & gaudij testem | quod ipse dum hæc surgerent mœnia | sub auspicijs decani |
 30 eorundem Architecti, | optime de se meriti, | feliciter adolesceret. | Præceptoribus usus Antonio Alsop & Johanne Savage A.M.M. | Quorum dulcem memoriam tam conservari | voluit quam suam.

Jan. 24. Dr. T. Smith to H. Severe remarks on Grabe. 'I have read over Mr. Addisons travells and like them wel enough. The Criticks here have passed a very severe, and oftentimes too, a very unjust censure upon the impropriety of his style, and the meannes of his observations: w^{ch} are agreeable to the poetical genius of the Author, who has blemished his booke by his large and numerous citations of the old Roman Poets, tho' the descriptions of the same places given by Livy and other Historians cited by him had been a more pertinent and advantageous fault. But this spoiles the series of his narrations, and notwithstanding the elegance of the language, wit, and phansy, with their equally elegant translation into English verse, instead of delighting, does nauseate and disgust the Reader.' Advises H. to find whence the Table of the Bacchanalian Laws was derived. Notes on Pappus; Books I and II, which are wanting in Greek, are extant somewhere in Arabic. Mr. Jones is utterly ignorant of medals; they are merely put in his hands to dispose of. Is there any mention in Gaddius De Scriptoribus Florentinis of Franciscus Puccius, admitted into Dee's diabolical society during his stay at Prague? if so, please send list of his books. Asks for a copy of Junius' eulogium on Usher in his edition of Cædmon's Paraphrasis Poeticæ Geneseos (Amsterdam, 1655).

And as this signal Act of Piety was done on this Festival, so (to shew the great Respect this Noble Society of X^t Church has to her Majesty,) the day before they fixed her Statue in a Nitch of the Great Tower where the large Bell Hangs, being done (as I have intimated above) at y^e Cost & Charges of Mr. Harley.

Jan. 26 (Sat.). Labyrinthus Cantuariensis, or Doctor Lawd's Labyrinth. By T. C. Par. 1658. B^p. Barlow was told his Name was Spencer. Quære? — St. Jeff. Jeffreys, being wth Mr. Secretary Harley, told him, that he thought he could tell from what corner the Memorial came. Mr. Secretary hearing this, desir'd he would inform him: to 10 whom he reply'd that he did not doubt but it came from y^e Whiggish Party & Low Church Men, & was writ by them on purpose to throw the odium on y^e Honest part of y^e Nation. — . . . The Terme beginning on Tuesday several Persons bound over for Writing & Printing appeared upon y^eir Recognizances and amongst y^e rest Mr. Stephens y^e Parson of Sutton for writing the Scandalous Lybell upon his Grace y^e Duke of Marlborough & Mr. Secretary Harley. He appeared not in His Canonical Habit but in a grey Riding Coat wth a Whip in His Hand & look'd very bluff; but y^e Attorney General has orders to prosecute him. One Straghan a Bookseller is taken into Custody of a Messenger upon the Information 20 of Edwards y^e Printer not y^t he accused him of being concerned in y^e Memorial of the Ch. of Engl. but y^t ab^t 3 years agoe he printed a Book for him intitled De Aris & Focis the Copy of w^{ch} was in y^e same Hand as y^t of y^e Mem. & therefore there is strong Presumption y^t he must know y^e Author of it. but he's not so ingenuous as to confess. — . . . Dr. Mill and y^e other 5 who went with him to Woodstock to wait on y^e Duke of Mariborough & his Dutchesse (who it seems was there too) were so poorly rec^d y^t they had certainly din'd wth Duke Humphrey had not they put in at a House, where a dinner was provided at their own Expence. It seems the Dutchesse expected the University should have complemented 30 the Duke, & therefore when these Gentlemen came to the House, the servant who was there to wait, ask'd whether they were sent by the University; & understanding they were not, the Reception was order'd accordingly. — . . . Jan. 27. 1706 (Sun.). The Master of University Coll. communicated to me this Morning two other Inscriptions put upon two Stones laid yesterday at X^t Church, w^{ch} here follow :

— They cannot find out y^e Author of y^e Memorial. All y^t affects Sr. Humph. Mackworth, Mr. Poley, & Mr. Ward is y^t 150 of 'em as soon as printed off were sent to y^e first as many to y^e 2^d & 100 to y^e last. —

Out of a Letter of Mr. Rowney to Dr. Charlett.

- 10 As to your Friend Stephens he stands to his Book & gives defiance and believes neither y^e Duke of Marlb. or Robin (Harley) will prosecute him. He says the Secretarys are in the Dark ab^t the Author of the Memorial of the Ch. of Engl. & do not know who to fix it on. —

Out of a Letter from the Vice Chanc. to y^e Master of Univ. Col.

The Queen is laid up wth y^e Gout: she has order'd Stephens to be prosecuted, who had y^e Impudence when he was taken to say, that he believ'd Robin Harley would not prosecute him; if he did, that he knew how to pull an old House upon his Head; & y^t he thought the Duke of Marlborough would not neither, but if he did, y^t he knew w^t to say to him too. —

- 20 Dr. Mill, who was one of those that went to wait upon y^e Duke of Marlborough at Woodstock to complement him for a poor piece of Venison w^{ch} the Dutchess, without the Duke's Privy, sent to y^e Whiggish Heads of Houses, slyly left his Company & went to his Parsonage at Bletchington, & the next Morning borrowing a Couple of Horses went early to attend his Grace's Levee, & let him know who he was (for it seems his Grace knew not one of those Persons who were the day before to wait upon him) viz. a Tutor some years ago to his Youngest Brother, who was Commoner of Queen's Col. & took y^e Degrees of Bach. & Master of Arts & entred into H. Orders on purpose to have
- 30 some great Preferment w^{ch} was design'd for him; but he dy'd of a Consumption before it fell. It must be further noted y^t y^e Duke, understanding that these Persons were not sent by the university (but came of their own Accord) receiv'd them after a slight manner, as is before noted, and styl'd them a Body of Divinity, & to inliven their stupid Whiggish Clay sent them half a Dozen Bottles of Wine to a Little Inne at Woodstock, where they were content to be slenderly accommodated: and to make amends for this poor Entertainment Dr. Royse (who was one of them) invited those that return'd wth him to refresh themselves at his Lodgings as soon as they got home. — I rec'd the
- 40 following Acc^t conc. Mr. Grabe from his Intimate Friend Dr. Hudson, viz. He was put into orders by the Bp. of Worcester, at his Palace (as Dr. H. believes) at Worcester or Harilebury; but whether the Bp. gave him the Sacram^t at his Ordination or not he does not remember. But the Dr. one day asking him y^e Reason why he did not receive the Sacram^t at X^t Church, he gave him these reasons. (1) He acknowledg'd that he did not think it unlawfull to receive the Sacrament as we do according to y^e Form in y^e English Liturgy. (2) He always receiv'd the Sacrament from a Scotch Episcopal Nonjuring Minister, who administer'd it to him and some others in the Form of y^e Scotch Liturgy,
- 50 drawn up by Archbp. Laud, thinking it much better upon this Acc^t, that it was more agreeable to King Edward the VIth's Liturgy, w^{ch} he judg'd was alter'd for y^e worse in Q. Elizabeth's time, upon the Suggestion of some Calvinistical Forreign Divines. This Alteration made in y^e Liturgy was the Taking away the Oblation or Sacrifice of Bread & Wine before Consecration, & turning it into a Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving after Consecration. Which opinion of his he defends & justifies by the Authority and reasons of Mr. Mead in some places of his Works. The said Dr. likewise told me, that he fully believ'd he was intirely an Enemy to the Gross Errors of Popery, & believes him to be a man of that Honesty & Integrity that he did not scruple to lend him 10 a rool. upon his Bear note to support him under the Expenses he is in preparing the Septuagint for the Press. — He likewise told me that Mr. Grabe went 4 or 5 times a year to London purposely to receive y^e Sacrament, w^{ch} he says he did, not because he thought our Liturgy unlawfull, but because he thought it better to receive according to y^e Form of Archbp. Laud, as long as he had an opportunity of it's being administer'd to him, in y^t Form. — It must be remembred that Dr. Hudson who (to his immortal Honour) had contributed both Money & Books to y^e New Library at Hart-Hall did likewise, ab^t two Months before the Pulling down of Peckwater at X^t Church, voluntarily & y^e 20 first Man of all, after Dr. Radcliffe, (who left by his last Will above 2000 lib^s. for the Rebuilding that Court,) subscribe 20 Guineas to carry on the Work when it should begin. He formerly gave 10 lib^s. to the finishing of the Chapell of University College, & 5 lib^s. to the New Wainscoting of y^e Common Room, & (as I am very well inform'd) has 50 lib^s. ready to give to y^t College whereof he is Fellow in order to purchase a Living. — Mr. Charles Harris an Attorney has given 20 lib^s, & Mr. Dingley Fellow of Corpus, & Mr. Thwaites of Queen's have subscrib'd each of them 10 Guineas for y^e abovesaid Design of Rebuilding Peckwater. — This morning Dr. Aldrich the most Worthy 30 Dean of X^t Church, & Noble Patron of Learning, preach'd in the Cathedral at X^t Church before the University, taking his Text from Matt. 3. vers. 2. Repent &c. From w^{ch} he explain'd very clearly the Nature of Repentance, in opposition to some Heretical Notions of the Novatians & others, particularly ab^t the Sin against the Holy Ghost, &c. — To be got into y^e Publick Library, Hierome Vignier. La veritable origin[e] de la Maison d'Austriche, de Lorrain, de Bade, & de Quantité des Autres. à Paris. — Dr. Eaton writ a Discourse of ab^t a sheet on Peonick verse, w^{ch} was his first publish'd Work, tho' never printed. (forsan non meruit). He also gather'd various Lectons to y^e Cambridge 40 Horace put out by Talbot in 4^o. His 2^d. Work. He likewise collated Catullus Tibullus & Propertius for y^e use of the Cambridge Editor. Occidit pendente opere. — Mr. Thwaites (as himself tells me) has y^e sd Discourse of Peonick verse, & designs to publish it.

Jan. 28 (Mon.). To shew the Ignorance and Negligence of y^e Cor-rector of y^e Catalogue of MSS^{ts} there is a good Instance in the MSS^{ts} of Queen's College, where num. the 16. the Beginning of Hugucio Pisanus's Dictionarium Etymologicum is thus printed, Augeo, ges, xi. clum, clu, w^{ch} should be Augeo; ges, xi, ctum, ctu. — . . . Dr. Hudson Being last night with y^e Provost of Oriel Col. & talking by chance of y^e 50

Illness of y^e B^p. of Gloucester, the Provost told him y^t he fancied Dr. Mill was y^e likeliest of any Oxford Man to succeed him. For w^{ch} he gave this Reason, viz. that the Court having resolved to prefer no High-Church-Men, especially of this university, he could not think of any Man so likely to have it as Dr. Mill; for as to his Part he was resolv'd not to take it if offer'd him, and he thought the Warden of Wadham could not take it because he was a poor beggarly Fellow & not able to pay y^e First Fruits: so y^t there remain'd none but Dr. Mill who is known to be rich, and of thorough pac'd Moderate Principles. — The same Dr. Hudson 10 was told this Morning by Dr. Edzard, Minister of y^e German Lutheran Church in London, that y^e Prince of Denmark had turn'd off his Chaplain (Dr. M.) the reason whereof was as followeth. When y^e Prince of Denm. was made L^d. High Admiral of England he was oblig'd to take y^e Sacrament after y^e Manner prescrib'd by y^e Ch. of England, after which he offer'd to communicate with y^e Lutherans, w^{ch} his Chaplain honestly told him was an unjustifiable Practise, & that he was oblig'd to stick to y^e communion of y^e church of England, or y^t of the Lutherans; and y^t 'till he renounc'd all Communion with the Church of England he could not administer the Sacrament to him in their Church; for y^t he 20 look'd upon such occasional Conformity to be a matter of great scandal, & never heard of in any Christian Church till within these few Years here in England.

Jan. 29 (Tu.). . . There is just publish'd Athenagoras's two Discourses, viz. Apologia pro Xtiants & de Resurrectione mortuorum, Gr. Lat. printed at the Theatre, in 8^o. To w^{ch} are added Notes & various Readings, by Edm. Dechair A.M. of Linc. Coll. What disgusts most buyers is that the Editor has swell'd the Book with all the Notes y^t have been written professedly upon it, a thing w^{ch} some judicious Men advis'd against when first propos'd to be printed. But Dr. Mill being the chief Manager of y^e 30 Edition, he would have it done in the same manner as y^e Edition of Tatian; tho' 'twould have been more acceptable & usefull if Tatian, Athenagoras and Theophilus Antioch. had been printed all together in 8^o, w^{ch} if well done would have made no bigger a Volume than one of these now make. The Editor has spoken well of Mr. Worth in the Preface (as likewise of Dr. Mill) who communicated the Lections of the Paris & Eton MS^{ts} to him. These of the Eton MS^t are y^e very same Lections w^{ch} were made ab^t 6 years since, when I purposely went over to y^t Place to meet Mr. Worth to assist him in the Collating the MS^t. How correct y^e Edition is I can say no more, than y^t the Editor took so little 40 care about it, that tho' the Notes of the Persons who had writ professedly upon Athenagoras were very faulty, & in divers places nonsense, particularly the Quotations made from Antient Authors, occasion'd by the Carelessness of y^e former Printers & the Absence of the Authors themselves, yet he transcrib'd them exactly as he found them, not taking pains to compare them with the Original Authors. This I know, because divers sheets were brought to me in the Publick Library, where I look'd some places over, & corrected a great many considerable & material Faults & do verily believe that there are some Thousands in y^e Book, & y^t 'tis the most faulty Edition y^t ever came yet from y^e Theatre Press.

As to the Notes that are new added, they are in a great Measure owing to Mr. Potter, Tutor to y^e Editor; not but that Mr. Dechair is able to have put out a correct Edition, if he had taken Pains; but this he has not done, & by that means has impos'd upon the World. For I am sure y^t if he had consulted good Books he would have light upon considerable Observations, not taken notice of by any Profess'd Annotator as yet, w^{ch} would have adorn'd the Work, & have gain'd him Credit. — Mr. Wase began a Translation into English of Vitruvius's Architecture, whereof there are two Sheets printed off as a Specimen containing y^e Preface to Augustus & y^e 1st Chapter of y^e first Book, wth some small 10 marginal Notes. Folio.

Jan. 30 (Wed.). The Great Health now is the Cube of three, w^{ch} is the number 27, i. e. the Number of the Protesting Lords. — This Day, being the Martyrdom of King Charles 1st, there preach'd at St. Mari's before y^e University Mr. Wiles of St. John's College, taking his Text from Revel. II. 10. Be thou faithfull unto Death, and I will give thee a Crown of Life.

Which Words tho' directed particularly to y^e Church of Smyrna, w^{ch} with the other Asiatick Churches was violently oppos'd by Avouch'd Enemies to Christianity, yet may be applied to all other Christian Churches, & contain in them an Exhortation and a Motive. The exhortation is to stand firm to the Faith in opposition to all our Enemies, and constant Adhæssion to it even to Death, w^{ch} we of this Nation ought to do above all other People, y^e Church of England being the best Church in y^e World, whether consider'd in it's intrinsic worth, or in the Influence it has upon y^e State, For as to y^e former, 'tis certain y^t it's Liturgy & all the Doctrines injoyn'd by it are the nearest of any other to those of the Primitive Church, the Church of Rome transgressing in divers gross Ceremonies & Innovations, & the other Reformed Churches on the other Hand erring in throwing off such Ceremonies as are decent, & were in use in the most early times, & some of them in not admitting of Episcopacy, 30 w^{ch} yet is well known to be an Apostolical Establishment. And as it excels if consider'd in it's intrinsic Worth, so also does it upon account of y^e Influence it has upon the State, nothing being more plain than y^t if the Church be destroy'd the State must sinck wth it, w^{ch} made King James 1st say, no Episcopacy no King; & for the same Reason the Presbyterians & the other Fanaticks cut off Archb^p. Laud's Head before they could have their Power over the Good King who suffer'd upon this Day, well knowing that so long as he liv'd, who was such a support to and Defence of the Church, they could not Effect their Designs upon that Good Prince, & y^t y^e surest way of Destroying the State was first to ruine the Church. Mr. Wiles having ingeniously & judiciously made out y^e Intire Dependence of y^e State upon y^e Church, & how 40 both are inseparably united together, address'd himself particularly to y^e Members of it, exhorting them to be constant & resolute in defending it, & even suffering for it, imitating their Martyr'd Sovereign, who did not only stand up for it by Pen & Sword, but even when thro' the obstinacy of his Enthusiastical Enemies he was not able to conquer them, patiently submitted to the Block, for w^{ch} there is no doubt he is rewarded with a Crown of Life, that being the Motive for all such to act as he did, & w^{ch} Mr. Wiles insisted on in y^e next place, w^{ch} he shew'd they could not expect who were Friends to y^e Church no longer than they saw suited with their present Interest, & would 50 for Preferment desert it, & close with them who were it's profess'd Enemies, a thing too notorious at this time.

Mr. Thwait's tells me y^e Dean of X^t Church formerly drew up an Epitome of Heraldry for y^e use of some Young Gentlemen under his Care, but y^t he has no Copy now, all of them being got from him, & he does not know where to have one. He says 'twas done very well, & y^e best in its nature ever made. — Justin illustrated in Gevarius's notes upon Statius pag. 48. Dr. Hudson has y^e Book. Pliny's Paneg. explicat. ib. p. 206 . . . Look over Rupertus upon Florus in y^e P. Library, & Kuhnus upon Aelian. . . Quaere about Tauromenium? Jan. 31 (Th.). Out of y^e Letters dat. Jan. 29 w^{ch} came last Night I hear Sr. Geo. Rook is lately married to a Daughter of Sr. Tho. Knatc[h]-

 10 bull of Kent. — Last week Sr. Francis Russel of Strensham in Worcestershire departed y^s Life in this City & this Morning was carried into y^e Country to be interr'd as was Mr. Hill one of y^e Commissioners of the Navy who dyed some days past. On Thursday last y^e E. of Dorset & Middlesex dyed at y^e Bath. 'Tis s^d he has left 1500^{li} per An. to his Lady besides his personal Estate. On y^e other Hand several great Marriages will be in a few days consummated as y^t of his Grace y^e D. of Beaufort wth Madam Noell, y^e L^d. Bruce wth Madam Seville & y^e L^d. Scudamore wth Mad^m Digby all Ladys of Great Fortunes. — This day one Sheers Serv^t of Sr. H. Mackworth taken into Custody of a 20 Messenger ab^t y^e Affair of y^e Memorial bro^t his Habeas Corpus & was admitted to Bail. Mr. Straughan taken into Custody upon the same Acc^t has bro^t also his Habeas Corpus. — Just now meeting with an Honest ingenious Country Gentleman at y^e Coffee-House, (with two others in Company,) he told me y^t he was well acquainted with Mr. Sheers, above mention'd, and assur'd me y^t the whole design of taking him & y^e rest into Custody was only to pump and Fish some things out of them, with a design, if possible to fix the Memorial on Sr. Humph. & some other Honest Gentlemen. — Consider w^t Dr. Beniley says ab^t Susarion from the Chronicon Marmoreum, p. 205. of his Answer to 30 Boyle. & compare the passage wth the Marble itself. He quotes Dr. Mill ab^t reading y^e Marble, & says that he assur'd him, 'twas exactly as he conjectur'd it should be. But Dr. Beniley should first have rec^d the Dr^s Reading from y^e Stone before he had offer'd his conjecture. But if he had not, there is enough to object ag^t Dr. Mill's reading of Marbles, for a Correction of his in one of these Volumes. — Consider also another part of y^t Marble insisted on by Dr. Beniley ibid. p. 231. ab^t Thespis's being the first Tragoedian.

Feb. 1. Hudson to H. Have we Col. Trajana; if so, has it any explication of the figures? Have we a folio in Old English writ by John Bochas or Boccace?

at Christ-Church Library a most curious Book in 8^o. written by M^{rs}. Hesther English, & containing the Psalms of David. Before w^{ch} is her Picture. There are exactly the same Hands in it with that of the Proverbs of Solomon, written by the same Lady, w^{ch} is in the Publick Library, w^{ch} has also her Picture before it. But w^t is further remarkable in this at X^t Church is that 'twas Queen Elizabeth's own Book (presented to her perhaps by the Ingenious Lady her self) who from a note (w^{ch} for w^t reason I know not is scratch'd out) at y^e Beginning seems to have given the Book to the Library herself. W^{ch} is not at all improbable, being it may be mov'd to it upon Acct^t of her Father who finish'd the Foundation ¹⁰ here begun by Cardinal Wolsey. At the same time I saw a thin Folio Mst Book, w^{ch} was cardinal Wolsey's & is most curiously illuminated. But time being short I could not have y^e Perusal of it. Likewise were shew'd to me some other Curiosities, as divers Coyns Greek, Roman and English, & amongst Natural Rarities a strange stone taken from a Man by Dr. Willis. — Dr. Charlett has a Cabinet (w^{ch} stands in a Room on the East side of his Study, & upon it the Head of the famous Ant. à Wood in Plaister de Paris) wherein is a Collection of Antient Roman Coyns, put in order (as the Dr. says) by Mr. Elstob and Mr. Wanley. But the Dr. (who is otherwise forward enough to shew things) being not ²⁰ willing to give any one a sight of them (tho' he has often been desir'd by some curious Gentlemen, particularly by the Excell^t Sr. Andrew Fountain) it makes some Persons suspect that Wanley (when he belong'd to it) stole them from the Collection in the Publick Library, where he did w^t he pleas'd, Dr. Hyde being infirm and not able to look after y^t place so well as he should. — Dr. Kennett's Sermon before y^e House of Commons (as 'tis said) was suitable to y^e Occasion on y^e 30th of Jan. & was much different from w^t he preach'd formerly upon y^e same Occasion. — Dr. Atterbury preach'd before y^e L^d. Mayor &c. a High-Church Sermon w^{ch} was much commended. 30

Feb. 2 (Sat.). This day being the Purification preach'd before y^e University at St. Mari's Mr. Woodford of New-College, upon Mat. v. 5. . . .

Having stated the Nature of Meekness in opposition to Anger, he proceeded to shew that the Meek man possesses all temporal Advantages: as 1. He is well belov'd. 2. He will take advice, finds Friends to give it him, & has a quick Apprehension to know when good Advice is given him. 3. He is steddly and fix'd in all his Actions, and 4^{thly}. is never troubled with Anger & those other Passions w^{ch} are the Effects of it. After he had made out each of these, he answer'd an Objection taken from Experience, namely that y^e Meek man ⁴⁰ oftentimes does not inherit the good things of this Life. As first the Text is not to be taken in so large a sense as to extend to every particular Man. 'Tis sufficient if Meek men generally enjoy these Blessings. 2. The meek man is rich if he be contented with w^t he has. 3. Some men appear to be meek who really are not so. 4. Perhaps a man may be meek and yet want some other necessary Qualifications w^{ch} should entail y^e Blessings on him. W^{ch} done he concluded wth a motive to y^e Duty.

w^{ch} are these Notes by Dr. Wallis:

Liber Universitatis Oxoniensis inter Archiva reponendus; ex dono Mosis Pitt, Bibliopolæ Londinensis, 31 Januarij 1648. Primus omnium liber qui vulgo perhibetur fuisse impressus, est, Ciceronis Officia; Moguntia, Anno Domini 1465. Hic autem, qui dicitur Hieronymi in Symbolum Apostolorum, (sed est Ruffini potius) impressus & finitus Oxonia Anno 1468. 17 Decembris, (non nisi triennio postquam ille primus;) Baker, in Historia sua perhibet Artem Typographicam, Londinum advectam esse anno 1471, & in Abbatia Westmonasteriensi, primo exercitam fuisse, a Caxtono quodam, (eodem cujus opera Oxoniam pridem advecta fuerat, ut qui Curcelleum quendam typographum ab Harlemo huc invitaverat.) Nescio tamen an ullus extet antiquior 10 Codex Londini impressus quam est Caxtoni Chronicon Anno 1480.

This Book, (the outer Margin being cut away more at y^e side than at the Top and Bottom; & because it hath 8 Leaves in one Signature, or Letter, as A, B, C, &c.) appears like a large octavo: But is indeed a small Quarto, with two Sheets in one Signature, and one Sewing: As appears, both by the Rules in the Paper, which do not ly from Top to Bottom (as in Folio's and Octavo's) but cross the Page, from side to side, (as in Octavo's and Decimo-Sexto's:) And by the Mark of y^e Paper; which is to be seen, (near to the Sewing,) not at y^e Top of y^e 20 Page (as in Octavo's) but near the Middle of it, as in Quarto's. As for instance, in the leaves signed, a i. a iij. b, i. b, iiij. c, ii. c. iii. c. iiiij. d. ii. and (those wth answer to them) a 8. a 6. b 8. b 5. c 7. c 6. c 5. d 7. (whence also it appears to be printed by Half-Sheets: for c hath the Mark oftener, and d seldomer, than for two Sheets: that having three Half-Sheets marked, & but one unmarked; this one marked, and three unmarked. The Signature e hath five Half Sheets (or 2½ Sheets;) of which e iij, e v, (and those answering to them e 6, e 7,) are marked; the other three half Sheets, being unmarked. The Custome being then, (as now it is) to set the Mark of the Paper in each Sheet, in the Middle of one 30 of the Half-Sheets, & not of the other. — In Brazen-nose College Library there is a Parchment Book in folio, printed at Oxford A.D. 1481. viz. At the End of it are these words printed: Impressum per me Theodoricum Wod de Colonia in Alma universitate Oxofii Anno Incarnationis Dominicæ M.CCCC.LXXXI. xi die mensis Octobris. Another copy of this same Edition is in Oriel College Library. — Inter MSS. Laud. Feb. 5 (Tu.). I am told by a very good Hand y^t y^e Oxford Almanack is now in Consideration before y^e H. of Lords & y^t Bennett y^e Book-seller has sent to Mr. Hall to send up to London wthout fail an hundred of them. — The Master of University College shew'd me a Petition of y^e Clergy to y^e Queen (Q. Eliz.) desiring y^t she would be pleas'd, in her princely Wisdom, to take Care y^t all Impropropriations be restor'd to y^e Church, w^{ch} they do not question she will do since she has promis'd to be so great a Friend to it, particularly when she came first to y^e Crown, 50 & at y^e same time the B^{ps} offer towards her Necessity certain Sums, provided they may be restor'd to them again, when the Crown shall happen to be enrich'd, viz.

In the same Paper were added Considerations why Bishops Temporalities should not be taken away. — There is come out a Half Sheet
 10 Printed on one side The Oxford Almanack Explain'd, with the Reverse of y^e same. I saw at y^e same time a Letter from Dr. Edwards to y^e Master giving him an Account of an Answer, some pt of the Lower House of Convocation had made to a Protestation of the other part, with a Declaration wherein they insist upon their Rights in Opposition to y^t Party, & the upper House, w^{ch} he says are very well penn'd, tho' being long he could not send a Copy. Dated Feb. 1st. — A Letter likewise from Dr. Smalridge dat. Feb. 2. abt y^e same Matter, and particularly that Dr. Cawley said not one word in opposition to the Answer or Declaration, tho' he be known to be a Low-Church-Man, & 'tis
 20 thought he was sent as a spy at this time. — The Almanack he says explain'd in a Jacobite sense. — A Letter also from Mr. Percival upon y^e same Acc^t, wherein he farther says that Dr. Cawley was the more taken notice of upon Acc^t of his Being one of the Protestors. That no Body knows what will be y^e Fate of y^e Regency Bill for y^t y^e Lords have so amended y^e Amendm^t of y^e Commons y^t by w^t he understands by y^e Conversation he has it wont go down. &c. The Romans believ'd their Emperors to be Gods more firmly than any others said to be so because they were visible whereas y^e rest never appear'd. Vide Val. Max. Pref. ad Tiberium.

Feb. 6 (Wed.). I am told That in the first Edition of one of Erasmus's Pieces, the title de viduitate or castitate conservanda, or something like it, there is a most scandalous fault, much to the Disgrace of 50 Erasmus, tho' not to be laid upon him. It seems y^e Correcter of y^e Press, being not very well pleas'd with his pay, or else expecting some extraordinary Pay to drink with, w^{ch} Erasmus was not willing to give, he was resolv'd to be reveng'd, & accordingly in the Dedication, w^{ch} was to some great Lady, before y^t Sheet wherein 'twas wrought off instead of mentulae castissimae he most maliciously put mentulae castissimae. Quære?

Feb. 7 (Th.). I heard Dr. Miles Stapylton (who was formerly Fellow of All-Souls Coll., Tutor to y^e Duke of Grafton, Chaplain to y^e Ld. Jersey when Ambassador in France, & Minister of * * * *, near Henly, & Author of the English Translation of the Life of Caius Marius, printed in y^e 3^d Vol. of Plutarch's Lives,) say yesterday that when he was at Paris, he made a visit to Father Simon (lately deceas'd) whom he 10 found in a small Hut surrounded with Books, without any Fire, tho' a very cold day, being us'd to fortifie himself against weather by several Caps upon his Head, a thick Robe, and a large leathern Girdle. After some usual Complements, they enter'd into Discourse about Learning & Learned Men, & happening to talk of Dr. Mill the Father told him he did not think y^t his Greek Testament, so much talk'd of, would ever be printed. But being assur'd by Dr. Stapylton that 'twas all printed off but y^e Prolegomena, he presently pull'd down 6 large Folios relating to the New Testament, being Collections of Lections, criticisms, &c. telling him y^t there were at least 100 Good MSS. he had made use of, 20 w^{ch} Dr. Mill never either saw or had any Account of; & y^t if he presum'd to publish his Book, he should rue the Day that ever he undertook it, being resolv'd if he liv'd to be upon his Bones when that should happen. — He likewise made a visit to Hardun, particularly to desire leave to consult a MS^t of Justin Martyr under his Custody for y^e use of Mr. Creech then engag'd in putting out a new Edition of y^t Author. But tho' 'twas well known that there was such a MS^t under his Care, yet the Jesuit protested with several oaths y^t he knew of no such thing, & was sure there never was any in the Library, telling him moreover that he wonder'd any man should be so solicitous abt MSS^{ts} of an 30 Author that was spurious, all the Fathers, he saying, being Forgery and a Cento made up by some Cunning Fellows on purpose to deceive the World. W^{ch} made the Dr. smile, expecting this Talk from one who notwithstanding his Great Learning was of opinion (at least people believe so) that all the Classics (Pliny's Nat. History publish'd by himself excepted) were spurious &c. When the Dr. had taken leave of him, he mention'd the Discourse to some of y^e Sorbonists (who are Enemies to y^e Jesuits) & was certified by them that there was such a MS^t in y^e Library, & y^t the Denyal of it with an Oath was a Jesuitical Trick on purpose by the help of it to spoyle the English Edition, when it should 40 come out. Which is a method also us'd by the Hollanders. — Mr. Wase the Beadle translated all Vitruvius into English, & y^e Copy, a Sheet or two only wanting, is now in y^e Hands of His Son, Fellow of Corpus Christi College, as I am inform'd by Dr. Hudson. This Mr. Wase the Son has certain Roman Coyns, (about 50 or 60), found at Cirencester in Gloucester-shire: but they are very much defac'd. All unless one or two of the Lesser Sort. — . . . The D. of Beaufort married to y^e Lady Rachel Noel on the 4th. w^{ch} he lays open some sort of People in a little too lively Colours. — We hear from Exeter that on the 30th of Jan. a merchant of y^t City (whose Father was deeply concern'd in y^e Murther of K. Ch. 1.) had y^e Impudence in ridicule of y^e Day to send his Servants thro' the City, with a Calf's Head hanging on a String where his own had deserved better to have been. — Dr. Mill tells me he formerly saw in a Book of Bp. Barlow's divers Ancient Inscriptions in loose Leaves, w^{ch} he is afraid may be convey'd away, & not plac'd in y^e Publick Library amongst the Bp's Books, being a Rarity, as not printed in Gruter. Above a 10 Week since I saw lying upon Dr. Charlett's Table in his Study certain old Inscriptions in eleven Sheets, w^{ch} appearing to be curious, Dr. Hudson (who was then present) desir'd the said Dr. C. to permitt me to take them to y^e Publick Library, & compare them with Books of Inscriptions whether they were wanting there or not. W^{ch} at last he granted. I found them at y^e End of a Copy of Augustinus de Legibus in Mr. Selden's Study, but of a different Edition; & I really believe Mr. Wanley stole them from Bp. Barlow's Books, and gave them to Dr. Charlett, as without doubt he did other Things. —

30 Feb. 8 (Fri.). The Columna Rostrata, for illustrating Livy, is printed p. 59. of Gualtherus's Tab. Siciliæ. — Mr. Powell, an Honest Non-juring Gentleman, who had been formerly Secretary to two or three true Church of England Bps, and had liv'd some time in Oxoñ upon y^e Charity of Dr. Bayly President of Magdalen College, was summon'd to attend the Council at White-Hall abt S^r. Humph. Mackworth, (whom the spight and Malice of wicked Designing Courtiers would gladly make y^e Author of y^e Memorial) & being then under some Indisposition of Body, and oblig'd to wait from 5 to 12 Clock at Night in a cold damp Room, increas'd his Distemper to y^t Degree y^t he paid his last
 40 Debt to Nature with in a day or two after, & may be justly reckon'd to die a Martyr for y^e Memorial. This Dr. Hudson had from the President of Magdalen who had a large Account of y^e Matter from Mr. Gandy a Friend of Mr. Powell's, who is a Person of unquestionable Integrity, & had formerly been Fellow of Oriel College & one of the Proctors of this University. — A Place of Julius Obsequens illustrated in Paschalius de Corona, pag. 529.

Feb. 9 (Sat.). Dr. Nicholson, Bp. of Carlisle, writ a Letter lately to a certain Gentleman, wherein he most severely and scandalously reflects

Feb. 9. Kent to H. Asks for account of the modern Mystic Divines. Though he is in Low Church company, he shall never be brought to think upon y^e most Learned and Pious Mr. Dodwell. A Copy of it has been communicated to Mr. Dodwell, who is far from being concern'd or troubled at such Aspersions. He has shew'd it to several Persons, who very much blame the Bp. for it, thinking he had had more sense and Discretion than to abuse one, who has establish'd the universal Character of a Great Man. — Last Week four Letters for Degrees from the Chancellor (amongst w^{ch} was one for the Degree of D^r. of Divinity for Mr. Potter, lately of Lincoln College, and now Chaplain to y^e Archbp. of Canterbury) being read in Convocation, they were all hinder'd from passing by the Proctors. The Reason, because they were not acquainted 10 with y^e Contents of the Letters before they came to Convocation. This was never customary, but Mr. Bickley the Senior Proctor will have it done, and has perswaded his Brother Proctor to be of the same mind, intending to send Copies of all Letters the day before the Convocation to every particular College and Hall, that the Members of Convocation may be able to examin into the Characters of y^e Persons on whose behalf the Letters are sent. Which is a laudable Design, & will hinder it may be some People's having Degrees conferr'd on them, who are not statutablely qualified. I am told also Mr. Bickley moves that the names of all Persons in the University may be publish'd in every College 20 & Hall the Day before their Graces are propos'd in Congregation, w^{ch} is also a most reasonable Desire, & may do good Service, especially in relation to Scandalous Fanaticks and Presbyterians, it being well known that some of these Men send their Children to the University where they let them continue only in Term time & afterwards take them home & hinder them from going to Church, but take them to Meetings, & so make them guilty of the Abominable Crime of Occasional Communion, notwithstanding their having subscrib'd to y^e Articles of the Church of England. This Mr. Bickley who is Fellow of New-College, & Great Grand-son (I think) to the Learned & worthy D^r. Tho. Bickley, (who 30 was made Bp. of Chichester in the time of Q. Eliz.) is a Person of great Integrity & Resolution, & has withall good Sense, & if he does but meet with others to joyn with him will do the University much Service, being punctual in executing the Statute, & exact in seeing y^t nothing be done to y^e Disgrace of y^e University. He is likewise a true Son of y^e Church of England, & an Enemy to all Fanaticism, Enthusiasm, &c. — MS. Laud. E. 58. . . The said Book written in a Modern Hand, & is hardly 200 Years old. . . Feb. 10 (Sun.). This Morning preach'd at St. Marie's before y^e University Mr. Husbands one of y^e Chaplains of New-College upon Job xxvii. 8. . . 'Twas an Honest Sermon, shewing (1) the Nature of Hypocrisy. (2) The Sinfulness of it, both with respect to God and Man. (3) The Punishments of it, (4) Some Methods for avoiding it. — In the Afternoon preach'd before y^e University at St. Peter's in y^e East (this being y^e first Sunday in Lent) Mr. De-Langley of X^t Church on Luke xvi. 30, 31. . .

Concluded with a Motive to Repentance.

Adjumenta Doujatij ex codicibus MSS. . . . — Mr. James St. Amand Jun^r. (not long since a Gentleman Commoner of Hart-Hall, and afterwards of Linc. Coll.) tells Dr. Hudson, in a Letter, sent to him from Leyden that he has seen Almelovanus's Strabo, w^{ch} will be in two Vols. & be publish'd in June next, at w^{ch} time will also be publish'd Julius Pollux. That Gronovius has been about Josephus 14 Years, but 'tis not known yet whether he will really publish it. Gronovius's Brother went purposely to Vienna to consult the MSS^{ts} there. Besides w^{ch} he 10 has rec^d a great many Assistances, particularly from an Edition, in w^{ch} the famous Cocceius had written several various Readings, as also Conjectures and Notes of his own. Mr. Vander Aa, the Bookseller who had first undertaken to print Gronovius's design'd Edition of Josephus, but has now resign'd his Interest to another, told Mr. St. Amand, That Heinsius, to whom we are oblig'd for the late Edition of Juvenal and Persius, had undertaken to make a Collection of all those Authors who had written of Pyramids, and that he designed to have translated Greaves's Treatise on y^t Subject, & put it among the rest. He had made a considerable Progress in this Work before his untimely 20 Death, upon w^{ch} all his Papers came to his Widow, to whom Mr. Vander Aa has writ to know if she will part with the Papers that relate to this undertaking; because he proposes that y^e Gentleman who would translate the said Book of Greaves would also revise those Papers and publish as much of them as he shall judge fit. Mr. Vervey has got a Noble Edition of Hesychius ready for y^e Press, but nobody will print it because of y^e War. Mr. Le Clerc is putting out a new Anthologia, & he invites all people to send him any unpublish'd Epigramms with promise of a gratefull mentioning the Persons he is oblig'd to in y^e Book.

Upon y^e Debates concerning y^e Church's being in Danger. 30

Sore sick a Lady late did lye,
Whose Name I will not mention;
And six and twenty Doctors by,
Maintain'd by her in Pension.

Her Children round about her stood,
Some weeping & some grinning:
Those wish'd her Life, y^e others hop'd
To see her wrapp'd in Linnen.

Cry'd one of these Legitimate,
With great Concern & Pother,
After this grand Inquest of fate,
Pray how do you like my Mother?

O Sir, said they, she's very well,
And therefore pray be still ô,
And tho' you see pray do not tell,
We'll pull away the Pillow.

What tho' her Eyes are dry & sunk,
Her nose & Cheeks so thin â,
Her Spirits fail thro'out y^e Trunk,
You see she cocks her chin â.

Her pulse indeed vermiculated,
Her Breath is short & little,
Yet sighs & Hiccups indicates,
She's healthy too a Tittle. 40

7.

O Sir crys one my mind suggests,
These Sighs are wondrous bad,
Peace fool, cry'd they, she's very well,
And thou art surely mad.

Thus they upon Debate opin'd,
Her Health in good Condition,
And voted all her Children blind,
That call'd for a Physitian. 50

revis'd by Lipsius (who design'd to have done y^e whole) & printed by Plantin at Antw. 1579. 8^o. The Title & Preface follow: [134-136; 137-144 blank.]

Feb. 13 (Wed.). On Sunday Morning last about 9 Clock just against the Master of University's Lodgings a Quaker being mov'd by y^e Spirit held forth in the open Street. A great Number of people immediately got about him. But Dr. Charlett and y^e Proctors coming home from St. Maries, where they had been to receive the Pence p^d yearly by y^e townsmen, it being St. Scholastica's Day, they took him up and sent 10 him to y^e Castle. He was let out yesterday, but was no sooner dismiss'd than he began his former Rhapsodical Discourse exactly in y^e same place where he did before. He was not taken up again. I am told by Mr. Bacche a Norwegian (who is a Student in y^e Publick Library) & is acquainted with him y^t his Name is Meydel, y^t he is a Dane by Birth, & that he was Preacher to y^e Danish Church at London, w^{ch} was worth to him at least 200 lib^s. per An. He said he turn'd Quaker since he came into England, & upon y^t left his place. He says withall y^t he is a Scholar, & was before this Accountd a Rational man, & had acquir'd a good Reputation.

Feb. 14 (Th.). Mr. Meydel being examin'd by Dr. Charlett said y^t 20 he was born in Schene in y^e Kingdom of Norway, that he is aged abt 45 years, & bred up there to y^t idle trade of preaching for hire, &c. — Tuesday being the last of y^e Terme divers persons appeared upon their Recognizances in y^e Court of Queen's Bench, & amongst y^e rest Mr. Stephens y^e parson of Sutton & was charged by Mr. Attorney General, with a long Information for Lybelling his Grace the D. of Marlborough & Mr. Secretary Harley. Also Dr. Brown was charged with an Information for Handing to y^e Press a Lybell upon my L^d. Keeper & several Ministers of State. Mr. Straghan a Bookseller was also charged 30 with one for publishing the Memorial of y^e Ch. of Engl. — Mr. Emmason formerly of Edm. Hall now Chaplain to y^e English Merchants at Hamburg.

Feb. 15 (Fri.). Yesterday I had shew'd me by a Gentleman of Christ-Church five pieces of Money, dug up at Rewley in y^e West-Suburb of Oxon. All of Brass. Two of them had on them Ave Maria. Gracia Ihesu. The other three were Dutch pieces. One of the first had a Crosse on the other side. The Crosse was commonly put on y^e Reverse of y^e Coyns of those times. But it might be put on this piece upon Account of Richard Duke of Cornwall (who was the first 40 Founder of the Abbey here) his Journey into y^e Holy-Land, at w^{ch} time he made a vow if he return'd in safety he would found some Religious House, w^{ch} he did both in this place & at Hales near Winchcombe in Gloucester-shire. Tho' 'tis most likely that these Pieces might be buried here after this first Foundation, they being found just where the Stone was dug up, formerly mention'd, & therefore in all probability some of those w^{ch} were scatter'd at y^e Ceremony of y^e Foundation of y^e Chapell by Ela Longespee Countess of Warwick. The Abbey was dedicated to y^e Virgin Mary. The German or Dutch pieces might be laid here in commemoration of Earl Richard's being made King of y^e Romans.

— Ab^t a year since the B^p. of Oxon suspended ab Officio & Beneficio Mr. Fell minister of Astoll near Witney, for marrying Mr. Johnson an Apothecary in Witney to a Young Gentlewoman, who was both under Age, & had not her Parents consent. This is a great Blot on the B^p., Mr. Fell having a Licence for doing it, & consequently the B^p. could not in Justice have meddled with him: w^{ch} he knew well enough, & therefore, being resolv'd to punish the poor Honest Man, he found a Word or two added by Mr. Fell to y^e Licence, w^{ch} tho' not material, being only the filling up the Blank w^{ch} was left for the name of y^e Parish, yet he proceeded upon y^t, & accordingly depriv'd him for three 10 years. And it may be he was the more against him because Mr. Fell's Uncle (Daniel Hechstetter,) (being a Schoolmaster under whom the Learned Dr. Hudson was educated 'till he came to y^e University) was a very honest Man, & a Cavalier.

Feb. 16 (Sat.). Talking last Night with Mr. Smith of University College, he was pleas'd to say that he did not believe Mr. Bryan Twyne was Author of the Book w^{ch} goes under his Name, call'd Antiquitatis Academiae Oxoniensis Apologia, but thought Mr. Tho. Allen of Gloucester Hall wrt it in English, and that Mr. Twyne only put it into Latin, it being hardly possible, as he thought, that a man so young as Twine 20 was when that Book was ready for y^e Press, (being then scarce 28 years of Age) should have read over and perused such a vast Number of Muniments &c. as were requisite for Compiling it. There is no doubt Mr. Twyne rec'd great Assistance from Mr. Allen, as also from Mr. Miles Windsore, but I really believe the whole Composuere is owing to himself, & that (being a Man of indefatigable Industry) he made most of y^e Collections himself. Nor is it likely Mr. Allen should write such a Book in English, & afterwards get another to translate it, since 'tis well known he was a profound Scholar & a polite Man, & very well vers'd in Greek and Latin. Mr. Smith has had for some 30 time the Privilege of looking over y^e University Charters, Records, &c. lodg'd in the School-Tower, of w^{ch} Mr. Twyne was first Keeper, & made a great many Additions for the use of the university, w^{ch} were of so great use to Mr. Ant. Wood, y^t he oftentimes took w^t Twyne had done ready to his Hand, but without Acknowledgment. This Mr. Smith told me, who has compar'd Mr. Wood's Book with Twyne's Papers. Particularly he says the Discourse about Printing is wholly Twyne's abating some few things w^{ch} have happen'd since his Death. I remember once I went into the Roome where the said Charters &c. are kept, & looking over a Volume of Mr. Twyne's Hand Writing found 40 several particulars w^{ch} Mr. Wood has in his Antiquities, & believe upon y^t Acc^t w^t Mr. Smith said to be in great measure true. — Dr. Kennett borrow'd a certain Paper from among the Records of University College of the Master and Mr. Smith, with Condition either to return it or send a Copy of it, but he has done neither as yet, tho' 9 years or more since 'twas lent. — In Ch. Ch. Library is a large Genealogical Table, in MS^t, of all the Count Palatines of the Rhine &c. done by Adolphus Joannes Comes Palatinus Rheni, who styles it Tabulam Genealogicam Majorum suorum. Done by his own Hand, & given by him to B^p. Fell. — On Tuesday last y^e Quakers deliver'd out a Pamphlett in y^e Lobby of y^e 50

House of Commons giving an Account of their Sufferings in y^e Court of Exchequer complaining of the Priests and Tyth Farmers in proceeding against y^m for y^er due. But this is nothing but w^t was expected: for in y^e Circular Letter y^t was sent by y^e Heads of y^m in London last Spring to y^er Friends in y^e Country, directing them how to vote in y^e late Elections for Members of Parliamt they told them they should have occasion to apply themselves to y^e House for 2 things the one was to exempt them from paying Tythes, the other to make y^eir Marriages valid in Law. — On y^e 14th Inst. in y^e Morning came on y^e Tryall
 10 of Dr. Drake at Guild Hall Lond. before y^e L^d. Chief Justice Holt upon an Information brought by the Attorney General for a Pamphlett written by him called Mercurius Politicus, bearing date the 18 of 7^{ber} last. After a long Tryal the Jury found y^e Dr. guilty of writing the said Pamphlett but y^e word (Nor) was laid in y^e Information instead of (Not) as is in y^e said Pamphlet, so that y^e Verdict is special & to be consider'd by the Judges. — Letters from Virginia say that y^e College at Williamsbury, a most Stately Fabrick, & one of the best in all America, & to w^{ch} the late King W^m. had been a Benefactor, was on the 29th of October last, utterly consum'd by fire w^{ch} by an unknown
 20 Accident broke out in the very dead of the Night, together with the Library, to w^{ch} divers persons bearing any Love to Learning had been Contributors, & in all probability would in some time have grown very famous.

Feb. 17 (Sun.). This Morning preach'd at St. Marie's M^r. Carter of Oriel Col. upon Phil. iii. 19. Whose Glory is in their Shame. Having preach'd once before on y^e same Words he now gave some Methods for avoiding this Sin of glorying in our Vices, taken (1) from the Hainousness of the Sin. (2) The ill Effects it has upon Men. (3) The Mischiefs and Inconveniences it brings upon our selves. —

 Hic textus insculpitur in prima petra jacti fundamenti Collegij Cardinalis Oxon.—

Reverendissimus in Christo Pater ac Dominus, Dominus Thomas Wulcy, miseratione Divina, Titulo sanctæ Cæcilie Sacrosanctæ Romanæ Ecclesie Presbyter, Cardinalis, Eboracensis Archiepiscopus, Angliæ Primas, & Apostolicæ Sedis Legatus, Episcopus Dunelmensis, exemptique Monasterij Sancti Albani perpetuus Commendatorius, Cancellarius Angliæ, & dictæ sedis Apostolicæ ad vitam suam etiam de latere Legatus, hanc petram posuit in Honorem Sanctæ & Individuæ Trinitatis gloriosissimæque Virginis Mariæ, Sanctæ Frides-
 40 wydæ, & omnium Sanctorum vicesimo die Martij anno Domini millesimo quingentesimo vicesimo quinto. —

M^r. Daniel Hetchstetter above mention'd (see pag. 151.) was born in Cumberland, and descended from y^e Family of y^e Hechstetters in Germany, who came over into England in Queen Elizabeth's time to order the Brass Mines, w^{ch} were found near Keswick in y^t County. He was from School sent to Queen's Coll. in this University, where he became Poor-Child, then Taberder: but when he was a Foundation Master (as they call them) the Civil Wars then running high, he left the College and serv'd the King in his Army. Afterwards when y^e Royal Cause 50 could not be supported, he return'd into his Native Country where he taught several Young Gentlemen privately 'till the Restauration. After this he was made Rector of Bolton in the Diocess of Carlisle, (viz. in Cumberland) & likewise continu'd to teach half a dozen Scholars till the time of his Death. He us'd a Grammar drawn up by himself, w^{ch} he printed & gave to his Scholars. — Oliver Cromwell had amongst his Remarkable Vices some little Sparks of Virtue; as being Chancellor of y^e University of Oxon he gave several valuable MSS^{ts} to y^e Publick Library there, and such a Respect for y^e Learned B^p. Usher that he was at y^e Expence of his Funeral w^{ch} amounted to 2 or 300 lib^s., and made his Souldiers then in Ireland be content to have so much deducted out of their Pay as raised so considerable a sum as purchas'd his Library, 10 for the use of Trinity College in Dublin where it now remains. Quære whether this be in his Life written by Dr. Par? — That Swinging Orthodox (as y^e Women style him) G. Burnett B^p. of Sarum, publish'd an Account of the Life and Death of the Mad & Witty Earl of Rochester, wherein he gives a large Account of his being often with him during his Sickness, yet several Persons of good Credit have averr'd that he never was admitted to visit him at y^t time, as he pretends in y^e said Book. — M^r. Basil Kennett of Corpus X^{ti} tells me that Dr. Kennett his Brother has several Papers of M^r. Andrew Allam (who was Tutor to him y^e s^d Dr. K.) from whence I believe the Dr. has taken 20 divers notices in his publish'd Books, & y^t he will make great use of them in a Work abt Cathedral Churches &c. he is now upon. — Tho. Lindsey now B^p. of Killaloe in Ireland was Fellow of Wadham Col. a Man of good Parts but little or no Learning, spending his Time in y^e University in Tippling, & (as some say) wenching too. So also Dr. Nicholson B^p. of Carlisle was Fellow of Queen's College, had good strong Parts, but had y^e Reputation (and not undeservedly) of a drinking Fellow, & boon Companion. When Bach. of Arts he apply'd himself to y^e Study of the Saxon Language, & was sent by S^r. Joseph Williamson into Germany to learn that Language. He did not stay 30 long in y^e College after he was Fellow, being invited by Rainbow B^p. of Carlisle to be his Chaplain, w^{ch} B^p. made him Archdeacon of Carlisle, from w^{ch} Dignity he was advanc'd by the Interest of S^r. X^{to}pher Musgrave to be B^p. of y^e same Place. — Dr. Hough when Fellow of Magd. Coll. got to be Chaplain to y^e Duke of Ormond. Upon the Revolution he was made President of the same College, & a little after B^p. of Oxon, & some time after that being found to be a Man of Revolution Principles advanc'd to y^e see of Lichfield & Coventry. And here it may not be improper to observe that he heap'd a great many Preferm^{ts} upon one Goodwin his Chaplain, a Man of no great Worth 40 nor Merits, and (as one would think) of no very good Conscience, because he keeps all this Preferm^t with a Fellowship.

Feb. 18 (Mon.). The Bishop of Landaff (Beau) dyed Yesterday was 7 night. — A Book of abt 9 Sheets of Paper is come out call'd the History of the Revolutions. 'Tis Handed privately about. — We have an Acc^t from Bristol of a pretty odd pranke y^t was play'd there on the 30th of Jan. last in ridicule of y^t day. Some of the Fanatical Crew met together in a street call'd the old Markett in y^e Parish of St. Stephen and drest up a Figure to represent y^e Royal Martyr with a white Capp on his Head w^{ch} they sett on a Mastiff Dog & carried it to the place 50 of the Mock Execution, when on a Block one of them chopt of his Head wth an Ax, wth loud Acclamations & Hussas & being askt what they meant by the Accoⁿ they reply'd 'twas the 30th of January & the Figure represented Charles 1st. W^{ch} is a piece of Impudence beyond y^t of y^e Calves Head Clubb.

[Note on Plin. Ep. VI. 33.]

February 19. [Notes from Maussacus's Diss. Critica to Harpocraton.] . . .

When it was debated amongst y^e Fellows of Magd. College, that y^e Women Bed-Makers (who had been scandalously lewd and vitious) 10 should be discarded and for ever kept out of y^e College, Doctor Fayrer (who to the great prejudise and Dishonour of y^e University, by y^e Interest of a few Corrupt Electors got to be Natural Philosophy Read^r) shew'd himself the great Patron of these loose Women, w^{ch} was severely reflected upon by some of y^e Fellows, who knew he labour'd under a flagrant suspicion with regard to some of them. This came from one of the same Coll., a person of great Integrity and unquestionable veracity. The Persons concern'd in y^e Election of this Dr. Fayrer were Dr. De Laune Vice-Canc. Dr. Bayly President of Magd. Coll. & Dr. Gardiner Warden of All-Souls, as y^e Statute directs.

Feb. 19. Dr. T. Smith to H. Grabe and his position strongly condemned. 'Here is indeed now in towne Mr. Edward Stephens, . . who in his little congregation of daily Communicants, consisting of five or six women, makes use of the first Liturgy of King Edward VI, with some few additions and patches of his owne; and perchance hee is the man with whom Mr. Grabe communicates. However this may be, he is clearly still a Lutheran.' Cf. his grandfather Johannes Behm's Problemata de coena Domini (Königsberg, 1614). Has received a scheme or plan of Montfaucon's Collectio nova Patrum et Scriptorum Graecorum.

¹ 'Tis well known that Dr. Mill has been all along of very wavering unsettled Principles. The university chose him once to be one of their Convocation men; at wth time he acted quite contrary to w^t they expected from him. When the Revolution happen'd & the Prince & Princess of Orange were declar'd K. & Queen he appear'd very zealous for King James, saying that he could not take an oath to them, King James being alive, to whom he ow'd Allegiance as his Sovereign Prince. He offer'd Arguments to several upon this occasion, and writ some Letters into y^e North perswading some Clergy men there to stand firm, putting them in mind of y^e Doctrines of Passive obedience & non Resistance, wth had such effect that two or three of them (as I have been told) refus'd to take the Oaths, & were depriv'd of their Places & are now living, at least were lately, in a poor condition. At the same time he offer'd Arguments to the Learned & Pious Mr. Dodwell, who lodg'd then in Edm. Hall (because he thought the Dr. had been an Honest Man) upon the same subject. Wth however he needed not have done, Mr. Dodwell having already well consider'd the Matter, & being resolv'd to stand firm to his former Oaths. But notwithstanding all this, when Dr. Mill found he must either take the Oaths to K. W. & Q. M. or loose his Places, & y^t quickly too, he suddenly changes his tone, takes the Oaths, talks mightily against the Non-Jurors (as he does to this day, calling them Fools & I know not w^t) to the great Amazem^t of the university & others, so y^t he was ridicul'd & y^e very children

He writ a Book in Hebrew of Chess while the Publick Library Books were in pawn for the Printing, tho' by the by he keeps something more publick than the Library, viz. his Wife. I wonder she has not been abroad this Act, but perhaps he has chain'd her up: for the Italian Padlock is wanting out of the Knick Knackatory. He says she sings well. Cætera desunt.

in y^e streets sung up and down to this purpose, Wilt thou take the Oaths, little Johnny Mill? No, no, that I won't, yes but I will. To pass by other strange Inconsistencies, When the Occasional Bill was first propos'd, he seem'd mighty glad, & I heard him say that 'twas the best Bill had been brought into y^e House a great many years, & wonder'd it had not been done before, since 'twould tend (if it pass'd) so much to y^e security of Church & State. But when he found the majority of the Court &c against it he chang'd his Note, & became a violent Enemy to such as were for y^e Passing of it, & he is now one of the Rankest Whiggs (nor can he deny it) in England.

² D^r. Humph. Hody. These verses made by D^r. Hody & printed amongst those of the university upon the Death of Queen Mary.

Some think it odd that you a man so tall,
Should write a Work so wonderfully

But in my Judgm^t you've contriv'd y^e

That tho' a Distick, yet 'tis very long :
Besides the Comment too is strangely

Because it makes y^e sense less under-

As to this Speech 'tis observable that Dr. Hanes, who was chiefly concern'd in making the Reflections upon Dr. Luff afterwards married 10 his Daughter the Widow Bull, for y^e filthy Lucre of her Money, he using her very barbarously as he did a former Wife whom 'tis said he kill'd with his unkindness. And 'tis to be fear'd that this will not hold out long with such usage as he gives her. — Mr. Urry of X^t Church shew'd me this Afternoon a Book containing several pieces, in folio ; w^{ch} he purchas'd at an Auction, amongst w^{ch} is Julius Firmicus, with some MSS^t Notes of Jos. Scaliger, & Manilius printed at Bas. 1531. by Hervagius, with MSS^t notes, from printed Books & MSS^{ts}. 'Twas Mr. Creeche's Book as appears by his Name at y^e End, where he has given a memorandum y^t he transcrib'd y^e said Notes himself from 20 another Copy printed at Basil & now in the Publick Library, being one of those given there by Sr. Edw. Sherburne.

Feb. 21 (Th.). Mr. Sawbridge the Bookseller is found guilty of Reprinting the Memorial of y^e Church of England with a pretended Answer, & Mr. Pittis is also found guilty of Writing y^e said Answer. — The Queen's Birth-Day being the 6th Instant, w^{ch} was Ashwednesday, it was kept at Court y^e Day before. But 'tis observable that Dr. Mill made Illuminations upon his Grand Fast Day, tho' he did not see or hear of anyone in Oxford that did it beside, all but he being very sensible that all Acts of Rejoycing ought to be laid aside at such a time, 30 & to be observ'd either the day before or After, the Rubrick of our Liturgy so directing in these Cases. — 'Tis said that Dr. Hanns was y^e Son of a Basket-Maker, and y^t when he had arriv'd to a little Eminency in his Profession, he would not own his Father, nor suffer him to come near him. — Casp. Barthius had a MS^t of Martial, w^{ch} tho' writ on very bad Paper, yet was very valuable, & would be of excell^t use in a new Ed. of y^t Author. See Barthius's Notes to Papin. Statius, Vol. 2. p. 368.

Feb. 22 (Fri.). There is a Paper I long to send you but I cannot yet get it. 'Tis Princess Sophia's Letter to y^e AB^{ts}, w^{ch} is short, & I have read it ; 40 & a letter under y^e Name of Sr. Rowland Gwin to my L^d. Stamford, w^{ch} is very long, & therefore y^e Company would not let it be read. It contains y^e sense of y^e Court of Hannover of our Whiggs opposing y^e Princesses being sent for & 'tis said to be a very shrewd Paper. It seems to be printed in Germany, by the Letter, y^e spelling & y^e Paper ; & I believe there are none in England but w^t were sent over in Covers by y^e Post, for I heard of but that one w^{ch} I saw. I suppose care will be taken to print them here.—This out of a Letter from Dr. de Laune to Dr. Charlett.

— As Mr. Barcham was the Original Author of the Heraldry w^{ch} goes under Guillim's name, & therefore the first Edition ought, as to y^e 50 greatest & best Part to be ascribed to him, so also the material Improvements in y^e second Edition are mostly owing to Sr. Richard St.

John, Clarenceaux, as Mr. Guillim himself insinuates in one Part of it. — In Mich. Pocciantius's Catalogue of Florentine Writers, pr. at Florence 1589. 4^o, pag. 65. is an Acct of Francis Puccius, but he tells his Pieces w^{ch} he writ were not publish'd. Multa ex proprio ingenio elaboravit, & metro, & prosa & nonnulla è Græco turbine convertit quæ cum ad libitum perpolire non valuisset in hominum manus pervenire non permisit. Tell Dr. Smith of this. — Memorandum that the Church of Shottesbrooke in Berks is mention'd in y^e old Valor Beneficiorum in y^e Publick Library, made in y^e Reign of Edw. 1st, w^{ch} shews that there 10 was a Church here before Edw. 3^ds time when the College was founded, & that 'twas not built first by Sr. Will. Trussell as is insinuated by Mr. Ashmole. — On the 29th of Jan. last was admitted a Student in y^e Publick Library John Disney of the City of Lincoln. He brought with him a Letter to Dr. Hudson from Dr. Inett, signifying that he is a Man of a good Estate, studious, a lover of Books & of some Curiosity, & came to Oxford on purpose to consult some Books in order to some Publick Design. He went out of Town again this Morning. The said Publick Design is a Genealogical Table of the Princes of Europe. He seems to be a man of tolerable Parts & to have a genius to 20 Heraldry; but his Friends being Presbyterians, & himself educated in that Perswasion, notwithstanding his being now, as appears by his Discourse & frequenting the Church, of a contrary opinion, yet he still retains many of their ill Qualities, as being pert, affected, proud &c. Besides having not been bred up in any university, nor acquir'd much Learning, he does not seem qualified for any Work proper for a Scholar. I saw two or three of his Tables, neatly drawn by himself, w^{ch} however I am afraid will not please men of Accuracy in these Studies, who are very sensible that all things of this Nature should be thoroughly consider'd, confirm'd by undoubted Authority drawn from the most Au-
 30 thentick Rolls, Registers &c. w^{ch} a private Man cannot command, nor indeed any one else in a Work so extensive. For w^{ch} Reason 'twere far better he would imploy himself in illustrating the Antiquities of his own Country, w^{ch} would be a Work of good use and deserve Encouragement but as I observ'd before he has not Learning enough for such an undertaking. He went yesterday to X^t Church to take a Transcript of the Table of the Princes Palatine of the Rhine (w^{ch} I told him of) but having not time, he took but part of it.

Feb. 23 (Sat.). [Notes from Morellus on Constantine Porphyrog. de Thematibus, Heinsius and Gudius on Phædrus.]

40 Burmannus's Edition of Phædrus to be consulted for Justin's History.

Dr. Mayow of All Souls College was a very ingenious Man, & an Excellent Scholar; but by resolving to marry a Wife of a Great Fortune fatally miscarried to his unspeakable and insuperable Grief. For when he was one Year at y^e Bath, and happening to lodge at y^e same House with an Irish Lady and her Daughter, as was pretended, who went for vast Fortunes, when y^e old Lady feigning an occasion went to London, he courted the young one and quickly married her: but she proving nothing like y^e Fortune y^t he imagin'd he was so confounded with it y^t he did not long enjoy his Life. He had a Brother Student of X^t 50 Church who married a Daughter of Mr. Jackson's of the Vent near

Forrest-Hill abt four miles from Oxford. — Dr. Tyndall Fellow of All Soul's Coll. (Quære whether originally of Linc. Coll. & Dr. Hicks's Pupill as some have s^d?) tho' he was a Clergy Man's Son, & liv'd upon a Clergyman's Bread (viz. Archbp. Chichley's) yet has always been observ'd to be very violent ag^t y^e Church & Church men. He has been a most notorious ill Liver (Register'd as 'tis said or deserving to be soe at All Soul's under y^e Title of Egregious —) & in King James's time turn'd Papist, purely in hopes to ingratiate himself wth y^e Roman Catholicks & get Preferm^t. Immediately upon y^e Revolution he grew a mighty Williamite (renouncing his Religion, if he had any) & writ ¹⁰ something abt Government &c. And as an Instance that 'twas believ'd he had litle or no Religion take this following Epitaph, — Quære of Mr. Dodwell whether Heathens, (such as had no opportunity of coming to y^e Knowledge of X^t.) are not lyable to Punishm^t after Death? Because 'tis said, and he owns it in his new Book abt y^e Soul, y^t y^e condition of Tyre & Sidon, nay even of Sodom (People who ²⁰ never could be suppos'd to hear of Jesus X^t) will be more tolerable at y^e Day of Judgm^t yⁿ that of Chorazin, Bethsaida & Capernaum, who heard y^e Preaching of our Saviour. From y^e word tolerable it may be inferr'd they had some punishm^t allotted. He has satisfied this Question in §. 36. of the Book.

Dr. De Laune who has printed a 30th of January Sermon before y^e House of Commons, was always observ'd to be a good Companion, & one who understood Eating and Drinking very nicely, & much better ³⁰ than any part of Learning belonging to his Profession. But more of him hereafter. — Mr. Lowthe of St. John's College has written a Book abt y^e Inspiration of the Holy Penmen in Answer to some Letters printed in Holland. In w^{ch} Performance he has not answer'd the Expectation he had rais'd, being not near so well done as another Answer by a French-Man, y^t came out after his. — Mr. Leigh likewise of y^e same College has printed a Book of Devotions in Latin in a small 8^{vo}. He was usually styl'd Rabbi Leigh, for some Knowledge that he had in y^e oriental Tongues. — Dr. Thomas Wood of New Coll. first apply'd himself to y^e Civil Law & y^e Practise of it in y^e Vice-Chan- ⁴⁰ cellors Court. Afterw^{ds} he study'd y^e common Law & was call'd to y^e Bar. But both these Employments he did not think so advantageous to him as a good College Living, upon y^e Prospect of w^{ch} he left these Professions & took Holy Orders, & afterwards was presented to a noble College Living in Bucks. & litle afterwards to a Wife, one M^{rs}. Barker, a Founder's Kinswoman.

Feb. 24 (Sun.). Dr. Mill told me last Night, that talking sometime since with the Bishop of Worcester, he was pleas'd to say that he thought M^r. Dodwells Arguments about the Spuriousness of San-choniathon's History, in his Discourse upon that Subject, were very weak, & y^t he had enough to say to prove it genuine. And he likewise declar'd that tho' Mr. Dodwell's Arguments were cogent, yet he thought it far better to hold it genuine; since 'twould do mischief to endeavour to overthrow an opinion w^{ch} has been embrac'd for so many Years.

Hall) preach'd at St. Marie's in Oxoff before the University was about 7 or 8 years ago on these Words, He that cometh to God must believe that he is. The Subject being Providence, he spoke very affectedly, & made a Discourse more fit for one y^t reads a Lecture for his Degrees in Physick than a Divine, the greatest part of it being about the animal Part of y^e Creation, particularly Man, in describing whom he touch'd upon every Part as far as he could in modesty in the same Manner as Dr. Gibson 20 has handled him in his Abridgment of Anatomy, w^{ch} Mr. Milles had just read before. This made y^e Congregation smile, & he was ever after taken for a vain, affected Person. — Concerning Livy's Monument at Padua see Stephanus Zamosius's Analecta Lapidum vetustorum. Patavij 1593. 8^o. p. 29.

Feb. 26 (Tu.). Mr. Dodwell has Dedicated his New Book about y^e Soul to The Hon^{ble} Charles Hatton Esq^r. commonly call'd Captain Hatton, a Man of good Parts, & no mean Learning. He is withall well acquainted with y^e World, of a pleasant Temper, & a tender Conscience, & is now a Sufferer for being a Non-Juror.

30 Feb. 27 (Wed.). Ask Mr. Dodwell whether those Heathens who had no opportunitys of Hearing y^e Gospel are not to be punished or rewarded after Death, according as they have neglected or kept the Law of Nature? — Laurence Pignorius in his XXVIII. Symbolic Epistle has a very good Observation upon Justin, w^{ch} must be consider'd in a new Edit. of y^t Author. His XLIVth Epistle is wholly in Defence of Livy against Benius. W^{ch} will be of use either in writing the Life of Livy, or in a Preface to a new Edition. — Livy in his XXXIV Book c. 17. does not distinguish y^e Turduli from y^e Turdetani (for w^{ch} reason Sigonius reads Turdetani in both places, yet contradicted by Gronovius)
40 just as they are also confounded by Strabo. But they are made two different People by Polybius, quoted by Strabo, and Stephanus Byz. who, according to y^e Opinion of Artemidorus calls them Τούρροις, καὶ Τυρράροις. W^{ch} Difference is also observed by Ptolemy. See Ludovicus

Feb. 28. E. Smith to H. Can't get a copy of 'that piece of Livy of Horrion's edition. You may believe it not to be found in Shops, when Bateman's and Brown's equivalent to all y^e rest in those scarce commodities afford it not.' Mr. de Seau is preparing an edition of Lucian, and Grabe printing a vindication of the passage in Josephus about our Saviour. Locke upon 2 Cor. and various posthumous pieces to be published by Churchill.

Nonius's Hispania, c. viii. p. 29. — Barthius in his Notes upon Statius, p. 1694, tells us, that he writ a Discourse about the Latin Poëts who had written upon Love: also that he made an Index to Appulejus, drew up Notes upon Tertullian, & other Authors, some of which were unfortunately burnt. Quære whether any printed?

Feb. 28 (Th.). This Morning preach'd before y^e Judges at St. Marie's Mr. Crank of Trinity College, upon Psalm xxix. 2. Give unto y^e Lord the Glory due unto his Name.

Having by Way of Preface explain'd the Words, & hinted what a Melancholy and lamentable Thing it is to have Religion ridicul'd, and it's Professors 10 laugh'd and scoff'd at, and oftentimes insulted, as Men of no Worth nor use, he proceeded to consider first the Duty & secondly the Motives to it. As to the former he shew'd that the Duty of Honouring God consists first in a Due Reverence of his Holy Name, & never to take it in our Mouths but with all Aw and Respect, contrary to y^e Manner of those who think it a piece of good Breeding to swear and curse upon every Trifling Occasion, w^{ch} being freq^{ly} us'd makes Oaths y^t are lawfull disregarded, & not observ'd with that Religion & Caution as is requisite. (2) The Honouring God consists in a constant frequenting Religious Assemblies, & a carefull Observance of His Holy Sabbath, & other 20 solemn times of Devotion. (3) A Due Esteem of his Ministers and Vicegerents. This being dispatch'd he proceeded to y^e motives to this Duty taken (1) from it's being the most proper way of Doing God Service. (2) 'Tis the best way we can take to shew our Gratitude. (3) The Rewards are inestimable. In speaking on w^{ch} last he pass'd a Complement on y^e Queen, Duke of Marlborough &c. & observ'd that since her Majesty shew'd so much Zeal for and Care of y^e Church, & was assisted by others with y^e same Vigour and Resolution, & since his Grace & our other Generals had such unexpected Success in y^e Field, the Mischiefs y^t come upon the Nation must proceed from our own Breasts, & be attributed to a loose & negligent Practise of Religious Duties, w^{ch} if persisted in in opposition to those Methods w^{ch} are provided 30 for putting a stop to it, we must expect, besides the Punishments of this Life, Everlasting Destruction in y^e World to come. —

I am inform'd that Mr. Hugh Hutchin, who publish'd the 2^d Apology of Justin Martyr, and has some Translations of Verses in the English Edition of Mr. Potter's Antiquities of Greece, sometime since began an Edition of Polybius, being put upon it by his Great Friend, the most Worthy Dr. Aldrich Dean of X^t Church, of w^{ch} Place Mr. Hutchin is now one of y^e Chaplains; but y^t he has laid aside this Noble Design, & is commonly call'd Pol Hutchin. He is for this Year one of y^e Pro- 40 proctors of y^e University. He was originally of Lincoln College, where, when Bachelor of Arts, I suppose upon Advice of Mr. Potter, he began, with Mr. Dechair of the same House, a new Edition of Hermogenes; but not finding anyone that would undertake y^e Impression, 'twas laid by, & the Collections have been since communicated by Mr. Hutchin (who is a good natur'd Man, of quick Parts, & proportionable Learning, and for that Reason made Master of y^e Grammar Schoole at Christ Ch. upon the Removal of Mr. Rob. Cock) to Dr. Hudson, who if other more important Studies do not hinder, and he finds suitable Encouragement, will take care to oblige the World with a beautifull and correct Edition. — Mr. Sam. Philips lately of St. John's College has publish'd Miscel- 50 lanea Sacra, a Collection of Poems by several Hands, amongst w^{ch} some of his own. He has likewise done some other small trite Things, amongst w^{ch} is The Poetical Courant. He is a man of tolerable Parts, but laying them out upon Trifles, he is laugh'd at by his Acquaintance & gets no Reputation unless amongst frequenters of y^e Play-House, and others of that Gang.

Mar. 1 (Fri.). Mr. Milles in his Dedication of St. Cyrill to the Earle of Pembroke has committed a very gross Blunder making infucata pietas signifying sincere Piety, w^{ch} is always us'd in a contrary sense.

Mar. 2 (Sat.). The Privy Council met at Edinburgh the 21st of the last Month, but did no publick Business, only order'd that no Episcopal 10 Clergy man, be he qualified or not, be allow'd to preach in any Parochial Church or Meeting House. Upon w^{ch} a great many Meeting Houses are shut up, and Mr. Mathers is discharg'd from preaching any more at St. Andrews, tho' he is legally qualified by having taken y^e oaths, & was one of the first of Scotland y^t congratulated the Queen's Accession to y^e Throne. From whence may be gather'd w^t a good natur'd thing Presbyterian Moderation is. — Mr. Dodwell makes the Air the Receptacle of all Souls good and bad, and that they are under the Power of the Devil, 'till the Day of Judgment, he being the Prince of 20 good men, but only some Disquietudes & Molestations, wherein they may be relieved by y^e Prayers of y^e Living according to y^e Opinion of Justin Martyr. And that's the reason, without doubt, of Mr. Thorne-dike's being for Prayers for y^e Dead. See Mr. Dodwell pag. 258. He makes in p. 262 the lowest Region of Heaven, y^t is the space betw. Earth and the Clouds, the place of the less perfectly good Souls, where they are to remain till the Resurrection, and have some Punishments inflicted on them by y^e Devils, to purge & qualify them for y^e upper Region. — Mr. Wood in Athenæ Oxon. Vol. II. p. 878. having made Mr. Charles Allestree Vicar of Great Budworth in Cheshire, he after-30 wards talking with Mr. Collins, Master of Magd. Coll. Schoole, call'd Mr. Wood his Patron, because of his making him Vicar of a Place he was not Vicar of: w^{ch} Mr. Collins mentioning to Mr. Wood, he smil'd, & protested y^t he had put down nothing in that Book but w^t he had Authority for, and that if there were any Falsities in it his Informers ought to be blam'd. — ¹ I am inform'd by a Person, who was formerly one of the Church Wardens of St. Peter's in y^e East Oxon that in the Parish Chest in y^e Church is the Transcript of a Book made in y^e Year 1314, wherein 'tis recorded that y^e said Church was repair'd at y^t time, & that fourscore Nobles were paid for the Repair, half of w^{ch} the Parish
 40 charg'd upon Wolvercot as being a Chapel of Ease to it. But y^e Inhabitants of that place being displeas'd at it, the Matter was referr'd to y^e Pope, who order'd it to be decided at Canterbury. The Result was that Wolvercot should not pay any of this Money, but for the future be a Parochial Church of itself, & pay to St. Peter's 10 Groats per Annum, w^{ch} it continues to do to this day.

¹ 1710. Oct. 15. I have since got a Transcript of this Book, & it appears to have been in the year 1416, & the sum for Repayr was not so much as here expressed, & Wolvercot was to pay the 3^d part, & as formerly were for the future always to pay the 3^d part on such occasions, however they came to composition afterwards when it became a parochial Church.

Mar. 3 (Sun.). Last Week Mr. Nicholson of University College was denied his Degree of Bachelor of Law, 3 times, notwithstanding his Letter from y^e Chancellor pass'd in Convocation that y^e Terms he had kept at Dublin might be equivalent to his having kept them here. The reason I hear deliver'd in to y^e Vice-Chancellor was his not being matriculated; but this I am inform'd since is false, & I believe there is something else, otherwise (there being no reason offer'd the next Congregation as ought to have been by statute) he would have been presented after this Denyal. He is Son to y^e same Nicholson who has writ a Dialogue between y^e Body and Soul, lately printed & recommended to y^e World by the Learned Mr. Dodwell, whose Estate in Ireland is look'd after by y^e s^d Nicholson.

Mar. 4 (Mon.). On Friday last y^e Convocation met, at w^{ch} time the Lower-House read a Letter to them from y^e Queen willing and commanding them to be obedient to y^e Archb^p. & his Suffragan B^{ps}. in relation to his Adjourning them from time to time. — The House of Commons having address'd her Majesty that she would prefer Mr. Goddard their Chaplain, she has answer'd y^m that she will do it, as soon as she shall see it proper. — Mr. Tho: Lydiatt of New-College was a Person of that singular Modesty, Humility & Learning, that by many great Judges he was reckon'd to excell Joseph Scaliger, one of y^e most Considerable Men these last Ages have produc'd. Yet for all this being ingag'd for y^e Debts of a near Relation, and having but mean Preferment, he was reduc'd to y^t Extremity that he was forc'd to lye in Prison a great many years in Oxford and the King's Bench. All w^{ch} time he was observ'd to be chearfull, and to carry on his Studies wth the utmost diligence, being so intirely addicted to them that he laid out w^t Money he got upon Books, so that he was in a manner starv'd to death: w^{ch} made Dr. Potter, when he sent him a Benevolence of 5 lib^s., give him a strict charge to spend none of it in Books, but take care to get what might recruit his macerated Body. Mr. Fuller also y^e most eminent Critick had very little to support an ingenious Man. The like also is to be said of Mr. Hales of Eaton (whom all allow to have been in a manner starv'd) w^{ch} hath made divers Forreigners say that England is not worthy to have Learned Men; tho' 'tis generally observ'd by them (particularly I have heard Mr. Grabe say it) that no Country brings forth so great a Number of Men of that quick Apprehension and solid Judgment as England doth, tho' not always attended with so much Diligence as in other Countries.

(5) Edmonds upon Cæsar's Comm. — Dr. Wallis was a Man of most admirable fine Parts, & great Industry, whereby in some years he became so noted for his profound Skill in Mathematicks, to w^{ch} he was naturally inclin'd, that he was deservedly accounted the greatest Person in that Profession of any in his time. He was withall a good Divine, & no mean Critik in y^e Greek and Latin Tongues.

10 But notwithstanding his being so Excellent a Mathematician, he was but an indifferent Chronologer, as Mr. Dodwell has above once hinted, in relation to what he has done y^t way at y^e End of Bp. Fell's Edition of St. Cyprian. He was originally of Emanuel College in Cambridge & coming to Oxford was soon taken notice of as a Man of revolution Principles, w^{ch} he sufficiently made appear by his decyphering the King's Cabinet, w^{ch} Worthy Work is preserv'd in a quarto Book in the Bodlejan Library. Oliver had a great Respect for him, & by y^t means he got to be custos Archivorum in opposition to y^t Great Civilian Dr. Zouch. It must however be acknowledg'd that wth his other Learning

20 he had good Skill also in the Civil Law, as appears from divers Specimens of it in the School Tower. And 'tis frequently said that he would plead as well as most Men; w^{ch} can hardly be doubted if it be consider'd that he had an extraordinary knack of Sophistical Evasion, w^{ch} made the Oxford Antiquary say he could make black white & white black when he pleas'd, a shrewd Instance of w^{ch} he had experience of himself. His Works w^{ch} are printed at y^e Theatre-Press altogether in 3 Folios, are much made use of by men, who are Mathematically inclin'd, & I am told by one, who should know, y^t Mr. Keil's Lectures are in great measure extracted from them. (But Quære?)

30 His Sight continu'd strong to y^e last (tho' 87 years old when he died) so that he could read y^e least Characters, printed or written, without y^e Help of Spectacles. Some time before his Death his Picture drawn to y^e Life was put in the School Gallery, adjoining to y^e Publick Library, w^{ch} the Dr. was so vain as to come on purpose to see, as he did his Books after they were put in y^e Library, & seem'd very well pleas'd with their Placing. — Justin corrected by St. John Prise in *Hist. March 6 (Wed.). Mr. Timothy Nourse, formerly Fellow of University College, was a Gentleman of Excellent Parts as appears from the Books he has written. He was also a man of great Probity, & eminent Virtues, & for y^t reason continu'd Bourser of y^e College several years together, all w^{ch} time he made it a considerable Part of his Business to rectify the Accounts & put a Stop to those Abuses w^{ch} had happen'd from y^e scandalous Negligence of some of his Predecessors in y^t Office. W^{ch} he perform'd so effectually, y^t he is often mention'd wth great Veneration among the Society to this day. He afterwards liv'd in Worcestershire, & to his other Accomplishments added this also of being a curious Collector of Antient Coyns & Medals, w^{ch} at his Death (w^{ch} was untimely to y^e no small Reluctance of good Men) he bequeath'd to y^e Publick Library at Oxford, where they now remain, & are some of the fairest and most valuable in the whole Collection. That part of his Will relating to this Donation I have given in one of the foregoing 10 volumes of these Memoires. — Ask Dr. Hudson whether he be any ways related to y^e most Loyal Dr. Mich. Hudson who was barbarously murderd by the Hellish Rebels in 1648? He tells me he is of the same Family, as also was Hudson, from whence the name of Hudson's Bay. — Verses writ by way of Letter betw. Dr. Charlett & Mr. Percival Student of X^t Church. . . . These Verses have been since printed. — Books to be consulted for Livy. . . .

March 7 (Th.). A Bill to prevent y^e farther Growth of Popery having been brought into y^e House of Commons, (occasion'd by certain Complaints of y^e Bp. of Chester, & some of y^e Clergy of his Diocess, of y^e 20 Insolencies of the Papists in Lancashire, in proselyteing several People, Erecting a Stately Edifice &c.) when it came to be read a 3^d time it was rejected by a Great majority, there being but 43 for it & 119 against it. 'Tis said the Chief Reason of it's being dropt is because of y^e Queen's being in Alliance with Popish Princes. — Mr. Hoffman tells me that one Beneditti an Abbat in London, where he has liv'd about six Years, has the Impressions in Wax of all the Curious Medals, Coyns, Gemms, &c. in y^e Cabbinett of the King of France, amongst w^{ch} he says are several w^{ch} would serve very much to illustrate and explain some Passages in Livy, particularly one about y^e Bachanalian Rites. 30 The said Abbat was born at Lucca, and has a good Collection of these curiosities himself, w^{ch} he is willing to sell, but values them at 5 or 600 Guineas. Ask Dr. Smith whether he knows him, & what his Character is. Hoffman tells me he din'd with him every day almost all y^e time he was in London (w^{ch} was about 5 months) that he is a good devout Man, but he will not discover where he lives. — Ask also Dr. Smith, or some body else who may be suppos'd to know, what Hoffman's Principles are? the rather, because tho' he lodges in our Hall, yet he does not come to Prayers, tho' when he first came thither about 6 or 7 months since he came to them 2 or three times. 40

An Account of y^e intended Edition of Livy.

1. 'Tis design'd to be in a handsome 8^o. (such as we commonly use) on good Paper and good Letter in 4 or 5 Volumes.

2. The Chronology will be plac'd at y^e Top of every Page, and in other Parts of it as occasion will require.

3. At y^e Bottom of the Page will be Readings of MSS. never before collated, Conjectures and Emendations of Learned Men (in a great Number) not yet taken Notice of in any Edition whatsoever, together with select Readings, Corrections and Illustrations that are in other Editions, but with y^e greatest Brevity imaginable.

4. At y^e End of every Volume (or in the last) will be such larger Annotations 50

& Explications as could not conveniently be put under y^e Text, & then will follow

5. Such Ancient Inscriptions & Coyns as may serve to illustrate several Places in y^e Author.

Lastly, There will be accurate Indexes; & perhaps two or three Maps.

The whole's intended to be with y^e utmost Exactness & Accuracy, as well as Beauty; in order to recommend it to y^e Youth of our Nation and others.

Mr. Wase of Q. Coll. in Cambridge (the same whom I have mention'd before) designs shortly to send Diodorus Siculus to y^e Press.

10 He has a Sallust in y^e Press w^{ch} has stuck there these two years. He is also for printing a Catalogue of all printed Books in y^e Libraries at Cambridge. W^{ch} shows that he is a Man of no fixt Resolution, but is more for carrying on new Projects than finishing what he has in Hand.

— Mr. Davies's Edition of Cæsar's Comm. in 112 Sheets just finish'd — Sr. Isaac Newton's Body of Algebra to be finish'd in a fortnight's time.

— Mr. Needham has prepar'd Hierocles for y^e Press. Mr. Piers of Eman. College (who publish'd two Tragedies of Euripides) is going to print Dion X^{tome}, a specimen of w^{ch} will be done speedily. He has divers MSS. Readings & conjectures not printed from a Copy in Selden's

20 Library, communicated to him by Mr. Grabe. — Mr. Thomas Tanner, (to whom Mr. Ant. à Wood at y^e Repeated Importunity of Dr. Charlett left his Papers) getting Acquaintance with y^e B^p of Norwich upon Account of his Library, was drawn in to marry a short fat, plump Daughter of y^e B^p's, & had y^e Chancellor-ship of Norwich conferr'd upon him by y^e B^p. a little before or a little after his Marriage. This Wife & Preferment together with his Intimacy wth y^e low Church Party have put a stop (as 'tis believ'd) to the Publication of y^e 3^d Volume of Mr. Wood's Athenæ, w^{ch} Mr. Tanner has. He was originally a Clark of Queen's College, & apply'd himself to y^e study of Dugdale's Mo-

Finch then Warden of All-Souls, he had by the Interest of y^e said Warden a Chaplain's Place conferr'd on him in All-Souls Colledge & afterwards was made Fellow of y^e same. The said Dr. Finch was a Younger Son to y^e Famous Earl of Winchelsea, who had been in King Charles the 2^d's time Ambassador to Constantinople, where or in Germany this Dr. Finch was born, & had for his Godfathers Leopold the Emperor & William Nassau Prince of Orange & at length (by the greatest Injustice in y^e World) King of

40 England. He was educated a noble-Man in X^t Church, whence he was Elected Fellow of All-Souls. He was a Man of Excell^t Parts, as appear'd from his Conversation and all his Performances. When Bachelor of Arts he made a Handsome Dedication of Cornelius Nepos (translated into English by several Hands of this Univers.) to y^e Earl of Abbingdon. When Master of Arts & in orders he us'd to preach very neatly. He printed one Sermon preach'd before y^e Convocation, & made not long before he died when he labour'd under a great Indisposition of Body. He married a West-Country Gentlewoman of a good Fortune, but had no Issue by her. He was made Warden of versity in y^e Time of Monmouth's Rebellion. At that time there were 4 Companies of Scholars train'd & fitted for service by the Loyal University, in one of w^{ch}, that was exercis'd & train'd at New-College, Dr. Hudson, then an Inceptor in Arts, bore a Musquet, to serve his King & country.

March 8. 1706 (Fri.). Yesterday came on y^e Election for a Fellow of University College, in room of Mr. Smith, who resign'd some time since as I have before hinted. Candidates were five, one of w^{ch}, namely Mr. Ellison, was of Linc. College, & seem'd to have a plausible Pretence, ¹⁰ as being qualified as to the Place of his Nativity. But y^e Fellows having examin'd them, & sifted their Characters, they unanimously pitch'd upon Mr. Hodgson, Bach. of Arts, & of about 10 years standing, who for some time has been in Sir W^m. Glynn's Family at Amersden, on purpose to instruct his Son, now a Gent. Commoner of All Souls Col., w^{ch} he did with so much Satisfaction, that he has gain'd a good Reputation there, and Sr. W^m. seem'd mightily concern'd for his Carrying this Place. He is a person well skill'd in Greek and Latin (as appear'd from his Performance when examin'd) and may be a Credit to the College, if he please, being of a Strong Body, and able to go thro' some ²⁰ laudable Undertaking. Mr. Smith his Predecessor has been all along a severe Student, & is well skill'd in our English Antiquities, particularly those relating to Oxford; but his great unhappiness is that he cannot express himself well. However his Collections, w^{ch} are judg'd to be large, will be of great use if they happen to come into skillfull Hands, & may be of y^e same Service Mr. Dodsworth's have been, who spent his whole Life time in Collecting; & it must be acknowledg'd that w^t he did that way is prodigious, his MSS^{ts} w^{ch} are in the Bodlejan Library being reckon'd an inestimable Treasure, & have set up several Persons for Antiquaries, especially Dr. Kennett, who look'd them all ³⁰ over, & took from them most of the Materials in his printed Books. 'Twas from them also that y^e Monasticon Anglicanum was chiefly taken, & therefore the chief Honour of y^t Work ought to be given to him, Sr. W^m. Dugdale being no farther concern'd than in digesting some of y^e Papers, and looking after y^e Press.

March 9 (Sat.). In the 9th Table of Saxon Coyns publish'd by Sr. Andrew Fountaine is one w^{ch} has on one side Plegmund. Archiep. & on y^e other Eicmund. Mo. The same is publish'd by Mr. Selden in p. 217 of his Notes to Eadmer, more exactly as it seems than Sr. Andrew has done, who nevertheless does not seem to have seen y^e Coyn himself, ⁴⁰ quoting Mr. Walker for it. For Archiep. Sr. Andrew has Achiep. — Mr. Camden tells us that the Royal Palace at Woodstock, commonly call'd The Mannor-House, was a most Magnificent Structure. w^{ch} sufficiently appears from the stately Reliques now to be seen, w^{ch} shew that 'twas much larger than the Palace now erecting for the Duke of Marlborough. Twas first built by King Hen. I. who made y^e Park, and afterwards augmented by King Hen. II. with an Addition of a strange Labyrinth wherein he kept his Concubine Rosamund Clifford, as is related by Brompton in his Chronicle. There are no 'Remains of it now, but it seems to have been some where on the north side of that Part of the Mannor now standing, perhaps just by the Spring call'd Rosamund's Well, but as to the story of her being Poyson'd by 10 Eleanor, Wife to King Henry, who got to her by a Clue of Thread, it seems to be a meer Fiction, & to have no Foundation, our Historians being wholly silent about it. But tho' the old Palace might exceed y^e New one, yet there were no such Gardens, as are now design'd to be, w^{ch} from w^t is already done seem to be very extraordinary, & to exceed any thing of y^t nature in England. The Walls round are already built, but they must be pull'd down again, the stone being faulty & crumbling to pieces. He that shall attempt the perfecting Sir Hen. Spelman's History of Sacrilege must not forget this place, the Park whereof caus'd 20 the Destruction of several Churches, & the Palace with the Chapel there was strangeley abus'd by the Rebels in the Civil Wars. Let him observe also the Consequences if the Mannor House be wholly destroy'd, as 'tis said it will: also w^t Success the Duke or His Heirs will have in the Projects here. — Dr. Geo. Royse who has publish'd some Sermons, was originally of Edm. Hall, where he was Servitor to Dr. Tho. Tully then Principal. Afterwards he was elected Fellow of Oriel College, & at length Provost of y^e same, & afterwards made Dean of Bristol. He is a man of good Parts, well read in Pamphlets, of great Cunning and Design, and so forgetfull of Kindnesses, as not to mention the Hall where he was Educated when he preaches at St. Marie's. Which how-

 30 ever is more to be pardon'd then his neglect of his near Relations, particularly his Nephew of Oriel College, for whom he promis'd some time since to get a Parsonage, w^{ch} he could have easily done; but when y^e Vacancy happen'd he got it for another no ways related to him, but perhaps may do him he thinks some Service in the way of Preferm^t w^{ch} is his greatest Aim at present. — An old Book of Vellam written in Capital Roman Letters found at Ivy-Church, mention'd by Mr. Camden in his Britannia, and Mr. Webb in his Vindication of Stone-Heng restored, pag. 76. — Mr. Selden in his Notes upon Eutychius has a Disquisition ab^t Camalodunum, & a Coyn to illustrate it. March 12 (Tu.). Upon y^e Death of Dr. Wallis, no one appear'd Competitors to be Custos Archivorum but Dr. Gardiner, Warden of All-Souls & Mr. Perks, Fellow of Corpus X^{ti}. There was a great Opposition; but there being then an Election of Fellows of All-Souls, Dr. Gardiner got several votes more yⁿ otherwise he would have had, & so carried it by a small Majority, tho' not near so well qualified for y^e Place as Mr. Perks, who is a sober Man & an Excell^t Scholar, & Author of a Book, w^{ch} commonly goes under y^e Name of Mr. Sacheverel, 20 as I have already hinted. 'Twas expected y^t Mr. Smith of University College should have appear'd for this Place, he being well known to have studied these things for several Years; & 'tis thought he would have done so, had he not been dissuaded from it by Dr. Charlett, a great Friend to Gardiner: for w^{ch} Smith now seems to have but an indifferent opinion of him. — The 2^d Part of Æthicus's Cosmographia in Bib. March 16. Dr. T. Smith to H. Grabe's opinion of the Church of England a thousand times less valuable than that of Casaubon and Grotius. Twyne and Allen. Regretted last election to the post of Custos Archivorum. Fears the consequences of Dodwell's book, which he has not read. Remarks on Oxford affairs.

- Mr. Gagnier, besides y^e Edition of Ben-Gorion, has writ and publish'd a Book call'd L'Eglise Romaine convaincue de Dépravation, d'Idolatrie, et d'Antichristianisme. A la Haye 1706. 8°. He is said formerly to have been a Jesuit & to have been converted to the English Church by y^e Bp. of Worcester (Quære?) with whom he lives & from whom he receives great Encouragement in his studies; & being a man of a steady Head & great Industry may do other things for the use of Learning. He assures me the Bp. has not his Chronology in such order as to be carried on by any one upon his Death. — Mr. Bache tells me y^t Will.
- 10 Wormes (Son of y^e famous Olaus Wormes) has writ several Pieces in Physick (w^{ch} was his Profession) & Phylology, whereof there are none in y^e Publick Library. X^{ti}an Wormes is Son of the s^d W^m. Wormes, & is now a famous Preacher in the City of Copenhagen. He is a man of excellent Parts, & whilst in Oxford he made use of y^e Publick Library purely for y^e sake of improving himself in Divinity, & other Studies. W^m. Wormes his Father was Justitiarius in y^e High Court of Denmark, & a man of great Note. — Torfæus a Learned Dane, and y^e King's Historian, has written three Historical Books in Latin, viz. Mar. 20 (Wed). Mr. John Caswell, formerly Vice-Principal of Hart-Hall, & now superior (or Esquire) Beadle in Divinity of Oxford, besides his Trigonometry, printed with Dr. Wallis's Works, has written several other Pieces in Mathematicks, as I have been inform'd by one of his Intimate Acquaintance; but his great Modesty will not let them come abroad, tho' very deserving of it. — This day being appointed a General Fast for Imploring God's Mercy for our Sins & Success on our Arms there preach'd at St. Marie's Mr. Reynolds of Corpus X^{ti}, on . . . Hos. 5. 15. . .

- 30 After a short Paraphrase, he proceeded to prove (1) That 'tis in vain to expect for Blessings, whilst we ought rather to look for Judgment, as long as we continue in our Sins. (2) That if we forsake our sins we may expect Mercy. The former he made out (1) from God's Hatred of sin. (2) from the Nature of his Judgments. (3) From the Connexion between sin & Judgment. The latter from the force of Prayer, & the Nature of Repentance, joyn'd wth Fasting. There was nothing Extraordinary in y^e Discourse, & it might have serv'd for any other Day of Fasting as well as this, there being nothing particularly relating to y^e present times, only in the Conclusion he just mention'd
- 40 the many Divisions, w^{ch} he exhorted to make up, y^t they might be no Hindrance to our Success, nor prevent those Blessings we may otherwise hope for from the Justness of the War, & the Victories we have already obtain'd.

Mar. 21 (Th). Sr. W^m. more to shew how much he is displeas'd wth him he designs to give y^e Parsonage of Haden in Chesshire 3 or 400 lib^s. per Annum, w^{ch} he once design'd for Dr. Kennett, to another Gentleman. Mr. Cherry also of Shottesbrooke another Patron of the Dr^s is much dissatisf'd wth him upon Acct of these Matters, but being a Man who has a great Respect for y^e Clergy, & being very cautious of disobliging any one of them (of whatsoever Perswasion) he always appears extraordinary kind to him, & tho' he hates his Principles, yet he takes care to reverence his Person¹. — On Thursday last his Grace the Duke of Buckingham was married to y^e Countess Dowager of Anglesee Daughter of y^e Late King 10 James, a Lady of rare Quality, on whom 'tis said his Grace has not only settled her former Joynture, w^{ch} is 2000^{li}. per an. but a considerable Additional one. — 'Tis said her Majesty design'd to have made Sr. Rowland Gwynne her Resident at Hambourg (w^{ch} is a very good Post) before this disobliging Letter of his came out, w^{ch} hath given such high offence to both Houses of Parliamt.

Mr. Thwaites tells me y^t he has rec^d a Letter from Mr. Hinton formerly Student of X^t Church, now at London wherein he tells him y^t an able Person is writing an Answer to Mr. Dodwell's 20 new Book, which he styles Dodwell's Visions, & that he will handle (as he believes) Mr. Dodwell very roughly. — When y^e Bp. of Worcester was formerly in London where Mr. Dodwell liv'd with him he freq^{tly} was put to it for a Sermon, at the Week's End, having Studied very hard all y^e other part of the Week, & therefore knowing Mr. Dodwell to be a quick Writer he would often ask him to draw up something upon certain Texts he gave him; w^{ch} he accordingly did, & 'tis said by several y^t the Bp. has preach'd divers Sermons thus made by Mr. Dodwell. But quære farther? — Memorandum y^t Bp.  them Oxford men, one of whom told me that he had dancing & musick upon this Occasion one Sunday night for three or four Hours. Such is the Religion of these pretended Hypocritical Saints; who always have reviled King James I. & K. Charles I. for allowing innocent Recreation in Publick on y^e Lord's Day, when they themselves give themselves up 30 to chambering & wantonness on the same day; but not wth the like Innocence: it being farther observable that the said Person told me y^t all the time he was in y^e House he saw not the least shew or Appearance of Religion, nor indeed any thing becoming a Gentleman (w^{ch} this Nevil so much pretends to, & for w^{ch} he is cry'd up among the Rascality of Whiggs & Low-church men) they being forc'd to come wth very little Satisfaction for their Pains. — The Prolocutor of y^e Lower House of Convocation & some Honest members of it had a great mind to have propos'd in y^e House y^t publick thanks should be re-turn'd to Mr. Wall for his Excell^t History of Infant Baptism; but this District to w^{ch} he belong'd were desir'd to thank him in the Name of y^e Prolocutor & some other Persons.

A Scurrilous Letter of y^e Bp. of Carlisle's, (viz. W^m. Nicholson) wherein he shews himself to be a weak Man in speaking so slightly of 20 the Great Mr. Dodwell.

Rose, Sep. 16. 1703.

S^r,—I can easily guess at y^e contents of M^r. Dodwell's Book, but I shall not be satisfied with that. I hope M^r. Wyat will take care to send me 't. His private Discourses I know have run on that topick for these several years. But why he should venture to send his Notions to the Press, in this rather than in the last Reign, I cannot imagine. The poor Man could do well to let controversial Points alone. He has gotten the Reputation of being a profound Scholar; & (for ought I know) deserves it. Perhaps his Arguments may have their Depths too; for I could never see nor feel the Bottom of any of 'em. 30 If posterity understands either his Latin or English (which I much Question) he may possibly be as great a man in succeeding Ages as this: But 'tis an even Wager whether his Book proves himself or not a schismatick. I promise Repentance and Recantation if I am convinc'd of any Error of that kind: for I heartily abhor Schism. I have y^r confidence & charity to hope that nothing he has to say will prove that either the Jacobites or we (in our present unhappy Differences) are Schismatics: And I dare say that some of his Judges to whom he directs his Appeal, will condemn us both.

I had the other Day an Account of some Roman Antiquities found (about a fortnight ago) att Cattericke in Yorkshire. Amongst the rest there were 40 several Urns: & on the Handle of one of these the following Inscription:

II AVRELIVS HERACE PAT ET FIL FBAR.

A Friend desires my thoughts of this; as I do yours. Can we think that it can have any Relation to the Usurping Emperor (or Tyrant) M. Aurelius Maxim. Herculus? He might perhaps be some time in this Island; but we are pretty sure he left not his Ashes here. If you and your Friends can help me to explain it, you'll oblige

W. CARLIOL.

Underneath on a Black Marble on the Floor :

Here lyeth interred the Body of W^m. Neile Esq., Eldest Sonne of S^r. Paule

Neile K^t. and Grandchild to Richard Neile Late L^d. Archbp. of Yorke. He was borne at Bishop Thorpe in the County of Yorke y^e 7th Day of December. 1637 & dyed in this Parish of White-Waltham y^e 24th day of August 1670.

I am inform'd that this Mr. Neile did not dye by hard Study, but for Love (being greatly taken with one of K. Charles II^{ds} Ladys of Honour) w^{ch} brought him into a Consumption, & y^t he was in a manner craz'd sometime before his Death. — Mr. Dodwell of Opinion that Philostratus's Life of Apollonius Tyanæus is spurious; w^{ch} ought to be consider'd by a Gentleman now engag'd in a new Edition of him. — Mr. 10 Gilbert a non-Juror formerly of St. John's College in Oxford, afterwards minister of Medenham & upon his Resignation upon Acc^t of y^e Oaths he liv'd at Great Marlow where he dy'd abt 6 Weeks since & is bury'd in Shottesbrook near his sister. He us'd to officiate at Mr. Cherry's to him & Mr. Dodwell's Family & others of y^t Party in the Duties of Religion. Upon his Decease one Mr. Brooksby does it, a Cambridge Gentleman, afterwards Minister in Yorkshire (where he had a Parsonage of 200 lib^s. per An.) & upon his leaving y^t place retired into Leycestershire. He is a pious & learned Man. — Presently after Dr. Kennett's last 30th of January Sermon before y^e House of Commons came out, 20 his Preface to Pliny's Panegyrick reprinted by itself & cry'd abt London Streets for a penny & half penny a piece. — As soon as Dr. Hicke's Jovian came out, it pleas'd King James very well, & for it he conferr'd upon him y^e Deanery of Worcester. But soon after he shew'd some dissatisfaction upon Acc^t of y^e Dr's having asserted in y^t Book y^t 'tis lawfull for the Subjects to say anything in opposition to an arbitrary prince &c. tho' not justifiable to take up Arms ag^t him.

Mar. 28 (Th.). The Bp. of Worcester says that Mr. Dodwell above 20 years agoe had y^e same Notions about y^e soul w^{ch} he has advanc'd in his New Book, & y^t he would have then divulg'd them only he 30 hinder'd him. — A day or two since I had a small Brass Coyn given me found at Weycock in y^e Parish of Laurence Waltham in Berks, on one side of w^{ch} DRVO CLAUDIO. Caput radiat. Claudij Gothici. R. CONSECRATIO. Aquila. W^{ch} shews that in this Place was a Fortress before the Time of Constantius the Younger, who built Silchester in Hampshire, contrary to w^t I once thought. — The Bp. of Worcester says that it us'd to be said of Judge Hale y^t he had got an Estate honestly and that it would wear like Iron. — The Bp. of Worcester is of Opinion that Mr. Dodwell is in y^e Right about y^e small Number of Martyr's & y^t 'twould have been an easy thing for him to have answer'd 40 Ruinart: but Dr. Turner (President of Corpus Christi College, who is a close, reserv'd man) as I heard him say to day, being at dinner wth his Lordship, believes Mr. Dodwell to be in y^e wrong, & y^t the same Arguments will bring all History into Question. W^{ch} however is certainly false, & may as well be said of other Forgeries of y^e Romanists. — The Bp. of Opinion that Eusebius's Account of y^e Cross appearing in y^e Heavens to Constantine y^e Great is a Forgery, as being contradicted by Lactantius. Quære? — The Bp. of Worcester when Bp. of Lichfield and Coventry going thro' Coventry (as I heard himself say) happen'd to be told of Humfrey Wanley, & to have a good Character 50 of him, as being an ingenious & diligent young man, & not to be very well pleas'd with the Trade to w^{ch} he was put (& for w^{ch} he had then serv'd almost 7 years): for w^{ch} reason calling at the House where he was, he desir'd to see him. Coming to him, he shew'd his Ldship three or four Manuscripts, & talk'd wth some confidence: upon w^{ch} his Ldship sent him to Oxford recommending him to Dr. Mill, who took care to enter him at Edm. Hall, where he staid a little while 'till Dr. Charlett got him to University College, where he staid for about 5 years, & assisted Dr. Hyde in the Publick Library (in w^{ch} place he did much Mischief) & was 10 commonly call'd the master's Pimp, as he is by some to this day. His being to collate y^e Alexandrian MS^t was mention'd to day at y^e Bp. of Worcester's, & three or four then present said He was one of the fittest in y^e World for it, as being able to read it better than most beside, upon w^{ch} the President of Corpus said that it requir'd one y^t understood it, insinuating thereby that Mr. Wanley did not understand Greek: w^{ch} is true, & y^e Bp. could not deny it, his aim in sending him to Oxford being not y^t he should be a scholar (thinking him not capable of it, as having not been bred to it at Schoole) but to be usefull in transcribing MSS^{ts} & writing for Scholars. — I heard y^e Bp. of Worcester say that 20 Judge Hale was a man who courted Honour & that he sacrific'd Justice it self to Popularity.

Mar. 29 (Fri). Dr. Charlett was sent for up to London lately to be catechis'd upon Account of some Scandalous Story about y^e Bp. of Sarum's being to have a great Sum of Money when Presbytery is establish'd &c. (W^{ch} has been inserted in one of these volumes) it being said y^t he was the divulger of it. — A Ballad being made upon Dr. Mill & the others mention'd before going to Woodstock the beginning was this: Great Sir Our Caravan huc ibat | Because we heard you would be private. — Mr. Francis Bugg (as he has told Mr. Thwaites in a Letter)
 30 having presented the Bp. of Worcester with his 2^d Vol. ag^t Quakerism in folio, he refus'd to accept it, & shew'd very great Resentment; the reason whereof may be because of Sr. W^m. Penn's being so great at Court, having perswaded them that there are 40000 Quaking Freeholders in England. — We have an Acc^t from Hertfordshire of the Extraordinary Reception Charles Cæsar Esq^r. had on Wednesday upon his Return home after his long Imprisonment in y^e Tower having been met at Wormly 5 miles from Hertford by the Mayor Aldermen and almost all the Voters of Hertford and at Hodsdon by several 100 of the Freeholders ab^t his Neighbourhood to y^e Number of ab^t 1000 who attended him thro' Hertford
 40 where y^e Streets were strew'd with Flowers & the Inhabitants in their best Cloaths lined y^e same expressing all manner of Satisfaction upon his safe Return home. — Mr. Joseph Trapp M.A. & Fellow of Wadham College has just publish'd, The Mischiefs of Changes in Government; and the Influence of Religious Princes to prevent them. In A Sermon preach'd before y^e Mayor & Corporation of Oxof^d on Friday March 8. 170⁵ being the Anniversary of Her Majesty's Inauguration. He is a Person of good Parts, and has got some Reputation among the Wits for Writing a Play call'd Abram mule. He has likewise some Verses in the Musæ Anglicanæ.

Mar. 31 (Sun.). This day being Low Sunday Mr. Dennison (Will.) Fellow of University College repeated the four Easter Sermons at St. Marie: w^{ch} he perform'd so readily & distinctly, that he came off wth Applause from the whole Auditory, & 'tis not remembred to have been done better since the year 1665 when Mr. Sam. Jemmat of the same College did it to y^e Great Amazement of all present, w^{thout} y^e least Hesitation or Stop. — In the Afternoon preach'd at St. Marie's Mr. Ridgway of Wadham, upon Prov. 1. 10. . . 'Twas an ingenious, well penn'd Discourse shewing the Ends and Designs of Bad men in alluring men to sin, & the usual methods made use of for it, & concluding with 10 some Directions for Resisting them.

Apr. 1 (Mon.). The Lady Eliz. Cecil only sister to y^e Earl of Exeter married to the Earl of Orrery (Mr. Boyle). Dr. Hudson made Bursar of University College last Week, w^{ch} he rec^d wth some unwillingness, upon Acc^t of his being full of other Business.

To be got into y^e Pub. Library . . . Olaus Borichius de usu Plantarum indigenarum. 8°. An Excell^t Book in it's kind, & very scarce. He has writ another Book call'd Parnassus in nuce. 4°. — Sperlingius de Baptismo Ethnicorum. 20 8°. — Jonæ Rami Norvegia Antiqua. 4°. He has writt another Book called Outinus & Ulysses unus et idem. A curious Book. 8°.

Sperlingius is now Fellow of y^e Royal Society in London, an ingenious Man, & Professor to y^e Royal Academy in Copenhagen. Ramus is also a man of good Parts, minister in Norway, & well skill'd in Antiquities.

April 1. H. to Dr. T. Smith. A scurrilous answer to Dodwell in preparation. Remarks on Wood, 'whose industry I can never sufficiently admire,' and Mr. Smith. Halley preparing for observations on eclipse of May 1; to be assisted by Gregory and Caswell.

'Mr. Thwaitis is in a very desperate condition. He is forc'd to go upon crutches, and has not been out of his Chamber this half year. The last time I was with him abroad was at y^e Tavern with Mr. Wotton and Mr. Willis, where we had a great deal of Discourse, & he was (as always) very chearful, tho' often complain'd of a pain in his leg w^{ch} encreas'd to y^t degree that he has been given over by y^e Chirurgeons, and is now under a Woman's Hands. His chief Distemper is y^e Evil, w^{ch} he let alone too long, to y^e great Reluctance of all y^t know his excellent Parts & Learning.' Letters for degrees (including D.D. for Potter) read in Convocation, but vetoed by the Proctors because they had not been previously acquainted with the contents. Has received a coin of Claudius, found at Laurence Waltham, Berks; also copy of inscription from a Throgmorton's tomb at Pauler's-Pury near Towcester. 'Y^e L^d. Leominster who lives at Easton near Towcester has y^e best Collection of Ancient Marble Statues, bigger than y^e Life, that perhaps are anywhere in being, w^{ch} once belong'd to y^e L^d. Arundel, who collected the Marbles in our Theatre Yard.' Particulars of Dr. Mill's Prolegomena. 'Most people here are angry with Mr. Grabe for pitching on so small a Letter in comparison to what he once resolv'd to have, & for putting the 1st volume (w^{ch} will be 70 sheets only) at so high a Price. I am told Dr. Bentley has advic'd him to this, and y^t the Booksellers are well pleas'd with it, designing to break y^e form & to print it in octavo the same time 'tis printing off in Folio; for w^{ch} reason they have contriv'd it in columns.'

Before the first Book of Wandalin de Jure Regio in Bibl. Bodl. Bp. Barlow has y^e following memorandum, viz.

Hoc Joh. Wandalini Opus de Jure Regio, pro Amicitia & benevolentia sua singulari, (ea qua par est gratitudine æterno recolenda) Tho. Lincolnienſi dono dedit (xii Cal. Decem. Anno c^{mo} dclxxix) Petrus nuper (quam nollem infaustum illud nuper) Griffenfeldiæ comes illuſtriſſimus, magnusque & meritiffimus Daniæ Cancellarius, et (æmulis fætoque nequicquam reluctantibus) Vir optimus & doctiſſimus, Daniæ suæ prius ornamentum, nunc triste desiderium, [he was banish'd because of his aspiring to the Crown, as I am told] et x^o (quod nullus dubito) à posteritate sero venerandus.

April 2 (Tu). About King Alfred's Works of Learning see John Fox's Preface to y^e four Saxon Gospels, inter Codd. MSS. Laud. G. 5. — Perhaps Weycock mention'd above p. 57. is no more than the Saxon word, Flæ-ȝeop, w^{ch} signifies, a Fort, Camp, or place of Encamping. — Dr. Royse . . . was reckon'd a good florid Preacher, & it happening that y^e Earl of Berkley being at Oxoñ when he preach'd one time at St. Maries took particular Notice of him, & (as I think) made him his Chaplain. After w^{ch} living at London some time, he got to preach at Lincoln's In for Dr. Tillotson, by w^{ch} means he became acquainted with 20 him. About w^{ch} time (viz. a little after y^e Revolution) he by y^e Recommendation either of y^e Earl of Berkley or Dr. Tillotson was made Chaplain to King W^m and went along with him in his Irish Expedition. A little after this Dr. Sancroft with Others of his Brethren (who would not swear Allegiance to y^e Prince of Orange as King of England) were depriv'd, & Dr. Tillotson succeeding Archbp. Sancroft, Dr. Royse was made his Domestick Chaplain, from whom he rec'd the Rich Living of Newington in Oxoñshire w^{ch} had been possess'd by Dr. Maurice, (who was made Margaret Professor but died (to y^e Regret of all good Men) before he had an opportunity of Reading) & a little after he got from that 30 Dutch pretended King the Deanery of Bristol, vacant by y^e Death of y^e Stout and Loyal Mr. Thompson. Not long after this Dr. Say Provost of Oriel Dying, some of y^e Fellows with whom Royse us'd to drink got a Majority together at Mother Shepherds at Heddington, where they agreed to choose Dr. Royse, & not Mr. Davenant, who was always¹ look'd upon by y^e Men of Learning, and Integrity in y^e University to be y^e fittest for Provost. When he was at London he was a Lecturer at St. Swithun's, by London Stone, w^{ch} (I believe) he held 'till he was Elected Provost. He is a man of good Parts, ready Elocution, and some Learning. He was always fam'd for good Eating and Drinking, [&c.]. — 40 Dr. Charlett commonly called the Gazzeteer or Oxford Intelligencer & by some (I know not for what reason) Troderam was originally of Trinity College, where he became Scholar of the House, and after his taking the Degree of Bachelor of Arts was made one of y^e Collectors. As soon as Master of Arts he was noted for the variety of his Correspondents and Acquaintance, as well as magnificent way of Living. He became Fellow of that College when Dr. Dobson the present President left it. He was in some time after a Pro-Proctor and was very active in y^e Discharge of

y^t Office. The next Year he was one of y^e Head Proctors, & in y^e Long-Vacation made an Excursion into Scotland, where he was kindly receiv'd & nobly Entertain'd by Sr. George Mackenzy & others of Note & Learning. Some years after the Mastership of University College being void (and those who were fittest for it in y^e College declining the Trouble and Expense of it) he was at last thought upon, and by y^e Interest of Dr. Hudson, & one or two more, was Elected Master. At his first coming to y^t College, he laid out two or three Hundred lib^s. upon y^e Lodgings, & he kept up y^e Discipline & Exercise of y^e House very well, by w^{ch} means it flourish'd equally to any House in y^e University; but afterwards it declin'd very much partly by y^e Remissness of y^e Master, & partly by Dr. Hudson's quitting his Pupils when he was made the Bodlejan Library Keeper. He is a man of a strange Rambling Head, much addicted to maintain Correspondence, to hear and tell news in Company w^{ch} he is seldom free from. But of him perhaps more hereafter.

April 3 (Wed.). Remember to tell Dr. Hudson of an Error in his Notes upon Dionys. in the Life of Ancus Marcius, where he quotes Livy in this manner Tellenus Fidenaque, whereas it should be Tellenis Ficanaque, & so Sigonius has corrected Dionysius, but y^e Dr. does not take notice of it. — On Monday last was a meeting of y^e Heads of Houses in y^e Apodyterium of y^e Convocation House about a Letter sent to our University from the University of Francfort upon the Oder inviting them to celebrate the secular day of the Foundation of their University, w^{ch} will happen in this month, it being now just two Hundred years since that University was Founded. The Result of this Meeting was y^t they should not send any Representatives as they had done at Cambridge, but that the day should be solemniz'd in our Theatre with Speeches verses & musick, & some of the Great Men of y^e s^d University of Frankfoort should have eundem Gradum dignitatem & Honorem conferr'd upon them by Diploma in this our University. It was objected at y^e Meeting y^t y^e Form of y^e 30 Diplomas was very mean & ordinary (as all confess'd it was) yet it was carried y^t y^e usual Form should be retain'd upon Account of it's Antiquity. It was moreover agreed upon at y^e Meeting that a Letter should be writ to his Excellency Ezechiel Spanheim to know the Names and Degrees of y^e Chief Magistrates in y^t University, & Dr. Woodroff was pleas'd to offer his Service in y^t Matter, w^{ch} was accepted of. — Dr. Charlett has turn'd off his famous Boy (call'd Davus in the verses upon him & Mr. Percival w^{ch} I have inserted at y^e End of the last vol.) for several Pranks w^{ch} he had plaid, & particularly for one that was put in the Review & Observator viz. his getting drunk one night at New-College, & lighting his Master 40 home with a Silver Tankard instead of a Dark Lantern. — This day at one a Clock was a Convocation for admitting new Proctors in room of those of the last year: when Mr. Bickley the former Senior Proctor made (as usual) a proper Speech; but he being but an indifferent Orator (however otherwise a man of good sense) he came off somewhat to the Discredit of himself and University, there being a great number of Auditors, expecting to have had something extraordinary; whereas there was nothing remarkable in his Relation of the last years Transactions (but y^e New Building of Christ Church upon occasion of w^{ch} he mention'd the Palace going forward at Woodstock, & thought y^t the Duke of Marlborough 50 might look with an invidious Eye upon this at Christ Church if finish'd as successfully as began): And whereas formerly there was always among other things a short History at this time given of the State of Learning in the University for y^e year past, & what Books of Note had been printed or carrying on, he wholly omitted this particular, as he did divers others w^{ch} should have been hinted at. After he had finish'd the New Proctors, viz. Mr. Carter of Oriel and Mr. Cranck of Trinity were admitted; but whether they will stand up for y^e Privileges of y^e University as their Predecessors did, is much doubted, the latter being (as I have already formerly observ'd) a Man who is for siding with both Parties, I mean Whigg and Tory, and not declaring directly for either. — Dr. Lancaster, Dr. Waugh and Dr. Gibson were all poor Children, Taberders and afterwards Fellows of Queen's College. The first of these viz. Lancaster, when Bachelor of Arts, was sent by Sr. Joseph Williamson, then Secretary of State, into France, where he accomplish'd himself, & upon his Return he prosecuted his Studies in Queen's College. When he stood for his Master of Arts Degree, one Mr. Clark of All-Souls (one of y^e Proctors & a pert, ignorant Fellow,) denied his Grace. But when it came to be put to vote in the Congregation, he carried it against y^e Proctors, there being 10 nothing but trifling Objections made against him. In the first year of his Regency & two or three years afterwards, he had a mighty Reputation for a Preacher, w^{ch} Character he might have sull maintain'd, if he had kept less Company, and taken as much pains as he did formerly. When he was a Junior Fellow he liv'd some time as Chaplain to y^e Earl of Denbigh; but in a little time return'd to y^e College. & became Tutor to several young Gentlemen, & particularly to a Younger Son of y^t Earl's. A little while after this 'twas his good fortune to be remov'd from Oxford (where for y^e sake of good Company he neglected most of his Business) to y^e Bp. of London, & became his Domestick Chaplaine. While he was with y^e Bishop, he 30 got y^e Rich Parsonage of St. Martin's from his Lordship, & some years afterwards was made Provost of Queen's, w^{ch} Election was controverted, as being directly against y^e Statutes of y^e College. A little after this he was made (by y^e Bp. of London) Archdeacon of Middlesex. He has publish'd some Sermons &c. The second Dr. Waugh was a plain, popular Preacher, & a great Tutor. He was Proctor of the University & not long after fell in league with a Widow, the Relict of one Mr. Fiddes (the Son of old Mr. Fiddes Minister of Brightwell) upon w^{ch} being necessitated to leave y^e College, he, by y^e Interest of some Friends in London, got a Lectureship in St. Bride's, & by y^e means of Dr. Lan-

 40 caster supply'd one of y^e Chapells of Ease in St. Martin's Parish. Now it being known to y^e Archbp. of Cant. & others that he had been all along a Favourer of y^e Whiggs upon the Promotion of the most Worthy Dr. Beveridge, that self-designing Party (who never regard any but those of their own gang) procur'd for him of y^e Queen y^e Good Living of St. Peter's, Cornhill. He preach'd and printed Bp. Bull's Consecration Sermon, & 'tis said that (to augment the Number of Low-Church men in y^e Convocation House) he has the promise of an Archdeaconry after y^e Death of one Mr. Staino¹. The third Dr. Gibson when he was undergraduate or just Bachelor of Arts was by Dr. Mill put upon publishing the Chronicon Saxonicum, w^{ch} tho' the first by the Revisal of y^e said Dr. was better yⁿ any of his other Performances. After this to gratify one Cruttenden (a broken Printer and a great Acquaintance of Dr. Charlett's) he apply'd him self to y^e Publication of Quintilian; in w^{ch} if he had submitted himself to y^e Directions of Dr. Mill he might have made a very good Edition of y^t Author; but seeing this (being likely to take up a great deal of time) did not suit with y^e Interest of Cruttenden, he left Dr. Mill & quite broke with him upon y^t occasion, & in a little time gave us an Edition of Quintilian, w^{ch} had no great matter done to it. Some 10 time I think before this he publish'd a Catalogue of MSS^{ts} w^{ch} he inscribed Bibliotheca Tennisoniana, & dedicated to Dr. Tennison, whereas these MSS^{ts} were really the L^d. Clarendon's, w^{ch} he purchas'd in Ireland when L^d. Deputy there. To w^{ch} is added a Catalogue of Sir W^m. Dugdale's MSS. in y^e Ashmolean Museum. Not long after this, when some Roguish Booksellers had a Design to cheat y^e World, with a new Edition of Camden's Britannia in English (which they pretended should be all translated anew with great Accuracy, & enlarg'd with considerable Additions & Curious Remarks) he was thought fit to be made the supervisor & Corrector of that Work, & to this End he went purposely to London, & 20 had all y^e Papers relating to it put into his Hands. Of what value they were 'tis not certain, but excepting what y^e Learned Mr. Lihuyd of y^e Ashmolean Museum did there is nothing of any great moment appearing throughout the whole Book. Before or a little after his being made Fellow of Queen's College, upon y^e score & merits of his flattering & unjust Dedication of y^e above s^d Catalogue of MSS^{ts} to Dr. Tennison, he was made Keeper of y^e Library at Lambeth, & liv'd in Dr. Tennison's (then Arch^{bp}.) Family, & within a while after was made one of his Domestick Chaplains, the Arch^{bp} having two more at y^e same time, viz. Dr. Hody and Dr. Greene. Sometime after his Coming to Lambeth he 30 kept a fair Correspondence with some considerable men in y^e Church, such as Dr. Hooper Parson of Lambeth and afterwards Bp. of Bath and Wells. But upon the unhappy Distinction of High and Low Church Men, and y^e Debates arising in y^e lower House of Convocation, he struck in with y^e Low Church Party, as being most able to prefer him, and writ a great many Pamphletts about y^e said Controversy relating to y^e Convocation: by w^{ch} Party he was look'd upon to be so meritorious especially in y^e Eyes of the Archbishop (who commonly sees with other Peoples Eyes) that he got to be precentor of Chichester (that being an Option of y^e Archbishop's) & afterwards by the Interest of a Parcel of Whiggs in 40 that Church was made Canon Residentiary, and about y^e same time obtain'd the Rich Living of Lambeth, and half a Lectureship at St. Martin's in y^e Fields. Note y^t y^e abovesaid Dr. Green was a little spruce smugg'd fac'd & formal Court Chaplain to Sr. Stephen Fox, & it may be by him was recommended to the abovesaid Arch^{bp}. to be his Chaplain. By his Sneaking and Cringing (for nobody knew of any other Merits that he had) he insinuated himself mightily into y^e favour of y^e Arch^{bp}, & was by him recommended to be Master of Bennett College in in Oxford, & after y^t got a Living in London. He has printed some Sermons, & a Book in 8^{vo}. the title whereof is * * * Cambridge of w^{ch} both himself and y^e Arch^b were. The Fellows of that College, as to y^e Majority of them, being willing to gratify the great and heavy man at Lambeth made choice of him to be their Master, to y^e Regret of all men of Learning and Probity in y^t University. Either before or a little after this he was made by y^e Archbishop to be one of y^e Prebendaries of Canterbury & to strengthen his Interest among y^e Whiggs married a sister of Dr. Trimnell's.

Apr. 4 (Th.). Just publish'd A Letter to Mr. Dodwell, wherein all y^e Arguments in his Epistolary Discourse ag^t y^e Immortality of y^e Soul
 10 are particularly answered, & y^e Judgm^t of y^e Fathers concerning y^t Matter truly represented, by Sam. Clarke, M.A. Chaplain to y^e B^p. of Norwich. 8^o. 'Twas written in hast, & therefore divers things are omitted; but there are several good Observations in it, & if w^t he says be true Mr. Dodwell has all along misrepresented y^e Fathers. — Dr. Haley was originally of All-Souls College, first a Querister then Clerk & then Fellow there: afterwards he went along wth Sr. William Trumball in y^e Quality of his Chaplain, when he was made King Charles II^{ds} Envoy to Constantinople. He also accompanied him in Quality of Chaplain when he was Envoy to France. Upon y^e Revolution, he was 20 made Camp Chaplain in his Expedition into Flanders, and after y^t Rector of St. Giles's in the Fields (Lond.) and at length Dean of Chichester. He has publish'd some Sermons in English, and one in Latin w^{ch} was preach'd before y^e Lower House of Convocation, by w^{ch} anyone may see that 'twas something else than Merits that advanc'd him. I think 'twas this Dr. who call'd Dr. Willis from his Fellowship at All-Souls (who was originally of Wadham) to be employ'd as a Preacher under him at London. By the Interest of Dr. Haley and his Friends, this Dr. Willis was recommended to King William as well qualified to accompany him as Camp-Chaplain in one other, or more
 30 expeditions, into Flanders. He was Sub-Tutor to the Duke of Gloucester, B^p. Burnett being chief. Now being improv'd in Impudence and all Arts of Insinuation, and being a Man of true Revolution Principles, to the Surprise of all good Men, he attain'd the Deanry of Lincoln, and a little while after got a great Living w^{ch} was either in y^e Disposal of y^e Dean or y^e Dean and Chapter of y^t Church. He has likewise printed some Sermons and other Pamphlets in English, and one Sermon in Latin, preach'd before y^e Lower House of Convocation. By w^{ch} anyone may see that he is hardly fit to be a Country Curate or School-Master. — Dr. Trimnell was a Clergyman's Son, I think in 40 Huntingdonshire, & was bred at Wm. of Wickham's School at Winchester, where he had two Brothers also; & they all three became Fellows of New-College. He had another Brother at Eaton who was afterwards Fellow of King's College in Cambridge. When the s^d Dr. Trimnell was at New College he was look'd upon as a very sober studious and ingenious Man, & by some means was recommended to y^e late Earl of Sunderland in King James's time to be a Tutor to his Son the present Earl of Sunderland. The first Preferment he had was a Parsonage in Northamptonshire w^{ch} he resign'd to one Mr. Downes Fellow of New College (who has printed a Sermon preach'd before y^e University of Oxoñ) upon y^e score of marrying his Sister as 'twas generally believ'd. Afterwards y^e Doctor got to be Prebendary of Norwich, & has an Archdeaconry, as I take it y^t of Norwich. He married a Daughter of Dr. Talbot Bp. of Oxoñ, w^{ch} if he had not done 'tis very probable he might have been Warden of New College upon the Decease of Dr. Traffies. For upon y^e Election he lost it but by one Vote, and several who were against him declar'd they would have been 10 for him if he had not been married. He has printed one if not more Sermons. He seems to be a fair condition'd Man, & one of the best of all y^e Whiggish or Low-Church Party. — Being with Dr. Charlett this Afternoon he confess'd he was sent for up to London upon Account of a Paper he shew'd to Mr. Beauchamp . . . who reported that y^e Master could prove y^e particulars, whereas he only shew'd it as a piece of News not at all vouching for y^e Truth thereof. But w^t the Issue of his Journey was I could not gather from him; only thus much I perceive that he is afraid of being prosecuted, & for y^t reason designs to wait upon the Bp. of Worcester who is great wth y^e Bp. of Sarum, & 20 to tell him y^e Truth of y^e Matter.

Apr. 5 (Fri.). The Natural Immortality of y^e soul asserted and proved from Scripture and Primitive Antiquity, in Answer to a Book written by Mr. Dodwell, Entit. The Distinction betw. Soul & Spirit. A sheet of this I saw to day composed, & 'tis printing at y^e Theatre. Mr. Mills corrects it. Quære whether he be not Author? — Just publish'd Dr. Charlott's Letter to Mr. Percival, with Mr. Percival's Answer. price 2d. 'Tis y^e same thing inserted at y^e End of y^e preceding Vol. — To shew w^t a Disciplinarian Dr. Mill is (after all his talk) it may be observ'd that he advis'd Mr. Pearce his Vice-Principal 30 to go and sit as Member of the Convocation when the Proctors were admitted, tho' he has not been yet made Regent; w^{ch} accordingly he did, & y^e Dr. commends him for it. — Some days since departed this Life Sr. Walter Clergis K^t Baront after a long Indisposition of y^e Dropsy. — Dr. Mill when he went to Woodstock to wait upon the Duke of Marlborough (with y^e rest of his Oxoñ Brethren) address'd himself in the following Manner to y^e Duke, viz.

GREAT SIR we are hither come
For to behold Your Stately Dome,
And complement Your self & Dear,
For y^e Venison we had last year
I am y^e Principal of Edmund Hall,

Whom most Men Johny Mill do call,
And purposely to wait upon your Grace
Our Noble Patron, & Lord of this place, 40
Have left my Testament i' th' lurch,
As some years since I did y^e Church.

wth Mr. Dodwell upon y^e Case of Jaddus mention'd in Josephus, Mr. Dodwell communicated to him y^e following note out of y^e Samaritan Chronicle, amongst Dr. Huntingdon's MSS^{ts}. viz. Mr. Dodwell thinks it of Importance to render y^e Story of Jaddus suspicious, because it appears from hence y^t the Samaritans apply'd y^e Substance of y^e same story to y^er High Priest. This chronicle is writ in y^e Samaritan Language, & Dr. Bernard having read it over and made some collections communicated them to Mr. Dodwell. — Mr. John Gardiner, Bachelor of Physick of University College, has writ a Book abt y^e Circulation of 10 y^e Bloud. — Sr. Edm. Warcup was in y^e year 1699 entred of University College, & for sometime kept a Name in y^e Buttery Book; at w^{ch} time Dr. Charlett (one of his Admirers) was sponsor for Discharge of his Battles. — Dr. Crakanthorp writ a Book ag^t a Book of the Archbp. of Spalato's, publish'd by way of Retraction after y^e Archbp. left England; but Dr. Couzin pag. 12. of his Book de Sacr. Symbolis & vera præsenta X^{ti} in Sacram. Euch. shews y^t y^e said Archbp. never retracted his former Opinions nor writ any such Book, but died in defence of y^e Doctrines w^{ch} he had maintain'd in his other Writings.

Apr. 7 (Sun.). The good Living of Adderbury in Oxo^{ns}hire be-20 coming vacant upon the Death of Dr. Beau, Bp. of Landaff, and it being to be dispos'd of by Vote by the Fellows of New-College (to w^{ch} it belongs) Mr. Loggans, Bachelor of y^e Civil Law, Chancellor of Sarum and Fellow of y^t House was one of those who stood for it & carried it by one Vote, to y^e great Amazement of the whole university & Resentment of all good Men, he not taking orders 'till this time when he was above 50 years of Age, & being so void of Parts and Learning, that as 'tis said by some sober, understanding Persons he is not able to read the Common-Prayer; w^{ch} he is so conscious of that he designs to do no dutys at y^e Place himself, but to keep one there for y^t End: his 30 design in going into Orders being for nothing else but to enlarge his Purse, not to do God service. And tho' all this could not but be well known by Bp. Burnett, yet he ordain'd him wthout any Scruple that I can hear of. To such a Height of Wickedness is the World grown! — This Morning preached at St. Marie's Dr. Hall Bp. of Bristol upon these words, my yoke is easy and my Burden is light, shewing from thence how easy a thing it is for any man to obey and follow all the Commands & Injunctions of X^t, if he do but apply himself chearfully and willingly, & wth y^t love he has for other things, to y^e Performance of them. — Dr. Charlett tells me that he thinks Mr. Mills to be the Undertaker of 40 y^e Book, a sheet whereof I saw at y^e Theatre Press, ag^t Mr. Dodwell; because he talk'd to him that he would write such a thing. — Mr. Collins (with whom I was this afternoon) is of opinion that Mr. Dodwell is in the right about y^e natural mortality of y^e soul, & said he would be so 'till some better Answer come out yⁿ y^t written by Mr. Clark. He told me that Mr. Hen. Stubbs was mov'd chiefly to write against y^e Royal Society, because he was not admitted Fellow of it; w^{ch} if he had been, he would have us'd his Pen in Defence. — Sr. Walter Clarges Son of Sr. Thomas Clarges, who was once an Apothecary in London, Burgess for y^e university of Oxon, and was Brother in Law to General
 50 Monke, who married his Sister.

Apr. 8 (Mon.). Mr. Bingham, lately Fellow of University College, has just publish'd a Book in 8^o. call'd The Apology of the French Church for y^e Church of England; w^{ch} he has dedicated to y^e Archbp. of Canterbury, but does not in y^e least complement him; & I believe y^t y^e Archbp. will grumble at his Writing ag^t Dissenters, whom he (like a 2^d Abbot) encourages & protects as much as possibly he can.

Apr. 9 (Tu.). Dr. Woodroff did not write y^e Letter sent to Baron Spanheim conc. the celebration of y^e Foundation of the university of Francfurt, but y^e Vice-Chancellor himself. 'Twas well rec^d by his Excellency & he gave his Opinion that our University took the best way, 10 & y^e Duke of Ormond seem'd at last satisfied tho' at first he seem'd something concern'd that we should not do as Cambridge had done. Which as it would have cost the University 6 or 700 lib^s. and perhaps have created some Difference about Precedence, so would it not have been so great an Honour as w^t has been resolv'd upon. — Memorandum y^t when Tully's Epistles are reprinted a little Piece is to be taken out of Morhoffius's Book de conscribendis Epistolis, w^{ch} has this Title, viz. pag. 284, Exempla Epistolarum secundum causarum genera à Cicerone collecta. — Dr. Barton, originally Scholar and Fellow of Corpus X^{ti} Coll. when in Oxoⁿ was reckon'd a pretty good Scholar, but a man of 20 a morose severe Temper, & a little Puritannically inclin'd. He was made Chaplain to Mr. Foley when Speaker of the House of Commons, and upon y^e House's Petition, as is usual for y^e Chaplain, was made Prebendary of Westminster. He has also a Good Living in Southwark, w^{ch} it may be he rec^d from one of y^e L^d. Keepers. He has publish'd some Sermons. Dr. Hallifax, originally Scholar & Fellow of Corpus X^{ti} of the same Puritanical stamp with y^e former, was at Smyrna for some time, and copied y^e Inscriptions at Palmyra, w^{ch} were publish'd in y^e Philosophical Transactions, wth notes, w^{ch} are full of Faults. He was likewise Chaplain to Foley when Speaker of y^e House of Com- 30 mons, & tho' the House petition'd for him, yet 'twas his Fortune to get nothing: whereas one Galloway, originally of Hart-Hall, who was a most notorious stupid Blockhead, without one Grain of Learning, for being Foley's Chaplain, when Speaker, got to be Prebendary of Worcester; w^{ch} to y^e scandal of all Worthy men he still enjoys. He (Dr. Hallifax) translated De Chale's Euclid, whereof there are two or three Impressions.

A Gentleman this Afternoon shew'd me a Coyn of M. Aurelius Vic- 40 torinus, of the lesser Brass viz. IMP. VICTORINVS P. F. AVG. Victorini Caput radiat. R. SALVS AVG. Fig. stans, dex. serpentem, cui Pateram sinistra porrigit. — There is a Book going under y^e Name of Gorallus, w^{ch} is a fictitious Name for Joannes Clericus. See Baile's Dictionary. — Remember to tell Dr. Hudson that he has made a Reference in pag. 233. Vol. I. of Dionysius to the Notes at y^e End of the Work concerning Vicus Orbis, where however is nothing said ab^t it. — Mr. Milles coming to see Dr. Hudson this Afternoon, the Dr. told him he heard he had a Book in y^e Press in Answer to Mr. Dodwell. When

Mr. Milles did not frankly own it, but seem'd to shuffle about it, the Dr. told him that he had it from three several Persons of good credit, & that moreover common fame made him y^e Author of it. To which Milles reply'd that this was only their Conjectures, & that common Fame was often a Lyar. Then says the Doctor to him, if you do not own the Book why do you not disown it, & free your self from y^e Reflections y^t some Men make, y^t it was not fair in you who are honour'd with Mr. Dodwell's Friendship, not to propose your Objections ag^t his Book to him by way of letter, before you make them

10 Publick. To this he answer'd that seeing Mr. Dodwell had made his Book publick it was fitting the Answer should be as publick too; & y^t Mr. Dodwell could not well object against it, seeing he was treated by the Author (whoever he was) with y^e greatest Respect and candor imaginable; & y^t 'twas so far from being any prejudice to Mr. Dodwell, that it would be a means to keep off others from falling more severely upon him. After this the Dr. told him y^t if he had taken his advice, he should not have meddled with Mr. Dodwell: for he thought it not only unfair to deal so with a Friend but likewise that it would not turn to any Good Account to himself. For he might be sure that y^e

20 Christ Church Men & others, who are already incens'd against him, would severely criticise upon his Performance, & expose it all that possibly they could. To w^{ch} Milles reply'd that the Author had communicated what he had writ to two or three Friends whose Judgm^t he could rely upon & y^t everything was so nicely weigh'd & well consider'd, that he fear'd no Body's Censure, & would court no Man's favour; & did not in y^e least doubt but it would be unanswerable. After this the Dr. told him that he had heard that Mr. Milles should say that Mr. Dodwell had not quoted so much as one Father fairly; to w^{ch} Milles did agree. Upon w^{ch} the Dr. told him, y^t he believ'd Mr.

30 Dodwell was a person of y^t Honesty and Integrity that he would not willingly so impose upon y^e World, & y^t he was moreover of such Abilities, & so well vers'd in y^e Fathers, that he could not imagine Mr. Dodwell should be so much mistaken. To this Milles reply'd That in a little time men would be convinc'd of y^e Truth of what he said. The Dr. talk'd with him no more on that Topick, but then ask'd him how big this Answer would be. He said near upon as big as Mr. Dodwell's Book: to w^{ch} the Dr. said no more, but only express'd his Wonder that so great a Boók should be writ in so short a time, & y^t if he (Milles) was the Author of it y^t he should have so much leisure as

40 to make Visits. To w^{ch} he said, that the Dr. did not well consider how much time he had to himself yet. From all this the Dr. cannot bring himself to believe that Milles is the Author, but rather Humphrey Hody, who was in Town just at y^e time the Book was put to y^e Press; & y^t Milles to court y^e favour of y^e People at Lambeth has offer'd his service to y^e Dr. to correct his Book. (The Dr. is willing that this should be communicated to Mr. Dodwell for his own private use.)

Apr. 10 (Wed.). I am inform'd that Mr. Oddy y^e Gentleman who designs to put out an Edition of Dion Cassius lives in London, was never bred at any university (his Father being a Fanatick) that he is

50 about 33 or 34 years of Age, has been a very hard Student, has

Excellent natural Parts, is a great master of the Greek Tongue & very well skill'd in Sacred & Prophane History, & y^t he is of different Principles from his Father. But quære more? — Just publish'd, A Book call'd Justice done to Humane Souls in a short view of Mr. Dodwell's Book Entit. Apr. 11 (Th.). The Proclamation for silencing y^e Episcopal Clergy in Scotland is as rigorous against y^m as if they had been declar'd 10 Exiles. — Mr. Percival told me last night that there are 4 or 5 Persons engag'd in writing the Book printing in the Theatre against Mr. Dodwell. Quære whether White of Wadham be not one of them? I am sure he is consulting Books abt y^e Soul — Meeting accidentally this day with two Young Gentlemen, they told me they call'd a day or two since in their way to Oxoñ upon Mr. Dodwell, with whom talking upon the Subject of his New Book, he told them he had just then rec'd Mr. Clark's Letter to him, & was reading of it over, & wthall said that he (Mr. Clark) had dealt very disingenuously by him. — Just come out a Book call'd The Rights of the Christian Church asserted against the 20 Independent Power of the Romish and all other Priests: in w^{ch} Book are some things against Mr. Dodwell's Preface to his Defence of the Vindication of y^e Depriv'd B^{ps}. shewing that he is in a great Error about the first B^{ps} of our English Reformation, & y^t his Notion abt the Civil Magistrate's having no Authority to deprive B^{ps} for Political Crimes cannot be reconcil'd with w^t was done at y^t time. — 'Tis only the first Part, & I am told by Mr. Clements that Dr. Tyndal of All-Souls is Author, whom he saw present one in London to a Friend of his of y^e same Principles wth the Doctor.

April 12 (Fri.). As soon as Dr. Hudson was made Bursar of Uni- 30 versity College, he took care to regulate divers disorders relating to his Office, w^{ch} had crept in by y^e Remissness (I suppose) of some of his Predecessors. But amongst these laudable Undertakings is chiefly to be mention'd the College Garden w^{ch} having been almost ruined & quite out of Repair, he order'd to be cover'd with Green Turff, planted with Trees & flowers, & the Walks to be gravell'd, to the great Beauty of y^e Place & Satisfaction of the rest of y^e Fellows: & there was no one of y^e College appear'd at present displeas'd wth it but y^e Master; w^{ch} perhaps being known to one Robinson (a Commoner of y^t House, & Nephew to Mr. Smith lately senior Fellow & now in London, who it seems was 40 always averse to this Reform) a day or two after it was finish'd with two or three more of y^e College got into y^e Garden in y^e Night time, pull'd up some of y^e Ews spoil'd others, & did other Mischief, to y^e no small Grief of y^e Doctor & ye rest of y^e Fellows; it being such a piece of Malice as one would think could not enter into the thoughts of any person of common Breeding, & indeed seldom or never heard of in the University, but in y^e College, where they have had some other Instances of y^e same Nature, & have had some lads noted for this Diabolical Wickedness; & wthout doubt 'twas from them Mr. Robinson was instructed, he being reckon'd at first a civil modest Youth, & to be very good natur'd. One reason w^{ch} instigated him I hear is because the Dr. and the rest of y^e Society had taken care y^t all the undergraduates & Bachelors should dine and sup in the Hall, or to undergo a penalty for it, w^{ch} it seems had been neglected before, to the disgrace somew^t of the College, this being a proviso in all College and Hall Statutes, & if kept up redounds much to y^e Honour of y^e University. — A Book in Arabick written by Abdollatiphi, containing a compendious History of Egypt was begun to be translated by Dr. Pocock and printed at y^e Theatre in 10 Bp. Fell's time at y^e Expense of Dr. Marshall Rector of Lincoln College, & was a pretty way advanc'd; but on a sudden y^e Bp. having an occasion for y^e Latin Letter the Book stop'd, w^{ch} so vex'd the good old Man Dr. Pocock y^t he could never be prevail'd to go on any farther. Neither would Dr. Hyde, tho' often desir'd by Dr. Aldrich when Vice-Chancellor, finish the same, unless somebody would give him a good Sum of Money for it; w^{ch} was highly resented by the said Dr. Aldrich, who still offers to be at y^e Expense of Finishing y^e Book. — Remember to look upon the MS^t of Pomponius Mela in New College Library, & see w^t Age it is. A gentleman of Exeter is preparing a new Edition of it, & I am told 20 has six maps already Engrav'd for it. I am ¹told the Gentleman is Mr. Reynolds who has a Brother Fellow of Corpus X^{ti} & another Fellow of Baliol. He is a Schoolmaster in y^e Country.

April 13 (Sat). Dr. Hudson ad pag. 271. of Dionys. Hal. thinks y^t the Vatican MS. reads Οὐινδίκιος rightly for Οὐινδίκης. W^{ch} is wrong, Plutarch having Οὐινδίκης also: and Sigonius and Vossius (in his Etymolog.) have remark'd that Vindex in Livy is to be read for Vindicius. — In Arch. Bod. B. 2. April 14 (Sun). Dr. William Lloyd the Depriv'd Bp. of Norwich had 30 a son died lately (named John Lloyd) of the small Pox, being about 30 years of Age. He was a Gentleman of great Hopes, being a Barrister at Law, in w^{ch} he had obtain'd great Skill. His death happen'd about a fortnight after he had married a Daughter of Dr. Humphreys Bp. of Hereford. His Father Dr. Lloyd, who was of St. John's in Camb. as was also his Son, is a Person of Excellent Learning, Primitive Christianity &c. as may be seen in the Preface to Dr. Hicks's Thesaur. Ling. Sept. Dr. Humphreys was of Jesus College, is reckon'd a Man of Integrity, & highly noted for his Skill in the British Antiquities, as partly appears from the Tables Chronological drawn up by him in y^e first Vol. of Mr.

April 13. Dr. T. Smith to H. Hopes Mr. Smith, of University, will not quit his station there if he can well and fairly keep it. Will send H. a copy of his letter to Dr. Wallis (written Sept. 1690) concerning Wood's blunders and injudicious collections out of the Archives, when he can light upon it. Remarks on Halley, Thwaites, Hudson, Roman antiquities. Sir W^m. Farmor, now L^d. Leominster, bought the marbles at Easton of the Dowager Duchess of Norfolk (Mrs. Bickerton) for a very inconsiderable sum. See Smith's letter to M. Boier, since printed without leave. Any truth in the scandalous story concerning Dr. Charlett? Who is C. Veratius Philellen? Is highly satisfied with Mill's Prolegomena.

Tyrrell's General History of England. — This day in y^e Afternoon preach'd at St. Marie's before y^e University Mr Stevens, Fellow of Merton College (to w^{ch} place he was chosen from Corpus Xth Coll.) upon Mat. ro. 28. . .

The design of w^{ch} Discourse was to prove the Natural Immortality of y^e soul, & was levell'd particularly against Mr. Dodwell, whose Hypothesis he said was dangerous and Irreligious. He prov'd his position from the Nature of the Soul, which he said is immaterial, it being in his Opinion impossible for mater to think. The Arguments for proof of this were no other than w^t have been before advanc'd by Sir Kenelm Digby, & therefore he need not have insisted so much upon them; nor indeed were they much to the purpose in confuting Mr. Dodwell, since y^t learned Man is of opinion that y^e Soul is neither material nor immaterial but distinct from both & yet dependent upon mater. After he had done with this part of his Discourse, he proceeded to prove it's natural Immortality from Revelation; w^{ch} however was but indifferently perform'd by him, not confuting one Explication of any one Text of Scripture given by Mr. Dodwell; but only saying in general that the Scriptures were express against him; as also he insinuated the Fathers were, tho' he did not shew it, but only referr'd to Mr. Clark's Answer, not doubting but all people would be satisfied from thence; whereas 'tis so far from being a satisfactory Discourse, that most people are of opinion that Mr. Clark has dealt somewhat unfairly by Mr. Dodwell in y^t particular; and indeed Mr. Dodwell complains of him on y^t Account. Upon the whole he concluded the Soul to be a principle naturally immortal, & not immortaliz'd by y^e Divine Spirit in Baptism, & hinted how easy 'tis for Great and Learned Men to fall into Error, when they suffer themselves to be byass'd thro' partiality, or are stiff in maintaining opinions not thought off before.

April 15 (Mon.). Dr. Smith tells me of a Piece written handsomely & judiciously ag^t Jac. Gronovius in the ixth Tome of Le Clerck's Bibliothecae Choisie w^{ch} he says is dated at Oxon last Jan. I cannot tell who it should be. 'Tis not likely to have been done at Oxon. Perhaps Fabricius was Author who owes Gronovius a spight for publishing Manetho's Apotelesmata, w^{ch} Fabricius had undertaken & promis'd before ever Gronovius thought of it. . . Mr. Owen Master of an Academy (I think in Staffordshire) who writ Moderation a vertue & some other things ag^t Mr. Lesley died ab^t 10 days agoe. — Mr. Jo. Cannel, whom I have before mention'd, of Lincoln College, took his A.M.'s Degree last Term, & is since made Chaplain to my Lord Haversham.

April 16 (Tu.). Dr. Lloyd late Br. of Norwich has an Elder Brother nam'd Ellis Lloyd, a Gentleman of ab^t 900 lib^s. per Annum, 300 of w^{ch} he had settled upon Mr. Lloyd (John) mention'd above, just before he married. — Upon y^e Decease of Dr. Halton Provost of Queen's College, Archdeacon of Oxon & Brecknock, his Archdeaconry of Brecknock was given to Mr. Roger Griffyth, a Person who had been formerly a Presbyterian Teacher, & was then come over to y^e Church of England. He never was of any University, w^{ch} he thinking then something scandalous, there was some motion made for having his Degrees of Bach. & M. of Arts given him here; but finding y^t would not take he went to Cambridge, where he was made Bachelor of Divinity at y^t time y^e Queen was there, & in some time will take that of Dr. especially if he be made Bp. of Landaff, a thing w^{ch} has been propos'd by the Bp. of Worcester tho' not likely to happen y^t I can learn as yet.

April 17. T. Cherry to H. Wants 'old shews,' stockings, linen, &c. sent. Three more answers to Dodwell forthcoming; Dodwell is uneasy under Mr. Clark's observations, denying that his book can do harm to any. 'He bad me desire you would compare the edition of Rinesius's Variæ Lectiones by Camerarius . . y^e 14 chap. & 3^d Book with the manuscript of Selden's relating to Vettius Valence in which book he is often mentioned.'

- April 17 (Wed.). One of the Sceleton's in y^e Anatomy Schoole was w^{ir}ed by one Wells a Smith in Cat-Street; by w^{ch} he became an 10 Eminent Bone-setter & a good Surgeon. — In y^e year 1690 was publish'd a Pamphlett (of very good Note) call'd the Judgm^t of y^e Forreign Reformed Churches conc. y^e Rites & Offices of y^e church of England: shewing there is no need of Alterations. The Author N. S. Memorandum That Dr. John Baron (Master of Baliol Col.) made bold with this Pamphlet, in a Sermon at St. Marie's (An Acc^t whereof I gave at y^t Time) just when he was a Candidate for y^e Margaret Professor's Place. Quære whether Mr. Bingham has not also been dabbling in it? — I am told Mr. Perks of Corpus Christi College is one of those ingag'd in writing an Answer to Mr. Dodwell. — Talking this Afternoon wth Mr.
 20 Milles about y^e said Answer, he denied y^t any had a hand in Writing of it but one Person, & said y^t there were but two who ever saw it, tho' he had before told Dr. Hudson that 3 or four had perus'd it. He also denied y^t Mr. Perks had look'd any of it over, but 3 or four pages. The Author he s^d was so familiarly acquainted wth Mr. Dodwell, & had so great a Respect for him, y^t he took all possible care to avoid abusive Language. When I ask'd him why being so much his Friend he did not first of all communicate w^t he had to say to Mr. Dodwell, who perhaps might retract some of his Errors in y^e New Edition, he gave but a very shuffling Answer, & no more y^a what he had told Dr. Hudson before.
 30 He would not acknowledge himself to be Author, tho' he confess'd himself to have look'd it over, & to have some Hand in it as it was at y^e Press: upon w^{ch} I told him some people wonder'd he should meddle at all wth one who was so much his Friend, especially since he formerly vindicated Mr. Dodwell's Opinion; & notwthstanding this was a different Subject, yet some things are to be resolv'd into those principles handled in those other Books by Mr. Dodwell, & y^e World would think hardly of him upon this Account. To w^{ch} he reply'd that he was still of opinion y^t y^e Civil Magistrate has no Right of Depriving Bps & would defend Mr. Dodwell on y^t score: w^{ch} is such a piece of Contradiction as can hardly 40 be parallell'd, himself sometime since telling me he was asham'd of w^t he had written formerly on y^t subject, & having all along communicated wth such Bps as are Schismatical according to Mr. Dodwell's Opinion & w^t himself had laid Down in his Vindication of y^t Learned Man. Upon y^e whole from w^t he said in relation to himself, & especially from his intimating y^t y^e Author would not answer all (by w^{ch} it should seem he was almost weary, much like Mr. Milles's manner of proceeding in such Cases) as also from part of y^e Copy w^{ch} I saw today being his hand, I conclude Mr. Milles to be Author, or at least to have a very great Share in it. Amongst other things upon this occasion he told me Dr. South

he is writing against y^e Bp. of Gloucester. — Just publish'd, Because Iniquity shall abound, y^e Love of many shall wax cold. A Sermon preached by Dr. Burnett Bp. of Salisbury at St. Sepulchres Church London on Easter Monday, 1706. — The Earl of Berkshire died last Friday & is succeeded by his Grandson Henry Howard of Elstor in Staffordsh., who is not 20 y^{rs} of Age. The Earl died in y^e 90th Year of his Age.

April 18 (Th.). This day was an Election of Fellows at Queen's College, when Mr. Hudson, Mr. Todhunter, & Mr. Hall were Elected, & Mr. Matt. Gibson (Brother to Mr. John Gibson, one of the present 10 Fellows) Mr. Charnley & Mr. Hodgson, were turn'd by, tho' Senior to Mr. Hall; w^{ch} is an Irregularity, & w^t is resented by some, tho' perhaps y^e Reason might be because these three had been in y^e Country, almost ever since they were Taberders, coming only to Oxford to keep Terms, or sometimes for convenience: whereas Hall & Hudson were constantly resident, & so was Todhunter, only a year or two before the Election he had serv'd as Curate at Bath. — Mr. John Potter of Lincoln College was presented this morning to his Degree of Dr. of Divinity. He was originally Servitor of University College, where he was Pupil first to Mr. Bateman & upon his Death to Mr. Bingham, & rec^d some In- 20 structions from Dr. Hudson. Afterwards being Bachelor of Arts he was Elected Fellow of Lincoln, & before he took the Degree of Master of Arts published a little piece of Plutarch in Greek & Latin (upon w^{ch} he was put by Dr. Charlett) de Audiendis poëtis, & a piece of St. Basil wth it upon y^e same Subject. When Master of Arts he put out Lycophron, wth various readings & Notes, whereof there are two Impressions (both at y^e Theatre) in folio, w^{ch} got him some credit; as likewise did his Greek Antiquities, in two volumes in 8^o. written in English, & afterw^{ds} published in Latin in folio, being the last volume of Gronovius's Greek Thesaurus. 'Twas translated by another Hand, but 30 revis'd by Mr. Potter himself before printed. At length being noted for a person of Whiggish principles, he was taken notice of by the Arch^{bp}. of Canterbury, Tension I mean, who has no regard for Learning or Learned Men, any farther than as they are of y^e same Principles wth himself & knows hardly any thing of Greek, as appears particularly from w^t I heard Dr. John Mill one of his Great Admirers say of him, namely that when Mr. Grabe had published the first vol. of Spic. Patrum the Arch^{bp} gave Mr. Grabe a Compl^t upon it saying that he was glad he had printed such a piece as old Thecla, of whom he had heard something, & suppos'd it might be of some use tho' he could not judge of it 40 (his studies lying another way) I say Mr. Potter being taken notice of by this Arch^{bp}. he was made one of his Domestick Chaplains (upon Dr. Hody's leaving it when made Archdeacon of Oxon,) & a little after had a Parsonage given him by his Grace, purely to encourage him to go on in the Sneaking way, w^{ch} accordingly Mr. Potter does, and may do y^e Arch^{bp}. some service by it. — Dr. Will. Shippen, who has publish'd some sermons, was originally of University College, a Fellow there & Proctor of the University & a person of good Reputation for Learning, as appear'd. by his Proctor's Speech, w^{ch} was highly commended, and by some other Performances. — On Monday (Apr. 15) last Mr. Simon Ockley of 50

Queen's College in Cambridge was incorporated Master of Arts of this University. Of whom I shall say more hereafter. — Dr. Aldworth, Fellow of Magd. Coll. upon y^e unjust Deprivation of Mr. Dodwell was made Camden's Professor of History. He has never yet shew'd himself in print, & whether he be well qualify'd for y^e Place or no 'tis hard to judge from anything w^{ch} he does, seldom or never reading. — Charles Allestry M.A. of X^t Church has I think printed a Sermon. He is now Minister of Dentry. — Quære whether Mr. Nath Alsop Fellow and Bach. of D. at Brasen Nose Coll. was not Father to Mr. Ant. Alsop Student of 10 X^t Church. — Dr. Roger Altham Senior Regis Professor of Hebrew in this University, had y^t place first of all conferr'd upon him by y^e Interest y^t Dr. Radcliff y^e Physitian had at y^t time with y^e Earl of Portland; but y^e said Dr. Altham either not taking some Oath, or not making some subscription in due time lost y^e Place & was succeeded by Dr. Thomas Hyde the Library-Keeper. After y^e Death of Dr. Hyde, as 'tis suppos'd by y^e Interest of y^e Arch^{bp}. of York & other Friends, he obtain'd y^e Place a 2^d time. He is a good Scholar, & a most Excell^t Preacher, but as yet has done nothing remarkable in y^e way of his Profession. He was Chaplain to Arch^{bp}. Dolben, had some Preferm^t from him in y^e
 20 Church of York & somewhere in y^e Country.

April 19 (Fri.). In pag. 358. of the III^d Vol. of Prynne's History of Popes Usurpations is a Memorable Inquisition returned in the 13th Year of Edw. first, but not filed 'till y^e Year after, not only concerning the Bounds, but Tithes and Oblations of y^e Parish of Braye in Berks, part of w^{ch} Tithes the King had sequestred. This will be of great use to y^e Parishioners of White-Waltham who have had for some years a Contest wth the Parishioners of Bray ab^t their Bounds, the former always encroaching upon y^e latter. — Yesterday Dr. Wynne of Jesus College read his Inaugural Lecture as Margaret Professor w^{ch} was a 30 very good one, as I am told. — I am told there were yesterday six of y^e Fellows against turning those 3 above mention'd off at Queens & 7 for it; & y^e Matter was effected by y^e Provost's agreeing wth y^e latter. The reason alledg'd in relation to Gibson was his having a Brother upon y^e Foundation already, w^{ch} might if he were elected prove of some prejudice to y^e Society.

April 20 (Sat.). MS. Laud. B. 155. A thin Folio Book in Vellam, containing curious Pictures, with an Explication in French, relating to the Wars of Edw. 1st. The Pictures are done by a modern hand, as is the whole Book, & seems to have been copied by Arch^{bp}. Laud's order
 40 from the Fragments of a larger work. — Arch. Bodl. B. 49. R. Mardochæi Nathanis Radicum sive Thematum Hebræorum Expositiones Latine à Nicolao Fullero redditæ, ac multis in locis emendatæ Notisque

April 20. Dodwell to H. Criticisms on Clark; reflections on Mill and his pretence of friendship. Complains of the Bishop of Worcester's neglect. Recommends him to print his Livy at the Theatre, but to publish in London. Fra. Brokesby to H. 'My Kinsman the Library Keeper at Manchester tells me that he is sorry that their Library will not afford the Paderborn or Venice Edition of y^e first part of the 33^d Book of Livy.' Sends a passage relating to it from Gronovius' Preface to Livy. Suggests that 'such as are gone varijs locupletatæ & illustratæ. 'Tis in 4^{to} & at y^e Beginning is the Following Clause of Mr. Fuller's will, relating to y^e Disposal of it :

I give & bequeath to Sir Thomas Bodley's Library in Oxford, my New Translation in Latin of y^e Hebrew concordance, wth manifold Notes therein, though not thoroughly perused nor perfected by me ; that if any good thing be found therein, it may be forth coming for the studious Reader.

— Anth. Wood to gratify y^e Papists often speaks but indifferently of A.B.p. Laud. — Memorandum y^t John Piers (second Son, as Mr. Wood hints, of Dr. W^m. Piers Bp. of Bath & Wells) liv'd at Denton in the parish of Cudesden near Oxon. His Elder Brother was Dr. W^m. Piers; & ¹⁰ one of the said sons (I cannot say w^{ch}) left two sons John & W^m Piers. John now lives at Denton in y^e Parish of Cuddesden. W^m. was sent to Merchant Taylors' School & thence to Emanuel Coll. in Cambridge, of w^{ch} he became Fellow, & has put out two Tragedies of Euripides, in Greek and Latin with Notes & y^e Greek Scholia; & being a man of Learning & Industry y^e world may expect more from him. — The Low-church Men to obviate y^e Reflections made upon them for preferring none but y^eir own Party, at length promoted Dr. Bull & Beveridge to 2 Bp^ricks; but they were Welch ones & such as their own Creatures would not accept of. — 'Tis to be wonderd that Arch^bp. Usher, in his ²⁰ Antiquities of y^e British Church should suspect y^e veracity of Mr. Camden in his Edition of Asser Menevensis, upon Acct^y y^t y^e Passage relating to Oxford University is not in Arch^bp. Parker's Edition of y^t Author; but perhaps y^e Reason why Arch^bp. Usher favours Parker is that Trinity College in Dublin (of y^e w^{ch} Usher was y^e First Scholar) was as it were a Colony from Cambridge, & so might induce him to be partial in y^t respect. —

Ask Dr. Smith whether in pag. 52. of his Life of Mr. Camden by nuperus scriptor &c. he does not mean Bp. Burnett? Without doubt he does, for in a spare leaf at y^e Beginning of a certain copy of Camden's ³⁰ Epistles (to w^{ch} y^e said Life is prefix'd) I find y^e following observable passage relating to y^e said words, to w^{ch} it is referr'd, viz.

Is est Gilbertus Burnet, fidei suspectæ in Historia Reformationis Anglicanæ scriptor; qui favore Gulielmi Principis Arausionensis (ad quem paulo ante Expeditionem istam Batavicam, genti Anglicanæ, Religioni, bonis literis infaustissimam, se contulerat) Episcopatu Sarisburiensi, nostratibus fere omnibus indignantibus, insignitus est. Plurima quidem idiomate Anglicano edidit, tam ad Religionem quam ad Historiam & Regimen civile nostrum spectantia, quæ à probis & eruditis parvi æstimantur. Ex eorum numero est qui Academias nostras summo odio prosequitur, & Fanaticorum partibus impense favet. ⁴⁰

April 21 (Sun.). I am told of some Coyns & Medalls lately found in a Ground near St. Leonards Hill by Windsor. Quære w^t they are? — from Cambridge to the Secular Solemnity at Frankfort on Oder' might make enquiry at Paderborn. E. Smith to H. M. de Seau has gone into Yorkshire; on his return will try to borrow the two books from the Sunderland Library; he has lost his notes on Livy. Sends two passages bearing on Livy from Dr. Lyster's Journey to Paris. Sir Philip Sydenham contemplates an Athenae Cantab., and Dr. Coward an answer to Dodwell. 'I am told several Gent. in y^e Counties has club'd y^r notions & contributed a part in Tindal's execrable Book . . . I'll get Mr. Dyer to excuse me the other news.'

- Mr. Wood in y^e Character of Dr. Goodwin B^p. of Hereford has omitted y^t he was one of Mr. Camden's peculiar Friends as is observ'd in y^e Life of Mr. Camden. — Quære whether Mr. Thomas Savile who has a Letter in y^e Collection of Mr. Camden's Epistles dated from Merton College was an Author, & whether of that Coll. ? — Upon y^e Decease of Mr. Tho. Baker, Rector of Haritsham in Kent, Mr. Thos. (Rich^d.) Coleir, Fellow of All-Souls Coll. & originally of Brasen-nose, was preferr'd to y^t Place, just after he had been Junior Proctor of y^e University. After w^{ch} he marry'd & is now Chaplain to a Ship, having run himself into Debt by Building.
- 10 He has printd a Sermon, preach'd at a Visitation, &c. — Mr. Thomas Collins Master of Magd. School was originally of Trinity-College, & afterwards of Baliol, then Vice-Principal of Gloucester Hall, & at length was made Master of the said Schoole, where he has been several years, is a good Preacher, a good Scholar, & a most facetious Companion. — Dr. Thomas Hoy of St. John's Coll. was first Fellow there, & afterwards practis'd Physick in Warwicksh. a little after y^e Revolution, by y^e Interest w^{ch} his Tutor Dr. Gibbons had wth y^e L^d. Somers he got to succeed Dr. Luff Regis Professor of Physick in this University; w^{ch} place he has miserably neglected ever since he had it. He has translated into English,
- 20 some pieces of Plutarch's Morals, & writ a Poëm call'd the Life of Agathocles, & some other things I think. Quære ? — To be added to y^e Acc^t Mr. Wood has given of Mr. now Dr. Edw. Wells of X^t Church. He publish'd while in Oxon a Set of Mapps of ancient & Modern Geography, with a Discourse in 8^o. shewing the use of them. (2) Xenophon's Works in 5 Vols. 8^o. Gr. & Lat. (3) Dionysius's Periegesis, wth the new Geography inserted, in Greek Verse. After w^{ch} he left the university for a small Living in Leycestershire, where he writ 3 Letters ag^t y^e Nonconformists, w^{ch} are printed, &c. He is an ingenious Man, of great Sobriety & Modesty, &c. — Dr. Roger Altham Junior Student of X^t Church, &
- 30 Proctor of y^e University (as had been Dr. Altham senior above mention'd) was a little after his Proctership preferr'd to be Chaplain to y^e B^p. of London, who first gave him the Church of St. Mary Ax, & then remov'd him to a better. Quære w^t? He has publish'd some Sermons. — Mr. James Badger, Fellow of New College, & Master of y^e Schoole belonging to y^t Place (w^{ch} by y^e consent of y^e college he remov'd to y^e End of St. Maries &) w^{ch} by his Industry he made flourish to a great Degree. He has publish'd a Book for y^e use of Schools call'd Synopsis locorum communium. pr. at Oxon. 8^o. — Harrington Bagshaw was Fellow of Magd. Coll. w^{ch} he left upon Marriage, and took up wth the Mastership of y^e
- 40 Hospital at Bromley. He has printed one Sermon. — John Bernard of Brasenose College in King James's Reign turn'd Papist, and got to be Moral Philosophy Reader. After y^e Revolution he chang'd his Religion again, & has writ several things, amongst w^{ch} is his Translation into English of y^e Lives of the Roman Emperors, written by Vopiscus &c. in two volumes 8^o. — Dr. John Bateman of Merton College was always reckon'd an Excell^t Scholar, & well vers'd in Physick (in w^{ch} he was Dr.). After y^e Taking of his Degree he practis'd in London for several Years, & liv'd in very good Reputation. Upon y^e Death of Dr. Lydal Warden of Merton he was one of y^e three chosen by y^e Coll. & presented to y^e
- 50 Arch^bp. in order to succeed him. All honest Men thought him infinitely preferable to the other two (viz. Dr. Lane & Dr. Martin) yet for all y^t y^e Arch^{bp}, because Dr. Bateman was an Honest Church of England Man, and one who was likely to do good in y^t College, w^{ch} extremely wanted such a one, made choice of Dr. Martin, who by a lazy, Epicurean Life & an utter Neglect of all Discipline, has very much prejudic'd that noble and ancient Seminary. He has translated one of Plutarch's Lives & may perhaps have done some other Things. He had a Brother Thomas Bateman Fellow of University College, a Person of good Learning and great Probity, whose unfortunate Death by a Fall off his Horse near Woodstock was very much lamented by y^e College and the whole 10 University. — Dr. Ralph Bathurst, President of Trinity Coll. sometime before he died promis'd to give to y^e Pub. Library all y^e Books it wanted in his Study; but his Death being hastened by a sudden Fall, he might forget to add a Codicil to his Will as he once intended. However in his Will there were two Pictures, one of Dr. Allestry & y^e other of Dr. South, & some Coyns left to y^e Library. He was Dean of Wells, & might have been Bp. if he had affected that Height of Dignity. He was a Man of Polite Parts, and an Elegant Writer in Latin, whether Prose or Verse. He discharg'd the Office of Vice-Chancellor with great Applause, & made his College flourish while he was President. He was suspected of Hypo- 20 crisy & of mean Compliance. — Luke Beaulieu Bachelor of Divinity of X^t Church, was (if I am not mistaken) Chaplain to Chancellor Jefferies, & was by him preferr'd to a Prebend of Gloucester. He hath publish'd a Sermon or two. — Mr. Tho. Beckonsall Bach. of Div. & Fellow of Brasenose Coll. has publish'd a Discourse abt y^e Law of Nature in opposition to Mr. Lock, & a Sermon upon y^e Resurrection preach'd at St. Marie's, w^{ch} is also against Mr. Lock's Notions abt y^e Identity of y^e Rising Body. He is a strange Hypochondriacal Person; w^{ch} may be a reason why he was so great an Admirer of King William, & y^e Ministers of Queen Anne. — Dr. Hen. Beeston Warden of New (who was just 30 such another smooth-booted Complyer as Dr. Ralph Bathurst) was succeeded upon his Death by Dr. Rich. Traffles; & he not living long to enjoy it, was succeeded by Mr. Brathwayt Bach. of Civil Law, & afterwards Dr. in y^t Faculty. — Dr. Bury who was expell'd Exeter College, where he was Rector, for his Socinian Principles, & other Notorious Crimes, has since publish'd some Books favouring y^e said Principles one of w^{ch} is call'd Latitudinarius Orthodoxus. — Dr. Pet. Birch of X^t Church has publish'd several Sermons, & preach'd some y^t are none of his own, particularly some of y^e Bp. of Rochester's and one of Dr. South's whilst the Dr. was present at y^e Hearing of it in y^e Abbey church of West- 40 minster: w^{ch} occasion'd this Raillery of y^e Poët:

Rochester in courtly Tone
Said he had too much Honour to his Sermons done,

But rugged South made of a courser mould
Said he was a Thief and scandalously bold.

He is a forward, illiterate Man, but has had good Luck by rich Wives. — Blackmore (Richard) of Edm. Hall, where he was Vice-Principal, leaving the Hall went a travelling, & in some University in his Travells commenc'd Dr. of Physick. and in a short time arriv'd to Eminence in y^e Practise thereof at London, and has writ several large Books in folio, such as Prince Arthur, Eliza, a Translation of Job, &c. He married 50 a rich Conventicler & by that means got a mighty Interest among y^e Whiggs, & was Knighted by King W^m. who always lov'd to conferr his Marks of Honour upon Persons dissaffected to y^e Church of England. — Mr. Rob. Brograve of Magd. Hall has publish'd a Sermon or two. One upon this Text, Let your Light so shine before men &c. — Mr. Bromley of X^t Church fam'd for his great Abilities, Integrity and firm Adherence to y^e stanch Principles of y^e Church of England, when he declin'd to serve as Kn^t of y^e Shire for his own County of Warwick, was yet prevail'd upon by y^e University of Oxon to be one of y^e 10 Representatives; w^{ch} Office he discharg'd with the great Applause of all good Men, & would once have been chosen Speaker of y^e House of Commons had it not been for y^e Base Arts of y^e Courtiers and Whiggish Party: one of w^{ch} was to publish a Book of his Travells written by him when very young, & w^{ch} they turn'd into Ridicule, as any Book may be serv'd by a scurrilous Index. — Gevartius writ Notes upon Manilius, in w^{ch} as Peireskius in a Letter to Mr. Camden (pag. 217. Ep. Camdeni) informs us, he maintains y^t Manilius liv'd not in Augustus's time as Scaliger would have it, but tow^{ds} the latter End of the western Empire. Quære whether they were ever printed? (Not printed; but 20 y^e Substance of w^t he says abt the Age of Manilius is in his Papinianæ Lectiones. He is however wrong in that point about Manilius's Age.) — Sr. Hen. Savile in a Letter to Mr. Camden (ibid. pag. 224) corrects an Error in Godwin de Præsulibus Anglic. — In Gevartius's own Letter to Camden (ib. p. 260) he says he has invincibly prov'd that Manilius liv'd in y^e time of Theodosius & his sons Arcadius & Honorius, & that he is y^e same who is call'd by Claudian Manlius Theodorus, in y^t Panegyrick w^{ch} he writ upon his Consulship: in w^{ch} he has made some mention of his Astronomicks. — It is s^d in Mr. Camden's Epp. that Lindenbrogius was abt publishing Geographica quædam. Quære whether 30 ever publish'd? — In the King's Library at St. James's when Patrick Young was Keeper of it, there was a MS^t Theodoret upon the Psalms, by w^{ch} Fr. Ducaeus when he was abt the Edition of the Bible in Greek promis'd himself to restore y^e Text in a Great measure. There is likewise at Rome a Theodoret upon Isaiah from w^{ch} he expected great Matters.

Apr. 22 (Mon.). Dionysius Hal. mentions the siege of Bola, whereof not a word in Livy: w^{ch} makes Glarean believe Dionysius's Copies corrupted. This not taken notice of by Dr. Hudson. See Glarean upon Livy Ed. Par. 1573. fol. p. 148. There is a note I find of it since 40 in pag. 476. Dionys. Hal. — Mr. Wood in pag. 842. tells us that he does not find whether or no Orlando Gibbons was admitted or licensed to proceed in the Degrees of Musick; but it appears y^t he did from a Letter of Dr. Will. Peirs Vice-Chancellor of Oxon dated May 18. 1622. See in Mr. Camden's Epp. p. 329. —

Apr. 23 (Tu.). Mr. Battley who publish'd a new Edition of Somner's Antiquities of Canterbury (in w^{ch} nothing appears considerable, tho' answerable to his character of being no Proficient in these Studies) has some 50 of them, but where the rest are he cannot at present tell but promises to make Inquiry. The said Mr. Bateman is a man much inclin'd to Botanny, & w^t spare time he has from his Divinity Studies he lays out y^t way, much to his Commendation and Credit.

Apr. 24 (Wed.). When I talk'd wth Mr. Milles abt Mr. Dodwell's Book & y^e Answer printing at y^e Theatre, upon his Denyal y^t above one writ y^e said Answer I said y^t 'twould be a very difficult Task to answer it fully ; since I could not tell of any one person who had y^t variety of Learning requisite for it, especially in y^e Platonick Philosophy : to w^{ch} he reply'd y^t y^e Author when he first became acquainted with Mr. Dodwell, upon his Advice studied y^t Philosophy throughly & is a perfect Master of it. Upon w^{ch} I immediately concluded Milles to be Author, because about 8 years since he read over (when he heard 10 Mr. Dodw. discourse of y^e usefulness of y^t Philosophy) Alcinous's Introduction to Plato to a pupil or two of his ; but wth so little gust that he did not seem to understand anything of it, & I believe (nay am almost sure) y^t he has read over nothing else of y^t nature, unless it be some of y^e Octavo Book of Plato printed at Cambridge. He sayd also y^t the Author was a universal Scholar, & was able to write ag^t Mr. Dodwell upon any Subject. I saw this morning a sheet of w^t is printing of the Answer, w^{ch} appear'd to be writt in an affected Style, with very little of other Learning but w^t may be pick'd out of common English Books, & (w^{ch} is worst of all) very disrespectfully of his Great 20 and Good Friend Mr. Dodwell. — In a Letter to Dr. Bernard sent in the year 1688 Feb. 23^d dated from London 'tis said the Learned Arnoldus design'd to send a son of his into these Parts, to improve himself, being a Young Man of great Hopes, as appear'd from a specimen he gave in his Discourse De S. Petri Denarijs. He was nam'd Andr. Arnoldus & was afterwards a Student in y^e Publick Library at Oxford, & from thence prepar'd for y^e Press, w^{ch} he publish'd wth a Translation & Notes, Athanasius's Syntagma doctrinæ ad Clericos & Laicos, &c.

Apr. 26 (Fri.). Mr. Lesley in his Rehearsal has an Observation or two shewing that y^e Memorial of y^e Church of England was written by the Whiggish Party, & father'd upon the Honest men on purpose to bring an odium upon them ; just as Mr. Stevens (that Notorious Whigg and Fanatick) his Letter, when it first appear'd, was layd upon the High-Church Men, & believed to be writ by some one of y^t side, 'till he made Acknowledgment himself. From the Memorial it plainly appears to have been done by a Whigg, from y^e odd Scheme of Government there laid down, w^{ch} savours of Hobbism or something worse. — Memorandum that tho' Dr. Hyde sold a great many of his Books de Religione Persarum in 4^{to}. for 5 shil. a piece, yet they now go for 12 shill. a Book, and are mightily bought up in Holland & other parts of Germany, where they have a great opinion of Dr. Hyde's Learning, especially in Orientals (in w^{ch} there is no doubt he was the greatest master in Europe) tho' he was disrespected in Oxford by several men, 10 who now speak well of him. — Mr. Wood, when he was consulting materials for his Athenæ Oxon. would frequently go to Booksellers & generously give money to them purposely to obtain Titles of Books from them, & 'twas observ'd of him that he spar'd no Charges to make y^t Work as compleat & perfect as he could. — Mr. Milles's Pretended Answer to Mr. Dodwell is printed for Mr. Peisly, tho' his Bookseller be Mr. Clements. The reason whereof is, that Mr. Clements did but laugh at y^e undertaking, & declar'd to some one y^t he would not print it, if he might have y^e Copy for nothing. — Remember to tell Dr. Hudson of an omission in pag. 568. of Dionys. The Vice-Chancellor having declar'd the Design and Intent of it, several of the s^d University had Diplomas granted them for y^e same Degrees in this university as had been conferr'd upon them at Francfurt, and at y^e same time divers of our Nobility, & others, particularly y^e Duke of Beaufort, L^d. Craven &c. 30 had y^e Degree of Dr. of Laws conferr'd on y^m by Creation, & likewise Mr. Grabe was created Dr. of Divinity, who being presented by Dr. Smalrich, a Noble Encomium was given of him by the said Dr. setting forth his great Piety, Learning & Industry; after w^{ch} Dr. Smalrich presented him with a Bible, & upon y^t occasion commended his Excellent Design of publishing the Septuagint from y^e Alexandrian MS^t, exhorting him to go on as he had begun. He likewise mention'd his Zeal for y^e Church of England, & y^e Aversion he had to Popery and Calvinism. This done y^e Dr. presented him wth a Cap, & after y^t with a Ring, signifying that y^e University of Oxford & Francfurt were now 40 joyn'd together & become two Sisters, & y^t they might be y^e more firmly united together as well in Learning as Religion, he kiss'd Mr. Grabe. As soon as this part of y^e Solemnity was ended verses & Speeches were spoke by several Young Students, & Musick perform'd as usual upon such extraordinary occasions.

It seems he, with y^e President of Magdalen College and y^e Provost of Queens (and perhaps some others) were one Evening at y^e Warden's of New College; where they staid till 9 of y^e clock; but 'tis highly scandalous to say they drunk to excess; the Warden of New-College being not in a very good State of Health, & neither of y^e other noted for being hard Drinkers. However 'tis true that Dr. Charlett's boy (who is since turn'd off) instead of carrying the Lantern took away a Silver Tankard, w^{ch} was not perceiv'd till they came home; because the President of Magd. & Provost of Queen's accompany'd him, & their men had Lanterns at y^e same time. The Boy has been guilty of some other such Crimes, & being given much to drink might be somew^t disorder'd before he came to y^e College. I am heartily sorry any one should hence take occasion to blacken y^e Dr^s Character, who (notwithstanding some Failings, to w^{ch} all are subject) is a man of several excellent Qualifications, & if he had Abilities would be one of y^e Greatest Encouragers of Learning y^t have appear'd of late.' Apr. 28 (Sun.). Mr. Tho. Yalding, Bach. of Div. & Fellow of Magd. Student of X^t Church upon Luke 7. 33, 34, 35. . . .

'Twas a most Excellent, Rational and seasonable Discourse. For having 10 shewn y^e occasion of the Words, & laid open y^e obstinacy of y^e Jews and Pharisees, who neglected the Doctrine of Our Saviour & St. John y^e Baptist his Forerunner, tho' they led the most pure, sanctify'd lives that 'twas possible for men to lead: he thence gather'd these two propositions, viz. That tho' men live never so regularly & agreeably to y^e most strict Rules of virtue, yet they will always find persons to traduce them. 2. That notwthstanding this, they ought to persevere & continue, with y^e utmost Resolution & Courage in defending the doctrines of Christianity & Morality against all y^e Affronts and Bad usage they should meet wth from such implacable Enemies. He discours'd upon y^e first Proposition only at this time, shewing the Truth of it, & 20 afterwards giving the Reasons w^{ch} generally influence bad Men to traduce & blacken y^e Characters of such as are Religious & act according to Rules of Conscience. The greatest part of the Discourse was adapted to y^e present times, when we see far the greatest part of Men, under a pretence of Moderation & christian charity, stand up in Vindication of the most notorious Hypocrites, Schismatics, Debauchees & I know not w^t; whilst those who are innocent & maintain the doctrines of y^e Establish'd Church and Government in opposition to Presbytery, Fanaticism & Anarchy are vilify'd, persecuted & spoke against as the greatest Enemies of y^e Nation, men not fit to live in a X^{tian} Country, but ought to be banish'd & plac'd amongst Barbarians, & such 30 as have no spark of Humanity or Virtue: And even y^e best Words they meet with are that they are imprudent & understand nothing of y^e World, by w^{ch} Mr. Adams plainly told the Auditors must be meant & understood nothing else but y^t they are not Knaves & self-Interested men, but are harmless, innocent, unspotted, & true Patriots of their Country, wthout any Disguise or Hypocrisy as becomes X^{tians}.

Memorandum that Dr. Jane, y^e Regius Professor of Divinity, who is now of a very niggardly mean Spirit, was once of a generous Temper, & y^t this Sordidness is in great measure to be attributed to his long infirmity, chiefly occasion'd by intemperance, & 40 too free a way of living. — John Matthews formerly of Oriel College, now Minister of Tewkesbury in Gloucestershire, hath publish'd a Sermon upon Luke 23. 34. intit. Forgiveness of Enemies, and their praying for their Forgiveness, preach'd in the Church of Tewkesbury Febr. 17. 1705. Apr. 30 (Tu.). Memorandum that tho' Dr. Tyndal of All-Souls be a noted Debauchee & a man of very pernicious Principles, yet he is so sly and cunning, & has y^t command over his Passions, y^t he always appears calm & sedate in company, & is very abstemious in his Drink, by w^{ch} means he has no small advantage over those he discourses 50 with, & is the more able to instill his ill Notions. — The Author of the Memorial of y^e C. of Engl. is for y^e independent State of Nature, & for all Government to have it's Original from y^e People, as Mr. Lesley shews in his Rehearsal. Which is an evident token y^t 'twas writ by some Low-Church man or Whigg. For besides Stevens's Letter the Shortest Way, w^{ch} was Father'd upon High-Church was written by De-Foe, who was pillor'd for it, & glories in it to this day. — Ab^t y^e year 1180, in y^e Reign of K. May 1 (Wed.). Last Night a certain Person, of y^e High-Church Party, (as they are call'd) happening to be with Dr. Mill, and discoursing particularly ab^t some Affairs of y^e Hall, the Dr. fell into a great Passion, & vented abundance of ill Language, as he is us'd to do upon such occasions, saying, amongst other things, that no Master of Arts in the Hall should for y^e future have any Privilege of sconsing or otherwise 20 punishing the Servants in the Hall when they are impudent or negligent in their Duty to them, but should, when any such misdemeanour happen, make complaint to him, & if he thought fit he would regulate it; whereas it has been always customary for the Masters to inflict such kind of Punishments, & they have the same reason for it, as Fellows of Colleges, who always use it; & if they are hinder'd from it, it may turn in time to so ill account that the Servants will trample them under feet, & nothing will be done but at y^e Pleasure and will of y^e Principal; contrary to y^e Intent & Design of y^e Statutes, w^{ch} Dr. Mill has broken

 30 not only in this, but in some other particulars: whether designedly or no I cannot tell, nor will pretend to judge: but this is certain that y^e Members of y^e Hall are kept in ignorance of them, whereas they ought to be read 4 times, at least once a year; w^{ch} the Dr. is so far from doing, or causing to be done, that for these 10 years (w^t was done before I know not) he has not began to read them but once, w^{ch} was ab^t 7 years since, when he went thro' a little part, & promis'd once a Quarter to do y^e same, tho' he quickly forgot w^t he said. This arbitrariness at present was suppos'd by y^e said Person (from whom this Story comes) to be purely design'd to gain whiggish Proselytes, he believing that y^e more he can have his will & pleasure over the Members of y^e Hall the 40 better he shall be able to instill Whiggish Principles, with w^{ch} he is in so much love at present. But whether it be so or no matters not much. This I am sure of, that his Vice-Principal Mr. Pearce has mov'd him to it, as he has to some other things, much to y^e Dissatisfaction of several in y^e Hall, w^{ch} has caus'd some Disturbance, & may cause much greater; especially too if y^e Principal be guided (as some say he is, & they seem to give good reasons for it) by y^e Directions & Instigation of a certain Woman, who is a Bed-maker in the Hall. — Quære whether Antiquæ Historiæ Synopsis pr. at Oxon. 1660. 8^o. wth the Initial & Final Letters H. He had several persons appear'd on his behalf, otherwise he had been sent into y^e Army as a common souldier. He was always look'd upon as Jacobitely inclin'd, & some say ²⁰ he is a loose debauch'd Man. but I believe yt to be a scandalous Reflection. He is a Gentleman, & is much belov'd by y^e Refin'd sort of Mankind.

May 8 (Wed.). Just publish'd No church Established, or y^e schismatick unmask'd, in answer to Dr. Tyndal's Rights of y^e X^{tian} Church. pr. 1s. — Talking with one this Afternoon who saw Mr. Dodwell very lately he told me yt Mr. Dodwell thought Mr. Turner's Answer to his Book (abating the scurrilous Reflections) to be much better done than Mr. Clark's: but I am to doubt y^e Truth of this, since I do not find yt any one much admires it in Oxoñ, or thinks Dr. Turner to be a man ³⁰ of any great capacity. — That part of the Abbey of Rewley now standing w^{ch} seems to have been part of y^e Chapell to some did not at all belong to y^e Chapell as appears from the whole Circumference of the Chapell lately discovered, when y^e Foundation of the Walls were dug up. It was in the Garden on the East side as you enter into y^e House, & did not come to y^e said part now standing by a great many Yards. I cannot learn that any coffins or Bodys have been ever dug up; so yt it should seem their burying place was at St. Thomas's Church, or else at Oseney, & perhaps this may be one reason why Ela Longespee (that built Rewley Chapell) was buried in the Chapell of Oseney, as appears from Evidences ⁴⁰ cited by Mr. Leland. — George Keith hath just publish'd An Account of his Travells into y^e Western Plantations. It makes a Book of 12^d. price in 4^{to}. & is dedicated to y^e Arch^{bp}. of Canterbury; but w^t Incouragement he is like to meet with for Writing against y^e Quakers at this time of day may be easily guess'd from the Reception Mr. Francis Bugg met with from the Bp. of Worcester w^{ch} I have mention'd at y^e Beginning of this Volume. — Dr. Mill lately talk'd very kindly to me of Dr. Bury some time since Rector of Exeter College, & seem'd to have a good Opinion of him, & said that he design'd to be a great Benefactor of the said

College. I was amaz'd to hear so good a Character of one who is so well known for being a person of most wicked Principles, & to have us'd such indirect & unjust methods in y^e Case of M^r. Colmer, whom he endeavour'd to ruin, & had effectually done it, had not M^r. Colmer been sufficiently known for an innocent Person, & clearly made out all the Objections against him to be contriv'd & carry'd on by nothing else but the utmost Malice &c. Insomuch y^t at length it appear'd y^t Dr. Bury was guilty of Incontinence, & other Crimes, w^{ch} he would so unjustly have fasten'd upon M^r. Colmer. But perhaps he may be now a low 10 Church Man (for he is anything, unless Old Age has made him a penitent) or may talk for y^t party, & so gain their good word. — The Term ending on the 6th M^r. Stephens wth others appear'd on y^er Recognizances, & M^r. Stevens was found guilty of being the Author of the Answer to y^e Memorial of y^e State of England, was fin'd 100 Marks & order'd to stand in y^e Pillory twice.

May 9 (Th.). Quære whether there was not some Religious House, or some Hall just on the West side of the Tower in w^{ch} the great Bell at X^t Church hangs? There are some Ruines w^{ch} would make one think there was. 'Twas an Hospitall. — I rec'd to day a Brass Coy 20 w^{ch} was dug up in Weycock, w^{ch} I have before mention'd. It is very much defac'd, but seems to be Plautilla y^e Wife of Caracalla. — In the Inquisition above mention'd (in pag. 142.) abt y^e Bounds of Bray, is nothing relating to y^e Parish of White-Waltham but Fayrhok, Crukenfend and Wolveley. I am told y^e first was an old Oak w^{ch} stood formerly at y^e Lane End call'd Tutchin Lane next Bray-Wood side, & was a Bound-Oak. It has been down for about 50 years, & S^r. Edm. Sawyer of Heywood, planted an Elm-Tree in y^e Place of it, w^{ch} is now the Boundarie to y^e Parish of White Waltham & Bray; but the Parishioners of the Latter in their yearly Circuits goe much below it, & take in 30 almost all that w^{ch} belongs to y^e Mannor of Heywood in y^e Common. Crukenfend seems to be the House where M^r. Henry now dwelleth at Hawthorne, & is now called Crutchfield House. Wolveley is w^t is now call'd Wooley. 'Tis a green, & without doubt was formerly overgrown with Wood; for in y^e Appendix to the Best Edition of Matthew Paris put out by Dr. Watts, there is some Hint y^t whereas the Marle Country was overrun with Robbers, who took Refuge in y^e Woods, orders were given that a great part of y^e said Woods should be cut down; w^{ch} was accordingly done. It seems here were Wolves once, & so it might have y^e Name: Wolveley being nothing but a place of Wolves. — Some time since an old Brass Piece was found under one of the Buildings belonging to Wadham College, on one side of w^{ch} 3 flower de luces & Ave Maria Gracia Dei, on y^e other a Cross Flore.

May 9. Dr. T. Smith to H. The late Theatrical solemnity in honour of the Lutheran University of Frankfort has been viewed with suspicion in London. Has learnt from Mr. Edw. Stephens that Grabe is a member of his congregation: see p. 9 of Stephens' General Preface to a Collection of his Tracts and Papers (1702). Is Grabe really in priest's orders? Mr. Stephens died about three weeks since, professing himself a member of the Greek Church; he received confirmation (? of priestly orders, or a superinduction of new ones) from the Archbishop of Philippopolis. He was buried at Enfield by the care of Dr. Udall, his son-in-law, a successful schoolmaster there. Remarks on Thwaites, Philellen, 'the adventure of the tankard;' Mill's dilatoriness; Abdollatiphi; Sydenham; Burnet (Dr. Charlett omitted some censures on him in Smith's Synopsis of the Cottonian Library). Asks for a transcript of two letters of Henry Briggs.

May 10 (Fri.) Amongst B^p. Barlow's Books in y^e Publick Library is an old printed Book, intit. Bartholomæi de Chaymis Interrogatorium. It was printed at Mentz, in 1478, and at y^e End are peter Scheffer's Arms who printed it: to it are also added three or four Notes by B^p. Barlow & another Hand ab^t printing. — Memorandum that M^r. Cunningham a Scotch man, student in y^e Publick Library, who has been tutor to two or three Scotch Noblemen, yesterday told me y^t he knew King W^m. order'd the Heinous Murther committed at Glencoe (w^{ch} is a sufficient reason for any one to speak ag^t him had his Title been good, w^{ch} it was not, he being no more than an Usurper, & having as bad Vices almost if not quite as Oliver Cromwell) where of there is a printed Relation call'd Gallienus Redivivus, w^{ch} was written (as I am well assur'd) by M^r. Lesley.

May 11 (Sat.) There is lately dead at Vienna an Officer who was by Nation a Scotch man & has left behind him to his Relations a Million ²⁰ of Money, but y^e Council of war has seized y^e same to y^e Emperors use, alledging y^t no Man could acquire such an Estate in his Service y^t had been honest in his Post. This is a Resumption w^{thout} a Parliament & a short way of doing a Nation justice.

May 13 (Mon.) Out of Dyer's Letter.

'Twas expected y^t M^r. Stephens would have been set on y^e Pillory on Thursday & Friday last according to his Sentence; but I concluded as soon as I saw his Recantation and heard y^t he made no Defence to y^e Information y^t y^e way was paved to his Pardon and y^t he knew very well that his old Friends y^e Whiggs (whose Amanuensis he was) would not leave him in y^e lurch, if it was only for y^e Merit of his 2 Excellent 30 of January Sermons. |

— M^r. Llhuyd, Keeper of y^e Ashmolean Museum, tells me y^t there were lately found near Witney a considerable Number of Coyns, all Roman, ⁴⁰ (but of no value) except one of the Saxon, I forget w^t. He told me at y^e same time y^t among other Books he look'd upon when he was last in Wales, was one w^{ch} he purchas'd, containing among other things Divers discourses mostly by way of Letter written by Josephus Monachus Eveshamensis, some of w^{ch} I think he told me were valuable, as being full of Historical Matters. He cannot tell (nor do I as yet know) who this Joseph should be. Quære whether he was Monk of Evesham in Worcestershire or of Einsham in Oxfordshire, w^{ch} by some Inscriptions in y^e Church (tho' of a modern Date) I find to be writ Evsham. I am told by some of y^e seniors at Einsham y^t the Monastery there had 52 Fish-Ponds belonging to it, according to y^e Number of Weeks in a year, which seems to be true from divers Holes near to y^e Place where the Monastery stood, w^{ch} without doubt were once Fish Ponds. There is nothing now remaining of y^e Abbey but an outer Gate on the West-Side; w^{ch} however in some measure shews it to have been a stately 10 Place, & y^e Trees ab^t it also shew y^t 'twas very pleasant. Quære more ab^t it in the Book of Statutes belonging to it writ by Joan. de Wudetun in Bib. Bodl. MS. NE. F. 3. 7.

May 14 (Tu). Dr. Kennett's Parochial Antiquities is done very judiciously. He had put in all Papers he met wth, some of w^{ch} are very badly transcrib'd. There is one particular instance of his Ignorance in Reading MSS^{ts}. namely w^t he has publish'd out of Pope Nicholas's Valor Beneficiorum in y^e Publick Library, w^{ch} tho' almost as plain as print, yet he has blunder'd strangely, & made it Nonsense. — Mr. Edw. Llhwyd being a person who was naturally addicted to y^e Study of Plants, 20 Stones &c. as also Antiquities, he was made by Dr. Plot underkeeper of y^e Ashmolean Museum, & upon his Death he became Head-Keeper: sometime after w^{ch} his Name became famous, particularly upon Publication of a small Book in 8^o. ab^t Fossiles: w^{ch} is writ in Latin, & has (together with other Things in the Philosophical Transactions) given occasion to Dr. Sloan often to say that he thinks Mr. Llhwyd y^e best Naturalist now in Europe. And as he has this character upon Account of his Searches into nature, so he deserves very well for his Study of Antiquity, as appears from the Additions he has made to Mr. Camden; but will appear more so, when his Great Work (ab^t w^{ch} he has been 30 ab^t 12 years already) relating to the Language & Antiquities of Cornwall, Wales &c. shall come forth, one Volume of w^{ch} is almost printed. Dr. Nicholson B^p. of Carlisle in his Historical Library has given him a very great Character, to w^{ch} you may be pleas'd to have recourse; whilst in y^e mean time I tell you, y^t he is a person of singular Modesty, good Nature, & uncommon Industry. He lives a retir'd life, generally three or four miles from Oxford, is not at all ambitious of Preferment or Honour, & w^t he does is purely out of Love to y^e Good of Learning & his Country; But notwthstanding these Deserts he could never yet get anything, but to be Keeper of y^e Museum, w^{ch} is but a mean Place
 40 seeing there is no Salary, & his Business requires two or three under him. But tho' there be no Salary he is oblig'd once a year to pay 3 Guineas (half a Guinea a piece) to six visitors of y^e Place, out of his Perquisites w^{ch} is hard, & w^t the Visitors ought to abate. But they are often men of no Affection to Learning, or Industry, minding nothing more than how to eat & drink well. — At Rewly, just as you enter into y^e House now standing are y^e Arms of y^e Earls of Cornwall &c., and in a Closet on the south side are the Images in Glass of some of y^e Apostles, as St. Andrew, St. Thomas &c. And as you go upstairs in the window are these Arms, viz. Azure a Bend Sinister argent, & parted per Pale

May 15 (Wed.). Michaelis Lochmaier Parochiale Curatorium. 'Twas printed at Hagenow in y^e year mccccxcviii by John Gran, who is stiled there a diligent Printer; w^{ch} seems to intimate y^t he had printed other Books there before. I believe he was one of y^e first Printers there; it may be he was y^e first. 'Tis pr. in 4^{to}. in a black Letter. — In y^e year 1521 was printed in 4^{to}. at Cambridge Balduin, Archbp. of Cant., his Sermon de venerabili, ac divinissimo altaris sacramento. At y^e beginning are these Arms Quarterly, 3 flowre de Lucas, the 2^d three Lyons passant guardant, the 3^d as y^e 1st, the 4th as y^e 2^d. At the End it appears 'twas printed by John Siberch, whose mark is there added. . . . 10
This Book may be of use to him that shall write of the Antiquities of this University, or y^e Original of Printing here. . . .

May 16 (Th.). We hear her Majesty has been pleas'd to declare y^e Duke of Rutland Ld. Lieutent. of Leicestershire, in room of y^e Earl of Denbigh; Earl of Kingston Custos Rotulorum of Wilts in Room of the Ld. Viscount Weymouth, & Ld. Wharton Ld. Lieut. of Westmord. in room of y^e Earl of Thanet. She has also been pleas'd to appoint Sr. Wm. St. Quintin one of y^e Commissioners of y^e Revenue in Irel^d. in room of Sr. John Bland. — Siege of Barcellona rais'd, if we may believe some Letters. — News arriv'd at y^e French Court y^t they have taken St. Xtophers & 20
6000 Negroes, wth a vast Booty. — Parlt. of Scotland adj^d. to y^e 20th of June next. — Saturday last Earl of Carrington Baron of Wooton in Warwicksh. & Visc^t. Barreford in Irel^d. departed this Life, & y^e Title wth him Extinct. His Estate is descended to Lewis Smith Esqr. — Talking just now with Mr. Milles, I read to him y^t Passage in a Letter I rec^d from Mr. Dodwell w^{ch} relates to his new Undertaking of Writing ag^t Mr. Dodwell's Book w^{ch} put him somew^t to y^e Blush, as being conscious he had not dealt like a Friend; but yet he continu'd obstinate y^t Mr. Dodwell was all along mistaken, had misrepresented the Fathers in a strange manner, & y^t he could not do other wise than write publickly 30 ag^t him. W^{ch} is contrary to w^t all his Friends advis'd him, & in all likelihood he will meet with few who will think well of him for it.

May 18, 1706 (Sat.). On y^e 8th of August in y^e Year 1701 was admitted Student into y^e Publick Library Mr. Simon Ockely, A.M. of Cambridge. He was of Queen's College in y^t university, & came hither on purpose to consult some Arabick MSS^{ts}. Being naturally inclin'd to y^e Study of y^e Oriental Tongues, he was, when abt 17 years of Age, made Hebrew Lecturer in y^e said College, chiefly because he was poor & could hardly subsist. Sometime after he married (tho' but very young) 40 & got a small Place, where he now is, near Cambridge call'd Swavesey. But had it not been for a certain Accident, w^{ch} redounded much to his

May 17. T. Cherry to H. Dodwell concerned at South's becoming his enemy, on account of his violence; surprised and pained at Mill's ingratitude, of whose learning and integrity Francis Cherry never had a high opinion. 'I hear by your Father (who gives his Love to you) that you design to goe into Warwickshire.'

Disgrace, he might have had a much better; the Fellows of his College having resolv'd to give him a Parsonage, w^{ch} became vacant some time agoe: but they chang'd their mind upon y^t Account, & have now but an indifferent Opinion of him. He has several Children, & is yet hardly 30 years of Age. He was admitted into Holy Orders (as I am inform'd) by the Bp. of Ely, Dr. Patrick, before he was 20. W^{ch} Bp. pretends to be his Patron (tho' like some other Prelates) 'tis only Pretence, he having as yet given him nothing to support himself & Family; notwthstanding Mr. Okeley's having dedicated to him a small 10 Book in 8^o. lately publish'd by him, intitl'd, Introductio ad Linguas Orientales. Of w^{ch} there were only 500 printed, & consequ^{tly} he ought to have rec^d a gratuity from some Generous Patron to satisfy him in y^t w^{ch} he could not expect from a Bookseller when y^e Number was so small. About 2 Months since he made another Journey to Oxon, where he was Incorporated A.M. as I have told you before. This Journey was also undertaken purely for y^e sake of y^e Publick Library, w^{ch} he constantly frequented till Yesterday when he went away. He is upon other Publick Designs, & for y^t End consulted divers of our Arabick MSS^{ts}; in w^{ch} Language he is said by some Judges to be y^e best skill'd of any Man in 20 England; w^{ch} he has in a great Measure made appear by his quick Turning into English about half of one of y^e Said Arabick MS^{ts} in folio during his Stay with us, besides y^e other Business upon his Hands. He is a man of very great Industry, & ought to be encourag'd, w^{ch} I do not question but he will if he lives to see Learning once more encourag'd in England, w^{ch} at present is not. — Mr. Selden y^e Son of a Fidler, as Mr. Cowley has told my Friend. Mr. Selden I am told rec^d the Materials in a great Measure of his Book de Dijs Syris from Mr. Hen. Jacob. Mr. Cowley was after his Death said by some to have died a Roman Catholic; but this was only a Malicious story: for Mr. Joyner who knew him
 30 well, has told me that he could not be drawne into y^t Communion all the time he was in France, w^{ch} was abt 10 years; but y^t he continu'd firm to y^e last. He was not so much respected by the Cavaliers, as he ought to have been upon y^e Restauration, w^{ch} much troubled him, & made him fly off something, as appears partly from the Preface to his Poems. He was however a good natur'd man, of great Candor and Humanity, & no Party ever spoke ill against him upon that score. — I have heard it said by a Gentleman, who liv'd in those times that the Earl of Clarendon did take Bribes upon the Restauration, & y^t a great Number of Loyal Cavaliers suffer'd upon his Acct, & were not rewarded, because not able 40 to fee him: & y^t Mr. Wood was honest & just in y^t part of his History. This I took y^e more Notice of; because he spoke with a great Deal of Vehemence & seem'd to be positive in y^e Matter.

May 19 (Sun.). A Specimen printed at Amsterdam of a new Anthologia, by Le Clerck. Quære whether this Work was ever propos'd to be printed at y^e Theatre, as Mr. St. Aman tells Dr. Hudson in a Letter from Amsterdam it was. — Mr. Cunningham a Scotch Man abt a Corpus Juris Civilis. He is now at Amsterdam. — Academix Oxon privilegia in unum corpus collecta per D^{rem} Zouch. fol. 'Tis in MS^t in Dr. Sloan's Study: who has also a MS^t Book written by Mr. Rich. May 20 (Mon.). Out of a Collection of Letters of Mr. Tho. Lydiatt, & other Learned Men to him, in Bib. Bodl. NE. 2. 8.

Mr. Briggs his Answer to Mr. Lydiatt, de Periodo sua annorum 592.

Periodus tua, Doctissime Lydiatt, annorum 592, mihi videtur solertissime excogitata, & omnium quas me vidisse memini commodissime restituere solem & lunam ad eundem situm et distantiam in fine periodi, quos in principio ejusdem obtinebant. Et si annorum Sexcentorum spatium, quod tu rectissime admones, quinque Intercalationes omittantur, vix pluribus annorum millibus contingeret, ut solis introitus in signa cælestia in alios dies cujusque mensis inciderent, quam in eos quos initio periodi stabilitæ, tenuisse deprehensus fuerit. 10 Vel saltem si unius diei mutatio facta fuerit (quod vitari non potest) tamen ad initium proximæ periodi omnia in pristinam sedem proxime devenirent. Quod si ista periodus Julio Cæsari aut Sosigeni nota fuisset, cum annus vagus & inconstans erat necessario mutandus & stabilendus, nullam existimo ab humano ingenio commodiorem rationem inveniri potuisse definiendi & formandi anni, ut ejus omnes tempestates in eosdem menses et dies perpetuis futuris temporibus inciderent. Sed postquam mutatio à Cæsare facta, tot sæculorum usu confirmata fuit, ut vix 12 aut 13 dies mutatus sit anni status per spatium mille sexcentorum annorum; nulla satis probabilis mihi caussa occurrit, quæ Gregorium, ad illam, quam tanto conatu aggressus est, mutationem potuit 20 impellere. Hanc itaque anni formam quam à majoribus accepimus semper retinendam suadeo. quam etiam Tycho Brahe ubique sequutus est. Quod si mutatio sit necessario facienda, Gregorianam potius amplecti mallet, ut commercia per universum orbem à mercatoribus commodius exercerentur, quam novam aliquam mutationis inire rationem. Non quod Gregorianam probem; aut quod ejus auctoritati quicquam tribuam, aut quod non existimem tuam esse multo commodiorem, si rem ipsam spectemus: sed quod in hujusmodi negotijs, vel quod antiquum est obtinere, vel plurimorum consensui morem gerere commodissimum arbitrer. Atque hæc pro hujus temporis angustijs in re magni momenti et immensi laboris in bonam partem accipias 30 quæso. Vale. Dat. Oxonij die Cal. Junij 1626.

Tui amantissimus

HENRICUS BRIGGIUS.

May 21 (Tu.). Mr. John Falconer the Gentleman who writt y^e Letters to Mr. Dodwell w^{ch} occasion'd his Discourse upon y^e Soul. He is a Scotch Man & suppos'd to be a Divine. — Mr. Dodwell has writ a Discourse proving y^t y^e Anonymous Tract ag^t Rebatization put out by Rigaltius in his Edit. of St. Cyprian was writ by Pope Stephanus. In Labbe's Edition of y^e Councils Tom. 1. in the General Table of the particulars of the Tomes tis call'd (tho' w^{thout} any Authority) Ursini monachi Afri. — Mr. Dodwell has prov'd y^t Semiramis that was five Generations before Nitocris according to Herodotus could not be y^e Wife of any Assyrian King that reign'd at Ninive, & therefore not the wife of 50 Ninus. This may be of use in a 2^d Edition of Justin. This he has done in a Letter to Perizonius. — He also some time agoe writ a Discourse abt y^e Sicyonian chronology: w^{ch} story he thinks to be Fabulous. 'Tis writ in Latin. — Mr. Edw. Stevens born in y^e year 1633, as he told Mr. Dodwell in a Letter. — Mr. Grabe ordain'd at Worcester by B^p. Lloyd on St. John Baptist's Day, w^{ch} he desir'd himself. Mr. Dodwell has a Letter from Mr. Grabe abt it, & Mr. Dodwell thinks he was only ordain'd Deacon. — Mr. Dodwell tells me he was of the same Opinion about the Natural Mortality of y^e Soul before his Letters of Advice were publish'd, and y^t he has advanc'd something there about y^e same Opinion. So y^t Mr. Clark & others talk very inconsiderately in saying w^t he has deliver'd is crude & indigested: for Mr. Dodwell assures me he has not studied 10 anything with more Care. He tells me that Mr. Peter King, Author of y^e History of y^e Creed is in a great Measure of his Opinion, & y^t Dr. Sherlock has some things tending y^e same way. — Mr. Dodwell of Opinion y^t Geoffry of Monmouth's story of Britain is wholly to be rejected. — Dr. Coward nephew to Dr. Lamphire. Dr. Lamphire had the Pictures of all y^e Camdenian Professors of History. Quære where now? Dr. Coward offer'd to sell them to Mr. Dodwell; but he did not think fit to buy them. They should have been in the Library Gallery. — Mr. Dodwell tells me y^t he sent Mr. Stevens a Copy of his Discourse about y^e Soul, but rec^d no Letter upon it, but only a paper wherein were wrapp'd two Discourses

20 writ by Mr. Stevens, one of w^{ch} abt the Convocation. He believes he was then ill of y^e Feaver (of w^{ch} he died) & y^t this hinder'd his Writing. — Mr. Grabe did not tell Mr. Dodwell in his Letter upon his ordination y^t he rec^d y^e Sacrament. Mr. Dodwell believes he did not, & excuses him for it, because he thinks y^e B^p. might forget; especially if St. John Baptist did not fall upon a Sunday. Quære whether it did or no? The Reason why Mr. Grabe was ordain'd on such a day is because of his X^{tian} Name John. — Mr. Whiston of Cambridge has lately printed a Book upon y^e Revelation of St. John. I am told he is of Opinion there y^t y^e World will be at an End abt nine years hence when there will be a 30 great Eclipse of the Sun. Quære? the B^p. of Worcester of y^e same opinion. Before w^{ch} time y^e B^p. thinks Rome is to be burnt. Grounding his Opinion upon some places in y^e Rabbis. The Jews all of this Opinion as I hear. — The Saxon Dictionary printed at Oxon, w^{ch} bears y^e Name of Mr. Thomas Benson then B. of Arts, afterwards Master in y^t Faculty, of Queen's College was done chiefly by Mr. Thwaites. Mr. Todhunter of y^e same College had some hand in it, as had also two or three more Young Gentlemen of y^e same College tho' not mention'd in y^e Preface w^{ch} was writ by Mr. Thwaites, or rather Dr. Mill. 'Tis a Compendium of Mr. Somner. the Additions taken from Mr. Junius's Papers in the Bodlejan
40 Library. Mr. Benson now Chaplain to y^e B^p. of Carlisle. Mr. Thwaites has a Brother, now Tabarder of Queen's College, an ingenious man. He studyes the Saxon Language, & receives an Annual Pension (as I heard Mr. Thwaites say) from the s^d B^p. of Carlisle to encourage him in y^e said studies. — Ask Mr. Dodwell abt y^e Libri Lintei, & desire of him in w^t place of Livy they may be printed? also whether he has any thing more to be added to them? — Desire of him also whether he has any more Inscriptions not publish'd w^{ch} may be added by way of Appendix to Livy? Likewise w^t Inscriptions he thinks proper to add out of Gruter, Reinesius, or any other Collector? — He thinks y^e Table of y^e Bac-50 chanalian Laws publish'd in y^e first vol. of Tully by Gronovius sh^{ld} be printed in Livy. He cannot tell whence Gronovius had them. — Ethelfied, Daughter of King Ælfred, repair'd Warwick, after it had been destroy'd by y^e Danes. See Dugdale's Antiq. of Warwicksh. p. 298.

May 22 (Wed.). Desire Dr. Hudson to inquire whether the MS^t from w^{ch} Sirmond transcrib'd the Anonymous Tract above mention'd abt Rebaptization had any Author's Name, & how tis worded. Let him ask Zacagnius, the MS^t being in y^e Vatican.

MR. DODWELL TO MR. CLARKE.

S^r, I did not know y^t y^e Copy of your Book against me was a present from the Author till my Arrival at London. My Bookseller who sent it, sent no 10 Letter with it that might inform me that it was so. And I had no reason to expect that favour from a stranger so perfectly unknown to me. Yet, if I be not misinformed, I knew an unkle of your's in our Colledg in Dublin under Dr. Winter our then Provost, in the next Chamber to mine. He is, as I am told, dead many years since, & I am glad he has left behind him such an Honour to his Name as you are. I hereby return you my Thanks for your gift, which would have been more acceptable if it had been done with that justice to me that I hope to observe to you. I know no Atheist in England that can take Advantage from the Primitive Doctrine of Natural Mortality, if you had assured him that I allow none such the Benefit of Actual Mortality. 20 No not even in the Interval between his Death & Resurrection. Had you done so, you had not possess'd our pious Readers with those prejudicing passions which must first be removed before I can expect they can judg equally concerning the Merit of the Cause. But then you could not have insulted me with testimonies of the same Fathers owning all the Heathens, to whom they wrote in order to y^e perswading them to receive the Christian Religion, to be intitled to Actual Immortality. As if I had ever doubted but that they held so. Your upbraiding me with Contradictions is only groundd on your Mistake that you did not know that my Premonition was written after my Book with a design of explaining & recanting some things in the Book it self. You who 30 invite me to such Contradictions, methinks, should not upbraid me with them. You might thereby have discerned how free I am from y^e Prejudices with which you charge me. As for y^e Crudeness of my thoughts, you cannot pretend to have bestowed more time on them than I have done. You may find them suggested in my 2^d Letter of Advice for studies to M^r. John Lesley Brother to M^r. Charles upon his leaving our Colledg. The first Edition of those Letters was perhaps before you were born. Yet the Letters themselves were written some while before.

What you pretend not to understand I am sure you cannot pretend to confute, yet the Instances you give of my Obscurity are not so convincing that 40 favourable application would not have made you master of my Meaning. And till you mark out y^e Difficulty you must excuse me if I be as unable to find it as you were to know my Design in it. What you charge me with as to my Integrity in my Quotations in that I am sure of y^e Advantage of you. You cannot pretend to know my own Thoughts better than I, though you may be more sagacious in finding out the sense of our Authors. Nor am I conscious of any ouvert Acts by which you or any other can judg of my fayling in that point of Integrity. As to my personal Disabilities as I am sensible that no Man ought, so I am conscious that none can have reason to think more meanly of them than myself. And, so far as they are not Sins nor Scandals, I am willing 50 to leave them to our Readers without troubling him with any Apology. Yet you have shewn a strange inequality in your Censures. What you have taken upon credit, in that you are Favourable far beyond my Merit. But you are most severe upon my Book where you had less reason to depend on any Man's judgment but your own. However I am sensible of your good Will in that favour by how much I am the more conscious of not having deserved it. I like withall your Zeal for Religion in an Age of so little Zeal, and should not have been sorry for being the Object of it if I had deserved it. Nor shall I be ashamed of contradicting myself again if you give me reason to do so, however you are pleased to stigmatize Recantation by that unpleasing name. Perhaps you also may see reason, not to imitate, but to rival, me in doing so. God prosper your Study, & make them beneficial for his Church's Good. I am, so far as you will be pleased to contribute thereto,

Your most unfeigned and hearty well-wisher

HENRY DODWELL.

Oxford, May 22, 1706.

You may direct yours to me at Shottesbrook by the Maidenhead Post in Berkshire.

MR. ASTELL TO MR. DODWELL.

Chelsea, Mar. 11th. 1705.

Sir,—That truly Christian Temper, as well as eminent Learning, y^t appears in all your Writings; y^t great Charity & Love to Truth, which are when united the Signature of a Real X^{ian}, but w^{ch} are of little Worth when sepe-
 20 rated, makes me presume that you will pardon this Address, from one, who, tho' a Stranger to your Person, sincerely Honours you for your Merit, & faithfull Sufferings for y^e Testimony of your Conscience, & who makes it in pursuance of your Pacific Design in your Case in View, by the Reading of which I receiv'd much Pleasure and Information.

Let it then be humbly offer'd to your Consideration; Whether all the Constant and Real Members of the Church of England, if they mean to approve themselves as such, are not oblig'd to present Communion with the Actual Possessors of the English Sees, & y^t by y^e Principles of y^e Cyprianic Age, & of the Case in View: Excepting only those who Reside in the Diocese of Norwich, whose Obedience is due to their Depriv'd Father 'till he discharge 30 them from it?

For since the B^p. is the Principle of Unity to his own Particular Church, & y^e Head of all X^{ians} living within his District, so y^t they who are not with the B^p. are not in y^e Church, Disobedience to God's Bishops being y^e occasion of Heresies & Schisms; since there can be but one B^p. in a District, so y^t he who is alone in Possession is for this Reason presum'd to be design'd for this Office by GOD himself; (as is learnedly proved in y^e Case in View;) Since Forreigners must not intermeddle in another B^p's Jurisdiction w^{ch} the Faith is not in danger, (Ibid.) & Forreigners being oppos'd to Incumbent, (p. 46.) it seems to me y^t all 40 B^p's are Forreigners in another B^p's District, unless the Metropolitan at most; Since Subjects can't be discharg'd of y^e Duty owing to their Spiritual Father, otherwise than by his Death, Cession, or Canonical Deprivation; And lastly, Since it was y^e Practise of y^e Primitive Church & Cyprianic Age in Case of Heresy or Schism, for y^e Metropolitan or Neighbouring B^p's to whom it be-long'd to provide a Pastor for y^t Flock, to Excommunicate y^e Heretical or Schismatical B^p, & to chose another in his place, as appears by St. Cyp's Letter to P. Stephen concerning Marcian B^p. of Arles: therefore, there being now no Rival B^p. but in y^e Diocese of Norwich, so y^t y^e present Possessors are, & must be y^e only R^l-full B^p's, each in his Respective Diocess, & y^e only 50 Principle of Unity, no other B^p. whosoever having any R^t to meddle there, as being but a Forreigner; & our late Excellent Metropolitan & his Depriv'd Collegues, who were y^e only Persons who cou'd pretend to a Power of Discharging us from our Obedience to y^e Actual Possessors, & of substituting others in their Districts (considering the Church as under Persecution, & therefore to provide for it's own Subsistence w^{thout} y^e Intervention of y^e Magistrate) not having done it, whereby we may reasonably conclude y^t they did not think it necessary¹; And further, Schism from the Catholic Church being consequent to Schism from y^e Local B^p. of y^e Place, & fundamentally grounded on it; it must needs follow, y^t unless y^e People in y^e several Districts (Norwich only excepted) be united to y^e Present ²*Actual Possessors* as their B^p. and Head, they can be united to none; & consequ^{ly} it [is] as necessary for y^m to live in Communion with him, as it is for them to be united to their true Pastor in order to Communion wth y^e Catholick Church & wth X^t it's Head.

To this there is but one objection y^t I can find, & y^t is w^t some call y^e Contagion, or to use the words of y^e Case in View, p. 2. it is thought necessary 10 to 'abstain from y^e Communion not only of y^e Rival B^ps themselves, who are y^e principal Schismatics, but of all others also who have made themselves necessary to y^e Schism by any Sacred Communion with those Rivals.' To w^{ch} give me leave to answer, y^t this is already in part obviated: For

1st. We adhere to our present Diocesans for y^e same Reason we adher'd to our Depriv'd Fathers in their Respective Districts, (viz.) because being once Lawfull B^ps they have not been Regularly and Canonically Depriv'd.

2^{dly}. We have no other Principle of Unity: So y^t we must either be as Sheep wthout a Pastor, w^{ch} were to unchurch us; or else we must be united to y^t one Depriv'd Father, who has not yet Renounc'd his Title; but this cannot 20 be in Foreign Districts. For should he ³*intermeddle in another occupied Jurisdiction agreeing wth him in y^e same Faith*, he cou'd not be excus'd from Schism by y^e Catholick Principles of y^e Cyprianick Age.

3^{dly}. Our present Metropolitans being R^tfully so, y^e B^ps and Clergy in their Respective Provinces, are oblig'd by Oath to Canonical Obedience. W^{ch} Oath how far it may affect y^e Depriv'd Clergy I shall not now inquire.

4^{thly}. If I rightly apprehend y^e Case in View, it 'makes y^e Danger & Guilt of Contagion to consist in being gain'd over to y^e Opinions of y^e Infected Party. Whence I gather, y^t possibly our present Diocesans may not approve a Rival B^p. tho' they do not reject him from their Communion: Or 30 supposing y^t they don't disapprove y^t Schism, their Subjects may however live in union wth y^m without Contagion; for this y^e Case in View not only grants, but even proves with Respect to y^e Doctrine of y^e Independency of y^e Church on y^e State. § 11th & 12th. Neither are their Subjects proper Judges of their Actions; for we may not Judge GOD & X^t, nor make our selves B^ps of B^ps; to y^eir own Master they stand or fall. For

5^{thly}. In my poor opinion, besides all the other ill Consequences of this Doctrine of Contagion, & y^e Hazards and Endless scruples to w^{ch} it exposes ignorant & well-meaning Persons; it leaves y^e People too great a Latitude, sets us up as Judges of our spiritual Fathers, giving us Liberty to withdraw our 40 Obedience before they are Canonically Depriv'd, w^{ch} is the very thing that they who teach it mean to argue against.

Lastly, it seems to me y^t we have y^e most unexceptionable Precedent of quiet Submission even to disputable Titles, without danger of being Infected with y^e usurpers' Guilt, or Partaking in their Sins, & y^t is the Example of our most Holy L^d, who did not Refuse Communion wth y^e Jewish Church, tho' the Succession of y^e Priesthood (entail'd by GOD Himself) was shamefully broken.

These Hints, on w^{ch} I might easily have enlarg'd, & w^{ch} are but inartificially put together, I submit S^r to your candid Consideration, not doubting that a 50 Person of your great Sagacity, & Blessed Peace-Making Temper will improve them all y^t may be in order to y^t happy Reunion of w^{ch} you appear so desirous, & w^{ch} is so heartily wish'd by all who pray for y^e Peace of Jerusalem, & by none more than by her who is,

Your faithfull Servant in all the Offices of X^{ti}an Charity :

If you think me worthy of an Answer, be pleas'd to direct to be left at Mr. Wilkins, at y^e King's Head in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

10 (85-110).] . . .

May 23 (Th.). Mr. St. Amand tells Dr. Hudson y^t there are 2 Prodigious Libraries to be sold shortly by Auction, viz. Marquardus Guidius's at Hamburg and Mr. Bigott's at Paris. Catalogues and Commissions are given and rec'd at Mr. De L'Orme Bookseller at Amsterdam. Mr. Bigott's has 6000 folios & both of them a great many MSS^{ts} w^{ch} 'twould be highly proper to have bought into y^e Bodlejan Library, if Money could be spar'd. Mr. Dodwell tells me y^t in Gudius's is a MS^t of Photius's Lexicon, w^{ch} 'tis probable may supply the Defects of y^t in the Bodlejan Library.

May 24 (Fri.). This Morning Mr. Dodwell going to make Dr. Mill a Visit, the Dr. gave a severe Censure (according to his usual Method) of Mr. Dodwell's new Book, tho' he has not read it as he confess'd, but only makes his Judgment from w^t People generally say, w^{ch} is unfair & not becoming a Scholar. Mr. Dodwell hinted to him his Changeableness, particularly his Advising him to stand out abt the Oaths. He likewise mention'd to him a Letter w^{ch} the Dr. advis'd Mr. Dodwell formerly to write to Dr. Kenn to stand out abt the said Oaths, & told him y^t if he had but that in view he would not act wth so much heat against the Non-Jurors. Some other things also pass'd, w^{ch} occasion'd the Dr. to 30 abuse Mr. Dodwell, who notwthstanding us'd him civilly and like a Scholar & a X^{ti}an, & told him y^t 'twould be more suitable to his Function to act more steddily & consistently. — 'Tis s^d Gudius writ the Book de Scriptoribus Historiæ Philosophicæ w^{ch} goes under y^e Name of Johnston. Quære farther? — Eutropius lib. 1. c. xvii. makes Veij to be 18 miles distant from Rome. It ought to be corrected xii. being writt perhaps xiii. For so is the Number in y^e Peutingerian Tables, or else xii. & half agreeable to w^t Dionysius Hal. asserts l. II. p. 116. See Cellarius's Geogr. Antiq. p. 462. . .

May 25 (Sat.). Hadrian Beverland had so great Interest in Isaac
40 Vossius y^t he prevail'd wth him to write Notes upon Catullus, w^{ch} were publish'd after his Death. There are some obscene things in them, but are otherwise excellent, & answer the Character he bore in the world.

May 25. H. to Dr. T. Smith. Agrees that the compliments to the University of Frankfurt and to Grabe were extravagant. Doubts whether Grabe has taken priest's orders. Death of Mr. Edw. Stephens (b. 1633). Ockley has left Oxford: H. wishes Mr. Wallis would undertake Abdollatphi.

This Beverland had a very choice Study of Books w^{ch} were sold by him at a low price. He is now living, in a craz'd Condition at London. He was look'd upon always to be a man of quick Parts, w^{ch} he employ'd on bad Subjects, viz. in writing obscene, prophane & other loose Books. He was once a Student in y^e Bodlejan Library, & therefore something more than w^t Mr. Wood has done may be spoken of him by the Continuer of Athenæ Oxon. Dr. Hudson rec^d a Catalogue of His Writings from his own Hands, & may if he thinks fit oblige any person wth it. — Conc. y^e Patavinity of Livy some Things in R. Titius's 3^d Lecture pag. 36. . .

May 26 (Sun.). Mr. Burton in his Notes upon Antoninus pag. 116. seems to be of opinion y^t the Book περί ποταμών, said to be writ by Plutarch is spurious. He quotes there the Passage ab^t Lugdunum's being so call'd from Λύγος a Crow & Δούρος a Hill, in the old Gallick Language. — Quære who Re—s & Br—n are, quoted in Dr. Coward's new Book? They are two of Mr. Boyle's Lecturers, but who? Quære also to whom 'tis he writes his first Letter, which he has not signify'd at large but only by the Initial & Final Letters, W—m C—ck, D.D. & Rector of Sl—ge in Gl—shire. — Blondell writ something ag^t Baronius, which is not yet printed. Quære whether it be 20 at Amsterdam where Mr. Dodwell tells me y^e Bp. of Worcester saw it?

May 27 (Mon.). Mr. Dodwell tells me y^t Mr. Wharton not only writ the latter part of Dr. Cave's Historia Literaria, but y^t he likewise was concern'd in y^e whole Work, and for y^t reason expected to have been mention'd as a joynt Author. This Mr. Dodwell rec^d from one who knew Mr. Wharton. — Viro perquam Reverendo, Doctissimo ac longe Clarissimo, D. JOHANNI HUDSON, S.P.D. Gottfredus Christianus Goetzius. [dated Lipsiae d. 16. Februar. MDCCVI (pp. 119-129).] . . . The said Godofredus Xtianus Goetzius, who is a Brandenburger, was admitted into y^e Publick Library at Oxon 16 Sept. 1697. — Gisbertus Cuperus 30 design'd to write a Comment upon y^e Palmyrene Inscriptions as is intimated by Jac. Rhenferdus in his Letter to him prefix'd to his Literatura vet. Palmyrena.—Cuperus sent to y^e said Rhenferdus accurate Copies of the said Inscriptions.

May 28 (Tu.). This day was a Convocation at 2 Clock about an Address to her Majesty upon Account of y^e Success in Catalonia & the Spanish Netherlands.

May 29 (Wed.). This day being the Restauration of King Charles II preach'd at St. Marie's Mr. Monnox of Baliol College upon 2 Sam. xxii. 48, 49, 50.

Llhuyd mentions Roman coins found near Witney; has bought in Wales a MS. containing Discourses of Josephus Monachus Eveshamiensis. 'A scandalous Dutch story' that Le Clerck's new Anthologia was proposed to be printed at the Theatre. Asks for information regarding Sloane's MSS. of Zouch's Academiae Oxon. Privilegia and Rich. Smith on Original and Progress of Printing. Particulars of two approaching sales—those of Marquardus Gudius at Hamburg and M. Bigott at Paris. Sends copies of the two letters of Hen. Briggs.

Which being a Thanksgiving of David to God for y^e many signal Deliverances & Blessings he had vouchsaf'd to bestow upon him, he hence took occasion to parallel the Sufferings of K. Charles I & II with those of David, & to point out the Authors of all the Calamities & miseries w^{ch} these Kingdoms for so many years lay under. Under this Head he took notice of the many pernicious Pamphlets & other Books at y^t time Publish'd, the Encouraging of w^{ch} he said was enough at any time to inflame a whole Country, & would again (if not timely put a stop to) ruin our Church & state, particularly such Books as y^t of D^r. Tyndal's conc. y^e Rth of y^e Church, w^{ch} is stuff'd with y^e most loose 10 Principles, & manag'd with y^e utmost Rancour & Malice tho' there is but little shew of Reason appearing throughout y^e whole.

May 30 (Th.). In Vettius Valens fol. 4. col. 1. is mention'd ἡπαρχεῖον περὶ ψήφου). ἐν ποίῳ ζώδιῳ. Probably out of Hipparchus. — Mr. Dodwell has found other Notes abt y^e Age of Vettius Valens, w^{ch} shew y^t he liv'd after y^e time of Antoninus. Indictions mention'd in it. The use of Indictions not 'till abt y^e time of Maxentius. — Mr. Dodwell has collated formerly Pomponius Mela with an old MS^t then in y^e Hands of Sir James Ware, now in the Library of y^e Earl of Clarendon. This will be of use to Mr. Reynolds, the Collations being good & in several Places 20 correct y^e Text. — Mr. Cherry (as Mr. Dodwell 'informs me) has a Translation (into English out of French of a Discourse,) made by Queen Elizabeth, & written with her own hand when about eleven years of Age. — Mr. Dodwell was put upon his Considerations of present Concern by y^e Bp. of Worcester Dr. Lloyd¹, who has a Discourse in 4^{to}. to y^e same purpose.

May 31 (Fri.). At y^e End of K. James 1st's Works in Bodley's Archives is a Letter in MS^t of Queen Mary to Cardinal Pole w^{ch} here follows :

May 30. H. to F. Cherry. Dodwell has expostulated with Dr. Mill; 'I have experienc'd an extraordinary change in him of late, & am afraid, by some proceedings, he will turn his Hall into a Fanatick Seminary: for w^{ch} reason I am now abt leaving him, and retiring nearer y^e Library, where my Business lies.' Yesterday Mr. Monnox, Balliol, preached on 2 Sam. xxii. 48, 49, 50, attacking Tindal. Notes from Llhuyd (ut sup.). His first volume of the British Language is almost finished.

A Letter from Ern. Martinus Plarren to Dr. Hudson.

Admodum Reverendo & Clarissimo Viro JOANNI HUDSONO. S.P.D.
Ernestus Martinus Plarren.

Insignis illa humanitas Tua, qua, ut extraneos omnes, ita me inprimis, quum Oxoniæ essem, excipere dignatus es, tantopere me Tibi obstrinxit, ut tunc mihi vel maxime satisfacisse credam, ubi eam qualitercunque prædicandi occasio se mihi videtur offerre. Et hæc causa est, cur non sine magno dolore meo Te insalutato ex Anglia discesserim; quum inopina optimi Parentis mors iter meum supra modum præcipitaret; cui vero rursus alia intervenire, quæ me in hunc usque diem inutiles in Belgio moras jusserunt, quas sine Cl. Perizonij aliorumque doctorum amicitia tædiosissimas mihi futuras fuisse unusquis-que haud difficulter crediderit. In amicorum, quorum modo memini, numero fuit etiam Neufvillæus quidam, qui cum instructissima Bibliotheca non spernendam possidet antiquariam supellectilem & in hac quidem statuam illam cujus Tibi iconem transmitto. Super hac varios ille consuluit viros doctos, atque non paucorum sententia ex conjecturis oppido probabilibus eo recedit, statuam esse Hetruscam; litterarum in femore scriptarum, & nisi fallor ijs, quæ in Operis Inscriptionum Gruteriani Eugubinis tabulis habentur, persimilium expositionem frustra optavit à quoquam sibi dari. Ego ex Anglia redux de viro quodam harum rerum gnaro ab eo interrogatus indicavi eidem Georgium Hickes S.T.P. qui de varia lectione Inscriptionis, quæ in statua Tagis exaratur per 4. Alphabeta Etrusca ad D. Hans Sloane scripsit Epistolam. Ille Neufvillæus de hoc indicio sibi à me facto supra modum lætatus, voluit, ut quum Hickesium solo mihi nomine notum dicerem, ad Te, Vir Clarissime; cujus ego amicitia gloriabar, ea de re litteras darem; Teque & ejus & meo ipsomet nomine obsecrare, ut hanc imaginem ab Hickesio videri ejusque circa Inscriptionis lectionem sententiam à nobis resciri curares. Quod ubi nunc à Te vehementer expeto, de danda audaciæ meæ venia omnino mihi rogandus esses, nisi ingenua amico serviendi cupiditas, & Tua præsertim humanitas eam mihi ultro pollicerentur. Age ergo, Vir Clarissime & hoc Tibi onus imponi patere ab homine Tui studiosissimo, cui nihil adeo arduum aut difficile futurum est, quod non tui amore ductus, quam lubentissime suscipiat. Ubi in patriam fuero reversus, commoda occasione data, de litterarijs nostrorum locorum novis, Tibi forsitan non ingrata perscribam, ex animo interea vovens ut mea opera meaque studia, quæ Tibi prorsus dicata volo, quodammodo utilia tibi esse queant. Vale. Dab. Lugd. Batavorum prid. Kal. Junij cxcxcv.

Responsorijs Tuis ita inscribas velim:

The said Statue, by the Cut, resembles a very beautifull Person, &

Hon^d. Sr,—Having been so tedious in sending those Tracts of mine you desired for y^e Publick Library; you may easily imagine I had not so good opinion of them as to think they deserved so honourable a place. However since you desired it, I have obeyed; and what are wanting are to be met with in y^e Philosoph. Transact. But to make some amends for y^e Intrusion, there will accompany them a MS^t. in velam of L. Apuleius de virtutibus Herbarum; & Sextus Placitus alias Platonius de medicina de Animalibus &c. Between 30 these two there is a small Tract de Medicina de Homine. Whether it belongs to either of them, I am uncertaine, since Gab. Humelbergius who hath given us an Edition of both these Authors with his notes at large upon them, takes no notice of it. Both, as you will find, are imperfect: & in many places incorrect. But having the advantage of y^e Figures of each Plant &c. tho' but rude it may give some light to y^e knowledge of y^e Plants themselves, and by

The Bigot and Gudius Catalogues. Thanks for Brigges' letters. Dr. Bernard's papers were left to S., but he has not touched them for seven or eight years. Among them was a noble collection of letters from Bishop Pearson, Isaac Vossius, Huet, the two Spanheims, Ludolfus, Gronovius, Mabillon and 40 others, but very few of Bernard's in reply. Before applying to the addressees he will have those in his possession transcribed, but has lost his amanuensis. Can H. find him one? Intends to bequeath Bernard's papers to H. Dodesworth's Col. Vol. 149. fol. 18, a. Manchester church in Com. Lanc. 12 March, 1639. [186-193.] . . .

June 9 (Sun.). This Morning preach'd at St. Marie's Mr. Smalbrooke Fellow of Magd. Col. upon John 5th 28, 29. . . .

The whole Discourse was levell'd ag^t y^e pious and Learned M^r. Dodwell's Hypothesis ag^t y^e universality of y^e Resurrection & y^e immortalizing of y^e soul by Baptism, in w^{ch} he propos'd to prove 1st y^t the universality of y^e Resurrection is constantly represented in y^e New Testament. Here he examin'd the principal Texts of Scripture made use of by M^r. Dodwell, & concluded that 20 he had given false interpretations of them. The Fathers he did not meddle with but referr'd to a Book w^{ch} he said would shortly come forth (meaning I suppose y^t printing at y^e Theatre) wherein he said all y^e Passages from y^e Fathers were accurately consider'd, & y^t the Learned Author (so he call'd the writer, by w^{ch} it should seem M^r. Mills is not y^e Person principally concern'd) had set them all in a true light, & upon that asserted y^t M^r. Dodwell's Notion was uncatholick & y^t he had egregiously misrepresented y^e Fathers. Thence he proceeded in y^e 2^d place to shew y^t this Hypothesis was highly derogatory to y^e Justice of God. And in y^e 3^d place concluded y^t M^r. Dodwell's Arguments were erroneous & unconvincing. This done he clos'd all by declaring 30 to y^e Auditory that he had not said any thing out of Design to insult so great a Man but in some measure to prevent y^e Mischiefs w^{ch} may proceed from this Opinion w^{ch} was establish'd by so pious & Learned a person, who was to be pitied upon Account of this & some other dangerous Positions laid down by him, particularly relating to Schism, his Defence of y^e small Number of Martyrs &c. So y^t if persons so eminent for Learning & piety & who have done so signal Service to y^e church in other Respects as tis certain M^r. Dodw. has fall into great Mistakes & Errors he caution'd all to be watchfull & upon y^e 1st Guard & to take all due care not to imbibe new Principles ab^t Religion &c.

The character this Sermon now bears is y^t Mr. Smalbrook spoke too 40 confidently & that he did not do M^r. Dodwell justice, especially ab^t y^e Resurrection since he is not ag^t y^e universality of y^t, but y^t all are not to be concern'd in everlasting Rewards & Punishments; & in short y^t tho' Mr. Dodwell has advanc'd some new notions (at least such as are not known now when generally people read but few old Authors) yet 'twould have been far better for him not to have discours'd of them in y^e Pulpit; since y^t is the way to do farther mischief, & to make people have worse opinions than are to be found in M^r. Dodwell's Book it self. — In y^e Afternoon preach'd Mr. Bingham (of whom I have said something before) formerly of University Coll. upon 1 Cor. 16. 13. . . . The Design 50 of the Discourse was to exhort to Constancy & perseverance in the Duties of Religion & to endeavour always to keep a good Conscience. — Dr. Tyndale of All Souls Coll. was originally of Linc. Coll. where he was Pupil to Dr. Hicks, w^{ch} Dr. Hicks has a Brother a Physitian, who was first a Presbyterian, & afterwards converted to y^e Ch. of Engl. by his Bro. & now practises Physick in London.

June 9. H. to F. Cherry. Sends specimen of Livy, with proposals. Mr. Smalbrooke, Magd., has attacked Mr. Dodwell—not quite fairly or successfully—at St. Mary's.

June 10 (Mon.). On Tuesday Morning last one J——F a Presbyterian Parson who was seized the night before by y^e constable and his watch in Cheapside was brought before y^e Court of Aldermen & ordered
 10 to pay 5 sh. for being (as Sr. Owen Buckingham carried the matter in his favour) in drink & to beg a quakers Pardon who was y^e Accuser for violently taking his wife by y^e — as she was knocking at her own door for Entrance. The Quaker after he had read him a Jumper Lecture ag^t Lewdness in a man of his Profession told him y^t he would pardon him upon condition y^t he found he could give him no farther legal trouble. These are y^e pious cheats y^t cry up so much for Reformation of Manners. — Mr. Dodwell tells me he saw y^e Book Mr. Lihwyd mention'd to me written by Robertus Josephus Monachus Eveshamensis (as he thinks he is call'd in y^e Book) & he says it contains very little History, 20 besides y^e suppression of y^e little Religious Houses by Cardinal Wolsey, & y^e story of y^e Person (Quære whom) who reflected in his Will & Testam^t upon y^e use of superstitious Legacies & for y^t had his Body dug up & burnt by y^e Sheriff. He was contemporary wth Erasmus, whom he mentions sometimes & y^e Epistles are only for Exercise of Stile, & y^e Latin is better yⁿ usual among y^e Monks. Mr. Dodw. saw y^e Book at St. Asaph. . .

 30 night at y^e Coffee-House viz. a Roll neatly written in Arabick w^{ch} seems to be y^e Alcoran. He gives a very good Account of the Places where he has been especially as to y^e state of Learning & is of a communicative Temper. — Dodsworth's coll. vol. 149. f. 22. a. On a stone in y^e Church Yard of Halton juxta Lancaster. Robert Burton of Heighfeld lyes under this stone | Who lyv'd at Heighfeld one hundred yeares & one. . . — This day Mr. Wm. Smith left University Coll. He burnt a great Number of Papers upon his Leaving y^e College. — Mr. Wood in his Life of Sir Anthony Cope Vol. 1. Ath. Oxon. p. 65. mentions only one piece done by him, viz. his Meditations on y^e Psalms, tho' he insinuates y^t he perform'd other Matters
 40 of Learning, w^{ch} he never saw. I have by me The History of Annibal & Scipio, gathered & translated out of Livy & other Authors, & said to be done by Anthony Cope, Esq^r. printed at Lond. 1590. 8^o. I suppose 'twas done by y^e said Sr. Anth. Cope, it being dedicated to K. Hen. 8th & he being only mention'd as Esq^r I suppose 'twas collected before he was K^{ed}.

June 10. Dean Hickee to Dr. Hudson. Thanks for Abbot Passioneo's present. Returns Hudson's picture (for a Dutch book) with remarks. Thanks for transmitting 'the colleges noble present for my book.' Will do all he can for Livy.

June 13 (Th.). On Tuesday last Mr. Dodwell had a conference wth Mr. Smalbrook abt his Sermon, preach'd at St. Marie's, w^{ch} Mr. Smalbrook was so ingenuous as to read to Mr. Dodwell, who was pleas'd very well with his civility, & thinks him a much fairer person than his old Friend Milles of X^t church who would not vouchsafe either to talk wth Mr. Dodwell upon this subject, or shew him anything y^t was done relating to y^e new Book printing at y^e Theatre. Mr. Dodwell desir'd Mr. Smalbrook 10 would print w^t he had said by way of Appendix to y^e said Book omitting all Encomiums, y^t he might see the whole they could say together.

June 16 (Sun.). Mr. Periam of X^t Church preach'd this Morning at X^t ch. before y^e University upon 1 Tim. 5. 22. Neither be partaker of other Men's sins.

'Twas a neat Discourse, shewing how any one may be partaker in y^e sins of another, & upon y^t occasion he could not but take notice of y^e Happiness of 30 those who had opportunities of being Educated in such Places as were always famous for their Loyalty, virtue, & good principles, & in how great Danger those are who thro' Flattery or Connivence do not rebuke Vice, but suffer those at least who are their superiors to go on in the most abominable & notorious Crimes without so much as daring to speak one word ag^t them, or in the least declare the Mischiefs w^{ch} are like to proceed from such wickedness. —

I am inform'd that Mr. Smalbrooke is one of those ingag'd in writing y^e Book printing at y^e Theatre ag^t Mr. Dodwell, & y^t he very freq^{ly} visits Milles for this End. — Dodsworth vol. 149, f. 113. a. . . . — Wakefeld 40 Quyer. . . . — Doncaster Church North Quyer. . . .

— The Ld. Howard of Effingham is made one of ye Gentlemen of ye Bedchamber to Prince George of Denmark in room of my Ld. Stawell, who is turn'd out, because he is an honest Gentleman. Mr. Bingham of University College married to a Daughter of one Mr. Pocock¹ a Schoolmaster. — Mr. Mews one of ye Prebendaries of Winton is deceas'd & is to be succeeded by one Woodard of St. John's College. — Dr. Tho. Brown formerly of Corpus Xti Coll. now of Bps. Waltham is ye most scurvily us'd by his People y^t ever was heard of. They set up his Effigies in Straw, wth a Pot in one Hand & a glass in y^e other to ridicule him. — Baluzius in pag. 621 of his Appendix to Regino de Disciplinis Eccl.

expect to be De Witted . . . Sir Phil. Sydenham is inform'd y^t y^e Government has taken notice of y^e propos'd design for translating Mr. Bale's Critical Dictionary, and will interdict its proceeding notwithstanding y^e Undertakers has been as they say at above 1400^l cost already. You know I suppose its character for which it was damm'd in Fr. viz. that there is never a lascivious verse in all y^e Poets nor never a sceptical Notion in y^e Fathers or Philosophers but he has faithfully raked together.

has published a prayer in Latin out of an old MS^t. Missal in the Colbertine Library w^{ch} is exactly the same wth that in our Common Prayer Books at y^e End of y^e Litany, w^{ch} begins O God Mercifull Father y^e despisest not y^e sighing of a contrite heart &c. — Amongst Br. Barlow's Books in Bibl. Bodl. is one (8^o. C. 593) printed at Lond. 1574, containing y^e Liturgy of y^e Ch. of Eng. in Latin, w^{ch} belong'd once to J. Johnson as appears at y^e Beginning who has added in y^e Margin & elsewhere several MS^t. June 25 (Tu.). Last night Mr. Edm. Perkes, A. M., & Fellow of 10 Corpus Xti Coll. was taken at about 11 clock wth a fit of an Apoplexy, of w^{ch} he died at abt 6 This Morning. This Gentleman, whom I have several times mention'd before, I am informed now at y^e Print-House had a very considerable Hand in y^e Book printing at y^e Theatre against Mr. Dodwell, and did design in a short time to have done another Book in abt 25 sheets of Paper. But w^t I cannot yet tell. His untimely Death happen'd to y^e great Reluctance of all good and learned Men, he being a person noted in his College and the university for his Probity, Honesty, usefull Learning, and Willingness to assist and encourage all Bookish Men. . . .

20 died of an Apoplexy. 'Tis said he took something for y^e Gout w^{ch} struck it into y^e Head and Stomack, w^{ch} immediately caus'd his sudden end: whereby the Honour is Extinct. — Some years since Dr. Wood, then only Mr. Wood of New College, took a sly way of ruining the Reputation of Dr. Musgrave the Physitian, by writing Letters w^{thout} any Name into y^e Country where y^e Doctor was; w^{ch} being prov'd upon him, he had like to have been expell'd y^e College; but he being young, Dr. Beeston y^e Warden (whom he had also aspers'd) & y^e society was so favourable as to impose no other punishment y^a begging Pardon, w^{ch}
30 accordingly he did. This was not y^e only ill thing he did there, as some of y^e College have assur'd me. His refusing and neglecting to be resident at his Parsonage, tho' he solemnly promis'd it when 'twas given him, his aspersing y^e Clergy in a gross Manner before he had any thoughts of taking H. Orders, his malicious carrying on an Action against Mr. Ayliffe (chiefly because he would not appear for him when he stood for Warden upon y^e Death of Dr. Traffles) and y^e like are so notorious to y^e world, y^t they cannot be past over in silence. — The Continuer of Athenæ Oxonⁱ must not forget to inform his Curious Reader y^t Dr. Thomas Wood writt a Book call'd Anglia Notitia, being an Epitome
40 in Latin of Chamberlain's Present State of England; w^{ch} said Notitia when in the Press at Lichfields, Dr. Wallis happen'd to see, and perusing some Passages in it, his Censure of it then was y^t there were so gross Anglicisms in it that the Author ought to be whipp'd severely for it. This book, however, being dedicated to Dr. Luffe and Dr. Bernard, 'tis remarkable y^t y^e latter receiv'd it upon his knees, being transported at y^e Honour done him.

Out of a Letter of one Mr. John Mould to Dr. Hudson, Dated 7th Sept. 1703.

Since I left Oxon I hapned into y^e Conversation of one M^r. Holliday y^e son of one Barten Holliday a person once famous in y^e University of Oxon and elsewhere. He was Chaplain to an English Ambassador in Spaine, & had been before acquainted wth Gondomar y^e Spanish Ambassador, whom he found in Spaine under some Disgrace. Gondomer had a mighty Kindness for him, & as a present gave him a Book, wherein y^e whole Conspiracy of y^e Powder Plot was set forth in Spanish, & before M^r. Barten Holliday left Spaine, y^e Booke was suppressed, but M^r. Holliday brought his Book into England, and kept it 'till y^e Restauration of K. Ch. 2^d. and soone after died. One M^r. Dowey a Clergyman of Fordeane in Gloucestershire & had married M^r. Holliday's Daughter had his Library and about y^e year 1661 or 1662 presented this Book to your Publick Library. Now Sir if there be any such book in y^e Library, I know some Gentlemen would be at y^e Charge of Transcribing it & Translating of it into English. If this Book be to be found, please to communicate your thoughts to me on this occasion &c.

June 30 (Sun.). MR. WALDRON OF ALL SOULS COLL. TO DR. CROTHWAIT OF QUEEN'S.

S^r,
Since at ye Tavern I can't meet ye
In Paper Embassie I greet ye,
T' advise you not to be so wary Touching King Wm. & Queen Mary,

That Spight of Fellowship & Pupills 50 You'll weigh your Conscience out in scruples
For as Your Queen's Men must believe
Two Negs. make an Affirmative.

Why in y^e Name of y^e Predicaments
 And all y^e Analytick Sense
 Won't you allow poor Affirmations
 In their turns too to make Negations.
 This postulatum any Pate
 Will grant that's not prejudicate.
 Nay y^e Argument I assure y^e
 Appears to some à fortiori.
 Hoc dato & concessio thus I
 10 In Baralypton blunderbush ye:
 He y^t to two Kings takes an Oath
 Is by y^e last absolv'd from both.
 For each Oath being an Affirmation
 Both, as it's own'd make a Negation.
 Thus scientifically you see
 The more ye're bound y^e more ye're free.
 As Jugglers when they knit one more
 Undoe y^e Knot they made before.

Tis strange your Smiglecian under-Standing should make so great a Blunder,
 As roundly to Affirm Subjection,
 Wern't Cousin German to Protection.
 Nay more they're Relatives unless I Mistake Tom Hobbs secundum esse.
 I've hopes tho' you have slyly taken
 The Oaths elsewhere to save y^r Bacon.
 So spark, by Country . . half undone
 Takes Coach & steals a Cure at London.

P.S.

Sending you this in Verse, no doubt
 You'll think my Reason has y^e Gout.
 For verse, as you will learn from hence
 The feet Confinement is of sense.

July 1 (Mon.). This day was sent a Letter to y^e university of 20 Francfurt upon Oder in Answer to theirs to y^e University of Oxon.
 Twas first drawn up by y^e Orator Mr. Wyat; but that being hardly Latin, 'twas done anew by another Hand, & so sent. A Copy of the Orator's may be seen in one of y^e Folio Volumes of my Collections.
 Of the other I have no Copy.—Mr. Barnes of Cambridge not pleas'd with Mr. Piers for putting out two of Euripides's Tragedies; because he thinks he has not done him Justice.

Dr. Mill tells me y^t y^e Duke of Lauderdale was in his younger Days one of the best Scholars of any Gentlemen in these Parts, & y^t Dr.
 50 Hicks learn'd Hebrew just before he went to be his Chaplain on purpose
 y^t he might be able to discourse with his Ldship in Rabbinical Learning.
 That he was a Curious Collector of Books, and when in London would very often go to y^e Booksellers shops and pick up w^t curious Books he could meet with; but y^t in his Elder years he lost most of his Learning purely by minding too much Politicks.

Remember to tell Dr. Hudson y^t in vol. i. p. 61, of Dionysius Hal. for Titus Manlius is to be read M. Manlius from Livy, l. v. c. 31, as Pighius has observ'd in his Annals, Tom. i. p. 222. — Mr. Cæsar last Week presented to y^e Queen y^e Address of y^e Town of Hertford; but her Majesty was pleas'd to refuse it from his Hands. — Last Sunday (June 30) Mr. Tyler Dean of Hereford was Consecrated Bp. of Landaff at Lambeth. — A Report was spread in several Parts in London y^t Mr. Savage of X^t Church being wth Dean Aldrich, y^e Dean should take his Glass, and propose a Health of farther success to y^e Duke of 30 Marlborough; upon w^{ch} reply'd Mr. Savage, Hold Mr. Dean, not so fast; y^e farther success the Duke has the lower y^e Church is. This story was groundless, Mr. Savage being out of town when the words were said to be spoken, & y^e Dean in a place of some considerable Distance from Mr. Savage.

July 4 (Th.). . . Mr. Milles now acknowledges himself plainly to be Author of y^e Book printing at y^e Theat. ag^t Mr. Dodwell, and has given in a title wth his name Subjoyn'd, to be put in y^e Catalogue of Books now in y^e Theatre Press. Before M^r. Perks's Death he would not own it.

July 5. Baron Spanheim has sent to y^e Publ. Library a Copy of y^e 40 1st Vol. of his New Edit. of his Book de usu & Præs. Num. neatly bound in Turkey Leather, with the following Inscription in a spare Leaf at y^e Beginning, under his own Hand.

Inclytæ toto orbe Academiæ Oxoniensis Bibliothecæ | hunc renovatum in Anglia Dissertationum | de nummis Antiquis fœtum, | in grati animi, ob novissime delatum sibi absenti | ab eadem illustrissima Academia | Doctoris juris Civilis titulum | L.M.Q. offert | Ezechiel Spanhemius | Londini m Non. Jul. MDCCVI. | —

In Bib. Bod. amongst the Baroccian MS^s. are Scholia upon Oppian in Greek (num. 38), w^{ch} Mr. Barnes (Jos.) of Cambridge is now using, 50 with a design to put out y^t Author as he tells me. When Mr. Barnes presented his Edw. 3^d (w^{ch} cost him above 600 lbs. in all) to King

James (to whom he Dedicated it) his Majesty was pleas'd to talk very freely and kindly to him, & there is no doubt had given him preferment if the Troubles had not follow'd immediately, or if my Ld Sunderland had acted fairly.

July 7 (Sun.). In Salmasius's Epistles p. 276. is a large Disquisition abt Livy's and others Expression, ante diem tertium kalendas, &c. — Mr. Barnes is now looking over y^e Collection of Greek Epigramms, MS^t, in y^e Publick Library of Oxon. He tells y^e B^p of Norwich lately sent to him desiring he would send to him his conjectures upon some of y^e 10 Epigramms of Brodæus's Edition; w^{ch} accordingly he did, and his L^dship has transmitted them to Mons^r Le Clerk. — This day being Act Sunday in the Afternoon preach'd at St. Marie's before y^e university Mr. Hen. Felton of Queen's Coll. upon these words (Psal. 84), I had rather be a door keeper in the House of the Lord than to dwell in y^e Tents of wickedness. 'Twas a neat, well penn'd Discourse, and the Design of it was to set forth y^e Nature of Praise and Thanksgiving. Whence he took occasion to shew w^t little Reason the Fanaticks & others have to separate from the Establish'd Church of England. This Mr. Felton was first Commoner of St. Edm. Hall, where he tooke his A.M.'s Degree, & 20 afterwards went into Holy Orders, left y^e university and became an Eminent Preacher in and abt London. He was always Noted for a very ingenious, sociable and honest Man; but Dr. Mill being always very rough towards him (w^{ch} he discovered the more because Mr. Felton's Father, a very severe Person, gave him particular liberty to shew Authority over him, as also did Mr. Goodwin (commonly call'd Dr. Goodwin), something related to him, and who had an Eye over Mr. Felton while of the Hall), I say Dr. Mill being not very kind to him, when he came now to Oxon Mr. Felton immediately enter'd of Queen's College; and Dr. Mill upon this occasion shew'd his venome so much 30 y^t he would not appear at Church, and will not vouchsafe to give him a good Word: a thing much taken Notice of in y^e university, and for w^{ch} he is by no means to be vindicated. But y^e Writer of these Matters knows too well that he seldom speaks kindly of any who have been bred up at his own House, Mr. Worth being the only person that he mentions altogether with Civility; the reason whereof is, because being void of Parts, and having very little learning he was entirely addicted to y^e Doctor's Humour, and would never thwart him in w^t he said. Mr. Felton lately put out a six penny Pamphlett against y^e Presbyterians of Colebrooke, w^{ch} has y^e Character of one of y^e best 40 Pamphletts y^t have been written.

July 8. Dr. T. Smith to H. Josephus and Livy. Sends for H. Selden de Dis Syris, Almelooven's Fasti, Bœclerus de Scriptoribus Graecis et Latinis, and Lister's Apicius for Bodley; also a specimen for Williams the amanuensis, with instructions. Suggestions concerning Culham (see Camden, Brit. vv. in window in St. Helen's, Abingdon). Too much incense offered to Spanheim's book; Hardouin could criticise it if he would. Sir Ant. Cope's collections out of Livy very trivial. What does Alypius Antiochenus (? in Gothofredus' Libanius, Geneva, 1631) say of Byzantium? Some one should collate the Savilian MS. of Agathemerus' Ἰστοριώσεις with Tennulius' edition of 1671.

Englefeld my late Husband & Father to y^e s^d John & if y^e s^d Maners be redeemed by a Tender of a sum of Money late made to y^e s^d Dame Eliz. by Edw. Browghton son and Heire of W^m. Browghton then my Mind is that y^e s^d Money be bestow'd in Land for y^e use of my s^d son John & y^e Heirs of His Body, Sir Georg Throk Morton K^t. y^e Testat. Brother offered y^e Testat. Lands to sell &c. Item I give to my Daugh, Susan Englefeld to her Marriage the Profit of my Ward Edward Ferrys w^{ch} I would have sold to y^t purpose, & 400^{li}. besides of her Father Sir Thomas Englefeld's Gyft &c. rem^r to my Husband's suster's children & my 20 syster's children. Item I will y^t my s^d Daugh. Susan be brought up wth M^{rs}. Moumpesson Wief to Edmond Moumpesson Esq^r. Item I will y^t my Niece Elianor Burdett be brought up wth M^{rs}. Denton late wief to M^r. Item I give to my Cozen Mary Sanders towards her Marriage xx lib. probat. 10 Feb. 1543.

July 9 (Tu.). Mr. Cherry of Shottesbrook tells me y^t he met lately with a Pamphlett printed abt y^e year 1641, conc. Church Discipline &c. written by way of Dialogue. The Author (a Fanatick as appears 30 throughout) he would fain know. I suppose it to have been Hen. Burton, & y^t 'tis y^e same Book wth that I have seen among B^p. Barlow's Books in y^e Publick Library call'd Conformities Deformity, in a Dialogue between Conformity and Conscience. Lond. 1646. 4^o. Burton's Name is to it, both in y^e Title Page & at y^e End of y^e Dedication, w^{ch} is to y^e R^t. Hon^{ble}. y^e Ld. Major & City of London. — Mr. Topping of Xt. Church tells me y^t he has made some Inquiry abt y^e Abbey of Culham or Culham, when he was at Culham near Abingdon about a Week since; but y^t he cannot learn any thing y^t there was an Abbey at y^t place. I think M^r. Leland has mentioned it in his Itinerary. Quære. 40 He also tells me y^t Salmanezzer, the famous Formosan, when he left Xt. Church (where he resided while in Oxon) left behind him a Book in MS^t. wherein a distinct Acc^t was given of y^e Consular & Imperial Coyns, by himself. — Mr. Cherry has an Apollonius Dyscolus with Is. Casaubon's notes in MS^t at y^e Margin. The Binder has somew^t prejudic'd them, but yet they may be of great use to any one y^t shall publish him hereafter. Quære whether it be his Book de Constructione seu syntaxi verborum, or his Historiæ mirabiles, publish'd by Meursius? — This Day being Act Tuesday, Mr. Jos. Barnes of Cambridge was incorporated B. of Divinity of our university, being presented to y^e Vice-Chancellor by Dr. Hudson, who gave this just Encomium of him, quo neminem Græcia unquam tulit ἑλληνικώτερον. — Mr. Cherry tells me y^t two Sermons have been preach'd before y^e Queen in opposition to Mr. Dodwell's Book abt y^e Soul, & y^t y^e Author's link'd him and Dr. Tyndall together.

July 11 (Th.). Last night Mr. Francis Cherry of Shottesbrook made a visit to Dr. Mill, who immediately fell very barbarously upon Mr. Dodwell, using such expressions as are not fit to be named. Mr. Cherry, a Gentlemen of Eminent Virtues, and singular Learning, and who has upon Account of his great Prudence, Affability and wonderfull Humanity the good word of all acquainted with him, endur'd all with Patience, only when the Dr. in his Passion and according to his usual Civility call'd Mr. Dodwell (whose humility, Piety and uncommon Learning nobody knows better than Mr. Cherry) the proudest man living he made
20 this modest Reply, not y^e proudest Man living, Mr. Principal; for he would not have said so of any Man. The Dr. took great notice of y^e Expression, & I do not question but will repent at one time or other for this Incivility offer'd both to Mr. Dodwell & Mr. Cherry who is so intimate a Friend of Mr. Dodwell's. But this Rudeness was no more than w^t was expected, it being well known y^t Dr. Mill was always of this Censorious Temper, & for w^{ch} he stands justly branded in Mr. Boyle's Book against Dr. Bentley. The best Apology I ever heard 30 it offer'd as a reason why he should not be provost there. I am sorry I should have occasion to mention these faylings; but they are so well known, that the world cries out shame upon him for them, & they cannot be past by in silence. — Presently after Mr. Barnes was incorporated Bach. of Divinity in our university he made y^e following Extempore verses upon y^t occasion [eight Greek hexameters]. . . .

Mr. Barnes stood first for Greek Professor of Cambridge in y^e year 1686, when he mist it, meerly by the Falling off of some, who had promis'd fairly; tho' at y^e same time they could not but acknowledge 20 he was far better qualify'd than Mr. Michael Payne, who carry'd it, & held it nine years. —

Out of Mr. Barnes's Book, under his own Hand-Writing :

Mr. Piers of Eman. Coll. under a Cloak of Simplicity and Friendship has prov'd a Snake and a Viper. Not to speak of his manifold Espials, Circum-ventions, Treacherys, &c. Crimine ab uno disce omnia. Him I have encourag'd and us'd kindly, ever since his first Admission, being recommended by Letter to my favour & acquaintance from my old Master, D^r. Goad. When a Fellowship was void, and he absent, I gave him notice and Encouragement; & he thereupon obtain'd it. When Epictetus was printed, being myself call'd on for 30 Verses, I put him on some, and caused them to be printed wth my own. When Euripides came out. Green y^e Bookseller was to gratify him, I pitching on him to transcribe in order y^e Fragments I had collected. I told him, what notes he could produce, should bear his name, as they do. He privately insinuated among my Acquaintance his great Merit in y^e Matter, so y^t our Society approv'd them so far, as to prefer them to my Performance. I ask'd [him] before them his own Opinion: He impudently own'd his great Deserts in y^e Case, and then I told the secret, y^t of y^e Notes under his Name to Euripides, not one word was his own; 'tis all stolne from Tho. Gataker's M. Antoninus. I got him, at y^e same time, for his Encouragement to prefix a Copy of Gr. Verses 40 to my Euripides; toward w^{ch} Work I lent him my own Greek Poëtical Lexicon MS. yet for all y^t he made such Verses, y^t 'till I had corrected them were defective in Sense, true Greek, Quantity & Accent. Which I have still by me, under his own Hand.

In his Verses on y^e D. of Gloucester, he made Ro. in Robora and Vi. in Viribus short, and so they were at first printed; 'till a B.A. of Queen's found out y^e Faults, & so y^e Sheet was reprinted, he to be at the Charge, tho' not in 2 years paid, as Mr. Crownfield knows and tells me. When I was at London, about Paul's school 1697, he borrowed and had all y^e while by him for above 24 Weeks my own Euripides, with Corrections, Various Readings, and other 50 Additions, Notes &c. w^{ch} having compil'd, he has by my own Paines prepar'd a more full Life &c. w^{ch} with some select Playes he is now publishing for Smith & Walford, whom by his sly Insinuations he has made his, & stole their Regard from me, as he serv'd me with Rich. Green before.

If all this be just, or civil, or fair, or tolerable, & y^t it is equal, or kind for my Booksellers, for whom I undertook Homer, to let another publish any Part of my Works, for w^{ch} I am not fully paid yet, Green owing me ten Pounds for y^e Life of Euripides, and five Pounds for y^e two Treatises of Tragedy and Theater &c. without asking me leave, or giving me Notice, or whether it may be for y^e Honour of y^e university to discern so ill, or to bestow their Favours so unequally, as all along to discourage and slight a Man, y^t notoriously understands Greek, & to cherish and magnify one, y^t never yet was able to give one true specimen of any tolerable Ability in y^t kind, I appeal to y^m y^t know sense & have Skill or Justice, only begging y^t for y^{eur} own Credit, they will not suffer Euripides to be profan'd by a Person, wholly compos'd of Ill-Nature & Ignorance. —

Aug. 5 (Mon.). Quædam ex Is. Casauboni pugillaribus, quos D^s. Winton habebat.

Narrabat mihi affinis meus Vir Honestiss. Petrus Cabanaeus Kal. Oct. 1604 cum ante triennium Rubio fluvius hujus oppiduli (Bourdeaulx vocant, vulgo superioris ætatis notarii cum Latine acta conciperent Bourdellis :) suburbium 10 totum inundavit, & cubacula inferiora omnium domorum complevit, tum inquam saeviente fluvio, ingentia saxa ab eo delata quæ inter se collisa ignem ederent qui super aquas late stagnantes cernebatur. Addebat Gillierius Min: verbi divini visum alicubi fluvium velut contextum ignibus. Omnia miracula superat quod ipsi vidimus saxa ingentia non volvisse fluvium, sed in hortos muris clausos attollendo intulisse. Similiter & parietum dejectorum partes.

Narrabant iidem in hoc eodem Rubione cum late stagnaret auditas voces ἀπὸ τῶν παραποτάμιων quasi pereuntium in aquis ejulatus, quibus lamentis cum excitati essent qui audiebant, & ad ferendam opem accurrissent, repente plantus in risum est mutatus. Existimabant illi Satanae & malorum Spirituum esse 20 lusus.

Ea tempestas inundationibus aquarum fuit saeviss. & in Delphinatu & in alijs provincijs. De Aleto, quod oppidum non procul ab Vicetia (Viez) narrabant iidem hoc. Alluit muros oppidi, fluviolus is cum præter modum intumuisset agebat ferebatque omnia obvia, quæ utrinque ad ripas. Erant jumenta, erant homines, erat supellex varia, item lignum, & quicquid ad prædiorum instrumenta pertinet. Oppidani cum ferre opem non possent, stabant in ea parte moenium quam præterlabitur amnis, et erat corona frequens ē murorum pinnis spectaculo miserrimo anxia, cum ecce repente aquarum vi subruta moenia collabuntur, & una secum omnes qui superstabant ruina trahit. 30 Deinde per urbem ipsam late vagari aquae, & partem magnam civium interimere. Exstat de hac re libellus tunc editus.

Ossa Gigantis omni fide majora, καὶ ὑπὲρ πᾶσαν ἱστορίαν. Non longe ab oppido cui nomen Montelimar ante paucos menses reperta sunt ossa nimia vetustate cariosa, sed tamen ferme integra cujusdam Gigantis, cui simile nihil legi, nil audivi. Modus erat hic. Des^t caetera. —

There is come into y^e Publick Library, the Original MS^t of The Causes of y^e Decay of Christian Piety, written by y^e Author of The Whole Duty of Man. The Donor Mr. Keble, A Bookseller in London, near Temple-Bar. Dr. Aldrich, Dean of Xt. Church has been shew'd 40 the Book, to know whether he could tell the Hand. He reply'd, that he was of opinion that 'twas not y^e Author's own Hand, but copy'd by Bp. Fell wth a disguis'd Hand. I have carefully examin'd it, & find Bp. Fell's Hand in several places; w^{ch} I know to be his from its being exactly y^e same wth what I have seen of his Hand before. Particularly in the Title Page, The Causes of the Decay of Xtian Piety is added by him in room of Duty lost in Disobedience w^{ch} is struck out. There is also there struck out A Practical treatise written by the Author & for it only added written by y^e Author. Indeed by comparing these Hands together they will appear to be y^e same by the turn of the Letters: tho' we 50 cannot from hence gather y^t Bp. Fell was Author. Nor indeed do I think he was, it seeming rather to have been a Club of learned and pious Persons, such as y^e Bp., Dr. Hammond, y^e Lady Packington &c. —

In my Notes to Livy ad l. iv. c. 23, at y^e Word Voltumnæ remember to add, Videndum an legendum potius Vertunæ. See Gyraldus's Syntagm. Deor. ult. Ed. p. 52.

Aug. 7 (Wed.). Mr. Barnes tells me y^t in y^e 80. Edition of Homer's Odysses, w^{ch} was printed last Year at y^e Theatre for a New Year's Gift, are abundance of material Faults, and y^t some Words are quite left out. — Happening to shew Mr. Barnes the MS^t. Copy above mention'd of y^e Decay of Xtian Piety, he presently told me he had a Paper written wth Archbp. Sancroft's own Hand, w^{ch} he thought resembled very much to the Hand of y^e s^d Book. This he brought y^e next day, and comparing it with y^e Book we found several Letters written y^e same way, the same Distance as to lines &c. And accordingly we concluded that they were done by y^e same Person; & w^t confirms this is y^t Mr. Barnes says y^t formerly talking with Dr. Holbeach Master of Eman. Coll. (of w^{ch} Archbp. Sancroft had been Fellow and afterwards Master) the Dr. told him y^t making a visit once to Dr. Sancroft (he thinks) before y^e Restauration he happen'd to see some Papers written by Dr. Sancroft w^{ch} he would take his oath were part of w^t was afterwards printed under y^e Title of the Whole Duty of Man. Nothing can be objected ag^t his being 20 Author, if his Extraordinary Piety, Learning, Eloquence & Modesty be consider'd, &c. — Out of Casaubon's Preface to Polybius. — Magnus, Deus bone, auctor T. Livius, lactea quadam ubertate dictionis divinitus facundus; amans virtutum, osor vitiõrum, rectus judicij, rerum togæ, rerum sagi, etsi non ex usu neque experientia, egregie tamen peritus &c. wth other things, w^{ch} consult especially ab^t the loss of Livy's Works.

Aug. 8 (Th.). Mr. Ursinus, Chaplain to y^e Prince of Denmark came on this Day to the Publick Library. He hath printed a Book ab^t y^e Antiquities of the Jews. — Dr. Woodroof has just publish'd a Sermon preach'd at Woodstock the thanksgiving-Day for y^e Success under y^e 30 Duke of Marlborough, to whom 'tis Dedicated. — Mr. Wilder also of Pembroke has printed one preach'd upon y^e same occasion, Dedicated to y^e Bp. of Bristol. — Mr. Geree of Corpus has printed one also preach'd at y^e Assize at Winchester. This is a good Discourse, the others Rhapsodical, injudicious, Grub-street stuff. — This Day was a meeting of Heads of Houses in y^e Apodyterium to examine a sermon preach'd lately at St. Marie's before y^e University by Mr. Hart of Magdal. Coll. w^{ch} had been represented to y^e Court as containing some Reflecting things on some Great Persons. But it appear'd otherwise when sifted, & he is come of to his Credit & like an Honest Man, as 'tis certain he 40 is. — We have an Acc^t. from Whitchurch in Shropshire y^t y^e Dissenters there having prepared a great Quantity of Bricks to Erect a Capacious Conventicle a Destroying Angel came by Night and spoyled y^m all & confounded y^er Babel in y^e Beginning to y^er great Mortification. — One of y^e Canons of Sarum being lately deceased, the Bp. laboured Tooth & Naylor to have brought in to have succeeded him a certain Haughty Dr. (Dr. Kennett) famous for Arraigning the Blessed Martyr K. Charles 1st in a 30 of January Sermon as also for a late History published by him, w^{ch} is full of Whiggism, Trifling, Grub-street Matter, & base Reflections out of his Way, but he lost his Aime, & y^e Dean & Chaplaine [sic] chose the Reverend Dr. Wyatt. The said History is y^e 3^d Volume of the English Historians; & is done wth Dr. Kennett's usual unaccuracy, Pride, Injudiciousness & Knavery. The said Dr. Wyatt was formerly Proctor of y^e University of Oxon & Tutor to the Eminent Dr. Bernard. — Memorandum y^t Mr. Barnes has made divers Corrections (w^{ch} had Escaped Mr. Aldrich) in y^e Copy of Homer's Odysses (presented him by y^e Dean of Xi. Ch.) w^{ch} was printed at y^e Theatre. — Dr. Hudson in y^e year 1704 very zealous ab^t Sir Thomas Cook's Gift of 1000^l. to the University, in order to build a College where Glouc. Hall stands. Ask y^e Dr. about it. He writ to Mr. Wilmot an agent in y^e 10 Matter, & had several Directions from Mr. Ja. Ince of one of y^e Inns of Court. — Dr. Hudson has a fair transcript wth a Scholiast of some Fragments of Andromachus; a Physitian often mention'd by Galen. He was Physitian to Nero. He has also in MS^t. Luca Holsienij Notæ & Corrections in P. Gyllij de Bosporo Thracio lib. 3.—Also Collations on Tully's Offices from the first Edition in y^e Publick Library.—Also an Index of all y^e Greek words in Nicander done Alphabetically by Mr. *Alex. He has acknowledg'd Dr. Wake to be in y^e right (I am told) and begg'd his Pardon for being so far ingag'd ag^t him. — Over Mr. Camden's Picture on the Wall in the History Schole. SCHOLA HISTORICA / INSTITUTA / ANNO / HISTORIÆ VITAM SIV VITA DONAVERIT HIC EST. / — In St Peter's Church in y^e East Oxon, on the North Wall is painted Queen Eliz. lying at full length in her Royal Robes wth a Crown on her Head &c. I suppose done ab^t y^e year 1603 when she dy'd & was buried at West- 30 minster. — Mr. Tudwell Organist of King's Coll. & Pembroke Hall in Cambridge is expell'd. The reason see in one of my Letters dated Jul. 25. 1706. . .

[Aug. 15 (Th.).—Sept. 5 (Th.).] On y^e 15th of this Month Thursday ab^t 10 'Clock dyed Dr. Bayley, President of Magd. Coll. He has left y^e Character of an Honest Man behind him. He was Elected upon the Death of Dr. Rogers, till w^{ch} time he refus'd the Oath of Allegiance, w^{ch} made some Reflect upon him as tho' he conform'd only out of Interest. — The L^d. Barrimore is lately married privately to y^e L^d. River's Daughter. — At the Assizes at Coventry y^e Church & Whigg Party that 40 there Indicted each other for a Riott at y^e last Election for Members of Parliament accommodated y^e Matter among themselves. — L^d. Wharton made Justice in Eyre of y^e Forests, Parks, Chaces, &c. on this side Trent, of w^{ch} he had been depriv'd upon y^e Death of K. W^m. and Mr. Alex. Denton (formerly of Edm. Hall & one of y^e Councillors to y^e Aylesbury Men conc. y^e Election there) is made his under secretary, purely to encourage him to go on in Councelling the W-ggs, at wch he is forward enough. This Mr. Denton was a hard student when of y^e Hall, and so he has been noted since; but whereas Dr. Hicks says he is one who understands y^e Saxon Language well, it must be noted y^t 'tis a mistake, he not knowing I think one word of y^t Language. — Bisse Fellow of New Coll. marry'd to the Countess of Plymouth, to whom he was Chaplain. — Executors to Dr. Bayley are Mr. Goodwin and Mr. Kenton Fellows of the Coll. and upon their Absence Dr. Gregory of Glouc shire and Mr. Smallbrooke. — A 2^d Edition

 20 in Greek, remember to tell Dr. Hudson of it. 'Tis Geographical. A Paper in y^e Place where. In the same Book a Greek tract de Paschate. Perhaps Petrus Alexandrinus's. — In the 4th Box amongst Casaubon's Papers is a thin fol. MS^t wherein are Notæ Gratosi Epidauritæ explaining the Contractions of Words. Also Glossæ veteres variorum non editæ. — Notæ Geographicæ in the same Box. —

Dr. Hutton of Aynhoe amongst other things has made a great number of collections in order to continue the History of Bp^s as done by Godwin; wch he would willingly do if there were any Encouragement for him. — On y^e 31st Aug. Mr. Hart of Magd. Coll. was call'd before 30 y^e Heads of Houses in y^e Apodyterium, there being another order from Court for y^t purpose, they being not satisfied with w^t y^e university had done before in reference to his Sermon. The Letter order'd them to give him an Oath, but they did not find themselves oblig'd by statute to do y^t, and so he was dismiss'd. Mr. Hart I am told since has taken more time to consider, before y^e university send their Answer. Dr. Mill was concern'd in informing, as 'tis said, tho' he deny's it. On the 3^d of Sept. Mr. Hart appear'd again before y^e Heads of Houses, and gave in his Answer that he did not think himself bound to answer y^e Interrogatories upon Oath, (1) Because it was a Criminal Cause. (2) Be-
 40 cause he conceiv'd y^e university Statute did not oblige him. On Saturday Sept. 7th. Mr. Hart was call'd again before y^e Delegates, when his Answer was agreed to be sent up to Court: and 'twas so accordingly, & y^e university clear'd themselves; so y^t now y^e Business must fall upon y^e Court wholly. — . . .

THE RESOLUTIONS OF Y^e PARLIAM^t OF GOTHAM ASSEMBLED THE 6th OF DECEMBER 1641.

1. Res. That y^e Maxims and Politicks of y^e most renowned Province of Gotham are and shall be contrary to all other wise Governments whatsoever.
2. That if any Counsellor of State wthin this Province shall presume to offer any Advice that looks like y^e Wisdom and Precautions of other Nations, He shall for so doing be deem'd an Enemy to y^e Publick & an Adherer to Forreign Interest.

3. That if any Motion be made by any Member of this House who is the least suspected of Common Sense or Honesty, it shall for y^t very reason be rejected.

4. That no Bill be at any time hereafter brought into this House to prevent Occasional Conformity, because this State has in former times succeeded so ill in endeavouring to hedge in y^e Cuckow.

5. That all due encouragement be given to Hypocrites, and that they be 10 upon all occasions employ'd by y^e State; because all other Countries are so cruel as not to trust them.

6. That Popish Principles transplanted into a Protestant Climate are peculiarly wholesome and savoury to y^e state wherein they grow.

7. That 'tis Expedient y^t y^e Protestants of Gotham as well y^e Clergy as y^e Laity be implicit Believers.

8. That if any subject of Gotham shall henceforth pretend to give credit to his senses, he shall for y^t reason be reckon'd out of Senses, and shall be dealt wth all accordingly.

9. That it is dangerous to y^e State to apprehend Danger too soone or to go 20 about to prevent it, e're it be too late.

10. That y^e furiosest Presbyterians beyond y^e River Tweed are y^e properest Guardians of moderate Episcopacy about Trent.

11. That y^e Bishops of Gotham be commission'd to treat with the Ultra-Tweedan Presbyters concerning an Union as well Ecclesiastical as Civil.

12. That an unlimited Toleration in y^e Province of Gotham, and an unrestrain'd Persecution of y^e Episcopal Party ultra Tweedam is y^e Foundation of Union betwixt y^e two Provinces.

13. That if any Subject of Gotham in order to obstruct y^e said Union, shall complain of y^e said Persecution, he's an Enemy to Moderation, and to y^e Peace 30 and Welfare of both Provinces.

14. That for y^e universal encouragement of Loyalty to y^e State all Remembrances of past Services and Disservices be for ever blotted out, and y^e standing Rule for y^e future be Tros Tyrivusve fuat nullo discrimine habetur.

15. That y^e State cannot be safe from a Forreign Power without destroying it's own Constitution.

16. Finally, that there be Conservators of y^e Publick who upon any Extraordinary Emergency shall be empower'd to destroy y^e Constitution in order to preserve it & make it prosperous.

Tim. Thoughtless Cler.

Par. in Prov. Gotham.

NB. If there is anything in these Resolves that may seem to runne counter to y^e General Notions of Mankind, it must be observ'd the Gothamites have Customs and Practises vastly different from all other People and perhaps hardly consistent with y^mselves.

Aug. 19. Hudson to H. Has dined with Dr. Hutton [of Aynhoe] who would digest some of his papers and prepare them for the press if he were but encouraged with a dignity in the Church. . . 'Tis certain he's not for Clodpates turn, for y^e acct^s of his assisting Atterbury.' Hutton has received from

Sept. 6 (Fri.). The Chancellor sent on Friday last another very pressing Letter to the Vice-Chanc. to have Mr. Hart examin'd upon Oath. The Vice-Chancellor at a Meeting of Heads y^e day following had y^e Matter again debated. Dr. Bouchier who was then present shew'd both from Common and Civil Law y^t y^e Vice-Chancellor was not oblig'd to tender an Oath when no body accus'd, nor Mr. Hart to answer upon oath, when no particular Allegations were brought against Him. After this Mr. Hart was call'd into y^e Apodyterium where he deliver'd y^e Vicechancellor a paper wth a Request y^t it might be transmitted to y^e Chancellor. The substance of it was that he was advis'd by the learn'd in y^e Law not to answer upon Oath to any thing, 'till his Accusers should appear, & give in their exceptions against his Sermon. And particularly own'd, y^t he had no manner of Reflection upon y^e Union, nor any thing in his Sermon y^t insinuated y^e Church was in any Danger from y^e Government; but only y^t some Danger seem'd to threaten it from y^e Growth of Atheism & Prophaneness & y^e Pre-

Sends a mem. for Dr. Sike of a transcript of Abulfeda by Dr. Gise in All Souls' Library. Congratulates Mr. Hart on his escape from the London Inquisitors. Condemns Kennett and his Life of Charles I. Criticises unfavourably the Origin and Antiquity of English Weights and Measures. Antiquities of Middlesex a booksellers' compilation from Weaver &c.; hopes well of Collier's Ecclesiastical History. The proposed Life of Charles II. Rights of the Christian Church ought to be answered by one of the Bishops or their dependents. Wotton's Life of Boyle should have been in Latin. He would give the Habits of y^e several Ages, as near as he ¹⁰ can from MSS^{ts} &c. if he were not afraid twould give offence. — Upon y^e Turning out from Court of y^e Earl of Abbingdon, the Earl remov'd y^e Horse-Race, w^{ch} us'd to be yearly, for a Plate w^{ch} he gave, at Woodstock, to Port-Meadow by Oxford. Upon w^{ch} the Dutchess of Marlborough continu'd it, beginning last year, when only a parcel of Whiggish, Mobbish People appear'd. And this Year, a Plate being given by her of 50 lib^s, 'twas run for on y^e Eleventh of Sept. when but one Horse run viz. y^t of y^e L^d. Kingston: so y^t there was no manner of sport, & 'tis thought y^e Dutchess of Marlborough, an insatiable covetous proud Woman will have y^e Plate again as a present from y^t Lord, who ²⁰ is a most Rank Whig. Sept. 7. Dr. T. Smith to H. Had heard of Dr. Bayley's legacy; will lay aside all resentment &c. Sorry to hear that Mr. Hart is to be farther troubled; the oath ex officio obsolete. Will read Kennett's Lives. Mr. Bennett, the bookseller, said to have died worth above £10,000; 'Dr. Fr. and Government of w^{ch} y^e Person y^t y^e same was spoke to made no Deposition 'till Aug. last. — A new Book is come out intit. The History of y^e Church in respect both to it's antient & present Condition &c. written by one called a High Church-Man. It's something in y^e strain of y^e Memorial, & if it offends not y^e Government, it's certain 'twill make y^e Whig Pamphletti^{ers} yelp. A Book is published ag^t y^e Union in Scotland supposed to be written by Mr. Fletcher. — On Friday the 13th of this Instant Sept. died Mr. William Joyner who had been twice Fellow of Magd. College. He turned Roman Catholick after his being 10 turned out in Oliver's time. After y^t he went beyond Sea, was entertain'd and patroniz'd by several Great Persons, & lived a Papist to his dying day, being always chearfull & continually speaking well of y^e true Protestants; but he could not endure y^e Presbyterians, or any of y^t side, whom he commonly call'd Puritans. Upon King James's turning out y^e Fellows of Magd. he was restored, but quickly outed again. After w^{ch} he lived in a retired Condition partly near Brill in Oxonshire & partly in a House adjoining to y^e North Part of Holywell Church in Oxon, in y^e last of w^{ch} places he died & was buried in y^e Church yard of y^t Place. He died pretty wealthy. There were besides the Minister

Bennett* y^e Bookseller in St. Paul's Church at Lond. is printed: He extolls him mightily for his Industry, Prudence, Skill in his Profession, Integrity, Piety &c. — In pag. 118. of Wendelin's Book de legibus salicis mention made of a MS^t of Livy in Chiffletus's Library. A. 1. 7. Med. Seld. — Dr. Hough, Bp. of Lichf. & Cov. was Fellow originally of Magdalen Coll. afterwards he was Chaplain to y^e Old Duke of Ormond, Chanc. of y^e Univer. of Oxon. & upon y^e Death of Dr. Clerk President of y^t Coll. he succeeded 30 him as President, & a little after was made Bp. of Oxon w^{ch} he held wth his Presidentship. Being weary of y^t Place, by the Whiggish Interest, w^{ch} he devoted himself to, was promoted to y^e See of Lichf. & Cov. & then (for most of our Bps have married after they were made Bps some of 'em once, & some twice, to y^e Great Prejudice of y^e Church.) according to y^e Custom of y^e Age married a swinging fat Wife. He is not famed for doing much Good, & the best thing I ever heard of him was his bestowing a Prebend of Lichf. upon Mr. Collins: w^{ch} Mr. Collins was originally of Ball. or Trinity College (for he was of them both) & afterwards was made Vice-Principal of Glouc. Hall & then School-Master of

Perhaps more of him hereafter. — Mills of X^t Church so far from understanding y^e Fathers y^t in the Book he is now ab^t ag^t his Friend Mr. Dodwell he always makes use of Sculletus's Medulla Theologie Patrum, & being in great perplexity how to get it finish'd often runs to Dr. Cudworth's Intellectual System. — Dr. Hudson has often inquir'd of Mr. Joyner who was intimately acquainted with Mr. Milton whether y^e said Mr. Milton dyed a Papist or No? To w^{ch} Mr. Joyner constantly reply'd y^t he was sure he did not. Yet for all this 'tis credibly reported declar'd publickly in Company that his Brother died a Papist & had liv'd in y^t Communion for above ten years. For further satisfaction abt this consult a sermon printed by Dr. Binks now Dean of Lichfield, w^{ch} was preach'd at y^e Assize at Warwick. — Dr. Hudson saw a Letter this Day under Baron Spanheim's own Hand, w^{ch} assures us y^t he has full Liberty from y^e King of Prussia to spend y^e remainder of his Days in England or any other Place, & y^t y^e King has given him a Pension of 4000 Crowns per annum. Baron Spanheim has a great many things w^{ch} will be serviceable in a new Edition of Josephus, w^{ch} as soon as he has a little leisure to digest he has promis'd to communicate y^m. — Dr. ¹⁰ Moreton formerly of X^t Church & Amanuensis to y^e famous Dr. Hammond succeeded Dr. ¹ Sherringham who was Deprived for refusing y^e Oaths to K. Sept. 21. Dr. T. Smith to H. An attack on the Whigs, sectaries, Scotch Presbyterians &c. à propos of Mr. Hart. Condemns Madox' censure of Dodsworth (see *Hist. of Cott. of it, when the humour takes. — Books sent by Passioneo to Dr. Hudson [5-6]. . . Mr. Nic. Stampeel of Hamburg entered Student in y^e Public Library the 12 of this Month. A Studious, civil Gentleman. He look'd over Junius's MSS. & some others. If he had an opportunity he would publish Tatian's Harmonia Evang. — Ask Dr. Smith abt one Slatter. He transcrib'd lately a Piece of Sr. Robt. Cotton out of Dodesworth's Papers vol. 140. — There is just now come out a Book in 8^{vo}. agt Mr. Dodwell's Book agt y^e Soul, by Mr. Edm. Chishull, who took his Master of Arts Degree in y^e year 1693, a little after w^{ch} he was Repeater of y^e Easter Sermons at St. Marie's whereby he shew'd himself to be a man

 10 of good Memory, & much abt y^t time he went Chaplain to y^e Factory at Smyrna, at w^{ch} time he collected some Inscriptions w^{ch} it may be are valuable. He was esteem'd once a man of Modesty amongst novices, but never as I can hear amongst men of Judgm^t and Learning, w^{ch} latter opinion of him he has sufficiently made good by his new Book (w^{ch} is only the first Part) in w^{ch} he has very impudently rank'd Mr. Dodwell amongst y^e Meaner Sort of Writers, detracted from his Character, and as much as possible endeavour'd to blast y^e Reputation he had deservedly obtain'd of being a most Profound Scholar, a most Pious man, and one of y^e Greatest Integrity; w^{ch} shews he had nothing else to say agt his 20 Book: & therefore when Mr. Chishull comes to be consider'd in y^e Continuation of Athenæ Oxon he must be mention'd as a Confident, Opinative, little Writer, & must be reckon'd as one of little sense for pretending to speak so scurvily of one who has establish'd so good a Character all over y^e Learned World. This Mr. Chishull's way of Preaching is by heart, & he appears plausible enough; but there is little Judgm^t in w^t he says, as appears from w^t he has publish'd of y^t nature in a certain Sermon preach'd when he went Chaplain to y^e Factory. The Society of Corpus take him to be an affected person &c. — As for Mr. Dodwell (I speak w^t I have certain knowledge of by being in y^e House) he is so constant bridge.' Will send Tatian, Lomatus' Treatise of Painting, &c., translated by Rich. Haydocke, and dedicated to Sir T. Bodley (Oxford: Joseph Barnes, 1598). Mr. Collins made Preb. of Lichfield—'one of y^e best things Dr. Hough ever did.' H. to Dr. T. Smith. Mr. Anderson engaged upon a Scotch Res Diplomatica; materials scanty. Mr. Maddox thinks little of Rymer's judgment. List of books presented by Abbot Passioneo, chiefly printed at Rome 1700-5, and including Sacra Exsequialia in funere Jacobi II. Mag. Brit. Regis descripta à Carolo de Aquino (Romæ, 1703 fol.). 'A great curiosity. Three guineas were offer'd for this Book when 'twas brought over, by a Curious Gentleman.' Dr. Mill has presented £10 worth of Books to the Library, including F. Pagi's work on Baronius' Annals. Unfavourable opinion of Mr. Chishull and his answer to Dodwell. Death of Joyner (13th inst.); in spite of his denial 'tis credibly reported that Sir C. Milton publicly declared that his brother died a Papist, and had been so for ten years before. Has reason to believe Dr. Hudson author of the Censure of Burnet. Among recent visitors to the Library are Slatter a lawyer, and Stampeel a Ham-burger; the latter wished he had an opportunity of publishing Tatian's Harmonia Evangelica.

Oct. 1 (Tu.). I have inquir'd into Mr. Chishull's Character, & can get no other answer yⁿ that he was always a Rangling Fellow, & better at Raillery & banter yⁿ Argum^t or Learning, w^{ch} he has abundantly made good by his new Book, w^{ch} is stuff'd wth y^t Billingsgate, unchristian Language, as makes it laid aside by all Readers in Oxoⁿ who desire to be inform'd in y^e Subject; & blame him mightily for meddling wth Mr. Dodwell's Person, when he is well known never to use y^t method himself. — Mr. Fletcher M. of Arts and Fellow lately of New-College, when Bach. of Arts or Under-Graduate (Quære) publish'd a Book of Poëms. He was afterwards preferr'd to be under-schoolemaster of 10 Winchester. He married a Daughter in Law of Mr. Masters who was formerly Fellow of New-College and afterwards Parson of Holton near Oxoⁿ. W^{ch} Mr. Masters died of y^e Small-Pox in y^e Parsonage House where he constantly resided & kept Hospitality. After him Dr. Dunster Warden of Wadham (who had y^e Great Living of Marsh in Bucks) was either because he was a Whig or gave Money as twas suspected preferr'd to y^e said Living by Mr. Whorwood a Fanatical Bastard son of y^e old Rogue Brome Whorwood by y^e famous Strumpet Kate Allen. This Dunster one of y^e Violentest Whiggs & most Rascally Low-Church Men of y^e Age never goes near either of these Parsonages, unless it be to 20 receive his Money, to y^e great Scandal of y^e Church & prejudice of Religion: & it has been observ'd of him y^t for all his Preferment he is very poor, being much given to Luxury & like his Crony Royce to spend all upon his Gutt. — Dr. Code originally commoner of Queen's College afterwards when Bach. of Arts made Fellow of All-Souls. Before or a little after his taking his Master's Degree he had y^e Good Luck to have an Estate fall to him. Which made him richer but no better; for being oblig'd to go out Grand Compounder for y^e Degree of Bach. of Physick he could for y^e filthy Lucre of a little Money swear he could not spend 40 lib^s. per annum. He practises Physick, & pretends to be a very high 30 Church Man, but is never for promoting any thing in y^e University y^t tends to y^e Interest of Learning, or y^e Honour of y^t Place.

The Zeal your Majesty has been pleas'd to express for y^e Interest & Honour of Religion, makes us hope y^t Learning (w^{ch} is so necessary for y^e Support of 30 it) will not want your Majesty's Patronage & Protection. It has always been y^e Glory of Princes to encourage the Promoters of such Arts & Sciences as encrease the Powers of Mankind & free them from y^e Bondage of Errors; nor has it been thought unbecoming their Majesty to rescue their Labours & Inventions from y^e Injury of time & y^e Fate of Mortality. Oct. 5. Dr. T. Smith to H. Mr. Anderson has returned to Scotland; Mr. Atwood has written another large book against him. A little Society of Antiquaries in Edinburgh are collecting all parchments and papers which might illustrate Scottish history and antiquities; but most must come from England, especially from the Archives of Durham. Madox' censure of Rymer very silly and unjust. Will borrow Fontaninus of Dr. Hickes. Query about Pagi's Critica Historico-chronologica in Annales Baronii (Paris 1689). Remarks on Dodwell and his opponents. 'That the great villayne, John Milton, dyed a Papist, was wholly unknown to mee before.' Hears that Mr. Slatter is very studious, and a great buyer of books, and far enough at present from designing to be an author. Asks for a copy of Hyde's inscription in Cbaria authentica Roberti Seneschalli Scotiae, presented by Smith.

Kings of Egypt & Pergamus are y^e first upon Record y^t collected y^e Writings of y^e Ancients & Establish'd y^e way to preserve them intire to future Ages: which has reflected as great a Lustre on their Memorys, as if they had enlarged their Empires and laid Chains on y^e Necks of Conquer'd Nations. Oct. 9 (Wed.). The Queen has created his Highness *George Augustus*¹, Electoral Prince of Hanover, a Peer of this Kingdom by y^e Stile & Titles of Baron of Tewkesbury, Viscount Northallerton, Earl of Milford-Haven, Marquess & Duke of Cambridge. — This Day at two Clock Afternoon was a Convocation, for Chusing a Vice-Chancellor for y^e Year ensuing, when the Chancellor's Letter being read wherein Dr. Lancaster Provost of Queen's was Nominated, he was accordingly approv'd by y^e whole Body nemine contrad. After w^{ch} Dr. De Laune, upon laying down his Office (which he had born four years) made a speech as usuall, giving a laudable character of his Successor, for his Parts, Learning, Piety, Integrity & Zeal both to y^e Church & university; w^{ch} 30 consider'd the Members thereof need not fear to receive all y^e Benefit & Advantages from him w^{ch} could be expected from a Vice-Chancellor, & they might hope to have an End put to those Schisms & Confusions w^{ch} now disturb the whole Kingdom, provided a like Assistance were given by others. When he had Ended Dr. Lancaster being first sworn stood up and made a Speech, w^{ch} was neatly penn'd. In it he shew'd how difficult a post he was Enter'd upon & how unfit he was to manage it, especially since his Predecessor (as he said) so much exceeded him in all Qualifications necessary to it, & wthall he had a Large Cure of 40 Souls w^{ch} would take up a good part of his time. However he assur'd them y^t since y^e Chancellor had been pleas'd to nominate, & y^e Convocation to confirm him, he would take as much Care as possible, & endeavour all he could to manage the trust committed to him to y^e Honour & Credit of y^e university; & for y^t End he hop'd the Seniors of y^e university, especially those who had y^e more immediate Care of Youth, would joyn wth him in stiffling the Mischiefs of ill & pernicious Books, written on purpose to ruin both y^e Church & university, & bring a Disgrace upon Learning & Religion, among w^{ch} he nam'd Dr. Tyndale's Book of y^e R^{ts} of y^e Church, in w^{ch} are publish'd new Forms of

Ecclesiastical & Civil Govern^{mt}. & Mr. Lock's Humane understanding, written to advance new Schemes of Philosophy & bring an odium upon Ancient Learning. This Dr. Lancaster has publish'd some Sermons, & is reckon'd a good natur'd¹ man, tho' he formerly gave an Instance to y^e contrary, being one of those who turn'd by Dr. Hudson from a Fellowship in Queen's. — Provice-Chancellors are Dr. Paynter, Dr. Charlett, Dr. De Laune & Dr. Gardiner. — Mr. Baxter an Eminent School-Master (who put out Horace & Anacreon, & was the chief Mourner at y^e famous Mr. Rich. Baxter's Funeral, who was his Near Relation) did 10 assure Mr. Halley that old Baxter, when he was open'd after his Death had a Gaul in him as large as that of an Horse. . . . — Mr. Flamstead the Queen's Professor of Astronomy at Greenwich, (whether he was originally of any university or no I cannot yet tell, tho' I believe he had an Honorary Degree of Master of Arts conferr'd upon him at Cambridge) is now publishing his Astronomical observations at y^e Expence of y^e Prince of Denmark: & 'tis said he would have been a better Astronomer if he had understood a little more of Geometry (in w^{ch} science y^e Great Hevelius was remarkably defective). He is a narrow spirited Fellow, has been barbarous to y^e Memory of King Charles II who preferr'd him:
 20 & whether he has been ever gratefull or no to y^e Lord Keeper North who gave him a good Living I want to be inform'd. However this is certain that whilst he gazes at y^e Heavens he neglects to conduct y^e Souls of his Parishioners thither. — 'Twas a memorable saying of my L^d. Bacon that a Little Learning made men Atheists, but a great deal reduces them to a better sense of things: so it may be said y^t a smattering in Learning makes men ungratefull to y^e^r Mother y^e university, when as those who have a better stock of it are always willing to shew their Gratitude, witness Sr. Thomas Bodley, Archbp. Laud, Mr. Selden, Bp. Barlow, Bp. Fell, Dr. Marshall, &c.

30 Oct. 13 (Sun.). This Morning preach'd at X^t-Church Mr. Adams Student of that Place, upon Luke 7. 33, 34, 35.

'Twas y^e 2^d Part of a former Discourse preach'd Apr. 28 last, & now he endeavour'd to prove, that notwthstanding good & honest Men meet wth Affronts & Abuses from the world yet they ought to persevere in their Integrity, & undauntedly to go on in their Practise of Virtue: w^{ch} he did from these considerations, 1st y^e shame that attends y^e Desertion of good Principles, 2. that tho' there may be far y^e greatest part of Men who traduce Virtue & encourage Vice, yet the wisest Part of Mankind will always honour & reverence the virtuous. 3. That tho' there should be a universal Conspiracy ag^t

Oct. 12. H. to Dr. T. Smith. Mention of a Society of Antiquaries at Edinburgh. Dr. Hudson has sent a box of books to Rome. Cancelled Inscription in Charta Authentica Roberti Seneschalli Scotiae, presented by Smith; will see justice done him. Dr. De Laune succeeded as V. C. by Dr. Lancaster; the latter in his speech condemned Tindal, and Locke's Human Understanding. Doubtful how Dr. Wynne, who abridged the latter, relished it. Dr. Wynne upholds his principles about Government at the Coffee House. Vol I. of Livy will be printed off next week.

Oct. 14 (Mon.). Quære? I think Mr. Andr. Allam's Tutor was Mr. Edwards Vice-Principal of Edm. Hall, a Welsh-Man & of a very crazed, whimsical Temper, & void of Parts or Learning. — About y^e Age of Pindar see . . . Raderus. pag. 396. upon y^e Chron. Paschale. — Dr. Bathurst by his will left w^t Coyns he had y^t were wanting to y^e Publick Library. Upon comparing y^m wth y^e Catalogue it appear'd that we wanted 15, viz. 7 Silver & 8 Brass.

Oct. 15 (Tu.). Out of Dr. Bathurst's Will. [31-34]. . . . Mr. Hinton, Chaplain of Corpus X^a College, told me last Night y^t when Mr. Chishull was in Holland, a certain Professor of those Parts came to him & ask'd him w^t news from England. To w^{ch} Mr. Chishull reply'd y^t he had not heard any of late; upon w^{ch} says the Professor, Decessit Hydius stupor mundi, Dr. Hyde being dead a little before, & of w^{ch} he had rec'd a Letter. This shews the Great Respect & veneration they had for y^e Doctor upon Account of his wonderfull skill in the oriental Tongues: but as for Mr. Chishull he told this about on purpose to ridicule the Germans, thinking they had not much Judgment in thinking so honourably of y^e Doctor. Which is an argument of his Arrogance & Pride, as likewise is his preaching about two years since at St. Peter's in y^e East, wherein he abus'd in a most impudent, scandalous Manner the present Lord Br. of Worcester. These things might have been well enough past by in silence, were it not for his greater Abuse of y^t Good & Learned Man Mr. Dodwell, at w^{ch} y^e World even Mr. Dodwell's greatest Enemies crie out shame, and even Mr. Hinton blames him for it to the highest Degree.

Oct. 17 (Th.). Mr. Basil Kennett has just publish'd a thin Book in 8^{vo}. containing a Paraphrase in Verse on some parts of y^e Bible. — 30
 1 One Old-Field has published a Book against Mr. Dodwell. Quære whether he be not a Presbyterian. — Dr. Hammond in some Part of his Works has an Account of y^e Image of Both Churches, written by Father Paterson as he says. 'Tis a very shrewd Book, and a certaine Dr. of y^e Civil Law in this university has once or twice told me y^t Mr. William Rogers of Gloucestershire (the same Rogers who put up y^e Statue of King James over the Gate of University College, which they neglect at present, the Inscription under being worn almost out) some years since in Discourse about Matters of Religion, recommended it to him for satisfying him in Objections against y^e Roman Catholick 40
 Religion. — Memorandum that y^t Part of Dr. Bathurst's Funeral relating to his Request y^t a Sear-Cloath should be put over his face when dead (to prevent his coming to life again) is printed in the yearly Account of English Affairs for y^t year wherein he died. — Mr. Hinton of Corpus X^a tells me y^t when he was in y^e Country Sr. Andrew Fountaine told him of a great Curiosity lately discovered, viz. a Study of Books, mostly MSS^{ts}, besides divers ancient Rolls. It has continued several Years, the Persons concerned having neglected to break it open, & S^r. Andrew has been desired to look them over. Remember to inquire into this Matter, & what y^e Books may be. The Gentleman to whom they formerly belong'd being a Lawyer 'tis probable there may be some relating to y^e English History, especially our Religious Houses. M^r. Rymer should be inform'd of this.

Oct. 19 (Sat.). M^r. Baxter (W^m.) the Schoolmaster has ready, or 10 very near ready, for y^e Press, Glossarium Britannicum, a Specimen whereof may be seen in a Part of y^e Philosophical Transactions just come out. It seems by y^t to be a very curious Work, & y^e Author shews himself to be a scholar and a good Antiquary, as M^r. Llhuyd has also told me he is, who further added to me y^t he is tho' related yet of quite different Principles from the noted Rich. Baxter. — There is just come downe in 8^{vo}. an Answer of 6^d. Price to Dr. Wells's Pieces against M^r. Dowley. The Author's Name, I think, not added. — Just printed in
 80. in one Sheet the Articles agreed upon by the English and Scotch Commissioners for an Union wth Scotland. They are strangely in favour 20 of & for y^e Advantage of y^e Scotch Nation, & if they should be consented to by y^e Parliam^{ts} of both Kingdoms they would as some judge ruine our Nation. But we must leave y^t to time. — Dr. Wynne tells me y^t he some years since compar'd B^p. Burnett's Abridgm^t of y^e History of y^e Reformation wth the History it self, and put down the differences, and made divers observations upon the Particulars; which he shew'd to Dr. Maurice y^e Margaret Professor of Divinity, who was very urgent to have him print them: but he refus'd. — Remember to look over M^r. Leland's Papers whether he makes mention of any MSS. of Livy, as also to inquire about Boston of Bury, whether he has any good Account of y^e 30 MSS. in England in his Time of this Author. — M^r. Llhuyd has just Printed in his first Volume (almost ready for Publication) a Catalogue in Latin of y^e Welsh or British Writers, w^{ch} he drew up some years since at y^e Request of M^r. Tanner who promis'd him to bring it into his Edition of Leland de scriptoribus. M^r. Llhuyd would not have printed it now, only he dreads somew^t y^e Miscarriage of y^t Design.

Oct. 19. E. Smith to H. Sends a string of literary queries on behalf of a friend. 'I'm informed here y^t y^e prophecy "When y^e Church and y^e Hill to y^e Danube advances &c." was really in y^e Hands of M^r. Hall of Queens y^e Winter before y^e Battle of Blenheim was fought.' 'A most extraordinary Oration providentially discovered in y^e Paper Office ag^t making peace with France,' anno 1 Henry VIII. Toland is editing it. He is making collections for his Brutus and Life of Socrates. Literary gossip. Brockelsby's Christian Deism—'the prodigious Mass of Learning y^t was ever printed in English Tongue.' Dr. T. Smith to H. Remarks on the new and the late V. C. Will send news about Anderson and the Society of Antiquaries. Wishes for a correspondent in Scotland, but cannot give himself leave to have anything to do, in the way of familiar writing, with a Presbyterian, though in a matter of mere curiosity and learning. Remarks on Pagi and Montfaucon. Can't understand Dr. Hyde's cancelling the acknowledgment; Mabillon has reprinted the piece in the Supplement to de Re diplomatica. Remarks on the V. C., Dr. Wynne, and Livy.

Oct. 20 (Sun.). Remember in y^e Preface to Livy when y^e MS^t w^{ch} I have noted all along by y^e Letter B. is mentioned to note y^t 'tis a very good one & agrees for y^e most part with y^e Emendations made by Sigonius from his Books. — I am told by one who has had occasion to examin y^t Mr. Eachard's little Book of Geography is stolen from a certain French Book, which has been translated into English. The Name of y^e Author I forget. Quære? This Mr. Eachard also stole his Roman History from Dr. Howell's History, w^{thout} so much as making acknowledgment, as he has not done of any Authors he made use of. — He that shall put out a new Edition of Tacitus must remember to 10 look over Mr. Rich. James's Account of y^e Isle of Wight in MS^t in y^e Bodlejan Library. Also Mr. Leland's Glossary or Explication of Names at y^e End of his Cygnæ Cantio. as likewise Mr. Leland's MSS^t Papers relating to some Geographical things of Britain. — A great number of Coyns, of y^e lesser sort, found lately near Abbingdon. Enquire about them.

Oct. 21 (Mon.). Remember to ask Dr. Smith who first publish'd Charta Authentica Roberti Seneschalli Scotiae, &c. lately Reprinted at y^e End of Mabillon's Supplem^t to his Book de re diplomatica. — Dr. Mill is of opinion y^t the Specimens of Hands in Mabillon's Book de re diplo- 20 matica, are all wrong, and y^t they are not to be depended upon, not y^t he thinks Mabillon is to be blamed, but y^e Ingraver, who was imploy'd, who might err for want of Mabillon's being ready always to direct, or it may be y^e Ingraver might not take them immediately from the originals but from some transcripts. — Dr. Mill is of opinion y^t there cannot be any great matter considerable in the Collectio nova Patrum & Scriptorum Græcorum Eusebij Cæsariensis, S. Athanasij, & Cosmæ Egyptij, just now publish'd in two Vols in fol. by the Learned Benedictine Montfaucon. But I am apt to think y^e contrary. Ask Dr. Smith about it. — Mr. Parker (George) the Almanack Maker was fin'd last sessions at y^e Old 30 Bailey 20 Markes, & to find security for his good Behaviour for 6 Months for Inserting in y^e Genealogy of y^e Kings & Princes in his last Almanack y^e Pr. of Wales and his Sister. — Friday last y^e Printer of y^e Review was carried by y^e Messenger of y^e Press before my L^d. C. Justice & bound wth two good sureties to appear y^e 1st day of y^e next Terme in y^e Court of Queen's Bench Westm. to answer to w^t shall be objected against him by y^e Queen's Attorney General. — Mr. Foe author of y^t Paper is also sought for upon y^e same Account. 'Tis for his Review of y^e 1st Instant in w^{ch} he scurrilously & Impudently treats the L^d. Chief Justice Holt, on Account of his Speech last Assizes as if his L^dship had 40 reflected on y^e Scoil. union. — Memorandum That when Mr. Tho. Lydiatt was in Prison, occasion'd by his being bound for some Relations, where he lay a long time, Bp. Usher, who was his great Friend, paid 300 lib^s. or more for him, as I have heard it said. Quære in Mr. Lydiatt's Letters MSS. in the Publick Library, also in Archbp. Usher's Life, & Mr. Wood's Account of Mr. Lydiatt. — Dr. Mill tells me y^t Dr. Potter has Clemens Alexandrinus ready for y^e Press, but y^t he cannot get any Book-seller to undertake it. And y^t Dr. Potter has made very curious Emendations. But I am apt to think he has not consulted Books enough upon this occasion.

Oct. 23 (Wed.). I am told y^t in one of y^e Windows of y^e Church of Wanfield in Berks is the Effigies of K. Hen. VI by w^{ch} it should seem, that he painted part of y^e Windows, or else y^t he was a Benefactor to y^t in some other Respect. Quære in Mr. Ashmol's Inscriptions &c. in this County, amongst his Books in the Museum. — Newly come out An Explication of y^e Gospel-Theism, &c. by Rich. Brocklesby, a X^{tian} Trinitarian. fol. printed for y^e Author. I am told 'tis a very learned Work. Quære. — An Account of y^e Breeding of Worms in Humane Bodies: Their Nature & several sorts: Their Effects, Symptoms, & Prognosticks: 10 wth y^e true means to avoid them, & medicines to cure y^m. Oct. 25 (Fri.). Lately dead Mr. Stephen Penton Bach of Div. formerly Fellow of New-Coll. afterw^{ds} Principal of St. Edm. Hall & Rector of Glympton near Oxon., & at length Prebendary of Rippon in Yorksh. in w^{ch} County he had a Living. He might have had other Preferm^t if he had pleas'd; but he always declin'd Greatness, being a truly Honest, good Man, & an Excell^t Scholar, & of so good & facetious a temper (w^{thout} Reserve) y^t he was belov'd by all that knew him. He has written Apparatus ad Theologiam. Lond. 1688. 8^o. and two little things in 8^o 20 about y^e Guardian's Duty. — . . . This being the Day on w^{ch} the Fellows of *Magd. He was a younger son of Heneage Finch Earl of Nottingham, & was because of his Birth, more than Parts, he being but a degree from a Natural, & upon y^t Account by some stiled the Plant Animal, made Secretary to y^e Plantations. — The Dean of X^t Church has a MS^t written in y^e time of K. Edw. III. Quære w^t it is? — D^r. Finch left above 10000 lib^r. to my L^d. Nottingham, 300 lib^r. to his Sister, and nothing to 30 y^e College. or any one else. — At y^e End of Homer's Iliads pr. in Greek by Asulanus 1524. 8^o, this Memorandum. *Homerus ille, quem Aldus hac eadem forma domi suæ edidit, longe est emendatior. Oct. 22. Pat. Gordon to H. Hopes to see Henry VIII's Psalter when he comes to Oxford. Dodwell to H. Chishull's attack and his answer. More answers forthcoming, from Dr. Whitby and another. Mr. Fox full of prejudice. Remarks on Livian chronology.

Industry. 'Tis 7 shillings Price. — The Book above mention'd of the Dean of X' Church's was written by Walter de Millemet Clericus, in the year 1326, viz. the 1st of the Reign of Edw. 3. It begins thus—

Hic incipiunt Rubricæ capitulorum hujus libri de Nobilitatibus, Sapiencijs & Prudencijs Regum, editi ad honorem illustris domini Edwardi dei gracia Regis Angliæ incipientis regnare, anno Domini ab incarnatione milesimo, trecentesimo, vicesimo sexto.

Tis in quarto & most curiously illuminated, containing some of the chief Courtiers, &c. of that time, Arms, Birds, Beasts, &c. The Author I do not find mention'd in Leland, Bale, or Pits. The Shoes then without Heels as appears from the Pictures. At the End of the Rubricks. 10 The Pictures of King Edw. III. & Queen Philippa. The Book itself begins thus, De Invocatione dei nominis in principio cujuslibet operis.—In nomine patris & filij & spiritus sancti amen. In principio cujuslibet operis est nomen sancte & individue &c. In the 2^d page the Arms of the King of England. After that follow the Arms of the Prince of Wales, the Pictures of Courtney, & Wake, The Arms of Thomas Brotherton Earl of Norfolk, viz. Gules, 3 Lyons pas. or, a file of five. 2. of Edmund de Woodstock, viz. Gules 3 Lyons passant or, within a Border Arg. with other Arms of y^t Nature. The II^d chapter is Epistola Allectiva [ad] Dominum Regem ad scienciæ Regalis cognitionem. Just above y^e Beginning of this chapter King Edward III is painted, &c. as also he is in several places. Presently after the Beginning of this chapter is the Author's Name viz. Walterus de Millemete. At the bottom of one Page of this Chapter, are y^e Arms of Henry Earl of Lancaster viz. Gules 3 Lyons pass. guardant, or, a Bendlet Azure. (2) of Edm. Earl of Lancaster, viz. Gules, 3 Lyons Pass. guard. over all a file of five Azure each charg'd with 3 flower de 20 Luces or. From this chapter it appears y^t this Author transcrib'd Aristotle's Book intitled de secretis secretorum (wh^{ch} Aristotle had presented to Alexander the Great) for y^e use of K. Edw. & y^t w^t he has writ in this Book was only by way of Supplement & Explication. This to be 30 taken Notice of hereafter by y^e Editor of Aristotle's Works. The Author very free in telling the King to preserve the Rights and Liberties of the Church. The Gloves much then as the tip'd Gloves now. The Arms of John de Eltham Earl of Cornwall, viz. Gules, 3 Lyons, pass. guard. within a Bordure arg. charg'd with 12 Flower de Luces. No Sleeves to y^eir Coats. — I take this to have been y^e very copy that was presented to King Edw. by y^e Author. — Mr. Wotton has a sermon preach'd at y^e Primary Visitation of y^e Bp. of Lincoln, (against Dr. Tyndale's Rights of y^e Church,) whereof there is come out a 2^d Edition. — There is an Answer to or else Reflections come out upon Dr. Atterbury's Sermon 40 at Mr. Bennett's Funeral.

Oct. 27 (Sun.). Dr. Finch above mention'd, some years agoe being at Dick Clarks at Iffley, where there was a Merry Meeting, ab^t 9 or 10 at night, after a great many things pass'd between him & M^{rs}. Colebury Crooke, sister to Col. Crooke of Studley, was, as 'tis said, married to her, by Mr. Rich. Houghton, A.M. and chaplain of Queen's Coll. & Dr. Halton's Curate at Iffley. . . . When this matter began to be discours'd of in Oxon, and nois'd abroad, Dr. Finche's Friends made him utterly disown y^e Marriage, as some think, contrary to his own Inclinations. Upon this the matter was brought into y^e Vice-Chancellor's Court : Mr. Houghton, 50 partly out of fear of incurring Dr. Halton's Displeasure, & partly for some other Reasons, best known to himself, shuffled in y^e Court, & would not own y^t Dr. Finch repeated the words after him; and Dr. Bouchier, the Judge of y^e Court, being influenc'd by My Ld. Nottingham, &, as some think, some Guineas, the power whereof he is not proof against, adjudg'd the matter in favour of Dr. Finch, & so the matter was drop't, tho' wth this Proviso that Dr. Finch should allow her some consideration, w^{ch} accordingly, as I am told, he did. — . . . The History of Imbalming done by Mr. Tho. Greenhill, Surgeon, is a very trite Book, not done with any Gyraldus* in his Life of Ovid, in his Book de Poëtis has something abt y^e Death of Livy observing y^t Ovid and he died y^e same day. — Dr. Kennett in his Life of Mr. Somner observes y^t himself was y^e first who took notice y^t Cooper's Lexicon was taken from y^e French one of Charles Stevens. But Dr. Mill tells me that this thought Dr. Kennett had from him.

Lord Cromarty printed it in his Vindication of Robert III (Edinb. 4to, 1695), and dedicated it to the King, which he explained to mean, 'which you please.' Dr. Potter's Clemens Alex. should be printed by the University, or by the Churchills. Dr. Finch. Mr. Brocklesby in his Explication of the Gospel Theism discovers himself a downright Socinian. Was More the author of the Latin oration? Does not believe it is so very Ciceronian. Suggests that Dodwell should write a book of Retractations. Glad to hear that the Bishop of Worcester has written a defence of the jus divinum of Episcopacy. Nov. 8 (Fri.). This being the 8th of November, was a Visitation, as usual, of the Publick Library. No new orders made at this time either for printing the Appendix to y^e Catalogue, augmenting the 2^d Library-Keeper's Salary, or Visitation of y^e Coyns, only something propos'd towards Visiting the Bp. of Lincoln's, Dr. Marshall's & some other Books, w^{ch} were never yet visited. The speech was made by Mr. Rich. 20 Newton Student of X^t Church. 'Twas long & particular in the History of St. Thomas Bodley. No one else mentioned in it but Dr. Morrice, (who was Donor of the Money for the Speech), Dr. Altham the Regis Professor of Hebrew (who it seems had desir'd Mr. Newton not to speak any thing in his Speech of him, & therefore w^t he said was extremely modest) & Dr. Hudson the present Library Keeper: of all whom he spoke very decently; wthout so much as the least mention of Archbp. Laud, Mr. Selden, Bp. Barlow, Dr. Marshall or other Benefactors. Not any Accession made to the Register for y^e whole last year.

Nov. 9 (Sat.). Dr. Hudson tells me y^t Victorius's Edition of Tully in 30 Fol. (w^{ch} is very scarce, & hardly to be met wth) was printed in two Vols. at Florence, & y^t Robt. or else Charles Stephens's Edition was printed from it. Quere. Nov. 9. H. to Dr. T. Smith. Will be glad to receive his gift of coins for the Library. Col. Codrington will probably give his study, about 12,000 vols., 'of w^{ch} some scarce, but y^e greatest part Riff-Raff;' Dr. Mill is the same way inclined. No prospect of printing a Catalogue of our coins, or the Appendix to Hyde's Catalogue, in which Dr. Hudson proposes to involve it and have the whole printed over. Yesterday was the Visitation: speech by Mr. Rich. Newton, Ch. Ch., in praise of Bodley, Morris, Altham, and Hudson (last year's was by Mr. Foulkes). Wishes to collect and publish Inscriptions of Berks; also that Dodwell would write a book of Retractions. Chishull on D. and the Bp. of Worcester; when his Sermon on the latter was preached H. was sick of a fever; but he said that 'some men's learning dwindles into

Upon his Promotion to this Living Tim. Halton & his Gang of Fellows were so unkind to him as to deny him some common Privileges, w^{ch} were never

This Defeat so disgusted him that he chang'd sides again, & would passe now for a zealous Asserter of y^e R^{ts} of the Church & Crown. It has been observ'd of him y^t he took more care to prefer French and Scotch Men than y^e Honest Clergy of y^e Church of England, and moreover that he never did any thing towards the Promoting of Learning or any other Good Work in y^e University of Oxon. — Tho. Creech of Wadham Coll. afterwards Fellow of All Souls. When he was of Wadham, being chamber Fellow of Hump. Hody, he was an extreme Hard Student. When Bach. of Arts he was Collector, & making a Speech as is usuall for y^e Collectors to do he came off wth great Applause, w^{ch} gain'd him great Reputation: w^{ch} was shortly after highly rais'd by his incomparable translation into English Verse of Lucretius. (But Quære whether this Translation was not before his being Bach. of Arts.) Afterwards he translated into English Theocritus, & as tis said was put upon translating Horace by Mr. Dryden, w^{ch} last 20 did not answer the expectation the world had of him. He has also translated some Lives of Plutarch, & something of Virgil in the collection of Miscellany Poëms. He was an Excell^t scholar in all parts of Learning, especially in Divinity, & was for his Merits made Fellow of All-Souls. He put out an Edition of Lucretius in Latin wth very good Notes and a Paraphrase, w^{ch} he dedicated to his good Friend Christoph. Coddington then of All-Souls, of whom hereafter. For all these his Deserts he was not regarded by y^e Publick, & those who have y^e Disposal of Preferm^t: w^{ch} wrought very much upon his Natural melancholly, &, as those who knew him most intimately believ'd, heighten'd it to y^t 30 degree, as to make him put an End to his own Life, w^{ch} was a great Prejudice to y^e Common-Wealth of Learning, he being then upon an Edition of Justin Martyr, w^{ch} no doubt he would have done admirably well, & the world might have had a great many more excellent things from him if it had been worthy of them. — Nath. Crew of *Linc. In King James's Reign he was one of y^e Ecclesiastical Commissioners, w^{ch} was an Office y^t was very invidious, tho' perhaps the 40 Commissioners went no farther than y^e Laws of y^e Land, & y^eir Duty to y^e King would justify. Upon y^e Revolution he was threaten'd by King W^m. & his Rascally Adherents, & to gratify 'em was oblig'd to dispose of his Preferm^{ts} to such as they recommended. When he was under a Cloud & in some Disgrace Dr. Hudson, that he might do the Bp. some Honour as well as gratefully commemorate Bp. Shirlaw the Founder of y^e Dr's Fellowship, dedicated the first Volume of his Gr. Geographers to him: for w^{ch} he was no more consider'd by y^t Bp. than by y^e others that he has dedicated to. I can say no more of this Bp. than y^t in compliance wth y^e Fashion of y^e Age he is a digamist. — 50

Tho. Crosthwait Fellow of Queen's Coll. & Proctor of y^e University, was y^e Person to whom Dr. Hudson was recommended; but he then just leaving off taking Pupils, put him to Mr. W^m. Rooke then Senior Tabarder & afterwards Fellow of y^e said College, who was a good Mathematician & an acute Disputant & well vers'd in humane Literature: whose care and kindness y^e Doctor has always very gratefully acknowledg'd. The said Dr. Crosthwait, when Senior Fellow, had y^e Principality of Edm. Hall conferr'd on him upon Mr. Penton's leaving it, w^{ch} he would have held wth his Fellowship; but Tim. Halton, taking the advantage
 10 of his not subscribing in such time as y^e Law requir'd, he lost this Place: yet was reelected by a majority of y^e Fellows: but y^e s^d Halton having an Interest wth y^e Vice-Chancellor he was never admitted again; but Dr. Mill put into his Place. Dr. Crosthwait being a sound Divine & a man of good Principles would not comply with y^e Government upon y^e Revolution, & so was turn'd out of his Fellowship by Dr. Halton: after w^{ch} the Dr. liv'd (as he does now) very contentedly in a small Hereditary Estate y^t he has in y^e North. He was always a very good Friend of Dr. Hudson's and was a main Instrument in bringing him in Fellow of University College, w^{ch} he effected chiefly by y^e Interest y^e one Mr. John

W^{ch} Mr. Crosse was originally an Apothecary in Oxon, a man of good Principles & great Loyalty, as is evident from the Honest Church of England Men's meeting in his House for y^e sake of performing Religious offices before y^e Restauration. This Mr. Crosse was one of Bp. Fell's executors, and upon his Death he left an hundred lib^s. for an Anniversary Speech in praise of y^e said Bp, & converted all his Estate w^{ch} lay in Bedfordshire into an Hospital. — Quære whether Dr. Wake in his Answer to the Bp. of Meaux, printed St. Alome's Epistle ad Cæsarium Monachum juxta Exemplar Bigotianum?

He is not I think mention'd by Ant. à Wood. The person who mentions him, one Hayne, was an Oxon man. — Remember to tell Mr. Dodwell of this passage in Joan. Sperlinger's Dissertatio de principijs nobiscum natis, (printed at Willeb. 1657. 80) pag. 48. . . The said Book of Kesler's I never yet saw. — On Wednesday (20th Inst.) died of an Apoplexy Sr. W^m. Cowper Father to y^e present Lord Keeper.

In this Book several things about Libraries, but he speaks very dishonourably of the English Libraries, & says that y^e 20 English are very industrious in magnifying their own Excellencies. He also there insinuates that Dr. Hyde's Catalogue is full of Faults, & y^t 'twas drawn up by another Person, as it certainly was, viz. by Mr. Emanuel Prichard. — Aristides's Epistle to Marcus Antoninus in *MS. His Estate of 2000 lbs. per an. fallen to his son L^d. Keeper. His schoolmaster also at Eaton put him upon a speech when y^e Spanish Ambassadour came thither, w^{ch} being done admirably well, the Embassadour went away very much pleased. & y^e Master told him y^t he was the best 10 scholar of his Age in Europe. Had he been kept at Cambridge he would have prov'd a Prodigy; but they neglecting him he retur'd into y^e Country & afterwards he became a great Drinker, & growing idle, shorten'd his Days.

Dec. 4 (Wed.). Mr. Thomas Cherry (mention'd above pag. 96) was buried on Wednesday the 20th of Nov. at St. Andrew's Church in Holborn, in a vault y^t runs under y^e Church, tho' the Entrance be in y^e Church-Yard. He was buried at St. Andrew's, Holborn; particulars of the funeral. Note on Chron. Pretiosum. Enquiries about Mr. Kent. Dodwell to H. 'I am sorry the designed edition of Lucian is in no greater forwardness. And more that the Authority of a buffoon (if Philopatrius had really been Lucian's) should be reckoned on for an Argument by any Divine. But it is the peculiar unhappiness of our Age, that jeasts are taken for Arguments in affairs of the most serious importance.' The Chronological Tables may be sent. Remarks on the Bishop of Worcester, to be communicated to him. H. to Barnes. Thanks for presentation copies of Anacreon Christianus. Suspects that Veratius Philellen is Le Clerc himself. Title [Tickell] has written a poem in English called Oxford. Asks for an account of Mr. John Goad.

Dec. 4. H. to F. Cherry. Mr. Hayes has entered his son at C. C. C., 'than w^{ch}, I think, he could not have pick'd out a better in y^e whole University.' Has engaged Mr. Trumbull to send 26s. Discourse* is like to have so severe a sentence pass'd on it by y^e Approaching Convocation, & y^t (as I am made believe) 'twill be burnt publicly.'

Dec. 5. Kent to H. Regret at Cherry's death. Sends one subscription, and hopes to get others. Dr. T. Smith to H. Has given [Matthews] the carrier a presentation copy of the Lives for Hearne.

a Kentish Divine, was enter'd of Edm. Hall, & sometimes waited on Dr. Wallis to Church with his skarlett, & w^t other offices of a menial serv^t he might do for him I cannot tell. (Quære.) When Back. of Arts, (I think) he translated Pliny's Panegyrick, to w^{ch} he prefix'd a high flown Preface agreeable to y^e Loyalty of y^t time. When Master of Arts he was preferr'd to Amersden by Sr. W^m. Glyn, who patroniz'd the said first Performance of his. He became Vice-Principal of Edm. Hall, & all y^e while he continu'd there pass'd for a High-Church-Man: Otherwise he had not had y^e Rectory of Shottesbrooke in Berks conferr'd on him by Mr. Cherry. A year or two after y^e Revolution he went to 10 London, & by y^e Interest of Mr. Brewster he became Minister of Aldgate in y^e Minorities. Here by Degrees he chang'd his old Principles, w^{ch} he first discover'd by his writing a Book about Convocations against Dr. Atterbury whom 'tis said he would have defended if y^e Dr. had not put some little slight upon him. He was furnsh'd with y^e chief Materials for this Book by Dr. Hutten of Aynhoe in Northamptonshire, from whom he has likewise had abundance of other things relating to y^e English Antiquities, Dr. Hutten communicating to him all his collections. For this Book of Convocations 'tis suppos'd he was preferr'd to y^e Arch- 20 deaconry of Huntingdon: w^{ch} so encourag'd him in his Renegadoe Actions y^t he preach'd a most virulent sermon against y^e Blessed Martyr King Charles 1st on y^e xxxth of Jan. w^{ch} he printed. And to compleat y^e character he has since y^t writ a folio volume of the History of England, w^{ch} is a continuation of the Collection lately publish'd, containing Milton, Daniel &c. as I have hinted before. And it may be here observ'd y^t Milton's History being y^e first & Dr. Kennett's the last in this work, Dr. Kennett seems to have Milton's very Principles transfus'd into him, he being as barbarous to y^e Memories of King Charles II & King James as Milton was to K. Charles 1st. He makes y^e world believe y^t he will do great Matters in y^e Antient church History of England; but w^tsoever 30 he knows of these Matters is onely y^e Gleanings of Dr. Hutten. Dr. Kennett has w^{rt} some other Books besides these mention'd as y^e Life of Mr. Somner, the Parochial Antiquities of Amersden, & some other Sermons. He was when of Oxon. one of the Pro-Proctors, in w^{ch} office I do not remember anything very remarkable of him. — Basil Kennett his Brother originally likewise of Edm. Hall, & from thence elected scholar of Corpus X^a, where he studied hard & improved himself by his great Industry. He translated several Books, as y^e greatest part of Puffendorf of y^e Law of Nature, & others; & writ the Roman Antiquities, &c. He is Fellow of his College, & this year went as Chaplain 40 to y^e Merchants trading at Legherne. Just upon his going thither he printed a Book of Divine Poëms. — Dr. Hilliard Fellow of Corpus X^a printed a sermon about y^e obligation of Oaths in King James's Time, & afterwards in y^e Reign of King W^m. printed a Pamphlett about Schism. We might have expected other things from him, had he not put an end to his own Life. — Mr. Tilly originally of Wadham & afterwards of Corpus, where he is now Fellow. He has printed two or three Sermons. — Mr. Mather of the same College, Fellow, a *Northumberland*¹ man, I think. He has a sermon in print preach'd before y^e university of Oxon. at St. Marye's. — Mr. Chishull another Author & lately Fellow of y^e same College. He printed a sermon preach'd when he was a Candidate for y^e chaplainship to y^e Factory at Smyrna: w^{ch} Factory he attended for about 5 years, & then return'd into England. A little after this by y^e Interest of some Merchants he got to be Lecturer of the Church in Crutched Fryers, London; & then betaking himself to a wife quitted his Fellowship. A little after this he writ & printed a Book against Mr. Dodwell, as I have told you above.

Dec. 9 (Mon.). The Salary to y^e Officers of the Publick Library not 10 paid this year 'till to-day, tho' Sr. Tho. Bodley expresses that 'tis to be paid at farthest 33 days after Lady Day and Michaelmass. — The Donor of Dr. Wallis's Picture in the Gallery of the Publick Library not yet enter'd into y^e Benefactor's Book, nor Cardinal Howard's, Lord Abbingdon's, Duke of Ormond's, Buller's (Author of Hudibras) & some others. — The Lower House of Convocation have presented a Congratulatory Address to her Majesty, in w^{ch} they declare to her Majesty y^t they do not think y^e Church in Danger; to w^{ch} Passage all agreed but two. — Ld. Godolphin made an Earl by y^e Title of Oxford.

Dec. 12 (Th.). Yesterday Sr. John Walters chosen Burgess in Par- 20 liam^t for y^e City of Oxon. in room of Mr. Norris deceas'd. Oppos'd by one Carter a Brewer's son, & a Councillor, a man of half wit, & a conceited Whigg. None appear'd for him, but some poor sculking Fellows. — Just publish'd Mr. Dodwell's Preliminary Defence of his Epistolary Discourse about y^e Distinction of Soul & Spirit.

Dec. 13 (Fri.). [Scandalous anecdote of Sir Edw. Hungerford.] . . . Fregenae to be read for Tregellae in l. 2. c. 6. of Vell. Paterculus. Not taken notice of by Dr. Hudson. See Sigonius's Notes upon Epit. 19. of Livy.

Dec. 14 (Sat.). Dr. Smith in his Life of Archbp. Usher p. 82. says y^t 30 he some years since Epitomis'd the Archbp's Disq. de Lydiana sive Proconsulari Asia, w^{ch} is invol'd in the Archbp's Life in English by Par, & here inserted in Latin.

Asks for an opinion on the extract from Ignatius Ad Romanos in Haymo's Eccl. Hist. (ed. Boxhornius). Meurer (in MS.) on English libraries; attributes Hyde's Catalogue to another person [Prichard]. Was Wm. Lamplugh an Oxford Man? Potter is to answer Tindal.

Dec. 9. Dr. T. Smith to H. Sends a presentation copy of the Lives for the Bishop of Worcester.

Dec. 14. Dr. T. Smith to H. The Hetruscan inscription. Since the examination (three or four years since) of the Abbate Fabretti's papers, nothing has been done, and he fears 'the old Thuscan language [is] utterly lost and irretrievable. But perchance posterity may be more lucky than the present age.' Haymo's Hist. Eccles. Breviarium, and the citation from St. Ignatius' Epistle to the Romans; Haymo unknown to Usher and Pearson. Proposes to edit the Acts of the Martyrdom of St. Ignatius. Meurer an ill man. What is the opinion in Oxford of Hadrianus Relandus' Dissert. Miscellaneae?

Oxon. was penn'd by Mr. Fulman of Corpus Xth Coll. — In Capellus's Historia Sacra & Profana. p. 279. is a memorand. that 10 is to be read for 20 in 4 cap. l. 20. of Justin, in y^e story of Pythagoras. This to be added to y^e Note there out of Simpson's Chron. — Mr. Smalbroke preach'd on Saturday last Dec. 14. a Sermon in Latin at St. Marie's for his Bach. of Divinity's Degree ag^t Mr. Dodwell's Account of Episcopacy as laid down in his Parænesis.

Dec. 18 (Wed.). Petrarch writ y^e Life of Scipio Africanus. To be consulted for Livy. A large Extract out of Justin in *Hendreich's Carthag. VENVS VICTRIX. Venus stans dextra pomum, sin. hastam, ad pedes scutum. This was found in y^e Ruins of an old House in y^e Town, where I have been told others have been found: w^{ch} shews that this Place was of Note in y^e time of y^e Romans, a thing not taken notice of by Mr. Camden or Dr. Plot, who tells us nothing else of it's Antiquity but y^t 'twas of some Account before y^e Conquest, being given to Winchester by one of y^e B^{is}. of that See. — Testamentum Joh. Dec. 22 (Sun.). Last Week the Censors of Christ Church going out of their Office, as usual, treated the Students and others in the Common room; at w^{ch} time Mr. Adams & some of the rest happening, as is common amongst Friends, to talk of the Whiggs, & Dissenters, Mr. Marshall related to y^e Bp. of Worcester by his Ladie's side, & Ben. 30 Woodroff, & perhaps one or two more interposed in behalf of the Whiggs, w^{ch} so exasperated Mr. Adams, who is an Honest, ingenious, man, y^t he gave some unbecoming Language in respect of y^e Bp. of Worcester, & with some others voted Marshall out of y^e common-room. The next dug up at Sennington (Glo.). Wishes to borrow Lesley's Short Method with the Jews. Sends 26s.

Dec. 17. E. Smith to H. Lord Somers is searching for the Begerus. Asks for specimens of Livy for self and Dr. Welwood. Literary gossip. 'Sir Joh. Floyer [is printing] an Invention of a Pulse-Watch w^{ch} being nicely set and adjusted to a Man's Constitution tells him when his Blood & that is out of order.' Gifts to the Duke of Marlborough. Sends a copy of a paper which came over lately from Flanders; it was found in a coffin dug up just as they were going to bury an Officer & stuck in y^e Hand of y^e deceased, (a document in French, dated Gent, May 29, 1650, promising on behalf of the Society of Jesus to protect Maistre Hyppolite Beam from the infernal Powers, &c.).

Dec. 19. F. Cherry to H. Depends on seeing H. in the holidays.

Dec. 21. H. to Dr. T. Smith. Mightily satisfied with the Lives. Wishes he may see Smith's edition of the Acts of Ignatius. Mentions the coin of Julia Mammæa discovered at Witney, and those from Sevenhampton or Sennington. Possibly a Roman Fort at the latter.

day this was carried to his Lordship, who desired satisfaction, & would have prosecuted the matter so far as to have obtain'd a Visitation, had not Adams begg'd his L^dship's Pardon : w^{ch} it seems was easily granted, & so y^e thing was dropp'd. . .

Dec. 23 (Mon.). Happening to talk with Milles of X^t Ch. this morning, he rail'd mightily ag^t Mr. Dodwell, & was very confident y^t there was no such Distinction in the Fathers as Mr. Dodwell has given about y^e Soul's being a Principle Naturally mortal but actually immortaliz'd by y^e Divine Spirit, & said y^t 'twas foolish and ridiculous for 10 Mr. Dodwell to give such a one. He withall positively said y^t Mr. Dodwell was all along mistaken. Such is the Vanity of this poor Pretender to Learning. — . . See in *Gutherius de vet. Dec. 24 (Tu.). The secret Causes of Abundance of Particulars in History are not known to the World ; for Instance in Sr. Waller Rawleigh, who was put to Death for things done 20 Years before. 'Tis said the true Reason thereof was his putting a Cast-off Mistress to the Earl 20 of Salisbury, & then bragging of it. This comes from Dr. Eaton, who had it from one Bond, who was a Dependent on the L^d Chancellor Egerton.

Dec. 25 (Wed.). On Thursday last the Lord Mayor of London's Feast was kept, at w^{ch} were present divers Great Persons. & 'twas manag'd with an Exact Regularity. The D. of Marlborough sate on the right hand of y^e Lord Mayor in the Middle of an Oval Table, & the L^d. High-Treasurer on his Left & y^e rest of the Great Men according to their Degrees & Places. The Queen, Prince, Emperour, Duke of Savoy, & the other Princes Allyes Healths were drank, & when the Lord Mayor offer'd to begin that of the Duke of Marl- 30 borough, his Grace rose up twice at table, & would not permitt it 'till that of Prince Eugene was drank. His Grace, & the rest of the Great Men as soon as dinner was over (which was about 8 aClock) took Coach & return'd to Court. The Claret that was drank cost 1s. 6d. per Bottle, & the Musick cost 50 libs.

— Mr. Evans (John) of St. John's (the same whome I have taken notice of before in one of these Volumes for his Thanksgiving Sermon at St. Marie's) having lately very scurvily abus'd the President of St. John's & the rest of the Society in a speech he made, as usual, upon quitting his Deanery in the College, they have turn'd him out of his Chaplainship in the College on that Account, & will proceed to other

Dec. 24. H. to F. Cherry. Is detained by his book in the press ; 'besides the Waters are out here and the Ways so bad that I cannot think the Journey would be very pleasant to one who is so bad a Horseman as I am.' Mr. Dodwell's reply seems to him to be 'clearly managed,' but Mr. Milles is confident that he is in an egregious error. Sends a list of T. Cherry's books [44] left in Oxford. The Witney coin. Compliments of the season.

Dec. 27 (Fri.). 'Tis said y^t Trelawny, Bp. of Exeter, who puts in for y^e Bp^rick of Winch. is an illiterate, mean, silly, trifling, & impertinent Fellow. — When Dr. Maunder went out of his Vice-Chancellor's office, 'tis certain he left six hundred & odd pounds in the university chest at Corpus Christi: & 'tis observable, that Dr. de Laune, who was Vice-Chancellor for four years successively after him, (who at his Entrance upon that office took out all that money) put in only three hundred & odd pounds at the End of his fourth year: which to all the university seems very strange. For he had near so much paid to him, being an old Arrear from the Crowne: w^{ch} Dr. Hudson first discover'd & put him 10 in a way how to get it. 'Tis likewise very remarkable that the said Dr. De Laune, (who was term'd Gallio, because he car'd for nothing that made for the Interest of the university,) never gave up any Accounts about the Press, the Incomes of which must have been considerable by reason of my Lord Clarendon's Book, the two Hundred Pounds annual Rent paid by the Stationers, Archb^p. Sheldon's Settlement upon the Press and Theatre & other Things. And our Curators, of whom 'tis observ'd that nihil curant præter cutem, are so mealy mouth'd as to say nothing about it. Oh tempora! oh mores!

Dec. 28 (Sat.). Mr. Steph. Penton was buried in his Parsonage Church 20 of Wath in Yorkshire just under one of y^e Walls. I am told y^t he made an Inscription himself to be put on the Wall, much to this purpose: Here lyeth Stephen Penton, Rector of this Parish, who tho' dead, yet liveth: And that he order'd some Sentences out of Scripture (which he pitch'd upon) to be put under. He is succeeded in his Prebend of Rippon by Culhbert Chambers, originally Commoner of Edm. Hall, of which House he became A.M. and from thence he was elected Fellow of Magd. Coll. where he now is, & perhaps for his Honesty may deserve it: tho' as to his Learning I cannot say much. — I have been told that Mr. Philip Ayres of St. John's, whom I have mention'd before, 30 was a Traveller with Mr. Drake a Gentleman of large Estate, but a debauch'd, loose Person, & that Mr. Ayres was not much better, in his Younger Dayes (whatever he may be now). When Mr. Drake died Mr. Ayres became Governour to his Son, who is now a Gentleman Commoner of St. John's, & has a good Estate notwithstanding the Extravagance of his Father. This Ayres (who in company appears a most civil, courteous Person) has publish'd a Book of Verses, & calls himself Esq^r. Quære?

There is also inserted Mr. Greaves's Resolution, being his Translation, verbatim of the Passage.

Dec. 31 (Tu.). This day being a General Thanksgiving for the last years success Mr. Pearson of Queen's preach'd before the University at St. Marie's upon Exod. xviii. 8, 9, 10, 11. In it he extoll'd the Duke of Marlborough, upon which some Dr^s. smil'd, particularly Dr. Charlett.
 10 Which Dr. Mill took notice of, & mention'd it afterwards with some indignation, not knowing that his Friend the Bp. of Worcester did the like. — Dr. Mill tells me y^t when Bp. Fell was about publishing Origen's Discourse of Prayer, he advis'd his Lordship to put a Latin Translation to it: which His Lordship confess'd would be proper, but said he could not tell who to imploy in it. The Dr. offer'd him his service, & advis'd him to imploy Dr. Aldrich, Dr. Isham & one or two more. Which accordingly the Bp. did, & so the Translation was finish'd by them. — Mr. Selden in his Discourse de Successionibus in bona defuncti &c. c. xxiii has some things relating to the Testamenta of the xii Patriarchs;

Jan. 11 (Sat.). Joan. Fabricius, Amoenitat. Theol. pag. 668. in Notis ad Orationem de Utilitate Itineris Italix [on the tomb of Livy at Padua]. . . — In cod. Bar. 87. containing amongst other things of that kind Aristotle's Organon is the Picture of Joan. Argyropylus, who after y^e taking of Constantinople by the Turks, went into Italy, where he was entertain'd by Cosmus Medicus, and afterwards he taught Greek at Rome. He is 10 pictur'd here sitting in a teaching posture, with a Book before him, pointing at y^e words with his Left-Hand. Dr. Humph. Hody has caus'd Burghers to draw it, with a design to have it ingrav'd, to be inserted in his History of the Greek Tongue, now, it seems, almost ready for the Press. — In the Preface to Bp. Stillingfleet's Discourse concerning the Idolatry practised in the church of Rome, are these words—And his (i. e. Bp. Jewell's) Works ought to be looked on with a higher Esteem than any other private person being commanded to be placed in Churches to be read by the People. Quære what Authority Bp. Stillingfleet had to say this?

Jan. 14 (Tu.). When Mr. Berger, the Professor of Wittemberg, was 20 in Town, of whom mention before, he apply'd himself for a Mst. of Aristides in New-College to Mr. Ayliffe, who offer'd him the Use of his chamber, with a Key to go in & out when he pleas'd; but told him he could not, by reason of his oath & the Statutes of y^e College let him have it out, & that by lending formerly a curious Tully in Mst it was irrecoverably lost. Mr. Berger seem'd concern'd at this, and amongst other words said he never met with so much Rudeness and Incivility in any Place as at Oxon. Quære whether really any Tully was lost out of the Library, & if so whether Gronovius had not the use of it?

Jan. 20 (Mon.). Talking this night with Dr. Mill about Dr. Todd's Design of Printing the Antiquities of Cumberland, in Latin, he seem'd to slight the whole Design, & spoke but very indifferently of the Inscriptions which Dr. Todd has collected in a great number. Which I do not much wonder at, Dr. Mill being but a very indifferent Judge in this Part of Learning (however considerable in what he professes) & I formerly heard him rail much against Inscriptions & Coyns in general, 20 tho' at the same time he could not but acknowledge several of them to be of great use.

Jan. 21 (Tu.). This Morning died Dr. Humph. Hody Greek Professor & Archdeacon of Oxon. Dr. Mill immediately writ that Mr. Goodwin (commonly call'd Dr. Goodwin, he is a quack Dr.) might be made Archdeacon, for which he is unqualify'd as being much such another as Tho. Milles, having no manner of Learning, & being a confident, vain Fellow. Humphry Hody was a Man of great Industry, good natural Parts, and a great Memory: but had but little Judgment: however he was very usefull, and generally was for carrying on things of Learning. Under

Jan. 24 (Fri.). Last night, (Thursday) between 9 and 10 of the Clock, Dr. Hody was buried in the Chapell of Wadham College, to which Place 10 he has given all he had (he dying very rich) upon the Decease (as 'tis sd) of his Widow Mrs. Edith Danell. He had a Design of Altering his Will, and when his Physitians had declar'd that they thought he could not recover, he sent Mr. Dodwell the Lawyer in all hast to Monks-Risborough in Bucks, of which place he was Rector, to bring it up to Oxon, & pray'd heartily that he might live 'till his Return: but he died before Mr. Dodwell could come back. Besides the Rectory he was Archdeacon of Oxon, & had a good Estate. But inquire more about this. — I have been told since the writing of what goes before that what is there said about Dr. Hody's altering his Will is false: That the Will was wholly written by 20 his own Hand, That by it he has left all the Books to the Bodlejan Library there wanting which are in his Study, that he has left an hundred Pounds to the Parish of Odcomb in Somerset-Shire where he was born, 100 Pounds to Monks-Risborough, and 100 lbs. more to the Parish he had before. That his widow is to have 100 lbs. per an. during Life, & afterwards to Revert to Wadham-College, to which Place he has given the Remaining Part of his Books with what he had else (except 10 lbs. apiece to two Brothers, one whereof was A. M. of Wadham College, of which House also the other was, who it seems by this are both Living) for 10 Exhibitioners who are to study the Hebrew and Greek Tongues, and are to 30 be examin'd & nominated by the two Professors of each in the University: which Professors are to have a reasonable Gratuity for their Pains. (Quere whether he did not print something else?) He was suspected as inclining to Popery in the Time of K. James: but most People believ'd 'twas a Calumny thrown upon him by some of the Fellows of the same college, such as Arthur Charlett, &c. Jan. 23. Kent to H. Has bought books recommended by Hearne. H. Smith to H. Sends Dr. Sloane's copy of Begerus. Enclosed is Toland's Essay proving that Livy was not superstitious. He is to be made Keeper of the Paper Office at £400 a year. 'As to his Principles of State (w^{ch} are truly wiggish) no body here makes distinction in general conversation.' Davenant* of *St. Mary-Hall*² translated a Book out of French call'd Reflections on Historians. — Sr. Jon. Dawes originally Fellow of St. John's Coll. in Oxon. which he left upon Account of an Estate & Baronett's Title devolving upon him. After which he was chosen Master of Catherine Hall in Cambridge, & made Dean of Bocking in Essex. He is reckon'd a plausible Preacher & has some Sermons in 10 print. — William De Laune first Fellow of St. John's coll. then made Chaplain to Mews Bishop of Winchester, who gave him a good Living in Hampshire, which he quitted upon his being Elected President of St. John's: which place he did not obtain without great opposition from his competitor Dr. Torriano. He has printed a Sermon preach'd on the 30th of January before the House of Commons. He was four years Vice-Chancellor during which time, (being term'd by Honest men Gallio) he let all the discipline of the university go down, and imbezzel'd all the Treasury of the university, there being a thousand Pounds left in the Chest by his Predecessor Dr. Mander, which he took out a little after his Entrance
20 upon his Office, and when he left it only put in three hundred and odd Pounds: which sum was paid him by the Treasurer of England, being an old Arrear to the University, which was first discover'd to him by Dr. Hudson, who at the same time had a promise from him (which he never regarded) that it should be apply'd to the Publick Library. It is to be observ'd that in His Vice-chancellorship, there were a great many Impressions of Clarendon, which should have brought good Sums of Money to the University: so that one should have thought, that with this extraordinary Income, the common Revenus of the university, two Hundred pounds per annum from the Stationers, & a hundred or two Hundred a 30 year belonging to the Theatre, there should have been a considerable Sum of Money in the Treasury of the University. Moreover it is to be observ'd, That whereas the Stationers were oblig'd by their lease to take off 200 Copies of any Book printed at the university's Expense, when they renew'd their Lease he let them alter that clause, making it run thus, That they should take off 200 Copies provided they (viz. Stationers) approved of it before it went to the Press. — . . Jonathan Edwards of Jesus College, Fellow and afterwards Principal. A man of good Note for Honesty, Integrity and Learning. Fell* had liv'd, who had a great Kindness for him, had been set upon some considerable Work, for which he was well qualify'd. This Bishop dying, & none regarding him, or hardly any one else for their Learning afterwards, upon this Account he accepted of a Colledge Living at Brough under Stainmore in Westmorland, which was given the college by their Founder Robert Eggesfield, where betaking himself to a Wife, who prov'd none of the best, he pin'd away in Grief and Melancholly, & was mightily lamented by all that knew him, particularly by Dr. Hudson, who had his Vote when he was turn'd by a Fellowship of Queen's. He has printed a Sermon, preach'd at the wedding of one of his Pupils. — Quære whether Dr. Fitz Williams of Magd. college has printed anything? — St. John Floyer Dr. of Physick of Queen's College has written several Books in his Faculty, which he practises at Lichfield. — *Edw. He has publish'd Abundance of Things in the Philosophical Transactions. He was made Savilian Professor of Geometry, upon the Death of Dr. Wallis, and a little after translated a Piece of Apollonius Pergæus out of Arabick, and from him we expect several other things. He has made curious observations about the Tyde in our Channell, and about the variation of the Needle, for which he went as near the Southern Pole as ever any man yet did. He has been in various Parts of the ocean, & would willingly hazzard his Life once more to perfect his observations if 40 he could obtain a Ship from our Government, which never had any Regard for Learning. He has publish'd a Map shewing the Variation of the Needle in the several Parts where he has been. Quære whether he did not give Materials to a Discourse prefix'd to the IV volumes of Travells in folio lately printed at London? — William Hallifax (D.D.) of Corpus X^a Coll. translated De Chales Euclid into English. Afterwards he went Chaplain to the Factory at Smyrna. Upon his Return he was made Chaplain to Foley Speaker of the House of Commons. Upon the Death of Dr. Marshall, Bishop Fell, who knew Dr. Hicks's worth, and had a true value for Men of Learning, labour'd all he could to have had him Rector of Lincoln; but the Fellows, who knew he would have been for keeping up Discipline, preferr'd a Person of a quite Different Temper. Upon the writing of his Answer to the Life of Julian the Apostate, done by Sam. Johnson, he was advanc'd to the Deanery of Worcester, which Preferment he lost for not taking the Oaths to the Prince and Princess of Orange. Chancellor Somers he the little Insect was recommended to King William to succeed Dr. Luff as Regis Professor of Physick, which Place he has most scandalously neglected. He is a ranck, low church whigg, & a mighty Projector for making Salts. He is very good at getting Children, but nothing else that I know of. — Matth. Hutten, D.D. of Brasen-nose Coll. He has a noble Collection of Antiquities made by himself. — Will. Jane D.D. and Regis Professor of Divinity in Oxon. He died in the forty fifth year of his Age.

Jan. 27 (Mon.). Tim. Goodwin Chaplain to the Bp. of Oxon is made Archdeacon of Oxon. in the room of Dr. Hody. Which Goodwin in the 10 year 1696, was made M. of Arts as a Member of St. Edm. Hall, producing Testimoniall Letters (which some say were forg'd) of his being Dr. of Physick of Leyden, in which Faculty he understands as little as he does of Divinity. But he is a great Pretender, & a bold, confident man, & will do anything for Preferment which is all he aims at. When he was of Edm. Hall he was a stingy, niggardly Fellow, & I do not remember he did any good there, whatever Dr. Mill may say. (He hath since publish'd the Life of the Bp. of Salisbury's wife. Jan. 25. Dr. T. Smith to H. Asks him not to enter his trifling benefactions in the Register. Mentions a rumour of an intended visitation of All Souls' to ferret Tindal out of his burrow. The icons of the nine famous Greeks who brought Greek learning &c. into Italy are in T. vi of Lambecij De Bibliotheca Caesarea Vindobonensi, App. p. 274. Relates an anecdote of an extraordinary visitation of Bodley to which Marshall, Walker, and himself were invited by Bp. Lloyd. When it was over Walker told S. that notwithstanding all that they had proposed, nothing would be done. 'And Obadiah the Conjuror, as Archb^p. Sheldon used merrily to call him, in this proved a true Prophet.' Wonders at Charlett's proposal that he should undertake certain Lives. He has endeavour'd to pursue Bp. Fell's excellent design, and if the Heads of Houses &c. think fit to receive it, he hopes they will find several judicious men capable of bringing it to perfection, and is satisfied that nothing can be more for the credit of the Nation, Church, and University.

Feb. 7 (Fri.). Mr. Dodwell tells me his Letter to Dr. Tillotson to prevent the schism is printed with Bp. Kenn's Letter to Dr. Tennison conc. the Death of the Princess of Orange. — In a Book call'd Mille Testes, wherein some things are inserted against Mr. Dodwell's Ep. Discourse, the Author, Mr. Oldfield, a Lawyer, says with some confidence 10 that Mr. Fulman was Author of The Whole Duty of Man. — Mr. Cherry has a Cohn of Constantius (the younger, I suppose) found at Thistleworth in Middlesex. — When the Bill for Security of the Church of England was read, a Clause was in it to take off the Sacramental Test, which was assented to by eleven of the Bishops that were in the House, such as Tennison, More, Trelawny (who has chang'd his Principles in hopes of being translated to Winchester.) &c. & dissented from by six, viz. the Archbp. of Fork, Bp. of Chesler, the Bp. of London, the Bp. of Rochester, the Bp. of St. Asaph, & the Bp. of Durham. Dr. Bull sate in the Lobby of the House of Lords all the while smoking his Pipe. The Bp. of Bath 20 and Wells with some others were not in Town. 'Tis said the Duke of Marlborough made a speech for taking off the Test.

Feb. 10 (Mon.). This Day was a Convocation at two a Clock about the University's Answer to the Geneva Letter. The Answer was drawn up and read by Dr. Smalrich, signifying that the Aspersions cast upon the Church of Geneva was by some private Persons, & such as were Enemies to the Church of England, as he shew'd from our Articles and Canons. They say at Christ-Church that in Mr. Milles's Rhapsody, newly publish'd against Mr. Dodwell, besides affected Language, there is false Doctrine, illogical Conclusions, & I know not what. — . . .

Feb. 8. Dr. T. Smith to H. Remarks on the coins. Gives an account of a Mr. Thomas Perkes, of Mangorsfield, and his conversation with Spirits, from a letter printed at Bristol 1704 and directed to Bp. Fowler. Hopes that Hudson will succeed Hody; Dr. Potter would be a fit person. Almeloveen writes that when Strabo is published he will begin the Lives of the two Casaubons, for which he has been furnished with materials by Drs. Bernard, Smith, and Batteley. Feb. [Mar.] 8. Smith to H. The riot in All Souls' Buttery. Dr. Jane's will. Vol. II. of the Imitation of Christ collected and published by Mr. Lee, late fellow of St. John's Coll., Oxon, who afterwards married the daughter of Mrs. Joane Lead, famous for her pretended visions and revelations, and one of the first beginners of the enthusiastic Sect of the Philadelphians, and is said to have joined them, though Smith hopes that he has long since given up those extravagant religious whimsies and fooleries. Fears that he retains too much inclination to the practices of a 'contemplative life.' Condemns devotional books of this character and thinks that Dr. H. [Hickes] has bestowed excessive praise on Thomas a Kempis in his Ep. Ded. Does not believe that a Kempis, or Walter Hilton an English Carthusian Friar (according to O. Walker, from whom Mr. Hatton borrowed his account) was the author of the Imitatio. Asks H. to read Leland on Hilton in De Scriptoribus illustribus; also Theod. Petreius' Biblioth. Cartusiana (Cologne, 8°, 1609), who assigns the Musica Ecclesiastica to Hilton chiefly on Possevin's authority (Mus. Eccles. being practically identical with the Imitatio).

take & be receiv'd in the world, that none but such as had heard (and profess'd the Gospel, & been Baptized) need to fear a future Account &c. These words he quotes as M^r. Dodwell's whereas those in hooks are his own. Ibid. pag. 108. a Passage out of Justin, w^{ch} M^r. Milles has corrupted, & pointed falsely, so that 'tis not Greek, nor does his Translation answer the Original. M^r. Chisbull also has mistaken the Place. Ibid. pag. 140. He runs out about a Typographical Mistake of Austin for Justin, M^r. Dodwell joyning Justin and Irenæus together. M^r. Milles might have easily discover'd the Errour by what goes before & what follows after. At the latter End of the Chapter he has 6 or 7 Pages to shew that St. Augustin (so he writes, whereas the Print is Austin, onely one Letter in 10 the Difference) could not be of opinion that the Soul is naturally mortal. M^r. Chisbull guilty of the same mistake, tho' he does not run out to shew St. Augustin's opinions. D^r. Turner & M^r. Clark perceiv'd the Mistake, & did not insist upon it. Ibid. pag. 439. He pretends that M^r. Dodwell has a great number of manifest Absurdities as well as Inconsistencies & Self Contradictions, (with some other Expressions of that nature,) for which he says he has compassion to M^r. Dodwell, & out of Respect to his Person & character he will cast a veil over that Place rather than expose it to that scorn and Ridicule of the world, w^{ch} if it were open'd & set in its proper Light, it must needs occasion. Yet he does not so much as intimate what these contradictions &c. 20 are nor give reasons to prove them so as well as himself. Ibid. p. 494.—From all which, I cannot but with sorrow reflect upon your unhappy Fate, in undertaking to maintain an opinion, which has driven you into such a method of Arguing, as is as difficult to make consistent with common Honesty, as to reconcile with the Principles of sound Reason.—Yet he has not shew'd this, & 'tis purely Abuse, & quite contrary to that Respect which he says he has for M^r. Dodwell's character. 'Tis much the same Abuse with M^r. Chisbull's. Ibid. p. 492. He has another Abuse of him, making him guilty of the most notorious Falsification upon Account of a Passage in St. Athanasius, which M^r. Dodwell understood otherwise than M^r. Milles & for which M^r. Milles might 30 be term'd guilty of the same Knavery, were it consistent with the Rules of Christianity. —

Feb. 11 (Tu.). M^r. Proast read over a sheet or two of M^r. Milles's Rhapsody against M^r. Dodwell at the beginning; and he is the Person (of Judgment) whom Milles hints at in the Preface: but because M^r. Milles would not alter things which appear'd to be wrong, but in every particular was confident, he would read over no more. — 40 Several Coyns for Illustrating Livy to be taken out of Landi Numismata. — D^r. Humphreys Bp. of Hereford writ a Discourse concerning the Antiquities of St. Wimfrid's well. Quære where 'tis now? — D^r. Lloyd Bp. of Worcester born August the 27th in the year 1627. Quære? Apparentijs Stellarum, in Petavius's Ouranolog. 3. The Fasti of Theon (being part of his com.) pr. at the End of the Oxon Edition of St. Cyprian. — Mr. Dodwell is inclin'd to think that the Inscription explain'd by Sirmund relating to Scipio Barbatus is elder than that of Duilius, the letters of Duilius being better cut & the termination imus for unus shewing that of Duilius to be after Julius Cæsar. Consult Ciacconius upon col. Rostrata. This of Duilius elder than Pliny, who mentions it. Duilius's Inscr. always has C. for G. G. was invented by Servilius Carbo after the year ab U.C. 500. See Plutarch. The Bacchanalia 10 publish'd by Gronovius has always at least often G. for C. Quære. In Barbatus note the word Optume. Scipio Nasica is, as seems, the first that had the Title of Optimus. — Reinesius in his Inscriptions or in his variae Lectiones has the Stemmata of the Scipios. See there whether some light may be had of Barbatus. Reinesius's Defence of himself in Mr. Charles Bernard's Hands.

Feb. 15 (Sat.). The Letter above mention'd of Bp. Kenn, conc. the Death of the Princess of Orange, is thus intitled, A Dutifull Letter from a Prelate to a Prelate, relating to matters of grand concern. Printed at London 1703. 80. Mr. Dodwell's follows, & is thus intit. A Letter from 20 Mr. D——el to Dr. Tillotson to prove Non-Jurors no Schismaticks. Bp. Kenn's. Dated March 29. 1695.

Mr. Dodwell is inform'd by one who would not be quoted first that Mr. Hoadley assisted Mr. Chishull in his Answer to the Epistolary Discourse conc. the natural Immortality of the Soul.

Feb. 17 (Mon.). Dr. John Potter is made Rector of Monks Risborough in room of Dr. Hody, & Mr. Milles (the Rhapsodist) Greek Professor in the university of Oxford. The Court could not have put a greater Affront upon us than pitching upon a Person void of Integrity, Parts or 30 Learning, especially that part of Learning he is to profess, he not understanding the Rudiments of the Greek Tongue, as is plain from his Performance against Mr. Dodwell. The Arguments made use of to get him this Place we hear were, (1) That he is a Person of great Eminence. (2) That he was sent for to Christ-Church from another House, because no one in Christ-Church was so able as he to do the Duty of chaplain. (3) That he was Deputy to Dr. Hody, & read Greek Lectures to the Admiration and great satisfaction of all the University. Which is all banter, & just as true as the reasons given by him in his Preface why his Book did not appear sooner, viz. because he was attendant upon 40 the Earl of Pembroke's Son (who was absent all the time he was about

Feb. 15. H. to Dr. T. Smith. Prof. Milles will not find one friend in the whole University; he seems not to know the very rudiments of the Greek tongue. What order was there for placing Jewel's works in churches to be read by the people? Has Hickes cleared himself from the charge in Burnet's Vindication? Complains of Mill's criticism on Dr. Hugh Todd's proposal for printing the Antiquities of Cumberland. Pretexts for Milles's appointment, criticized.

Feb. 18 (Tu.). Tom. of his collectio nova. p. 18. out of Athanasius οὐχ αἶμα τοῦ κυρίου ἐστὶν ὁ οἶνος, ἀλλὰ τῆς ἀμπέλου. This Passage is conc. the Eucharistical Wine & is express against Transubstantiation, w^{ch} he has not observ'd. In the same place pag. 28. is a passage against the harsh notion of original Sin. pag. . . . is a passage making for Mr. Dodwell's opinion conc. the distinction of ψυχή and πνεῦμα. — . . .

Memorandum for the Continuer of Athenæ Oxon. or A Catalogue of Mr. Tho. Milles's works.

1. An Anatomical Description of Man & Woman, in a Sermon at St. Marie's. Taken mostly from Gibson's Anatomy. 'Twas the first he preach'd before the university. MS. 4^o.

2. Remarks upon the Occasional Paper num. viii. in Defence of Mr. Dodwell and his Principles about the schism. Printed in a sheet and a half in 4^{to}, in the year 97 or 98. 'Twas Reflected on, with other things, by Dr. Hody, I think, & thereupon Mr. Milles writ,

3. A Defence of the said Remarks. Which is pretty large, & not yet printed. 4^{to}.

4. A Discourse about the Law of Nature. not finish'd.

5. The 2 first comedies of Aristophanes collated with an old edition 4^o. Mr. Milles had a design of putting it out, but being of an unsettled temper, & not understanding Greek, he grew weary of it by that time he came to y^e 3^d 30 Comedie.

A Sermon upon the 30th of Jan. at St. Marie's Oxon 4^o.

6. A Letter to Mrs. Brace-Girdle, dissuading her from the Play-House, Written in the year 1703, at y^e time of the Oxon Act.

7. Variæ Lectiones & Annot. in Cyrrilli catecheses, Pr. at Oxon. in fol. The Annotations were in a great measure taken from Suicerus's Lexicon, & the Index's & some of the collating part done by another hand.

8. Answer to Mr. Dodwell's Epistolary Discourse.

In this Book, which some call Milles's Rhapsody, (besides his calling Mr. Dodwell downright knave, (see p. 494.) his insisting, for about 10 40 pages together on a typographical Error of Austin for Justin (See p. 140.) several impertinent Digressions &c. he shews himself to be ignorant in the Rudiments of the Greek Tongue, & to be very meanly skill'd in the Fathers, whom he has quoted at 2^d Hand, having made great use of Scultetus's Medulla Patrum, Dr. Cudworth's Intell. System & other Books of that kind.

Feb. 18. Barnes to Hudson. 'I knô not, but y^t Mills may be a Brother, or Kinsman of mine, for my Mother was a Mills of Salisbury.' Wants to hear finally about Homer and Pindar. An Antichrist has appeared in Babylonia. Has finished the first Book of Psalms, and wishes to print it at Oxford.

- 10 Die Martis 6. Aug. (y^e year not added) Stylo veteri, Dunamia profecti venimus ad ædes olim Episcopales, nunc D. Peitbou, Dodinchtōni, sane elegantes, & pretiose instructas.

7. Witsbicum appulimus. Fuit autem totum iter à Dunamia per loca palustria, quæ nunc q. magna ex parte sicca erant. Sed hieme alta aqua conteguntur. Est vero pars Eliæ propior multo melior, quam pars ad Wisbicum quæ per plura milliaria plane deserta est et perpetuum est arundinetum. Sane si siccaretur hæc plaga pars vel optima certe inter optima Angliæ videtur futura. Nam apud D. Peitbou qui amenissimum tractum colit & admodum καράδενδρον nascuntur cum alij fructus, tum præcocia (Apricocks) quibus meliora Lutetiæ edisse
20 non meminimus.

6 Aug. Quum jam non multis M.P. distaremus à Dodinchtōni, occurrit nobis rusticus, qui equo nudo vehebatur, non divaricatis ut fit cruribus, sed rectus stans & dorso insistens equi, qui adeo firmus stabat, ut non dubitaret currere quanta maxima velocitate. Ego simile spectaculum antea non videram. Witsbicum porrigitur secundum fluvium unde nomen quasi d. fluminis Wiscæ ostium (inde beccum apud vulg.) & sunt ædificia humilia, neque continua, nisi ad illam partem, ubi est Arx Episcopalis. Ea pars & proximæ urbis speciem aliquam refert: reliquæ domus sunt παραιοτάμιοι ad milliare unum extensæ.

- 30 Dodinchtōni profectis ad milliare 3 aut circiter occurrit in vasta solitudine tugurium luteum ταπεινόν. quod vocant Opbous sive Oppenhous, domus Op. ibi solent haustu cerevisiæ recreari viatores: sed τῇ λιτότητι τοῦ τόπου ἀνάλογός ἐστιν ἡ ποιότης τοῦ πύματος. Magna ἐρημία, raro homines occurrunt. Et inter Dunamiam ac Dodinchtōnum per campos virentes iter fecimus nullo viæ vestigio apparente.

- Kal. Aug. Narrabat hodie mihi rem miram Reverendiss. Præsul D. Ep. Eliensis, quam ille acceptam auribus suis à teste oculato & auctore credebatur esse verissimam. Est vicus in urbe Londino qui dicitur vicus Longobardore. in eo vico παροικία est & ædes paræcialis, in qua fuit presbyter, homo summæ fidei corpus. Sed tu, uxor, ait, si quid habes tibi parati, da mihi. esurio enim. Dixit illa, Verveinam habere se, pullum gallinaceum, & nescio quid aliud. Sed omnia invecta: quæ brevi esset paratura. Ego, ait ille, moram non fero, panem habes, & caseum? quum annuisset, atque ipse petijisset afferri, comedit spectante uxore. deinde advocato presbytero & jussis exire è cubiculo omnibus qui aderant, narrat illi hæc. Ego, ait, vere mortuus fui: sed jussa est anima redire ad suum corpus, ut scelus aperirem ore meo manibus meis admissum, de quo nulla unquam cuiquam est suspicio. Priorem namque uxorem meam ipse occidi manibus meis, tanta vafrutie, ut omnes res lateret. Deinde modum perpetrati sceleris exposuit. Nec ita multo post exspiravit ac vere tum mortuus est.

Generatio in anno ætatis LXXX^o. Heri mihi narrabat hic Londini filia Fontani, dum vixit Ministri in hac Ecclesia Gallicana, loquens de suo marito, genero Fontani, qui maritus ipsius natus annos supra 70, ante dies xx obiit, mensibus sex post socerum: sæpe illum sibi dixisse, patrem habuisse admodum longævum, qui natus annos octoginta se generarit. Neque erat tamen hic maritus narrantis infirmo corpore, sed staturæ commodæ, & firmæ sanitatis. quod mirum erat in eo qui fuisset generatus à decrepito.

Arcus qui dicitur Marij, opus est plane stupendum, & antiquitatis monumentum nulli alij secundum. Figura operis quadrata est. Constat fornicibus tribus: medius arcus & major cæteris & magnificentior. In operis lateribus quatuor sculptæ sunt res gestæ illius cujus honoris sacratur id monumentum. Mr. Dodwell's Letter occasioned by one from an unknown Hand.

Shottesbrook, Sept. 10. 1706.

Unknown Sir, This is to let you know that I have received your Letter. I am sorry to find by it that you run into the same mistake with my other 10 published Adversaries, in taking my opinion, not from my Book, nor even from my whole Title-Page, but that part of it only which Dr. Turner is pleased to separate from the rest by his etc. I am sure you could not in my Book have found any milder or less lasting punishment for the now living Atheists or Epicureans, who are likely to see my Book than by the commonly received opinion. Dr. Coward himself has publicly cleared me from the Slander of being of his own opinion, concerning the Exstinction of y^e Soul upon it's dissolution from the Body. And I have been as plain in asserting that all who hear of the Gospell are obliged to accept of Eternal Rewards under payn of incurring Eternal punishment in case of their not complying with the terms of 20 it. Nor did I ever make that inference from Tertullian you impute to me, that his Doctrine concerning the Originall of y^e Soul ex traduce obliged him to own y^e Actual Mortality of y^e Soul but only it's natural Mortality. By this you will easily understand how little I am concerned in what you have produced from him to shew that he believed the Actual Immortality of y^e Soul, which I never denied. I shall therefore intreat you to make use yourself of y^e Advice of Monsieur le Blanc, so much commended by you, not to charge me with this consequence of y^e Epicurean Mortality of y^e Soul, which I utterly deny, and I am very confident that neither you, nor any Epicurean living will ever be able to prove fairly from any Principle admitted by me. By this you 30 will not only do me Justice, but secure the Publick (as much as lyes in you) from the ill consequences in Practice which those impious Infidels draw, not from any opinion truly owned by me, but from one that is falsely imputed to me. In truth the false imputers of such opinions to me must answer, before God, for the Consequences of their own Slanders, not I who am slandered with the Imputation of that opinion which is so far from my real sentiments. They therefore ought to retract their charging me with that opinion which allows any of your present Epicureans the benefit of actual mortality, not I who never maintained it. In doing so, they might more contribute to stop the mischief occasioned by their own mistaken Representation of my sense 40 than I can who never granted Premises to ground those mischievous inferences of y^e Unbelievers. I hope ere long to publish a Preliminary Defense as to this charge of Impiety. Then I shall be less concerned for y^e Dispute relating to y^e natural Mortality of the Soul when those pious Readers, whose Judgements I most revere, shall have devested themselves of the Prejudices unhappily conceived, and shall be willing to give an equal hearing to me as well as to my Adversaries. This I hope you will be pleased to accept at present. When that is published, and you have thoroughly informed yourself of my Principles, not from rumours, but from my Book itself; I may hope for more usefull objections from a Person of your abilities, if you shall think it worth 50 your time. In the mean time I am ready to joyn with you in all good designs for Religion as yourself can wish, and am

Your unfeigned well-wisher

A Lesson for the Greek Professor or A Dialogue between Timothy and Tell-Troth, in Answer to Mr. M—s Book ag^t Mr. D—ll.

Tim. What have you there? Tell-Tr. Mr. M—s Answer to Mr. D—ll. Tim. 'Tis a bulky one; surely 'tis not all to the purpose. Tell-Tr. Yes 'tis to Mr. M—s purpose. Tim. Pray what was that? Tell-Tr. To get Preference. Tim. No, this can't be. I fancy he is a Man of greater Simplicity than to write with such a Design. Tell-Tr. You'll be easily undeceiv'd, when you hear, that he is made Professor of the Greek Tongue, in the University of Oxon. for this doughty Performance. Tim. 'Tis impossible. How should an English Book recommend a Man to the Q—s Favour for such a Place? Tell-Tr. Just as a slight Tincture of Poëtry did V—g for a Place in the Heralds-Office; or &c. Tim. I can't allow your Comparison. For you may easily perceive that Mr. M—s is no Dabler in Greek, by the Learned Quotations at the Bottom of the Page. Tell-Tr. Quotations may be had at second hand. But what will you say if these shew him to be a meer ignoramus in Greek, & one that has not learn'd the first Rudiments of the Tongue. Tim. This is all spight & malice. Surely you were a Competitor for the Place. Tell-Tr. Not I. For I don't pretend to be qualify'd for it. Tim. I'll never believe you, unless you'll prove what you say. Tell-Tr. To satisfy you, I'll give you instances enough of his Ignorance in a few Lines. Tim. 'Tis exceeding strange, but if you do convince me, I'll quite desert the Party, who would make us believe they have ingross'd all the wit and Learning in the Nation. Tell-Tr. To do you so great a kindness, I'll play the Critick for once. Turn to page the 11th line the 1st of the Quotation at y^e Bottom of the Page, and there you will find δ for δ twice, a fault that a novice would hardly be guilty of. Tim. That's only an Error of the Press, or want of Accuracy in correcting. Tell-Tr. I am afraid 'tis want of his Accuracy in the Language; for the Book is full of false Accents, as pag. 31st lin. 2. τοὺς τε for τοὺς τε. pag. 37. lin. 4. πρώτων γε. for πρώτων γε. lin. 8. ἡ δε for ἡ δε. lin. 14. ἀδην for ἀδην. lin. antepenult. ω for α. p. 38. lin. 3. εν for εν. l. 4. ἀρπαζ' for ἀρπαζ'. l. 6. πάντων for πάντων. l. penult. ποδώκες for ποδώκες. & I dare swear a 100 more of y^e same nature. Tim. But these are little matters not worthy to be regarded by a Professor. Tell-Tr. That's st[r]ange, at this time of day, when little men are so much regarded. Tim. But I think there's no need of niceness in such Punctilios. Tell-Tr. The Learned world has been of another opinion. However I'll say no more of Accents. Turn back again to the 31st Page line the 3^d. and there you have false Concord, τοὺς τηλευτήσαντες for τοὺς τελευτήσαντας. Pag. 37th l. 14 & 15. you have false verse, and false concord too. Tim. 'Tis all Error of the Press, & could never flow from the Pen of a Learn'd Professor. Tell-Tr. 'Tis not to be imagin'd that a Compositor should committ 40 the faults in the last Page and Lines I mention'd for how should he read?

καὶ γὰρ καθ' ἀδην δύο τριβους νομίζομεν,
Μίαν δικαίων, χ' ἀτέραν τῶν ἀδικῶν.

Tim. Why? where's the fault? the sense is plain, and neither the Author nor Compositor to be blam'd as far as I can see. Tell-Tr. 'Tis unreasonable to expect that I should both find faults & Eyes to see 'em. Pray how does μίαν agree with τριβους, and what sort of verse is the latter? Tim. Pray gratify my Curiosity for once and inform me. Tell-Tr. That's an easy matter. The Author has made μίαν to agree with τριβους, whereas if you read the verse thus, as it should be, the Concord will be visible, & the difficulty solv'd. Tim. This is not ignorance but a plain Blunder. Tell-Tr. You may call what you please a Blunder, as I suppose you will the word ἀμβλήματα in pag. 38. lin. ult. Tim. No, I'll call that an Error of the Press, & must acknowledge the Book to be full of them: Yet for all that y^e Author knows better things. Tell-Tr. That may be; but I am sure he does not understand how to print or Correct Greek. For I do not doubt but that upon the Review of his Book to find the Errata, he us'd the best of his Skill: because he could not but be sensible the Criticsks would fall upon him. Yet for all this out of an hundred, at least, he has found but one. Tim. Now 'tis plain you are malicious. For I can see two he has taken notice of in the very first Line of the Errata. Tell-Tr. Now you are out on't. For the first μέν εἶναι is so far from being a Correction of a gross Error, that he doubles it: for you must know that εἶναι is no enclitick, as he would have it. Tim. I am entirely of opinion that all these faults are nothing else but little Inadvertencies. Tell-Tr. I find you have a perfect command over your own thoughts. But 'tis matter of wonder to me, that he should commit more faults in a few Lines than others do in a whole Book. Tim. I don't doubt but you have shewn 'em all. For Malice is quick-sighted, and very exact in enumerating all little Slips of an Adversary. Tell-Tr. No such thing. I'm as favourable to him as 'tis possible. Pray consult pag. 107. where, not to take notice of the Errors in the three first Lines, &c. you have one notable Blunder, I might say two, in the fourth line, couch'd in the words ἐν ἀνθρώπων 20 εἶδη for ἐν ἀνθρώπων εἶδε. And if you turn over to the next Page, you will find in the 3^d Line κρίττονι πο χορῶ for κρίττονι ποι χορῶ. And I might likewise refer you to pag. 109, 111, 113, 115, 116, 117, 121, 125, 126, 128, 129, &c. But, least you should likewise say these are Errors of the Press, I'll not insist upon 'em. Tim. I'm glad to find you so mercifull. But I fancy you would shew your Teeth if you could bite. Tell-Tr. Seeing you provoke me, I'll do your Business. Tim. I despise your Threatenings. Tell-Tr. And so do I your little men: silly Pretenders to Criticism, without Sense or Learning. Tim. Hei! day! What in the High-Rope! A high-Flyer & a Tantivi! Tell-Tr. I ner'e regard your Names, but am content to be an humble observer. Tim. 30 Of what? Tell-Tr. Of false Criticisms, and nonsensical Corrections of an Author when he needs none. Tim. What do you mean? Tell-Tr. I find that in pag. 108. your assuming Professor, to amuse the ignorant, dealing worse with Justin Martyr than Trypho the Jew would have done. Tim. Pray how? Tell-Tr. By mangling his words so, by his Corrections and Interpunctions, as to make them neither Sense nor Greek. Tim. If you make this Charge good you'll bring me down a peg lower in my Conceit of him. Tell-Tr. Turn then to pag. 108. lin. 5. where you have αἱ δὲ κολάζονται 'εἰς, ἃν αὐτοῖς καὶ εἶναι καὶ κολάζεσθαι ὁ Θεὸς θέλη. Now (to pass by his making κολάζονται to be the future tense in his translation, and his false concord of αὐτοῖς for αὐτὰς) I 40 would gladly know what that εἰς, ἃν &c. means. For I'm sure neither Justin M. nor St. Austin, whom elsewhere (p. 140, 176.) he ignorantly takes for Justin, would have writ so. Tim. Now I must own you kill two Birds with one Stone. And I wonder how you came to be so good a Mark's-man. Tell-Tr. You should rather wonder how such an insolent Ecclesiastick should be made Professor. Tim. I am apt to believe his Arguments against Mr. Dodwell, & his other Performances, were cast into the Balance against the Merits of others. Tell-Tr. And something else too. For to say nothing of Cyrill, for the sake of honest Dick Sart, I do assure you that there is nothing material in his Book against Mr. Dodwell but what was started by Mr. Clarke or Mr. Chisbull. Tim. 50 Who tells you so? Tell-Tr. Even Mr. D——ll himself, whom I take to be a competent Judge in this matter. Tim. 'Tis strange the world should be so easily impos'd upon. Tell-Tr. 'Tis not more strange than true. But si mundus vult decipi, decipitur. . . . [220-230 blank.]

Μίαν δικαίων, χ' ἀτέραν, ἀδικῶν ὁδόν,

March 1 (Sat.). Dr. Jane was buried at Christ-Church on Thursday, 10 about 4 in the Afternoon. The Funeral was very mean. He has a Relation, a Servitour of Exeter Coll., his Sister's Son, who was neither invited, nor had any Legacy left him. Dr. Code also of All-Souls Coll. (a Physitian) is related, but not invited. — On the 30th of January last was an abominable Riot committed in All-Souls College. Mr. Dalton A.M. & Mr. Talbot, son to the Bp. of Oxon, A.B. both Fellows, had a Dinner drest, at 12 Clock, part of which was woodcocks, whose Heads they cut off, in contempt of the memory of the B. Martyr. At this Dinner were present two of the Pro-Proctors, of Oriel Coll. Mr. *Ibbetson*¹ and Mr. Rogers to their shame be it spoken, both low church Men. 'Tis 20 to be noted that this Dalton, an Empty Fellow, is one of those whom the Archbp. of Cant. Dr. Tennison, put into the Society upon the Devolution to him of that Power when Dr. Finch the late Warden died. He was for having Calves-Heads, but the Cook refus'd to dress them. — When King William was in Oxon in 1695, Ant. à Wood who saw him in the Theatre resembled him to one *Hen. March 1. H. to Dr. T. Smith. Milles is to edit Hody's History of the Greek Tongue. The riot in All Souls' Buttery. Death of Dr. Jane; his legacies. Who is author of the English Translation of Tho. à Kempis (2 vols., with recommendation by Mr. Hicke)? Mr. Heywood (St. John's) has lately made much use of the MSS. of à Kempis in Bodley. Dodwell commends the part of Mill's Prolegomena already printed.

¹ Mr. Ibbetson has since told me several times that he is heartily sorry for this thing, & that he was ignorant of the whole Matter, & had not y^e least hand in carrying it on: w^{ch} perhaps may be true, he being a Man of very good sense, tho' it must be allow'd that he is a Whig.

Dr. Jane as Mr. Foulkes, & had good reason to expect a considerable Legacy from y^e Doctor, was not so much as mention'd in his will; at which Dr. Code was extremely surpriz'd, seeing Dr. Jane often gave him to understand that he would amply reward him for his pains in attending upon him in several Journeys to Gloucester and Exeter: And y^e said Dr. Code, (who has reason to believe that he was once in Dr. Jane's Will) is fully perswaded that this last will of Dr. Jane was made at the Instigation of Mr. Foulkes, and by the contrivance of Brookes the Attorney, when Dr. Jane hardly knew what he did, having in a manner quite lost to his Memory. After Dr. Jane was dead Mr. Foulkes sent for Dr. Code, & when he came to him told him that it was to undeceive him, seeing there was nothing left him in the will. He gave him mourning &c. which is all perhaps he must expect, tho 'tis said Dr. Code intends to come upon him for the Loss of his Business in attending Dr. Jane, & for Fees as a Physitian in many Journeys made with the Dr. — When the Corps of the Bp. of *Chester*¹ was carry'd from London to that place to be buried, 'twas met by five Hundred Horse, & 25 Coaches, at some Distance from y^e City of Chester, & when near the Boundaries of the City was met by the Mayor & Aldermen in their Formalities: all which is a Demonstration of their Love and Affection they had to their late Bishop. He was a Man of a good Temper and Disposition, and had the Reputation of a good Scholar. He was Fellow of Trinity Coll. in Oxon. afterwards got a Welch Deanery and some other Preferments, and a little after the Revolution was made Bp. of Chester upon the Death of Dr. Cartwright. He has printed a Disswasive from Revenge, something about the Council of Trent in answer to a part of the Guide in Controversies, some sermons & perhaps some other things.

March 8 (Sat.). One Freke, of Wadham College, (I think he took no degree) has writ a Book, call'd Essays about Learning. He was a whimsical Man. — Mr. Leigh of St. John's (commonly call'd Rabbi Leigh) of whom the Town's People of Oxon had a mighty opinion, has writ a Book call'd Horologium Christianum. He also made Additions to Prideaux's Introduction to History, which Additions I have by me in an interleav'd Book that I obtain'd from Lichfield the Printer. — Mr. Thorpe of University College is the Person who takes care of the Printing of Iter Alpium, in which there are to be several Plates, which are to be done by Subscription, to which Dr. Hudson, Dr. Woodward, Dr. Sloane, Sir Isaac Newton (who has given 8 lib^r.) & others are contributors. — Mr. Babington was enter'd Gentleman Commoner of University Coll. (under the tuition of Dr. Hudson) on Thursday last. His Grandfather Zach. Babington has publish'd a Discourse in the Law. The Master of University college (Dr. Charlett) knew him, & may give some Account of him. — The Dean of X^t Church, Dr. Aldrich, at the Request of Dr. Hudson (who is never backward in forwarding anything for the Publick) has invented & caus'd to be drawn Borders for Mr. Madox's Book about the Exchequer Court now ready for the Press.

March 9 (Sun.). Sr. Andrew Fountaine's Father is dead, & was buried the 20th of last Month. — Remember to look into Beaumont's book about Spirits conc. a Relation of Thomas Perkes of Mangorsfield's conversing with them. The Relation is also printed by itself, the Author Mr. Bedford a Divine. This Perkes died above a year since, & was very ingenious, as I have been told by some Bristol men, who knew him, who also say that he was not melancholy, but always of a chearfull Disposition. — I have heard it said by some of Christ-¹⁰ Church that Dr. Jane did not die worth above 10 or 12 thousand lib's. But this is a particular unknown, Mr. Foulkes keeping it intire to himself.

March 13 (Th.). Amongst Junius's Books num. 31. & Archbp. Laud's num. E. 65. two Books printed at Harlem. They contain Extracts out of the Apocalyps, & have wooden cuts to explain & illustrate them. They answer in a great measure to a MS^t in a thin fol. in Bibl. Bodl. B. 86. Arch. & are the first Specimens of printing at Harlem. The MS^t hath blank leaves all along & I suppose were put for a Comment as there is a German one in that of Laud's. Both the printed ones are in colours ²⁰ (as the MS^t is) and I believe were done in imitation of some MS^t from whence without doubt they were taken. In archbp. Laud's a little after the beginning is a leaf which has Pictures on both sides, different from the rest (which are only on one side) & seem to have been done with a Pen. They have a date at the bottom, viz. 1495, & 1496. At the End of Laud's there is writ 1529. at which time it seems that the MS^t Comment was writ by the Possessor of the Book. The Leaves are pasted together with a green Paint. The Signatures (there being no pages) are towards the top of the Leaf. — Among Dr. Hody's Books there are 9 Volumes in fol. of his own Collecting, in MS^t and 8 Vols. ³⁰ in 4^{to}. — The Printed Book of Junius above mention'd is not out of the Revelations, but out of several Places in Scripture, mostly Historical.

March 15 (Sat.). Francis Prasalandius, a Græcian of the Isle of Cercyra, lately a student in the Publick Library, & of Gloucester Hall, has printed a Book in the Greek Language (writ very well as I am inform'd by one of the Græcians of Glouc. Hall.) against Traditions, in which he falls upon Dr. Woodroffe very smartly. He printed another Book before this upon the same subject. . . .

March 15. H. to Dr. T. Smith. Mr. Dodwell tried to prevent Mr. Lee from becoming Philadelphian; with what effect H. cannot tell. Will be glad to see Smith's Discourse on Walt. Hilton; sends account of him from Bibliotheca Cartusiana by Theod. Petreus (Cologne, 1609, 8vo.). Hen. Cuffe assisted in ed. 1 of Longus' Pastorals, (Flor. 1598, 4to.). Not noticed by Wood. Mr. Bedford's story about Thos. Perkes of Mangorsfield confirmed (cf. Beaumont on Genii). He was in his senses to his dying day, and seemed penitent for having concerned himself in these matters. Bagford and his History of Printing; he might find several things for his purpose in the School-Tower, particularly among Mr. Twyne's notes. Remarks on various early books.

March 18 (Sun.). Dr. Charlett show'd me a Letter from Mr. Bromley wherein he intimates that in the Bill for printing sufficient care is taken of the Universitys, and that the Publick Libraries of each are to have copies of Books printed and reprinted by y^e London Booksellers. — Ponticus Varennius in Epist. Ded. ad Hist. Brit. I. [conc. Livy]. . . .

March 19 (Wed.). The following Letter sent to Dr. Wells from an unknown Hand in Oxford as appears from the Post Mark. . .

Reu^d. Doctor,—I pray leaue of your writing as you doe, that all Dissentors are Guilty of a Damnable Sin In not hereing at the Church of England, I have 10 heard seuerall of the Uniuerssitly say yow haue done more hurt then good, and I think yow are very uncharitable In Condemning all those that Doe not Conforme, I hope It Is not from malice that makes yow soe furious, Consider them words he that hateth his brother Is a murderor, I pray god to give yow Right Understanding In all things that yow may preach and write the truth as It Is In Jesus. |

Superscrib'd,

S^r Yours

To the Reuerend Doctor Wells
Leistershire.

20 — Mr. Obadiah Walker Master of University College borne at Dartfield in Yorkshire. The Rector of this Place is Mr. William Greenwood, A.M. of University-College, in which House he had a Fellowship which he resign'd yesterday. Quære about Sam. Crooke Vicar of Dartfield? He is a Cambridge Man, & in full orders, but a very novice as appears from a Letter I have seen to Mr. Greenwood, which ends thus,—For I have read & experien'd too, that that (Love) keeps the Parson from Parochial Duty, For who can at once court Religion and Beauty. and superscrib'd, To the Reverend Mr. William Greenwood | Fellow of University Coll. in Oxford. | Let this go by London. Perhaps he's there. | — Mr. Wood in 30 Athen. Oxon. Ed. II. Vol. II. col. 933. tells us Mr. Ob. Walker was born at Worsperdate near Barnesley in Yorkshire.

NOTES AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

VOL. I.

Page 1, line 1. Hearne's Catalogue was printed in The Monthly Miscellany; or, Memoirs for the Curious, Dec. 1708 and Jan. 1709 (Hope Collection 72). It forms No. XII in Catalogus Operum Thomae Hearnii. See Thoresby's Correspondence, ii. 138, 146.

1. 2. The Bodleian MS of the Anthologia astrologica of Vettius Valens (now Arch. Seld. B. 19) is described in Mr. Coxe's Catalogue as 'Codex chartaceus, in folio, ff. 1[8]6, sec. xvii., sumptibus Christophori Longoli descriptus, postea Johannis Dee.' Dr. Edward Beineard (1638-1697), whose Life was written by Dr. Thos Smith, made the acquaintance of Huet, the learned Bishop of Avranches (1630-1721), at Paris in 1676. In a letter dated Jan. 29, 1704, Hearne enquires of Dr. Smith whether Huet ever edited Vettius Valens, 'as St. Edw. Sherburn tells us (in the Appendix to his translation of Manilius) he designed.' Part of Vettius Valens is printed at p. 332 of Lydi de Mensibus ed. Roether (Lips. 1827), 'ex Jacobi Gronovii apographo, quod Creuzerus a Wyttenbachio dono acceperat.' Roether refers to Fabric Biblioth. Graec. ii. 510, and iv. pp. 144, 162, 219, ed. Harles. See Dodwell's Epistolary Discourse, pp. 245 sqq.; Dr. Bliss's note, Reliq. Hearn. I. i (1869); and Index to this vol.

1. 6. William Joyner (1622-1706), Fellow of Magdalen, resigned his fellowship and became a Roman Catholic during the Civil War, was restored by James II in 1687 and deprived in the following year. See Wood's Athenae (iv. 587 ed Bliss). According to Macaulay (History, i. 368) it is doubtful whether even Christopher Milton was ever formally received into the Church of Rome; but see Foss, Biographia Juridica, art. Milton.

1. 9. The characters of Godolphin (1645-1712) and Wharton (c. 1640-1715) have been sketched by Macaulay (i. 125 and ii. 462). A very high (probably exaggerated) estimate of the former as a financier will be found in Dr. J. H. Burton's Reign of Queen Anne (i. 35); but for those who care little for politics his memory will be ever fresh as the husband of the Margaret Blagge whose Life was written by Evelyn and first published by Bishop Wilberforce in 1847. See also Burnet, ii. 239 sq.

1. 21. Claude Saumaise (c. 1593-1653) is perhaps now best remembered by his Defensio Regia pro Carolo I. Dr. Johnson's remarks on him in the Life of Milton, and his quotation from Hobbes, are to somewhat the same effect. Hearne just below expresses a decided preference for Milton's Latinity over that of Salmasius.

1. 27. Edmund Scarborough, M.A., Prebendary of Sarum, published at Oxford from his father's MS. in 1705 The English Euclide. For Sir Charles (c. 1616-c. 1695) see Fasti Oxon. ii. 97. He left another son Charles (D.C.L. 1702), who seems to be confused with Edmund by the Dictionaries.

1. 29. The Greek Testament as edited by Dr. John Mill (c. 1645-1707), at this time Principal of Edmund Hall, was published after thirty years' labour, only fourteen days before Mill's death. The controversy which raged over this work is well known; but what is popularly but incorrectly known as Mill's text is still in great repute, and is continually reprinted. For its relation to later editions one can scarcely do better than refer to Prof. Jebb's Chapter (X.) on Bentley's proposed edition of the New Testament in his Life of the great scholar.

2. 5. Sir Geo. Mackenzie (1636-1691), founder of the Advocates' Library, published his Jus Regum in 1684. See a full account of him in Fastr. Oxon. ii. 411. The earliest edition of Buchanan's De Jure Regni in the Bodleian is dated 1580; ed. 3, 1581.

2. 10. Dr. Jonathan Edwards (1629-1712; V. C. 1689-91) published his Preservative in four Parts, 1693-1703, and the Index was compiled by Hearne himself. Dr. John Edwards (1637-1716), sometime fellow of St. John's, Cambridge, published Part I of The Preacher in 1705, and Part II 1706.

2. 14 sqq. I can find no separate edition of the Fragmenta Sallustii by Popma; but see his Fragmenta veterum historicorum Latinorum (1620). Nor was a second edition of Dodwell on Occasional Communion ever published, if we may accept as complete the bibliography prefixed by Hearne to Dodwell's De Parma Equestri Woodwardiana Dissertatio (1713).

2. 19. Selden xi 2 is thus described in Mr. Coxe's Catalogue: 'Philonis Judaei de specialibus legibus, quae referuntur ad tria Decalogi capita, octavum, nonum et decimum, ac de furto non faciendo, de falso testimonio non dicendo, ac de non concupiscendo, tum de iis, quae ad haec singula referuntur; denique de justitia praeceptis decem universis congruente.' The whole MS. is of the 11th century.

2. 24. This MS. is now catalogued Cod. Barocc. 38. J. W. Berger (d. 1751) does not appear to have ever carried out the intention here attributed to him, but the Scholia were printed in Jebb's edition of Aristides (Oxford: 1722-30).

2. 29. Hearne's edition of Livy, with which he was at this time engrossed, was published at Oxford in 1708 in 6 vols. 8vo.

2. 36. D. G. Morhof published ed. 1 of his Polyhistor at Lübeck in 1688, and his De Patavinitate Liviana Liber in 1685. The late Mr. Mark Pattison (utinam abesset infaustum illud nuper!) says of Salmasius' Latin that it 'was all the more readable because it was not classical or idiomatic' (Milton, p. 106).

2. 38. Sir James Astry, of Woodend, Harlington, Beds. (B.C.L. 1677), one of the Masters in Chancery, corrected ed. 3 of Spelman's Glossarium Archæologicum (1687), and prefixed a Memoir of the author. He likewise published (1700) a translation of Faxardo's Royal Politician represented in Emblems Isaac Vossius (b. 1618), son of Gerard, was appointed Canon of Windsor 1673, and died at his lodgings in the Castle in 1688, 'leaving then behind him,' says Evelyn in his letter to Pepys of Aug. 12, 1689, 'the best private library, as it was then supposed, in the whole world,' which was purchased and carried away by the University of Leiden. Bentley likewise negotiated for its purchase on behalf of the University of Oxford: see Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 21 sq., Jebb's Bentley, 8.

3. 2. The Memorial of the Church of England, which had the honour of being denounced in a message from the Queen, and which recurs so often in these Collections, was written by Dr. James Drake and H. Pooley, M.P. for Ipswich, whose names are mentioned as joint authors in the Preface to the edition of 1711. See Boyer, Reign of Queen Anne, 178 sqq., 210; Life of Calamy, ii. 35; and Dr. Bliss's note, Reliq. Hearne. i. pp. 2 sqq. Some particulars of the life of Drake will be found in D'Israeli's Calamities of Authors. The great Minister of State was of course Godolphin, who is alluded to in the Memorial as Volpone.

3. 14. William Dugard (1605-1662), M.A. Camb. 1630, printer, and head-master of Merchant Taylors' School (1644), secured a measure of immortality by his connexion with the printing and publication of the Eikon Basilike (see Wagstaffe's Vindication, ed. 3, p. 107). The productions of his press are noticeable for their comparative accuracy and somewhat pedantic spelling. His Lexicon Graeci Testamenti Alphabeticum was published in 1660. He was a Latin poet of some pretensions.

3. 16. The first complete version of the Bible in Spanish, by Cassiodoro Reyna, was published in 4to. in 1569. It is commonly called The Bear's Bible from the printer's device on the title-page. See Ebert, i. 180.

3. 22. Dr. Benj. Woodroffe, Canon of Christ Church, whose eccentricities will be familiar to the readers of Prideaux' Letters to Ellis, was Principal of Gloucester Hall 1692-1711. He 'had the care of the Greek youths. He published a Greek pamphlet, like Greek funeral inscriptions. In 1703, The Case of Gloucester-hall, in Oxford, rectifying the false stating thereof, without title or date.' [This was really by John Baron but anonymous.] Noble's Continuation of Granger, i. 97. For further particulars of Dr. Woodroffe and his 'Greek youths,' the reader may be referred to Wordsworth, Social Life at the English Universities, pp. 324 sq.; G. Williams, Orthodox Church in the 18th Century, pp. xviii sqq.; the Rev. E. S. Ffoulkes in Union Review, 1863 (no. xvii. of 'Fragmenta Varia' and Article xxxiii); Pearson, Chaplains to the Levant Company, 43 sq.; Fifth Report of Hist. MSS. Comm. 377; Wood's Life 283, &c.

3. 33. Timothy Nourse, Fellow of University from 1658 till his secession to the Church of Rome in 1673 (Athenae Oxon. iv. 448). See Wood's story of his re-conversion and relapse, Life, p. 198.

3. 45. Wood has a very laudatory notice of Andrew Allam (1655-1685) in Athenae Oxon. iv. 174, culminating in the remark that 'nothing but Years and Experience were wanting, to make him a compleat walking Library.' Dr. Kennett never published his collections on the subject here referred to, which are preserved in vol. 935 of the Lansdown Collection in the British Museum, under the title of 'Diptycha Ecclesiae Anglicanae: sive Tabulae Sacrae,' &c

4. 2. Peter King, afterwards Lord King and Chancellor of England (1669-1733), published his History of the Apostles' Creed in 1702. He had previously written (1691-2) An Enquiry into the Constitution, Discipline, Unity, and Worship of the Primitive Church (answered by Sclater the non-juror); but the book here alluded to, if projected, never saw the light. See Foss, Biographia Juridica, art. King. For some interesting particulars of King's earlier life, the reader may be referred to Mr. Fox Bourne's Life of his kinsman John Locke, passim.

4. 5. Sir John Osborn, Bart., of Chicksand, Beds. (1659-1720).

4. 34. The story of Jonas Proast (or Provast). M.A. 1666, Chaplain of All Souls, and his ten years' struggle with the Warden, Dr. Leopold Finch, on his wrongful dismissal, ending in Proast's final victory, is told in Prof. Burrows' Worthies of All Souls, pp. 308 sqq. He was Archdeacon of Berks 1698-1710.

4. 50. The Dyet of Poland (Pamph. 260), Dantzick (= London), 4to., is attributed in the Bodleian Catalogue to Defoe; while a reply, The Dyet of Poland, a satyr, consider'd paragraph by paragraph, is bound up with Dunton's tracts.

5. 1. William Wotton (1666-1726) was, according to Chalmers, 'admitted of Catharine Hall, Cambridge, in April 1676, some months before he was ten years old; and upon his admission Dr. John Eachard, then Master of the College, gave him this remarkable testimony: Gulielmus Wottonus infra decem annos nec Hammondo nec Grotio secundus.' His part in the Phalaris controversy is well known: see Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 9; Swift's Battle of the Books, &c.

5. 6. George Keith, a voluminous writer himself and the cause of voluminous writing in others, the friend of Fox (see the Diary passim) and Penn, and tutor of Barclay, left the Quakers in 1694, and was in 1702 presented to the living of Edburton, near Shoreham. See Bickley's George Fox and the Early Quakers, pp. 351 sqq.; Sewel, History of the . . . Quakers, ii. 493 &c.; Burton, Book-Hunter (1885), 189; infra pp. 15 sq.

5. 26. William Stratford, d. 1729, was likewise Archdeacon of Richmond. He was a benefactor to the Library of Ch. Ch. His monument, together with that of Dr. Antony Radcliffe, Canon 1681-1705, and founder of Peckwater Quadrangle, is in the Cathedral. See Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, 495, 499. There is an error in Le Neve-Hardy, ii. 531, where the date of Radcliffe's death is given as 1703.

5. 53. The writer of the article 'St. Anthony,' in the Dictionary of Christian Biography, holds that the Life is by St. Athanasius, but is probably interpolated.

6. 10. For leather money see Notes and Queries, 1st Ser., vol. vii. 137 (quoting Camden's Remaines, art. Money), 366.

6. 32. Sir Andrew Fountaine, of Narford, Norfolk, contributed an article entitled 'Numismata Anglo-Saxonica et Anglo-Danica' to Hickeys' Thesaurus. Hearn dedicated to him his edition of Justin (1705). In the course of his travels he amassed large collections of articles of virtù, which were dispersed so recently as June 1884 at Messrs. Christie's. He is repeatedly mentioned by Swift in the Journal to Stella. In 1727 he was appointed Warden of the Mint, and retained that office till his death in 1753. See Nichols' Bowyer, p. 110. He is often mentioned in these Collections. For a letter from him to Hearn, see Academy, June 21, 1884, p. 439.

6. 35. J. Burman (M.A. 1704), afterwards Vicar of Newington, Kent, was stepson of Dr. Plot (1640-1696), who married his mother Rebecca, widow of Henry Burman, in 1690.

6. 48. See Chronique de la Traïson et Mort de Richart deux Roy dengleterre, ed. Benj. Williams (London: 1846), and Preface. Cf. Nicolson, English Historical Library, p. 81; Hardy's Descriptive Catalogue of Materials, i. 871. The British Museum MS was edited with translation by J. Webb, M.A., in 1819.

7. 13. Samuel Parker, eldest son of the Bishop of Oxford of the same name, author of the Bibliotheca Biblica, and editor of various ecclesiastical historians, died in 1733. Some account of him will be found in Lathbury's History of the Nonjurors, 374.

7. 17. Various memoranda of Hearne's relating to Antony Wood are brought together at the end of Wood's Life (ed. 1848). Wood was constantly during life suspected of an inclination to the doctrines and practices of the Roman Church. So in 1674 Humphrey Prideaux wrote to Ellis (Corresp., Camden Soc. p. 15): 'Tony Wood, our antiquary, having pored so long on old monkish stories, at last dotes on them and is turned Papist.' See also Wood's own remarks in the Life, 178, 207, &c.

7. 36. Evelyn, Earl of Kingston, created Marquis of Dorchester 1706, Duke of Kingston 1715, held various high offices of state under George I. Henry Earl of Kent became Lord Chamberlain April 23, 1704; Marquis of Kent 1706; and Duke of Kent 1710.

8. 1. See the Ox. . . d Dialogue. Between a Master of Arts and a Stranger. London, 1705 (Gough, Oxf. 113).

8. 10. The reference is to Clarendon, Book IV, § 44.

8. 12. For particulars of Dr. Radcliffe's favours to Obadiah Walker, of which Hearne will tell us more hereafter, see Pittis' racy Life of the great physician. Walker was indebted to Dr. Radcliffe for his tombstone in St. Pancras Churchyard, which bore the touching inscription, PER BONAM FAMAM ET PER INFAMIAM.

8. 14. Jas. Badger (New Coll., M.A. 1686) was master of New College School. See Wood's Life, p. 302.

8. 20. If infamy could kill—Oates is justly characterised by Hume as 'the most infamous of mankind'—the inventor of the Popish Plot would scarcely have survived to the ripe age of 85. Probably his last public appearance was at Westminster Hall in 1702 for scandalising and assaulting Mrs. Eleanor James (Selections from the Sommers Tracts, 606 sqq.).

8. 34. Luttrell (Brief Relation, July 19, 1705) writes:—'The close of last week Monsieur Hugueton, the French banker, who came lately from Paris, was examined at Guildhall upon a writ of enquiry for the queen, and deposed, that since the war he had remitted to the French army in Flanders and Italy the sum of 4,210,520*l.*; and further deposed, that since November last he had given out bills to several bankers of Paris in his own hand for 4 millions of livres for the use above; half of which was paid, and the other half in safe hands here, which her majesty may have when she pleases, and amounts to 105,263*l.*' For the cause of his flight see ib. vol. v. pp. 513, 569.

8. 38. Sam. Swynfen, Pemb., B.A. 1699; New Inn Hall, M.A. 1702; B.M. 1706; Pemb. D.M. 1712.

9. 1. For Richard James (1592-1638), nephew of Thomas James, the first Librarian of the Bodleian, see the amusing Life in Athenae Oxon. ii. 629. He had the honour to be described by Selden in the Preface to Marmora Arundeliana as 'vir multijugae doctrinae studique indefatigabilis;' and to be the friend and librarian of Sir Robert Cotton, with whom he was a fellow-prisoner in the Tower (1629) when these verses were written, under circumstances described in Mr. S. R. Gardiner's History of England, vii. pp. 139 sqq. His MSS. passed into the hands of Greaves, and from him into the Bodleian (Macray, Annals, 103). The Rev. A. B. Grosart has edited part of his works.

9. 15. This allusion to Calanus is explained by Dr. Bliss ad loc., who quotes Arrian, vii. 2.

9. 26. For an account of this action see Stanhope's Reign of Queen Anne, i. 203, and Boyer, pp. 196 sqq.; and for the proceedings in the Parliament at Edinburgh, Stanhope, i. 224; Boyer, 184.

9. 37. This book is described in Ballard's Memoirs, pp. 14 sqq.
9. 43. The Antiquities of Middlesex, by John Bownack, never got beyond the second Number, the public agreeing with Charlett's and Hearne's opinion of its merits. A copy in the Bodleian has MS notes by Dr. Rawlinson.
9. 46. Abednego Seller's Life is in the Athenae, iv. 563. He is now best remembered as the author of The Devout Communicant.
10. 20 sqq. Thomas Bisse, M.A. 1698, afterwards Chancellor and Prebendary of Hereford, ob. 1731; William Tilly, M.A. 1697, and Rector of Albury, near Rycot. Tilly's Sermon was quoted by Bp. Burnet in the 'Church in danger' debate; Boyer, 217.
10. 46. A copy of the inscription on Dr. Busby's monument is appended to Wood's biography of him in Dr. Bliss's edition of the Athenae. Mr. Lewis Southcombe, Rector of Rose-Ash, Devon, is described as a 'Penitent' in Appendix VI to the Life of Kettlewell.
11. 2. Joseph Woodward, D.C.L. 1687.
11. 5. Abraham Woodhead (1608-1678), one of the most estimable of the converts of that period to Roman Catholicism, was somewhat absurdly put forward as the author of The Whole Duty of Man. (See Athenae, iii. 1157.) His controversial works were, for the most part, printed posthumously by Obadiah Walker at his private Press in University College. The books so produced generally bear the head of King Alfred on the title-page.
11. 18. Edmund Perkes of CCC, M.A. 1697; he is described as 'of Cambridge' in the Bodleian Printed Catalogue. Hearne records his death in 1706. Wm. Buckeridge, mentioned just below, was M.A. in 1688.
11. 35. Particulars of Bodley's Agreement with the Stationers' Company are given at pp. 30 sqq. of Macray's Annals of the Bodleian.
11. 40. Samuel Wesley (c. 1666-1735) was the father of two more famous sons. He was presented to the living of Epworth, Linc., c. 1693; and in 1705 printed a poem on the Battle of Blenheim, as a reward for which he was appointed by the Duke of Marlborough chaplain of Col. Lepelle's regiment. This preferment he lost for the reasons here stated; and by two incendiary fires he was reduced to poverty, and was thrown into a debtors' prison, from which he was delivered by a public subscription. The Life of Christ: an Heroic Poem, was first published in folio in 1693; reprinted with additions, &c., 1697. See Nichols' Lit. Anec. v. 212 sqq.; Southey's Life of Wesley, i. 6 sqq.; Stevens' History of the Life and Times of John Wesley, chap. ii.; Index to Rawlinson MSS.
11. 47. 'Pereonite' is, I suppose, equivalent to Perkinite, Perkin being an uncomplimentary nickname for the Pretender, containing a delicate allusion to Perkin Warbeck. See e.g. a quotation from a tract of 1690 in Abbey and Overton's English Church in the 18th Century, i. 53; ib. p. 77, a quotation from Leslie an. 1710, 'All the last reign they gave the Pretender no other name than Perkin and Impostor.'
12. 4. The Memorial . . . answered Paragraph by Paragraph is attributed in a MS. note in the Bodleian copy to 'Dr. Pittis's son.' For other replies, see Bodleian Catalogue.
12. 6. James Perizonius (Voorbroek), 1651-1715, was Professor at Franeker and at Leiden, editor of Q. Curtius and Aelian, and author of various works on classical literature, history, and chronology, &c.
12. 48. Humphrey Hody (1659-1706), Regius Professor of Greek, and benefactor of Wadham, published his work, De biblitorum textibus originalibus, versionibus graecis et Latina vulgata, in 1705. He was distinguished as a scholar at an early age; so that Isaac Vossius characterised him as 'juvenis Oxoniensis' in criticising his dissertation Contra historiam Aristaeae, published in 1684.
13. 4. Of Thomas Milles, who is frequently confounded by Hearne's correspondents with Dr. Mill, we shall hear a good deal in the sequel. He was M.A. 1695, succeeded Hody as Professor of Greek in 1706, was consecrated Bishop of Waterford 1708, died 1740. His edition of St. Cyril was published at Oxford in folio 1703.
13. 25. Dr. Henry James, M.A. 1667, President of Queens' Coll., Cam., Bentley's immediate predecessor in the Regius Chair of Divinity, Prebendary of Canterbury

1705, d. 1717.—Zaccheus Isham, M.A. 1674, chaplain to Compton, Bishop of London, Rector of St. Botolph's Bishopsgate, and Canon of Canterbury 1691, published some Sermons and a Treatise on the Catechism (Athen. Oxon. iv. 654).

13. 32. Patrick Young (1584–1652) was library-keeper to James I and Charles I, and the friend of Selden and of all the scholars of his time. Dr. T. Smith published his biography in his Vitae quorundam eruditissimorum et illustrium virorum (1707).

13. 44. Halley (1656–1742) had succeeded Dr. Wallis as Savilian Professor of Geometry in 1703. David Gregory (1661–1708) was elected Savilian Professor of Astronomy in 1691. An uncomplimentary remark by Roger Cotes will be found at vol. i. p. 259 of Rigaud's Correspondence of Scientific Men; and particulars of Gregory's death in Letters from the Bodleian, vol. i. pp. 176 sqq., together with Sir Isaac Newton's testimonial in his favour on his candidature for the Savilian Professorship.

14. 22. Dr. John Earle (1601–1665), after the Restoration successively Dean of Westminster and Bishop of Worcester and Salisbury, was the author of the well-known Microcosmographie, which was edited with notes by Dr. Bliss in 1811, and has recently been reprinted by Mr. Arber. He was likewise the author of the Latin translation of the Eikon Basilike, published at the Hague 1649 (12mo.). See Walton's Lives, 'Hooker' (vol. i. pp. 326–7, ed. 1805).

14. 30. For the Friendly Debate between a Conformist and a Nonconformist (1668), see Patrick's Autobiography (1839), pp. 59 sqq.

14. 31. The proposed Latin translation of Greaves' two treatises was, I believe, never executed. See Ward's Lives of the Gresham Professors, 146 sq. There was a French translation in 1663.

14. 34. It was, according to Walton (Lives, vol. ii. p. 204), the Eikon Basilike that Sanderson designed to translate; 'but when he had done half of it most excellently, his friend Dr. Earle prevented him, by appearing to have done the whole very well before him.'

14. 41. The full title of this book, together with a third memorandum by Hearne himself, dated Aug. 22, 1707, is given by Dr. Bliss in Reliq. Hearn. i. 14.

VOL. II.

15. 36. W. Marten, M.A. 1630.

16. 23. For a Catalogue of Dr. Dee's MSS, see his Private Diary (Camden Soc.), pp. 65 sqq.; and for his life and works, the biography in Smith's Vitae.

16. 25. This is now included in Cod. Barocc. xv (f. 22). It is printed in the Works of St. Chrysostom, v. 539.

17. 2. John Thorpe (1682–1750), B.A. 1701, F.R.S. 1705, published a volume of Scheuchzer's Itinera Alpina in 1708. He practised as a physician at Rochester, and devoted his leisure hours to the study of the antiquities of that city and of the county of Kent. His Registrum Roffense was published by his son of the same name in 1769.

17. 6. The book referred to is entitled, Some remarkable passages in the holy Life and Death of the Rev. E. T., most of them drawn out of his own Diary, by Joseph Boyse. There is an analysis of it in Calamy-Palmer, Nonconformist's Memorial, ii. 449 sqq. Boyse will be familiar to all readers of Thoresby's Diary and Correspondence.

17. 11. J. W. de Berger, d. 1751, was Professor of Eloquence at Wittemberg; and his brother, J. G. de Berger, d. 1736, an eminent physician and author of Physiologia Medica, &c. A third brother, J. H. de Berger, was Professor of Law at Wittemberg. J. A. Fabricius published his Bibliotheca Graeca at Hamburg in 14 vols. 1705–1728; ed. 2 of his Bibliotheca Latina in 1708: his projected ed. of Eusebius does not appear to have ever seen the light.

17. 37. The reference is to The Ladies' Calling, part ii. sect. i. par. 3. The fact that Woodhead was a Roman Catholic is, as Ballard remarks, almost sufficient of itself to put him out of court as the author of a series of works so obviously Anglican as those of the writer of The Whole Duty of Man.

17. 39. A full account of the extraordinary impostor George Psalmanaazaar (d. 1763, ætat. 83), taken from his own Memoirs, will be found in the Dictionaries. He is said to have been convinced of the error of his ways by reading Law's Serious Call. Dr. Johnson had a very great liking for his society, and used to 'sit with him at an alehouse in the city;' he 'reverenced him for his piety, and would as soon have thought of contradicting a Bishop.' See also Napier's Johnsoniana, p. 72; Mrs Piozzi had heard Johnson say that 'his piety, penitence, and virtue exceeded almost what we read as wonderful even in the lives of saints.'

17. 43. Cf. Luttrell, v. 576: 'Tuesday last died the Right Hon. Phillip, Earl of Leicester, at his seat of Penchurch, in Kent, aged about 27, and succeeded in honour and estate by his brother, John Sydney, Esq., M P. for Brackley.' Tilney was twice returned for Whitchurch, and twice unseated on petition, in 1708.

18. 16. The reference is to Hearne's ed. of Livy, vol. vi. p. 259. For 'promis'd' (line 11) read 'procu'd.'

18. 38. Apollonii De sectione Rationis libri duo ex Arabico MS., Lat. versi; accedunt ejusdem de sectione Spatii libri duo Lat. restituti . . . opera Edm. Halleii was published at the Sheldonian Theatre in 1706.

18. 41. The exact title of Prideaux' great work was to be The History of the Ruin of the Eastern Church. His subsequent publications were of minor importance till the appearance of Part I of his Connection in 1715. See Life of Prideaux, 98 sqq.

19. 3. For a short account of Guiscard's previous career, see Boyer, pp. 244 sq., and Burnet's Own Time, vi. 37 sqq. He afterwards attained greater notoriety by his attempt on Harley's life. See references in Index to Scott's ed. of Swift.

19. 10. Tanner was at work on Leland so early as 1695 (see Thoresby's Correspondence, i. 211, 238 and Index to Tanner MSS.), but part of the work ultimately fell into the hands of the 'all-editing Hearne,' as he is styled by Prof. Burrows, while the de Scripturis was edited by Ant. Hall in 1709, who published Boston in 1722. Charlett's pathetic account of Wood's dying gift of these materials to Tanner is printed in the Life, p. 321. Tanner's edition (the second or 'spurious' one of the Athenae) was published in 1721.

19. 17. Dr. Thomas Wood, New Coll., D.C.L. 1703, was the eldest son of Wood's third brother, Robert, by his wife, Mary Drope. For particulars of the Vindication (which is prefixed to ed. 2 of the Athenae), and of the Appendix to Pope's Life of Bp. Seth Ward, see Wood's Life, p. 293 and n. Frequent mention will be found of James Tyrrell, grandson of Archbp. Ussher, in Fox Bourne's Life of Locke.

19. 37. Dorothy Lady Pakington's claim to the authorship of The Whole Duty of Man is best stated by Ballard, Memoirs of Learned Ladies, pp. 316 sqq.; but her case is a very weak one. The best résumé of the whole controversy is that contributed by Mr. Solly to the Bibliographer for August, 1882; and perhaps I may be permitted to refer to my articles in the Academy, vol. xxii. pp. 348, 364, 382, where I have advocated the Allestree-Fell authorship.

19. 39. Francis Willoughby's (1635-1672) Ornithologia was published posthumously by Ray in 1676, and in English in 1678.

19. 41. Mr. Ellis, of Isleworth, reckoned among his pupils Theobald, the Shakespearean Commentator, and both the sons of Archbishop Sharp. The Archbishop, however, withdrew his son 'who then only remained with him,' as soon as he was informed that Mr. Ellis had refused to take the oath' (Life of Sharp, i. 269). Cf. Boyer, 217.

20. 1 sqq. For these events, cf. Luttrell, v. 577 sqq.

20. 12. See Dr. Bliss's note on this Bible, Reliq. Hearne, i. 11 sq.

20. 44. Ridley was consecrated Sept. 25, 1547 (Stubbs, Registr. Sac. Angl.).

21. 9. Sir Edmund Wareupp, nephew of Speaker Lenthall, was a Captain in the Parliamentary Army; D.C.L. 1670; knighted in 1684. This narrative was finally bequeathed to the Bodleian by Ballard (Macray's Annals, p. 187 and n.). Sir Edward Walker's Historical Collections appeared in folio, London, 1705.

21. 24. The present press-mark of this MS. is 'Bodley 956.'

21. 48. Read, the oculist, is mentioned in the Spectator, Nos. 472, 547. See Swift's Journal to Stella, April 11, 1711; Noble's Continuation of Granger, ii. 231; and Tatler (Nichols' ed.), vi. 60 sqq. His knighthood was conferred upon him 'in consideration of his good services done by restoring to sight gratis great numbers of seamen and soldiers.' Edward Harnes (Athenae, iv. 667), Ch. Ch., D.M. 1695, succeeded Dr. Plot as Reader in Chemistry in 1690, and died 1710. See an account of a stratagem of his to get into practice in London in the Life of Radcliffe, p. 37 (ed. 1715). He was a contributor to the Musae Anglicanae, and a benefactor to Westminster School.

22. 5. Cf. Luttrell, v. 561, 577, 582. The soldier was named Joseph Dalton, and Major Winsley was accused of abetting him to murder McLennan, who was supporting Sir John Jennings against Col. Crawford, a 'Tacker,' as candidate for Queenborough.

22. 28 J. G. Pritz (1662-1732) wrote an Introduction to the Reading of the N T. and a work De Immortalitate Animae, and published editions of the Greek Testament, of St. Macarius, and of the letters of Milton. The term 'Superintendent' (or 'Senior'), almost = bishop, is explained in the Life of Sharp, i. 404.

23. 12 For Dodwell's refusal to take holy orders and consequent resignation of his fellowship at Trinity Coll., Dublin, see the Life by Brokesby, pp. 23-25. We are told that Jeremy Taylor offered to procure him a dispensation to continue him in his fellowship, which Dodwell declined.

23. 22. Dr. Wake, Dean of Exeter 1702, afterwards Archbp. of Canterbury, was consecrated Bishop of Lincoln, October 21, 1705. Dr. Launcelot Blackburn was installed Dean of Exeter, Nov. 3, 1705, and promoted to the Bishopric in 1717. Sir Jonathan Trelawny was the occupant of the See at this time.

24. 40. The date of the Bodleian copy of this fraudulent edition of Alex. Sardus' Liber de Nummis is 1685. The genuine work was originally published at Mainz, 1579.

25. 4. Cf. Marshall, Early History of Woodstock Manor, p. 259.

25. 14. The author of An Essay towards a Proposal for Catholic Communion was Dr. Joshua Bassett, Carus, M.A. 1665, Master of Sidney-Sussex, 1686-1688. He was deprived in the latter year as a Roman Catholic. There is a brief summary of this controversy in the Life of Sharp, i. 61 sq. See Index to Tanner MSS.

25. 15. Of Edward Stephens, a very interesting character among the early non-jurors, we shall hear much in the sequel. See note on p. 95, l. 33.

25. 41. For an exposition of Grabe's views with regard to the expediency of prayers for the dead, &c., the reader may be referred to Lathbury's Nonjurors, pp. 301-2. See also Secretan's Life of Nelson, 220 sqq.

26. 10. Bonaventure Giffard was elected by King James's fellows President of Magdalen, March 1688, and removed in the October following. He was arrested after the Revolution, but released on condition of transporting himself beyond sea. He published one or two Sermons. He is mentioned, Life of Frampton, 157.

26. 13. For this fire in St. Clement's Lane, see Luttrell v. 580.

27. 6. Richard Tenison, Bp. of Killala 1681, Clogher 1691, Meath 1697 (see Cotton, Fasti Eccl. Hib. iii. 120 sq.).

27. 10. This letter is No. XXXV in Hearne's Catalogue of Dodwell's works.

27. 18. Hans Sloane's Voyage to the Islands Madera, Barbados, Nieves, St. Christopher's, and Jamaica, with the Natural History, was published in 2 vols. folio; Vol. i. 1707, Vol. ii. 1725.

27. 22. Drusius (John Driessche, 1550-1616) was professor of Oriental languages successively at Oxford, Leiden and Franeker. He published a large number of treatises, chiefly on points of Hebrew scholarship, most of which are included in the Criticæ Sacri. His correspondence was very voluminous. See Athenae, ii. 159; Fasti, i. 188. He was B.A. (Merton) 1572, M.A. 1573. For his son (Ch. Ch., B.A. 1605), see Fasti, i. 304. Sir Thomas Bodley resided at the Hague except for one or two brief intervals from 1588-1597. There is a Latin letter from Drusius to Bodley among the Harleian MSS.

VOL. III.

Page 27, line 31. Dr Peter Allix (1641-1717), who settled in England on the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, never published his projected History of the Councils, which was to occupy seven volumes. Full particulars of his life and writings will be found in the article devoted to him in the Dictionary of National Biography, i. 334.

27. 36. Nathaniel Spinckes (d. 1727, aged 73) was one of Collier's chief opponents on the subject of the 'Usages' (see Lathbury's Nonjurors, p. 365). His life was written by John Blackbourne. He was a friend of Nelson, and was entrusted with the management of the fund raised by the deprived Bishops (Secretan, 68 sq.). Beside this answer to Bassett, he wrote against the 'new prophets;' and his Sick Man Visited was long held in high repute.

28. 9. Under Sept 12, 1699, Luttrell records: 'Norton Pawlet, esq., a gentleman of 2000*l.* per annum, is married to a daughter of Sir Charles Morley;' and he mentions a report of his death June 12, 1705.

28. 14. Neville was Recorder of Bath, knighted 1681, Baron of the Exchequer 1685; dismissed, 1686; re-appointed, 1689; Justice of the Common Pleas, 1691. 'He seems to have acted an honest and independent part on the Bench.' Biographia Juridica, 479.

28. 32. Capt Charles Hatton will be familiar as the brother of Lord Hatton, and son-in-law of Chief-Justice Scroggs, to readers of the Hatton Correspondence, edited by Mr. E. Maunde Thompson for the Camden Society. He was a friend of Fell, Pepys, Evelyn, &c., and a strong Jacobite. He was sent to the Tower in 1690 (Clarendon's Diary 252). See Index to Tanner MSS.

28. 39. William the Third's unsuccessful attempt to confer on Portland Crown lands in Denbighshire of the value of over 100,000*l.* is mentioned by Macaulay (ii. 555); who remarks of Gloria Cambriae; or Speech of a Bold Briton against a Dutch Prince of Wales (1702) that this speech of Price, 'the bold Briton,' was probably never spoken, and that [Curll's] Life of the late Hon. Robert Price (1734) is 'a miserable performance, full of blunders and anachronisms.' An analysis of this Life will be found in Chalmers, and full particulars of Price's honourable and consistent career in Foss, Biographia Juridica, 538-9. He died in 1732, aged 78.

29. 6. An abstract of Dr. Ralph Bathurst's will (proved June 16, 1704) is given by Warton in his Life of Bathurst, 191 sqq. Bathurst left to the Bodleian the portraits of South and Allestree, and such medals as were wanting in the collection.

29. 29. William Beveridge (1637-1708), Prebendary of Canterbury 1684, and Bishop of St. Asaph 1704, had refused to accept the bishopric of Bath and Wells in succession to Ken on the deprivation of the latter in 1691 (Life of Ken, by a Layman, p. 386). As to his life there was, pace Dr. Mill, only one opinion; but an unfavourable view of his works and of their tendency was put forth in a pamphlet (1711) entitled A Short View of Dr. Beveridge's Writings. See Baker-Mayor, History of St. John's, 703 sqq.

29. 46. Nicolson has some remarks on the Chronicon Lichfeldense in his Eng. Hist. Lib. 132.

30. 3. Dr. Edward Young, Dean of Salisbury 1702-1705, died Aug. 9 in the latter year, and was succeeded by Dr. John Younger.

30. 5. Mr. Fox Bourne points out in the Preface to his Life of Locke (p. v), that Le Clerc's Éloge de M. Locke was itself little more than a translation of two letters addressed to him by Lord Shaftesbury (author of the Characteristics) and Lady Masham. The English translation was first issued in 1706, and afterwards, with corrections, by Curll in 1713 (8vo).

30. 6. Thomas Rymer, historiographer royal, published Vol. I of the Fœdera in 1704, and 15 volumes had appeared at the time of his death in 1713. He began his literary career as a poet; and his View of the Tragedies of the Last Age drew upon him general derision, Macaulay going so far as to characterise him as 'the worst critic that ever lived.' His view of the Phalaris controversy is given in Jebb's Bentley, 63.

30. 16. Thomas Wagstaffe (1645-1712), Chancellor of Lichfield 1684, and consecrated suffragan Bishop of Ipswich by the non-juring Bishops in the presence of Henry Earl of Clarendon, is now probably best remembered as the defender of the authenticity of Eikon Basilike. See some particulars concerning him in Lathbury's Nonjurors, pp. 228 sq. A letter from Dr. Radcliffe to Bp. Lloyd of Norwich, covering bills for 500*l.* for the use of 'the poor suffering clergy,' is printed at p. 48 of the Life of Radcliffe. Some of the Royalist clergy under the Commonwealth, e.g. Bathurst, had similarly taken to the practice of medicine.

30. 24. Cherry did not long survive Dodwell, and the Life of the latter was written by Francis Brokesby, with a Dedication to Nelson, and published in 1715.

30. 43. Benjamin Cole, bookbinder and engraver, had been familiar with Antony Wood: see extract from Hearne in Wood's Life, 338.

31. 5. Francis Godwin (1561-1633), Bishop of Llandaff and Hereford, author of Rerum Anglicanarum Annales, Henrico VIII., Edw. VI et Maria regnantibus, and of the well-known Catalogue of all the Bishops of England, &c. His Man in the Moon, to which Swift was indebted, was published posthumously in 1638; and his Nuncius Inanimatus appeared with the imprint 'In Utopia' in 1629, and confessedly suggested Bp. Wilkins' Mercury (see 'To the Reader,' ed. 1802, II. xi). Dr. Thos. Smith published his translation of the Nuncius, together with The Man in the Moon, in 1657.

31. 8. These poems are not now ascribed to Matthew Prior, if it is he who is intended here. They are generally attributed to William Shippen (1672-1743): see Noble, iii 243 sqq.

31. 13. William Lloyd (1627-1717), Bishop of St. Asaph 1680, of Lichfield 1692, and of Worcester 1699, had long devoted his attention to the interpretation of prophecy: see Evelyn's Diary, April 26, 1689, and May 18, 1690 (where we read of his dealings with two fugitive ministers of the Vaudois, cf. infra); and that he continued to take a keen interest in the subject is proved by Swift's reference to him in the Journal to Stella, July 1, 1712. His works were mainly chronological. His Exposition of the Prophecy of Seventy Weeks remained imperfect. See letters in Life of Prideaux, 238 sqq. The Terrae-Filius of 1703 styles him 'pseudopropheta canus.'

31. 28. Boyer records (p. 198): 'It was even whisper'd at Court, That the Thanksgiving Day would not have been solemnized, but for the good News, which, at this very juncture, was brought from Prince Eugene's Army, and for which the Guns of the Tower were fired.'

32. 4. With this compare Wood's own story in the Life, p. 182, how 'Dr. Bathurst told me that he was told that I was used to listen at the common chamber [of Trinity], and elsewhere, and that I never spoke well of any man.'

33. 16. Thomas Gylby, St. John's, B.A. 1696; All Souls, B.C.L. 1703.—William Hayley was Dean of Chichester 1699-1715; and Thomas Hayley held the same Deanery 1735-9.

33. 26. For the Battle of Cassano, see Life of Prince Eugene (1741), pp. 195 sq.

33. 41. Abel Evans, M.A. 1699.

34. 4. Henry Wharton (1664-1695) published his Enthusiasm of the Church of Rome demonstrated in some Observations on the Life of Ignatius Loyola anonymously in 1688.

34. 12. Francis Fox was Prebendary of Salisbury 1713-1738. He published two sermons—one on the lawfulness of oaths in 1710.

35. 23. Dr. Welbore Ellis was translated to Meath 1731 and died 1733. Dr. Moreton was his predecessor in the see of Kildare (Cotton's Fasti, ii. 45).

35. 30. The Rehearsal (extending to 398 Nos. in all) was by Charles Leslie, and was written 'to combat the principles of Tutchin, Defoe, and the rest of "the Scandalous Club," as they were not ashamed to call themselves.' No. 1 appeared Aug 5, 1704. Catalogue of the Hope Collection, p. 13. (Some extracts from it are given in the Life and Writings of Charles Leslie, by the Rev. R. J. Leshe, 377 sqq., &c.) I do not find a paper called The Review of the Rehearsal either in this Catalogue or in Nichols' Lit. Anecd.

35. 34. A Cat may look on a Queen was by John Dunton (1659-1733): see Lit. Anecd. v. 76. His Life and Errors was edited by Nichols in 1818, and an analysis is given in the Lit. Anecd. v. 59-83.

85. 39. John Rogers succeeded Bp. Hough as President of Magdalen. He died Feb. 10, 1703, and was succeeded by Dr. Thomas Bayley.

86. 4. Charles Leslie (1650-1722), the well-known author of The Snake in the Grass, the Easy Methods, and numerous other controversial works, put forth the tract here referred to in 1702. In the same year he published, as an appendage to a sermon of his own on the same subject, Dodwell's Discourse concerning the Obligation to marry within the true Communion, following from their Style of being called a Holy Seed. See Macaulay, i. 107; Brookesby's Life of Dodwell, 370 sqq. It need hardly be said that Leslie adhered to the party among the Nonjurors which maintained the schism after the return of Dodwell, Nelson, and Brokesby to the National Church. A Life of him has just (1885) appeared, by the Rev R. J. Leslie; but for most purposes sufficient particulars of him will be found in Lathbury's Nonjurors, 366, &c. It may be added that Mrs. Lucy Hutchinson takes a somewhat similar view of the ill effects of Charles I's marriage in her Memoirs of her husband (p. 89, Bohn's ed.).

86. 4. This tract of Leslie's is printed in Vol. i. (pp. 431 sqq.) of the Clarendon Press (1832) ed. of his Theological Works. Spelman's History and Fate of Sacrilege was published in 1698.

86. 20. A good many particulars of the printing and publication of the Polyglott Bible, edited by Brian Walton (4 vols. 1657), are brought together in Lit. Anecd. iv. 7 sqq.

86. 23. Lady Elizabeth Churchill, third daughter and co-heir of John Duke of Marlborough, married Scroop Egerton, fourth Earl and first Duke of Bridgwater; died 1714. The Dowager Countess was Jane, eldest daughter of Charles Duke of Bolton; died 1716. Her two eldest sons lost their lives in the fire at Bridgwater House, Barbican, April 11, 1687.

86. 28. Jacobus Merlo Horstius published 'Analecta quaedam ex Bernardo' in his Septem Tubae Orbis Christianae ad reformationem ecclesiasticae disciplinae (Cologne, 1635). His Paradise for the Christian Soul was translated &c. by Dr. Pusey in 1845-7.

87. 7. J. Scheffer's edition of Justin (Hamburg and Amsterdam, 1678) is characterised by Ebert, ii. 872, as 'equally bold and unhappy in conjecture.' His Lectio-nium academiarum liber appeared at Hamburg in 1675.

87. 11. John Holland, M.A. 1691, D.D. 1707; Prebendary of Salisbury 1716.

87. 21. This extract from Gascoigne is printed at pp. 227 sq. of Mr. Thorold Rogers' Loci e Libro Veritatum (Oxford, 1881).

87. 33. The battle of Stratton was fought May 16, 1642; see Clarendon, ii. 270 (ed. 1720). The fertility of the soil after the fight is noticed by Hals, as quoted in Davies Gilbert's History of Cornwall, iv. 14.

87. 39. For some account of Malalas (John of Antioch) and his chronicle, and the importance of Hody's edition (1691) in Bentley's literary history, see Jebb's Bentley, pp. 9 sqq. Prideaux had been entrusted with an edition of Malalas by Fell in 1674, and gives a half-humorous, half-despairing account of his author in the Letters to Ellis, p. 22; cf. the Life, p. 3.

87. 44. William Smith, M.A. 1674, 'above twelve years senior Fellow of University,' was afterwards rector of Melsonby, co. York. His Annals of University College; proving Wilham of Durham the true founder: and answering all their Arguments who ascribe it to King Alfred, was published in 1728 (aeiat. 76), and Litterae de re nummaria in 1729, both at Newcastle-upon-Tyne. Mr. Allan presented to the Society of Antiquaries twenty-six 4to. volumes of MSS. relating chiefly to Oxford, extracted by Smith from the public libraries there, Lit. Anecd. vi. 126. In 1726 Smith presented to the Bodleian a collection of tracts (in twenty-five vols.) on the Roman Catholic controversy of 1680-90 (Macray, Annals, p. 150). Some idea of Smith's character may be gathered from the Preface and Supplement to the Preface to his Annals of University College, and a good many personal details of himself and his contemporaries from the latter portion of the book.

88. 11. Jeremy Collier (1650-1726) published The great historical, geographical, genealogical, and poetical Dictionary; being a curious Miscellany of sacred and prophane History collected from the best Historians, Chronologers, and Lexicographers, but more especially out of Lewis Morery, in 2 vols., 1701. A Supplement appeared in 1705, and an Appendix in 1721.

38. 26. For Mrs. Esther Inglis (b. c. 1584), see Ballard's British Ladies, where particulars of her skill in caligraphy are given; also Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, pp. 48 sq., and a notice by David Laing in the Proceedings of the Soc. of Antiquaries of Scotland.

39. 2. John Stearne the elder died 1669, aged 46. A work of his, De Obstinatone, was published posthumously (1672) by Dodwell, his pupil, with Prolegomena Apologetica, which formed Dodwell's first printed work (Brokesby's Life, 26 sqq.). His son of the same name became Preb. of St. Patrick's 1679, Chancellor 1702, Dean 1704, Bishop of Dromore 1713, and of Clogher 1717; died 1745. Swift corresponded with him for many years. See Index to Scott's Swift; and Cotton, Fasti Eccl. Hib. ii. 104; iii. 80 sq.

39. 23. William Lloyd, son of the Bishop, was implicated with his father in some election proceedings in Worcestershire, which brought on both the displeasure of the House of Commons. He was prebendary of Worcester and rector of Fladbury, and died 1718. For Ray and his coins, see Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, pp. 124-5.

40. 3. The terms of this presentment are given by Boyer, p. 179.

40. 16. Some particulars of Grabe (1666-1712) and his circumstances are given in Lit. Anecd. iv. 197 sqq. Vol. i. of his edition of the LXX appeared in 1707, and the work was only completed in 1720, when he had been long dead. See Nelson's Life of Bull, pp. 402 sqq., and references in note on p. 25, l. 41.

40. 30. This letter, describing the death by a carriage accident of Mr. Wm. Cherry, is in the Rawlinson Correspondence, vii. 53 (dated April 6, 1705).

41. 7. See Burnet's History of the Reformation (ed. Pococke), vol. ii. p. 252.

41. 27. For a list of Parsons' writings, see de Backer, Écrivains de la Compagnie de Jésus, 3^e Série, pp. 561 sqq.

41. 43. The edition of the Sphaerica by Joseph Hunt (M.A. 1703) was published in 1707.

41. 50. Dr. Wm. Binckes, Dean of Lichfield 1703-1712, was at this time Prolocutor of the Lower House. For a history of the whole dispute, see Lathbury's History of Convocation, pp. 363 sqq.

42. 7. A summary view of Oxford contributions to the knowledge of the Coptic language and literature will be found in Mr. A. J. Butler's Ancient Coptic Churches of Egypt, vol. ii. pp. 257 sq.

42. 19. This design was finally carried out by Edward Thwaites, whose edition of Ephraem Syrus in Greek was published at Oxford in 1709.

42. 48. Dr. Hickes published in 1701 Devotions in the ancient Way of Offices . . . reformed by a Person of Quality [Susanna Hopton]. This Manual was originally compiled from Roman Catholic sources, and published under the title of Reform'd Devotions, by the Rev. Theophilus Dorrington, rector of Witresham, Kent.

43. 1. James Bonnell (1653-1699) was Accountant-General of Ireland 1684-1693. His 'Exemplary Life and Character' formed the subject of a work by Wm. Hamilton, Archdeacon of Armagh, published in 1707.

43. 10. Dr. Peter Barwick wrote a very curious and interesting Life of his brother Dr. John Barwick (1612-1664), Dean of St. Paul's after the Restoration, which was published in Latin 1721, and in an English translation by Dr. Hilckiah Bedford in 1724. Peter Barwick was born in 1619, and was blind for the last ten years of his long life. A sketch of his own career is prefixed to the Life of his brother.

43. 25. Dr. Bull's tract on 'The Corruptions of the Church of Rome,' is printed, together with other pieces, in Several Letters which passed between Dr. G. Hickes and a Popish Priest, 1705. See Secretan's Life of Nelson, 25, 37.

43. 31. The Rev. John Morton, Rector of Oxendon, published The Natural History of Northamptonshire in 1712.

43. 32. Francis Hargrave published an Essay on the Antient and Present State of Stamford in 1726, which was followed the year after by Academia tertia Anglicana: or, the Antiquarian Annals of Stamford, by Francis Peck (1682-1743). See Lit. Anecd. i. 507 sqq.

44. 7. Sir Robert Clayton survived till July 16, 1707. He had moved the Exclusion Bill in 1681. See the sketch of him in Macaulay, i. 633.

44. 38. A note of Dr. Rawlinson's, quoted in an Appendix to the Life of Wood (p. 344), records that 'Mr. Sheldon died May 30, 1710, and left to Christ Church quadrangle 1000^{lb} he was a non-juror, and nephew to Archbishop Sheldon.' We read of a Roger Sheldon of Christ Church in the same work, p. 177, sub anno 1671.—I do not find in the Catalogue of Graduates any Sheldon of about this period except Richard Sheldon of Christ Church, B.A. 1710, who of course cannot be the person here intended. Ralph Sheldon, nephew of Wood's patron of the same name, and a connexion of the Archbishop, appears in Cosin's list of those who refused to take the oaths to George I, under the counties of Oxford and Warwick.

45. 3. For The Secret History of Queen Zarah and its bibliography, see Mr. Solly's article in the Bibliographer, Dec. 1881, pp. 21 sqq.

45. 16. For Tanner's projected edition of Leland (already referred to), see also Lives of the Antiquaries, i. p. 51 n. Wanley never realised his design of publishing the Bible in Saxon.

VOL. IV.

Page 45, line 29. Robert Pearse, of Lincoln, B.A. 1701.

46. 5. Madox published his Formulare Anglicanum in 1702, and his History and Antiquities of the Exchequer in 1711 (see his letter to Dr. Charlett in Letters of Eminent Persons, i. 214 sq.). The Firma Burgi (1726) was the last work which he lived to complete, but his Baronia Anglica was posthumously published in 1741. Dr. Nathaniel Johnston, of Pontefract, 1627-1705, figures frequently in Ralph Thoresby's Diary and Correspondence, and particulars of his life are given at vol. i. pp. 39 sqq. of the former book. Madox' criticism on him was perfectly just. Sir John Fortescue's Difference between an Absolute and Limited Monarchy was first published in 1714 from the MS. in the Bodleian by his descendant John Fortescue Aland, F.R.S. (1670-1746), afterwards Solicitor-General, Baron of the Exchequer, and a Peer of Ireland. For Fortescue's works, see Stubbs' Constitutional History, iii. 257 sqq., and for his editor, Foss, Biographia Juridica, 5.

46. 21. The Bishop of Carlisle was of course Dr. William Nicolson, author of The Historical Library, whose correspondence was published by Nichols in 1809. Particulars of the collections of Roger Dodsworth (1585-1654), often referred to hereafter, are given by Mr. Macray, Annals, pp. 96 sq.

47. 10. This inscription is printed in Leland's Itinerary, vol. ii. 71 sqq. Some account of Ela, daughter and heiress of William, Earl of Salisbury, d. 1261, and her husband, William Longespée, natural son of Henry II, d. 1226, is given in Marshall's Early History of Woodstock Manor, 51 sq.

47. 40. This is the earliest mention in these Collections of Thomas Baker (1656-1740), afterwards the famous Socius Ejectus of St. John's College, Cambridge, and its historian. He did not as yet reckon Hearn among his correspondents. See Life of Ambrose Bonwicke, ed. Mayor, 208 sqq.; Masters' Memoirs of Baker, 43 sqq.

48. 15. Charles, Duke of Shrewsbury (Birch's Life of Tillotson, 55 sqq., Ballard MSS. x. 103), married at Rome Adelaide, d. of the Marquis Palliotti of Bologna, maternally descended from the Earl of Leicester, Q. Elizabeth's favourite. She was Lady of the Bedchamber to Caroline, afterwards Princess of Wales, and a relation of the Marquis Palliotti, who was executed at Tyburn for killing his servant (Noble, i. 51 sq.).

50. 10. The first eight verses of this poem, a corrected copy of which is given on p. 54, are printed in Noble's Granger, ii. 232, where they are attributed to Mr. Gwinnett.

50. 23. Dr. William Talbot was Bishop of Oxford from 1699 to 1715. There is a full account of him in Noble's Granger, iii. 72 sq. Mr. Marshall dismisses him briefly in his Diocesan History of Oxford, pp. 164 sq. He was succeeded in the Bishopric by Dr. John Potter (c. 1674-1747), mentioned below, afterwards Archbishop of Canterbury.

51. 6. Sir Stephen Fox married in 1703, as his second wife, Christian, youngest d. of the Rev. Charles Hope, of Naseby (d. 1719), by whom he had four children—Stephen, created Lord Ilchester; Henry, Lord Holland; and two daughters. He died in 1716, aged upwards of 90. A popular account of his life will be found in the Princess Marie Liechtenstein's Holland House, i. pp. 32 sqq.

51. 15. George Boyse, D.D., Provost of Oriel 1691, Dean of Bristol 1693, d. 1708. He printed three sermons, including that here referred to, which was on Proverbs xvi. 32. Some account of him is given by Dr. Birch in his Life of Tillotson, 376 sq.

51. 20. Joseph Abell, originally of Lincoln, M.A. 1702.—Dr. George Ryves, Warden of New College 1599–1613, was V. C. in 1601.—For Dr. Richard Lydall, see Wood's Life, pp. 297 sq.

51. 36. Sir John Walter was elected M.P. for the City of Oxford Dec. 11, 1706.—Sir Simon Harcourt (1660–1727) became Attorney-General in 1707, Lord Keeper 1710, and Lord Chancellor in 1713, having been created a Baron in 1711. After the accession of George I he was characterised by Swift as a Trimmer. See Foss, Biographia Juridica, 326 sq.

52. 12. Thomas Dalton, B.A. (Queen's) 1702; M.A. (All Souls) 1706. Dr. Finch died Nov. 14, 1702. Tanner dedicated his Notitia Monastica to him in 1695.

52. 26. Nicholas Martin, C.C.C., M.A. 1683, attended Wood in his last illness and attested his will. He was likewise Vicar of Witham.

53. 3. For these political changes, see Boyer, 208; Burnet, v. 219 sq. According to Burnet there was in Sir Nathan Wright 'nothing equal to the post; much less to him who had lately filled it' (Somers), whom he succeeded in 1700. See also Duchess of Marlborough's Vindication, 147 sq. If we may believe Speaker Onslow (ap. Burnet) Wright was certainly 'no looser' by his tenure of office. Montague, second Earl of Abingdon, mentioned below, was restored to favour on the change of Ministry in 1710. He died in 1743.

53. 12. Uffenbach, on the contrary, had heard a good account of Dr J. Laughton's 'great learning and courtesy,' and exclaims Rara avis in his terris (Wordsworth, Schol. Acad. 6). Laughton was Public Librarian 1686–1712.

53. 48. Dr. Wm De Laune, President of St John's 1698–1728, is unhappily familiar to us in the pages of Amherst's Terrae Filius. See also Life of A. Bonwicke, ed. Mayor, 151, and Index to this vol.

54. 33. A good account of the history and significance of 'the Tack' will be found in Burton's Reign of Q. Anne, i. pp. 90 sq. It had a special literature of its own, including A brief Account of the Tack, and The Character of a Tacker. Calamy's view of the Tack naturally differed from Hearne's, see Life, ii. p. 28; cf. Burnet, v. 176 sqq.

55. 17. Dr. Freind (1675–1728) was at this time physician to the army in Spain under the Earl of Peterborough, of whose conduct he published a Defence which ran through three editions. See Life of the Earl of Peterborough (1853), ii. 204.

56. 4. A copy of the Oxford Almanack of 1706 is preserved in Alderman Fletcher's volume in the Bodleian. Facing it is an explanation (London: Printed and Sold by Benj. Bragge, in Avey Lane. 1706. Price 6d.) in double cols., that on the left in the form of Tory queries, and that on the right a Whig rendering.

56. 15. Dr. John Harris, F.R.S., author of Lexicon Technicum and other scientific works, d. 1719.

56. 12. Earl Cowper died October 10, 1723. In Noble's Granger, ii. 18, it is mentioned that a pamphlet in defence of bigamy has been attributed to his pen. The Editor of the Life of Calamy quotes (ii. 474) a passage from Questions sur l'Encyclopédie in which Voltaire remarks.—'Il est public en Angleterre, et on voudrait le nier en vain, que le Chancelier Cowper épousa deux femmes qui vécurent ensemble dans sa maison avec une concorde singulière qui fit honneur à tous trois. Plusieurs curieux ont encore le petit livre que ce Chancelier composa en faveur de la polygamie.'

56. 24. Particulars of this gift of James Tyrrell will be found in Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, p. 125, anno 1707.

57. 2 Antony Alsop, M.A. 1696, Preb. of Winchester 1715, d. 1726. He lives in literary history by his edition of Æsop, in the Preface to which Bentley is described as 'Richardum quendam Bentleium, volvendis lexicis satis diligenter;' see Monk's Bentley, i. 96. Sir Francis Bernard published a quarto volume of his Latin Poems in 1752. See art in Dict. of Nat. Biog. i. 345.

57. 21. Dr. William King (1650-1729), Chancellor of St. Patrick's 1679, Dean 1689, Bp. of Derry 1691, Archbp of Dublin 1703. See Cotton, Fast. Eccl. Hib. ii. 23. His best-known work, De Origine Mali, was published in 1702. He was a frequent correspondent of Swift; see Index to Scott's edition.

57. 45. Luttrell records (v. 600), 'Mr. Pettis is committed for writing a half-sheet call'd Fire and Faggot, being a reflection upon burning the Memorial' He was likewise the author of The Memorial answered Paragraph by Paragraph, and of the Life of Dr. Radcliffe.

58. 36. The Fountain Tavern afterwards 'gave its name to the Fountain Club, a political association opposed to Sir Robert Walpole.' See Cunningham's Hand-Book of London, p. 191.

58. 40. This great feat of arms is familiar to most from the graphic description in the Memoirs of Captain Carleton, long attributed to Defoe, but now generally admitted to be authentic. See e.g. Burton, Reign of Queen Anne, vol. ii. p. 171 sqq.

59. 3. This Sermon, on 1 Tim. iii. 1, was duly printed.

59. 17. For the authorship and bibliography of Leycester's Commonwealth, see Appendix III to Reliquiae Hearnianae. Cf. also D'Israeli's Calamities of Authors, 'Authors by Profession;' de Backer, art. Parsons; and Lingard, vi. 254.

59. 21. Mr. John Smith, M.P. for Andover, had been Commissioner of the Treasury and Chancellor of the Exchequer under William III. He resigned the Chair in favour of Sir Richard Onslow in 1708. For particulars of him and his unsuccessful opponent, see Manning's Lives of the Speakers, pp. 408 sqq., 416 sqq. One of the very last entries in Evelyn's Diary relates to this election.—'The Parliament chose one Mr. Smith Speaker. There had never been so great an assembly of members on the first day of sitting, being more than 450. The votes both of the old, as well as the new, fell to those call'd Low Churchmen, contrary to all expectation.' On Feb. 27 following this accomplished English gentleman closed his life, full of years and of honour.

59. 31. Hearne's information here is curiously incorrect; Dr. Binckes had a majority of 14.

59. 32. Wm. Randall, M.A. 1681.

59. 34. The Mitre Tavern appears in literature at least as early as 1611. But it owes its fame chiefly to Dr. Johnson and his contemporaries.

59. 45. The Queen's speech on this occasion is given in full in Boyer, p. 209.

60. 17. This Index, whether or not it was authentic, has remained a standard specimen of absurdity in indexing. See e.g. Mr. H. B. Wheatley's What is an Index? p. 17; Bibliotheca Parriana, p. 702.

60. 21. Dr. George Clarke, 'Judge Advocate General to Charles II and his three successors; Secretary of War to William III; Secretary to Prince George of Denmark; one of the Lords of the Admiralty in the reign of Queen Anne; and in five Parliaments Burgess of the University.' He was fellow of All Souls for 56 years, and was a benefactor to Worcester and Brasenose Colleges. He died in 1736. See Worthies of All Souls, passim, esp. pp. 314 sqq.; and Luttrell, v. 605.

60. 24. Besides his Natural History of Lancashire (1700), Dr. Charles Leigh (F.R.S. 1685) published one or two medical works, and a History of Virginia (1705). There is an amusing criticism of the Lancashire in Nicolson's English Historical Library, p. 17.

60. 35. There is a story in the Secret History of the Calves-Head Club (p. 101) of 'a Company of four Whigs . . . together a timpling' one Jan. 30, one of whom 'shrugg'd up his Shoulders, and with a Fanatical Grin . . . said, with a Gusto, The Q—n has a fine white Neck.'—

61. 28. For a popular account of Florence of Worcester, see Gairdner's England ('Early Chroniclers of Europe' Series), 63 sq.; Nicolson, 56.

61. 32. John Forbes, of Corse (1593-1648), was expelled from his chair at Aberdeen in 1640 for refusing to subscribe to the Covenant. This edition of his complete works was published at Amsterdam 1702-3, with a Life by George Gardens of Aberdeen.

For the Lady Margaret, see Memoir of Margaret Countess of Richmond and Derby, by the late C. H. Cooper, F.S.A. (Cambridge, 1874); Baker-Mayor, History of St. John's College, 55; Mullinger's University of Cambridge, i. 434 sqq. Bishop Fisher's Funeral Sermon on this great patroness of learning was reprinted with a Preface by Thos. Baker in 1708.

61. 40. A letter of Archbishop Marsh (1638-1713) to Dr. Thomas Smith, explaining his intention of founding a Public Library at Dublin, is printed at vol. i pp. 103 sqq. of Letters from the Bodleian, and particulars of his life are given in a note; cf. Cotton Fasti, Eccl. Hb. i. 16, &c. See Edwards' Memoirs of Libraries, ii. p. 63; and for the library of Trin. Coll., Dublin, ib. ii. 45.

VOL. V.

Page 63, line 3. Joshua Barnes (1654-1712) was appointed Professor of Greek at Cambridge in 1695. Despite his many works, he is probably now best remembered by Bentley's remark that he understood as much Greek as a Greek cobbler. For Prof. Jebb's opinion of him, see his Life of Bentley, p. 72; cf. Monk, i. 52 sqq. We shall hear much of him in the sequel. The book here referred to is characteristically entitled, 'Αὐλοκατάοπτρον; sive Estheræ Historia, Poetica Paraphrasi, idque Graeco carmine, cui versio Latina opponitur, exornata; una cum Scholiis, seu Annotationibus Graecis; in quibus (ad sacri Textus dilucidationem) praeter alia non pauca, Gentium Orientalium Antiquitates, Moresque reconditiores proferuntur. Additur Parodia Homerica de eadem hac Historia. Accessit Index Rerum ac verborum copiosissimus' (London, 8vo. 1679).

63. 12. Dr. Arbuthnot (d. 1735), afterwards so famous as a wit and the companion of wits, succeeded Sir E. Hanne as physician in ordinary to the Queen. Up to the present time his publications had been confined to scientific subjects.

63. 28. The most popular account of Dee is probably that in D'Israeli's Amenities of Literature ('The Occult Philosopher, Dr. Dee').

64. 26. An excellent account of Dr. Moore, Bishop of Norwich 1691-1707, translated to Ely, and d. 1714, has been contributed to the Bibliographer, Nos. 33, 34, and Book-Lore, No. 3, by the Rev. Cecil Moore, who promises a Life of that learned Prelate and famous collector.

64. 50. Zacagni published at Rome in 1698 Collectanea monumentorum veterum ecclesiae Graecae ac Latinae quae hactenus in Vaticana bibliotheca delituerunt (4to).

65. 40. James Crosse, M.A. 1702.—Dr. Charles Trimmell, chiefly known at this time as an opponent of Atterbury in the Convocation controversy, was consoled for his defeat by being made Bishop of Norwich in 1708, whence he was translated to Winchester 1721. He died in 1723. See Life of Prideaux, 111.

66. 11. The expulsion of John Ayliffe (M.A. 1703, B and D.C.L. 1710), on account of certain passages in his Antient and Present State of the University of Oxford, is mentioned in Oxoniana, iv. 227, and Burrows' Worthies of All Souls, 368 (see Ballard MSS. i. 121-132). For the life of Alciati (1492-1550), whose fame does not now rest on his attainments as a jurisconsult, see Green, Andrea Alciati and his Books of Emblems, 1-96.

66. 16. Jacob Bobart the younger published Part III of Robert Morison's Plantarum Historia Universalis Oxoniensis in 1699.—Wm. Dale, Queen's, M.A. 1690.

66. 31. The gallant Bouvigny, Earl of Galway, lost his right arm at the siege of Badajoz: Boyer, p. 201; Luttrell, v. 608. Macaulay (ii. 82, &c.) gives some account of the family.

67. 8. Particulars of Charles Bernard, serjeant-surgeon to Queen Anne 1702, d. 1710, and of the sale of his library, are given in Lit. Anecd. iv. 104 sq. The edition of Caesar by John Davies, President of Queens' Coll., Cam., was published in 1706.

68. 10. Details of the life and death of Mr. Joseph Crabb, Hearne's predecessor as Under-Keeper (1674-1712), will be found in Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, pp. 129 sqq.

68. 26. Peter Foulkes, M.A. 1701; see Index.

68. 43. Stephen Blackhead has come down to posterity through the great literary merits of Sprat's Relation; and the Life of William Fuller, the late pretended Evidence, now a Prisoner in the King's Bench, who was declared by the Honourable House of Commons, Nemine contradicente, to be a Notorious Impostor, a Cheat, and a False Accuser of Persons of Honour and Quality. With all his Franks and Villanies, &c to this Present First of March (1692) is not unworthy to be bound up (as in a volume now before me) with that graphic story. See Macaulay, ii. 361 sqq.; and ii. 327. Macaulay remarks of Sprat's Relation that 'there are very few better narratives in the language.'

69. 12. By a majority of sixteen over Sir Gilbert Dolben (Luttrell, v. 609).

69. 15. James Tyrrell's General History of England extends only to the reign of Richard II.—Laurence Richard (c. 1671–1730), a kinsman of the ingenious author of Grounds and Occasions of the Contempt of the Clergy, published vol. 1. of his History of England (in the Preface to which he acknowledges obligations to Tyrrell) in 1707, and vols. ii. and iii. in 1718; a supplementary volume, entitled The History of the Revolution and the Establishment of England in the year 1688, appeared in 1725. For both writers see Nicolson's English Historical Library, p. 74.

69. 22. Lathbury gives an analysis of Dodwell's Case in View (1705) in his History of the Nonjurors, pp. 194–8. See also Brokesby's Life, 453 sqq.

Le Neve-Hardy, ii. 36. He was translated to Winchester 1723, and died 1734.

70. 20. Blakewell, or Bakewell Hall, in Basinghall Street, 'a weekly market-place for woollen cloths,' derived its name from Thomas Bakewell, who was living in it in the 36th of Edward III. 71. 34. Dr. Fiddes (1671–1725) published his well-known Life of Wolsey in 1724.

71. 44. This work (Hearne has mis-spelt 'Dialectical') is included in the second edition of the Athenae (ii. 388). In 1660 Gayton published a trifle under the name of 'Asdryas dust Tossoffacan'—an anticipation of a far greater author.

72. 4 sqq. For Father Matthew Patenson, Pattenson, or Patison, as the name is variously spelt, see Athenae, ii. 744.—Jeremiah Stephens, Prebendary of Lincoln 1639, died 1664.—John Sudbury was Dean of Durham 1661–1684.

72. 21. See Masson's Life of Milton, ii. 219 sqq., where Smectymnus is very fully treated. The authorship was apparently an open secret from the first.

72. 36. Antony Wood briefly characterises Henry Care at the end of his article on Marchmont Needham. He wrote on the Roman Catholic side after the accession of James II, and died 1688. Athenae, iii. 1189; iv. 368.

73. 6. On Bishop Barlow's bequest, see Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, p. 111. The controversy with regard to the date of this book is well known; see a summary of it to the year 1817 in Letters from the Bodleian, i. 160 sqq. Until the appearance of Mr. Madan's work on the subject, the reader may be referred for a few facts relating to the early history of printing in Oxford to Cotton's Typographical Gazetteer, First Series, pp. 207 sqq.; Second Series, pp. 165 sqq.

73. 20. For John Corbet (1620–1680), see Wood, Athenae, iii. 1264; Calamy-Palmer, Nonconformist's Memorial, ii. 259 sqq.; Calamy, Account, ii. 133. His Funeral Sermon was preached by Richard Baxter.

73. 22. The Catholique Apology, 'by a Person of Quality,' was by Roger Palmer, Earl of Castlemaine. Lloyd's reply, The late Apology in behalf of the Papists, reprinted and answered in behalf of the Royalists, provoked a counter-reply; and another pamphlet of Lloyd's, A seasonable Discourse shewing the Necessity of maintaining the Established Religion in Opposition to Popery, called forth 'a full answer and confutation' from Palmer.—Robert Pugh, once an officer in the Royal Army, wrote an answer to Bate's Elenchus Motuum Nuperorum, entitled Elenchus Elenchi, and seems afterwards, from his Bathoniensium et Aquisgranensium Thermarum Comparatio, to have become, as here mentioned, a physician.

78. 35. Edward Worsley, S.J., was likewise the author of rejoinders to Jeremy Taylor and Stillingfleet.

78. 50. The lamentable end of Thomas Creech (1659–1700), Fellow of All Souls, the translator of Lucretius, Horace, &c., is well known (see Col. Codrington's statement in Letters from the Bodleian, i. 128 sqq.). There is some account of him in Worthies of All Souls, 318 sq. His insanity is mentioned by Charlett (Tanner xxii. 54) so early as 1698.—Dr John Adams, of King's Coll., Cam., M.A. 1686, Provost 1712, Preb. of Canterbury and Canon of Windsor, died 1749, published An Essay concerning Self-Murder in 1700.

74. 38. For the parish and church of Warfield, about eight miles S.W. of Windsor, see Lysons' Berkshire, 410.

His Redemption Redeemed was published in 1651 fol. The text of Barlow's letter, and some account of Barlow's Remains (1693), will be found in Appendix II to Reliq. Hearn in 199. Dr. Bliss there notes that almost every volume which once formed part of Bishop Barlow's library 'contains some valuable MS. remark in his own hand.'

76. 46. Burnet states (Life of Hale, pp. 36 sqq., ed. 1856) that the Lord Chief Baron drafted a bill for a comprehension of the more moderate Dissenters, embodying the results of conferences between the Lord Keeper Bridgeman, Dr. Wilkins, and 'two of the eminentest of the Presbyterian divines.'

77. 2. Dr. Perrinchief was the writer of the Life of Charles I prefixed to the folio ed. of the Works, 1662, but he was largely indebted to Fulman's collections.

77. 6. On the Petition for Peace, see Calamy's Abridgment of Baxter's Life, pp. 160, 414.

77. 8. Valentine Greatrakes and his miraculous power of curing diseases by 'stroking' are familiar to most who have dabbled in seventeenth-century literature. Among his supporters were many men of distinction, including Stubbe, Boyle, Henry More, Patrick, Wilkins and Cudworth. See Athenae Oxon. iii. 1077 sqq. Birch's Life of Boyle, 151 sqq., and entries in Bodleian Catalogue.

77. 11. An account of the chequered career of Payne Fisher (Paganus Piscator), 1616–1693, who fought on the King's side at Marston Moor, and was afterwards Poet Laureate to the Protector, is given in the Athenae (iv. 377). His Catalogue of most of the Memorable Tombs, Gravesones, Plates, Escocheons, or Atchievements in the demolished or yet extant Churches of London (1668), is said by Wood to be mostly taken from Stow's Survey; and The Tombs, Monuments, and Sepulchral Inscriptions lately visible in S. Paul's Cathedral, and S. Faith's under it (n. d.), from Dugdale's S. Paul's.

78. 2. Wood gives a very unfavourable account of Francis Rouse (b. 1579) and his works in the Athenae, iii. 466. He was Provost of Eton from 1643–1658, and was likewise a member of the Assembly of Divines, of the Long and Little Parliaments, and of Cromwell's House of Lords. See Lyte's History of Eton College, 241 sqq.

author of Mercurius Britannicus, Pragmaticus, and Politicus—‘the great patriarch of newspaper writers,’ as he is styled by D’Israeli. His dispraise is in the Athenae, iii. 1180.

Petty (1623–1687) will be found at vol. ii. p. 481 of Letters from the Bodleian; and further particulars, with references, in the Register of the Visitors of the University of Oxford, ed. Burrows, pp. 227, 335. His grave at Rumsey, Hants, was marked only by the following inscription:—HERE LAYES | SIR WILLIAM | PETTY.

79. 9. For the controversy aroused by Hody’s publication in 1691 on the subject of this Barocian MS., see Lathbury’s Nonjurors, pp. 137 sqq., and 182; Brokesby’s Life of Dodwell, 235 sqq. Hody was bluntly accused of ‘shamming the world with part of the MS. for the whole.’

79. 15. Parsons’ Conference about the next succession to the Crowne of England was published in 1594.

79. 19. The editor of this book was the Rev. Edw. Symmons, author of the Vindication of King Charles (1648), to the very great importance of which in the Eikon controversy I have called attention (Academy, May 26, 1883). For the incident here referred to, see S. R. Gardiner, History of England, x. 142.

79. 21. Henry Walker was the acknowledged author of The Churches Purity, Corda Anghae, and a sermon on Luke xiii. 24; a pamphlet satirising him (1642) is likewise mentioned in Cat. Bod., wherein he is described as ‘a most judicious quondam iron-monger, a late pamphleteer,’ &c.

80. 1. Edw. Boughen, Ch. Ch., Chaplain to Dr. Howson, Bishop of Oxford, Rector of Woodchurch, Kent, ejected, and restored 1660, published other controversial pamphlets (Athenae, iii. 388). He died soon after the Restoration, aged about 74.

80. 7. John Sheffield, Earl of Mulgrave, Marquis of Normanby, and Duke of Buckinghamshire (1649–1721), was praised as an author by Roscommon, Dryden and Pope, and less favourably criticised by Walpole (Noble Authors), Johnson (Lives of the Poets), and Macaulay (History, i. 465). I do not find any sufficient ground for the statement of his disgrace in 1682.

81. 38. For John Gilbert, M.A. 1680, see Athenae, iv. 794.

81. 44. According to Aubrey, in Letters from the Bodleian, ii. 628, there was a close friendship between Hobbes and Selden after the publication of Leviathan till Hobbes’ dying day. Selden left Hobbes a legacy of 10*l.* A summary account of Hobbes’ ‘Mathematical War’ with Dr. Wallis, which lasted for twenty years, is given in D’Israeli’s Quarrels of Authors.

99. 13. A letter by the Rev. Tho. Tomkins (see Athenae, iii. 1046) was published in the Bibliographer, No. 29, p. 150.—Joseph Trueman, Calamy-Palmer, iii. 93.

99. 30. J. G., i.e. John Cheney or Cheny. This work was in answer to Baxter.

99. 37. Dr John Hall, Master of Pembroke 1664, Professor of Divinity 1676, Bishop of Bristol 1691; Dr. Henry Maurice, of Jesus, only held the professorship from July 18 to Oct. 30, 1691, and was succeeded by Dr. Thomas Sykes, afterward President of Trinity, d. 1705.

100. 10. Dr. De Laune is one of the chief butts of Amherst in his Terrae Filius. See p. 3 of that work for the jacta est alca incident; also pp. 16-20. The charge of 'shaking the elbow' occurs totidem verbis at p. 2. The Terrae Filius in 1703 were Hen. Roberts, Magd. Hall, and Rob. Turner, Wadham. The speech is printed in the University Miscellany (ed. 2, London, 1713).

100. 27. Mary, eldest daughter of Sir Matthew Hale, married secondly 'Edward Stephens, Esq., son to Edward Stephens, Esq., of Cherrington in Gloucestershire,' Burnet's Life of Hale, ad fin. Baxter wrote 'Additional Notes to Burnet's Life of Hale in a letter to E. Stephens.'

100. 32. For Nathaniel Homes, see Athenae, iii. 1065; and for George Bate (1608-1668), principal physician successively to Charles I, Oliver Cromwell and Charles II, ib. iii. 827.

100. 35. The writer of An Account of Mr. Firmin's Religion (1698) states, p. 52, that Mr. Firmin 'caused to be written a brief History of the Unitarians, and brief Notes on the Creed of Athanasius, in the years 1689 and 1690.' This produced a rejoinder from Sherlock, which in its turn gave rise to a heated controversy.

100. 40. Derodon or Rodon was Professor of Philosophy at Nîmes and other places. He was banished from France on account of this work, and took refuge at Geneva, where he died in 1664.

100. 47. This is of course Robert Fergusson, the 'Judas' of Part II of Absalom and Achitophel. See Macaulay's History, i. 259 sq., with the references there given.

100. 52 sqq. For Dr. Thomas Pittis, see Athenae, iv. 220; John Humphrey, ib. iv. 743. E. Sheldon's translation of the Rule of Faith is mentioned in Wood's Life, p. 179. 'Mr. Rimer' is of course the editor of the Foedera.

101. 31. Samuel Johnson, rector of Corringham, Essex, and chaplain to Lord Russell, published his Julian the Apostate in 1682 for the purpose of exposing the doctrine of passive obedience as laid down by Dr Hickee in a sermon preached before the Lord Mayor in 1681. Some particulars of Johnson's troubled and eventful career are prefixed to the folio edition of his 'Works;' but Macaulay has drawn a portrait of him (i. 378 sqq.) by which he is popularly known.

101. 47 sqq. Montrose's best-known literary effort is the lines 'Upon the Death of King Charles the First, written with the point of his sword,' which are commonly printed at the end of the King's 'Works,' and which were set to music by Pepys. There is some account of him in Lloyd's Memoirs, pp. 638 sqq.—Denis Petau (1583-1652) is characterised in Mark Pattison's Memoirs, 322 sq.—For Francis Osborn (c. 1589-1659), see Athenae, iv. 560, &c.—Dr. George Bright, Eman. Coll., Camb., Dean of St. Asaph 1689-1696, edited vol. i. of the Works of Dr. John Lightfoot (London, 1684).

102. 5. An interesting Life of the charitable Thomas Firmin (1632-1677), by 'one of his most intimate acquaintance,' was published in 1698, and reprinted 1791. For his relations to Tillotson and others, see Birch's Life of that prelate, pp. 292 sqq.; Life of Sharp, ii. 10, Life of Frampton, 187, and his own biography.

102. 10. This address is printed in full in Boyer, p. 226.

102. 25. Wood says (Athenae, ii. 297) that the Display was 'written mostly (especially the Scholastical part)' by Barcham.

102. 31. Dr. T. Brown, Canon of Windsor 1639-1673.

102. 34. For a list of Burton or Crouch's books, see Reliquiae Hearnianae, Appendix VIII (iii. 234 sqq.). See also Dr. Bliss's note at i. 291, Lowndes' Manual, art. Burton; and Book-Lore i. 129 sqq.

102. 42. Thomas Jones, Athenae, iv. 51.

103. 13 sqq. Scioppius (c. 1576-1649), styled by D'Israeli (Curiosities of Literature) 'the Attila of authors,' and by Mark Pattison 'the most telling and feared libeller of the day,' wrote an immense number of treatises, chiefly polemical, which have now fallen into oblivion. Cf. Pattison's Life of Casaubon, 443 sq. For John Spenser, S. J. (1601-1671), see de Backer, v. 700—Robert Wild, Pastor Oxon. i. 512; Joseph Glanville, Athenae, iii. 1244; Walter Charleton, Athenae, iv. 752.

103. 28. Dr. Richard Baylie, President of St. John's 1632 (Dean of Salisbury 1635), ejected 1648, restored 1660, and died 1667, was V. C. 1636, 1637 and 1661; but Dr. Blandford, Warden of Wadham, was V. C. in 1662, 1663, so that with him must rest the responsibility for this curiosity of licensing. No licenser's name appears; another ed. was published at Oxford 1668. Some MS. works of Bussièrès (1607-1678) are preserved in the Library of Lyons: de Backer, i. 157. See also Life of Bonwicke (ed. Mayor), 167.

103. 44. This work is generally attributed to Daniel Heinsius, and satirises the life, origin, and character of Scioppius. For William White (Gulielmus Phalenus), see Athenae, iii. 1167.

103. 51. Dr. Burges (Athenae, iii. 681) was a bitter opponent of Gauden, who directed against him his Anti-Baal-Berith (a most offensive and scurrilous work) in 1661. He died at Watford in 1665. A more favourable account of him, with references, appears in Neal's Puritans, iii. 146 sq. and n.

104. 12. This anecdote is related of South in all the biographies; see e.g. Athenae, iv. 631, and for his benefactions to Christ Church Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, 454. The reason of Wood's rancour against South is explained in the former's Life, p. 355.

104. 22. Particulars of the reception of the Declaration of Indulgence throughout the country are given by Macaulay, i. 502 sqq. It was read by only three clergymen in Herts (Ballard MSS. xii. 21). There is an interesting account of Prideaux' action on the occasion in his Life, pp. 41 sqq. Thomas Deane, of Univ. Coll., was M.A. 1676; Francis Nicholson, M.A. 1673.

104. 33. Alderman William Wright was M.P. for the City of Oxford in the Parliaments of 1678, 1679, and 1689. See Life of Wood, 211, 216, 223, 238. His son was afterwards Recorder of Oxford, ib. 310; Luttrell, i. 471. The Terrae Filius of 1693 indulged in some delicate badinage at the expense of the Alderman and his daughters.

105. 17. The Queen's Speech of Nov. 27 is printed in Boyer, p. 214.

105. 28. T. Snelling, Athenae, iii. 275; T. Gilbert, ib. iv. 406; Edmund Elys ib. iv. 470, Rector of East Allington, Devon, a nonjuror, and an opponent of cock-fighting (Harleian Miscell. vii. 66); R. Sharrock, Athenae, iv. 147 ('learned in Divinity, in the Civ. and Com. Law, and very knowing in Vegetables and all pertaining thereunto'). Dr. Lowth was nominated Dean of Rochester by James II (Luttrell, i. 472), but the appointment was rendered futile by the Revolution. He was Vicar of Cosmus Blene in the diocese of Canterbury, and a nonjuror (Life of Kettlewell, Appendix, p. xiv).

106. 6. Cf. Luttrell, v. 565, 614.

106. 34. Dr. Peter Birch, Preb. of Westminster 1689, d. 1710. There is an interesting life of this protégé of Fell's, 'who always shew'd himself forward in gaining Proselytes,' in Athenae, iv. 659. He published several sermons, one of which provoked an answer entitled A birchen Rod for Dr. Birch.

106. 40. The Astrop Wells, the virtues of which were discovered by Lower and Willis about 1664, were the occasion of Locke's friendship with Shaftesbury: see Christie's Life of the Earl, i. 295; Fox Bourne's Life of Locke, i. 139.

106. 48. Timothy Goodwyn, D.D. of Utrecht, cr. M.A. Jan. 22, 1696; Archdeacon of Oxford 1707; Bishop of Kilmore 1715, and Archbishop of Cashel 1727; d. 1729.

106. 44. The Bishop m. 'a daughter of Mr. Crispe, an eminent attorney of Chipping Norton, who died without issue; and secondly, Catherine, d. of Alderman King of London; by whom he left a very numerous family. Charles Talbot, his eldest son, was appointed chancellor of Great Britain . . 1733.' Noble, iii. 72 sq.

107. 2. William Elstob, 'the famous Saxonist,' better known perhaps as the brother of Elizabeth Elstob, was born 1673, and studied at Cambridge and afterwards at Oxford, becoming Fellow of Univ. in 1696. He was appointed Rector of St. Swithin and Mary Bothaw 1702, and d. 1714. Among the works published by him were two Anglo-Saxon homilies, and an ed. of Ascham's Latin Letters (Oxford, 1703). See Nichols' Anecdotes of Bowyer, 11 n, and Index to Tanner MSS.

110. 4. I would gladly, out of respect for our antiquary, have suppressed this paragraph; but I have thought it necessary to retain it as an instance of the lengths to which men of high character could suffer themselves to go in traducing a political opponent. Bp. Burnet married as his third wife Elizabeth, widow of Robert Berkeley, of Spetchley, in 1698. Her two children by the Bishop died in infancy, and she only survived till 1709. Her Method of Devotion, with an account of her Life, was reprinted by Archdeacon Goodwyn (106, 48 n.) in 1713. See Ballard's Memoirs, 398; Burnet, vi. 309.

Page 110, line 13. A full account of the 'Proceedings against Anthony à Wood,' and of all the circumstances of the case, is given in an Appendix to the Life, pp. 350, sqq. The amount of the fine was 34*l*, and it was laid out on two statues—those of Charles I and the Earl of Danby. See Wood's own comments, Life, pp. 290 sqq.

110. 31. Marcus Meibomius (1611-c. 1710) published Antiquae Musicae Auctores septem Graece et Latine in 1652.

110. 36. There does not seem to have been any London edition of Photius' Lexicon before that of Porson, published by Mawman under the superintendence of Dobree in 1822. (Ebert, Bibliograph. Dict., s.v. Zonaras)

111. 7. Edmund Hickerlingill, of St. John's and Caius, Cam, and Rector of All Saints, Colchester. See Athenae, iv. 314.

111. 16. Richard Aungervyle, commonly called Richard de Bury, was Bishop of Durham 1333-1345, and the well-known author of Philobiblon. For some remarks on him and his book, see Macray's Annals, pp. 4 sq.; Edwards' Memoirs of Libraries, i. 377 sqq. The editio princeps was printed at Cologne 1473, but the best-known edition is that edited by Thomas James, and printed at Oxford 1598-9. The first English trans was that of John B. Inglis, 1832; a French trans appeared in 1856, and the first American ed. 1861. See also Burton, The Book-Hunter, 199 sqq.

111. 40. For Nicolson's view of the relation between Marianus Scotus and Florence of Worcester, see English Historical Library, 56, 57. He knows not whether to call Florence 'An Epitomizer, or Transcriber of Marianus.' See also Gairdner, Early Chroniclers of England, p. 64. The trans of Boethius is attributed to Alfred in the last authoritative utterance on the subject. See Prof. Freeman's article 'Ælfred' in the Dictionary of National Biography, i. 133 sqq.

112. 25. This memorandum is printed in Wood's Life, p. 339; and that at page 113, l. 17, ib. p. 340.

112. 40. For a summary of this debate see Boyer, pp. 215 sqq.

113. 2. John Dyer died intestate Sept. 6, 1713, leaving an only son. His grandson, Robert Dyer (d. 1748), bequeathed 20,000*l*. to Christ's Hospital. His newsletter, which was discontinued on his death, was printed in a type resembling writing; Lit. Anecd. i. 3, 71 sq. He is styled by 'Abraham Froth' (Spectator, No. 43) 'our Authentick Intelligence, our Aristotle in politics.'

113. 44. Samuel Hill, St. Mary Hall, B.A. 1666, Prebendary of Wells 1688, Archdeacon 1705, d. 1716.

114. 6. Sir W Blackett is described by Luttrell (v. 619) as 'M P. for Newcastle-on-Tyne, one of our richest commoners.' In 1699 he mentions a rumour that he was to be created a peer.—Robert Clavering, Linc., M.A. 1696; Canon of Ch. Ch. and Regius Professor of Hebrew 1715; Bishop of Llandaff 1725, and of Peterborough 1729; d. 1747.

114. 20. The passages thus characterised occur at pp. 238 and 275 of Strype's Life of Cheke, ed. 1705.

114. 25 sqq. Miles Stapylton, M.A. 1683; D.D. 1700.—R. Grey, M.A. 1686.—John Beauchamp, M.A. 1683.—An interesting article on Joseph Bingham (1668-1723), based on materials supplied by his great-grandson, will be found in Chalmers. The writer mentions that the MS. of this unfortunate sermon (Tanner MSS. xxiv. 90) was then in his own possession. See Perry, Hist. of the Ch. of England, iii. 240 sq.—H. Burd, M.A. 1700.

115. 7. Wasse published an ed. of Sallust (1707) and left materials for an ed. of Thucydides (which appeared in 1732); but he does not appear to have carried out either of the projects here mentioned. See Wordsworth, Scholae Academicæ, p. 97.

115. 16 sqq. Robert Wyntle, B.A. 1702.—John Tanner, B.A. 1704.

115. 26. Dr. William Aglionby is frequently mentioned in Luttrell. He had previously been envoy to Spain. He was a good linguist, and a wit, and his Painting illustrated, in three Dialogues, was published in 1685. Swift notes that he had been a Papist (Characters of the Court of Q. Anne).

115. 27. Of Browne Willis (1682-1760), later on a constant friend and patron of Hearne's, we shall hear much in the sequel. He had as yet published nothing, but had certainly shown indications of 'thinking fit to be generous.' He is said to have spent 1200*l.* in 'adorning and repairing' Bletchley Church.

115. 47. John Dormer, S. J., Rector of the English College at Liège, d. 1700. See de Backer, iv. 183.

116. 34. William Denison, M.A. 1700; Charles Usher, B.A. 1696, author of a pamphlet entitled A Letter to a Member of the Convocation of the University of Oxford, containing the Case of a late Fellow Elect of University College (1699).

116. 50. The Kit-Cat Club, the name of which at a later date was connected with art rather than with politics or letters, was founded by Tonson, and originally met at a Mutton-pie House in the Strand. See Spectator, ed. Morley, No. 92; Ashton, Social Life in the Reign of Q. Anne, 182 sqq.; Lit. Anecd., Index.

117. 3. Claymond's MSS. are numbered 178-181 in Mr. Cox's Catalogue, and are entitled 'Glossæ sive Commentarii in C. Plinii Historiæ Naturalis libros iv-xxvii (inc.)' Claymond was the first President of C.C.C. (1517-1537).

117. 7. It was this son John who was the occasion of Sir Thomas' oft-quoted remark to his wife, 'Thou hast prayed so long for a boy that thou hast one now who will be a boy as long as he lives.' Erasmus addressed him in a letter as optimæ spei adolescens, and dedicated to him In nucem Ovidii commentarius, and his Account of the Works of Aristotle.

117. 10. El. Wells, Ch. Ch., M.A. 1693, D.D. 1704, published in 1706 A Letter from a Minister of the Church of England to Mr. Peter Dowley, a Dissenting Teacher of the Presbyterian or else Independent Persuasion, which led to some controversy; but he was best known for his Help for the understanding of the Scriptures and Geography of the Old and New Testament.

117. 14. Dr. Thomas Bayley was President of Magd. 1703-6. See Life of Frampton, 158.

117. 31 sqq. Geo. Paul, M.A. 1706. Dr. James Talbot, of Trinity, Professor of Hebrew, published his ed. of Horace in 1699. Bentley's Horace was not published till the close of 1711 (see Jebb's Life, pp. 126 sqq.).

118. 2 sqq. 'Good fellowship' appears to have hindered the accomplishment of this design. The work mentioned a few lines below was only a reprint of Cavendish's well-known narrative.

118. 6. Neocorus, i.e. Ludolph Küster, afterwards Professor of Greek at Berlin, published his Suidas in 1705.

118. 12. Edward Acton, of Aldenham, Salop, was created a Baronet by Charles I,

Hall 1694, nominated by the Chancellor, to whom the right of nomination was confirmed in a suit arising out of this appointment (Wood's Life, 301 sq.; Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, 687 sq.; Munk's Roll of the R. Coll. of Physicians, i. 512); d. 1716.—F. Adams, b. 1651, Rector of Linc 1685–1718, Preb. of Durham 1685. 'laid out [1500.] in beautifying the Chapel and Rector's Lodgings. He was also a contributor to the building of All Saints' Church, bequeathed 200*l.* to purchase houses for enlarging the site of the College; and a large collection of Books for the Library' (Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, App., p. 264).

119. 4 sqq. S. Adams, Sen. Proc. 1705, Reader in Moral Philosophy 1703, M.D. 1706, d. 1711.—W. Adams was the author of Fifteen Sermons before the University of Oxford, published by Sacheverell 1716.—For John Adams, author of the Index Villanus (1680), see Duct. Nat. Biogr. i. 97 sq.

119. 26 Nathaniel Bacon, incorporated M.A. 1672, author of An historical Discourse of the Uniformity of the Government of England till the Reign of Edw. III (1647).

119. 28. Lancelot Addison was appointed Dean of Lichfield 1683, and Archdeacon of Coventry 1684. He died April 20, 1703, aged 71. Hearne's bibliography is by no means complete: see e.g. Courthope's Addison, p. 23; Duct. of Nat. Biog. i. 131 sqq.—Lancelot Addison the younger was afterwards (1706) Fellow of Magd. Another son, Gulston, was so named after his maternal uncle, Dr. W. Gulston, Bishop of Bristol 1679–1683. Addison's contributions to the Musarum Anglicanarum Analecta are printed vol. ii (ed. 1699), pp. 3, 44, 56, 157, 187, 199, 243, 284. See Courthope, p. 38 sq.

120. 8. Was he of the same family as the well-known politician and antiquary [Governor] Thomas Pownall (1722–1805), sometime M.P. for Minehead, Somerset?

120. 16. Cf. Boyer, p. 218; Life of Sharp, 363 sqq.

120. 36. Robert Parsons, Univ. Coll., M.A. 1670, published this sermon at Oxford 1680 (Sir T. Browne, in writing to his son, Works, iii 470, remarks that it 'is like to sell well'). Parsons was installed Archdeacon of Gloucester 1703 in succession to Hyde the orientalist, and d. 1714. See Fasts, ii. 319; Marshall's Woodstock (with Supplement), Index.

120. 40. Wm. Pindar, M.A. 1670, published a sermon on Prov. xvii. 27.

121. 3. The speech of Lancelot Addison as 'Terra Filius' gave such offence that 'he was forced to recant in the Convocation on his knees, and glad he was that he could escape with no greater punishment.' Oxoniana, iv. 215; see also i. 107. After the Restoration he was appointed chaplain to the garrison of Dunkirk, and, two years later, to that of Tangier.

121. 18. For the presentation copy of the Works of James I see Macray, Annals, 47 sq.—George Calvert (c. 1582–1632) was appointed Secretary of State 1619; but resigned in 1624, professing himself a Roman Catholic; he was created Lord Baltimore 1625. He is now best remembered by his connexion with Newfoundland, Virginia, and Maryland. See Lloyd's State Worthies, p. 750 (ed. 2).

121. 38. Hugh Broughton (1549–1613) was one of the most famous Hebraists of his day. See Strype's Life of Whitgift, ii. 527 and passim. His Works were published in 1662, and entitled The Works of the great Albionean Divine, renowned in many Nations for rare skill in Salems and Athens tongues, and familiar acquaintance with all Rabbinical Learning, Mr. Hugh Broughton. Many of his MSS. are preserved in the British Museum. See also Index to Tanner MSS.—John Speed (c. 1555–1629), the well-known historian, published in 1616 A Cloud of Witnesses; and they the Holy Genealogies of the Sacred Scriptures. James I gave him a patent securing the property of the Genealogy printed before the Bible to himself and his heirs. I do not find the 'two owls' in any of Mr. Fry's facsimiles.

122. 19. For Hare and his collections, see Nicolson's Eng. Hist. Lib. 150; Fuller's History of the University of Cambridge, 35 (ed. 1840).

122. 41. See Macray's Annals, p. 324.

122. 43. There is mention of Archibald Pitcairne's book de Inventoribus in a letter from A. Verwer to Gregory in Rigaud's Letters of Scientific Men, 1 252. It is said that David Gregory found in the papers of his uncle James Gregory some hints concerning Newton's method. The latter was an intimate friend of Sir Isaac, and was entrusted by him with a MS. copy of the Principia for the purpose of contributing observations thereon, which were incorporated in the second edition. For the reception of the Principia at Oxford, see Wordsworth, Scholae Academicæ, pp. 71, 245 sq.

123. 11. Robert Dobyns, M.A. 1695—Prince George's incapacity is familiar to us from Macaulay (i. 582); but cf. Burnet's Own Time, v. 380.

123. 19. T. Guidott, Wadham, B.M. 1666. See a full bibliography of his works, Athenæ, iv. 733. Wood is even less complimentary than Hearne in his remarks on Guidott's personal character.

123. 26. The honoured names of Aldrich and Fell need no comment. There is a too brief account of the former in the Dict. of Nat. Biog. i. 251. An adequate Life of the latter is one of the great desiderata in Oxford History, but see the extremely valuable references brought together by Prof. Mayor, Notes and Queries, 4th S. iv. 313. J. Massey, Fellow of Merton, M.A. 1675, Proctor 1684; installed Dean of Ch. Ch. Dec. 29, 1686, and fled from Oxford Nov. 30, 1688. He died in Paris 1715. Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, 441. 124. 39. Addison did not marry the Countess of Warwick till Aug. 3, 1716; see Mr. Leslie Stephen's article in the Dictionary of Nat. Biography, i. 129.

124. 45. Charles, Earl of Orrery (1676-1731), was of course the hero of the Phalaris controversy. By this marriage with the daughter of the Earl of Exeter he was the father of John, Earl of Cork and Orrery (1707-1762), the friend of Swift, Pope and Johnson.

125. 3. Particulars of this Sir John Pakington (d. 1727), and his feud with the Bishop of Worcester, are given in Kimber's Baronetage, i. 189. He was the grandson of the Lady Pakington to whom the authorship of The Whole Duty of Man has been attributed.

126. 10. For the arms and motto of the University, see Macray, Annals of the Bodleian, 15, and the same author's letter in Notes and Queries, 6th S. vol. vi. p. 194. His conclusion is, that 'four mottoes, or at any rate three, stand upon an equal footing of prescriptive authority, and that custom alone has regulated their use.'

126. 27. T. Wise, M.A. 1694, D.D. 1708, Prebendary of Lincoln 1720, d. 1726. (Boase's Register, 84.)

128. 37. An account of the consecration of Trinity College Chapel is given at p. 302 of Wood's Life. It is amusingly free from technicalities. Wood bestows one of his warmest eulogies on Dr. H. Maurice (Athenae, iv. 326), whose tenure of the professorship was so brief. His most successful work was an answer to Baxter's Church History of Bishops (1682).

128. 47. For remarks on Trussell and his works, see Nicolson, Eng. Hist. Lib. i. 4, 72, 134.—Walter Ourl was consecrated Bishop of Winchester 1632; d. 1647.

133. 4. William Watson, a secular priest, and bitter opponent of the Jesuits, published his Decachordon of ten quodlibeticall Questions concerning Religion and State in 1602. He was executed in 1603 for his share in the 'Bye' or 'surprising treason' (see Lingard, ed. 6, vii. 8 sqq.). He is mentioned in F. Morris's Life of Father John Gerard,—passim.

133. 9 sqq. C. Wase was Fellow of King's Coll., Cam., and afterwards superior Bedel of Law in Oxon. His son of the same name, of C.C.C., was M.A. 1684, Proctor 1691; d. 1711.—R. White (Vitus), Canon of Douai; see Nicolson, Eng. Hist. Lib. 72.—T. Hasker, M.A. 1694.—T. Winder, M.A. 1704.

Page 138, line 31. See Luttrell v. 627; 'Tis said the Lord Treasurer has explained correspondence with France, charged on him by Mr. Cæsar, to be only this, that the late queen Mary, at St. Germain's, sent to him for a jewel she had left behind her; upon which, he shewed King William the letter, and his majestie ordered it to be transmitted to her; and accordingly she received the same, and returned a letter of thanks, which his lordship also shewed the King.' 140. 10. Some particulars of Mr. Bromley's ancestry are given in Manning's Lives of the Speakers, 416 sqq.

140. 40. In a similar spirit Ken remarked of this work of Dodwell's that 'he built high on feeble foundations, and would not have many proselytes to his hypotheses' (Abbey and Overton, i. 117). Some letters of Nelson to Charlett are printed in Secretan's Life of the former, 225 sqq.

140. 41. For Edmund Ghishull, C.C.C., M.A. 1693, Chaplain to the English Factory at Smyrna 1698-1702, Chaplain to the Queen 1711, d. 1733, see *Lit. 142. 27. A good deal of correspondence has appeared in Notes and Queries on the subject of Arabic Numerals; but little of much value has been added to the statement quoted in Vol. i. p. 230 from the Archaeological Journal, vi. 291, that the earliest date of their occurrence in any work connected with building is 1445, though they were common in MSS. after 1320, and in astronomical tracts as early as 1290.

142. 29. Laurence Nowell, younger brother of the better-known Dean of St. Paul's, Dean of Lichfield 1559, d. 1576, is described by Wood (Athenae, i. 425) as 'a most diligent searcher into venerable antiquity, a most learned Clerk also in the Saxon Language, and . . one of the first that recalled the study thereof.' Lambard the Kentish antiquary was his pupil. A MS. of his writing entitled Polychronicon was in the possession of Ralph Thoresby; and a Saxon vocabulary compiled by him passed through the hands of Lambard, &c., into the Bodleian Library, where a transcript of it by Junius is likewise preserved.

142. 31. For this inscription, and references to authorities, see Davies Gilbert's Parochial History of Cornwall, i. 178 sqq. A popular history of the Parish of St. Neot was published by the editor's grandfather, in 1833 (Bodmin: Liddell & Son).

146. 14. For Hallam's final opinion on this subject, see Middle Ages (ed. 11), iii. 420 sq. Cf. Wood-Gutch, Annals, i. 23. Hearne gave considerable attention to the subject in later years; and it is dealt with exhaustively by Mr. Parker in his Early History of Oxford (1885), pp. 40 and foll.

147. 32. Full particulars of the life and works of Isaac Barrow (1630–1677) are given in Ward's Lives of the Gresham Professors, 157 sqq. His Euclidis Elementa was published at Cambridge 1655, and Euclidis Data in 1657.

158. 50. Sir E. Sherburne (1618–1702), of the ancient stock of the Sherburnes of Stonyhurst, is best remembered by his English verse translations from Seneca and Manilius, and by his remote connexion with the Phalaris controversy. See an account of this circumstance in Jebb's Bentley, 33. There is a very interesting account of his career in the Fasti, ii. 30. He was commissary general of the artillery under Charles I and his sons, but refused to take the oaths to William III.

159. 19. The Archbishop of York was of course John Sharp, d. 1714. An account of his position, political and ecclesiastical, will be found in Abbey and Overton, i. 127 sqq. The Life by his son is a highly interesting record of his career, and throws much light on the general history of his time.

See Campbell's Middle State, 79 (ap. Lathbury, Nonjurors, 278). The Usages were of course the mixed chalice, prayers for the dead, the prayer for the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Elements, and the Oblatory Prayer. They were all introduced in the New Communion Office put forth by Collier, Brett, and Campbell in 1718. See Abbey and Overton, i. 151 sgg.

175. 27. This sermon was on Genesis xlii. 21. Kennett's former sermon here alluded to was preached in 1704, and called forth at least four replies.

175. 32. Matthew Woodford, M.A. 1698, afterwards sub-dean of Chichester. Samuel Woodford (p. 179, l. 9), Wadham Coll., was B.A. 1656, Preb. of Chichester 1676, of Winchester 1680 (Athenae, iv. 730; Wood's Life, 91). For Denham's version of the Psalms, see Athenae, iii. 826. Wood only knew of it by Woodford's mention in his Occasional Compositions in English Rhymes.

175. 50. Otho Nicholson, Ch. Ch., an Examiner in Chancery, was a younger son of Thomas Nicholson of the county of Lancaster. See his epitaph in Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, 459. Carfax Conduit was erected at his expense in 1610; see Gentleman's Magazine, Dec. 1771.

176. 15. The Archduke Charles, titular King of Spain, arrived at Windsor Dec. 29, 1703. Full particulars of the visit are given in Miss Strickland's Lives of the Queens, xii 98 sqq. (ed. 1848).

176. 23. For the character of Sir Joseph Williamson (d. 1701), see Mr. Christie's Introduction to his Letters (Camden Soc. 1874); Athenae, Index; Noble, i. 155 sqq.; Lonsdale's Worthies of Cumberland, vi. 217 sqq. P[ayne] F[isher] wrote a Carmen Heroicum in his honour (ed. 2, 1675).

176. 35. The inscription to Julius Vitalis is printed in Spelman's Life of Alfred the Great (ed. Hearne), 226 sqq. Dodwell wrote critical notes upon it, which were published by Musgrave, 1711.

176. 37. The Life of Dr. Tobie Venner (1577–1660) is in the Athenae (iii. 491). Wood remarks that this book 'was written in condescension to mean capacities.'

176. 41. He is described by Luttrell (vi. 12) as 'one Dr. Brown, who formerly wrote a tract against the circulation of the blood,' i. e. Joseph Browne, M.D., author of The modern Practice Vindicated and a Treatise on the Blood, editor of Sir Theodore Mayer's Works, and continuer of the Examiner (Noble, ii. 232).

176. 46. The Expositio sancti Jeronimi in Symbolum Apostolorum, Oxon. 1468, has caused much controversy. See S. W. Singer's Account of the Expositio, Lond. 1812, supporting the genuineness of the date, and W. Blades in the Antiquary, vol. iii. No. 13 (Jan. 1881), taking the general view that the date is an error for 1478. The question has been complicated by a forgery in R. Atkyns' Original of Printing, Lond. 1664, p. 4. Rufinus was the author of the Expositio, not St. Jerome.

177. 10. The first book printed by Caxton in England was probably The Dictes and Sayings of the Philosophers, 1477. See Blades' Biography and Typography of William Caxton (ed. 2), 188 sqq., &c. In l. 19 Hearne has written 'Octavos' for 'Quartos'; and in l. 35 'Wod' for 'Rood.' Cf. Wood-Gutch, Annals, i. 623 sqq.

177. 31. The Expositio Alexandri super tres [Aristotelis] libros de Anima, Oxon. 1481, is the first folio produced by the Oxford Press, and the copy at Brasenose is the only known one on vellum. Some copies exhibit a woodcut border on the first leaf, the first engraved border found in English printing. The author is supposed to be Alexander ab Ales or Hales.

177. 44. For Thomas Bennet (d. Aug. 26, 1706, aged 41), 'a first-rate Bookseller in St. Paul's Church-yard, particularly noticed by the Established Clergy of that period, and by the leading men at Oxford, as appears by the controversy of Mr. Boyle with Dr. Bentley,' see Lit. Anecd. iii. 709 sqq. His funeral sermon was preached by Atterbury, and roused some controversy.

177. 48. For the history of this question under Q. Elizabeth, see Kennett's Case of Impropriations, pp. 153 sqq., with the references there given; cf. Spelman, De non temerandis Ecclesiis (ed. 5, 1676), passim.

178. 12. See Boyer, 227 sq. Dr. John Cawley was Archdeacon of Lincoln, 1667-1709.

179. 5 sqq. For Miles Stapylton, see Worthies of All Souls, 290 sq. He belonged to a Roman Catholic family. He was B.A. (Univ.) 1679, M.A. (All Souls) 1683, B. and D.D. 1700, in which year he became Preb. of Worcester. He died 1731.—Richard Simon (1638-1712), priest of the Oratory, the learned author of the Histoire critique du Vieux Testament and many other works.—Jean Hardouin, S. J. (1646-1729), published his ed. of Pliny 1685, and his Chronologiae ex nummis antiquis restitutae prolusio, de nummis Herodiadum, in which this and other minor paradoxes were maintained, in 1693. He formally recanted his errors in 1708. See Lit. Anecd. Index; de Backer, i 372 sqq.—Christopher Wase's trans. of Vitruvius never saw the light.

179. 49. Edward Ward (c. 1667-1731) is best known as the author of The London Spy. He kept a public-house in Moorfields, which was frequented by members of the High Church party (Jacob). He is mentioned in the Dunciad, i. 233. See Noble, ii. 262.

180. 31. Was this John Powell, a lawyer of Gloucester, to whom Bp. Frampton addressed a letter preserved in Tanner MSS. xxxii?

180. 42 Henry Gandy, M.A. 1674, was Senior Proctor 1683. He was a Bishop among the nonjurors, and a vigorous opponent of the 'Usages.' He died in 1733. Noble has fallen into an extraordinary error with regard to him (iii. 173).

181. 12. The Proctors in 1706 were Brune Bickley, New Coll., M.A. 1696, B. and D.M. 1710; and Peter Foulkes, Ch. Ch., M.A. 1701, B. and D.D. 1710, afterwards Preb., sub-dean and Chancellor of Exeter.—Thomas Bickley was Bishop of Chichester 1586-1596.

181. 45. D. Passionei (1682-1761) was raised to the Cardinalate in 1738, and in 1755 became librarian of the Vatican, the treasures of which he liberally opened to Dr. Kennicott. He was an enthusiastic collector of books and works of art.

182. 6 sqq. Tho. Husbands, All Souls, B.A. 1697; New Coll., M.A. 1700.—John Maximilian De L'Angle, M.A. 1694.

182. 19. For Robert Dormer (1649-1726), see Foss, Biographia Juridica, 224; and for the Leicester election (ll. 36 sqq.) Luttrell, vi. 6, 11, 14.

183. 6 sqq. Almeloveen's ed. of Strabo appeared at Amsterdam 1707.—Gronovius did not publish an ed. of Josephus, but his notes, as well as those of Cocceius, were incorporated in the Dutch ed. of 1726.—Verwey never brought out his edition of Hesychius.—There is mention of Peter van der Aa the bookseller in Athenae, iv. 463.

183. 36. One is irresistibly reminded of Radcliffe's quotation from Sir Roger L'Estrange's version of Aesop's Fables, applied to William III, regarding the man who felt himself 'so well, that I am e'en ready to die of I know not how many good signs and Tokens' (Life of Radcliffe, p. 40, ed. 1715).

184. 9. For St. Scholastica's day, see Oxomana, i. 119 sqq., and cf. Wood's Life, 224 sq.

184. 30. Ralph Emmerson, M.A. 1700.

184. 34. For the history of the Abbey of North Osney or Rewley, see Leonard Hutten's 'Antiquities of Oxford,' printed at the end of the Textus Roffensis, ed. Hearne, 1720. Cf. Dugdale, Monast. Angl. (1846), v. 697, sqq.; Skelton's Oxonia Antiqua Restaurata, Plate 113 and letterpress; Tanner's Notitia Monastica (ed. 1), 183.

185. 12. Dr. Hudson was born near Cokermonth, and according to the Biographia Britannica was educated under Jerome Hechstetter. The latter's nephew, here spoken of, was perhaps Leonard Fell, Queen's, B.A. 1684. See p. 186, ll. 42 sqq.

185. 16 sqq. This insinuation against Bryan Twyne (1579-1644) had already been noticed and not too vigorously refuted by Wood (Athenae, iii. 108 sqq.).—For Thomas Allen (1542-1632) see Athenae, ii. 541; Fuller's Worthies, iii. 137; Letters from the Bodleian, ii. 201, Dictionary of National Biography, i. 312 sq.; and for Miles Windore (c. 1541-1624), Athenae, ii. 358. There is no reason to believe that Twyne made an unfair use of other men's labours. See Letters from the Bodleian, i. 148 sqq. It will be remembered that William Smith, in his Annals of University College (1728), refuted Twyne's arguments in favour of the mythical (Brutus-Alfred) antiquity of the University of Oxford (153 sqq.).

186. 17. The first book printed in Virginia was produced at Williamsburg about 1682. A charter was granted to the College by William and Mary 1691, see 'The present State of Virginia and the College, by Messieurs Hartwell, Blair and Chilton. To which is added, The Charter for Erecting the said College, granted by their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary of Ever Glorious and Pious Memory, (London, 1727),' pp. 67 sqq.

186. 24. George Carter, Univ., B.A. 1693; Oriel, M.A. 1696; D.D. 1708; Provost of Oriel 1708-1727, Preb. of Rochester, Peterborough, and St. Paul's.

187. 4 sqq. For the MSS presented by Oliver Cromwell to the Bodleian, see Macray's Annals, 55; on the purchase of Ussher's library for Trinity Coll., Dublin, Edwards' Memoirs of Libraries, ii. 47 sqq.; and for Ussher's funeral, Parr's Life, 78 sq.

187. 14. Some Passages of the Life and Death of the Rt. Hon. John Wilmot Earl of Rochester, who died 26 July, 1680, written by his Lordship's Direction on his Death-bed, by Burnet, was published in 8vo, 1680. Some particulars of Wilmot's career will be found in Marshall's Early History of Woodstock Manor, 235 sqq., and Supplement, 20 sqq.

187. 22 Dr. Thomas Lyndesay, Fellow of Wadham, Dean of St. Patrick's 1693, Bishop of Killaloe 1695, of Raphoe 1713, Archbp of Armagh 1714, d. 1724 (Cotton, Fast. Eccl. Hib. ii. 102 sq.) He was a correspondent of Charlett.

187. 26. William Nicolson, Bp. of Carlisle 1702, Derry 1718, Archbp of Cashel 1727; d. 1727 (Cotton, i. 17). Some interesting letters from him to Archbp Wake, referring to the rebellion of 1715, are printed in Ellis' Original Letters, series I. vol. iii. 360 sqq. His correspondence, edited by Nichols, is well known, and there is an amusing account of his difficulties with regard to giving Atterbury institution as Dean of Carlisle in the Life of Archbp. Sharp, 235 sqq. Edward Rainbow was Bishop of Carlisle 1664-1684.

187. 34. Dr. Hough was consecrated Bp. of Oxford 1690, and held the Presidency in commendam till 1701; Bp. of Lichfield 1699, Worcester 1717; d. 1743.—Thomas Goodwin, M.A. 1683, D.D. 1706.

187. 43. W. Beaw, New Coll., M.A. 1644, D.D. 1666, Vicar of Adderbury, Oxon; Bp. of Llandaff 1679. See Index to Fasts; Burrows' Register of the Visitors, 527, &c.

188. 11. James Fayer, D.D. 1704. He seems to have published nothing to justify his election to the Professorship of Natural Philosophy.

188. 20. The Terrae Filii for 1693 were Henry Alworth, Ch. Ch., M.A. 1692, and H. Smith, Ch. Ch. A manuscript copy of this speech is in the possession of Mr. Madan, a collation of which renders Hearne's version more intelligible, if not more edifying. E.g., at p. 189, l. 1, Hearne has wrongly transcribed 'curculiunculus'; l. 30, read 'Ubi Promus sit, quaero, ubi Coquus, ubi Mancipalis, ubi Lixa?' and 'Respondit' should be 'Respondet'; p. 190, l. 18, 'Coslæo' is clearly a mistake for 'Crosleijo,' l. 29, 'periculosus' for 'feroculus,' and 'Politica' for 'Poetica.' For the first two lines of the translation of Hody, Mr. Madan's MS. reads: 'Let now sad Ireland no more cry Heigh-ho; | Lions do things would make a harp sing Jo.'

188. 35 Dr. Arthur Bury, Preb. of Exeter 1661, Rector of Exeter Coll. 1666, ejected by the Visitor 1690 His Naked Gospel, 'by a true son of the Church of England,' was almost avowedly Socinian (Abbey and Overton, i. 488). See an account of the whole affair in Athenae, iv. 482, and references in Fifth Report of the Hist. MSS. Comm. 376, 377, 380. Considerable litigation ensued; but the House of Lords finally gave judgment in favour of the Visitor Dec. 10. 1694. See Wood's Life, 294, 308; Boase, Register of the Rectors &c. of Exeter College, xxxiii sqq., 68. 'He was living at Bampton in Oxon about 1714 (?).'

189. 11 sqq. The 'nick-nackatory' is mentioned in Terrae Filius No. xlv.—Cf. letter of Lhwyd in MS. Aubrey 12 (240); 'The generality of the people at Oxford do not yet know what y^e Musæum is; for they call y^e whole Bylding y^e Labratory or Knackatory, and distinguish no farther.' Dr. Ludwell reappears in the Terrae Filius speech for 1703 as being for some cause discommensed.

190. 5. The relations between Dr. Hyde and his wife had long been a subject of gossip in Oxford: cf. Prideaux' Letters to Ellis, p. 46; Life of Radcliffe, ed. 3.

191. 23. George Sawbridge (Lit. Anecd. iii. 597), was fined 200l.; Luttrell, vi. 41.

191. 40. For this letter of the Princess Sophia, see Stanhope's Reign of Q. Anne, i. 233, and reference. An abstract of Sir Rowland Gwynne's letter to the Earl of Stamford (dated Hanover, Jan. 1, 1706) is given in Boyer, 224 sq. It was handed to the press by Mr Charles Gildon.

192. 13. John Disney, b. 1677, took orders when about forty years of age, and was Vicar of St. Mary's, Nottingham, from 1722 till his death in 1730. He planned a great work, to be entitled Corpus Legum de Moribus Reformandis, and published several essays relating to the Laws against Immorality and Profaneness, as well as a View of Ancient Laws on the same subject (Cambridge, 1729, fol.). In connexion with the subject mentioned by Hearne, he published in 1714 The Genealogy of the most Serene and most Illustrious House of Brunswick-Lunenburgh, . . . drawn up from the best Historical and Genealogical writers. His Life in the Biog. Brit. was written by his grandson of the same name, the biographer of Dr. Jebb, Jortin, Brand Hollis, &c.

192. 41. John Mayow, D.C.L. 1670, d. 1679; see Athenae, iii. 1199.—Tho. Mayow, M.A. 1669, D.M. 1678.

193. 2. This account of the early career of Matthew Tindal, the Deist, seems to be correct. He was afterwards of Exeter, and finally, till his death in 1733, Fellow of All Souls. His father was John Tindal, incumbent of Beer-Ferres, Devon. His earliest works were An Essay concerning the Laws of Nations and the Rights of Sovereigns, and An Essay concerning Obedience to the Supreme Powers (1694). Dr. Hickeys published at least two answers to his Rights of the Christian Church asserted. See Athenae, iv. 584; Burrows' Worthies of All Souls, 381, &c.; Noble, iii. 323.

193. 28. This Sermon, on Matt. xxvii. 25, was preached Jan. 30, 1703.

193. 32. Wm. Lowth (1661-1732), father of the learned Bishop of London, Preb. of Winchester 1696, published his Vindication of the Divine Authority and Inspiration of the Old and New Testament, in answer to Le Clerc's Five Letters, in 1692.

193. 39. Thomas Wood, nephew of Antony (see note on p. 19, l. 17), was rector of Hardwick, Bucks. His subsequent publications were on legal subjects.

193. 49. Sanchoniathon's History is now generally admitted to be a forgery of Philon Byblius, who possibly invented even the name. Dodwell first attacked its genuineness in 1681, his attention having been called to it by Dr. Thomas Smith; Brokesby's Life of Dodwell, 84 sqq.

194. 19. The reference is to Dr. Thos. Gibson's Anatomy of Human Bodies anatomized (1684).

195. 7. Edward Cranke, M.A. 1698.

195. 33 sqq. Hugh Hutchin, M.A. 1701.—Robt. Cook, Ch. Ch., M.A. 1692.

195. 50. The Poetical Courant (Jan. 26—June 29, 1706) is No. 68 in the Catalogue of the Hope Collection. It was edited by Samuel Philips, Gent., late of St. John's Coll., Oxford.

196. 6. The same use of infucata occurs in the inscription in Shottesbrooke Church to Anne Chery, see Thomae de Elmham Vita Henrici Quinti, ed. Hearne, p. 388. This is the only instance in Ducange, but the word seems to occur in both senses in classical Latin.

196. 10. Some details of the position of the Episcopal clergy in Scotland at this time are given in Lathbury's Nonjurors, 442 sqq. Cf. also the Life of Archbp. Sharp, i. 383 sqq.

196. 30. Thomas Collins, Gloucester Hall, M.A. 1667, became Master of Magd. Coll. School 1673 (Wood's Life, 190).—For Ch. Allestree, see Athenae, iv. 656.

197. 9. Henry Nicholson's Conference between the Soul and Body concerning the present and future State appeared in 1705. It was afterwards printed with a recommendation by Dodwell, together with Ken's Morning and Evening Prayers.

197. 18. Thomas Goddard, Canon of Windsor 1705; d. 1731.

197. 19. For Thomas Lydiat (1572-1646) see Fuller's Worthies, iii. 21 (ed. Nuttall) and Athenae, iii. 185, which confirms this account of his poverty, and where some particulars of his controversy with Scaliger are given. Dr. Johnson introduces him in his Vanity of Human Wishes.—The account of the extreme distress of the 'ever memorable' John Hales (Athenae, iii. 409; Letters from the Bodleian, ii. 362) is probably exaggerated; see the article in Chalmers' Biographical Dictionary.—For Fuller it is only necessary to refer to Mr. J. E. Bailey's exhaustive Life.

198. 15. See 'Dr. Wallis's Account of some Passages of his own Life,' printed by Hearne in his ed. of Peter Langtoft's Chronicle, and an extract from a letter to Dr. Fell, in which Dr. Wallis remarks: 'Of those letters and papers (whatever they were) I never saw any one of them, but in print. nor did those papers, as I have been told, need any deciphering at all, either by me, or anybody else: being taken in words at length, just as they were printed.' See various particulars of Wallis's Life (1616–1703) in Athenae, passim; and for Dr. Richard Zouch (c. 1590–1661), Principal of St. Alban's Hall 1625, ib. iii. 510. The portrait here mentioned was painted by Sir Godfrey Kneller at the expense of Pepys, and correspondence relating to it is printed at the end of the Diary in the ordinary editions. Dr. Wallis's books are preserved in the Savile Library (Macray's Annals, 251).

199. 10. See p. 3, ll. 33 sqq.

199. 12. There is an interesting account of Michael Hudson in Athenae, iii. 233. He accompanied Charles I on his flight from Oxford in 1646, see Gutch, Coll. Cur. ii. 452 sqq., and Lloyd's Memoirs, 624 sq.

199. 23. Luttrell adds (vi. 22) that 'several speeches were made that 'twas too severe, being to take away the estates of such who, at the age of 18, did not turn to the Church of England, and given to the next protestant heir; that it would disoblige our allies, and look like persecution.'

200. 10. Wasse's ed. of Sallust appeared in 1710; J. Davies' ed. of Caesar 1706; P. Needham's Hierocles 1709 (see Life of A. Bonwicke, ed. Mayor, 170, and for W. Piers, ib. 188 sq.).

200. 23. Bp. Tanner's first wife was Rose, eldest d. of Dr. Moore, Bishop of Ely: she died March 15, 1706, aged 25. Of Dr. Finch full details are given in Worthies of All Souls, 291–314, &c. His one publication was A thanksgiving Sermon on the Restoration, on Is. i. 26. On the regiment of foot and troop of horse raised by the University at the time of Monmouth's rebellion, see Wood's Life, 265 sqq.

VOL. IX.

Page 201, line 10. Cuthbert Ellison, B.A. 1704.—John Hodgson, B.A. 1699.—Sir William Glynn (d. 1721) was a Burgess for the University in 1698, and M.P. for Woodstock in the Parliament of 1702. His only son William, of All Souls, cr. M.A. 1713, died before him.—For Roger Dodsworth (1585–1654), see Index to Athenae; Life of Wood, 192, 329, and Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, 96 sq. Hearne's praise is by no means exaggerated.

201. 42. For the Royal Palace, &c., it is only necessary to refer to Marshall's Early History of Woodstock Manor. The passage from Brompton is quoted at p. 50. The hint as to the demolition of churches for the construction of the park wall is taken from J. Rossi, Hist. Regum Angliae, afterwards edited by Hearne (p. 138, ed. 1745); Mr. Marshall points out that there is no ground whatever for such a suggestion, p. 21. For the 'strange passages' that befell the Parliamentary Commissioners at Woodstock in 1649, see Plot's Nat. Hist. Oxfordshire, 206 sqq.; Marshall, 204 sq. and Suppl.

202. 24. Dr. Tho. Tully was Principal of Edmund Hall 1658–1676; see Athenae, iv. 1055; Life of Bull, 212 sqq.

203. 5. William Wall (1646–1728) was Vicar of Shoreham for fifty-two years (Perry, History of the Church of England, iii. 240). He was a warm admirer of Atterbury, Lit. Anecd. i. 114 sq. The reference is to vol. i. 659 (ed. Cotton, 1862) of his Infant Baptism, ed. 1 of which appeared in 1705.

203. 30. Ménage (1613–1692) does not seem to have published a book on this subject.

203. 33. This announcement of the death of Mr. H. Pooley was premature. He was counsel for the Earl of Oxford on his trial, and was elected M.P. for Ipswich May 11, 1705. His successor was elected Nov. 21, 1708. In this year Dr. Radcliffe placed 50 guineas in his hands, for Dr. Drake's defence (Life, 46).

204. 10. Wm. Brome, Ch. Ch., B.A. 1687. He was Urry's executor, and edited Somner's Treatise of the Roman Ports and Forts in Kent. He corresponded with Charlett, Rawlinson, &c. See Index to Ballard MSS., and to Nichols' Lit. Anecd.

204. 13. Cf. Luttrell, vi. 24; Bancroft's History of the United States, iii. 18 sq.—John Granville, cr. Baron Granville 1702, d. 1707.

204. 35. Col. [Robert?] Finch had been a prominent Jacobite in 1690; see Luttrell, ii. 38, &c. The love of antiquities appears to have been characteristic of the family: cf. Lit. Anecd., Index.

205. 9. George Smith published his trans. of Pliny's Panegyric at London, 1702, 8vo.

206. 10. Olaus Wormius (1588–1654), the learned author of many works on Scandinavian literature, history, and antiquities, was thrice married, and had sixteen children. His son William (1633–1704) published De corruptis antiquitatibus Hebraearum apud Tacitum et Martialem vestigis libri duo (1693). His grandson, Christian, published Historia Sabelliana (1696), and De variis causis cur delectatos humanis carnibus et promiscuo concubitu Christianos calumniati sunt Ethnici (1695).—Thermodus Torfaeus (d. c. 1720) published the three works here mentioned at Copenhagen in 1697, 1702 and 1706 respectively.

206. 21. J. Caswell, Wadh., M.A. 1677; Savilian Professor of Astronomy 1709–1713, published A brief (but full) Account of the Doctrine of Trigonometry both plain and spherical (Oxford, 1685, fol.). See Wordsworth, Scholae Academicæ, 71, 246.—Joshua Reynolds, M.A. 1697.

206. 42. Sir W. Glynn was Kennett's first patron, and presented him in 1684 to the vicarage of Ambrosden. Kennett was presented to the rectory of Shottesbrooke in 1693, Nichols' Lit. Anecd. i. 394 sqq.

207. 9. John Sheffield, Duke of Buckinghamshire, m. thirdly, Lady Catherine Darnley, d. of James II by Catherine [Sedley] Countess of Dorchester. She m. 1699 James, third Earl of Anglesey, and was divorced from him 1701.

207. 19. Edw. Hinton, M.A. 1694.

207. 34. Hearne seems to have overlooked Wood's statement (Athenae, iii. 623, 627) that the King's translation was that published in 1655.

252. 13. Gudius had died in 1689. The Duke of Wolfenbittel purchased his MSS. through the agency of Leibnitz (Edwards' Memoirs of Libraries, ii. 425). A Catalogue of his books was printed at Hamburg under the title of Bibliotheca exquisitissimis libris in theologia, jure, medicina, historia literaria, omnique alio studiorum genere instructissima. Gudius detected the error regarding the supposed discovery of the tomb of Livy at Padua (Lit. Anecd. iii. 299).—Émeric Bigot (1626-1689) inherited the nucleus of his library from his father, and entailed the collection on his family.

252. 39. For Hadrian Beverland, see Fasti, ii. 334. He was befriended by Vossius, who procured him a pension on his arrival in England. After Vossius' death he fell into extreme poverty, and his reason gave way. He seems to have died c. 1712. There is a portrait of him by Kneller in the Bodleian Gallery. See Hearne's ed. of Peter Langtoft, clxxii. Indexes to Rawlinson and Tanner MSS., and Cat. Bod. (where the latest entry is dated 1710). The ed. of Catullus here referred to was published in 1684, four years before Vossius' death.

253. 16. These are not the initials of any of Boyle's Lecturers between 1699 and 1706, if we may rely on the list in Lit. Anecd. vi. 453.

253. 20. Blondel on Baronius does not appear to have been printed. It need hardly be said that the Locus classicus on Baronius for English students is to be found in Pattison's Life of Casaubon, 362 sqq.

253. 22. See Cave's letter to Aitchbp. Tenison (Oct. 1697) in the General Biographical Dictionary, ed. Chalmers, xxxi. 343 sqq (art. 'Wharton').

253. 42. 'Historia vitæ et regni Richardi II. Angliæ Regis, a Monacho quodam de Evesham consignata,' was edited by Hearne. A letter concerning the author from Llwyd to Dr. Smith was printed with it.

254. 29. Mr. James Gairdner, of the Public Record Office, has kindly examined this letter, and informs me that it was undoubtedly addressed to Wolsey and not to Pole. Wolsey was Mary's compater: see account of her christening in Calendar of S.P., Hen VIII., ii. No. 1573. Mr Gairdner is disposed to date it between October 1526 and August 1527, but more probably about October 1526. Mary at that date was under ten years of age! This letter was printed by Hearne in Titi Livii Forojulensis Vita Henrici Quinti, pp 122 sq.

255. 9. Dr. John Nicholas, Warden of New Coll. 1675, Warden of Winchester 1679, Preb. of Winchester 1684, d. 1712.

256. 22. Vaccaria is explained in Ducange (ed. 1846) as 'Ager vel prædium vaccarum numerum colendo idoneum.'

256. 31. Cf. Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, 52 and n; Marshall, Early History of Woodstock Manor, 158. Elizabeth was a prisoner at Woodstock 1554-5, and it may be noticed that two sets of verses written by her during this period are signed 'Elizabeth, Prisoner.' See Warton, Life of Sir T. Pope, 64 sqq.

257. 4. For full particulars of this book and inscription, see Macray's Annals of the Bodleian, 42 sqq.

257. 20. For the library of the Escorial, see Edwards' Memoirs of Libraries ii. 550 sq. It contained 567 Greek MSS, a catalogue of which, by Miller, was printed at the expense of the French Government in 1848.

259. 7. Dr. Tyson's (1649-1708; Magd. Hall, M.A. 1673) principal works are Phocaena, or the Anatomy of a Porpoise, dissected at Gresham Colledge (1680); Carigueya, seu marsupiale Americanum; or, the Anatomy of an Opossum (1698), and Orang-Outang, sive homo sylvestris; or the Anatomy of a Pygmie (1699). He was at this time physician to Bethlem and Bridewell Hospitals.

The 14th ed. of an Account of the Progress of the Reformation of Manners was published in 1706. They were at first so successful that 'our constables sometimes of late have found it difficult to take up a swearer in divers of our streets.' They continued active for about forty years.

260. 26. Philip Ayres was the translator of Pax redux, or the Christian Reconciler; a short account of the Life and Death of Pope Alexander VII; and De Salas' Fortunate Fool; see Dict. of Nat Biogr ii. 292.

261. 15. The account of the banishment of Thomas de Mowbray, Duke of Norfolk, is borrowed by Shakespeare from Holinshed, i. 493 sqq. His duchess was Elizabeth daughter and co-heir of Richard Fitz-Alan, Earl of Arundel. He died at Venice 1413.

261. 26. W. Perriam, M.A. 1704; Preb. of Salisbury 1738, d. 1743.

263. 11. This MS. is No. CCII. in the Catalogue of Queen's College MSS. Mr. Coxe refers to Bentley's Preface to his Horace, ed. 1728.

263. 13. An adequate account of the misunderstanding with regard to the MS. of the Letters of Phalaris, and Bentley's triumphant refutation of the charge of discountesy, is given in Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 66 sqq., 84, 98, &c.; Jebb, 49 sqq.

266. 24. W. Musgrave, New Coll., M.D. 1689, F.R.S., settled in Exeter in 1689, where he published several medical and antiquarian works, the best-known of which is his Belgium Britannicum. He died in 1721. His grandson was Samuel Musgrave, the editor of Euripides. See Index to Lit. Anecd.

267. 48. John Walrond, M.A. 1680; Tho. Crosthwait, D.D. 1684, Principal of Edmund Hall 1684-5.

268. 50. Hickes became Lauderdale's chaplain in 1676. Burnet, i. 173, says that the latter 'was very learned, not only in Latin, in which he was a master, but in Greek and Hebrew. He had read a great deal of divinity, and almost all the historians ancient and modern' Specimens of his correspondence will be found in the two vols. of the Lauderdale Papers recently edited by Mr. Osmund Airy for the Camden Society.

269. 24. Cf. Luttrell, vi. 62.

269. 27 sqq. John Tyler, Magd., M.A. 1686; Preb. of Hereford 1688, Dean 1692; Bp. of Llandaff 1706, d. 1724.—John Savage, of Eman. Coll., Cam., B. and D.D. 1707.—Barnes' History of that most victorious Monarch Edward III was published in 1688.

270. 10. J. Brodeau (1500-1563) published Annotations on Oppian in 1552. Epigrammata Graeca cum Annotationibus Brodae et H. Stephani was published at Frankfurt in 1600.

270. 13. H. Felton, M.A. 1702, Principal of Edmund Hall 1722, chaplain to the Duke of Rutland and Rector of Whitwell, Derbyshire; d. 1740.

271. 33. This book of Burton's was published in 1646.

273. 15. The origin and progress of the feud between Barnes and Bentley is narrated in Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 52 sqq., 291 sqq.

274. 17. M. Payne, Fellow of Trin. Coll., Cam., d. 1695.

274. 28. Barnes was on the foundation of Christ's Hospital. John Goad, on whose death he wrote an elegy, succeeded Dugard as Head Master of Merchant

Taylor's School 1661-1681, and afterwards kept a private school in Piccadilly. See Athenae, iv. 267; Robinson, Merchant Taylor's School Register, i. xiv.—Cornelius Crownfield was Printer to the Univ. of Cambridge 1696-1742 (Wordsworth's Scholae Acad. 393, &c.).

275. 33. For Ludolph Kuster (1670-1716), see Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 154 sq., &c., 404. He had adopted the nom de guerre of Neocorus (= sexton = Kuster) in his earliest work Historia critica Homeri, Frankfurt 1696.

275. 52. The Scholia on Oppian here referred to are contained in Barocci MS. 38, fol. 85 sqq. (printed in Cramer's Anecdota Graeca, iv. 269).

276. 9. Dr Henry Sike, formerly of Utrecht, is again familiar to us from Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 185 sq. Bentley had secured his election in 1705. He committed suicide in 1712. A letter from Adrian Reland (ib. i. 329) mentions his promise of some excerpts from Abulfeda. The MS. referred to at p. 286, l. 26, is now No. 287 in the All Souls collection of MSS, and is in the handwriting of W. Guise, M.A., formerly fellow, whose widow bequeathed it to the College. It is thus described: 'Canon seu rectificatio Terrarum regis fortis principis r̄hs Hamath; est scilicet geographia, auctore Abul Pheda Ismaela filii τοῦ Almelec Al Naser.' See Pearson, Chaplains to the Levant Company, 23.

279. 1 sqq. Sixty-one volumes of Casaubon's MSS. were bequeathed to the Bodleian in 1671 by his son Meic (Macray, Annals, 95). They are catalogued in Codices Graeci, Part I, 825-850. Some remarks on the general character of these Adversaria will be found in Mark Pattison's Life, 481 sqq.

280. 11. Sir Edward Seymour had been dismissed from the Comptrollership of the Household in 1704. Charles was his third son by his second wife.

280. 13. John Methuen died in Portugal July 2. He was the hero of the Methuen Treaty: see Spectator No. 43, Burton's Reign of Q. Anne, ii. 69 sqq. He was succeeded as ambassador by his son.

280. 23. A juster estimate of Strype's merits as an ecclesiastical historian is given by Sir H. Ellis in his Letters of Eminent Literary Men, p. 176.

280. 50. For James Dupont, see Mullinger, Cambridge Characteristics in the Seventeenth Century, 181 sqq.

281. 4. Samuel (afterwards Lord) Masham, b. 1680, was the youngest son by his first wife of Sir Francis Masham, who is known to us from the Life of Locke. For an account of the circumstances of his marriage to Abigail Hill, see the Duchess of Marlborough's Vindication, 177 sq.

281. 37. I have not yet been able to satisfy myself with regard to the handwriting of this book. I incline to think that the alterations on the title-page &c. are in Fell's hand, and that the remainder of the MS. is from the pen of an amanuensis. The alleged resemblance to Sancroft's very characteristic hand is purely imaginary. Samuel Keble, of Fleet Street, was a high church bookseller, having relations with the nonjurors. See Lit. Anecd. i. 702, where Dunton's character of him is quoted; and Index to Rawlinson MSS. He compiled the very unsatisfactory list of the editions of Esbon Basilike printed at the end of Wagstaffe's Vindication.

282. 14. Sancroft was Master of Emanuel 1662-5, and Thos. Holbeche 1676-1680. Sancroft published remarkably little considering his extensive collections and great learning.

282. 26. G. Ursinus published at Copenhagen in 1697 Antiquitates Hebraicae scholastico-academicae. He is not of course the same Dr. Ursinus whose name is so frequently mentioned in the account of the negotiations for the introduction of the Liturgy of the Church of England into Prussia at the beginning of the 18th century (Life of Sharp, i. 403 sqq.).

282. 30 sqq. John Wilder, M.A. 1703.—John Gere, M.A. 1697, Preb. of Hereford 1734.

282. 36. On Mr. Hart's sermon, see Luttrell, vi. 83.

283. 1. Thos. Wyatt, St. John's, Jun. Proc. 1659.—Hearne is in error here; the new Prebendary was Rice Adams, Hart Hall, B.A. 1678.

283. 8. For Sir Thomas Cookes (d. 1701) and his benefaction of 10,000*l.*, see Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, 630 sq.; Nash, Hist. of Worcestershire, ii. 408.

283. 31. For Dr. Tudway, Professor of Music and organist of St. Mary's, and his deprivation, see Monk's Bentley, i. 261 n., Luttrell, vi. 77. He subsequently signed a humble apology, and his suspension was taken off March 10, 1707.

283. 35. There is an anecdote of Dr. Bayley in the Life of Frampton 158.

283. 37. Dr. John Rogers was President 1701-3.—James, fourth Earl of Barri-more, m. as his second wife, Elizabeth, daughter and heir of Richard Savage, Earl Rivers. See Luttrell, vi. 76, &c. He commanded a regiment under Lord Galway, and was taken prisoner at the Battle of Almanza.

283. 42. Lord Wharton was originally appointed Chief Justice in Eyre 1697 (see Macaulay, ii. 618, &c.).—Alex. Denton, M.P. for Buckingham 1708 and 1714, Judge of the Common Pleas 1722, d. 1740. Foss, Biog. jurid. 220.

284. 6. Philip Bisse, M.A. 1693, Bishop of St. David's 1710, of Hereford 1713; d. 1721. Ursula, Dowager Countess of Plymouth, second wife of Thomas Windsor-Hickman, Earl of Plymouth, (d. 1717 aged 70), is wrongly described by Luttrell as 'daughter to the Duke of Leeds.' (His mistake is explained by a reference to Lit. Anecd. vi. 225, as compared with i. 703.) Noble, on the other hand, marries the Bishop to the Dowager Duchess of Northumberland. But he is unfortunate with the Bisses; under T. Bisse (iii. 100) he hopelessly confuses HEARNE and Wood.

284. 26. Matthew Hutton, B.N.C., M.A. 1661. See Index to Tanner and Rawlinson MSS.

287. 10. An advertisement of races at Woodstock in 1688 is printed in Marshall's Early History of Woodstock Manor, 246.—Evelyn Pierrepont, Earl of Kingston, was created Marquis of Dorchester Dec. 23, 1706.

288. 22. Thos. Bennet was 'the prime mover of the famous dispute upon Phalaris.' (See Boyle, Bentley's Dissertations examined, 2 sqq.) For some remarks on Atterbury's sermon, which provoked a protest from Hoadly, see Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 182; also Lit. Anecd. iii. 709 sqq.

288. 26. John Hough, M.A. 1676, D.D. and Pres. of Magd. 1687, Bp. of Oxford 1690, of Lichfield 1699, of Worcester 1717, d. 1743, actat 93. His wife was Lettice, d. of Thomas Fisher, of Walsall, and widow of Sir Charles Lee.—Samuel Collins, B.A. 1671, Preb. of Lichfield 1705, d. 1710.—Bp. Parker was installed President by proxy Oct. 25, 1687, and d. March 20, 1688.

289. 8. Baron Spanheim died at London Oct. 28, 1710, aged 81, and was buried in Westminster Abbey Nov. 18 (Chester's Registers, 270).

289. 11. Wm. Moreton, M.A. 1666, chaplain to the Duke of Ormond, Dean of Ch. Ch. Dublin, 1677, Bp. of Kildare 1681, of Meath 1705 (Athenae, iv. 891; Cotton, Reg. Eccl. Hib. ii. 45). Dr. Wm. Sherendon (or Sheridan), Dean of Down 1669, Bp. of Kilmore 1682, deprived 1692 (Fasti, ii. 199, Cotton, op. cit. iii. 226). Dr. Robert Huntingdon (Prov. of Trin. Coll. Dublin, Bp. of Raphoe 1701, Cotton, op. cit. iii. 353) was offered, but refused to accept, his see. Dr. T. Smith published his Life and Letters in 1704. Dr. Hammond's best-known amanuensis was Wm. Fulman, and Moreton must have been, one would think, too young at Hammond's death, in 1660, to occupy that position. It is Fulman who is described in Fell's Life of Hammond, 90, as 'a very dextrous person.'

Page 289, Line 25. B. Haydocke, Fellow of New Coll., was for many years a physician at Salisbury. See Athenae, i. 678, and references.

289. 28. Joseph Barnes was the sole printer in Oxford between 1585, when with the help of the University and the Earl of Leicester he re-established printing there, and 1617, when he died. See Athenae, i. 687, &c., Fasti, i. 339, and Wood-Gutch, Annals, i. 625, ii. 223; and for portraits of Bodley, Granger, i. 322 sqq.

290. 8. Edm. Chishull, M.A. 1693, published in this year A Charge of Heresy maintained against Mr. Dodwell's late Epistolary Discourse. After exposing the French prophets (Calamy, ii 71 &c), he to a great extent deserted the field of theology for that of antiquities. See Index to Lit. Anecd.; and for Dodwell's piety, Brokesby's Life, 542 sq.

291. 8 sqq. Tho. Fletcher, M.A. 1692, published in the same year Poems on several Occasions.—Edw. Master, D.C.L. 1663.—Brome Whorwood was M.P. for Oxford in the two Parliaments of 1680, and in that of 1681. His son of the same name was drowned in his passage from Hampshire to the Isle of Wight in 1657. His wife is described by Wood (Life, p. 72) as 'the most loyal person to K. Ch. I in his miseries, of any woman in England.' He died 1684, and was buried in the church of Halton (al. Holton) near the grave of his father Sir Thomas Whorwood. (Fasti ii. 43) For Holton, see Skelton's Antiquities of Oxfordshire, Bullington H., p. 7; the manor-house remained in the possession of the Whorwoods till 1801.—Philip Ode, B.A. 1694, M.A. 1698.

291. 36. Anthony Blencow was Provost of Oriel 1572-1617; and John Rouse Bodley's Librarian 1620-1653 (Macray's Annals, 44 sq.).

291. 39. For Kuster's editions of Iamblichus (1707) and of Aristophanes (1712), see Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 192 sqq.

292. 8. On the scarcity of Professois' Lectures at this time, see Wordsworth, Scholae Academicæ, 10 sqq., &c, with Uffenbach's remarks, and Terræ Filius, No. 10; for 'Wall Lectures' Wordsworth, op. cit. 220. Wood in his Life of Fell (in Oxoniana, i. 62) speaks of 'Ordinaries (commonly called Wall Lectures), from the paucity of Auditors.' Halley was Savilian Professor of Astronomy 1704-1742.

292. 27. There was a Public Act on the Queen's visit to the University August 27, 1702, an account of which is given in Boyer's Reign of Q. Anne, 33.

293. 24. Under the date of Aug. 1, Luttrell has an entry (vi 72) which is scarcely marked by his usual accuracy:—'There is a dispute between the queen and the duke of Ormond . . . about chusing a vice chancellor in the room of Dr. Wm. Delaune, deceased, both claiming it as their right.' But cf. infra p. 302, l. 15 sqq.

294. 9. Richard Baxter d. Dec. 8, 1691.—Wm. Baxter, his nephew (1650-1723), master of a private boarding-school at Tottenham High Cross, and afterwards of the Mercers' School, published his Anacron 1695, and his Horace 1701. His Glossarium Antiquitatum Britannicarum (p. 296) appeared in 1719. See Anecdotes of Bowyer, 49.—John Flamsteed (1646-1719) was of Jesus Coll., Cam. He was appointed Astronomer Royal 1675, and was presented to the living of Burstow, Surrey, about 1684. Evelyn thought more highly of him: see Diary, Sept. 10, 1676. Many of his letters are printed in Rigaud's Letters of Scientific Men, and some uncomplimentary remarks of his on Hevelius of Danzig (1611-1687) at pp. 109, &c. of vol. ii. For his relations to North, see Life of the late Lord Keeper Guilford, 286 (ed. 1742).

294. 24. The reference is to Bacon's Essay 'Of Atheisme,' (1598); 'Lastly, this I dare affirme in knowledge of nature, that a little naturall philosophie: and the first entrance into it doth dispose the opinion to Atheisme. But on the other side much naturall philosophie, and wading deepe into it, will bring about mens mindes to religion: Wherefore Atheisme every way seems to be ioined and combined with folly and ignorance, s[o] that nothing can be more iustly allotted to be the saying of fooles then this, there is no God.'

295. 4. Cf. the remark on Allam's tutor in Athenæ, iv. 174; it was 'his misfortune to fall under the Tuition of a careless and crazed Person.'

295. 11. A sufficient analysis of Bathurst's will is given in Warton's Life, 191 sqq. It was proved June 16, 1704.

295. 29. This book was An Essay towards a paraphrase on the Psalms in English Verse, with a Paraphrase on Proverbs xxxi and Revelations vi.

295. 33. The Image of both Churches, by P. D. M. (Tornay 1623), is attributed by Halkett and Lang to Matthew Pattenson, or Patison, Doct. Med. According to Wood (Athenæ, iv. 139), he 'mostly collected it from the Answers of Anti-Cotton and Joh. Brierley Priest.'

295. 36. William Rogers is repeatedly mentioned in Wood's Life, where he is generally described as a barrister 'of Lincoln's Inn.' See ib. 273 for the erection of this statue (1686).

296. 17. The pamphlet referred to is probably Remarks on Dr. Wells his Letter to Mr. Peter Dowley. The names of all the publications (half-a-dozen or more) in this controversy will be found in the Bodleian Catalogue.

296. 29. For John Boston of St. Edmundsbury, see Nicolson's English Hist. Lib. 155, and the references there. His Speculum Coenobitarum was edited by Antony Hall in 1722: but the loss of his account of English writers (now known only by extracts in the Preface to Tanner's Bibliotheca Britannico-Hibernica) is most serious.

297. 5. Laurence Echard (c. 1671-1730), the author of the well-known History of England to the Revolution, published A Most compleat Compendium of Geography, General and Special in 1691, and The Roman History in 4 vols 1699-1706. Both met with considerable success at the time. Dr. William Howell's (d. 1683) Institution of General History appeared in 1661, in a Latin trans. 1671, and in two folio vols. in 1680. Three remaining parts were published in 1685-6. Gibbon speaks of him (ii. 321, ed. Smith) as 'that learned historian, who is not sufficiently known.' See Fasti, ii. 355.

297. 11. See Nicolson's Eng. Hist. Lib. 14; 'There is also a Fragment (of Seventeen Quarto Pages) Entitul'd, Antiquitates Insulae Vectae, in Bodley's Library, among the MSS. of Richard James.' For James' MSS in Bodley see Macray's Annals, 103 sq.

297. 30 sqq. For Parker 'the astrologer' and Defoe's Review, cf. Luttrell, vi. 98. There is an account of the Almanacs of the period in Ashton, Social Life in the Reign of Q. Anne, 308 sqq.—Lord Chief Justice Holt d. March 5, 1710. See Foss, 351 sqq.—Lydiat is said to have been released from prison by the contributions of Sir W. Boswell, Ussher, Laud and others (Aikin's Lives of Selden and Ussher, 405). Wood adds Dr. Robert Pink, Warden of New Coll., to the list of his benefactors (Athenae, iii. 186).—Potter's ed. of Clemens Alexandrinus did not appear till 1715.

298. 2 sqq. There is some account of Warfield in Lysons' Berkshire, 410.—Dr. Brooklesby's book is now in the Bodleian (5. A. 101).—For Stephen Penton, see Athenae, iv. 550.

For this emendation (accepted by Porson), see Jebb's Life, 131.

The remark in l. 48 (see also p. 68, l. 26) enables us to add another name to the list, viz. that of Peter Foulkes (Ch. Ch., M.A. 1701) for 1705.

303. 30. According to Ebert (i. 321), Victorius' ed. of Livy (which came out at Venice in 4 vols., 1537-4-5-6) is 'fine and sought after, but not scarce.' Robert Stephens' ed. of 1538-9 is a reprint of it.

He does not seem to have been one of Fell's executors. See Seventh Report of Hist. MSS. Comm. 692.

306. 30. Hearne was right in his conjecture as to the identity of C. Veratius Phil-ellen: see Monk's Life of Bentley, i. 273. Bentley borrowed from this nom de guerre the idea of that of 'Phileleutherus Lipsiensis,' under which his Emendationes in Menandri et Philemonis Reliquias was published.

(1582-1664), collector of the imposts on strangers in the Port of London; and was imprisoned in Ely House for his loyalty in the time of Charles I. At the end of Walton's Life of Hooker is printed the epitaph 'long since presented to the world, in memory of Mr. Hooker, by Sir William Cooper, who also built him a fair monument in Borne Church, and acknowledges him to have been his spiritual father.'

310. 22. Sir Charles Hedges had been Secretary of State since Nov. 5, 1700. He afterwards became Judge of the Prerogative Court, and d. 1714.—Lord Sunderland was son-in-law of the Duke of Marlborough, who had long urged his appointment on the Queen. 311. 40. Basil Kennett, M.A. 1696, was, for some time after his arrival at Leghorn, in considerable danger from the Inquisition. His Romae Antiquae Notitia appeared in 1696, and An Essay towards a Paraphrase on the Psalms, in Verse, in 1706.

315. 3 sqq. Dr. Mander was V.C. 1701-2, and Dr. De Laune 1702-6. The amount of the latter's defalcations is said to have been upwards of 3000*l.*; see Terrae Filius, No. 4, and Ayliffe's Antient and present State of the University of Oxford, i. 216. The latter remarks: 'There were some laudable efforts made to recover part of this sum in the Vice-Chancellorship of Dr. Lancaster by Virtue of a Sequestration; but his honest endeavours have since been rendered vain and fruitless, by the base Spirit of one of his Successors.' Dr. De Laune paid 'near 300*l.* in full discharge of all demands' in 1719.

315. 26. Cuthbert Chambers, M.A. 1702.

316. 7 sqq. Tho. Pearson, M.A. 1695, Principal of Edmund Hall 1707-1722.—Tho. Hind or Hine, M.A. 1703. He likewise published a sermon in 1717.

He translated various works of Aristotle, and published an Expositio Ethicorum Aristotelis. (Encycl. Brit. art. 'Argyropylus.') See also Greswell, Memoirs of Angelus Politianus &c., ii pp. 81 sq. Some Greek epigrams addressed to him by Politian were printed in Hody's De Graecis illustribus Linguae graecae literarumque humaniorum instauratoribus.

317. 40 The best answer to this accusation is contained in a letter among the Ballard MSS. (xii. 23) Hickes writes to Charlett, October 17, 1688: 'I hope by this time the danger of the invasion is over, especially if our fleet be gon out, as I hear it is. This place [Worcester] affords no newes, but that there is some danger of being distinguished by names, and parties again, w^{ch} God prevent, and give us all one heart to do our duty, and stick to our principles of loyalty in the strictest manner, as I hope, we of the ch. of Eng. shall. . . Pray let me know, if the London-Cleigy do not in this juncture unanimously preach up Loyalty.'

318. 13. Dr. Hugh Todd (1658-1728), Preb. of Carlisle 1685, whose dispute with Bp. Nicolson is set forth in the Letters of that prelate, left in MS Notitia Ecclesiae Cathedralis Carlholensis, now in the Lambeth Library, and a History of the Diocese of Carlisle. See Athenae, iv. 535.

318. 22. Hody, whose premature death was a loss to scholarship, was only 47 years of age, and had been professor of Greek since 1699. Like Bentley, he was for some time Stillington's chaplain. His controversy with Dodwell, and his share in the Convocation dispute, are well known. He became Archdeacon of Oxford in 1704. His work De Graecis illustribus was published posthumously in 1742. See Jebb's Bentley, xi sqq.; Lathbury's Nonjurors, 138 sqq.; Birch's Life of Tillotson, 375 sq.; Wood-Gutch, Colleges and Halls, 595. Noble (ii. 117) gives the following verses written on Hody as a poet: 'Of old, we read, there was nobody | Made verses like to Humphry Hody; | But now, each chandler knows full well | That Lloyd and Gardiner bear the bell.'—Hearne has written carmina; but? carmine.

319. 1. On Fleetwood Sheppard, see Athenae, iv. 67; Index to Luttrell; Tanner MSS. 466. 62. He was one of Charles II's boon companions, but was unacceptable to his successor. 323. 23. For Abraham Woodhead, see Athenae, iii. 1157.

324. 9. For Francis Lee, D.M., author of the Life of Kettlewell, Apoleipomena, &c., see Secretan's Life of Nelson, 69–71, where there is a mention of Mrs. Lead. Lee recanted his errors in his History of Montanism (1709). I did not notice in time that this letter by a slip of the pen was wrongly dated, and is consequently misplaced.

324. 10. W. Fulman (1632–1688; Athenae, iv. 239) was an antiquary of some distinction, and his collections are now in the Library of C.C.C. He was Hammond's amanuensis and the editor of his Works, and a suspicion that he may have been the author of the Whole Duty has probably occurred to every one who has made a careful study of the subject. There is, however, no evidence whatever to connect him with it.

324. 12. As to the Bill for the further Security of the Church of England upon the Union with Scotland, cf Boyer, 277 sq.; Luttrell, vi. 133 sqq., Life of Archbp. Sharp, i. 390 sqq.; a proposal to expressly insert the Test Act as well as the Act of Uniformity was rejected in the Lords by some 30 votes, and in the Commons by 48.

325. 7. Milles's work, especially his insistence upon the misprint of 'Austin' for 'Justin,' is unfavourably criticised in Brokesby's Life of Dodwell, 529.

325. 42. Dr. Humfrey Humphries was Bp. of Hereford 1701–1710: Athenae, iv. 896. There are several publications on the subject of St. Wulfred's Well, at Holywell, Flintshire. Bp. Fleetwood published The Life and Miracles of St. Wenefrede, 1713; and I have seen a notice of a broadsheet, containing a Historical Description of the well. James II was surprised that Dr. Plot had never visited it (Life of Wood, 281).

326. 16. Anderdon, in his Life of Ken (p. 418, ed. 1; ii. 656 sqq., ed. 2), denies that the Letter to the author of a sermon entitled, 'a Sermon preached at the Funeral of her late Majesty, Q. Mary,' afterwards reprinted under the title of A Letter from a Prelate to a Prelate, is justly attributed to Bp. Ken. The evidence of Dodwell, however (cf. p. 324, l. 5), seems to be conclusive as to Ken's authorship. See Academy, March 14, 1885.

327. 6. Phineas Bury was Proctor 1665.

329. 18 A complete list of Dodwell's publications is given by Hearne in the Introduction to Henrici Dodwelli de Parma Equestri Dissertatione, xiii-xxvii. It extends to 57 numbers. An abstract of the more important of them is given by Brokesby in his Life of Dodwell, to which it may be suspected that most readers at the present day are indebted for their knowledge of Dodwell's views.

330. 2. John Richardson does not appear in the list of incumbents of Penwortham (Baines' History of the County of Lancaster, 1870, ii 151 sqq.). John Fleetwood, by a will made in 1657, left an endowment of 40*l* per annum for 'a good, able, and sufficient preacher.'

330. 28. Hearne's remarks on this MS. are superseded by Mr. Macray's description with references, in Annals of the Bodleian, 20.
